That's a wrong, it's very wrong misinterpretation. When the aya says (he recites the verse of the Qur'an), Allah first say bi am walikum, with your what? With your wealth, not first with your life. What does that means? It comes in phases, it's just like a doctor that diagnose a patient, the first result is it operation? No, that's the last resort. So, that's how Jihad is in Islam. The jihad, physical jihad in Islam that is how it is, just the last resort, we have not, up till now, we have not gone to that. When the prophet (SAW) brought Islam for us, he teaches for good 13 years about Iman not about jihad. So, why can't we take a leaf, borrow a leaf from there. The first thing, take a leaf from what prophet has done in those times. Jihad if you did not participate in physical jihad, who is that leader that command us to go to jihad? Who says it is now that we do jihad that type of the jihad they are doing now? Who is our leader that commands us because we have to have a leader in jihad? And all those people that they are talking about jihad, jihad, jihad, jihad, have they finish jihad inside their own room, at all, their neighborhood, at all? So, if really we really want jihad, it's not like this. Every Muslims must to believe there is jihad in Islam, but what is the meaning of jihad in Islam? I said it the other time, the meaning of jihad is to strive in the way of Allah. You can strive the first, how you strive is by your money, if you see somebody that is at least you wanted to help him, if you help him is jihad. But we don't know where they got their meaning from. Physical jihad is different from what they are doing. It is different to what they are doing to my own understanding. So, I don't believe with them if we did not participate in that, I should go and bring gun shooting people. What has it done to me? There is laid down procedures for jihad, for that type of jihad. The jihad at the market, have you finished it? Have you finish it, cleaning ourselves, absorbing ourselves from the bad? Has our iman stand well? Are we not cheating ourselves? And you are talking about physical jihad to kill somebody. You have not really come down by yourself, to really give yourself a very good account of yourself and you are talking about jihad. So, to me it is their own perspective of jihad not generalism of Islamic jihad.

KD7 [5196-5857]

Hmmm I do not know of this scholar, but his interpretation if I am to say, I will say, I can say he is wrong. Wrong in the sense that even the time of the prophet when they suffered so much persecution from the non-Muslims, they resolved, they took up arms as a last resort and there were conditions for taking up those arms that when the non-Muslims stopped persecuting them, they stopped. They will stop their own eh they will stop the war. But today, we translate jihad. Jihad means so many things, but we translated as killing another as if the blood of the blood of someone else only thing that will make God look at you with rahama. That is very wrong.

KD8 [14220-14831]

Well, That is his way of interpreting Islam that in terms of may be real jihad going to fight. There were certain conditions that if they are met, then jihad becomes compulsory upon the Muslims, but as at now I don't think these conditions are there for us to call for Muslims to embark on jihad. So, I don't believe that Muslims are fit for physical jihad because we need to see the conditions. What are those conditions that will necessitate jihad, are they around, I mean are they there? If they are there then we now see how does Islam say we are supposed to carry out the jihad. So I don't agree with him.

KD9 [6993-7647]

Muslims are expected to be ready for jihad at anytime in their lives. That is what makes you a Muslim in the first place, but you are supposed to know what exactly jihad is. How jihad is supposed to be. Jihad cannot be without a Muslim leader. You cannot just wake up today and say you want to fight jihad and you start shouting on the street carrying weapons. There are steps in Islam for whatever you want to do and peace comes under worship. So whatever you want to do as a worship in Islam, there are steps to it. If you don't follow the steps of course you are derailing, you are actually amassing sin and going against the rulings of Allah (SBUH).

KD10 [3969-4404]

Every Muslim should have it at the back of the mind that he's going to fight jihad, if jihad comes, jihad, real jihad. Jihad that is in accordance with the sharia, jihad that, you know, ah that the conditions for performing jihad or the conditions that Ulama explained are there. Every Muslims should have it at the back of their mind that when jihad comes, the true jihad, he's going to participate in this jihad. That is the truth.

KD11 [8477-9379]

Ah when he talks about physically fighting I mean taking up arms against whom and under which circumstance? That is what ah that is the fundamental thing to look at, but if he's talking of jihad in thy real sense of jihad, every Muslim is enjoined to be a jihadist. When I say jihadist I didn't mean these kind of Al Qaeda or Boko Haram or ISIS or any other taking up arms against a state. There are so many ways in which you can lay out your grievances, but jihad itself means striving in the cause of Allah. Whatever effort you make, whatever effort positive you make in striving in the cause of Allah is regarded as jihad not necessarily taking up arms. I don't think this is, the error of ah there is no caliphate, we don't have any, when we don't have caliphate, no Muslim leadership, no caliphate, no state then why would you talk of raising jihad, which army and under which command? You know.

KD12 [7984-9182]

Ah in fact as you have said in the other examples, in the other question in the first that see we have militants see, where it is accepted to fight physically is where every steps have been taking to resolve problems that eh intruders or foreigners impose on Muslims where every effort has been searched, you see, where gatherings, consultations, meeting have been done that this one is not fit in our society in Islamic society and then if they revolt like now we know in the northern states here unlike in the south see, not every area you say you are going to establish alcoholic company, if government say that yes they have the land they want to do it compulsorily within the Muslim circles we expect that people will revolt by revolting is that they will come out with every instrument they have that in such an environment they are, they don't want it and then it shouldn't be so. So that is where the Muslims have to revolt, but before it is done you know that Mallams, the communities will gather, will discuss with the government establishment or the people around, if at all it is private establishment too, you know, all steps might have been taken before physical ah ah antagonism.

KD13 [2743-2922]

You see all Muslims must fight for Islam but depending on the nature of the fight because jihad in its own term if expatiated I think books will not contain the meaning of jihad.

KD14 [3352-3594]

Yes, the saying that all true Muslims must physical fight for Islam as that is true jihad yes it is true, but there are limits and when to fight for jihad. I could say at this era that we are now there is no reason for us to fight for jihad.

KD15 [3966-5293]

Ahm you see there is one particular stuff we have to know, you see jihad simply means fight for Allah's cause, it maybe with your heart, intention or feelings, it maybe with hand that is weapon and it maybe with the tongue that is true speech in the cause of God. So you mustn't fight as in jihad simply means you can do jihad, you can go for jihad through speech maybe by convincing people that what they are doing is not proper is not right you mustn't take a weapon to kill. In Islam it is not allowed to just go and kill, Islamically it is not allowed, even back in the days of the coming of Islam, all these our scholar they don't believe in jihad, but later on when they know the reward for jihad which is being said by God that if they can go for jihad or they fight in the cause of Allah there is a big reward waiting for them and anybody that shed his blood through jihad or whatever, I think there is a great reward for him. But in our own generation now I don't think fighting with weapon or any sort of activity is jihad because they fight for their own self interest. Jihad in our own generation now I think is through preaching or through speech or through good doing I think all those one are also jihad. So you mustn't kill before you can say you are going for jihad or whatever. So I don't think it is okay .

KD16 [2980-3310]

Actually I disagree. A Muslims is expected to be tolerant to another person even at the time of the prophet, he lived with non-Muslims and lived with them peacefully and going by the meaning of Islam, it means peace. So we have to make peace between ourselves and our lord then peace between us and the other creatures of Allah.

KD17 [7690-8949]

I don't agree with that statement because what of, the word jihad, what does it mean? It means to struggle, if you are struggling to survive, struggling for your livelihood, its part of jihad, you understand. If your are praying, you are waking up in the night going to the mosque, receiving call of prayer, it is part of struggling it is jihad also. There are statements of scholars that the greatest jihad is to fight your own soul you understand, to struggle to fight against the evil inside you, of course why will you take arm to fight people when other people are not taking arms against you why? Where is it said so that you should take arms and fight against people that that's jihad, no, no, no. Check the way Islam was spread. Check the way people get to know about Islam, go to the western countries, go to the US, go to the London, they are not raising arms there and people are accepting Islam in large amount. So why are you telling me that jihad means to raise arms against people and that is the true means of jihad. Does it mean that those people accepting Islam, those people preaching Islam there in the western countries, are they not doing jihad? Are they not struggling for the religion? That statement is false as far as am concerned.

KD18 [5067-5571]

Yes, the issue of jihad, jihad is not made for fighting by taking the machete and a gun for fighting is like trying to make effort and a striving way, just make an effort of promoting Islam and is the reward, so the issue of jihad I think some people misunderstand the jihad, so all what they have been saying that jihad is for fighting, is not just for fighting is like when you are making an effort or you are striving towards, to promote Islam and to have a reward, that is what I understand by that.

KD19 [6848-7858]

No. I don't believe that if you fight you are engaging in jihad. Jihad is a more broader term, jihad means striving in the way of Allah, striving in the way of Allah. So if I am doing something that will help promote the course of religion and I am doing it purposely for Allah, I am doing jihad. Take for example, I am posted to a new society, to work and I am rich enough, I have no I have no wife, no children, and I see some little orphans there and my income can take care of them and I decide to take care of them for the love of Allah, I am doing jihad. So jihad does not necessarily mean you must take a sword and fight in the name of religion, whatever thing you do in the name of religion, even the simplest thing you are walking on the street you see something that can harm the society you remove it, you are doing jihad. Even eh if you if you see something bad you cannot remove it with your hand, you can desist it from your mind you are doing jihad, so jihad doesn't necessarily mean fighting.

KD20 [3515-3935]

I think when we talk about this jihad, jihad is not about fighting, fighting, so jihad means many things although fighting is among of it even though when our prophet of Islam was alive, he was, he was, he did a lot of jihad without fighting by educating people by trying to mobilise people to work through the pathy of eh eh the to work I mean the way Allah has ah has eh stated in the Qur'an the way we should do, Yes.

KD21 [3672-4030]

I do I disagree with him, I think am all Islamic laws, sayings and teachings should be drawn from the prophet, and then right from onset, jihad from one's self, jihad for the sake of Allah which you have to put up arms, so if he had decided to say jihad bin nafs is excluded, I think he has gone contrary to the teachings of the prophet, peace be upon him.

KD23 [4388-4672]

Yes, ah I disagree with this perception because ah in the in the case of jihad, so it is not every Muslim that is that will be physically fit to fight for Islam, so maybe ah the time of the jihad some will be ah some will be, some will find himself not physically fit for that cause.

KD24 [13911-16722]

This saying or talk is right only that we need to make this elaborate so that people will understand what he is trying to say. The term jihad doesn't mean you should carry gun or knife to go and attack somebody likewise it doesn't mean taking this arm is just the way the Muslims can defeat or regain the strength of their religion, no. Jihad comprises of various parts of the Islamic activities. If you can't fight, but you have brain that can consume knowledge, that part is your part, then go and do the jihad there, go and acquire knowledge, teach the followers, teach the Islamic umma that thing that you are doing is a jihad. If you are for example, have wealth you are a rich person, but you don't have knowledge, you don't have, you can't fight then use your wealth to do the jihad. That is why in the Qur'an Allah is saying (recites in Arabic) you should fight because of Allah with you wealth, with your selves, the taught is right only that we need to understand what he is trying to say, yes if that should be the case then each and every Muslim should be a mujahid, but which type? It is based on his own structure and the measure which Allah has created him. Another thing is eh this jihad as far as we are now concerned, we are in a peace situation now, who will you fight with if you carry knife or gun? Who will you fight? It means the jihad even it has time, it is when someone attack you, you have to retreat one. Secondly, if someone is stopping you from practicing your religion and ah the eh human rights says you should allow each and every citizen to do what he think he can do, so far he did not come into your environment, he did not touch you, he did not touch your own religion, you are free to allow him to do what he wants, but in that situation you said, no, I will not do my own but you, you are to do your own, see I have to tell him, no. The way you are doing your own, you are a human, I am also a human, I did not touch you, don't touch me. Do your own and I will do my own. Then if it persist, I have to report myself to my junior senior ones, my preachers, my teachers, my ulama, if they heard my crying actually they will take the action on their hands because they can do what I can't do, maybe if I talk, definitely they will resolve the issue, then see things are being done, but if they refuse, they talk to this particular group that your people are stopping our people from practicing their own religion and they did not enter into their environment, they did not push them or what they did not do anything, but why are you doing such things? They said yes, do what you think you can do, we report to the government, government did not take up action, then next we talk to them that look we are human beings, we did into touch you, you are not supposed to touch us.

I will disagree with him because first and foremost the prophet told, even the Qur'an, Allah told us in the Qur'an about you know the sending, about the coming of our last prophet (SAW), but Allah has not sent him to, Allah has not sent him to fight, not just to continue fighting people, but Allah said we have sent him a prophet of mercy for the generality of humanity (he recites in Arabic) we have not sent you oh Muhammad except to the whole universe as a source of mercy, so when we talk of mercy, nothing in terms of militancy, insurgency or terrorism should set in, so by somebody making such a statement is in other words inviting trouble and ah mayhem or quagmire, he is inviting the youthful Muslims instead of encouraging them to learn more about Islam he is now drawing their attention to forget about learning let them come and follow him so that they go and fight people that is what that statement is saying because he is saying physical, physical really it means coming out, using your power, using your force anyhow through any means, but Islam has limits, Islam has stages, Islam has classes, we have to know what are those classes, we have to know what are those stages, even when it comes to true jihad how are we expected to conduct it? Should we conduct it just following our own wishful idea and you know wishful desires or based on the teachings of the Qur'an and ah the you know demonstration of the prophet (SAW). We have to follow the Qur'an and the Sunna, you understand, so ah really ah I don't buy that idea. That idea is very, very, it's jeopardizing so to speak, I mean it's obnoxious, its perilous, its dangerous, it can demand the whole country, not even the country, it can put the world at large into you know mayhem and conflict, violence, continuous killings of innocent you know, people because by you saying that ah ah Muslim is not really a Muslim until he comes out physically and fight for Islam and then, tell me, bring ah there's no single verse of the Qur'an that en that backs that, no a single tradition of prophet (SAW) that backs that. The prophet (SAW) said you know, I am a source of mercy unto humanity just as Allah had confirmed in the Qur'an, so since the prophet is the source of mercy unto, I mean look at Islam from the time and the history of Islam, from the time of prophet (SAW). You find out that right from Mecca to the time the prophet migrated to Medina, there was most if not all almost all the battles that the prophet waged, were all defensive not offensive, were all defensive not offensive, so somebody that is engaging in defensive attack is what, is not to be blamed because it is the offensive party that came to, you know, harm him and you know God said he should not just fold his arms and continue looking at that person to harm you, no. You should try to protect yourself by getting something to protect yourself, you understand. So, therefore, we can see that ah ah Islam is not just eh a religion that is built on, you know, killing people, insurgency ah you know what have you no, no, no, it is a religion that is built on peaceful coexistence because had Allah wished he would have created the whole world as Muslims and vice versa, but Allah did not wish for the whole world to be Muslims, so we that are Muslims should thank him and continue to play our own part eh respecting other people's religion, let them practice their own religion, but ours is ours there's is there's just as the Qur'an says lakum dinakum waliyya din your din is yours and my din is mine, your religion is yours and my religion is mine, there should be no, there shouldn't be any poke nosing or intruding into other religions that you are not part and parcel of, if we do that I think there will be no any, you know, problem as such as it is, you know, eh contemporarily happening now.

KD26 [5388-5703]

I don't agree with him because I believe jihad doesn't really have to do with physical combat. It is a strive to achieve an objective and there are different types of jihad. Da'wa is a very, very effective way of jihad and that is jihad of the tongue, so we don't really need to use physical fight to achieve this.

KD27 [4713-4912]

Well I feel that the first jihad and the greatest jihad is jihadin nafs, and that is the greatest. And once you have done that, you are able to conquer yourself, then every other thing will follow.

KD28 [7904-8760]

Well I don't agree with that view saying that a true Muslim must fight a true jihad. When you talk of jihad, jihad is fought in many ways. You fight jihad with your own self, we fight jihad with your resources, which you can use to propagate Islam. It doesn't mean when you take bow or you take gun and you go that is the only way of fighting jihad. You know what we understand by jihad is war and which Islam is not. According to al-Qur'an Karim which stated (he recites the verse in Arabic) it doesn't mean, you have to bring people to Islam with wisdom and you know speeches which encourage and attract people to Islam. It is not taking sword or bow and arrow that you must Islamize, it is not like that. Islam doesn't welcome that one because a true Muslim, they say the blood of your neighbor is forbidden for you to shed blood. Then why shed blood?

KD29 [4193-4529]

I disagree with the issue of ah involving in fighting with the view that you are under, you are undertaking jihad. Jihad does not mean physical fighting, you will adopt a means whereby you will convince a non-believer through preaching, but not physical fighting. So a means of convincing a non-believer through militancy is not jihad.

KD30 [6123-6843]

Ah I don't understand what he means by physical fight ahm it might be you see physically it might be physical confrontation where one can sit someone down and discuss intellectually and be able to convince him into and invite him into the religion. I think that one too can be seen as physical, but of course now we are in ah in the what do we call this nowadays the IT world where the internet generation where we have the internet, where we have the social media where you can be able to meet people and of course you can be able to carry out jihad even at the social media were you can be able to invite or show someone the beauty of the Islam itself and be able to invite him to take Islam ah I think I will defer.

Ah actually eh I'm not saying he's wrong completely, but that is not true Islam. Islam believes in dialogue, it believes Islam teaches us the jihad is not carried out just like that. You have to, there must be dialogue and when there is resistance to that dialogue and the resistance is obvious that's when it is permitted to use other methods in Islam, but is not that just found some people and say no that's not how it's done in Islam that's all I have, I quite disagree with it.

KD32 [5264-6233]

Eh jihad from Islamic understanding, just look at the Arabic word its meaning it does not mean fight, so there is media, it is media that always been translate, mistranslating jihad as fighting. So jihad means to strive in the cause of Allah. When you strive, even if you strive in yourself, you should pave your wealth to build a mosque to do something is jihad. Jihad does not necessary mean to fight. Fighting in Arabic is qatil that is the fighting the Arabic terms for the word war of fighting is qatil not jihad, so jihad means to strive in the cause of Allah, so to totally perform any sacrifice for Allah is jihad not only, be it your wealth, yourself, there is self jihad, you can do jihad with your wealth, you can do jihad with your body, anything, but jihad does not mean necessarily to fight, so this is a very misunderstanding by the media of misinterpretation of what the jihad means and they are attaching it to portray a very negative image of Islam.

KD33 [4843-4983]

I actually personally I didn't agree with him because jihad doesn't mean physically fighting for Islamic state, so I don't agree with that.

KD34 [6107-6805]

I totally disagree because the word jihad is one of the most conflict words in Islam today because the way people define jihad even among the Muslims, you see there is contradiction in defining jihad. The word jihad means struggle, but a lot of people are taking it no jihad is to take arms against non-Muslims, a jihad is a war against non-Muslims or against some that are even called Muslims but they are not following the true teachings of Islam. So if you go against them, if you take arms against them, you call it jihad. So that word create lot of confusion even if you met a non-Muslim, he wants to criticize Islam, he use the word jihad, but it didn't bring out the true meaning of jihad.

KD35 [6623-8089]

I disagree with him. Whenever you see prophet Muhammad (SAW) fought he must be touched or stop from practicing his own religion then Allah will tell you fight them. Muhammad (SAW) does not fight willingly, does not fight because he is biased because he doesn't want to see Christians, no. He preaches, both once he say he cannot preach, he cannot practice his own religion, then there must be fight, but there is, anything order than this prophet Muhammad does not fight, does not fight and jihad does not mean only fighting, jihad means trying to do things the way they are, trying to practice Islam they it is that is jihad, trying to do your personal job the way you have been told to do it that is jihad, bringing up your family properly that is another jihad, driving your car the way it should be done is another jihad, is not necessary fighting other people that is jihad. If you want to fight anybody, let him come your way and warn him once, warn him twice, warn him then the third time then if he is an individual you report him to the police or you take him to the court or you, if there is self defense then you fight him, but not necessary because simply that one is a Christian or Jew or whatever then you fight, no, only when they fight you then you fight back, only when they fight you, you fight back that is jihad, properly jihad, if you fight a long fighting God does not mercy have mercy on you, does not reward you, he doesn't know about you.

KN1 [13337-15966]

If Maududi stated that and am stating that as a condition if he stated that, I disagree with him, because going to jihad to the root of the word jihad it means struggle in Arabic. The meaning of the word jihad, the root of it, it means struggle. It may struggle on your farm, struggle in your shop, it may take any meaning as per jihad, one. Two, concerning physical jihad I will take you back to the time of our blessed prophet Muhammad (SAW), how it started, how it was done. Particularly, before you do any jihad in Islam you have to first do it on yourself that is purify yourself to have a good stand, to be pious, because particularly there was a time that the holy prophet (SAW) has led jihad and they were coming back with his companions, he told them point blank we are coming from the lower jihad and we are going for the bigger one, this is a small jihad. So there is a big one and they say after all this struggle, after the hardship ya rasulillah which one is the big jihad, he said that of the heart, you have to fight your heart to do the right thing, one. Two, now to say that you need to do jihad physically, it doesn't make sense because, one it is a condition that generally you have to fight physically, condition may not warrant for that one because one the holy prophet (SAW) in the first place that he engaged himself into physical struggle with the non-Muslims was in the battle of Badr, and that particular battle of Badr was to protect himself because the non-Muslims were matching on him and he don't have an option but to come out and meet them at a particular well called Badr that is how it started that is the first jihad in Islam, to defend self, one. Two, if you say that somebody must to engage in physical battle, now the fundamental question is even among non-Muslims, now as a Muslims if I stand up now and say I become a guarantor for a non-Muslim it means nobody can touch him, nobody can do anything to him, and there are non-Muslims that are called the kufir of Amana, there is amana in between that whenever they are fighting against their aggressors the Muslims will help them they are under the protection of the Muslims, that kind of arrangement. So now if you have that kind of arrangement or a situation does not warrant, how should you go into jihad? That is why am saying that jihad is a very vast topic, and you cannot do it justice in one word to say that every Muslim must engage into physical jihad and so if he mentioned that one I think he must first state the condition that are needed before jihad, there is need for that one. So, but I said if, because I have not read it.

KN2 [9909-10538]

Yes with a condition. All true Muslims must be ready for jihad when the condition becomes necessary. If the condition becomes necessary then all true Muslims should be prepared for jihad. One of the conditions is if Muslims are being compelled in their own land that they should not exercise their Islamic rights. For example if they are denied to go to the mosque, if they are denied to call for prayer, if their women are denied wearing hijab or if women are being molested for wearing hijab, things like that.

Then it means there is a serious threat to their existence. This is one of the examples of the conditions I can give

KN3 [26460-27421]

Jihad is defensive not offensive. Jihad right from the beginning was defensive not offensive. The Muslims did not deliberately go to war against non-Muslims. They tried to defend themselves or the non-Muslims were preparing to come attack them or they came to attack them or they actually attacked them and they defended themselves that was the jihad. Of course I must say in recent years we misunderstood the jihad especially in the north after the jihad of Shehu Usman Danfodio some of our Muslim emirs just went to non-Muslims part of the country the pagan areas and started killing people that is not the way to do it that is not. Shehu Usman Danfodio made it quite clear that go to those areas where there is Islam already, but they have corrupted it and try to remove the corruption and reform it. Where there is no Islam take the message to that area the way Allah says (he quotes the verse of the Qur'an) with wisdom, tact, diplomacy and good speech.

KN3 [16970-26250]

The holy prophet once said, we are told, that at the end of the holy wars, he said now we have finished the small wars, the small jihad now will get into the greater or bigger jihad. They asked him is there anything bigger or greater the jihad where people have lost their lives? He said yes the jihad of the mind. The jihad of the mind is peaceful struggle isn't it? It is not violent, it is not bloody. So when people say that they are right. Peaceful jihad is what we now need because Islam came with its own ideas. Different religions came with different ideas relevant or appropriate to their time in order to convince the people that there is one true God. Take for example Sa idina Nuh alaihi salat wa salam was the first messenger of God. He was the first prophet that preached to the people for 950 years he was preaching, but he didn't get so many people and God instructed him to build a ship or a boat and carry the believers and other creatures. He the almighty God saved those believers with Prophet Noah alaihi salat wa salam, and destroyed those unbelievers in that flood, the great flood. Now people of anabi Nuhu worshipped the waters, the seas. It was the sea, the water that either impressed them or threatened them or which the feared so much, Allah showed them that he was the master of the waters. He could destroy whom he wanted to with water; he could save anybody he wanted to save with the same water. That was the language they could understand at that time. Annabi Ibrahim alaihi salat wa salam, his people were worshipping fire and they collected wood lit fire and it became so hot. They couldn't even come near it. They had to stand far away from the fire and put the holy prophet of Allah alaihi salat wa salam into a sling and threw him into the fire, into the middle of the fire. God showed them that he is the master of the fire. He made the fire. He could make it hot. He could make it cool. So Allah ordered the fire to be cool for his servant, for his prophet. Sa'idina Ibrahim alaihi salat wa salam was in the middle of the fire as if he was in an air conditioned room. That was the language they could understand. They worshipped the fire because they thought the fire was very strong and the most important and Allah showed them he was greater and more important than the fire. That was the language they could understand. When Sa'idina Musa came alaihi salat wa salam, the Egyptians were magicians. They could throw a rope and the rope will turn into a serpent, into a snake. Allah gave prophet Musa the rod, the stick. Whenever he threw anything or the rope and it turned into a serpent, a snake he will throw his stick and the stick will become even a bigger snake and swallowed their snake and he will take his stick and hold it. It did not become bigger because it swallowed the snakes. And he would strike water, he will strike a mountain and streams will gush out. He will hit the water it will part and there will be a way for him. He could stir the water with his stick and it will turn into blood. If they were practicing any magic could any magic be greater than this? That was the language they could understand. Sa'idina Isah alaihi salat wa salam found his people as medicine men, they were curing people. He was given the power to cure. He could even raise the dead, kum bi idh ni llah and the dead will come to life. He wiped a blind man's face he will see. He wiped a lame person he will get up and walk. A leper will have his fingers back him...them. Now is there any greater medicine than that? Now then, when the holy prophet (SAW) came all these things that happened in the past were no longer relevant. They will not impress people today. If it is water we have ships we have even submarines that will go under the water and spend months and people are there living. So water is no longer anything that we fear. Will you fear water now? If it is fire which the people of Sa'idina Ibrahim feared, it is no longer something to fear for fire can give us water-ice. Fire can give us heat. Fire can boil water. The same fire can make ice for us. So fire will no longer impress us. If it is magic, is there any magic greater than the television or even the cellular? You can talk to somebody in America; you can even see his picture in your phone and talk to him. Or the television, Obama will be speaking now and if you switch the telephone you will see him. It is Obama talking. Is there any magic bigger? Now then today we have that greater than the magic of the people of Moses. Medicine: the most complicated part of a man is the brain. Today you can break open a head and work on the brain. And they will put the skull back, stitch it and he will heal and get back and work normally. So all these things will not be impressive or would not impress man today. What is it that will impress man today? When the holy prophet came those things were not relevant or even if they were they will not impress you to the point that they will start thinking or worshipping them. No. What has the Qur'an come with? The Qur'an came with logic, science, reason and for all times this will remain relevant. Logic, science, reason. The Qur'an tells you about space exploration (quotes a Qur'anic verse). Allah is saying oh ye people and jin you cannot explore the universe if you can try it. You can only do it with the permission of God. If Allah gives you the permission, the knowledge or whatever it is if he agrees you can do it. And the next verse even if you do explore it you will come across a layer of fire or heat which can only be penetrated through by a copper. Only copper can go through it without melting. That is what the Qur'an is saying. Today if you are sending any satellite to explore the universe you put it in a cassette of copper and there is what is called ozone layer, it has to pass through that ozone layer and after passing through it the satellite will come out of the cassette and start exploring the universe. So all these things are there and when you see what the Qur'an says about the conception and the birth of a child, it agrees exactly with what science is saying. There is one thing I use to be doubtful about but now I am no longer doubtful. It says if a woman leaves her husband for five and two and three months they have not met, she has not married and she got a child that child belongs to her former husband. In the beginning I said no one can convince me to accept that child. Ah five years? Now science has proved now that conception can remain with a woman for that period of time and the woman could give birth. So it might be that it is the previous husband, the former husband's child that became dormant in her and now came out. So everything that you see, computer Islam has talked about computer. For example Bisimillahi arrahamani arrahim is another thing. There are 19 letters (recites them in Arabic) nineteen. Allah says (recites a verse of the Qur'an in Arabic) over it is nineteen, nineteen letters. But what does that mean. The holy Qur'an goes further to say we have put this nineteen in order that you might use it to prove your case. You may use it to establish the facts of Islam or Qur'an. You can use it against unbelievers. What does that mean? We have now come to realize that all the verses of the holy Qur'an start with bismillahi arrahamani arrahim except suratul Tauba. And even suratul Tauba can have its bismillah in this sura (he recites a Qur'anic verse). Now if you add up these suras in the holy Qur'an and you divide them by 19 nothing will be left. There are abbreviated words about 19 of them (recites them in Arabic) there are 19 of them, if you divide them by 19 nothing will be left. The very first words revealed to the holy prophet iqira were 19. Allah could have given him more than that, but he just stopped at 19 words divisible by 19. All the letters in the holy Qur'an (recites the letters in Arabic) if you take each one of them and added them up together and you divide by 19 nothing will be left. Could any man write a book, no matter how small, and use one figure to divide all the sentences in the book, all the letters, all the abbreviated letters or whatever, one letter, no matter how small, is it possible? Only God can do it. And that is why bismillah is before every verse every sura of the holy Qur'an showing that this chapter this sura is from God. Bisimillahi arrahamani arrahim is like stamp. If a prime minister or a president or a king wrote a letter or sent a document there will be his stamp on that paper showing that it was from him. So the Qur'an is from Allah. Then we went further, these pieces of information, sentences, letters, abbreviated letters, chapters added up together divided by 19 nothing will be left. These pieces of information were put in the computer and the computer was asked here is a book containing these pieces of information, what is the possibility of such a book containing this information going wrong? What is the answer? The computer said the possibility of such a book containing this information going wrong is point 000000000 infinitum. Perfection. Perfection is an attribute of God. So these are some of the things that the holy prophet came with. Science, reason and logic

No, no no no I disagree with him, I resist hmmm if I can see from the way, he is a scholar he too he can become scholar also too you can write is your opinion, is your opinion, but the effect of electronic media nowadays, the effect of this social media can send a lot of message to the world and globe at your hand within a minute, he can say as much as he can say since there is no check and balance, I think if there is a consensus or a team of scholars that can at least go through they would not even allow the book to be released because it has no relationship to say that ah Muslim must fight physically before, he must fight physically that is Jihad no no no, in Islam jihad has a meaning. There is jihad that you can go, there is Jihad that you can practice within you, jihad that I can assist from when there is now now the jihad that I mean that you can go for it is, like now there is internet display person that as a result of crisis they were displaced with their parent, some and their children they are living miserable life. You can go and assist is a jihad. There is also a jihad where you can assist somebody with advice is a Jihad. There is also, also you can be a philanthropist is a Jihad. Jihad has no relationship between taking a weapon or ammunition to attack any other person. The conflict and the Jihad are two different things. Conflict is part and parcel of human being, human being can go for conflict, human being can even fight with his teeth, his teeth and tongue they fought each other and settle. Conflict is part and parcel of human being, it has no relationship but Jihad it can also jihad fi sabilillah or for the sake of God, you can only go for jihad in different form and in different understanding. That is what I think you can describe Jihad because it has very wide definition, assisting somebody, helping somebody, changing his attitude, make him to behave well, revive him, taking him to rehab center all this is Jihad. Jihad has no relationship with taking of arms to fight.

No, the prophet (SAW) has shown us that the best jihad is jihadin nafs, jihad bin nafs, so if that is the best jihad, you must not fight anybody if you can live on the restrictions of Islam and orders of Islam then you are doing the best jihad and a this jihad has some conditions which are not available in the whole world today as the whole world is not governed by Islamic principles and the whole world, most of the world, parts of the world are living under secularist state and that means Islam may not be fully practiced except at its - how available it might be to the Islam, to the Muslim people.

KN6 [3490-4008]

So this term of jihad must be fully explained because if you say jihad it means maybe to take your arm to go and kill somebody or who is not a Muslim, it is not a true picture of jihad. Jihad it means, what is the meaning, jihad even before you reach to this jihad to allow you maybe to participate with using ammunition, so this is the last state of jihad. There is some state of jihad, for example, preaching is among jihad, to disseminate your money, even the help of those who are not Muslim are part from jihad.

KN7 [4829-5373]

Yes ehm, yes you will physically fight but not the real fight that involves elbowing or shooting or killing with knives, yes if you want to physically fight, physically, yes physically in the sense that you should ehm, call people to the, to the way of Islam not by fighting, not by giving elbows, not by shooting, not by killing with knives or bombing but yes if you want to do this, you have to do it physically not spiritually even though it requires you to spiritually do this but, not ehm the physical sense that this scholar argues about.

KN8 [3925-4417]

It is not necessary for somebody to use physical force in fighting for jihad for there are thousands, according to Imam Ghazali, he is a great Islamic scholar, he has posited that the process of fighting for jihad can be divided into more than even fifteen, you understand, there is jihad bin nafsi, there is jihad tafaqur. Jihad bin nafsi is the one you use your mind, you understand. The tafaqur is the one you use your brain and other aspect of jihad, not necessarily a physical battle.

KN9 [3986-4365]

Well this particular scholar, what he said is true, but it is circumstantial. It is ah true Muslims must fight for the preservation of the religion of Islam, but it has to be circumstantial. I want to believe that fighting in Islam has to be a last resort. Islam doesn't encourage violence, Islam does not encourage fighting, Islam only preaches fighting as the last resort, so

KN10 [3831-4218]

Yes, in the statement you said, all Muslim must participate in jihad. Jihad is not only to fight, it does not mean only to fight.

There is-it has many meanings and despite that jihad is necessary in some conditions, but it does not mean that true ah, true Muslims must fight, is not necessary that true Muslims must fight. There is any other way to achieve ah the aim without fighting.

KN11 [5110-5691]

No, maybe he misunderstood the term jihad. Jihad is not a only physical fight, jihad because even in the Qur'an, Allah says bi amwalikum anfusikum, so to distribute or to help people, to needy is one of the or is, it can be call jihad, to assist people, to poor people, needy or your neighbors. So it is not really necessary to fight ehen, it is not necessary to fight, physical fight or to make some blood shed as some people misunderstood the Islam or the teachings of Islam. They say Islam is not teaching his followers to make bloodshed, that is teaching about no no, no, no.

KN13 [5349-5886]

Hmm, my reason for agreeing with him is that what, there are series or forms of jihad, so as a Muslim you have to fight. Jihad is a holy war from the word jihad, so as a Muslim you have to fight for- if it is something that is em-if you see something that is umh that is not righteous, let me call it that is not righteous or unrighteous, you have to fight for it. There is jihad of the mind even, so there is jihad-there are series of jihad so as a Muslim it is mandatory, let me call it, voluntary for all Muslims to fight for jihad.

KN14 [4278-4481]

Yes of course, a true Muslim must fight, ah must be involved in jihad, but ah if it is true jihad, but all these ah what we are seeing today is not true jihad is not the jihad that Islam asked us to do.

KN15 [5651-6327]

Yah, I agree that all true Muslims must physically fight for Islam as that is the true jihad of course but ah some people misunderstood the word jihad. What I mean here is that they thought that is only when somebody is at the war front with you know let me say sword or something like that in his hand that is when he is making jihad to some people, but jihad you can you know fight jihad using your wealth, you can fight jihad using your knowledge, when somebody you know says something that is you know bad about your religion, you can correct him and that is jihad, so you can come and help the poor people help the and so many ways of making jihad so this is the answer.

KN16 [2725-2871]

No is not necessary for people to use physical fight as that is only way of jihad, even helping others, and there are different ways of jihading.

KN17 [4636-4981]

Yah my reason ah ah for agreeing with him is that ah jihad literally is fight it is a kind of ah, let me say, is a kind of ah a holy battle, but doesn't mean that there are cultural forms in which can lead to jihad, I could remember during the days of Muhammad (SAW) there were people that were insulting him, but that doesn't it lead to jihad.

KN18 [7054-7258]

Well physical fight, interpretation of words and scholastic views carries different meaning. In social sciences you don't have one unique definition of a concept and one unique interpretation of a concept

KN18 [7367-8674]

Toh if this is Maududi, Maududi before he set a physical jihad in his theory, this is an abstract of the whole work of Maududi, it's a piece a little piece of Maududi. Before he mentioned this kind of jihad he said it's first mental transformation of individual, yourself you mentally transform yourself into following the teachings of Islam and that Maududi itself before he arrived at that, that is the final stage and does not recommend that physical, physical, physical by word physical, it could be preaching, physically you are engaging yourself into preaches, you can interpret it. Lack of a true knowledge and ah lack of indepth knowledge of these ah scholastic views and scholarly views make people to now miss the meaning. Maududi, I don't believe Maududi is saying that ah a Muslim must now engaging in war, physical, physical fight does not mean war. It is a struggle, you are campaigning for Islam, okay propagating Islam is a physical thing, use your money to propagate Islam, build mosques okay, preaches, support groups and encourages ah ah ah hhhh maybe, maybe maybe da'wa, activities propagating da'wa, Maududi's context, from the context of Maududi, from what I read, I read Maududi from his work, possible that is the definition that is the meaning I can derive from the Maududi's work.

KN19 [7840-8450]

Actually, the concept of jihad doesn't mean fight, even according to the holy prophet (SAW) jihad is an act of putting the whole of your efforts not necessary the physical effort by fighting somebody, you can conquer somebody diplomatically, you can conquer somebody by persuasion even the holy prophet said let your physical ability be the last remote of your action you will put in place, there are different ways you could encourage somebody but not putting a physical or fighting over somebody or striking somebody, you understand, before you can persuade them into Islam or contribute to the will of God

KN20 [4200-4682]

No I didn't agree with this statement because there are three types of jihad, if you know, the one you fight for, jihad does not necessarily mean that you will carry arm to fight somebody, you understand, that is the extreme part of jihad, but really you can correct something with your heart, with your mouth, with your hand. That does not necessarily mean that you have to carry arm or firearm to injure one ah one another. So really I didn't agree with that statement that says

KN21 [2655-2672]

That's not true.

KN21 [2729-2828]

Jihad means fighting in the course of Allah; jihad cannot be narrowed down into physical fighting.

KN22 [5150-5380]

Yah this statement all true Muslims I do not subscribed to this statement because all about jihad is not till you carry arms or ammunitions. No. You can start jihad and defend Muslims and Islam right from your own house. You will...

KN23 [4746-4905]

Yah I agree with the scholar because jihad it doesn't mean, yah its fight, fight-jihad itself means striving for the cause of Islam, you can strive positively

KN24 [4118-4340]

May be you yourself you did not understand him and the way he was saying fight for Islam. He was not saying that you fight for Islam physically; you should just fight for Islam through preaching it out and practicing it.

KN24 [4607-4709]

Yah I agree with the statement if you understand his own view. I don't your own view over what he said

KN25 [5466-5807]

Well this is true because it is in the holy book but it is circumstantial. You don't just go about fighting. Fighting here is as a last resort. So I think the scholar is right but the idea here has to be circumstantial and true Muslim has to use his sword as the last resort. You don't go around fighting. Islam huwa Salam-Islam is peace.

KN26 [4967-5636]

No I don't agree with that. You see sometimes we have ah whether we like it or not advancement in religion cannot be discarded from history, you know, it is just like Christianity, you know, when it was evolving during the war of conquest that is the order of the day. But whether we like it or not if you look at the said teachings there is the way you can interpret it may be if then it can be relevant now it cannot be relevant because it is not ...we even have a lot of cases during the time of the Prophet whereby wars are being averted and still gains are being made for Muslims. So I don't think that is ah yes at some levels but critically I don't agree to that.

KN27 [4359-4915]

Well I agree in one sense because as a Muslim, in one way or the other, implicitly or explicitly, you must influence or you must influence jihad or in one way or the other do jihad. What is jihad? Jihad in simple terms means fighting in the cause of Allah or in one way or the other, influencing people may be with Islamic teachings or with your wealth to practice Islam. That is jihad. So in one way or the other even your children, your offspring, if you teach them, if you give them Islamic orientation you are in one way or the other practicing jihad.

KN28 [3925-4201]

Well I disagree with this issue because a lot of Muslims are not physically endowed they can actually go to fight their strength probably they might be down or sick. But taking a look at the way it is, a lot of people are physical and they could be able to go out for jihad.

KN30 [2777-3517]

You see fighting or fighting for Islam the prophet (SAW) give it in three ways. There are things that you can change with your hand that is may be when it comes to like fighting physically. There are things that you can change through preaching or through convincing somebody with words. There are things you cannot change, you cannot say anything about it, you just have to avoid it in your mind. And that is the three stages where things are changed, things are fought for. So sometimes you cannot establish whether this has reached the level or you are responsible for changing the so and so issues. The only thing is Muslims need more clarification; more understanding of what Islam is all about. That is the major problem we have.

KN31 [3217-3568]

Well yes, actually jihad is part of Islam but it also has its rules and regulations and the reason why you should involve yourself into jihad. But I think most people misunderstand or they don't have the knowledge of what jihad is today. They indulge themselves in unnecessary conflict and try to attach it to jihad. I don't think that is acceptable.

KN32 [1669-1680]

No its not

KN33 [2007-2088]

No no no this is not true. True Jihad does not mean to have a physical fighting.

KN34 [1879-2286]

I totally disagree with his perception. When you look at some of these scholars, he is entitled to his own opinion. He is just expressing his own opinion but when you look at the actual meaning or the context of jihad maybe when someone is going to define it, it is going to be different from what he is perceiving or interpreting jihad to be, that is why I totally disagree with his definition.

KN35 [4251-4410]

Quietly I may disagree with him because even the prophet (SAW) did not order all the companions to go into war, and that those who are capable to go into war.

KN36 [3463-3618]

Jihad does not limit to physical fight there are many ways to doing jihad even how to live with people, how to assist others is also among the jihad.

KN37 [2635-2939]

You see I think Maududi is regarded as one of the most radical Islamic scholar so for him to must have pointed out that every Muslim should fight for Islam, I think that is his perception but for me I don't think I agree with that because there is a way of drawing all Muslims into bad reputation.

KN38 [1801-1992]

Partially, this is because jihad can only be instituted through an Imam and I don't think we are in an era where an Imam, a true Muslim leader exists in order to fight before him for Islam.

KN39 [2216-2352]

Actually I don't agree. Because even the holy prophet himself, he has really teach us the method of calling people to Islam.

KN40 [3575-3920]

According to the prophet Muhammad (SAW), jihad is not compulsory for all Muslims but everybody must have one way or the other to participate in the jihad. It is voluntary either by contributing through your maybe financial support or maybe in prayer support, but for my own understanding, I believe jihad is not compulsory for all the Muslims.

KN41 [2313-2783]

I disagree with this assertion because physical fighting doesn't spell the real meaning of Islam and I think if one is able to do it, that is the fighting if you can be able to do it good and fine. If otherwise kuma it should be with ones tongue that is if you can't do the fighting physically, you can use your tongue that means by speaking if you can be unable to do that one too, you can as in do it by your heart that is by hating the evil or feeling that is wrong.

KN42 [3797-4285]

My am, I am so in disagreement with the scholar statement because ehm, the prophet (SAW) has said the true jihad is the one you do in peace, is the one you fight internally and then when you see you can't fight it internally, you try to correct it in your society there has never been a justification for taking weapons or arms in the sake of jihad. There is no jihad that has to do with killings or taking of arms, so I disagree in the sense that it doesn't form what we believe in Islam

KN43 [6167-6687]

Yah, I don't agree with this because the jihad is not all about taking alms to fight the non-Muslims. The first jihad that the prophet talked about is jihadin nafs that is the self-jihad is the most important if you as a follower of Islam do not have, you know, clean mind, do not have a proper understanding of the religion, do not fear God, then what kind of jihad would you fight? So I think jihad is not all about fighting, is not all about taking arms, is about you know self-cleansing, is about self-purification.

KN44 [3552-3869]

I don't know the basis or, the basis of which he made this ahh, this ahh argument, but I never believe that ah jihad means ah entirely the use of ah physical means or rather waging jihad I mean waging war against non-Muslims. So ah, in the first instance I don't believe that is really the true meaning of the jihad.

KN45 [2945-3316]

Yes, eh, eh it depends on the interpretation of the word fight, if you fight maybe to revive the religion, yah that is part of the core ideal, the teachings of the religion, there is nothing wrong with that, but if it is a physical fight, a physical combat between you and non-Muslims ahh I think that is prohibited by the religion except under special circumstances, yes

KN46 [5158-5610]

Ok, if that scholar means that to participate physically means to use your own given ahh, I mean, physical power to exercise or to practice the religion or to support it then I totally agree with him that jihad means even to strive to get knowledge, to strive to help others are all part of what we call jihad. But if he means that one has to take ah an arm against people who do not share your belief is the only form of jihad then I totally disagree

KN47 [7431-8220]

Well, I don't agree with him because there are some interpretations giving by, by our scholars in Islam that the time of religious jihad is somehow, you know, the conditions, I mean, for religious jihad are not met in the current situation of the Muslim society and Muslim relation with other people because there are so many other things that you cannot establish as the reasons why you can go and fight somebody, and apart from that, you know, above all there is no prophet who will direct the jihad. There is no one, you know, ah ah may I say ah great leader who will just, you know, declare the jihad, you understand, so the responsibility of the declaring is also marred, you know, we don't have people who will just declare it and we don't have the situations for jihad now a days.

KN48 [3167-3380]

Hmm, there is jihad in Islam but everything has the way it is. It is being stated in the Qur'an itself, not doing it in a wrong way, but the one happening presently that is not jihad, to me it is something else.

KN49 [4485-4756]

I think eh there are steps to jihad, you just don't wage war against unbelievers and people, who are not, who do not share your faith. I think there are steps, there are ah Islam as a whole is a religion of peace and you need to engage peaceful resolutions to problems.

KN50 [2877-2991]

Ehh, actually I disagree with that because fighting is not, is not a true, fighting in Islam is not a true jihad.

KN51 [16944-20648]

I completely disagree with him because in the Qur'an there is nothing like this. If you see jihad in the Qur'an is fought only because of three reasons. First reason is for defensive purposes. Second reason is for preventing oppression (he recites a Qur'anic verse) when people, when down trodden masses of people are crying for oppression, they are being cheated ok, they are being now disrespected by their leaders, public treasury is being siphoned, people are becoming billionaires, others are dying in poverty. So when people started to cry this way now Islam says you must fight this people. They must be fought, yes. The other one is to defend yourself (he recites) permission is granted to those who are fought that they should retaliate. So is defensive purposes, is because of oppression, the other one is because of defense of those aggressors, to defend the aggression of aggressors. These are the only three reasons why Islam is saying we should fight if at all there are all of these problems. But in the absence of this three, there is nothing like this. So what I am saying, if a scholar says every Muslim must fight a jihad before he becomes a true Muslims, this we interpret in three different ways. The first way if it means that when there is oppression we must fight back, he is right. If he means when there is an aggression, some people come to kill you, come to destroy you, you cannot fold your arms and look at them, you have to fight back, you have to defend yourself, if this is for the defense of the religion, if there are some aggressors outside who are trying to attack the religion, who are trying to destroy the religion, who are trying to misguide people. So these are the three reasons in the Qur'an, in the Qur'an and according to the teachings of Rasulu (SAW), these are the only three reasons why jihad should be fought. Even most of the non-Muslims like Rev. Sturvey, Rev Fr. Sturvey, this Sturvey read Islamic history very well, he read al-Qur'an, he read Sunna, he said Muhammad (SAW), he said Muhammad never fought them: Christians and Jews on account of religion, he never fought them on account of religion, he never fought Christians or Jews on account of religion, no, is in history, is in history. So for anybody to say now Islam is to fight jihad, everybody must fight jihad, must kill, no. That is not Islam. Jihad is an organized program, is a planned program ok, is targeted towards preventing aggression, oppression ok and regression, that is jihad, that is jihad. But for anybody to say one must fight, to fight who? After all Muhammad (SAW) lived with the Christians of Najaran, he even allowed them to pray in his mosque, to offer their services in his mosque, Christians in the mosque. They were trying to prevent them, no allow them by the prophet, allow them to observe their own prayers in the mosque of prophet (SAW) Christians of Najaran. Christians were saying it look at any book that is written on it Jews history, they will tell you, they were treated better and more than, in Islamic ahm empire, Islamic-under Islamic rule than under Christian rule. This is in history, is in history. How many times Christians were expelled from the West? How many times? They were expelled from England, they were expelled from Germany, France, from everywhere, Jews. But Jews were allowed to stay, to live in the prophet (SAW) in Medina. It was only when they plotted against the religion, against him, they plotted to kill him, in that case they shouldn't be allowed. They cannot be trusted. So I hope you are understanding the statement I am making? So these are some of the things I want you to let people to understand and to go and read further.

KN52 [4551-5250]

I do not agree with him because in the first place fighting is not the only type of jihad we know and that jihad from Islamic perspective, I mean the most important jihad from Islamic perspective is the jihad against one's self. That is jihad against your materialistic desires, you know, the ability to control your own sentiments, yourself that is the first form of jihad which is more important in Islam. So carrying out arms against non-believers and things like that is another level of jihad in Islam and that is conditional. There are preconditions for that type of jihad, it is a sort of Jihad that is expected in self-defense, you know, when you are under aggression or attack by someone.

KN53 [4261-4577]

Well I can say I disagree with the scholar because jihad is not meant for what he has exactly quoted for. Jihad you can fight for it and you cannot fight for it except you are using it for defense purpose. Physical fighting is not part of jihad exactly unless you are using it for a defensive purpose. That's all

KN54 [1650-1732]

Well this is false jihad. Jihad is only fighting people, preaching can also help.

KN55 [2801-2830]

No I have never heard of it

KN56 [2693-3068]

Actually people have a myopic and microscopic understanding and conception of the term jihad. Jihad is not only physical. Jihad can be fought with one's own self that is jihadin nafs, it can be fought with one's own properties jihadin mal, it can be fought with one's own knowledge jihadin ilm, and the last resort of jihad is the physical jihad that you are talking about.

KN57 [3822-4427]

Honestly I disagree with him strongly because if you talk of only physically to fight that is what we call jihad, I honestly disagree with him. If you fight with your heart, it is a jihad. Taking away something or stone out of the road is a jihad. So all these, it is not necessary to come physically and fight one another that you are making a jihad. There are many things islamically speaking to do which can link you, which can take you or some people have a narrow understanding of the word jihad. So in a broader sense there are many ways that if you do this or do that, you make a jihad, you see.

KN58 [9013-9566]

Yah there are, it is true to some extent, but it is not true. Jihad does not only mean war. Jihad takes different forms. You can perform jihad with your heart-jihadin nafs, you can perform it with your hands, you can perform it verbally, you can perform it by even saying wa iyazu billah, chastening those that are doing wrong. So I don't believe in what he says, it depends on the situation. For instance, a situation whereby I am attacked in my own house, it is agreed that I can retaliate back or attack back in other to save myself, it is jihad.

KN59 [7585-7932]

Actually I don't agree with this scholar's perception, you understand, as a Muslims jihad, based on my understanding, is the fight in the cause of Allah and this fight in the cause of Allah is not to fight with any other person, it is self-fighting to even fight your nafs, you understand, so I don't agree that physical fight is the true jihad.

KN60 [7353-8697]

I disagree with this his interpretation or his argument because if you talk of jihad, nobody is saying the verse, the Qur'anic verse that talked about jihad is null and void now. It is still in action and it is still valid, but to say that a Muslim has to fight ok I would ask a question now, does Imam Malik fight any jihad battle? No. Does Imam Shafi'i fight any jihad battle? No. So you see all these are well known pronounced scholars that anywhere you go in the world you cannot run away from mentioning their jurisprudences and what have you, you understand. Jihad some people have a minute understanding of the word jihad. Some people taught especially those people preaching violence and then the fanaticism and what have you, how they put the word jihad to their followers is you must carry arms and fight. But in fact you go and look for food lawfully, to have a lawful means of livelihood, to feed your family all these acts are acts of jihad. You go and visit your relatives, you assist the needy, you help other people that need help, you even attend your work regularly and on time all these are and can be categorized as jihad. So we cannot say a Muslim have to carry on, have to take up arms and fight other people that is being said to have being doing jihad actually that understanding to me is wrong and it is misleading also.

KN61 [2506-2869]

Hmm I can't ah I quite not agree that fighting 100% even during prophet (SAW) ah there is some Muslims, non-Muslims that he go with them and he allow them to do whatever they want, there is even a verse in the Quran (he recites the Qua'nic verse) the last one says follow your own din then Allah will follow their own, so there is no, I quite disagree with that.

KN62 [7770-9717]

Mallam... your name from jihad. Well ah you know jihad is now being translated by the western media as holy war, but there is nothing like holy war in Islam. In Islam we don't have this very word, holy war. In fact, jihad is a misinterpreted word in Islam because jihad means in because is Arabic, is an Arabic word, in Arabic if you translate it into English the word jihad means ah striving or struggling in order to achieve something. So jihad in general is something we do first ah on ourselves that is a kind of ah effort we struggle, we put in place in order to salvate ourselves to make ourselves very ah ah, ah lets, am am sorry because of this noise, I think we should stop and ah make some arrangement. Aha I was saying that ah this very word jihad has nothing to do with this eh taking sword in the first place. In the first place, as I told you, jihad is just a word that means, or a word that means striving, struggling in order to straighten your faith or our faith to make ourselves close to God or to take ourselves closer to God ahh and eh maybe that is why even in one of the sunnatic tradition there is a kind of companion of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) who went to him, asking him about this very jihad whether to go to jihad or not. The noble prophet asked him ah was any of his parent alive, he said yes, his mother, his father, they are all alive and the noble prophet, the, the, the noble prophet actually asked him to go back to his parents and ah ah lets say, live very well with them and ah do good to them and be somehow helpful to them. This is the first jihad. To hmm mm maybe that is all I can say about this. So I finally don't believe in the what we call eh let's say, taking Islam to alien places, if you like, to different places by the use of swords or something like that. I believe that a kind of righteousness, a good upstanding of and ah true believer is the best jihad. That is what I believe, ahh ah.

KN63 [9817-11608]

No, no, no jihad, jihad. Jihad means striving. Striving in the path of Islam, you know this fighting does not really entails taking sword, or taking gun or taking bullet and killing others, you know. Striving doesn't strive, that is not the jihad in fact, that is should be the last resort, taking of arms. You know by the time you have exhausted all possible ways and when there is no more going back, when you have finally pushed the wall, even when you are pushed to the wall, you still have to look for ways, you know. But when they now take arms against you, you don't have any option that is the last resort. You know looking at it, there are many jihad, you know like there are many, you know, there are several Hadith like that, some say that ah the prophet was advising somebody that wants to go for, for a battle huh, is it Badr or who I have forgotten actually, so the prophet was now advising that the is still having a, is he still having parents, he said yes, he say go back to your parents that is being your jihad, go and take good care of your parent, is your jihad. Now if a woman should pray regularly at the required time as prescribed by the prophet, is jihad, huh. So jihad, maybe the Muslims or maybe the non-Muslims, the way they look at it that maybe jihad means taking of arms or ammunitions, fighting, no. That is not it. And striving, striving, okay leaving this world you have to strive for you to live successfully, you know, because there are many evil things around you. But if you are the type that strives and you are able to overcome all these bad or evil things around you and still worship Allah, do ibadat, your striving is also jihad. So jihad, not necessarily means taking arms or ammunition and fighting or whatever, you know, it is not like that.

KN64 [4906-5482]

A true Muslim as this scholar said is true, prophet said (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) the Muslim who are physically fit is more better than those who are not well unfit in Islam. Therefore Islam calling people to physically okay, but this doesn't mean you go and kill people it is not a jihad, jihad meaning to make effort to help your religion. You can make effort to achieve your goals and aims in Islam. This is what jihad means not only by using arms and other weapons no, any useful means, any useful method that you can use to help Islam is what jihad means eh.

KN65 [7427-8373]

Actually to me, in my own little understanding, I do not agree that all Muslims must physically fight for Islam, no. My reasons are these: jihad, the word jihad comes with a different meaning; it just depends on the context in which you are using it to me. Jihad is an internal or external striving to become a good Muslim or a good believer. So you see even in the sunna eh one of the Annawawi collection, there was a hadith ahh that says eh okay, no, there is even a hadith when the prophet Muhammad (SAW) came from ah a war front, and he was now telling his ah companions that we have now fought the lesser war, and it now remain all the major war to fight with our heart, you see. So this does not mean that you must have a physical combat with yourself, so jihad does not mean you must have a physical combat, you understand, so I did not agree with that. So it is an internal and external striving in order to live in the way of God, yes.

KN66 [2607-2927]

Yah, all Muslims, jihad is part of the articles of faith, it is part of the articles of faith in Islam, and it is good for a Muslim to fight jihad, but doesn't necessarily mean that a Muslim should just go and start hurting other Muslims or non-Muslims who don't have anything to do. Jihad has stages and criteria.

KN67 [2490-2824]

I think here, I can agree with him if I read more about his reasons though there are so many verses in the Qur'an that ah, call people to come and fight but depending on the circumstance and the condition, but if his reasons are, if I agree with his reasons ah I can agree with this statement. I don't know much about what he said.

KN68 [1749-1810]

Jihad is not only physical. It can be with money, knowledge.

KN69 [6027-6399]

So, here to my understanding, I am not in harmony with this understanding of Al Maududi because jihad has a wider meaning in Islam, jihad is not limited to a situation of physical combat, all struggle of life is considered as a jihad under Islamic principles, therefore a Muslim is expected to engage himself in every aspect of life as if he is engaging himself in jihad.

KN70 [8444-9192]

I think I will agree to disagree, I will agree yes, by quite number of texts, textual teaching of Qur'an and the hadith and more popular ideas like they said ahm Muslims are not expected to instigate trouble, to instigate war, but Muhammad (SAW) said if the war comes, if it is inevitable, then you have to stand by that. Now certain Muslim will take that as, as, as the bases of whatever thing they are going to do, but the truth of the matter is that it is both. jihad is a state policy under an ideal Islamic state, but here in Nigeria we don't have an Islamic state. So jihad as it were, would be very difficult for one to really take up jihad as a compulsory deterrent or compulsory means of establishing whatever things we feel to establish.

KN71 [10287-11141]

Well, as far as I am concerned I disagree and I do disagree because of course jihad does not only mean to fight, it means to strive to establish. If I should come to you now with a word of truth as a leader or as an ordinary person, I am doing jihad. It doesn't mean that I must take a sword, declare la illah haillallah anywhere and just start fighting people like that no. But of course I can agree with him when it comes to an issue of self-defense as you can see there was never a point in time when Islam went to fight, only with their aim to kill. It is in order either to defend Islam or to fight against certain injustice, you can understand. So I can live and die without even throwing a stone to anybody in the name of fighting for the sake of Islam and remain a Muslim, and a true one, but definitely I must strive to see that Islam prospers.

KN72 [7648-8120]

I disagree with him because in Islamic the word jihad not means fighting, not means fightings or bloodshed war, it is the practice of strengthen the Islamic practices whether verbally or even physically that means to become a role model, so the role model is very important in jihad. War or bloodshed war according to the jihad in Islam or the jihad in Islam is the last option when there is no other option rather than to declare a war. That is, so I disagree with him.

KN73 [7058-7309]

Yes Abul Ala Maududi he is a truly an Islamic scholar, but he is saying for jihad it has condition. He is always repeating there is condition for jihad. When the conditions arise, there must be a truly Muslim must participate physically in the jihad.

KN73 [7416-7798]

When the Muslim, when there is that reason, there must be an Islamic state. There will be an Islamic state and there will be a fatwa, ulama al-fatwa. They are the ulama who would rise and claim that this is the time for jihad and every Muslim must participate in it. So this is the first how will Muslims participate in that jihad. Not as the way the people are seeing it presently

KN74 [13308-13408]

Yes, this question I agree with him, but there is conditions, based on conditions, yes, that is it.

KN74 [13477-13623]

Yes, Muslims must engage, must true Muslim must physically fight for Islam, but on condition. There is a condition, if the condition warrants it.

KN75 [16546-16566]

I disagree with him

KN75 [16589-16973]

Because first and foremost, we need to know what is jihad, what jihad is all about, you understand. According to some Islamic scholar jihad is to strive for the cause of Allah, it is to strive for the cause of Allah, but to the western Christian they believe that jihad is for you to take a sword or a dagger for you to fight for the cause of Allah, that is not the content of jihad.

KN76 [10776-11373]

Well I agree with him, but not 100% because when we talk of the jihad, there are various type of jihad as we know from the perspective ahh even from the Sunna and ahh there was ahh a hadith of the prophet (SAW) whereby after jihad the Sahaba gathered and the prophet told them that they have finish with the minor or the lesser jihad now what they are about to ahh is the bigger jihad, that is the jihad of the mind, having the control of your mind, having control over your affairs and ahh this view that you must take arms to fight is what comprises the jihad is ah I don't subscribe with it.

KN78 [10929-11646]

Ahh yes, I agree with him and I disagree with him. I agree because jihad is a state policy, jihad is part and parcel of Islamic teaching. Whatever way you look at it either by violence or by non-violence, jihad is part and parcel of the religion. If you said you want to take one interpretation and leave the other interpretation, for instance, there are numerous texts that you could support the fact that ah in their cases they said that the very giving of birth when a woman die in the process is jihad itself, somebody who dies and thrown in a river or in an ocean is itself jihad. So we have various ways of looking at jihad, but the truth of the matter is that it is both. It is both violence and non-violence.

KN78 [11768-12133]

Please, let me verify one thing, ahh I want to clarify the last question you asked. My very verification goes to thus that it is a context that warrants where jihad should be applied. The violence and non-violence it is a context that warrants, yes. So no one is absolute in itself, in other words, violence is not permanent just as peaceful jihad is not permanent

KN79 [4943-5233]

Hmm Islam, the word Islam has the, what I mean Islam has laid down rules and regulations in conducting jihad, even the word jihad literally means putting effort or means effort, therefore, it means being patient and obedient to God the almighty. I disagree with them, I disagree with them.

KN80 [8816-9619]

So not necessarily. Jihad may be by force and maybe by the spread of knowledge. If you educate, as a Muslim, if you devote yourself ahh life in educating people, in making unbelievers to embrace Islam on going to towns and areas to make people embrace Islam, you are doing jihad not only necessary by ahh ahh by the use of weapon or ahh physical fighting, yes physical fighting. So but there are some instances that make Muslim to wage jihad on that particular form that is physical fighting. So but more preferably the spread of knowledge, he spread of knowledge among the people is more important than the physical ahh combat per se because there is need for people to understand what that religion is all about, what is the technicality? What is the benefit attached to that amm Islamic religion.

KN81 [5438-5562]

Well amm my own reason I disagree with him because fighting is the last resort in Islam and fighting cannot be true jihad.

KN82 [6461-7438]

To answer this question requires contemporary observation of the situation. It might be possible that a true jihad must be, must engage some fightings depending on the situation and it must not be necessary that it has to be in that context. For Maududi, during is ahh life time, there was a serious oppression of Islam and Muslims by the colonialists. The colonialists feel that the major setback in realization of colonial agenda or objectives was Islam. That was why they waged a crusade on Islam by attempting to disrupt every Islamic activity. So if at then someone provide a solution that involves fighting, I don't think he was wrong, but in a contemporary situation where technology, politics, economics and otherwise are the instrument of checkmating or of raging emm fight against an enemy, I think it must not be necessary for someone to carry arms to fight in the cause of Allah. These ways I mentioned may be deployed as substitutes to realize Islamic objectives.

KN82 [7442-8034]

Sir If I understand what you said, you mean that Maududi, what he think about using physical combat as a means of jihad is due to the nature or the situation he find themselves at that time

A: At that time of course

Q: So because of the contemporary change and new challenges that the Muslims experience and some advancements that we have today, Muslims need to employ other means by use economic or technology or other means that is available at hand. So the condition is different that Muslims find themselves now that is different from that of Maududi?

A: Of course that is what I mean

KN83 [4174-4331]

Yes I agree with him. All true Muslims must physically fight for Islam, but is not all the time. Physical fight can only be conducted based on necessities.

KN84 [5194-5476]

Yes, there is no way I will agree with this kind of a statement because is not all Muslim that are responsible to fight in Islam and a true jihad cannot vested on physical fighting. There is other jihad more demanded in Islam than physical fight. That is what we call what annafs.

KN85 [3989-4282]

Ahm physically fighting for Islam does not necessary define jihad. Jihad means striving in the way of Allah and that there is jihadin nafs where you try to reform yourself, reform your ways and, therefore, if anybody says it means physically fighting for Islam, I actually do disagree with it.

ZA1 [5445-6220]

If we are talking about jihad in particularly, yes Islam has make it sometimes mandatory on Muslims to fight, but with conditions. But now if you saying that it is compulsory on all and every Muslim to fight, now let me ask a question again, nowhere in the history of Islam that Rasul (SAW) has waged a war against non-Muslims without they, they seek for it. Take ammm the issue of Badrm Uhud, Ahazab is a self-defense. Now if Muslims were being oppressed, were being cheated, were being robbed like what is happening in Palestine, now Israeli is bombing Palestine, now Palestine tried to defend themselves, they say they are terrorist. So now I think there is no justice there, so is a compulsory if Muslims are being oppressed is not wrong to fight to defend themselves.

ZA2 [2955-3657]

Ehm when we look at the two things whether agreeing or disagreeing that Muslims or the scholars have seen or are saying towards the preaching maybe towards Islamic affairs or saying, talking of something that may kick against, that will kick against whatever view to me what I feel here is that, you see the Muslim preaching as a whole as all of us could understand, you don't ever agree for you to preach what will bring disunity even the non-religion in the midst, the religion of Islam says you should hold them give them their legal rights, so if that should be I don't know why we have to say that we be having any problem that we will have a contrary opinion of dishonesty or peace in between.

ZA3 [7157-7373]

I will disagree. I will disagree with the scholar that all true Muslims must, the word must is not emm because jihad in definition is striving in the path of Allah, it could be by physical or by moral or otherwise.

ZA4 [16134-18381]

Alhamdulillah. I agree with him first that every Muslim has to fight for Islam, but it depends on your understanding, how do you understand Islam? And how do you understand the fight? Definitely we have everything you can fight for Islam, you can fight for Islam by you believing in the Qur'an, you believing in the Sunna of the prophet Muhammad (SAW), you are also practicalizing the concept of the Qur'an and also the right, the directives of the prophet Muhammad (SAW), you separated yourself from extremism, you help Islam by good behavior to your family, to your parents, to your friends, to your neighbor, you have contributed to Islam because you are you are preaching the concept of the Islam to other people, telling them that Islam is the best way by your behavior. You can also be good to Islam, at least contribute to Islam, by making sure you just in your family, just to your family, just to your parents, just to everyone, giving... , helping the needy, helping the poor people, be passionate, you understand, so all these are contributing positively to Islam because they will understand Islam the better. They will know that Islam is the best way, they also have to what, have a good understanding about Islam, you understand. You cannot say you want to contribute to Islam by killing people or going to jihad and you don't have the knowledge, you don't even know the Qur'an, what are the guidelines for the jihad? When the jihad is necessary, when the jihad is even relevant? There is a time that if you are going to the jihad, you are committing sin. That jihad that- you are just rebellious to Islam because that is not the right time and that is not how they are doing the jihad. The jihad that has been teaching by the Sunna of prophet Muhammad, there is no how they can do jihad without people, they don't even have the knowledge, don't even know that this thing they are doing is wrong, they don't even peach to them, they don't have time to tell them this the- it has many guidelines before you talk about jihad, jihad, jihad alhazuwa. So your contributing to Islam is not only to rise and you want to do jihad and start killing people. That is a bad understanding. You are the evil person and you are the enemy of Islam.

ZA5 [7575-8236]

I disagree with him that all Muslim must fight jihad. What is jihad in the first place, you understand? Jihad simply means fighting in the cause of Allah. What is fighting in the cause of Allah? Prophet Muhammad (SAW), has fought is fight, I don't see the reason you tell us you want to fight. Before, the best jihad so far now is jihad of the heart, shey you understand, that is the jihad of the heart, fight yourself before, you can't take a sword and you say that you want to go and kill somebody. Why not can't you call him to order? Jihad is not, I disagree with that scholar by saying that he must carry anything to go and fight for the cause of Allah.

ZA6 [11583-12937]

Amm that all true Muslims must physically fight for Islam, physically fight for Islam as that is the true jihad. That is part of the adulterated teachings. That is the imported teachings in Islam, you get, that is the, it is part of the adulterated ehm teaching of the imported ehm ehm, what do you call them? What jihad really means, jihad means purification, jihad means the fear of God, jihad does not mean to physically fight for God or anybody hmm it does not mean to physically fight. Jihad means the fear of God, you get. So it does not, in Islam that is why it is good for Christians to really understand, you know, the teachings of Islam. Like the issue of Islam that is what is causing Islamophobia, this kind of teaching, this kind of imported teaching, when you look, the Christians believe it is this fight, physical fight for, if you have to fight physical, you have to fight a non-Muslim physically for you to be a true Muslim. That is a very, very imported teaching. It is altered. That is not the teaching of Islam hmm it is not the teaching of Islam. In Islam, jihad anything that you do that is just is jihad, anything that you do that is charitable is jihad. If you are walking on the road now, you come to see a name of a broken bottle if you carry it throw it away so that another person will not stumble on it that is jihad, hmm.

ZA7 [5833-6234]

Well I do not completely agree with him. I only want to believe that Islam has said a lot about jihad and jihad must not be physically at all times, must not be expressed physically at all times. There is jihad of the mind and I think if all scholars preach jihad in its physical terms or perhaps in the doctrines as a way of improve, ehm (interrupted by someone) Sorry you did ask me question just...

ZA7 [6425-6866]

Well I agree with the scholar in the sense that all Muslims must physically fight for Islam ahm yes, you know, jihad has its forms. There is jihad of the mind which we know it affects so many of our activities physically and businesses and whatever we involve ourselves in daily activities. So I want to believe, yes if we can implement proper jihad in those our activities and implemented it in our physical fight in our daily activities.

ZA8 [6029-7892]

I disagree with that. It was actual during the time of the prophet (SAW) Islam was not as it was before. We call that time jahiliyya period because during their time there was nothing like religious stuffs. They worship idols during that time and they are very, very hostile to anybody that will come out claiming he is a prophet to tell them what, to leave their gods, what they have been practicing, their forefathers have been practicing for a very long time. For someone to come out and tell them that this, what you are practicing is not right you should stop it, so they used to be very, very hostile to those people. During that time, you have to pick up arms to protect yourself. The prophet never teaches you to kill, even during that time he only tell you that look in as in as much as religion does not ask you to kill somebody, you have to protect yourself from been killed. So then, they have to be physical also because you can't protect yourself if you are not trained yourself. So they trained their self in order to protect their self from the hostility of the non-believers then. So now that religion is vast, is in everywhere, I don't think, the prophet only say you can only fight him that is trying to kill you and I believe even in the law, there is the law, even in the other religions there is a law that says you have to protect yourself. Just because you are a Muslim or am a true religious person then you want to kill me then I will just be looking at you to kill me, it's not allowed anywhere. So I think if he is talking about been physical here, what he is trying to say, I don't know about him, but according to my own opinion, the physicality of it in Islam is for you to be prepared in case you are under attack to be able to protect yourself, but not to go out and start killing innocent people. That is not allowed in Islam.

ZA9 [6622-7478]

Well I don't agree with him on this. I disagree because I believe whatever God wants, you don't just have the power to do it, he will fight for his cause, but as well he can't just come down and fight for his cause, people will fight for the cause of God. So I don't believe, I don't believe fighting physically unnecessarily just to carry out this jihad of a thing is what is causing problem. Whereas jihad you can only, this, Nigeria is not an Islamic state, we have different religions. There is Christianity and there are traditional worshippers. You don't force people to embrace your religion. That is one of the one of the important teachings of the prophet. There is the right, someone has the right to his religion even in an Islamic state. You have a right to practice your religion as long as it will not affect the people living around you.

ZA10 [7509-7982]

I will say capitally, islamically this is not true because jihad, as we know, is not a physical combat or a physical fight like you call it, it is the act of propagating Islam. When we mean Jihad, it means striving for Allah's sake that is you establish Islam, you propagate Islam, you preach to someone that is Jihad. It does not really, you don't take weapon, no knife, no weapon, no gun, nothing, nothing. There is no physical combat in jihad when we talk about Jihad.

ZA11 [6507-7213]

Well actually, when you look at it jihad, the best form of jihad is the jihad of the heart. So I wouldn't accept that. They said if you, well the knowledge is not that versed though, but they said the weakest, actually one of the basis they hold is that the weakest way of jihad is when you keep quiet and walk away. So that is one of the basis some ulamas use and they said the best way to go about jihad is the physical way, but I guess when you fight, when you have the jihad of the heart, you fight your heart, you strive towards the Sunna and the teachings of Islam, you practice sharia, I guess even people around you will enjoy you and they will love to be a Muslim, so that's enough for the jihad.

ZA12 [3835-4095]

I am disagreeing because his own, that is the way he understand it, but I think if we go by the suras in the Qur'an that is not the way to fight jihad. Jihad can be fought by simply preaching, just to correct someone that is jihad, not to carry arms to fight.

ZA13 [3714-4152]

Ahh in this modern days we are now, I think we've gone beyond fighting, engaging in physical fighting and even then, back then when it was been fought there was the reason behind it and they stated it even the prophet have stated it there was a reason, there was a conflict between them before it's been fought. There was a disagreement between them before they are being fought, but in this modern days I think preaching go a long way.

ZA14 [3252-3466]

I disagree with the scholar by saying that all Muslims have to participate in physical jihad which is not so, they say the best jihad so far now is the jihad of the heart the prophet (SAW) fought the jihad for us.

ZA15 [6186-6349]

Yes when he says must fight for Islam, definitely a true Muslim must fight for Islam, but he should also know fighting for Islam should be done at the right time.

ZA15 [6377-7168]

Ok must fight physically for Islam, yes definitely as a true Muslim you should be ready to fight physically for Islam, but one has to be very careful, you understand, in terms of fighting, one has to, in terms of fighting for Islam physically one has to be very careful because there are some Mallams that preach, you say ok yes this is the right time for jihad, this is not the right time for jihad because most of the things that are happening presently in Nigeria, to be sincere based on my own opinion although I don't have the real knowledge to say ok yes what they are doing is jihad, what they are doing is not jihad, to be sincere I will say there is problem with that, but physically, a Muslim should be ready to fight physically for Islam, but it should be done at the right time.

ZA16 [4153-4556]

No. I disagree with his opinion. Why, because my reason is that before you fight as a jihadist or before you fight something that is called jihad, you need to teach people Islam, what is Islam first, you need to follow the steps of the prophet (SAW) on how he fought jihad because when we flash back during the time of the prophet, we will learn on how he taught his companion before going out for jihad

ZA17 [2332-2848]

The reason is without you being in path of jihad the jihadin akbar here is jihadin nafs, you go against something that the Rasulillah or the almighty Allah has forbidden or has asked you not to do or you be very obedient of the way you are asked to do anything and the way you are not suppose to do it. I think is the best jihad, you start with yourself first then rest will come after, if you are denied of you right then that is where if there is a leader the that is when the issue of fighting or jihad will come.

ZA18 [4352-5092]

No. I don't agree with him. The religion of Islam is not like that. You know, there are certain, there are situations that could warrant jihad, I think you understand. The first thing is that, for instance, if they, if those that are not Muslims kill some few Muslims, the first thing the Muslims will do is that they will carry the corpses and go to the Christians, their leaders and say this is what your people has done to us, is there any action you will take? If they say ah we are sorry this thing will never be allowed to happen again, shikenan that closes the chapter, but they will have to pay diyaa ooh for that, you understand. There are steps, there are steps hhm there is a criteria to follow before you just start the jihad.

ZA19 [5697-6360]

I totally and unequivocally disagree with this assertion because what jihad simply means in Islam is actually bringing or removing anything that will harm another Muslim ah not even Muslim, any, I mean any creature that may likely involve into something harmful, when you try to cajole or actually to intercept him from involving in that dangerous malicious act is a form of jihad. So jihad has been categorized in so many ways, not necessarily taking arms and killing people, you understand, lynching some groups or involving in genocide or any ethnic cleansing. So actually jihad does not necessary mean killing people or taking weapon of mass destruction.

ZA20 [3199-3428]

Islamic jihad is all about da'wa. It is all the act of calling people in the course of Islam in a peaceful manner. It does not mean taking arms, you know, going into the field a combatant or any other field. That is not jihad.

ZA21 [3480-4233]

I must say I disagree with him because Islam, as a matter of fact, we say is a religion of peace. And there are preconditions that are prerequisites before somebody should embark upon jihad. And jihad-the first kind of jihad in Islam is jihadin nafs, you must try and clean your mind or your heart, so to say, not even going to fight because to like sit down with your neighbor even if it is a Christian, yes is good in Islam. So whatever you are doing, it does not entail you waging war against anybody. No whatever you should do should go in conformity with Islamic dictates. And the Islamic dictates did not say you must fight physically with anybody. That is to say true Muslim believer should not consider all these things as part of being jihad.

ZA22 [3953-4511]

Yah. Jihad can mean so many things. It may be jihad with somebody's tongue, somebody's wealth, with somebody's body may be fighting physically. But in all, under all circumstances there is a way to do the jihad. For instance now what we need in Nigeria is more of intellectual jihad. Muslims should participate in all aspects of life; economic, social, educational and the rest. It is when there is an attack by intruders may be to disrupt our smooth running system of Islam then we definitely have to defend ourselves. So I don't agree with that one.

ZA23 [4909-6217]

It is not every Muslim that will go on jihad even during the life time of the holy prophet (SAW). Islam has the armies. I can recall reading from the authentic ahadith of the holy prophet (SAW) that there was a time the holy prophet (SAW) was to fight a war that is he was to go for jihad and it was publicized, people brought themselves willingly to go out for jihad among them there was one when he came the holy prophet (SAW) asked him whether any of his parents is alive, he said yes his mother was alive, the holy prophet (SAW) said go back and take care of her that is the best jihad you will ever do. Jihad is not necessarily fighting. Doing what Islam ordained on you is jihad. As a young man now, let me give an example on your own self, on your humble self, as a young man you will always want to appear decently and to look nice in the eyes of those that will be looking at you. In Islam, the mode of dressing for the men, the holy prophet (SAW) said you should not allow your trouser, your Kaftan and your babban riga to go beyond you ankle but in dressing today for one to sput and come out looking corporate one will feel if your trouser is not beyond the ankle as if you are only in the sixties. For you to now have a confidence in mind to sow your trouser to maximum of your ankle is jihad.

ZA24 [6748-7927]

Ah I am really disagreeing with that. In fact I could remember when I was in secondary school or even when I was doing my NCE program I do tell my colleagues that you can do jihad with your brain. So if you are taking first in the class as a Muslim you are doing jihad. So jihad is not all about killing people except somebody abuse our prophet (SAW) or somebody want to cheat you or somebody beat your wife now or somebody cheated your wife or family then you can do defense but jihad is not matter of -now there is no jihad like during prophet Muhammad (SAW) where kafirun are always fighting them. But now the jihad we have now is jihad of brain. We too we should use our brain, we should be good ambassadors to our religion. Not to fight. What are you fighting for? We should always be good ambassadors of our religion. Being first in the class, if you are in the office come to office on time, in fact majority of Muslims, so called Muslims, in fact if you see their attitude you cannot trace Islam in their attitude or in their behavior. Therefore I totally disagree that jihad is to kill somebody or to physically fight, to be physically fit in order to fight for Islam.

ZA25 [6958-8046]

(chuckles) That argument of the scholar is relative. Yes that all true Muslims must physically fight for Islam as that is the true jihad; yes I will say I disagree in the sense that there are other factors that must be on ground. You must have a central amir not a sectarian amir, not just a group amir; so you must have an amir and the respected learned scholars must be consulted for every stage, every decision to be taken. So in that situation what we are having now is just sectarian fight which consider themselves as Muslims and every other people that don't belong to their sect as non-Muslims. So for now when you say all Muslims even during prophet Muhammad (SAW) there were Muslims that were exempted from fighting due to one reason or the other. That means every Muslim is obliged to fight physically if we have an amir that has declared to whom oath of allegiance has been given. But in the absence of that you cannot just in one corner declare jihad with you shallow understanding of Islamic knowledge and you start calling others that refuse to follow you as non-Muslims.

ZA26 [4001-4330]

Jihad means a lot. It doesn't have a single meaning. Jihad-in fact self jihad is the best and it is the foremost of all in Islam. So jihad an Islamic-I don't know if you call it jihad, I don't know. United State attack Iraq, is it jihad or what? United State attack Afghanistan, is it jihad or what? What do you call that one?

ZA27 [2156-2469]

Actually I disagree with him in the sense that the way they teach the issue of jihad today to the younger ones is not the proper way, it is not the way prophet Muhammad (SAW) teaches the religion because what they term as jihad is to take weapon and start killing other people. So that one I disagree with that.

ZA28 [8235-8907]

Well a very interesting question. A very, very interesting question. Amm Jihad, the word jihad does not mean physical fight and it does not even mean fight. Jihad, the word jihad here stands for and not even here even in Islam, jihad means the duty of every Muslim to guard the religion. Guarding the religion means making sure that he himself and other people of such believe do thing accordingly according to what God has ordained them to do, according to the sharia. So if you strive to do that if you strive to preach to people to understand what the religion is all about ammm that is jihad. Jihad does not necessarily mean physical fight. No. It is not even fight.

ZA29 [13517-16118]

Well a scholar, a scholar which has no name and which what he said here I have two to three things to explain further. When you say jihad and he said fight. He said fight is the true jihad. Here whoever the scholar is I argue him, let him be the person that lived with the prophet, I argue him because he did not explain what the jihad means. Jihad is an Arabic word, which means to strive. Jihad means strive, to strive. When a student is trying hard to pass his exams that very student is doing jihad. He is striving to pass the exams. As you come to me asking me some questions making some findings definitely you want to make, you want to form a book whatsoever, what you are doing is jihad, you are striving. That is jihad. When you are practicing your own religion harder, doing-saying the dos and the does not of your religion you are doing jihad. You are striving. But some people misunderstand and misconceive the concept of jihad. Jihad does not mean to fight or to kill but rather qital. Qital is the word of the Arabic word used. Qital means kill. And it doesn't make any sense that all Muslims have to kill or fight for the religion. Definitely yes you are asked to fight for the religion, but not to use physical to physically fight that will inflict injuries in the life of the people. All things that you see in the world they are created by the God almighty and he knows why he created them not you. He created you and he created those things and he made them what they are today not you. So why don't you just... as in that is not the message that God asked you to do. If I may quote a hadith that said Balligu ani wan naw aya as in pass my own message even with a single verse. But you do not say that when you pass the message you make it compulsory for a person to assimilate or to take it home. Your religion does not ask you to fight. He only ask you that when they make a mockery of your own prophet, if that is what the question really means because I see nothing like that, but if that is not what the question means the religion did not ask you to fight, but if that is what the question means when mockery is made against our own prophet we are asked to take it not lightly with the person whatsoever or the community or the country. If you mock our prophet, in that case we are asked to fight, to physically fight you, physically tell you that what you do was wrong and it is not been done that way, I will have to teach you that lesson. If that is what is asked, but if it is not, you religion never asked you to fight; religion, Islam-peace that is the definition.

Well, that is what I said earlier that when you raise, when you came across the book written by those people, those jihadists in Egypt like Sayyid Qutb ehm I even mention the verse, I was able to come across some videos of Boko haram. I think since before 2011, when they are trying to get people, they are advertising, trying to ehm, how can I put it, trying to propagate their ways. I think the video I was able to watch, there are three people that preached in the video and any one of them, any one of them is repeating that verse (he recites the Qur'an those verses, they have been repeating it. So, (coughing) that is to this part, so when we go back to the actual word jihad, what is, we have to look at jihad, what jihad means. Does jihad, jihad in Islam means carrying sword and carrying sword or any or any ammunition to go and be killing people, that is why I have said that we should stick to the actual teaching of the Qur'an and the Sunna. Jihad, there are, what we call the highest jihad, there is even in the tradition of Rasul (SAW) in Bukhari one hadith that he narrated that the highest jihad is the jihadin nafs that is fighting oneself to make sure that you are purified. To purify yourself to know that you are free from all the innovation, you are free from all the sin that you can try to impact your impact into your family first. After your family then may be your area, your environment, you can be able to propagate Islam through different means not only jihad. But jihad, we can't say jihad is completely prohibited or it is not, it is also part of Islam but even the first jihad, it happened in retaliation. Muslims cannot start unless when may be either non-Muslims or any other fact that come to them and trying to do jihad in order to free ourselves because when you look at the history of Badr what happened. Manzon Allah did not go there to fight. He wanted to even enter Mecca to perform the hajj, but non-Muslims stopped him, at the end, sorry they have there, really they wanted to, there are some Muslims that stay in between Mecca and Medina, they try to hijacked the goods of the, ehm, how can I put it, the goods of Abu Sufyan he is coming from I think either Caribbean I cannot remember the actual place. So, as they are trying to pass away, some Muslims that they have been chased away from Mecca to Medina, so they parked in between the way they want to take that one as a road because they went out without anything, they left their houses and all their belongings. So as they are trying to do that before they did it, Abu Sufyan already got the leakage and he changed the way. He took another way but before he sent alert to Mecca to Abu Jahad and he and he has was aware and he gathered, he just let them come fight Muhammad. So as they came, even though their goods have already been escaped, but he said they are not going back they have to go there and show to the world that they are not going to be tackled again. That is what gave rise to Badr. So Muslims can react, I said the first jihad was, was in, was let me say, was as a result of, they were not, they were not the ones that tackle the jihad, but they just fight in order to retaliate. But when we take an example of what is happening now, in our world of today, what ISIS doing, boko haram (laughing) and they called that one jihad. Most especially what is happening in this country, you will go to the mosque, you will put bomb, if you go the church, you will put bomb, you go to the motor station, everywhere, you are killing everybody. What is jihad? To kill, if, see according to Islam, even in the battle field, if I came to you and you are not holding any weapon, it is a prohibition for me to use my weapon and kill you. I have to keep my weapon away and come and catch you and tie you because you are not holding weapon. So, I can't just come from behind and use my bow and either and shoot you or use bomb to blast you that one is un-Islamic. It is not even jihad at all. But this kind of jihad we are witnessing today, they are killing male, they are killing female, they are killing children, anybody, they are involving everybody including. So according to actual duty of Islam even ant, you cannot even kill a single ant without any reason. So I wonder where they got their own teaching. It can happen that in a situation to may be some people will just come and give the fatwa that is permitted to do a suicide bombing or some kind of act, but let me say in the whole world today, this thing can only happen may be in the area Barma or Israel because the Muslims there are really, how can I even, they were marched, ana kansu kaman an danne su.

ZA31 [4505-4947]

Toh, jihad by definition is not by fighting, is not by forcing someone. Jihad is doing the total, what God said we should do and jihad means the total submission of God's will. So I don't see a reason where you, God said by, by so doing jihad or by conveying the message of Allah, you should hold arms or some other objects in other to fight someone to agree, to agree with your message. So jihad means doing what God says you suppose to do.

ZA32 [11223-12570]

So I will first say I disagree, I disagree with that because the prophet (SAW) prophesied that the self purification is what, is the best, is the greater jihad while the physical combat, the physical fighting is what, is a lesser, is a lesser of jihad why because the prophet (SAW) was reported to have said, when he was coming back from what, from the battle of Tabook, the prophet was quoted to have said, we have come back, we have returned from a lesser jihad and we shall now embark on the greater one that is self purification and he also report, he was also reported to have said a mujahid that is a striver, a sincere striver is one who purifies his mind in the way of Allah so that for the, from the said jihadist or form the aforementioned to the aforementioned hadith you can say this scholar is not right in his opinion and the if you hold this as what, in fact, if you trace the history, you can say that even the prophet of Islam Muhammad (SAW) started what, started with preaching not with fighting, he did not stop that preaching and fighting unless and until when the peace was violated, when agreement was, agreement or treaty made between him and the unbelievers who was violated that was when he started what, he started fighting physically about the Islam. That is why I disagree with this scholar by saying what I have said.

ZA33 [4268-4766]

I agree with him to some extent why because the use of physical fight to fight in the cause of religion has its limitations. It is not any issues that arises that one confronts himself with fighting. We have so many ways with which we can propagate or we can fight in the cause of Islam. We can fight with our mouths, fight with our din, with ourselves, with our wealth. When all these factors prevail or are in vain then the use of physical fight will come in that is at the end of the exercise.

ZA34 [9483-10300]

I disagree with this because jihad does not really mean physical combat, because there are so many kinds of jihad. Even the word jihad does not mean fighting. It means struggling that is you struggle either to may be to expand the religion of Allah. It can be through teaching and learning, it can be through building of mosque and schools, it can be through may be admonishing people, they are all jihad. And even to go about business in order to ease the problem of your society, is a kind of jihad. It is not necessary that you must carry weapon, fight against your enemy or may be your counterpart that you are living together; a Christian, a Jew or another religion. We are all living within the same society, why should we fight one another if we really know the teaching of our religion? That is my own idea.

ZA35 [2828-3564]

Well I agree with him because even the prophet (SAW) has said, a true Muslim should be able to embark on jihad and there are 3 or 4 types of jihad, but the most important one is that which you fight within yourself, your own self because they say someone who does not have something cannot be able to give it out to another. If you are an illiterate of something you can't teach somebody. So jihad means striving for the sake of Allah. If you have the faith and the Iman that you yourself you know you are sure and confident of yourself that Allah says do this you do it, don't do this, you do away with it, you don't do it. So other like fighting jihad is when you fight the enemies of the prophet that is the enemy of the Muslims.

ZA36 [7381-7948]

Hmm partially, partially, if you are fighting on Islam and you go for jihad that one is agreed, is understandable because according to Islam you are supposed to fight for your religion, you are safeguarding Islam, but on no circumstance should you fight on little issues which do not go deep into Islam and say you are fighting for Islam, it is not proper because if accidentally you get killed there you are going to hell fire because you are going to account for it, but if you fight purely because you are safeguarding your religion that one is ok, it is on line.

ZA37 [6012-6756]

So that is why I asked you one question, who is this Maududi? I don't even know him.

So let me say something for you to understand it. This Maududi, I don't know him, I in particular because in order to agree or disagree with him, I have to know his stand in Islam because there are many scholars and there are some that are recognized, but there are some that are just writers and according to western education they call them scholars, but they are just writers and we know that, we know our scholars in Islam who always talk based on Qur'an and Hadith. And based on the Qur'an and Hadith, we know the steps and stages and conditions and so on as many things about the issue of jihad. So I don't know who is Maududi as far as I am concerned.

ZA38 [11513-13359]

Ok before I go to the aspect of agreeing or disagreeing, the first thing that is coming out, I don't know who is Maududi, you understand, really. But then basically what he is saying that all Muslims must fight for jihad, but before I tell you, before I go into it, I must tell you what is jihad. Jihad basically simply basically is an Holy war fought for the cause of Islam, you understand, for the survival of Islam, you understand. But when we say this, it does not mean that you see, if you didn't, if they are fighting, because people say, a layman believes that jihad is just a war. Jihad is not war, you understand, when you teach me something I don't know as a Muslim, as a Muslim it is still a jihad, you have dodged that man, you have escaped that man out from ignorance, it is still a jihad. When you sweep an environment that is dirty and you make it clean, it is still a jihad. When you meet your neighbors that are non-Muslims and you preach the gospel of Islam to them, it is still a jihad, but I would not overthrow the one that they fought, fighting because fighting, even the religion of Islam did not survive until he fought a war to its survival and he did not go offensive, he go for defensive, you understand, not, Islamically, the origin of Islam go offensive war, they go for defensive, unless now that I did not know and I cannot make any case of it, you understand, I agreed, you understand, but my agreement is basically is not issue of fighting that is the major, no, but all those things I mentioned, those are the basic things about jihad, telling people the truth, telling your neighbor, if your neighbor is hungry you give him food, it is still a jihad, when you give a hungry man food, it is still a jihad. When you give people knowledge is still a jihad, you understand, this is my basic, I agree with him there

ZA39 [10619-14063]

Actually for me to, must physically fight for Islam that is the true jihad, actually we have to understand one thing, what is the position of this jihad in Islam? It is only when you understand that thing, will give us the way, the light, will shed more light into either agreeing or disagreeing with this scholar. Whatever the position of the scholar, the position must be in line with the provisions and the standards of the religion. Jihad in Islam, how did jihad come? How does a Muslim or how do the religion of Islam conceived this meaning of jihad? Jihad simply means engaging in war in the cause of promoting religion. How do you promote religion? We must not forget we have to look at how the prophet (SAW) participated in this jihad or how he taught us about the jihad. One, prophet (SAW) when he came with the religion of Islam in Mecca with his followers, they suffered persecutions seriously, so therefore as a result of that it lead them to leave Mecca to Medina that is migration. Some started moving, some of his followers, companions moved to Abyssinia, Abyssinia simply means Ethiopia, a county Ethiopia governed by a Christian during his time and later on the prophet himself when the persecution persisted he moved down to Medina, when later before the other companions joined him in Medina. So he moved to Medina as a result of the pagan's persecution in Mecca. When they came to Medina, still these pagans came to invade them and to kill them. So in order to protect themselves, to protect their properties, to protect his men (SAW) the God has sent down the command that they should participate in jihad, jihad simply means holy war to protect his people, to protect their properties and stop the persecution. That is all about the idea. So a Muslim is enjoined, if I may answer you directly, a Muslims is enjoined to participate in that under certain conditions. What is jihad simply means that, it is a war that is allowed, a fight that is permitted, a fight that you are enjoined to participate. What are these fights? You are allowed to participate in defending yourself. You are allowed to participate in defending your properties, in defending your land and this are the conditions that a person is enjoined to do. But even though some people have understanding of the word jihad that everything, everything that you are doing in the name of religion is jihad. So jihad must not be restricted to the taking of weapons or fight against somebody or fight against another set of people. Jihad, if you are spending your money in order to be rewarded in the hereafter, in Islam we call it jihad. If you are helping people be it Muslim or non-Muslim with the aim to be rewarded in the hereafter, help in any way, we call it jihad. If a Muslim participates in preaching, telling a non-Muslim to understand the concept of Islam, it is also called jihad. If a Muslim engages in teaching other Muslims to understand the actual meaning of the religion, it is also called jihad. So jihad must not be restricted only in taking arms. But taking arms is part of it, you may take arms in order to fight, to protect yourself, to protect your properties and to continue promoting your religion peacefully because when somebody wants to stop you from practicing your religion, in Islam, you are also allowed to defend yourself by all means. So jihad has a different connotation. It should not be restricted to taking arms for war.

Th7.3: Jihad as Obligatory to all Muslims and Was of Jihad

FG1 [22239-22745]

It is based on the type of the jihad. As we said that there is personal jihad of oneself and then there is jihad towards others. Let's take it to oneself because it is going to solve the problems of all those deviants, social deviants if you can actually deny your desires if they are actually wrong just for you to be safe, it is also part of jihad. The heart will be telling you things that are actually not right so when you can be able to stop that and do what is right for you then it is also jihad.

FG3 [32696-32806]

Yes I agree (Chorus of agreement followed) I whole heartedly agree that jihad is obligatory to every Muslim.

FG3 [32835-33273]

Every Muslim from the day you are born in this world up to the day you die you owe Allah Subahans wa taallah your duty; your duty to perform your faith, your duty to perform any other voluntary faith, which are charitable, your duty to do things right way in Sunna and also to believe in the holy Qur'an. So with this I would say jihad is obligatory. Whosoever wants to go to paradise definitely you will do what you are supposed to do.

FG3 [33335-33480]

Jihad is a personal spiritual duty of one of yourself and how you eradicate that evil in you. So that is what I think, it so obligatory on you.

KD1 [20363-20948]

Yes, Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, jihad is an obligation to all Muslims. This is true because you actually have a responsibility to protect your religion, you actually have the responsibility to show, to be proud, to show that you are a Muslim. You actually have a responsibility to protect the rights of your brother, the rights of your religion, that all this, nobody would hold you for what you don't have power for, nobody would hold you responsible for what is beyond you. You only be held or asked of what is within your means. So that's just, that's my opinion on that.

KD2 [8521-9031]

Yes I agree jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, but to the extent that you don't have to fight physical fight or fight with sword as the non-Muslims do interpret it. But you can do jihadin nafs, you can partake in good deeds, good actions, sacrifice, sadakat and what have you. I can support those going out for the form of jihad like da'wa, all those is a form of jihad and it is obligatory actually. But you just can't partake ah in a form of sword fight and say you are fighting jihad or that is jihad, no.

KD3 [6624-7202]

The answer is true. Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, as I said earlier. But the question how is jihad obligatory is there are different ways, if I have to emphasize on that, it is a very wide topic on its own. So but the main thing I even mention is jihadin nafs because before you can preach to any body, the first jihad is yourself. You can't stop somebody, if you are a thief; you can't stop somebody from stealing when you yourself have not stopped stealing. So and the other Jihad of that of the battle, we don't fight until they fight us. That's how it is on our book.

KD4 [10191-10761]

I think this is what I may refer you as a tautology. You have been repeating questions. Jihad is obligatory, yah, to all Muslims, but as I have mentioned earlier on, which type of jihad? Is it they type of coercive means of carrying arms that we are seeing in the part of Nigeria just as what is happening in Maiduguri and Yobe what have you, that is not what I call jihad. To my perspective, to my understanding, that is not jihad. But just as I told you earlier on, jihadin nafs, yes, is obligatory to all Muslims and its compulsory, every Muslim must engage in that.

KD5 [6372-6667]

Ahh Jihad is obligatory because the jihad, the concept of jihad is a very wide scope because jihad covers using of arms, jihadin nafs, using of Wealth, and prohibiting people from doing what is wrong and encouraging people to do what is right. So, I think jihad is obligatory, it is obligatory.

KD6 [16509-16991]

Jihad is obligatory, but it depends on what is your definition of jihad. I have told you the definition of Jihad, people thinks jihad is just to bring knife and cut people's neck, no. Jihad is obligatory to me. The way I have my own power to do like I have somebody that I can help and help the person is jihad. I can cross ith an old person, I cross with him is jihad not until I bring out a gun shooting him, and you are now telling me that is jihad, no. I don't agree with that.

KD7 [9673-10088]

It is very obligatory. As I said, jihad is submission to the will of Allah. Allah wants something that is pure. If you go out to fight, you are fighting for Allah not because you are going to get power, not because you are going to get something out of that. You are doing it because of God because from our books, this is what Allah asks of you. But how we go about it determines which kind of jihad we are doing.

KD8 [19462-20063]

Am not an Islamic scholar. It will be difficult to answer this question, but jihad is, there is a condition that will make jihad to be obligatory even during the prophet (SAW), there is no where he says everybody has to, it's obligatory for everybody. There are people that will have to stay at home and take care of certain things and there are people that will be sick and all that. So, jihad is, it is a situation that brings about jihad, the other side of the jihad, but the other interpretation in jihad in the context of trying to propagate Islam, having knowledge, of course, that one is true.

KD9 [11866-12674]

Of course, I have said it earlier, see every Muslim should have jihad. Jihad is obligatory, it is ah a form of worship. So as a Muslim you know that you just have to accept that jihad fi sabilillah is part of your life, but how do you go about the jihad? You cannot wake up as a person, you need leadership, you need direction, so the leader will tell you what to do. But every single Muslim should have it at the back of his mind that yes jihad is part of Islam. So starting from jihadin nafs and of course if need be, if need be because a time came during the time of prophet (SAW) when he had to fight, when Allah (SBUH) commanded him to defend himself, he had to do that. So everybody Muslims should have it at the back of his mind that yes if the time comes, if there is the need for it yes he has to.

KD11 [13264-13750]

Yes it is obligatory to Muslims. Every Muslim is enjoined to strive for his own religion in whichever way necessary and a teacher teaching in a classroom is a jihadist ah in fact I think the most important jihad in Islam is, when you are able to like, I wouldn't say totally free yourself, to show a great amount of restraint of sins ah to make sure that your means of subsistence is halal, I think you have performed one of the greatest jihad in Islam not necessarily taking up arms.

KD12 [13812-14043]

Ah jihad is obligatory to people, you see the jihad the jihad the jihad of ah (recites in Arabic) see the jihad of correct, straightening people to good ways and correcting them in their bad conduct is good to be done in everyday.

KD13 [4860-4981]

Jihad is part of Islam and why it is obligatory is that you need to educate somebody to win a soul toward Allah (SBUH).

KD14 [6219-6476]

Yes jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, but there are limits and what kind of jihad. Before you can even go for any jihad, there is this jihadin nafs that is one's self. You must force yourself to do what Allah asks you to do before you can preach it out.

KD15 [9122-9705]

Actually jihad in Islam is very obligatory in Islam because as a Muslim ah jihad, as I said earlier on, you mustn't take weapon before you can go for jihad or before you can say you are fighting for jihad, no. Even through your character, your behavior is also a jihad, your good heart feelings, your good intentions for your partner or your neighbor is also jihad. So people emulate on it from you, from your good deeds, you see if you are doing good deeds and people are also emulating you I think that is also a good jihad. So jihad is obligatory very, very obligatory in Islam.

KD16 [4617-4938]

It is obligatory truly. I strongly agree with that, but you can fight your own self. Jihadin nafs is compulsory, it is a compulsory aspect of Islam, but it is not only when you take a sword to slay other people, to claim other people's lives, but definitely you have to fight yourself. That kind of jihad is compulsory.

KD17 [16573-17243]

Jihad is obligatory on all Muslims based on my understanding on what jihad is, because jihad is struggling. You must struggle. That is what I said earlier, struggle against your own self. To wakeup when the call of prayer is being made, the asubu prayer, when you are enjoying your sleep the most is jihad. To fight your own soul, to fight the evil of your own soul, of your own personal soul is jihad. So based on my own understanding of what jihad is you must not really pick up of arms or not picking up arms, maybe qital as in going out picking arms that is what jihad is, no. Struggling, striving is what we mean by jihad. That is the literally meaning of jihad.

KD18 [8422-9006]

Islam, I mean jihad is obligatory, but is different from the way people view it, as I said earlier that jihad is not only fighting that we call jihad, is obligatory to us to strive and to make efforts to eh to try to educate our people about what Islam is all about, but not, but it is not what you, it is not the way you take it that Islam is all about fighting, fighting, fighting, is the way we do our things by trying to eh by trying to educate and enlighten our people about what Qur'an is teaching us not just to be fighting, fighting, fighting all the time that we call jihad.

KD19 [11707-12204]

Jihad is obligatory of one all Muslims but there are exceptions. A woman that is a Muslim is not permitted to go on jihad, same thing goes to the weak and the old. Ahm jihad is only obligatory on the able bodied men who can fight in the name of religion now that is we are talking about war. Now but jihad is obligatory on all Muslims whether you are a male or female, that is whatever you see that can promote the cause of religion is jihad, do it so in that sense I believe jihad is obligatory.

KD20 [6270-6445]

It's not obligatory. Is obligatory because it is not the fight, the fight yes we are doing jihad every even this prayer we are going to the mosque is part of jihad, isn't it?

KD21 [6886-7229]

We have classes of jihad, but when it comes to jihad, the first thing that comes to people's mind both Muslims and non-Muslims is to pick up arms and fight for the sake of Allah. When you stop yourself from doing harm, you are doing jihad bin nafs. That is a part jihad I think it is obligatory to all Muslims, we have to correct our mindset.

KD23 [7074-7191]

Yes it's obligatory to all Muslims, but unless if a person is capable to do it that is if person is physically fit.

KD24 [26944-27559]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims yes is obligatory, is obligatory to all Muslims, why because just I've mentioned early also that jihad is obligatory to all Muslims in the sense that they are not all forced to go to jihad to carry weapon, no. Prophet Muhammad (SAW) says in one hadith minal jihad, jihadin nafs if am not mistaken, among the jihads which people can practice is you should fight your own heart, stop her from cheating, stop her from telling lies, stop her from stealing, stop her from all bad habits that one too is known as jihad, then if that should be the case because all Muslims are jihadists.

KD25 [38313-39325]

You see if you are talking of jihad from the perspective of those that look at it as ah carrying sword or what have you, now we cannot just make a wrong statement and said eh jihad is compulsory and ah because ah eh if Allah the most exalted did not enjoin anything in the Qur'an, did not make compulsory anything in the Qur'an and the prophet did not also paraphrase or explain that, there is nobody that will later come and bring something new and say it is also compulsory because he is not he is not an authority. God is authority and prophet is in authority. When God when Allah says a thing whether a command or a prohibition, the Muslims must follow suit, they must, if they want to enter paradise that is from my own Islamic perspective oh and if Allah prohibits the Muslim from carrying out something, they must make sure that they distance and they eschew themselves from carrying from carrying out that thing, you understand, so I will not agree with eh with this statement that eh eh eh that what eh?

KD25 [39357-40977]

That jihad is obligatory. Jihad, what I know in the in the prophetic statement is that eh ah ah ah the prophet said anybody, any Muslim that should die, right, without the hope that in case a battle should emanate he will certainly fight for the cause of Islam, anybody that should die without having such intention that is intention not just, no intention, the prophet said he will die a death of period of pre-Islamic that is jahiliyya, you understand, but I have not come across any ah verse in the Qur'an, I'm not saying they have not, but I as a pupil in the knowledge, I have not, rather have I heard any of my scholars eh mention such things in the Qur'an or the hadith that the, that jihad is compulsory. So, you understand, you can't just say jihad is, even the during the prophet's life, there was a time that ah the prophet and his followers were very few in Mecca then, so they inhabitants from Mecca mainly Quraisites who are polytheists, who were not Muslims continued torturing the prophet and his followers and they were very few, they could not, so the, part of those what were with the prophet were saying that oh the prophet why shouldn't we fight them? The prophet said, I was not instructed to do that. Now if the prophet during that time, despite the existence of eh you know the companions that why don't they go and fight or wage jihad on these people that are harming them, the prophet said I was not, I was not still you know instructed to fight. What about we now? Is there any prophet amongst us now that somebody is saying that jihad is compulsory, who? Where has he gotten this statement?

KD26 [8877-9218]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because there are different types of jihad. There is the jihad you fight with yourself and that answer alone is sufficient for this because you fighting, struggling is an internal struggle, jihad of the heart you fight with yourself to do good. So it is obligatory to all Muslims. That is very compulsory.

KD27 [8651-8847]

It goes back to what I said in the beginning, you start - that the greatest jihad is the one that you undertake upon yourself. So it is obligatory. You start from there, every other thing follows

KD28 [12794-13613]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims. How is that once you have ordered you to do something, you strive your best to do what you can do according to the Islamic injunction. What Islam has forbidden you, is against Islam, you have to follow you know control yourself in order not to go unto that. That is the only way Islam or a jihad is obligatory to Muslims because you have to make effort, strive to see that yes you follow the guidelines, instructions according to Islamic injunction, if you are a true believer, a Muslim because what Islam has forbidden you, you have to keep away from it. What Islam has directed you to do because you have your own responsibility as a Muslim, to the community, to yourself, to your neighbor, to a non-Muslim. You have all these things, so once you are able to , is a form of jihad.

KD29 [7287-7656]

Well jihad is obligatory because the Islam is complete way of life and in most cases we found ourselves deviating through our conduct, deviating from the teachings of Islam and that's what even scare non-Muslims that maybe some of the bad conduct is a teaching from the, is from the Islamic teachings while in the actual sense it is not from the Islamic teachings.

KD30 [12098-12856]

Ah it is a sole responsibility of all Muslims to engage in ah in propagating Islam, that is letting people to see the true beauty of this Islam so that they can invite them into it. As I said the jihad is of different stage, of different ah of course stages ah of course it is an obligatory to all Muslims to either way, either invite them by dialogue or by a way to pursue or introduce or enlighten, I think this is part of the problem we are having here in Nigeria where we fail to maybe is out of the conflicts or I don't know maybe the ignorance of the religion itself that the Muslims have fail to maybe introduce or maybe show in action to show to the Christians the true beauty of Islam ah so that we might as well invite them into it peacefully.

KD31 [9312-9323]

Yah it is.

KD31 [9359-9640]

Obligatory in the sense that as a Muslim, you know that yes Islam is the true religion, so definitely you have to try and convince whosoever you might come across in order to like make him understand the religion that's jihad and that's why I said it is necessary for all Muslims.

KD32 [10041-10650]

Yah the real jihad that is to strive for the sake of Allah it is not obligatory unless if you have the opportunity. Like if you have the wealth to spend for the sake of Allah it is a jihad. So it is recommendable but it is not compulsory. If you have a wealth to build a mosque or to build a school for the teaching of Islam, you can do it, it is recommended for you to do that, but we cannot say it is compulsory for you to spend that. But the other jihad that is terrorism that's from the media ways of understanding what jihad is, that one is not acceptable and terrorism is not in the character of Islam.

KD33 [8511-9107]

Yah, Jihad is obligatory, the term jihad, eh, ah we need to know the term jihad. Jihad, it doesn't mean ah that you will carry a weapon, you will attack somebody who is not Muslim. No. Jihad means to you yourself, you will defend, you will start to work better to be a better Muslims. Not to carry a weapon, so jihad you have to start with yourself to try to become a good Muslims then you try to encourage the people around you, from your family members, your family, the people you are living around you, your neighbors, the society, then from there, you will start that is what we call jihad.

KD34 [9437-9593]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslim I agree with that 100 percent, but as I said earlier, the way you define jihad, not jihad of taking arms against people.

KD35 [12976-13446]

Ahh I mean jihad is mandatory or is necessary or is what you call it ahh in one sura Allah says (he recites in Arabic), so every soul must preach, every soul must does must try that trial is the jihad, try and preach either in the home, in the street, in the market, whoever you meet in the bus or wherever you meet people you preach. The moment you preach that means you are practicing jihad. Do it to the best you can, so that is my understanding, that is my belief.

KN1 [25323-25700]

Yah, jihad may be obligatory but still depending on the circumstances and the situation, because now you cannot just wake up and start launching jihad on people around you, based on what, why? But if the circumstance becomes necessary as I told you concerning Badr definitely you have to go out it is obligatory it depends on how you find yourself and what is the situation.

KN2 [15227-15434]

It is obligatory because in Islam it is described as such. Obligatory does not mean compulsory, but something that Muslims should be prepared for. If the conditions become necessary they are ready for it.

KN4 [20483-22365]

Yes, Jihad is obligatory as when you look at the definition of Jihad, but not taking the, not taking, not to go to the field of or not to maltreat, not to cause acrimony among people, not to cause confusion, disharmony amongst people, that that I have mentioned when you distance yourself from it, its jihad because Islam is peace, Islam love peace, they cherish peace. Jihad has a definition, but there is dictionary definition of jihad, there is literally definition of Jihad and there is also real meaning of Jihad among Muslims. Even prophet Mohammed (SAW) did not take arms against any tribe. His own time ah it is he and unbelievers, the idol worshippers not the Christians. Prophet Muhammad (SAW) you see he even he stayed with Christians in fact even there is a Christian from Ethiopia Najashi that gave him his wife that gave him wife, you understand, you see Islam. Islam is not a do or die religion, there is a verse also in the Islam that says that you can even marry a Jew, you can marry a Christian on condition. Islam does not permit ah violence though they call it jihad. Jihad has a different meaning to support, to work, to strive in the work of God, to strive in the activities, to change the attitude of people, to preach peace, to be honest, to be good, to have a very versed in fact to come out with a very excellent behavior all that is jihad; to assist, to support, to in fact to not allow war amongst people of diverse interest like in multi plural state like in Nigeria also all that is jihad. In fact to even say a calm and peaceful word that people can take and use and take it as though or take it completely instant as a medicine, that also ah ah is Jihad, you understand. You understand, it has a different meaning; so people interpret Jihad as war, no, jihad is not war, Jihad fi sabilillah or for the sake of God you can do it in different form

KN5 [8522-8974]

Yes Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims as Allah (SBUH) say (He quotes a verse of the Qur'an) ah it is obligatory using the available resources. Islam Allah says la iqra ha fid din so you do the best you can if you are a Muslim, we say starting from jihad bin nafs and stopping what you people can do for your family, love at family level and then if the government is powerful enough to implement Islam eh fully then you continue and embark on jihad.

KN6 [8474-8917]

So jihad is obligatory to the Muslim because by understanding the meaning of jihad it would answer this question, when you understand the full meaning of jihad you will be able to answer this question because I say why I don't know why people fear this jihad. if I say jihad, if you-when you take the literal meaning of jihad, what is the literal meaning of jihad? So to be fully participate in everything, so this is the meaning of jihad so.

KN7 [8635-9361]

Well ehm as a true, a true believer, as a faithful or let me say a good Muslim, jihad is obligatory to you because some, in one way or the other, even your kids, your offspring they are in one way or the other under your custody, so in one way or the other you are, you are calling them, yes you come up, you bring them up in the Islamic way, in one way or the other that is a jihad. So you, it is let me say yes it is obligatory, it is obligatory because yes, if your children are of this ehm characters that are not, that are not un-Islamic, you will never be happy and ehm it is a sin upon a Muslim to have offspring that are not following the way of Islam. So it is kind of obligatory on every Muslim as a true believer.

KN8 [7431-7788]

Hmm, I think it is an assignment for every Muslim, you understand, to encourage his fellow brothers and sisters towards his religion, you understand. So in a nutshell is an, an average Muslim should always have the mind of embarking on jihad but let the jihad be persuasive, let it be diplomatic, let it to be sensitive rather than being a forceful action.

KN9 [8176-8551]

Yes, jihad is obligatory to all Muslims. The statement is true because I want to believe there is a verse in the holy Quran that ah agrees that as a last result if you have to, if you are push to the wall, if your religion is threatened, you should pick up whatever you have and fight in the name of Allah. You should fight for the preservation of the religion of Allah, yes.

KN10 [7175-7296]

Jihad is obligatory because that is the only means that you can ah get free and get chance to perform your religion well.

KN11 [9597-9887]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, now even to fight your soul, not to follow your own desire is jihad. Not necessarily to take weapons to fight your opponent, no, but to fight your soul or to fight yourself in order not to commit any ah sin is also a jihad. That is my own understating.

KN13 [9360-9791]

Jihad is obligatory in the sense that it has, it is just in line with question that we answered earlier in the sense that there are series and forms of jihad. There is jihad of the mind in one must conquer himself to achieve a particular purpose whereby I have to do this in my mind I know do this is not good, this is not right I have to fight that in my mind. There are series of jihad, so jihad is a necessity for all Muslims.

KN14 [7288-7802]

Yes jihad is obligatory to all Muslims if they, if it is true jihad as I told you before, that most of ah these militants that are claiming Islam ah is not true jihad, but if ah there is true jihad, so a Muslim must engage in it, but there are some criteria, there are some things that must come before ah the jihad, and is not the ah layman that just woke up and say ah lets engage in this jihad, no. There are some, it is the Islamic scholars that say that because of the so so so reason, let us engage in jihad.

KN15 [8911-9130]

Yes jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because a Muslim cannot be a true believer without making some sacrifices to his din and on that process of making sacrifices, he will involve in many acts of jihad, so it's true.

KN16 [4723-4809]

Yes but fighting is not the first stage of jihad, it usually comes at the last stage.

KN17 [8417-8735]

Uh jihad is eh is just like a is a spiritual fight which is necessary is like is its am its mandatory for all Muslims to actually fight fight for jihad. If you if you if you if you come across something that is un-Islamic by way of approaching people that they should stop doing this is another way or form of jihad.

KN17 [8801-8989]

Yes to an adult that have that has that have been taught and ammm that have that know more about the Islamic principles and doctrines and the Sunna of the prophet Muhammad (SAW).

KN18 [15495-15653]

This jihad needs to be conceptualize, reconceptualised. If you say jihad and the context of carrying arms against non-Muslims or non uh yes non-Muslim fellows

KN18 [15726-16407]

Just to all Muslims, but the kind of jihad it is talking about, it is just such a jihad to protect the Muslim community from an attack. They are being facing a danger of annihilation from a group that is a jihad. Therefore, you can come and defend that state, that community, that people, it is jihad to protect your own economic ah lives, to protect you businesses, to protect your money, they want to now, they want to come and they want to come or armed robber come they want to confiscate your money, they want to confiscate your money and now in trying to defend that wealth that your wealth that you worked fully for, what you, you die in that place, you cannot force jihad.

KN19 [11976-12691]

Yes. Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, you understand, because even Allah (SAW) has mandated every existing if truly you are a Muslim and are committed to Muslim (quoting a Qur'anic verse) the only and the most acceptable religion is only from Allah which is Islam, you understand, then any other one that has contributed or moved along with another part, you understand, is not part of us and in the hereafter Allah will not accept this. This is a verse from the holy Qur'an. So to some extent it is an, it is one of the most important thing an average Muslim should put into consideration anywhere you are try as must as you can to contribute to the will of God and encourage people towards the will of Islam.

KN20 [5889-6003]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims? Jihad is compulsory for all Muslims but not necessarily the carrying of arms.

KN21 [4270-4333]

You are fighting in the cause of Allah, so it is obligatory.

KN22 [7583-8447]

Yah, jihad is obligatory to all Muslims and it is true. This can be justified from when we look at the prophetic era or the early generation of Islam where some jihadist actually waged a war against the Byzantine Empire, you know, against the Babylonian empire in order for them to convert to Islam. But contemporarily ah we have no-there is no society where there is no Islam in that particular society or a particular state. So in this contemporary era there is systematic way of jihad not necessarily when youths or Muslims carry arms. Yah, it is an obligation to every Muslims to start it from his household, to see what is right and advocate for it, promote that idea for the people to follow what is right and what is not right, it is your obligation as Muslim to stop it and also spread it across to the Muslims community that is not right and it is jihad.

KN23 [7139-7225]

Yah it is because from my definition of jihad it says strive for the cause of Islam

KN24 [6476-6648]

Yah this is true. Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because the prophet said that whatever you know you have to forward it to other people and that is part of jihad too.

KN25 [7898-8163]

Well you see for the Muslims, as I have said earlier, peace is the governing principle among Muslim but should in the event where it becomes necessary, a Muslim has to fight with all his life and might to what? To protect the religion, the great religion of Allah

KN26 [7388-8018]

Jihad in what form? There are also various forms of jihad, you understand, I can wedge a jihad without taking a sword or a gun or something. In that way yes I can agree, but violent jihad I, you know, persuasion can also be a form of jihad. Sometimes avoidance can also be a form of jihad. This is something that most of our preachers fail to actually communicate to the followers. There are various forms of jihad. Jihad does not necessarily mean you pick a sword or you pick an arm against anybody because no place in the holy Qur'an, you know, permits somebody to wrongfully take the life of another for any particular reason.

KN27 [8134-8379]

As I said earlier on, jihad is obligatory in the sense that you can't, I said it earlier that you can't watch your offspring go astray. So that process or methodology you take to guide them or teach them the teachings of Islam is also a jihad.

KN28 [6205-6327]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims; hmm well this is just an issue that I can say with the influence of interest itself.

KN30 [7007-7238]

I don't know where you are getting all these injections. Jihad is not necessary. It is not something that-I told you the stages or maybe we need more explanations, more teachings towards engaging into jihad but not just like that?

KN30 [7565-7619]

As I have earlier told you there are stages of jihad.

KN30 [7678-8156]

Yah that one, that jihad bin nafs is necessary because everybody is encouraged to fight with their heart because we have so many heart desires. Sometime may be tempted on your way may be you see a fine girl along the road, maybe she looks pompous, you understand, and maybe you may be tempted to talk to her and may be you have a private affair with her, if you fight in yourself not to even talk to her, not to even go near to her, you understand, you have done a jihad then.

KN31 [8367-8635]

Yes jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because in a situation whereby Muslims come to find a situation whereby may be the non-Muslims are trying to subdue them; it is the right and responsibility of every Muslim to pick up his sword so that he will fight against ahhh

KN32 [2893-2934]

Ah yes but not that of carrying weapons.

KN33 [3206-3245]

Yes because all most struggle for Islam

KN34 [3906-3989]

I don't think it is correct. It is not obligatory. It depends on the circumstance.

KN35. [5855-5859]

Yes

KN35. [5907-6011]

Jihad is obligatory because Allah has commanded the prophets and those Muslims to strive in his cause.

KN36 [5384-5488]

Jihad is obligatory but it is not the only means of making sure that all Muslims are in the right way.

KN37. [4910-5317]

You see jihad has been categories into different perspectives, you can't just say jihad-I don't really know what kind of jihad you are talking about, but if I could conceptualize it into the different kinds of jihad, I can say yes it is compulsory for every Muslims because if I should go out and help a Muslim from drowning I think I have carried out a jihad. So I think it is compulsory for every Muslim.

KN38 [3183-3671]

Jihad is obligatory yes but there are various types of jihad. There is jihadin nafs that is jihad, there are various types of jihad. So what is jihad itself? It is strive for the sake of Allah. I believe whenever you strive yourself to restrain yourself from doing something wrong, it is jihad in its own self, and whenever you strive by convincing someone to do what is right, it is also jihad, so jihad does not mean necessarily carrying a weapon, it could be disseminated in many ways.

KN39 [3571-3588]

It is not true.

KN40 [6748-7107]

Even during the prophet Muhammad (SAW), he make, he did jihad by self to fight against those people who are having bad impact on the Muslims, so using of jihad or making of jihad or involving ourselves in jihad is just like we are trying to follow the footsteps of prophet Muhammad because jihad by itself it has the reward from the God.

KN41 [4237-4926]

Of course this is very true. Jihad is obligatory upon every Muslim. Jihad is of various kinds, some of which are obligatory upon everyone who is accountable for that. And some are obligatory upon the community as a whole. If some people under take them then the rest are relieved of the obligation, and some kind of jihad are Mustahab which is voluntary. So we have the jihad of nafs that is jihad against one's self and the jihad of al-shaiyatan (jihad against the Satan). These are obligatory upon everyone who is accountable. And lastly, jihad against the munafikum, the kafirun, the disbelievers and leader of oppression and innovation is obligatory upon the community as a whole.

KN42 [7309-7662]

Jihad is obligatory because the act of even helping your neighbors, being kind to your neighbors, showing kindness to people and being a normal Muslim, following the doctrines of Islam, what Allah has said, following and prohibiting what Allah has prohibited is actually jihad. So it is said to be obligatory because jihad is part of our everyday life.

KN43 [10170-10399]

Yah that is jihadin nafs the self-jihad. Even the arms jihad there are certain conditions that necessitate someone to go into the arms jihad, but what this thing is indicating is self-jihad, you understand, that is jihadin nafs.

KN44 [5918-6294]

Jihad is really obligatory to the Muslims since they have been enjoined by their religion to in that respect ahh, there are various reasons that would make a jihad obligatory and this has to be supported by a number of injunctions either from the Quran and hadith which I am not really capable of submitting now. I don't have the text so I wouldn't like to expatiate on that.

KN45 [5852-6135]

Yah, I think the interpretation of the jihad also differs. Even according to a certain prophetic tradition like maybe correcting a wrong doing, this is also a jihad, jihad is not necessarily to carry a sword or to carry a gun and go to war to force Muslims to convert to Islam, yah.

KN46 [8956-9708]

I think answered this question because jihad means different things to different people. So if jihad means militant or ah military ah campaign then that is not the, the, the, that is not, that cannot be compulsory upon all Muslims. But if jihad means want to strive to help the religion, to help those who are in need of help, then it is compulsory because Islam cannot ah blind its eyes or close its eyes for may ah for the strong to oppress those who are weak and say you are practicing the true religion. As a Muslim, you are expected to help those who are being persecuted whether they share your faith or they don't. This is part of jihad, because jihad just like I explained before is not synonymous with war or what some people call holy war.

KN47 [14748-15997]

Well, is obligatory to all Muslim, as I said, ah looking at the, the conditions you know that set up the jihad. You can go for jihad, for example, if somebody attack you, if somebody you know prevent you to practice your religion, but in nowadays situation I don't think there is any ideal situation whereby somebody will prevent you to practice your religion. There is no this because in the universal declaration of human right charter, it gives in article 19, I think, in article 18 sorry, they gave this kind of y, you know, judgment or verdict that you can practice your religion and then you can convert to other religion without any menace yes without any menace, without any fear, you understand. So you can practice your religion and you can convert to your religion whenever you like according to the law and we believe that this is universal law, this is universal modern, universal eh declaration of human rights. So we respect that law and this our modern society, so we don't have to say that somebody will prevent you from practicing your religion as a condition for you to go to jihad. There is no condition nowadays for somebody to, you know, come and, you know, prevent you from practicing your religion let alone going to jihad.

KN48 [4943-5317]

Yes, is obligatory in Islam, but this thing ehn, this jihad use to come to play when you've tried all your possible best on someone. Yes jihad is obligatory, yah it is obligatory in the sense that we are being ordered by Allah himself and so it is obligatory because Allah himself ordered us to do what is good and still wants us to go against what he has forbidden for us.

KN49 [7815-8923]

I think when Muslims find themselves in a position whereby they have to wage jihad in order to stay in their religion, or in order to survive, or in order to propagate their religion. You don't just wake up one day and start waging jihad against the unbelievers because there are, there are unbelievers that can coexist alongside you without any, without creating any problems without, without eh creating differences in your religious ranks because unbelievers can actually stay within the Islamic state and they can pay what they jizya which is eh like a tax, it is a form of tax levied on them because they are living within the protection of the Islamic state and they are actually ah benefiting from, how is jihad eh, when we answer, in an attempt to answer ah the question, how is jihad obligatory we need to look at the existing conditions in which Muslims live and that is what would provide and answer to the question. Jihad itself as a whole is something that is enjoined in Islam and it is absolutely necessary, especially within the Islamic state and in the process of creating an Islamic state.

KN50 [4387-4854]

Ahh jihad, jihad, truly jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because for you as a Muslims you have to ah there are lot of things for you to do in Islam which is very easy for you to do to be jihad, everything in Islam I can call it is jihad because you are all saying what people would go through by following the part of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) and also to be, to be guided and follow the rules, abiding the ehh, the rules in Islam for you to be a complete Muslim.

KN51 [32568-33890]

Jihad is only obligatory to all Muslims when they are under attack by non-Muslims. If now the Muslims are surrounded by non-Muslims, they are attacked ok, yauwa. If they are attacked, now every Muslim must participate in defending themselves that is that. But apart from this, jihad even in Islam, we call it al-jihadu fardhu kifaya, it is when, when it is being carried out, very few people participate, not all, not every Muslim ok. That is why women don't participate, children don't participate, a number of people don't participate in jihad, yes. In Islamic jihad, not the jihad that they are taking today, there is difference between the jihad which is Islamic and this jihad that they are talking today. The jihad that they are taking today is not jihad, as far as Islam is concerned, what they are doing today is not jihad. Jihad has its own pre-requisite, has its own principles ok, guidelines in which Muslims must observe, which Muslims must observe. So what we are saying, it is only compulsory upon all Muslims when they are under attack, somebody comes, somebody comes to kill them, somebody comes to destroy them, to prevent them from their religion. If somebody comes to do this, definitely they are all under compulsion to take up arms and prevent themselves from being killed by non-Muslims, this is it.

KN52 [9785-10157]

Yes, jihad is obligatory especially the jihad that entails one controlling his own self desire, you know that is mandatory because if one as a Muslim is not able to control his self-desire then that would destroy him as a person and will destroy his iman, his din and so on. I think it is mandatory; it is something that must be ah I mean Muslims should strive to achieve

KN53 [6380-6496]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because we are expected to do the right thing and forbid what is bad. That's all

KN54 [2855-2861]

True.

KN55 [3827-4102]

True. Every Muslim in his own way should be involved in jihad. We have different types of jihad. Jihad is not necessarily with weapons. We can fight with our soul, we can fight with our property, and we can fight with our mind that is we should hate what somebody is doing.

KN56 [4858-5280]

Yah jihad is actually obligatory to every Muslim and it is obligatory ah every Muslim should strive in his own way to try to see that he has fought a type of jihad not necessarily physical jihad. Those that are knowledgeable in Islam should teach people their knowledge, those that have wealth should try to reach out to the poor in the society, and those that have ah upright people in the society should live by example.

KN57 [6009-6165]

It is true because it is upon every Muslim. Every Muslim must observe jihad, be it physically, be it with his heart, be it to give zakat, all this are jihad

KN58 [16563-16785]

Now jihad is obligatory to Muslims in the sense that as a Muslim you are expected to obey Allah in totality. So if it is ordained or if it is such then it is obligatory since Islam means submission to the wills of Allah.

KN59 [10433-10794]

Yes I agree that jihad is obligatory because it all depends on the perception, ones perception of jihad. Based on my own understanding, jihad is a, as I earlier said, self-fight, to fight your own conscience, so if jihad is to fight ones conscience then it is obligatory for everybody and they have to do it. It is, true you understand, so that is what I know.

KN60 [14654-15197]

Jihad is obligatory because it is obligatory in a sense that you must fight using your money, using your knowledge, your character, your behavior, the way you interact with people all these if you do it according to the teachings of Islam, you are doing jihad because other people now will imbibe what you are doing so automatically if you have one person out of 100 imbibing what you are doing. So automatically if you have one person out of hundred imbibing and practicing the way you are practicing, automatically you are doing jihad.

KN61 [4931-5071]

Me, I is not say is compulsory because maybe the people should try to, to be sincere to their mind, and trying to be with Allah at anytime.

KN62 [19657-19859]

Yah self-jihad, as I said yah jihadin nafs yah a kind of ah obliterating oneself and eh from all sinful activities, sinful practices and ah making oneself close to God. That is the jihad I believe in.

KN63 [18658-19374]

Jihad is obligatory, but the jihad that you are mentioning here is not that type of jihad that we are talking about, ehn as I said jihad means strive, striving for your God, striving to worship Allah even in a community where you see that, maybe that more evil deeds, you strive to worship Allah, you strive, you know, to keep your eyes from bad things, from doing evils, even though the midst of evils, is also jihad, you know, that is also jihad. So jihad, it is essential that all Muslim have to do jihad. As I mentioned the other time, if you are praying regularly at the correct time for a few minutes is ao jihad. Fasting is a jihad. All those act of ibadat you can strive to do them, you know, is also jihad.

KN64 [7382-7899]

Jihad is obligatory because you must help your religion. You must respond to spread the Islam to other people. Jihad is obligatory to everybody, but it doesn't mean you take arms, not only by force, I want you to understand this. Jihad is not meaning you force people to accept Islam or taking arms and doing whatever you like. Jihad is meaning you protect the religion and you make effort in order to spread the Islam to other people, not by means of killing or taking arms, but by even soft way, soft manner ehn.

KN65 [11799-12117]

Jihad is obligatory to Muslims in the sense that you must fight yourself to go against what Allah has prohibited for you and do of that which is lawful to you. Anything that is contrary, just try as much as possible to withdraw yourself no matter how tempting it is to you. So this is the jihad we are talking about.

KN66 [4591-4805]

Yes, jihad is obligatory to all Muslim because in Islam you must fight jihad in one way or the other, this because jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because in Islam you must fight jihad in one way or the other.

KN67 [5616-6128]

Because there are so many different forms of jihad, so I think every Muslim is entitled to jihad because there are so many forms of jihad. You can fight, you can do jihad with your money, that is jihadin mal, you can do it with yourself, that is jihadin nafs, then there is the one you can do with your tongue that is you can say it out, even some are even thinking that to hate something out ah if you see something a is bad and you hate it in your heart, it is also part of jihad. So I think it is obligatory.

KN68 [2879-2927]

Yes, jihad is, it is obligatory to all Muslims.

KN69 [11622-12105]

Well I can agree with the fact that jihad is obligatory on all Muslim, but if you take the meaning of jihad in a wider sense because I told you, as I told you earlier, jihad to my own point of view or to my own understanding, has a wider meaning. All dealing, all struggle of human being is referred to as jihad. Therefore, I can agree with this, but if we limited ourselves to the fact that jihad is only means a physical combat, so I will not incline, I will not agree with this.

KN71 [18890-20077]

Yes, it is, it is obligatory, you know, even the phases of the jihad are so wide. It depends on the time and the circumstance. Just look at yourself as a sailor in a sea and people there are trying to drown, your jihad at that particular time is to rescue them. When you reach upon the fatherless, in a state of, you know, poverty, your jihad at that time is to enlighten them, to support them, to support their education. When you reach a society that is illiterate, your jihad is to enlighten them, to make them know, I hope you are getting the point. When you reach a sinner on the way of his sins, what is your jihad at that very time? It is to stop him from doing that sin. When you reach an unjust leader, what is jihad there? It is to tell him this, what you are doing is wrong.

When you reach an unbeliever, what is your jihad there? The first jihad is for you to call him to the way of Allah (he recites a verse of the Qur'an). Then the last option is when you find invaders attacking an Islamic state even a non-Muslim attacking a Muslim somewhere, your jihad now is to protect his life and if it is a state, your jihad then is just to come forward and to defend your state.

KN72 [11970-12225]

Jihad is one of the obligatory to the Muslim, but the jihad that is obligatory, it is not a war jihad yes. It is peaceful jihad that is jihadin nafs that is what becomes obligatory because without jihad bin nafs even the word jihad cannot be true, yes.

KN73 [11979-12227]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims if there are conditions. It is only obligatory if there is conditions and it's not obligatory when there are no conditions. And so when there is no when there is no that condition it is not obligatory for Muslim.

KN74 [20349-20796]

Yes, jihad is obligatory in yes, yes quite sure is obligatory, yes to all Muslims especially who are the, but you know that there is ehh I have said earlier that there is condition for jihad. If the condition is satisfied, therefore, it is obligatory to all Muslims but you know that there is a slave under each or something like that, you, all of them they were a Muslim but there is a condition that will allow them to participate in the jihad.

KN74 [20993-21090]

The general jihad that is by preaching or something like that is obligatory to all Muslims, yes.

KN75 [22143-22518]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, yes. it is true because striving in the cause of Allah is a fundamental right for each and every Muslim to defend your religion against the enemies of Islam. You understand, to defend your religion against enemies of Islam. As a Muslim you need to prepare for all those kind of enmities that are embarking, are trying to embark on Islam.

KN76 [14565-14694]

Actually jihad is obligatory, but that obligation depends on your position and what you have at your disposal and your situation

KN78 [16839-17283]

Jihad is obligatory upon the existing necessities warrant for jihad. If the condition is favorable for jihad, whatever definition you give it, I think it is acceptable, but if those conditions are not favorable, but by, but because some people are misguided, I think that is the problem, Yah. All Muslims...believe that they have conditions that sometimes warrant jihad. There are conditions that do not necessary warrants violent type of jihad.

KN79 [8732-8903]

Yes, jihadin nafs that is effort on oneself, putting effort on yourself, that is jihadin nafs. To fight against the evil of yourself, that is what is obligatory in jihad.

KN80 [15125-16156]

Yes is obligatory upon every Muslims because ahh it is ahh reported in Hadith from the prophet (SAW) a Muslim should not be a correct Muslim unless he wishes ahh is brother what he is wishing himself. So jihad as an individual person or individual Muslim even to teach somebody or to preach to somebody how to conduct a good life according to the teaching of Islam is like you are making jihad, to even ahh stop spreading the evils among the Muslim Umma it is also you are making jihad not necessarily physical combat. Your good words on Muslim on doing right things and your nasiha good words from Muslim or refrain from doing what is evil, what is enjoined Allah for Muslim to refrain from doing it, it is also a jihad. So looking at this ahh comprehensive ahh commandment, we can say that jihad is obligatory upon everybody not only the government or those in authority are responsible in correcting the whole Muslim Umma, but the individual people on their own statute they can do and contribute within development of Islam.

KN81 [8951-9027]

Of course jihad is obligatory to all Muslim but not but not physical jihad

KN81 [9305-9561]

Yea what I mean by this physical jihad so jihad is the last sort. You can only engage yourself into jihad when you do all the possible way and you can't see the right way to solve that problem in Islam, so that you can engage yourself into jihad, but amm

KN81 [9797-9898]

Okay there is ahh jihad apart from this physical jihad that is ahh spiritual jihad, you understand,

KN82 [11919-12700]

Jihad is of course obligatory to all Muslims, but depending on the interpretation of the jihad, of the jihad, jihad annafs that is people to strive to control their minds, whatever is to be done must be done according to the laid down rules and regulation of Islam. But others are mistakenly interpreting jihad to be physical fighting. During the life time of prophet Muhammad (SAW), there were times that the prophet himself did not engage into jihad. He was engaged in jihad when he was forced. He was vehemently oppressed and opposed by the non-Muslims, but the initial step was to compromise that was, that was what brought the idea of ahh the hudabiyy treaty and other treaties that existed in the history of Islam was Sulh khair as Allah (SAW) mentioned in the holy Qur'an.

KN83 [7255-7477]

Yes peaceful jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, but emm physical jihad is not obligatory because its condition, is conditional and not all Muslims can join it. Islam mentioned those who deserve to perform physical jihad.

KN84 [8098-8266]

Yes jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, but not physical fight, not physical fight or taking arms to fight or to kill or to shed the blood of an innocent people, yes.

KN84 [8441-9311]

Yes is conditional, is by condition yes because Islam, if you could remember Islam is all about, you know, self defense and revenge. There is no way in Islam, because if you take what is happening in northern eastern part of Nigeria because the people that are now be participating this kind of, this evil activity, evil activities, there is no way that they will tell you Nigerian government have, you know, has trying to impede them for their participating their wannan faith, eh this religion. So Islam can only give you a right to, you know, to go by physical combat where the law of the state does not allow you to participate your religion. So no way in the north eastern part of Nigeria which ahh which government did not allow them to participate their faith. So I think what they are doing is totally wrong, is not Islamically, they are far away from Muslim.

KN85 [7258-7614]

Yes jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, meaning everybody must strive in the way of God. As a Muslim you don't just go and sit down and say am a Muslim, no. You must have to strive, you must have to struggle to establish the pure principles of Islam, but that doesn't necessarily mean the physical fighting, the killing and the war whatever people think.

ZA1 [10088-10870]

Definitely jihad is obligatory because Allah said that in Suratul hajj, Allah is commanding you to wage war (he recites the verse) Allah has give command to Muslims, those who have been wronged by the kuffar and many hadith. Now if Muslims have been wronged, like you check now what is happening in Palestine between Palestine and Israel. The world has seen Israeli is cheating Palestine. So do you, you as a person, somebody is beating you, he is cheating you, he is just slapping you, will you fold your hands and wait for him? So you will retaliate. So this is how Islam is, you will retaliate. That is why Rasul (SAW) have been forced to fight in Ahazahar where he been trying to be conquered by the Kuffar also by Uhud also Badr. It is compulsory if the condition warrant for.

ZA2 [6809-7304]

Yes it is, you see, we are asked to teach peace, so teach righteousness, telling people this is bad this is good, but when you refuse to interpret what is good and be in practice to it, it will not even affect you alone, it will affect the entire nation. So automatically you see is a responsibility on every person as Muslim to have that jihad as I told you, jihad is not fighting with weapons, but the words of correcting, giving you say do this, do think that, this is the right thing to.

ZA3 [9172-9649]

Of course jihad is compulsory or obligatory yes, but that is what I have asked earlier, I defined jihad to striving in the path of Allah. Going to seek for knowledge is jihad, taking away something from the road in order not to harm person is jihad, honoring your office, so there are many, many states of jihad. Jihad, the best of jihad is jihad of nafs that is jihad of the mind, for you to be able to do away with what Allah has forbidden and to obey what he has commanded.

ZA4 [23211-24002]

Emm jihad is not obligatory, jihad is obligatory in the sense that if you are praying is jihad, your kiyamullai is jihad, your fasting is also jihad because jihad, the word meaning jihad means is to strive, strive, hustle, commit yourself, do it, you understand, commitment, total commitment, so we have different types of how you can commit yourself, so you can worship Allah. If you are doing Salat in the right time, you are doing jihad. If you are doing kiyamullai, if you are doing fasting at the right time 30 days of the month of Ramadan you are doing jihad. You are doing, in fact anything that will promote the Islamism this concept of Islam that you are doing is jihad. Is not that you have to take a sword and start killing people, so that is the bad understanding of the jihad.

ZA5 [12870-13229]

That's, I have said it before, I said jihad, the best jihad so far is the jihad of the heart and now you are saying whether is obligatory, is not obligatory. Jihad is obligatory to all the Muslims because you have to put your house in order, in first place, by putting your house in order that is you are doing jihad, then automatically jihad is obligatory.

ZA6 [24484-25161]

Jihad of course is obligatory, but the physical jihad they are talking about like the militant, it is not obligatory to any Muslim. But jihad is obligatory, like I told you, the purification of the heart, the fear of God, doing things for the sake of God is jihad. Doing things for the sake of God, for the sake of Allah is jihad. So it is obligatory for you to do things for the sake of God hmm. It is obligatory for you to do the right thing, to purify your heart hmm. It is obligatory to be charitable. It is obligatory to live peacefully within your emm your folks, within the Muslims and within the non, amongst the non-Muslims. So jihad is obligatory in Islam.

ZA7 [10051-10366]

Yes from the word jihad, it has to do with fighting against evil, right? And it has to do with fighting against evil and promoting good. So it is very obligatory. It is important. It is a necessity to all Muslims because if Islam preaches peace, then you must be peaceful in all your dealings. So it is necessary.

ZA8 [15194-18495]

Yah, jihad is obligatory to all Muslims yes. That is not the killing and raping and doing all those things of human. Jihad means, obligatory to all Muslims, means that it is binding on every Muslim to tell a non-Muslim or to tell even in fact not only a non-Muslim. If a Muslim is going, is doing what is wrong, for instance, is doing what goes against religion as a duty of an, is a duty of another Muslim, is jihad on him to tell him that look what you are doing is wrong. for instance, some people, in fact some things I have been hearing about scholars outside Nigeria like in America and Russia, they have been doing some things and looking into the laws of all religions, they are coming to the agreement that sharia will actually be a solution to the worlds problem because if you critically look at what sharia means, it does not mean or jihad, it does not mean you should go and start killing innocent blood, no. It simply means if you see somebody committing wrong even though it is your father or your mother, it is binding on you, it is jihad on you to tell them, not that you disrespect them. Now you have to mind yourself, they are your parents, just because they are doing wrong does not mean you go and say papa you are doing this, you talk to them rudely, no. It is also conscious, you are also conscious that they are your parents. You call them in a calm respectful manner telling them at the same time that look daddy or mummy this thing is not good, the religion says it is bad, you talk to them in a way that they will not feel disrespected. So jihad simply means whenever you see somebody committing wrong or is on the wrong path, you call them to the right path because you will be asked about it. According to Islamic belief, on the Day of Judgment, God will ask you even though you are not the one committing the sin, you saw somebody committing the sin, God will question you. Did you remind him or did you tell him that what he is doing is wrong or not when you saw him committing the sin. Now if you say no, now you are now, you have sinned also seeing somebody committing a sin without you telling him that look what you are doing is a sin, you have committed a sin on your own part. The prophet (SAW) said whenever you see somebody committing a sin or doing what is not in conformity with religion, if you don't have the power to change it with your hand, maybe for instance, you have a child you gave birth and this boy is committing something that is wrong, you know he is your child, you have the power to beat him, leave there, now you have the power to change what he is doing. If you cannot change it with your hand, then use your tongue, simply means tell the person, if you think the person is elderly or you have respect or he is elderly, you tell the person, use your mouth to correct that thing. If you think that you can't use your mouth, then you should feel bad in your mind that kai this guy is committing or this person is committing a bad thing. You should feel remorse, you should, that thing should hurt you, even though you are not the one committing it, it should hurt you in your mind that kai had it been I had the power or way to change this thing that this person is doing I will change it and that is the least of jihad. That is what I think.

ZA9 [10208-10684]

Well is not obligatory in my own opinion because I have never and I don't think I will ever engage myself in this as I don't believe you can forcefully influence people's, other people's thinking to accept your religion. If they find you interesting, if they find what you are doing very, very fine, you don't have to force people to embrace your religion rather they will be the ones coming to enquire about the religion and at the end they might succumb and become Muslims.

ZA10 [13280-13614]

Yes, it is true because God said as a Muslim share my words even if it is one, say as in share my word even if it is one, so share my word is jihad. When you tell someone God is one and fear Allah that is jihad. So and Allah said in the Quran that, "when you have my knowledge share it even if it is to one person and it is one word".

ZA11 [10657-11373]

Yah, it is because if you follow up, there are some these things about, there are some sayings of ahh in the, some verses in the Qur'an that says, "When" ooh sorry, let me not go far so that you know my knowledge is not that versed, but when you tend to look at it, the law, you know, before you worship, you have to know God, if you know God then you worship him. So in this aspect, when there is a threat, a threat I mean when the way of Allah is left from our lives, from our way of life then it is really a threat and definitely we need it, it is a priority for us to stand up and find ourselves back to the right path of it, so and that is one step to jihad, so actually jihad is very obligatory to every Muslim

ZA12 [6393-6546]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, as I said earlier on, even correcting someone in a good way is jihad. So I think jihad is obligatory to all Muslims.

ZA13 [5776-5984]

Well jihad simply means the struggle and fighting because of Allah in simply words, so if it is obligatory to Muslims, yes of course it is obligatory to all Muslims because it is a struggle because of Allah.

ZA14 [5273-5447]

Yes there are so many ways of doing jihad, is not, is not under must that you must do a physical jihad, but you have so many ways doing jihad, we have jihad fi sabilillah.

ZA15 [10852-11171]

Yes jihad is compulsory for all Muslims, but that is when you do it at the right time and if this is true how, that when you strive for, anytime when you strive for the cause of Allah that is doing it at the right time and also with knowledge ehnn some people just go into it without having the knowledge about jihad.

ZA16 [6136-6534]

Yah jihad is obligatory to all Muslim ahm but it is obligatory when we, when Muslims preach to the non-Muslims and after preaching they have to tell them that Islam is the only religion that Allah accepts and they have to tell them that they should convert to Islam, if they refuse then they will tell them that they will be paying tax, after then, there are so many ways before you go into jihad.

ZA18 [7361-8091]

Look jihad, there could be a time when it becomes obligatory. For instance, a group of people maybe from outside or from wherever just lunch an attack on you, it becomes obligatory, you now have to stand up and fight back, but as at now we as Muslims can never go and attack people just like that. We can only preach now, we preach if you understand the preaching and through Allah's help you now convert to Islam good and fine, but nobody "la iqra ha fid din" nobody will come and force you, like my colleague here is a Christian, the only thing I can do is to preach for him and say why are you, look at this, look at that, if he feels what I am saying is in order and Allah wants him to, you know, embrace Islam good and fine.

ZA19 [10752-11349]

Well it's, of course, jihad is obligatory to all Muslims and the other aspect of the question is how? How is actually when the non-believers, when I say the non-believers I mean all those were outside the religion of Islam. It is necessary or obligatory when they actually attack Muslims when in their praying grounds, in their houses, in their business places without actually teasing them. So when they attack Muslims, it becomes mandatory and obligatory upon the Muslims to fire them back because this is what Allah (SBUH) categorically stated in the Qur'an (he recites a verse of the Qur'an).

ZA20 [5638-5887]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims. Yes it is obligatory. To even wage a war against your egocentric selfishness is a jihad. So it is compulsory for everyone to fight his ego. To fight all sets of injustices he feels or he do or he does to anyone.

ZA21 [7670-8304]

Jihad comes in different contexts. Somebody will think waging war against unbelievers is jihad. Somebody will say cleaning your mind and make sure that you are going on the right track as Allah says you should go is jihad so we don't know which is which. Here in this context we mean jihad as to waging war against anybody. No. For somebody to purify his mind and make sure that this thing he is doing is based on the dictates of Allah then that is the jihad. Jihad is obligatory when it comes to the first instance that is cleaning your mind and make sure that you are doing is according to the dictates of Islamic injunction.

ZA22 [7136-7362]

Yah there are times when jihad becomes obligatory that is when intruders come and launch attack on Islamic territory and there are times when it is optional obligation when Muslims may be want to expand their territory.

ZA23 [11253-11377]

Jihad is obligatory only when you are attacked. If you are attacked then you have no any other option than to fight back.

ZA24 [13644-15082]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because as I said earlier. If you are a good ambassador of your religion, you should not steal, you should not tell lie, you should have good character. This is a jihad and it is obligatory, it is compulsory. So that is why in the Qur'an Allah says (he recites the verse) those who are praying and doing good deeds. So good deeds is a jihad in Islam because through that you have the intention of converting non-Muslims through your good character, you are doing jihad. But jihad of killing somebody or fighting unnecessarily is not compulsory. It is not even Islamic, Islamically of fighting somebody because he is not a Muslim. Are you the one who made him a non-Muslim? Who guaranteed you that you too you are going to finish you are going to die in Islam? Where prophet Muhammad (SAW) said that some people will be doing good thing when they are about to die a QAddara will come and the person will die a non-Muslim. And some people that are non-Muslims you will see them as somebody that is going to enter hell-jahannama at the end of the day when he is about to die he will convert to Islam and die as a Muslim. So therefore that one shows that you cannot judge anybody. You cannot judge anybody. So therefore if that is the perspective of jihad, jihad is not obligatory. But if it is in the perspective of doing good thing in order to attract non-Muslim to Islam therefore jihad is obligatory.

ZA25 [12454-12691]

Yes it is as I have always said jihad is obligatory depending on the strength of the individual and group. Yes and it starts with good understanding of Islamic knowledge, the instruction and admonition of Islam and exemplary practices.

ZA26 [6405-6575]

Jihad is obligatory to all Muslims because it is said in the Qur'an and hadith that you do jihad even by your mind. It is obligatory to every Muslim to defend himself.

ZA27 [4388-4916]

Now jihad is obligatory ah its not-actually this has to do with Islamic...you cannot say jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, but there are some ramifications depending on which level you are talking about. Are you talking about jihadin nafs or jhadin mal because we have jihad that you clean your mind in a good way, we have jihad that you profess to your brothers – give out something from your own pocket to somebody and we have jihad that is combat between Muslims and non-Muslims and that one is only for what – for revenge.

ZA28 [12774-13515]

Jihad is obligatory of course to all Muslims, to all Muslims because as I mentioned earlier jihad itself is duty of all Muslims to actually maintain the religion. So if you for instance dress the way Islam wants and your behavior matters a lot, there are people that of course that will appreciate the way you relate with people, the way you talk, the way you dress and then somebody can feel impressed coming to your religion because of that because of your own relationship with him. You don't cheat him, you don't utter bad words to him and he feels that this person is truly following the religion of peace and if you do that I guess you do one of jihad which is not necessarily a physical fight as we mentioned it or as we defined it.

ZA29 [21262-21589]

Well jihad is obligatory to everybody, not only Muslims in my own definition of jihad like I said. It is obligatory for everybody to strive in to ... God has created us or has not given us all that we need we have to work for all we need. When you are working for what you need you are striving you are doing jihad. That is it.

ZA30 [29222-30737]

Yes, jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, but I, if you can remember I mentioned different types of jihad. Jihad doesn't means carrying guns and carrying any sophisticated weapon to go and fight and kill people. That is doesn't mean, that is not the actual meaning of jihad. You came out or to wake up around 5, I am enjoying my sleeping, to wake up, go for perform, touch water, whether it is in the cold season or hot season, perform ablution, go to mosque, pray, came back, take bathe, go to your office at actual time that they taught you that you have signed on. May be go to your, if you a businessman, go to your place of work, do the thing, sell according to Islam, that one is jihad. Stay within the boundary of Islam, don't do anything that is haram, that one is also jihadin nafs and it is the biggest jihad. When prophet Muhammad (SAW) came back, I think either from Uhud or Badr I can't remember, he say, so we finish the small jihad, so it remains the biggest jihad. Ah ah, the sahaba, the disciples besides him they asked him, which kind, which one is jihadin, which kind of jihad is this the biggest jihad? He said jihadin nafs that is fighting oneself, fighting your heart, going against the wish of your heart, always stay against the wish of your heart because your heart will tell you do this, anything that it will tell you to do, it will be contrary to Allah's wish, as long as you are going against it, you are doing jihad. So, jihad is compulsory for every Muslim, but this type of jihad.

ZA31 [8160-8521]

Yes it is true. The meaning of jihad is that everybody in Islam, if you believe you are a Muslim, if you believe you are following in the message of Allah (SBUH), you have to follow his din, you have to follow his sayings, you have to follow his message. So you see, it is compulsory to all Muslims to follow, to submit to have total submission to God's words.

ZA32 [17904-18843]

Jihad is not obligatory to all Muslims, is part of what we call fardi kifaya, I think that if others stand, if others intend to carry it out, it is now what, not necessary upon the remaining people because of you say all Muslims must engage in jihad, so who among them, among the Muslims are going to be a scholars, to study, to learn for the growth of the umma to the right way, who? And who of them will be business men and who of them would be leaders? If you say to all Muslims including, this includes what, leaders, scholars, business men of the Muslims, masses, and even lay people, including ignorant, what and what and literate, illiterates and the literate people of the society or of the Muslim umma and so that is seen eh in short or in brief from, I can say is, is what, is not an obligatory upon all Muslims. If some people are carrying jihad out or are undertaking it when the condition permits, so the others can depend.

ZA34 [15718-16614]

Yes it is obligatory, but as I have said, it is misconception by others that jihad simply means fighting. Jihad simply means struggle and every Muslims is expected to struggle to see that he has established something that will bring benefit to himself and the religion. So by such he is also undergoing jihad. For example, a mallam that always teaches students is a mujahid. Somebody that goes about helping the religion in maybe he establishes schools, building, is also a jihad. Also somebody that also goes to preach and convert others to the religion is also a jihad. There are so many ways that you can carry out a jihad, it is compulsory to everybody, you cannot just stay on one side and say you are not carrying out jihad. The way and manner you are interacting with others is a form of jihad because people can emulate from your habit, from you behavior and accept Islam. That is that.

ZA35 [5647-6038]

Yes, jihad is obligatory to all Muslims. If you have faith and you love because Islam is a peaceful religion, it is a religion of as in being brothers and sisters keeper to one another. If you have the faith and you see your dying brother in need of your help and you think you can assist him or bring him out of that problem, you by doing that for him you have fought jihad for your mind.

ZA36 [11593-11732]

Jihad is only obligatory on the male Muslim, matured male Muslim, if only they are trying to do that in order to safeguard their religion.

ZA37 [10858-10939]

Toh jihad is obligatory to all Muslims, but at a certain stage I repeated this.

ZA37 [10973-11374]

At the time where jihad would be obligatory to every Muslim is when in an Islamic state, are you following, when it happens that there are non-Muslims, it happens that non-Muslims attack all the Muslims in that state, so each and every Muslim is obligatory for him to come and defend himself, for this is the only point or place where jihad is obligatory because you have to, he must defend himself.

ZA38 [17914-18122]

Yah. It is not obligatory to all Muslims because, it is not, it is true from one other aspect and it is not true in the other side, but it is true. It is not true because jihad is not the issue of fighting.

ZA38 [18155-18484]

It is obligatory to the extent that it is not only the aspect of fighting. You can preach, if you are an old man you can advise people it is still jihad. If you are a disable, you can still do something, it is still jihad. You can still preach the gospel of the religion, it is still jihad. Then it is obligatory to all Muslims.

ZA39 [23652-24654]

Jihad is obligatory, like I said, when the condition setting up for the Muslims to engage in jihad are already satisfied. And when the conditions are not satisfied, then it is not compulsory. But what do we mean by compulsory? Jihad, like I said, people misunderstand the word jihad. Jihad is a struggle, isn't it? Striving hard toward achieving a particular cause, in doing that, you may achieve it with the aim to be rewarded in the hereafter. Struggle may involve money, struggle may involve use of weapons, struggle may involve the use of knowledge, struggle may involve the use of kindness, so if that is the meaning of jihad as we understand now, I can say jihad is compulsory upon every Muslim simply means every Muslim should live his life, is expected to struggle, strive, to strive hard to be rewarded in the hereafter. But if jihad simply means restricting the use of weapons against one another without any reason, without any condition, satisfying the condition, I can simply say no.

Th7.4: Instruments of Jihad

FG1 [25377-25394]

We have weapons

FG1 [25395-25402]

Faith

FG1 [25404-25415]

Preaching

FG1 [25417-25426]

Teaching

FG1 [25429-25454]

Education and knowledge

FG1 [25456-25495]

We have income or financial resources

FG1 [25499-25533]

Good leader who will lead people

FG3 [33700-33767]

The Qur'an, Hadith Sunna, those are the try instruments of jihad.

FG3 [33769-34622]

Mmmmm Sunna and hadith mean the same thing, but the jihad I think ...right from the beginning has given the actual definition of jihad, and he differentiated between jihad and qital. Some people when you mention jihad their minds usually comes into qital, meaning killing. But Rasul (SAW) when they came back from the war of Badr, is it Badr or Uhud, I can't remember but one of the two. He told the companions that we finished the small jihad remaining the biggest jihad. They asked him all this thing when we spent some months fighting u tell us that we did the small jihad which jihad are you referring to? He said jihadin nafs, this means fighting someone's mind, go against your heart, anything that your heart wants, so go against it. That is what he calls the biggest jihad. This saying is a popular hadith in ALBukhari and Muslim (recites Arabic)

KD1 [25154-25627]

The instruments of jihad to my little understanding as a student or student is, would include the fighting itself, which I have never put as the first. The seeking of knowledge, the purification of one's soul which is called or referred to as jihadin nafs and then the spreading of religion through preaching and through one's attitude, exhibiting, letting Islam actually manifest, let it be visible in the way you believe, in the way you speak, what you hear and how you act.

KD2 [9930-10284]

Instruments of jihad are, to me, are the Qur'an, the hadith, ahm good actions, good deeds, advice, all these things if you offer them to people or if you teach them all, they are instruments of jihad. But the physical jihad then in that case you have to use maybe the tools like sword or the modern, modern equipments, modern devices used for fighting.

KD3 [7954-8208]

The instrument of jihad is that one must be knowledgeable of what kind of jihad is going for, you must have full knowledge, Islamic knowledge of how the jihad even during the time of the prophet, how did he come about the jihad, how did he go about jihad

KD4 [12366-12718]

Well, instrument of jihad first as I told you earlier on, instrument of jihad, first is the purification of heart. Second is the acting according to the Sunna that is the teaching, practice of the Rasulillah (SAW) and then the guidance, acting according to the Qur'an that is the teaching of the Qur'an. Those are the instruments in which you can use.

KD5 [7470-7605]

Instruments of jihad, as I mention earlier on, includes weapons, wealth, the heart, the body, I think that's the instruments of jihad.

KD6 [19435-19902]

The instrument of jihad, Allah says it already. (he recites the verse of the Qur'an) that is your wealth and your life. If I say your life, it doesn't mean that you go and kill yourself. If you can come from, for example, we are from Kaduna, you can go to Kano to preach there, you have laid down your life because on the road, there is accident, there is some other things that can claim your life. Not until you take something up, so with your wealth and your life.

KD7 [11497-11713]

The instrument of jihad. I believe the first and most important is a iman. Once you bear faith in the one true God that is your most important tool then the other things come by, but that is the most important tool.

KD8 [23824-24145]

Well, wealth is part of it. You have to have wealth. You will have to have knowledge of the religion. That's the first one. You will have to have knowledge of the religion, you have to understand, a good of understanding of what Qur'an is saying and what the prophet (SAW) is saying otherwise you are going to go astray

KD9 [15430-15650]

Let my mallams answer that one. so I will let it pass I don't want to commit myself because like I said it is becoming a little bit technical and I don't want to commit myself so that I won't give you wrong information.

KD10 [9045-9716]

The instruments of jihad that is what is what must, the instruments of jihad have, what we have to have before we are going to fight jihad, you know, we must have Kuwa when we want to fight jihad. The first instrument is that we must have kuwa-power. The kuwa we must have power that is to say we have iman, Kuwa imaniyya, you get me right? We have iman, then we must have the war equipment to fight jihad with it. Then we must make all effort and say that there is going to be, where the kuffar are going to be, is going to be separate from where the Muslims are going to be. You get me right? So these are some of the things I can say about the instruments of jihad.

KD11 [14604-14710]

Well jihad has many instruments, but I think the most important instrument of jihad is the fear of Allah.

KD12 [15939-16587]

Ah the instrument of jihad firstly is Qur'an and hadith so after that one you prepare your weapons down, you prepare yourself down. What I mean by your weapons, is you mustn't live alone in your house even a Muslim has to have a small stick because at time you may come across rat or unwanted things too and then like insecticide too where you may, what you are going to use in your house to wave away all the insects is part of an instrument of jihad and then you have to prepare yourself very well, you have your own work so as to feed yourself, your family very well. These are the things you going to prepare for. You mustn't be lazy at all.

KD13 [5777-5810]

The instrument of jihad is truth

KD14 [7501-7655]

The instrument for jihad, jihad on its own is a topic on its own and is very wide while the instruments I can't expatiate them. It is a topic on its own

KD15 [10460-10802]

As earlier on, as I have described jihad ah it simply means fighting for Allah's cause, it may be with the heart, good intention, or good feelings and it may be with ah your hand that is by using weapon and it may be with the tongue that means by saying good words in the cause of Allah. I think that is simply what you describe jihad for.

KD16 [5444-5838]

One, the knowledge itself. Two, the Hikma the Allah (SBUH) said (Quoting a verse in Arabic) invite people unto the path of Allah with wisdom. There is no way you can't invite people into religion of Islam without knowledge, out of ignorance, you can't do that, then having got the knowledge then there must be wisdom attached to it. That is the most important aspect of it, then exemplary too.

KD17 [18319-19001]

Instruments of jihad. When we say instrument of jihad, you yourself, you are part of this instrument of jihad. Knowledge, to seek for knowledge, to seek for the true knowledge is part of the instrument of jihad. By the time you seek for the true knowledge, true knowledge of Islam, you know what it means, what drives jihad, that there are different types of jihad, jihadin nafs, jihadin qita, to raise arms, to which everybody know now, which is being used in this context now, to raise up arms that is what people, you just hear people say jihad, it means to raise of arms. But jihad means to struggle to struggle and jihad fi sabilillah means to struggle for the cause of Allah.

KD18 [10195-10432]

Yes the instruments of jihad are many, but I will just mention a few, a few of them. Money is part of it, weapons are part of it, and the whole body is part of jihad and good health so that you can be able to strive the way you want it.

KD19 [13710-14028]

Well, the instruments of jihad are numerous. You can do jihad with your hands, you can do jihad with your wealth, you can do jihad with everything you have, sometimes you can even do jihad with your mind, whatever you see somebody doing if you do not like it you can desist it from your heart. So true jihad means...

KD20 [7847-7944]

Yes, the instruments of jihad is words, the words, the good health, the words and the whole body

KD21 [8031-8046]

Next question

KD23 [8089-8473]

The instruments of jihad is not only weapon, it includes pen, propaganda and also financial ah financial resources because propaganda also plays a vital role in jihad, it plays a vital role in jihad because ah you can use ah propaganda to convince people to make eh the leg of the enemies, to make the leg of the enemies feel or to make the enemies frightened to be intimidated, yes.

KD24 [31203-34445]

Instruments of jihad many, the first one is niyya, prophet (SAW) said (he recites in Arabic) each and every deeds in Islam are based on the intentions which someone take in Islam. If you are going to jihad for example jihad of ah weapon make sure that yes the jihad you are going is in the cause of Allah. Secondly, before you go to jihad you are not the one that just asked people to follow me, no, it is the imam that he go and negotiate on certain things, for example, that happen within you and the Christians or the ones that you are fighting and at the end the conflict is still there, no way to settle than to fight, then you will say okay gather and you are not to go individual, to go and be killing, no. You will go in group you will go in group not that what I go ten, ten, twenty, twenty, no. They will go in battalion. Secondly among the weapons, among the instruments of jihad is, as I have said, as I have said earlier is knowledge even in Islam you are not ah allowed to go to jihad unless you have the knowledge on how to do the jihad, for example, ah prophet (SAW) if they are going out for jihad or he is sending troops for jihad, he has to preach to them before they leave that (he recites in Arabic) don't kill old people men or women, don't kill children, don't kill women unless if they attack you. And ah the attack is the attack that yes they can kill you, but just for woman to slap you that one you are not asked to fight back, see ah those that you are to fight are men like you that they come for the fighting cause that is what brought them to the field okay then fight them. Then another among the instruments after knowledge is eh ah appa'ar, appa'ar meaning in English is obedience you have to be obedient to the imam, to the leader, if he says you should stop, you have to stop. If he is says you twenty follow that side, you have to follow, you have to know that there should be obedience. Then weapon, weapon in this modern world is one of the things which the engineers or the scientist have brought which is destructing the world because each and ah every things which ah this scientists are introducing or investing or creating for our own living, it has definitely side effects, but when you see these bombs, nuclear weapons their side effects is even too much. Is even too much because if you count for example now the number of weapons which are in people's hands, civilians hands, is too much and this usually brings about conflicts. Small thing can bring someone to enter house, bring gun and start shooting because it is in abundance and the scientists have contributed a lot. Government is supposed to put serious, serious rules before you can, before they can allow you to maintain gun, they are supposed to make sure that you are someone that yes is supposed to keep one with you, for example, to protect yourself or your house or your family. But now if you are to take around, take a look around here you will find out that you will meet ten people maybe nine are having gun, even though they will not tell you am having, but assuming you follow them check them very well, you will see that they have. If conflicts just start now you will wonder how people are begin bringing out weapons.

KD25 [46209-46660]

Well the instruments of jihad are first and foremost the leaders. Number two: the followers. Number three: obedience according to the teachings of the Qur'an and the Sunna. The vital revival and then the knowledge eh those are the, those are the instruments because without knowledge, what kind of jihad are you doing? And without the leaders, how can we, without leadership, how can we succeed? And eh without followership, how can we succeed? Aha.

KD26 [10437-10661]

We have the hand yes the hand in short sorry, first and foremost the hand, then we have the tongue, we have the heart, we have the hand and then we have the that is when we have weapons to fight. Those are the instruments.

KD27 [9650-9834]

The instruments. Well what greater instruments are there other than the Sunna of the prophet and the Qur'anic injunctions and the teachings of our enlightened knowledgeable forbearers?

KD28 [15145-15283]

The instrument of jihad is Qur'an al-karim because there is nothing than the Qur'an al-Kairim and the sunna of the prophet Muhammad (SAW).

KD29 [8369-8545]

Instruments of jihad is, has ah provided us to look inwards to our conduct, be of good conducts extended these conducts to our neighbors, extent these conducts to non-Muslims.

KD30 [13787-14590]

I think the fundamental thing needed here is knowledge because without knowledge you might even end up doing the wrong think thinking you are doing the right thing just like the boko haram, if we are to look at the boko haram. I'm sure a lot of them have been convinced to be doing the right thing, but you can see the evil they are causing rather than good ah of course we need for that we need ah the ability and willingness, the strength and then the ah the things needed possibly if its item and ah as I have said now it depends on the kind of jihad. If it's an intellectual then you need to be intellectually equipped and if it takes carrying arm when it calls for that then of course there are cases where Muslims need to protect themselves then I think you need to arm yourself with ammunition.

KD31 [10791-10971]

Instruments of jihad are just strong faith, one, then you should have a deep knowledge, you should you yourself should understand what Islam means those are the major instruments.

KD32 [12168-12821]

Ahm from the Islamic view as I have said jihad to strive, there is jihad self jihad that is to fight against your own will, your own mind of committing anything crime, anything sin to Allah, so this we call it the self jihad so trying to control yourself based to the rules of Islam to the sharia that is like not to steal, not to not to collect bribes, all these we call it jihad self jihad, so we you can do jihad with your own wealth to spend for the sake of Allah, this is another way, this is another means of jihad you can spend the money for the sake of Allah we can also call this a jihad and you can sacrifice yourself is also means of jihad.

KD33 [10818-11054]

The basic instruments of jihad, you have, you have to first of all, you have to know who are you, what are you doing, what are you practicing, how do you worship your God, how did you take your prayers, how did your relate with people?

KD34 [10740-11130]

Instrument of jihad they are many. One, your money, you can use your money to pay zakat, you can use your money to build a lot of charities. Secondly, by saying a good thing, advising people to do the right thing is another means of the jihad and then thirdly, is purifying your heart, your heart to be clean, your action to be justified according to teachings of Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

KN1 [28221-30937]

The instruments of jihad, first and foremost is as the holy prophet has mentioned. The bigger jihad is for one to control himself and be an upright person, one. Two, apart from that one is for somebody to enlighten and show others. Three, for somebody to be caring to the society or to those that are around him whether they are Muslims or non-Muslims. In fact I would like you to understand this, in Islam a woman was in a well trying to, she was thirsty, she was trying to drink water and there was nothing for to draw the water from the well she use her shoes and her veil to drag the water out of the well and there was a dog by the side and that dog was thirsty too and she understand that the dog was thirsty, she gave water to the dog and at the end of the day almighty Allah grant her aljanna that is paradise. This person is not a Muslim and this is not human being. So if you are talking of human being in Islam we agree that a person no matter whether he is a believer or not is by far beyond dog, above dog so that is it. So it depends on how you understand religion. And please I would like you to understand one thing concerning the state craft and Islam under a state, during the time of the fourth Caliph Imam Rabiyaallahu ta ala Ali, His shield was claimed by a non-Muslim. He saw it with the non-Muslims and he claimed that it is his shield. Now as a Caliph, I want you to understand the meaning of that word because as at then he is the leader of all Muslims in the world. Islam was beyond Arab countries then, it was beyond those borders. So now as a number citizen of that particular state leading, he has to take that man instead of taking it away by force he has to take him to a judge and the judge as of that time was Abu Hureira Rabiyaallahu ta ala and other disciples of the holy prophet. When he was delivering judgment, because I want you to understand how a non-Muslim exists under an Islamic state. Abu Hureira asked him do you have any proof or a witness that this shield belongs to you, he cannot tender a witness or a proof. The judge was a little bit uncomfortable because in Islam you need to provide whether a proof or a witness that it belongs to you and if the Caliph himself cannot provide that requirement and cannot fulfill the requirement. So now when the judge was a little bit uncomfortable, he told him do what is right and what is ordained by Allah and he told him point blank now you don't have a witness and you don't have any proof that it belongs to you so definitely the man is going with it, as far as the law is concerned, it belongs to him. That is how non-Muslims exist under and Islamic state that is why I am saying it is not a narrow topic it is a vast one.

KN4 [24112-24626]

Instruments of jihad, jihad has many instruments if you can look at it, you can use different instrument as I have also mentioned. I mentioned this several times in this interview. You see eem instrument of Jihad, you can use different item as an instrument. You can give money, you can pay hospital bill, you can build road, you can assist your fellow human being, you can save your country from corruption, all these are the instrument that you can use for Jihad. Jihad has many instruments but all in good way.

KN5 [10616-10637]

Faith and resources

KN6 [10515-10832]

Instrument of jihad are many, for example, for example, Allah says (he recites the verse) so the first step in jihad is to use your money for the propagation of the Islamic teaching is the first jihad. Then Allah says jahidun mushrikina wa ammalikum wa anfusikum so the next you should devote yourself for this jihad.

KN7 [10439-11165]

Well it depends, ahh as I have, as I have hmm been saying and will continue saying, it depends on how you view even jihad itself. Jihad we all know yes, its striving, striving to call people towards ehm coming into Islam and ehm the instruments we, we people, some people believe that wealth is an instrument of calling people yes ok maybe, maybe going to, going to motherless homes, offering foods sadaqat to people, maybe money, or things just to call them towards Islam, Islamic abin nan and then others takes ah, take like, for example, Islamic clerics they think ok yes giving sermons is a way of ehm, ehm doing jihad, they you understand. So I think those two, I think, are the most important instrument of jihad, yes.

KN8 [8929-9250]

I think for someone to embark on jihad, a successful jihad, there must be wealth, there must be health that is not have energy, there must be comfortable arena to preach for people, you understand. You yourself must be knowledgeable because jihad has to do with knowledge in the contemporary era and so on and so forth.

KN9 [9676-10129]

The instruments of jihad, well for a successful jihad I want to believe you have to actually channel all your effort towards the fact that you are fighting for the preservation of the religion of Allah, you are fighting to propagate the oneness of Allah,] that is Tauhid and you are fighting to ensure the Khilafa that is ah, then Risallah, the prophethood and the caliphate. So, I think, once these elements are in place, I think, jihad is good to go.

KN10 [7941-8242]

Yes, like there is different categories of jihad but there is, like I mentioned, fighting is part of jihad so in this condition a weapon can be used but maybe a pen that you can write something to send, even may be a tongue for the da'wa is all part of our-is an instrument or device for jihad, hmm.

KN11 [12108-12452]

Instrument at the first of all is we ourselves to purify our intention and to be good. You cannot call on people to know the true way without the purify your way so even about- people cannot understand you but first of all, you make sure that you are a good man or you have a good manner and you want people to imitate you. So you are a model.

KN13 [10629-10915]

We have instrument of jihad, we have something like em we have wealth, we can say someone's mind, we have political power; we have the forces of the institutions of the state. These are in line that can give-we have even the umma. These are definitely some of the instruments of jihad.

KN14 [9104-9310]

The instruments of jihad, jihad can be in, can be, jihad is ah is categorised into ah ah non-fighting, it can be preaching, it can be ah ah calling others to Islam that is preaching and it can be sadakar...

KN14 [9394-9513]

It can be jihad that you can ah ah ah go and fight with some other religions that are militating against your religion.

KN15 [10114-10329]

Instruments of jihad, I think number one instrument of jihad, in my own view, is faith, number two you can fight jihad using your wealth, number three you can use jihad using your power, I think that should be okay

KN16 [5328-5363]

Wealth and lives and other things

KN17 [11120-11204]

We have you mind, is an instrument, your mind uhhh let me say your mind we have ah

KN17 [11268-11332]

Our mind (coughs) your mind, your wealth if you have the power.

KN18 [18968-19549]

I said, now this, from political aspects okay, engage, you are, you are now serving, serving, serving to provide for the need of the people, helping, this is another instrument. I said going to the hospital to donate blood is a jihad, these are instruments of jihad. But it is only the only armed, armed aspect of a jihad which I believe in, from my own point of view, is one whereby you are being targeted to be killed, to be annihilated okay, you try to protect and defend yourself and protect others, so that is the only armed jihad which I can recognize in the context of Islam

KN19 [14208-14463]

There are lot of instruments, anybody that want to make jihad you must understand the will of God, understand Qur'an the teachings of the holy prophet, you must be very strengthful, you must be ready to contribute and put the best of the efforts towards

KN20 [6778-7028]

Yah the extreme part of the instrument of jihad is the gun and the sword, bow and arrow and other weapons but ideally, the main eh eh eh instrument for jihad is your wealth, maybe your heart, your hand, to correct something, that is part of jihad too

KN21 [4729-4799]

Your wealth, your mind, your money, your health, so on and so forth.

KN22 [9549-10019]

Yah the instruments of jihad is one, we can see them from the institution being practiced. One is da'wa yah it is one of the vital instrument of jihad. Jihad should be seen as a last resort in Islam. There should be da'wa. This da'wa means creation of awareness, educating people, you understand, orienting people towards the knowledge of Islam. You understand, and there should also-there should be preaching, yes preaching the gospel of Quran and Sunna to the people.

KN23 [7753-7788]

Instrument of jihad is good heart

KN24 [7599-7686]

The instrument of jihad, one is prayers and preaching that is the two I think I know.

KN25 [9372-9599]

Well ah true jihad must contain ah true acts. It has to be transparent, it has to be all encompassing, and it has to be faithful. Then it has to be strong that is when it comes to use of arms and ammunition, it has to strong.

KN26 [8964-9066]

Like I said persuasion, good deeds and all- these are very-they are salient by very relevant issues.

KN27 [9301-9495]

There are different instruments of jihad; some people believe wealth is instrument of jihad, some people feel it is preaching.

When you preach to people they feel it is an instrument of jihad.

KN28 [7066-7277]

Part of the instruments of jihad could probably be from your capability, probably from your wealth, from the little you have you can share with people who you know are really in need. It is all part of jihad.

KN30 [9095-9149]

The most important instrument for jihad is knowledge

KN31 [9952-10352]

Ah normally the instruments of jihad, we have to fight according to Sunna that is according to the Sharia. That is because normally when you are going to fight jihad there must be a reason why you are going for that jihad, is it for the cause of Islam or for your own selfish interest or maybe you want to take a revenge, all those are not allowed so it has to be just for the cause of the religion.

KN32 [3363-3568]

Yah you see the instruments of Jihad is ah your wealth, your money, your heart and of course your knowledge of the religion of Islam and am of course the life and teachings of the prophet Mohammed (SAW).

KN33 [3646-3740]

Some instruments of Jihad are some of them maybe wealth, personal position, effort and so on.

KN34 [4958-5401]

The instruments of jihad, one, to me one, when you look at now the world has globalized you can say the western media all this issue, stuff that may be even the hands you can say they are instruments of jihad because you can be able to pass the information or the knowledge that you want to pass without even losing a single soul and you can be able to achieve what you want to achieve. These are some of the instruments in the modern world.

KN35 [6799-7121]

The instruments of jihad firstly you must have Iman, when you have Iman means it is going to direct you on what to do and not to do that is the dos and don'ts of the Islam itself. And by doing so meaning you are fulfilling one or two obligations as Allah has ordained in the Qur'an. It means you are doing your own jihad.

KN36 [6450-6856]

We have money, those that are well rich in the society, they can use that money to make sure that jihad is being sustained, Islam is being practiced very well, issue of the removal of the zakat to the less privileged and even your mouth and if you are influential in the society, you can make sure that if you are living by example people can know that this religion is a religion that people can follow.

KN37 [6106-6310]

The instruments of jihad are of different types. You can be physical about it that is using your hands and you can use your wealth, you can use your mind and even your voice. They are of different types.

KN38 [4120-4213]

Instrument of jihad, your own personal self, and knowledge itself and so many other things.

KN39 [4840-5476]

When we say instruments of jihad, it refers to the procedures used by those jihadists that is to say those that are preaching calling people to Islam, that is to say the procedures that they should follow in inviting others to Islam. And one of them is through making a preach or through going to some places where non-Muslims are predominant or non-Muslims are living by, for example, calling them, making a preach and admonishing them telling them all the rules and regulations involved in Islam and by so doing gradually the preachers may sometimes achieve in calling others to Islam and sometimes they fail due to certain problems.

KN40 [8203-8464]

The instruments of jihad can be in financial support as maybe having money that you can use to sponsor people or using of weapons or you can even try make your nafilah in order just to pray for people who went for jihad for God to bring them back successfully.

KN41 [5294-5465]

The instrument of jihad I think fear of Allah is the first and the most vital instrument of jihad followed by da'wa that is preaching to people about the oneness of Allah.

KN42 [8232-8317]

The instruments of jihad are simple da'wa, kindness to neighbors, and fear of Allah.

KN43 [12375-12433]

The number one instrument of jihad is Islamic knowledge.

KN44 [7447-7545]

I am not too versed in Islamic scholarship, so that should be answered by scholars in the field.

KN45 [7799-7980]

Yah, the instruments eh I am not an Islamic scholar so I am not very conversant here in this ah highly eh jurisprudence matters yes, so I would like to just, no comment on this.

KN46 [11754-11877]

I think I answered this question, the answer of this question could be ah located in the maybe the answers I gave before.

KN47 [18066-18892]

Instruments of jihad are many, as I said, there are many ways of jihad eh, you know, there are instruments of jihad, like I said, you know, if you help somebody, for example, then you, with what are you going to help somebody? Is it with your money or is with your strength? You see or with something that somebody needs, you see, according to me and the way I look at jihad now with the perspective of modern days, you understand, there is no, I cannot accept or I cannot believe in saying that we need a gun, you know, to fight jihad or we need a sword to fight jihad or we need, you know whatever weapon we can lay hand in, you understand, to fight jihad. So according to my definition of it, the best tools for fighting, you know, for carrying out jihad is your wealth, then your will, your positive attitudes and so on.

KN48 [5894-6212]

Hmm, instrument of jihad comprises of firstly, you make up your mind, readiness then money, your money must be there too and you make da'wa, you tell people a kind of Ta'alim wa Ta'alim, you tell people your mind, what you know about Islam and in order to convince them so as for them to know about your own religion?

KN49 [10459-10972]

Instruments of jihad, I believe the Islamic scholars are more in a position to expatiate on that, but I would say the instruments of jihad are numerous. Among them are when you educate people and also when you, when you battle for supremacy of the religion and also when you, when you use other means at your disposal in which, in which ever way to gain an advantage over the opponents of Islam so as Islam can survive and strive. So those are one of the, anyway, those are among the instruments that jihad uses.

KN50 [5549-5645]

Ahh, first of all, first of all obedience to Allah, simple da'wa which is preaching and money

KN51 [40505-43090]

You see the instrument of jihad in the first place is you have to have a leader, a leader who is a learned leader, very, very learned in the Qur'anic and Sunatic text, who is a mujtahid ok, who can exercise his own personal understanding of this, of those sources that is number one. Number two, you must go and preach Islam to people this is Islam, you want to accept it? No, we don't want like it ok go your own way, we are going our own. Please don't intervene into our own affairs ok, don't aggress, don't try to be aggressive to us, don't try to connive in any way with anybody to destroy our own teaching, don't do this, don't attempt anything that is evil to us, if you do this, we are not to now come to you again. You live peacefully with us, but don't forget as people who are not Muslims and you are living among us, the Muslims every year pay zakat, they give out charity due, they give out charity every year. So like they are paying this charity, annual dues you people as non-Muslims there is something which you must pay, token, as at that of the enjoyment you are making in the midst of Muslims since the Muslims themselves are paying, so you pay, so this is it. Apart from this, we have no problem with the non-Muslims ok. If they accept this, there is no problem, but when they don't accept to one of this two, they don't accept to be Muslims shi kenan, and they are now trying to destroy us, to connive with those who are our enemies, now somebody who is helping, who helps your enemy is your enemy, somebody who guides your enemy to get penetrated into your own place, he is your enemy. But somebody who desists from doing all these, but he lives with you peacefully that is all. You have no problems what so ever. But unfortunately for us with this thing we interpret to mean trying to compel people to, no. This are some of the conditions some of the, what do you call them? You call them instruments, instruments of jihad. I don't know what you mean by instrument, do you mean the, the instrument that we are as Muslims we use when fighting. No I don't think that one. That is why I interpret it to mean jihad is carried out that is first instrumental is to be under the leadership of Imam and secondly, the Imam should guide the Muslim to non-Muslims, preach to them Islam, this Islam, this Islam, please we want you to desist from anything which will be harmful to Islam, which will kill Islam, please don't do this. If you don't accept Islam, if don't accept religion shi ke nan, but if you don't accept, don't ever do anything that would harm Islam or Muslims.

KN52 [11653-12171]

Instruments of jihad are, I don't know, but I think like I mentioned earlier, there are levels of jihad, personal Jihad, individual jihad, community jihad, national jihad, whatever the level you want to look at it, there are levels at which jihad can be fought. So at personal level, well I would say that one should be determined, one should be sincere about really controlling himself, otherwise there is no point striving at all because there is no point one should strive without really being sincere about it.

KN53 [7757-7885]

The instrument of jihad, to me, is to believe in oneness of Allah and his prophet Annab Muhammad (SAW) then preaching his word.

KN54 [3144-3186]

Qur'an and Sunna. It is Qur'an and Sunna

KN55 [4541-4635]

Instruments of jihad are al-kitabu wal Sunna that is Qur'an and Hadith of the prophet (SAW).

KN56 [6000-6038]

Actually I can say Qur'an and Sunna.

KN57 [6825-7077]

You see first of all you have to purify your soul. You have to contribute to your wealth, you too yourself you have to contribute yourself in the jihad, also such as some weapons if you are going on physical jihad, all these are instruments of jihad.

KN58 [17289-17464]

The instruments of jihad? As far as I know, one: Akida. Two: righteousness. Three: up righteousness. Four: being a good Muslim. These are some of the instruments of jihad.

KN59 [11857-12810]

The instruments to fight the jihad? To me, you have to be knowledgeable, is one of the instruments because if you don't know much about your din, you can't wage a jihad. Secondly, you have to be a kind of a preacher, let me use that word preacher, it is an instrument too because by preaching you can easily draw the attention of people to be a Muslim, you can be a social oriented person meaning that there is one program going on in Kano which is A daidai ta sahu, it's a societal orientation program which means they want to make people that are engaged in immoral act to have a moral upbringing, it is also a jihad, instrument for the jihad too. To kind of relate with people that engage in immoral act, shouldn't kind of neglect them, you understand, we should call them together put them in order, ask them what is the problem, why they are engaged in all those things. It should not be necessarily wedging war to them, you understand. Yes.

KN60 [15988-16253]

The instruments of jihad are many; we can say they are many. You see fighting is part of the instrument of jihad. Displaying moral behavior, preaching to other people, giving out alms, assisting the needy and so on and so forth, all this are instruments of jihad.

KN61 [5637-5692]

Ahh, fear Allah wherever you are, that is one of them.

KN62 [21119-21704]

Knowledge and good faith, there are the instruments of jihad, knowledge. First you need to know when and how, you need to know that, when to wage war and how to wage that war because in Islam, we don't believe in killing women, we don't believe in killing young children, in Islam we don't believe in killing those who take refuge in the eh eh any ah let say worship, worshipping place like masjid or even churches. Anybody who ran to hide himself there in a church or masjid, you understand, or even a shrine or synagogue, that person shouldn't be attacked, as we believe in that.

KN63 [21707-21867]

The instrument of jihad has to be Qur'an and Hadith. Number one Qur'an, number two Hadith, huh, so nothing like arms or ammunition or bullet or no, forget it.

KN64 [8840-9029]

Ahh many, Like, you can use, I said to you, you can use your tongue, calling people. You can use all means that you think you can-that can help you to get your aims, hmm.

KN65 [12559-12622]

The instrument of jihad first is fighting one's own soul, yes.

KN66 [5934-6463]

The instruments of jihad is number one, I would say is niya, you have to, you have to, give me the word, (intention) yes, you have to have the intention of this is one of the main, so when we talk about the niya, it has to be a pure niya your heart has to be purified that okay, you want to fight jihad, this is what you want to do and you will do it fi sabilillah. And also you have to have your Qur'an and Sunna, the way of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) that will guide you into the jihad. Those are the instruments of jihad.

KN67 [7088-7610]

To fight jihad, at least you need to let people to have the knowledge ah. The instrument of jihad those are the needed things, the necessary things that you need at least one should be knowledgeable enough to know himself, to know the religion and ah to know how to teach, to know how to preach, how to reach out to people. There are so many ways that ah that so many are knowledgeable but they are not, they do not know how to approach people, so I think even with your money, your money is also part of the instrument.

KN68 [3318-3366]

Iman, niyya, Qur'an, Sunna, money and knowledge

KN69 [13993-14419]

The instrument of jihad is ikhlas that is to do it with a sole mind that you are doing it for the cause of Allah and you make sure that God fearing, God fearing is one of the instruments of jihad and patience, that is to exercise patience in the course of jihad and follow the instructions given by the commander, this are some of the instrument of jihad that are expected to any Islamic military to make sure that he observe.

KN71 [21670-22282]

The instruments, one is the belief, the ikhlas, when you have the belief, you must have the ikhlas, you must have the knowledge. There must be a head before embarking upon a jihad. Who is the leader? That is a leader that who we owe our allegiance, to whom we owe our allegiance and then of course the means. What is this means? For a jihad he needs wealth. he need man power. What does that mean? Supporters, you need, in fact you need everything. When you have the belief, you have the ikhlas, you have the knowledge, you have the state, you understand what I am saying, then definitely you will need the means.

KN71 [22417-22849]

Arms or not arms the three must be there, the belief, the ikhlas and then the knowledge. These four are fundamental anywhere, this three are fundamental. (interjection: for arms jihad?) Either arms jihad or what you do with your pocket or what you do with your energy or whatever, you have, you must need the belief because without the belief, without the ikhlas and without the knowledge, will you know what is good and what is right

KN72 [13269-13441]

The instrument of jihad is knowledge first, Islamic knowledge. When you have a Islamic knowledge so you can make a jihad, but without Islamic knowledge you can't do jihad.

KN73 [13929-14431]

Yah that's what I'm saying, it depends on the country, on the time you find yourself and the country you find yourself and the environment you find yourself. As I said, there will be a time we'll just talk, do, don't do this is jihad, as an instrument of jihad. Write, find a biro, write a letter to the king, to the leader, yes to the president to do, this your practices is anti Islam is a jihad. Write a letter as a journalist is a jihad. Write a book is a jihad, to commend your family as a jihad.

KN74 [22897-23452]

Instruments for jihad hmm mm masha Allah, we have already heard it from the holy Quran, Allah (SBUH) says that (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) Therefore, if you look into this aya you will find out that there is a lot of things that Allah (SBUH) mentioned, but the basic things that ahh we call an instrument for jihad is attakuwa, to make sure that whatever you have been doing, you are doing it fi sabilillah. Therefore, this is the basic instrument and whatever comes after is, we can call it the second or the constituent of the instruments, yes.

KN76 [15275-15419]

Well the instruments of jihad well, to me, ahh there is economic ahh economic instrument, there are educational instruments and there are arms.

KN78 [19383-19591]

Instrument of jihad you mean. Instrument of jihad could take the meaning of weapon, instrument of jihad could take the meanings of books, instrument of jihad could take the meaning of the pain of a scholar.

KN78 [19618-19734]

Of course instrument of jihad could also mean telling the truth, yah saying the truth in front of an unjust ruler.

KN79 [10417-10584]

Peaceful jihad needs ahh Da'wa, good mu'amalat to non-Muslims while physical jihad require well training, that is armies, weapons, wealth, and ehh good determination.

KN80 [18057-18254]

So the instrument of jihad is to make people becomes aware with the teaching of ahh Islam, to acquire Islamic knowledge, to know what is obligatory upon them and what religion requires from them.

KN81 [10946-11078]

Yes of course jihad has multiple instruments. It just depends on what type of jihad you offer. Is it physical jihad or what have you?

KN82 [13774-13893]

The instruments of jihad may involve the mind itself, the physical component of the human being and also the weapons.

KN83 [8275-8306]

Good mu'amalat and the Taqwa.

KN84 [9575-9643]

There are iman ahh I think Tauhid, mu'amalat and the rest of them.

KN85 [8581-8890]

Yes ahh ahh one, you strive to reform yourself through your own personal effort. Two, you use your wealth to be generous to others so that they will try to understand through your actions and again through fighting. So fighting, your personal effort, your wealth, your position all are instruments of jihad.

ZA1 [12246-12849]

Instrument of jihad, you are mean, you are talking about the condition? The condition of jihad has been stated in Sahih Bukhari, they are about, I think about more than 15, but let me tell at least three of them. Before jihad is been set, there must be a leader which at least 90 to 80 percent, they give allegiance to a pledge. Secondly, if Muslim before they set a jihad, they have to take admonishment, preaching and also the non-Muslim try to occupy them, try to conquer them, try to oppress them, if this condition have been met, the Muslims should stand and defend themselves. They can't wait.

ZA2 [9353-9583]

Ahh the instrument of jihad, you see jihad per se is telling with the word of mouth that is words of wisdom, wisdom words are the weapon. The wisdom words are the weapons, peace, unity, so this are just you give words of wisdom.

ZA3 [10836-10902]

Instrument of jihad are knowledge and there must be a leadership

ZA4 [25618-26004]

Yes the instrument of jihad is your belief, you have to believe in Allah, you get good conduct, you understand, good morality, be kind to your people and your neighbors in the society, you have a very good faith, doing Sadaka, to be kind to people, talk to, be nice to everyone even to the unbelievers just to allow them to understand this Islam is good, to have the good perception.

ZA5 [13889-14138]

The instruments of jihad, we have so many instruments of jihad. You can give Sadaka fi sabilillah to somebody, they you understand, to the poor, they you understand, that is feeding the needy, they you understand, and so many good deeds you can do.

ZA6 [30781-31254]

Hmmmm the fear of God, the purification of the heart hmm are the instruments of jihad, not the archaic, the imported thinking of the militant that they say you have to carry weapons and all that no, no. Your heart hmm, your soul, the purification of your heart, the fear of God is your instrument because if you have the fear of God in whatever you do, there will be an element, in fact there will be purely element of, you know, good deeds because you have the fear of God

ZA7 [11536-11837]

Yes instruments of jihad. Jihad has lots of instruments, as we know to do anything good in this life, you probably need money, you probably need comfort, you probably need to be in good health and you probably need to have the knowledge of Islam. So I think those are the basic instruments one needs.

ZA8 [20223-22240]

Instruments of jihad wow. I think basically is knowledge. I think one basic thing of jihad is knowledge because when you yourself you don't know about Islam, how are you supposed to teach another person? And I think knowledge is the basic instrument because it is when you know something that you teach another Person. And there is also wealth. You can use your wealth in the course of jihad. You can use your property and even your physical, when I say physical self, it means you go yourself that is when you have the knowledge. That was why I said the key instrument of jihad is knowledge. You must be a true knowledgeable somebody that knows what Islam is all about, then you go physically with yourself telling people. Like all our scholars, they are doing jihad by teaching people what Islam is. That is the true scholars; I am not talking about the ones that don't know anything. So this is what they do, jihad is striving in the cause of Allah. You go to people, to places that you know Islam has not reached, preached to them; this is what Islam is all about. You call them, you enjoin them to do what is good and what is bad, so that is jihad. We have physical, you must be there present, if you don't have wealth or means of, so if you are there, you tell them. If you have the knowledge, you tell them. If you have, some people don't have the knowledge, but they are rich, they have wealth. So they help the people that have the knowledge to go there. So that one also is jihad, in fact, in Islam jihad also means going to visit your relatives, being good to your neighbors, going to visit the sick, greeting your sick relatives even if they are not your relative, going to visit them. Going, if somebody invites you for a wedding or whatsoever, is jihad for you to even go. So all those things, everything you do, if it is for the sake of Allah, this is what God ask you to do, the prophet say do this and you have a reward and you do that with the intension of getting that reward from God, that is jihad

ZA9 [11657-11763]

I believe Qur'an is, should be the strongest, the holy book should be the strongest instrument for jihad.

ZA10 [15060-15121]

The instrument of jihad is the Qur'an, Hadith and the Sunna.

ZA11 [11965-12016]

Da'wa, sharia and other things of Islamic morals

ZA12 [6914-6985]

Instrument of jihad, I think correcting one to the right path I think.

ZA13 [6602-6674]

The instruments of jihad, one, is the faith, when you have faith in it.

ZA14 [6117-6469]

The instrument of jihad, there are so many instruments of jihad. One of the instruments of jihad is what I have just said just now by doing good to everybody is a kind of, one of the instruments of jihad. Hope you understand, feeding the needy is one of the instruments of jihad, calling people to Islam is another instrument of jihad and so much etc.

ZA15 [12610-12724]

I think the first thing is faith and the second thing is they have knowledge about that particular thing you do.

ZA16 [6958-7089]

Ahh the instrument of jihad is aah there should be a leader, a leader that all Muslims agree that accepts that yes he is a leader.

ZA17 [6281-6452]

The instrument of jihad is first, you have to have a concrete in iman because if there is no any concrete iman, the jihad will not be ahhh it will not be sophisticated.

ZA18 [9726-9925]

Toh the most important instrument for jihad is knowledge, you have to be very knowledgeable and you should practicalize that knowledge, put the knowledge you acquire into practice for people to see.

ZA19 [12594-12769]

Well the instruments of jihad are actually many: your heart, your hand, your tongue, and when it's intensified that is when you can get something to actually defend yourself.

ZA20 [6703-6883]

The instrument of jihad is one you have to have faith in God. Without that faith in the oneness of God and all other, you know, five fundamentals of Islam, then you are finished.

ZA21 [9598-9710]

The instrument of jihad is that you clean your mind and make sure you are doing that for the cause of Allah.

ZA22 [8568-8830]

The instruments- in the first and foremost is you teach, you preach to people and continue and if it gets to physical combat you use the modern physical combat as well, but we shouldn't exaggerate in our fight because Islam has put everything in place for us.

ZA23 [12503-12718]

The instrument of jihad-the major one is perseverance. In worshipping Allah you must persevere. In leaving what Allah subuhana wa ta'allah forbids you must persevere. If you have this you have the strongest weapon.

ZA24 [16492-17025]

Instruments of jihad are many. Use your brain, use your money, use your good character. All these are instruments of jihad. But to me now except somebody want to as I said earlier somebody want to cheat you or want to- somebody came and harass you, harass your parents or harass your religion it is then you can fight back, but if not there is not supposed to be a sword as instrument of jihad. Jihad-you can use your money, you can use your brain, you can use your character and you can use your knowledge as instruments of jihad.

ZA25 [14007-14464]

Yes I have indirectly answered this question. That to start with you must have a good understanding of Islamic knowledge that is the foremost instrument of jihad. Secondly, exemplary practices, sincere and true exemplary practices of the teachings of Islam and finally retaliatory physical fight in case the non-Muslims are aggressive against the Muslims community. So Muslims communities are allowed to fight back, they are not to initiate the fight.

ZA26 [7330-7376]

Instrument of jihad is mind, a correct mind.

ZA27 [5321-5424]

Maal -your wealth, your time, your ah and so on and so forth your time not necessarily taking weapon.

ZA28 [14478-14914]

Well based on my own understanding when you say instruments you mean the tools, which must be gathered for something to be established. So if you say instruments of jihad you see the first instrument of jihad here is knowledge. You must be knowledgeable of how they say, how both the Qur'an and sunna gives, I will say instructs people to go and have jihad, should be carried out. The knowledge here is the basic instrument of jihad.

ZA29 [22914-23378]

Thank you. When you say the instruments of jihad here is first your mind. First your mind is the most strong instrument of jihad. You have to put in your mind that whatsoever I am doing, I am doing it for the sake of Allah, I am doing it for the sake of the jihad I am doing. That is I am striving, I am striving, that's in your mind. Secondly, your own view of the people, how do you see people around you? Three, why are you doing whatsoever you are doing?

ZA30 [34215-35729]

The instrument of jihad, I mentioned it before. You can't do jihad without the Amir. So the first instrument is the Amir that one is also there, let me say a two hours lecture. What qualities will someone put to be aa Amir? That is the leader of the community. I can't just wake up in Zaria and say I have my own Imam just the way the Boko haram did. They brought their own shugaba, they said he is supposed to be the leader and other people didn't accept him because they came through, let me say, they are maybe from ahh, what is open is like they came through Ahlis-Sunna, but the actual who they are, they are Maitatsine people because it was revealed in the history that Muhammad Yusuf's father has been killed in Riyar Lemu during Matatsine's crisis. So that hatred of Boko has started earlier even it is in his own blood, but they came under the umbrella of Sunna, they hid there, but main Ulama of Sunna, they have already called him back to order, but he did refused, he refuse to listen to them. I could remember Sheikh Ja'afar, late Sheikh Ja'afar Adams has called him into order, he did not listen, and Sheikh Ja'afar Adam, he is not even his own mallams Shugaba, no, even his own Imam's imam, they are not even comparable, bin Usman, Dr. Sani Rijiyar, almost different Ulama of Sunna, they interviewed him and they told him what he was doing was wrong and he would agree, but when he come out from them, he would go and keep on telling them what is different from what he told them already.

ZA31 [9478-9804]

Instruments of jihad is book, mouth, what, why I say, I called book one, book is the one, I mean book of God that is Qur'an and Qur'an is the word of God. You use it according to what is there and preach and persuade people to the, to the right path and why I say mouth, mouth is the, is the one that will say the word of God.

ZA32 [25080-26036]

The instrument of jihad can be seen in the, in that mentioned verse, verse of the Qur'an, which Allah says with your wealth, where Allah says you should believe in Allah, Muslims should believe in Allah, his messengers, and struggle in the way of Allah with their what, with their wealth and their lives. We can say before jihad can be carried out, there are some instruments that are needed, that are required and that, and those are instruments can be as follows: The jihadist or the one is or mujahid or mujahidun must first be Muslims and Muslims, the practicing ones, practicing Muslims, not Muslims by name, they should be practicing Muslims, and they should own weapons and also they should have abhhh wealth that can sponsor the undertaking of that jihad, and the man power. I mean the arms, well trained arms are also the instrument of jihad, but as I mentioned that jihad should be first carried out through preaching, through da'wa. That is it.

ZA33 [7698-7817]

The instruments of jihad are you have the wealth, you preach and you have physical fitness and this physical fitness.

ZA34 [18897-19452]

The instruments of jihad, to my own understanding, are one: the basic knowledge of the religion. You must know your religion. Know the teachings and then the idea of you religion. Two, be firm having faith-Iman, firm iman. Three, then you go about carrying out the jihad but it depends on the circumstances of the jihad, it may be through your teaching, it may be through preaching, it may be when you are pressed then that is when you carry out ammunition to protect yourself not even to fight but to protect yourself. That is what the Rasul (SAW) did.

ZA35 [7013-7054]

Instruments of jihad are Iman and Takuwa

ZA36 [12838-13076]

The instruments for jihad are sword, horses, bows and arrows. I am mentioning what I have seen during the life time of the Caliphs, the successors of the prophet (SAW), so they use bows and arrows, they use swords, they use shields etc.

ZA37 [12870-13136]

Number instrument, as I said, is the holy Qur'an, knowledge of the Holy Qur'an and Hadith of the holy prophet (SAW) these are the instruments because these are the guides, they will guide you what to do, where to go and what action you are to take at any point.

ZA38 [19321-19489]

The instruments of jihad are very much, you can use your heart, you can use your brain, you can use your hand, you can use your Knowledge, in fact many, many things.

ZA39 [27259-28290]

Instruments simply mean you know when we say instruments; we are talking about the equipment, the qualities, isn't it? The instruments, the equipment, the conditions, we refer to them as the conditions, like I said, the issue of the condition depends on which jihad we are talking about. If we want to just talk about the instrument of jihad is one, you strive hard in your worldly affairs, to be doing good to somebody or to yourself with the aim to be rewarded in the hereafter. These are the instruments or we call it the conditions. Whatever Allah commands you to do, whatever Allah permits you to do and you wish to do them with the hope to be rewarded in the hereafter, we say these are the conditions. So if I go, I am supposed to go and do a business in order to earn money rather engages in doing a robbery, this is not the way that Allah wants you to get your money, but if I just engage in the way that Allah allows me that is go doing a particular job, get money lawfully and come and spend it, it is also a jihad.

Th7.5: Necessity of Jihad in Modern Northern Nigeria

FG1 [25662-25683]

Yes very necessary

FG1 [25714-25758]

It is not only necessary it is compulsory

FG1 [25775-25826]

Because Islam is going down now may be in Nigeria

FG1 [25911-25923]

Preaching

FG1 [25989-26304]

we say jihad is necessary in northern Nigeria in particular. I think the type of jihad that is most necessary for all northern Nigeria is self jihad because majority, the vast proportion of northern Nigeria now is we are corrupt. Corrupt in the sense that we are corrupt to ourselves. We are corrupt to our faith.

FG3 [36603-36698]

Yes it is necessary. I have my reasons. (Some interjections to differentiate jihad from Qital)

FG3 [36700-37153]

That is what I am trying to talk about. It seems like we have forgotten the relying ideal, not like because I can draw a line because the definition drew a line for all of us. So any time you keep saying jihad I feel like changing the word to strive. Like let's not use jihad because it has already been inculcated in our minds, not only we as in not only the Muslims, only the Muslims themselves like I said we you call jihad we all feel like fighting[

FG3 [37163-37197]

They should have used maybe da'wa

FG3 [37228-38147]

When you say jihad is necessary in northern Nigeria any says is jihad necessary in northern Nigeria, what will first come to his mind is, is fighting necessary in northern Nigeria? Am I right? (chorus of agreement) Is fighting the non-Muslims by the Muslims in northern Nigeria necessary? Am I right? That is the first thing that will come to someone's mind because that is what jihad even the sentence means if I am right. So jihad in northern Nigeria, not only in northern Nigeria, it is not even necessary, we don't need it. Why, because we were told how to propagate our religion. How do you do it? You preach but you don't make someone to convert. God said himself that we the Muslims we preach, but to bring someone into justice is not your own way it is my own way, I decide. You don't take someone into heaven, I decide to put him. So you don't make him do the right thing you only tell him the right thing.

KD1 [25772-27907]

Walahi jihad is very necessary. It's very necessary because you will realize a lot of detrimental issues, a lot of things, problems in northern Nigeria today. You realize that somebody would claim that he is going, he is almajiri that he has left his village and come to learn Islamic knowledge and yet he cannot even pray, he dose not even know how to perform salat, that is somebody will call himself almajiri and even the Qur'an, he doesn't understand what it is saying, he doesn't even understand anything. He spend more of his time begging, he spends more of his time on the street, he lacks the family upbringing that is necessary for a child, he lacks the simple ethics, simple morals he doesn't have, he lacks respect for his elders, he lacks love for people, he doesn't even understand what is called love, there is serious need of jihad in that case in correcting these ills and that's where the case of struggle comes in. You need to make a struggle to correct these ills and how can this be corrected, that can be corrected by empowering these kids, by giving them the right knowledge, by making them equivalent to their past what other part of the world and making them to be able to stand in for them to be able to represent the future of Islam when the time comes. Can you imagine somebody that cannot read and cannot write cannot do anything and even some of the Arabic they are reading is like is not the regular one, the Usmani one that we all know. That is not actually the real time problem, but it's actually a short coming because that's what is more adopted in contemporary Arabic writings. So you see that they are more or less disadvantage in multifaceted ways. That's actually there is strong need of jihad in that respect. There is strong need of jihad in economic empowerment, there is strong need of jihad in education, educating our people, there is strong need of jihad in making people actually know what is right and from what is wrong, there is strong need of jihad in giving women that responsibility that they need to be good mothers at home, there is strong need of jihad in the northern Nigeria.

KD2 [10429-10917]

The modern, the modern jihad necessary in this part of the country nowadays is just good character, good actions, good activities not that of fighting, not that of physical fight. But the jihad necessary is just good actions because when you do, when you do a good thing, that will encourage people, that will encourage the non-believers and say ah! what is this person doing, what this people are doing is very good, like that you are enticing them into accepting the religion of Islam.

KD3 [8281-8283]

No

KD3 [8369-8495]

The kind of Jihad northern Muslims should engage in today is jihad of oneself, to force yourself into the practice of Islam.

KD4 [12863-14181]

Well my brother, this type of question when answering it one has to be very, one has to be very conscious in applying it. Why did I say so? If you look at the present northern Nigeria now, we are living more or less like a rampart state whereby we have both Muslims and non-Muslims and then all have the same equal strength. Then with such strength, equal strength in that, even though Muslims are majority, but we all depend one on one, but before a jihad can be taken or a truly Islamic state can be achieved, there has to be what I call mubaya'at, a single universal caliphate that will oversee any jihad that will partake in such. So this our northern Nigeria, I don't think there is that single leader who everybody hundred percent totally pay allegiance to, who we can rely on and said that yah, he is a leader that he should foresee a jihad to take on. So if you ask me, this is my own perception, I will say that no, in the northern Nigeria now, we are not up to that extent to get the truly jihad, to fight the truly jihad that we are supposed to get. Why because, the previous section, the previous reasons that I give you are not in place. But with time if we can have that single leader that all of us can foresee, put ourselves into, then I will say that yes, with time that situation can be achieved.

KD5 [7677-7702]

Yes, jihad is necessary.

KD5 [7787-8201]

That's good. The kind of jihad that modern northern Nigeria should engage on is that jihad using the wealth because if you look at the northern part of the country you will notice that there is high rate of poverty and high rate of illiteracy. So, if one can intervene using his wealth to uplift the standard of living of the Muslims in this side of the country, it is a jihad and that is the kind of jihad we need

KD6 [20047-20374]

Thank you very much. Jihad is necessary, but in the literary meaning, but not the killing Jihad that they are saying. The jihad that you show your good behavior to your neighbors is jihad. You preach Islam to them, but not you fighting them. Anybody that you fight in the modern day will not accept you, that's just the fact.

KD7 [11784-11796]

Yes, it is.

KD7 [11878-12417]

Alhamdulillah there are so many ways. Today, we are living in times that you will see things, we are Muslims, but we see a different side of Islam which even our parents did not see, our grandparents did not see it and why is that? because there were so much innovation. If you try and help eradicate those innovation and you have helped a lot, you have done a great jihad. You will see our young boys the way they dress, the manner in which they speak, the kind of schools we allow our children to go to, they are all subjects for jihad.

KD8 [24281-25142]

Well, it is necessary, but not the jihad of violence, not the kind of jihad that the West is interpreting. Jihad, like I said, is preaching, propagating the cause of Islam. There is no any Muslim that will not like Islam to expand. So through preaching, through educating people, through trying to see that you preach in such a way or you live a good life in such a way that other people will emulate you and you will also try to convert other people peacefully because there is no, la iqraha fid din you don't compel people to accept the religion. When they don't, there is no problem, you don't have to fight them, you don't have to be anything.

So fundamentally Islam is very necessary in northern Nigeria because we need education, we need to be educated, we need to build mosques, we need to build schools, we need to do a lot of things, but not violence.

KD9 [15722-15911]

Jihad is necessary at all times, at every time, anywhere, everywhere for Muslims. We just have to be organized, have a good leader that will give us direction and how to go about doing it.

KD9 [15986-16985]

First of all jihadin nafs. Jihadin nafs I have explained the little I know about it and it also goes down to what I said, learn, education, learn about it. Alhamdulillah there are, we take it for granted, but it is very, very important. We have Islamiyya all over at least our little area here, so I pray and I hope and pray that these things will spread to the hinterland, will spread to the villages because this is where the non-Muslims attack. They know you in the city is a wise, you go to the Islamiyya, you know what Islam says, but our people, cousins that are in the village that don't have access to this, they might have, just like the Bedouins of those days, the Arabs living very far, they don't have enough knowledge, so they bring, so people just attack those kinds of people and give them all kinds of things that are not Islamic in terms of knowledge. So we need to spread our tentacles as far as knowledge is concerned. So if the knowledge base is there everything will be fine.

KD10 [9787-10472]

Anytime of the day, jihad is necessary. Are you getting me? Jihad, I said jihad, you know, when Allah's messenger (alayhis salam), when he migrated to, when he conquered Mecca, he said (quoting in Arabic) there is no hijra from Mecca to anywhere again after this fight (quoting in Arabic) what remains is an intention for that jihad. So jihad is going to be onto the day of Kiyama. But in the northern part, if there is need for jihad, if Ulama say there is need for jihad because they have satisfied the conditions, then we are going to come out for jihad but if there is no need for jihad, the conditions are not fulfilled, then there is no need to do any jihad. Are you getting me?

KD10 [10618-11092]

You know, we have two kinds of jihad in Islam. We have jihadul talap and we have jihadul difa. Talap that is jihadul talap that is if the Kuffar invade our town or our country, we are going to fight them. Everybody should come out and fight except those that are exempted by the sharia, but that of difa that is defensive jihad. We have two. It is not, it does not meet the condition for jihad, but we have to defend ourselves. Are you getting me? That is defensive jihad.

KD11 [14786-15226]

Yes jihad is always necessary, without jihad if you don't build your mosque who is going to build it for you? If you don't revive your mosque, teachings of your religion, nobody is going to do it for you and the region would die. These are institutions that need to be revived. Jihad is very, very much necessary, but not this so called bestial or outburst we are witnessing by the so called Boko Harm, jihad should not be in that fashion.

KD12 [16735-19103]

Ah it is necessary in the northern states today. Firstly ah we went to a national conference at dialogue the day before yesterday where a lawyer was saying that in Kano state, in law school at Kano, see the northern people who are not so careful to scrutinize their departments that we still have some Christians heading most of the department antagonizing Muslims indirectly. That in the law school that law brother was saying, day before yesterday, that in the law school everybody has got his own human right to claim, but you see this head that the person that is heading the law school in Kano is a Muslim, the deputy is a Muslim, I mean is a Christian, the deputy is also a Christian, so now they use their own position to debar Muslims lawyers, Muslims women lawyers to wear their hijab, they said that they must remove it and put cap, so far that it is still stated in the law that the freedom of the people is still embedded, so likewise in many ways in the northern area too here where we have soldiers, where we have they have established sharia, they call some areas Many market, they say that if your sharia is coming it has to stop before many market of barracks of soldier or police, it doesn't go there. So the northerners have to be very, very careful of that area. So again the jihad here is that why northerners have to be very, very careful too is that as provocation if religion is going, we have some sects that even the people the northerners should fight them, themselves before the establishment of such sects, see extended to where it is not eh can't be controlled again by shi'a people, we have many of them too that are doing havocs, see we have many of them that combining people of Mauludi too, where many havocs are doing. So northerners since they have overlooked some of those things that is coming. Another way thing is that they have to do jihad in the area of segregation because Islam doesn't say this is an Hausa, this is a Yoruba, this is a Igbo in giving employment to people or in the areas where they say is kabilanci that kabilanci ah what I can say is ethnicity ah support should not be there, we should take ourselves as one Nigeria even the foreigners to Nigeria too have to be given work without considering where they come from because we are one Nigeria now.

KD13 [5880-6004]

The jihad, you see, when we say jihad, the jihad of the weapon is not necessary, but the jihad for education is necessary.

KD14 [7727-7791]

Yes jihad is necessary in modern northern Nigerian Islam today.

KD14 [7887-8028]

The kind of Jihad the Muslims should engage in now is that of jihad of one's self, we should try to, we should enjoin good and forbid evil.

KD15 [10936-11166]

Ah jihad is necessary in northern Nigeria, but by not using weapons and by doing what Allah (SBUH) ask us to do and by obeying Allah and his prophet, by I think if we can do that only, I think that will be in peace and very okay.

KD16 [5910-5934]

Yes jihad is necessary.

KD16 [6004-6183]

The kind of jihad the Muslims should embark on is the propagation of Islam and the Muslims should also lead others by example, whatever you want to do, let them see you doing it.

KD17 [19069-19233]

If it is said to rise up arms, you understand, I don't think it is necessary. These are Muslims practicing their religion, who do you want to raise up arms again?

KD17 [19316-20027]

Jihadin nafs, jihadin nafs, if you always know about northern Nigeria of the old whereby you can drop your things and go and pray and nobody will come to touch it. People will come, I used to hear the story from our parents that the northerners, these are people especially Muslims, you can give them trust, they are trustworthy, if you give them your trust, they will never betray you, that is because they have the basic tenets of Islam, which is not to betray trust. Prophet (SAW) says part of the sign of a hypocrite is whenever he is being trusted, he breaks the trust, which us and we all know the punishment of a hypocrite, hypocrite will be in the base of the hell fire. May Allah protect us from that.

KD18 [10572-10962]

Yes jihad is necessary in the north, in the northern of Nigeria because jihad we, as we said that we are talking about the, by trying to make efforts, by giving what we have to other Muslims who are not, who are poor. So we use to help ourselves for that and we use to orient ourselves and to counsel ourselves about what is good and what is not good, so that is what I understand by that.

KD19 [14191-14308]

Well I believe jihad is necessary to introduce those three rules, so as to make the society a truly Islamic society.

KD20 [8111-8424]

Yes jihad is necessary anywhere, any place at any time, but when I talk about this jihad is that, jihad is when we are making efforts, when we are striving some efforts to promote Islam. This is not through the weapons and killing of the people but through the words and promoting what our religion is all about.

KD21 [8186-8382]

Jihad is necessary. I think they should engage in jihad bin nafs, they should fight the errors prevalent inside them. The hatred that is eating up the Muslims that has refused to let us move on.

KD23 [8613-8878]

Entirely I did not ah it is not necessary for jihad in modern northern Nigeria today and entirely it is not necessary because why I said it is not necessary because ah you can look the nature of the ah of the state, the nature of the state, so it is not necessary.

KD24 [34595-36672]

Jihad is necessary actually, but when I think I guess is education because education, educating people is part of the Islamic jihad, the real education ah more especially the Islamic religion education that is the Muslims should put their children in good schools and make sure that they progress usually with their knowledge because it is not good for ah person to put his son into Islamic school immediately after finishing primary six he is done because we are used to that, but this western education you will see someone will finish degree first you see you wonder how, but in Islamic part you will see highest is maybe primary school, highest junior secondary school the one that will try is the one that will make sure his child has reached secondary school finish, you see that one did not, the real knowledge of Islam, the real practice of Islam up till now he has no good knowledge that can say something these are some part of the teachers which are preaching now. Those people that just finish primary school or secondary school, they are just the ones that are bombarding everything, if you go to, for example, the real school you have good certificate it is not necessarily you will see they will allow you to even speak, it will be very hard for them to allow you to speak because you are not son of Alhaji wane or doctor wane or governor wane or senator wane, no, but their children they can come and speak even though their level of knowledge is not up to the level which they can stand and say what they are saying. So the jihad which I think they should ordain is knowledge. They should make sure that these children which are coming up which will be the heroes of tomorrow, let them make sure that they have the good knowledge of this religion and I'm sure if being used the knowledge very well no any fighting will be progressing because they will know how to settle things with the knowledge because in Islam it is not everything you will say fight, everything no. Until things persists. No any other things to do, no any way out, then you have to do.

KD25 [46813-47045]

Yes, jihad is necessary in the northern part of Nigeria and the kind of jihad that should be said or uphold is al-jihadul Ta'alimi that is the jihad of teaching the Muslims their religion very well, to know what Islam is all about.

KD26 [10793-11810]

Ah yes it is necessary in the modern northern Nigerian Islam today and I think the kind of jihad necessary for the modern northern Nigeria is the jihad of the tongue and the jihad of the heart because we have to fight our inner battles ourselves and then when we have reach a certain, we called it... Ourselves we have to propagate Islam, we have to go for da'wa. I think that is what is necessary, we lead by example. I can remember the story where prophet Muhammad (SAW) used to have a neighbor that was a non-Muslim that used to come and pour dirt in front of his house and he never came out and said am going to box you or anything like that, in short when he didn't see him for some time he inquired and he was told that he was not feeling fine, he went to visit him and you see that is da'wa. He is showing that Islam is a religion of peace, is a religion that cares. So if you show care you will do da'wa, you will preach, you will draw people. I think that is the kind of jihad necessary in northern Nigeria.

KD27 [9974-10042]

Yes, the one on themselves; jihad on themselves, individuals first.

KD28 [15589-15609]

Jihad is necessary.

KD28 [15636-16102]

When you are talking, jihad of which I am talking about is necessary in Nigeria, in northern Nigeria today is that is the one fi sabilillah wa rasulihli the jihad of which you have to go by the injunction of the Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet (SAW) as a Muslim because you have to defend your religion to make the, seek knowledge and spreading the knowledge to the people. It is a form of jihad that people should have the understanding of what you are after.

KD29 [8698-9069]

You see jihad does not restrict itself to northern Nigeria alone. Jihad eh jihad extends to all parts of Nigeria because if you look at the way we conduct ourselves both the Christians and other non-Muslims and the Muslims we need to reorient ourselves we need to extend preaching, we need to make our Christian colleagues understand the virtues, the teachings of Islam.

KD30 [14737-16184]

I think more than anytime this is the time that jihad is needed because of the total misconception of Islam brought about by the advent of boko haram and their sister or brother groups. I think if Muslims have to stand up this is the time to stand up to show people that this is not what Islam propagates. Islam is a religion of peace. There are a lot of things they don't know about Islam. You will be surprised you will be living with a Christian in Nigeria here and it will surprise you that you later find out that he knows almost nothing about Islam, but the only thing he will say is Islam is a religion of terror. So you see I think this is the time to bring about that we should bring these Christians close to us, show them the beauty of Islam, invite them into it. I am always confident that when we show them this beauty of Islam and the true conduct and teaching of this Islam, I think nothing will stop most of them from doing, I even argue with some people that these people are not Muslims a lot of them because if boko haram's actions are totally un-Islamic then I will see that these people are even fighting to send people away from Islam because they are showing just the, another picture of Isla. If people are showing the good trying to invite people or get people into Islam I think they should ah they should conduct good Islamic ah ah Islamic practices so that they can be able to see what this religion truly teaches.

KD31 [11045-11218]

Yes it is, because even if you go to our cultures and traditions there are some things we do traditionally they are not supposed to like our way of dressing and the likes.

KD33 [11205-11998]

Well, Islam is eh, personally, jihad is not necessary, the jihad, jihad that is necessary in the, the modern northern Nigeria today is jihad of good ethics and characters, so that we would doing that, people that are not Muslims would understand the beauty, and the good of Islam. So that, with that, without fighting, conflict, they would be able to accept Islam, but jihad with fighting is that I don't think that one is necessary in northern Nigeria because we are living in a mixed society, we are not pure Muslims as some of the Islamic countries. So, for me, doing good, practicing correct Islam, good ethics, characters eh interactions with eh non-Muslims and telling them what is the beauty of Islam, that is the first jihad that we need to take in northern modern northern Nigeria.

KD34 [11187-11260]

The way I define jihad it is necessary not the way others define jihad.

KN1 [31068-31728]

Thank you very much, jihad is necessary, and the kind of jihad we need to even first to do is first of all between the Muslims. Let them be practicing the right religion, let them be practicing Islam as it is for everyone to see that this is the real religion. And now when you are bringing others into your religion, it has to be through preaching, enlighten them, you cannot force them to accept your faith, it cannot happen, it is not encouraged. But you can only invite them into the religion through good deeds. So that is why I have been telling you that jihad is a struggle it doesn't mean a struggle of arms. So it has a lot of meaning. So that is it

KN2 [18526-18853]

In my opinion, Muslims are yet to finish the first phase of jihad in Nigeria. Muslims are yet to finish the first stage in Nigeria. To carry the word of God to Muslims and non-Muslims and they are also not being under any compulsion to drop their religion. So they still have some way to go before deciding on jihad itself.

KN4 [24772-25320]

Jihad is necessary and always you are in jihad. Always Muslim are in jihad that is why I told you, to even talk morality, to even control drug abuse is ala is jihad. It is possible in northern part of Nigeria. When we look at it in Kano state, the governor has gone aggressively, violently towards the drug ah drug barons that is Jihad. Jihad is possible but jihad has no connection with using of arm, assault, bombs and other things that can cause mayhem to the human kind, to human being that is not jihad, jihad is possible using good morality.

KN5 [10784-11195]

Yes, it is very necessary as this is the part of the country that is predominant of Muslims, predominantly inhabited by Muslims and as such this people has go practice Islam in its fullest. So one of the ways to achieve that is the continuation of the teaching of Islam and the people would go into the full practice of Islam and when chance and opportunities come to implement jihad in its fullest insha Allah.

KN6 [10983-11532]

Ah even to call our Muslim, even to call our Muslim brother is part of jihad because we have a level of illiteracy in this society because many Muslims don't understand the meaning of Islam, for example, what is happening in this Kano state, so you can assume this person maybe he claim that he is a Muslim but he not a Muslim to call this person and in order to understand the full meaning of Islam is part of jihad not only not, only necessary to go ah ah in order to fight those Christians but even among your society you can do this jihad.

KN7 [11312-12007]

Ah yes it is, it is very, very necessary because ehm day by day we ehm, modernization, is the let me say is the ruling of ideology today in the recent ehm, in the modern Nigeria, modern northern Nigeria because ehm, if you, if you look at let me say the world entirely, the west have been able to conquer let me say Nigeria as a whole in a way that yes we are have been inculcated not only by the political activities, but their social way of living. We have, we have been inculcated with their social way of living, so yes jihad is necessary because you can see that in one way, the western ideology is not, is not moving in line with the Islamic ideology, so it is necessary, it is necessary.

KN8 [9465-10188]

Yes, it is. Ok, I think instead of this forceful or physical jihad before embarking on-as recommended by the holy prophet (SAW), that there is jihad bin nafsi, there is jihad in tafaqquri, there is jihadin jismi rather than this physical jihad, you understand, that people are embarking on who can-the northern Nigeria can adopt that of jihad bin nafsi, you understand, making jihad through your heart, you understand, softening the heart of the people. jihad tafaqquri let them reason along with your own reasoning, you understand, that what they are doing is wrong rather than making a forceful attack with them, you understand, then this can result into violence, into riot, mass killing and destruction of properties.

KN9 [10274-10791]

Well, I want to believe that jihad is not a necessary ah is not a necessary apparatus in northern Nigeria and the present modern northern Nigeria. This is because I don't want to believe that Muslims are in any way hindered from practicing their religion. I think the Muslims have all the space and time and everything they need to practice to their religion. So there is no need to, their religion is not threatened from all ramifications. So I think there is no need for jihad, there would be no need for a jihad.

KN10 [8387-8660]

Jihad is not necessary because the northern part of the country belongs to the Muslims, so they don't need to fight for something. The only thing is just to call people ah by ah preach that is the means of da'wa that even if there is need of it that is what they would do.

KN11 [12595-13429]

To engage yes, the northern Muslims now should engage in practicing their true religion. Yes to show people that they are true followers of Islam that is to unify God Almighty because even in our society now when people don't even realize the true teaching of Islam because they worship-some people worship men like what happened recently in Kano some people are saying man is God, is a God. They take one man as a God, so how do you expect people from northern country to understand you because they have a claim that Jesus Christ is God and they know that Jesus Christ is more than that man they are whispering. So now you show people that this is the only true God, the creator of Jesus, the creator of Mohammed, so Mohammed is not calling people to worship him but to worship Allah (SAW) and there is not envy with Jesus Christ.

KN13 [11064-11651]

I think the jihad is necessary. What the northern Muslims are suppose to engage in is ehm is revolutionary or ideological jihad whereby they can actually make uhm sharia to be one of the basic primary penal code in the state whereby the constitution of the state actually states that sharia, following sharia as a major guidance of the state because if you look at it, most of the population from the northern Nigeria are definitely-let us say 75% of the population or citizens of northern Nigeria are Muslims. So definitely sharia should be made the major constitution of these states.

KN14 [9659-9804]

Yes jihad is necessary if the need arises, but I told you that one should not engage in jihad without the permission of the ah respected Ulama.

KN15 [10478-10767]

Yes jihad is necessary in modern Nigerian Islam today because we need to continue on that process of jihad so as to you know attract to make non-Muslims you know feel uncomfortable with their religion so as to still attract them to join our religion so we have to continue on that process.

KN16 [5509-5589]

The northern Muslims should engage by practicing and preaching people to Islam.

KN17 [11404-11562]

It's not necessary because we are of we are of Yeah majority of people that are in northern Nigeria today I think 75% of them are Muslims.

KN18 [19623-20373]

Yes its necessary from a context that. The jihad we are talking about to be sincere in ourselves, to fight the vices among ourselves, criminality okay, is a jihad. We would want to fight criminality, lawlessness, lawlessness, you want to fight helping the needy in the hospitals, helping the needy with food, water, drinking, basic amenities, this is jihad. Educating people, proper education, okay, empowering people in northern Nigeria, this is the kind of jihad we need. Jihad of empowering people, giving them education, giving them all sorts of support they need to be empowered; that kind of jihad but not jihad of carrying arms because we have nobody to carry arms against in this part of the country northern Nigeria

KN19 [14601-14636]

Yes I think is very, very important

KN19 [14708-14737]

I think jihad fi sabilillah

KN20 [7094-7099]

No

KN20 [7170-7199]

The jihad of- jihadin nafs

KN21 [4939-5052]

Jihad is not necessary in modern Nigerian of today because we have both Muslims and non-Muslims living together.

KN21 [5127-5145]

Jihad bin nafsi

KN22 [10089-10137]

Jihad is not necessary in modern Nigeria today.

KN23 [7845-7857]

Yah, it is

KN23 [7935-7972]

Jihad that would bring about peace

KN24 [7753-7810]

It is but not the whole north but some part of the north

KN24 [7883-7979]

I think the part of jihad they should engage in is preachings and talking about the second one.

KN25 [9665-9777]

Well, in modern northern Nigerian Islamic setting, jihad could be considered as a last resort. This is because...

KN25 [10042-10296]

Yah it could be through political means. It could be through social means. You could establish a setting whereby the outside people will be tempted to have a taste of what you have when you live in equity, in faithfulness, truthfulness and transparency.

KN26 [9138-9221]

Violent jihad, no. Violent jihad but persuasive jihad, good deeds and yes of course

KN26 [9315-9686]

Yes, yes persuasive good deeds. Once you show that, you bring out the beauty in Islam, the way you dress, the way you talk, the way you relate to other people. Ai definitely this is a sensible era, this is where somebody who is a non-Muslim can take a cue from you and say this is pretty good, but there is no compulsion in religion. You can't compel another person to.

KN27 [9561-9602]

It is. It is. It is very, very important

KN27 [9675-9804]

Well jihad that I think would be embarked on in northern Nigeria is orientation. They should be oriented on how things should be.

KN28 [7343-7709]

Yes it is to some extent ... Yes it is to some extent, but the one I think, which is really needed in the north probably I could just say direct, point blank, should just be the wealth from the up, the assistance, the necessity because of the rate at which poverty is actually chopping of the northern side of Nigeria. It is really drastic.

KN30 [9290-9303]

Jihadin nafs

KN31 [10506-10935]

Well it is necessary and it is not necessary. The reason why I said it is necessary, it could be necessary because of the nature of how among Muslims themselves because of how people have really deviated from the religion and how they conflict the Hadith and the Qur'an. But the other way why I say it is not necessary you know you cannot use jihad to fight the non-Muslims over a non-reason. So it depends on the circumstance.

KN32 [3707-3969]

No, no, no not at all. I don't think jihad of that of carrying arms and ammunitions in northern Nigerian Islam is necessary today. Ah even the other kind of jihad, if it is necessary, then I think it should be that of not carrying arms and ammunitions actually.

KN33 [3878-3937]

No except the jihad to reform yourself under the society

KN34 [5466-5646]

Which type of jihad? It depends which kind of jihad though there are some un-Islamic practices that are taking place but it depends the way may be and the approach that we adopt.

KN35. [7187-7207]

Jihad is necessary.

KN35. [7287-7633]

The kind of jihad modern northern Muslims should engage in is that of da'wa, through da'wa I think, you know the prophet (SAW) he himself did da'wa likewise the behavior in which he used to live with his people, this are the things prophet (SAW) used mostly to convince people, even his enemies they started embracing him through his character.

KN36 [6921-6968]

It is necessary but it does not mean that if...

KN36 [7057-7349]

We need jihad in northern Nigeria particularly now to use our resources to fight abject poverty, to make sure that our young ones are being educated in right direction and those in authority should also make sure that those that will preach should be well guided in terms of Islamic tenets.

KN37 [6377-6529]

I don't think it is necessary just as I said we are in the twenty first century and we have the so called western ideology like the western capitalism.

KN37 [6602-6665]

I think they should engage in that of the non-physical jihad.

KN38 [4269-4272]

No

KN39 [5542-5567]

Actually to some extent

KN39 [5647-6368]

Actually the type of jihad northern Muslims are supposed to engage in is an individual one. What I mean by an individual one is that even the northerners themselves actually they are not practicing their religion according to the rules and regulations taught to us by the holy prophet himself or the Qur'an. So, therefore, we suppose to start like purify our mind so that after we purify our minds then the others even themselves they can by themselves engage into the religion; by if, for example, non-Muslims are seeing us practicing the religion even not in accordance with the rules and regulations as they have been revealed by the holy prophet they won't actually be interested in coming into the religion themselves.

KN40 [8604-8953]

Jihad is necessary in modern northern Nigeria because based on what is happening in the north. The kind of jihad that I can rather just try to introduce or maybe advice for the northern people or the northern Muslims should engage in is by making use of preaching to everyone both the Muslims and the Christians in order to understand the religion.

KN41 [5606-5955]

Of course Jihad is very, very necessary everywhere and the kind of jihad I think the Muslims should engage in is probably the most difficult of all which is the jihad bin nafs, the spiritual exertion to keep ones lower desire and evil inclination and as well to try to increase in the doing of good in order to attain oneness and nearness to Allah.

KN42 [8458-8758]

Ah jihad is very necessary to preach about tolerance, peace and to ehm for religious acceptce that is from different part of the country. People should tolerate one another and the kind of jihad that I think should be engaged in is jihadin nafs, jihad, peaceful jihad, jihad for the sake of Allah.

KN43 [12574-12896]

Yah the only jihad that is necessary in northern Nigeria is massive enlightenment and the acquisition of Islamic knowledge for people to have a proper understanding of Islam, what Islam is all about and the how can you even worship your God and how can you live side by side with non-Muslims, peacefully and harmoniously.

KN44 [7686-8158]

Well like I said when you talk of jihad, you mean striving in the cause of Allah and jihad does not necessarily imply fighting. So we can, the jihad can be waged in modern northern Nigeria if we look at the scope of jihad not necessarily fighting. Well good relationships with fellow Nigerians could have a long way in convincing them to accept Islam. Preaching, like I said, is part of it and if at the end of the day preaching is done and then substantial numbers are ...

KN45 [8122-8460]

Yah, even if the jihad, I don't think jihad ehh as per seen by many is necessary, it is not at all necessary in northern Nigeria because ehh we are living in peace with ehh one another. There is no reason even if there is need of jihad maybe it should be through the propagation of Islam peacefully, yah, which is also part of the jihad.

KN46 [12018-13086]

Well, jihad should start, jihad is necessary, is compulsory but not the jihad people generally understand. We have illiteracy prevalent in our region, so we need to wage a jihad against this illiteracy. We have people like, like the problem of almajiri, this is another problem which is ah giving us a bad name as Muslims of this region, northern Nigeria. We should strive, we should engage in jihad against all this vices and there are other things, even our religious leaders they connive with political leaders in doing all sort of unholy things which are detrimental to the populous of our own region which the majority of them are Muslims. So if we are going to engage in jihad, this are forms of jihad that we should start doing yes even we the Muslims have problems with ourselves, we are not being eh honest, some of us engage in corrupt practices, all thes things we must end against them, we must get rid of them before we face our leaders, before we force, before we face all these problems that we are ah, ah in so this is my own take on this problem.

KN47 [19033-19477]

Hmm, I don't think it is necessary because you know history have us whereby you can simply see a in a particular house, you can see Muslims; you can see non-Muslims in the same family. So if you say you want to carry out that kind of jihad of killing people then you are going to, you know, kill your brothers and sisters as well, you understand. So how can you do this in northern Nigeria? I don't think that is necessary in northern Nigeria.

KN48 [6352-6728]

Jihad is necessary, very, very necessary and the jihad I can, I will implore people to embark on is to try correct, they should try correct themselves, they should try correct theirselves, they try to correct theirself and let the people be studying them by the virtue of doing that, so it will not be inviting them to embrace what the religion they are into, which is Islam.

KN49 [11114-11483]

Actually jihad is not-you can't do that because ehh we live in a social and cultural society that is mixed. I believe the kind of jihad that should be adopted is ah more in line with preaching, educating people among other things. I think that is much more in line with what could be obtainable in northern Nigeria and in Nigeria as a whole and even most part of Africa

KN50 [5786-5981]

The type of jihad northern Muslim should engage in is jihadin nafs which is the most important type of jihad, fighting oneself from doing what is wrong and doing what Allah has ordered us to do.

KN51 [43231-46439]

Jihad is necessary in northern Nigeria, but the jihad which is carried out or was carried out by our predecessors. The jihad of shehu Usman Dan Fodio (rabiyyalahu taallah anu), the jihad of teaching people, the jihad of enlightening people, the jihad of instilling knowledge ok of spreading knowledge that is the jihad. Shehu Usman Dan Fodio did not fight till after the non-Muslims fought him. When they fought him, for defensive purpose, he had to fight. But the actual jihad which is necessary now in northern Nigeria is for Muslims to involve themselves in, first of all, learning the religion itself. They should excel in learning Islamic knowledge which most of our Muslim brothers and sisters don't know. Most of them are more of western education, the Islamic education, most of them are more westernized than Islamized, because of that there are a lot of misconception about Islam even among the elites ma. Those who call themselves elites in northern Nigeria, they are ignorant of Islam, they don't know what Islam is all about so whatever is brought to them from the west, whatever understanding is brought to them from the west, they take it. Whatever attack, whether it is whatever, they will just understand it that way, but if there is proper understanding of Islam, that will lead them to disseminating this knowledge to the rest of the people, within shortest period of time you will see everywhere Islam, but for people to take up arms and begin to fight that is not islam, that is not jihad in fact, is not a jihad wallahi. The jihad that is necessary today is the jihad that requires all Muslims especially the elites, the elites, western educated elites, they should go and learn this Islam because they are our trouble. Most of the misconception about Islam emanate from this people. They are Muslims, they are learned in western perspective, they don't know Islam, but they want to talk about Islam. Whenever something is said about Islam they want to contribute because they are born Muslim ok. They want to even put fatwa into the mouth of the Ulama, they give ah their legal dictates, legal fatwa contrary to what is contained in the Qur'an and Sunna. So the main problem of this ah ah, what do you call it, jihad in northern Nigeria, our jihad in northern Nigeria should be of pursuing education, knowledge, Islamic education and this would be first of all by those elites, our leaders, our Muslim leaders, they should go and learn this Islam which they are ignorant of, they don't know it completely. So when they understand Islam clearly, they understand the teaching of Islam, it is they who would be able to disseminate the knowledge of Islam in a peaceful way in a mutual manner, but in a situation where our leaders are ignorant of Islam, they don't know the teaching of Islam, they don't know anything about Islam, it means we are in trouble wallahi. They are the people who will bring about this jihad, if they bring it about, it is will be successful, but if they continue to remain ignorant, but claim to be learned, so some people who are ignorant, real ignorant will come and say jihad is necessary all the time, they can fight people, they can kill always allahu alam.

KN52 [12312-12987]

Well I think jihad is very necessary, like I mentioned earlier, going by my own definition of jihad, I think the most important jihad that Muslims in northern Nigeria should fight is the self-jihad because we have not really reached a stage in our historical development where we could say we have attained self-purity or self-purification enough to be able build a just and strong society. So I think I would first and foremost advocate self-jihad, you know the other levels of Jihad comes only when you have all the conditions met. You know, where you are under attack or where you are forced to react in a situation and that is under some form of oppression or aggression

KN53 [8027-8251]

Well to that jihadin nafs is the best in the northern part of Nigeria here and this jihadin nafs means fighting one's self from wrong to right. So I believe that is the part of jihad that has to be engaged in northern part.

KN54 [3328-3359]

There are other alternatives.

KN55 [4777-4863]

There are other alternatives like jihadin mal, jihadin nafs and jihad with education.

KN56 [6179-6420]

Jihad is necessary and can only be necessary in modern northern Nigeria if the modern Nigerians are been deprived of their right to practice their religion the way they supposed to practice it or the way they were previously practicing it.

KN57 [7218-7347]

It is not. It is not. There are other ways out, but as times will not agree to mention it here, but there is a lot of ways out

KN57 [7360-7873]

Like tolerance with one another is very important issue. You see, apart from tolerance with one another, is understanding each other. If you understand my religion and I understand what your religion is all about, it is not necessary to fight you why because I have the knowledge of what my religion and doctrine contains, you have the knowledge of your own. May be the doctrine of your religion protects you or prevent you from fighting me, if I am relying with religion, you are relying with your own religion.

KN58 [17604-17818]

It is necessary, but the kind if jihad that we Muslims, not only in northern Nigeria, are supposed to take is the jihad that we do by calling people to Islam through the preachings of the true message of Islam.

KN59 [12952-13342]

Humm jihad is necessary in northern Nigeria Islam today because the jihad is not only a Christian or non-Muslims you can wedge jihad to, you understand, as a Muslim too if you see that your Iman, your faith is going contrary or a neighbors faith is going contrary, you can easily wedge a simple jihad, you understand, by calling him to order, you understand. I think that can be achieved.

KN60 [16396-16943]

To me, it is very, very necessary whether in the northern part of Nigeria or anywhere in the world and what I think we people would continue to do is people should continue to preach, they should continue to preach peace because Nigeria belongs to both Christians and Muslims. There is no way a Muslim would say a Christian should not live in Nigeria, you understand. Neither would a Christian say a Muslims should not live in the same country Nigeria, so preaching is the best form of jihad that can be put in place in northern part of Nigeria.

KN61 [5834-6502]

It is not necessary that there must be a jihad, there are so many ways that ah people are converting, but you have to, for example, in Kano state, eh where 90 or 95 percent of the people, the indigenes are Muslims. So whether you like it or not, you have to allow people to live in their jihad in Islam. So, therefore, even if there is no, even there is no jihad, people are still converting everyday if you go to the mosque you see people are converting to Muslims. So it does not mean that you must have a jihad before, it is only when maybe 100% ah may be in the area are non-Muslims and you are closer to them, then you can try to convince them to be part of you.

KN62 [21777-22519]

Ah, no it is not necessary in modern Nigeria, in modern northern Nigeria because ah modern northern Nigeria is a kind of place that is full of let's say both Christians and Muslims and even pagans and atheist and it's not a monopoly of Muslims. Muslims do not own this very place alone, it is a place, you understand, that is owned and possessed by this people the Christians, atheist, pagans, you understand. Everybody ahh since it is not kind of Islamic government that is ruling the country and it is not Islamic constitution that is ruling the country, we use this constitution yah, with non-Islamic eh provisions, that is it is not Qur'an and Hadith that are used to rule the country, therefore, we cannot monopolize this very place.

KN63 [22007-23864]

Of course, jihad is necessary, very, very necessary in northern region, in northern part of Nigeria. Now the jihad I am talking about, you know, striving or jihad is not necessary, but the striving I am talking about here or in the north here is that, if you look at it today, there are many influences on Muslims today that if you look at a Muslim, it is very difficult, you cannot even recognize them as a Muslim, maybe in their way of life, in their dressing, you see a Muslim man or a Muslim person dress like a non-Muslim, keeping hair, you know, the way they dress, you know. All this modern dressing of a thing you cannot recognize them. So if you can have somebody like that in your midst, even you can talk to him, advise him, preach to him, is jihad. You know most of the eh the rural area surrounding us here, you know, they don't know much about Islam, huh even though some of them are Muslim, but they don't have the adequate knowledge of Islam. If you can go there and talk to them is also jihad. But the jihad here that we are not supporting is taking of arms and ammunition. That is not what we, but striving, talking, preaching to people, you know, and encourage them to do good that is what we are talking about Islam, encourage them to do good and prevent them from doing evil. That is all we are talking about; so all these things are very necessary in the northern part of Nigeria. If you look at today we have much influence from the western world, you know, from the western world. They tend, people now tend to do things eh according to on various community that constitute the shura and the shura now, they now come together, you know, to get the leader and that leader is a very prominent person that has the idea of maybe leadership and some other things like that. They just don't elect leader, just like that you know just.

KN64 [9099-9103]

No.

KN65 [12690-12723]

Yes, it is very, very necessary

KN65 [12798-12824]

Just to pious our hearts.

KN66 [6531-6623]

In modern northern Nigerian today I believe jihad is necessary because a lot of people have

KN66 [6698-6832]

The type of jihad I believe northern Muslim should engage, I believe northern Muslim Nigerians should engage is jihad from the heart.

KN67 [7683-7687]

Yes

KN67 [7762-8027]

I think with this issue of modernity there are so many ways that you can reach out to people. Tell them about Islam through social media, through text messages, through so many ways that you can reach out to so many people at one ah in a given time, in short time.

KN68 [3441-3468]

Yes, jihad, jihadin nafs.

KN69 [14499-14884]

Yes of course if you take them .meaning of jihad in a wider sense is necessary, but even those that are of the views that jihad must be interpreted to be considered as physical combat, I am not in agreement with that, with them to the fact that if we take the issue of jihad by interpreting it in a wider sense, it covers all aspect of human endeavor, as such we can agree with this.

KN71 [23015-23703]

Yes, it is necessary and it is that of having the knowledge, developing all our ahh ilmi schools, both western and Islamic. Having an understanding within ourselves then creating that unity among us. This are the most, as far as I am concerned, are the most necessary things for the northern Muslim to do: to educate themselves, both knowledge, to unite themselves, and to understand their common enemy. What their common enemy, what I mean by common enemy is both the enemy within and outside. An enemy within that is, it may be a lot of other things. It may be poverty, it may be ignorance, it may be disunity, it may be tribalism, it may be so many other things that we have to fight.

KN72 [13591-13726]

Yes sir, jihad is necessary in northern Nigeria, but peaceful jihad that is jihadin nafs or through preaching, the verbal jihad, yes.

KN73 [14564-14898]

It is not necessary now in northern Nigeria, it's not necessary. The only jihad that northern Nigeria will engage in now is just by, by educating their people, employing them, give them the necessary basic need of their lives. This means that some are now engaged in militancy just because they don't have what they are going to do.

KN74 [23564-24751]

Fi sabilillah in fact, the jihad is not necessary in the modern northern Nigeria ehh Nigerian Islam today because there is nothing or there is no any reason or nothing that brought into the northern part of Nigeria that will not allow you to worship Allah (SBUH). We have the freedom of our religions, we can do whatever we want in our area. Therefore, even if you can remember, if you go back to the history, you will find out that what makes prophet Muhammad (SAW) to leave Mecca is that his people were not allowed him to worship Allah (SBUH) ehh properly. Therefore, he ordered his companion to leave Mecca to the Habasha after to the Sham or whatever it is until the time that he himself leave the Mecca to Medina in order to exercise his religion. That is why Allah (SBUH) tells us that ehh (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) means that if you were not allowed to practice your religion to worship Allah (SBUH) in accordance, you can leave that area to go to another place. Therefore, in our northern Nigeria there is nothing that or we have no any factor that influence such kinds of things that will not allow us to practice our religions, yes.

KN75 [25165-25169]

No,

KN76 [15675-15805]

Well actually if there is any jihad the northern Muslim should engage in is the economic and the educational jihad in my opinion.

KN78 [19880-20407]

When there is oppression, when there is injustices, when there is ahh dictatorship, when there is a deliberate attempt to eliminate the Muslims under the circumstances, jihad is very, very possible, but without those conditions, we have other versions of jihad that will be possible like telling the truth, telling the leaders what they should do, ahh ahh writing books for people to be conscious of the fact that Islam should address fundamental human problems, unemployment, insecurities, etc, et. That in itself is a jihad.

KN79 [10886-11061]

Yes. Muslims in northern Nigeria need only peaceful jihad, that is Da'wa, but they didn't need to engage in forceful or physical jihad, that is in violent, any violent jihad.

KN80 [18398-19047]

Yes it is necessary because jihad, as I said earlier, does not confine only to the physical combat or physical fighting. There is other jihad like the preaching, the teaching of Islam among the Muslims and need for Muslims to wake up. So all this work needs to what, needs directions of scholars and the whole ahh ahh Muslim Umma and it is not only responsible upon a single human being, it is the responsibility of the entire Muslim Umma to make sure that they are abiding by the commandment of Allah and acquired the necessary Islam knowledge expected for a Muslim to acquire. So doing this we facilitate a true jihad in the part of this country.

KN80 [19175-19558]

Yes not physical jihad because it is through peaceful jihad that will brought back to ahh ahh physical jihad. So in as long as Muslim would become united, in as long as Muslim will know the verdict and the injunction of Islam, in as long as Muslim become knowledgeable about their religion , so the their counterpart Christians will normally discourage and lose their own control.

KN81 [11223-11377]

Well already Muslims have Islamic state in the north and constitutional right to practice their religion so there is no room to make any combat in Islam.

KN82 [14037-14498]

Jihad is necessary in modern Nigeria today, but not, as in constantly mention, not the physical fighting because you can find out that a lot of non-Muslims live within our premises here, the only effort that we need to convert them to Islam is preaching, showing them good things impressive about Islam that can actually make them to embrace them and ahh become part of us. I think that is the kind of jihad that is required in the northern Nigeria of today.

KN83 [8447-8534]

Yes jihad is necessary in northern Nigeria, but peaceful jihad through good mu'amalat.

KN84 [9786-9972]

Sincerely speaking, no position of physical jihad in northern part of Nigeria, but peaceful jihad is in need in daily Muslim activities everywhere in the northern part of the country.

KN85 [9031-9451]

Yes given the degradation of the state of morality and ethics in the society, actually there is need for jihad in not just northern Nigeria, but in the whole of Nigeria and some other part of Africa. But this kind of jihad is a jihad where people will try to reform themselves, try to reform others, try to be good to others so that they will come back to the real practices of Islam not necessarily the fighting jihad.

ZA1 [12917-13364]

If you are talking about jihad that is the word jihad in bracket, means is just a...with, but I will say yes, as I said earlier, jihad means to spread a word of Allah (SBUH) to a non-Muslim is a jihad. To assist your brother is a jihad to which is a necessary. But if you are talking about to take a sword, I will say, apart from what happened during Usman Dan Fodio, no any real jihad that occur. All these are political issues, is not a jihad.

ZA2 [9650-9761]

Is necessary because that will make people to even live in harmony, is necessary, we need to reach out and...

ZA3 [11043-11649]

Is the jihad of, first of all is the jihad of nafs because even during the time of sahab as the companion of the Prophet, they said look at us and you want to be like us, of course, but when the Muslims are not preaching, they are not doing what they preach or are not actually practicing what is enshrined in their own books then it is become very difficult for you to ask a non-believer to look at me and, but if we are to inculcate what is written in the book of Islam about how to live or even live with non-Muslims, I think they will be encouraged and with sound knowledge give a convincing evidence.

ZA4 [26146-26730]

Amm jihad of, what you call jihadin Ta'alim that is what is necessary. Jihad of highlighting people, giving the people knowledge, that is the first jihad. We need to make people understand, give them the right knowledge because most the people are ignorant, you understand, and illiterate. So the jihad that is required in northern Nigeria is the jihad of good teaching, of knowledge, teaching that is imparting good knowledge to them, morality, the way you behave, even good understanding, good knowledge. So we start with teaching people the concept of Islam not by start killing.

ZA5 [14276-14426]

The kind of jihad the northern Muslims are supposed to engage in, is the kind of jihad that is jihad of the heart. That's it. That is just the best.

ZA6 [31398-32981]

Thank you. Jihad is very necessary every day in, not only in the northern Nigeria, but in every Muslim society, in every society, you get? Like in Nigeria today, jihad is very necessary, but jihad of the heart, jihad ahn of the soul, the fear of God, you do things for the sake of God not for the sake of another person. When, the Muslims today should understand the importance of the fear of God, the fear of God in the aspect of being charitable, being honest, we are not honest with each other that is the problem of Islam and that is what is causing all this. We have to be honest, being honest is part of jihad, being charitable is part of jihad, helping one another is part of jihad. There are Muslims that are rich, but their neighbors are very poor. But in Islam now, you see they don't even practice the Islam the way it is supposed to be practiced. In Islam now it is very necessary, in fact it is mandatory for you as a rich man, if you are rich, every day you have to make sure 40 houses from the left, back and front of your house eh feeds well as a rich man hhm. If you feed well, you have to make sure you count 40 houses here, here, here and make sure the neighbors, that is your neighbors hhm are also doing well. That Is the essence of being rich. So Nigerians today will have to understand, if the rich men in Nigeria are doing that there will have no problem hhm. So jihad is necessary that kind of jihad is necessary, but the jihad, the imported one, the fighting, the bombing is not even wanted talk more of necessary, you get? That one is even not an issue.

ZA7 [11977-12460]

Yes jihad is necessary in modern northern Nigeria today because from recent events and activities around this area, there have been sects like the boko haram who have influenced violence, kidnappings, killings and so many unlawful things. Now if people or scholars that are well versed in Islam do not come out and preach against such practices, then I think jihad as necessary as it is in Islam, has not achieved its goal. So I think it is very necessary in northern Nigeria today.

ZA8 [22382-23887]

Yes. I think jihad is very necessary not even in northern in, what did you call it, modern northern Nigeria, is necessary in the whole world not just in modern northern Nigeria because without order in anywhere, not just in modern Nigeria, even in West and the East without order and without knowledge of what God wants, everything will be in chaos because people will do things the way they feel like without consequence. But when you know that okay this things has consequence, if I do this even though nobody caught me or nobody sees me, God is seeing you and you will definitely be held accountable for that. So I think jihad is necessary in all states, in fact the whole world because if everybody is actually, if we don't have all this fake scholars that are inciting people to murder, kill, blow up things, it mustn't be just Islamic scholars that are doing this, there are people that claim they are religious people and actually they are not, so they will incite people to go and commit murder, rape and blow up things. So if there is that jihad, knowledge jihad as in I know what God wants. God said if you kill a human soul the punishment is, the punishment is you be killed also. If you do this, this is the punishment and if you think, if you are not punished in the world, you will meet your punishment in the hereafter. If people have those kind of knowledge of what the consequence of their action are, I think everything will be fine because people will not do things without knowledge.

ZA9 [13002-13484]

I don't think it is necessary as long as this people, as long as the people refer to as unbelievers that is the non-Muslims are not stopping them from practicing their religion, I don't think they should force or I don't think anything like jihad should come up since Nigeria is not an Islamic state. Nigeria is a multi-religious state as such they have to give room, they have to give room for other religions amm religious practice ahm practitioners to practice their religion.

ZA10 [15267-15951]

Yes, jihad is very, very important in the northern Muslims of Nigeria because as we can see the way the world is going, we actually know that if the world is coming to an end we'll see a lot of thing. So as such God has already said it in the Qur'an and have made it very open to us, so in this point I think jihad fi sabilillah is actually needed at this point because when we do jihad fi sabilillah, it tells you more about this occurrence and it will tell you how you live your life, a very peaceful life not the life that will lead you wayward like the present one that is happening now. So that is what I really think jihad fi sabilillah is really needed in this present world.

ZA11 [12158-12513]

Seminars, enlightening and then we should create this understanding of the Qur'an. Majority of people of the modern Islam now, they recite the Qur'an without knowing the meaning, so eventually if the jihad is to be started, you should try as much as possible to know the contents of the Qur'an so that we'll know the wordings and what is obligated of us.

ZA12 [7127-7287]

Jihad is necessary and I think they should take the path of getting as in making other people to understand what jihad means by bringing them to the religion.

ZA13 [6816-7147]

Yes jihad is necessary in modern northern Nigeria because jihad when we are struggling because of Allah, it doesn't mean that we have to take, I mean we mustn't fight physically. There are other ways we can demonstrate and there are other ways we can preach which can bring about understanding between the Muslims and non-Muslims.

ZA14 [6614-6857]

Yes even though they want to go for jihad in the northern Nigeria, this is not the way they are supposed to go about it. It is not the physical jihad, we have some tactical way of doing the jihad that we do the jihad and call people to Islam.

ZA15 [12868-13072]

If you look at the northern Muslim particularly, I think, jihad, what kind of jihad? Is it through fighting? No. I think jihad is necessary, but not through fighting and it can be done through dialogue.

ZA16 [7161-7165]

No.

ZA16 [7246-7349]

Northern Muslims should engage in the jihad of preaching to non-Muslims and other religious followers.

ZA17 [6595-6664]

No. It is not necessary, jihadin akbar jihadin nafs as I am saying.

ZA18 [10068-10258]

The most important is, as people really are now getting up, people are now on their heels going to schools, knowing the real teachings of the religion and what have you, so that will help.

ZA19 [12909-13246]

I don't think is jihad is necessary in a modern northern Nigerian Islam today because I don't see any grievances between the Christians and the Muslims living in the northern part of the Country, because Christians are not attacking the Muslims and Muslims are not attacking Christians. So there is no point of embarking in jihad, yes.

ZA20 [7025-7386]

In contemporary Nigeria, the kind of jihad northern Muslim should embark upon should not be in exactly the kind of jihad we had in the ninetieth or eightieth or is it sixteenth century during -1900, during Shehu Usman Danfodio. Jihad of today should be war against one's self. You have to fight those innate behaviors that are wrong within the social system.

ZA21 [9853-10146]

Northern Muslims should engage in this kind of jihad I have been emphasizing on. The kind of jihad that clears your mind, make sure that you propagate you din in line with the Islamic dictates and you should be generous and kind to non-believers so that they should convert to your religion.

ZA22 [8972-9504]

No. We don't need physical combat nowadays. The major jihad that is ahead of us I think is to stand up to the challenges we are facing. Let us go to all aspects all spheres of life and excel, let us have our territory that we can control that we can continue to teach and practice our religion to the best of our abilities. But physical jihad I think doesn't arise in the contemporary northern Nigeria because everywhere you go you have the freedom of worshipping our lord in all the places, even places where non-Muslims dominate.

ZA23 [12869-13219]

I don't even know what modern northern Nigerian Islam is. I don't know if there is anything modern in Islam. Islam is the only religion that was brought by the holy prophet (SAW) during his own time and anything that is less than that or greater than that to my understanding is not Islam. So I don't know that term modern northern Nigerian Islam.

ZA24 [17162-17701]

Yes it is necessary. Jihad is necessary in modern northern Nigeria, But the kind of jihad that people should engage now is good character. We should be good ambassadors. We should be our brother's keeper. Why Muslim is killing Muslim. Even in northern states now if you are not Hausa by tribe, majority of our Hausas believe that you are not a Muslim, once you are not their tribe. Therefore this is not the type of jihad we want. Jihad is you should use your good character so that non-Muslim will emulate you and be attracted to Islam.

ZA25 [14607-16126]

Ahh is jihad necessary? Yes it is. It is necessary but in this case you must consider all the aspects and the starting point of jihad as I have always mentioned. We have seen that some people they only go to mosque if you ask some people what are the pillars of Islam they will be looking at you. Some people cannot even recite suratul fatiha correctly. Yes those are issues. And when the so-called Islamic fight breaks out, they are the ones that will go-there are even tenets of physical fight in Islam. There are so many categories of people you can't touch. But there are uniformed and ignorant so-called Muslims they tend to do and undo during fights that is not even islamically authenticated because there is no- we don't have an amir that has declared a jihad. Ah the second part of the question says (question repeated) aha as of now in terms of number we have the numbers in the northern part of the country so we have to start improving the quality of the Muslims in terms of knowledge and practice because as it were now, the beauty of Islam, Muslims tend to becloud the beauty of Islam in this part of the country. For example this wide spread almajiri system, it is an aspect that is beclouding the beauty of Islam to the non-Muslims. To them they have taken it as if it is a religious injunction that if you have a child he must go out and beg. In that situation no matter how you try to convince non-Muslims that it is not a religious teaching it will be difficult for them to believe. So that is it.

ZA26 [7519-7708]

Northern Muslims should clean their minds to be righteous so that they will be a model of emulation to any other religion in Nigeria. Let them stop corruption, all Muslims stop corruption.

ZA27 [5566-5734]

Ah the kind of jihad I will advise northern Muslims to engage in is jihadin nafs. You have to purify your own soul first before going to call others to the religion.

ZA28 [15057-15936]

It is very, very, very necessary. And this goes not only to the religious leaders, but also to the followers. It also goes to the followers. Without knowledge actually there is no how you are going to establish yourself to make people to understand much more about your religion and then try to influence their own opinion on whether or not to go contrary. So I think basically jihad is necessary in modern northern Nigerian Islam today in order to establish peaceful coexistence between the Muslims and non-Muslims. So if you try to explain to Muslims followers these are the dos and the don'ts and this is what Islam wants you to do, Islam is a religion of peace, it does not want any conflict between you and opposite, I think it will establish a very good understanding between the two beliefs and I don't think after this any conflict will arise between the two religions.

ZA29 [23525-23708]

It is jihad fi sabilillah. It is jihad fi sabilillah that is striving for the sake of Allah. Or you strive for the sake of Allah you dare not inflict anger or any injury on anybody.

ZA30 [35874-36209]

I have already said this one earlier. I say the kind of jihad that northern Muslims should engage on is that jihadin nafs. Purify yourself first, purify your family, then purify your community. Respect your Imams that is your local Imam up to Friday's Imam. Take all your cases to them; by doing so, you are exercising sharia already.

ZA31 [9949-10086]

Toh, jihad, the only way northern, northern region can engage in jihad is through preaching because any other ways cannot solve problem.

ZA32 [26183-27491]

Yes, jihad I can say is necessary in northern Nigerian Islam today and the type of that jihad should be by calling their Muslim brothers to the right teachings, the good teaching of Islam. Because and then they should purify their minds because the prophet (SAW) is reported to have said the real believer or the real Mujahid, the one that is carrying out the jihad is one, the real Mujahid is one who purifies his mind in the ways of Allah that the Muslims of northern Nigeria, of northern Nigeria today have the need of engaging in jihad and jihad should not be by fighting or killing which consists or which affects, the killing I mean that affects, that may affect innocent people, innocent people, no one is permitted to be killed even in Islam because the prophet is reported to have said the blood of Muslims are forbidden to you Muslims and even non-Muslims to some extent because in Islam there is a provision which ahhh provides that, it provides that even if non-Muslims is killed without any reason, any valid reason, so the what we call it, the diyah, diyah must be paid and diyah will be the half of Muslim, if a Muslim kill non-Muslim unnecessarily, without any reason, that permits him to kill him, to kill that non-Muslim, so he is expected to pay what, diyah that is the relative of...

ZA33 [7960-8139]

Jihad is necessary in modern northern Nigeria today because the jihad that is necessary to engage in is the jihad of nafs, the jihad of wealth and the jihad of preaching as well.

ZA34 [19604-20384]

Yes exactly, jihad as I said is necessary even not only in northern Nigeria but in the entire world. Why, because people are in need of knowledge. By teaching people, educating them to know their religion is a kind of jihad and that is even the best kind of jihad that I prefer in northern Nigeria today because there are a lot of people even the young, the old they are having illiteracy, they don't know their religion, they are practicing the religion but they don't know the religion. Go to some of our cities, go to our villages and you see people who don't know what the religion is all about. Try in as much as possible to show them that this is what the religion is exactly teaching by that people will come to understand the religion of Islam is not all about fighting.

ZA35 [7195-7208]

Preaching

ZA36 [13217-13632]

The first jihad is to fight one's self, we should fight ourselves that is the most important thing. If we fight ourselves and fear Allah and live according to what Allah has commanded us to do, that is the most important thing. We have fought yourself and ones you have fought yourself and you are doing the right thing, you are able to make peace with people that is the most important jihad, fighting one's self.

ZA37 [13204-13219]

Yes of course.

ZA37 [13295-13443]

Is this one, preaching and creating awareness and it is between the Muslims and calling or inviting non-Muslims to the best understanding of Islam.

ZA38 [19556-19580]

Hmmm it is necessary.

ZA38 [19655-19913]

Yah, the kind of jihad they should embark on should be on, the one of passing knowledge, engaging in missionary work and pass knowledge to people that is educate people about Islam that is the jihad the modern northern Nigeria should embark on presently.

ZA39 [28359-28862]

Actually what we have to understand, I said it and said it over time and time upon time that jihad is not restricted to war, it is not restricted to fight. It is everything that we do in the name with the hope, doing good with the hope to be rewarded that is the meaning, if that is the meaning then it is necessary not even in northern Nigeria, but in all parts of our life be it in China, be it in Africa or in Europe, America whatever side you are, you are expected to observe this ethics of jihad.

ZA39 [28943-29194]

The kind of jihad that northern Muslims should engage in is the jihad that is allowed and permitted by Allah that is the kind of jihad people should engage in, if we take jihad to be doing everything with the hope to be rewarded in the hereafter.

Th7.6: Jihad: An Instrument to Remove Un-Islamic Government

FG1 [28149-28238]

Educating its members may be by public enlightenment campaign through the media and books

FG1 [28242-28257]

Just preaching

FG1 [28260-28281]

Assisting each other

FG3 [40009-40022]

Jihadin nafs

FG3 [40024-41655]

I like the questions and I wish these questions or even the words we say can be broadcasted publicly and let everybody hear the voice. And I wish we will be the reason for the change. These questions are very intelligent questions and if you look at the questions they are the questions that we need their answers and if the answers are known today am not sure we will have any problem if at all they are known very well and they are ready to be taken. Ok the question says that what kind of jihad will Muslims use to remove an unIslamic government? In the first place Muslims do not need to remove any government. Because why do we need to remove a government where the prophet told us himself that an unbeliever can lead us with conditions. Why do you need to remove him? The prophet himself that gave us the religion that the religion was revealed through him and passed through him down to us. He told us that under some certain conditions the unbeliever can rule you as a Muslim only if he can look after your religion and allow you to practice your own religion as it is sent down to you. If he does not deprive you any rights to your religion you have not right to say you won't follow him, he is your leader. So why then in the first place you remove the unIslamic government? We know that yes Nigeria is not like an Islamic state because you cannot practice all the Islamic injunctions in the country because no Islamic state. Then if somebody should come from other religions and rule you, why do you have to remove him while the prophet say you can follow him if he let you practice your religion as it is sent to you.

FG3 [41657-43160]

I think I will want to ask a question pertaining to this question because for me the question is not too clear. I want this to be a two dimensional question. UnIslamic government, is it in an Islamic state or in a state where we have multiple culture or multi-tribes or religions? So because if it is, because what this man just said now, you understand, for me I will consider it to be in a Multi-religious state. That is what he just discussed now. But if we have an Islamic state now the discussion is going to be, the explanation is going to be different, you understand, because these are two different things. The way you will remove an unIslamic government in an Islamic state is going to be different from the way you are going to remove an unIslamic government in a non-Islamic state. Because now I will want you to look at it now that in an unIslamic state where we have different culture and religion, we should remember that it is not made for Muslims alone. And definitely that particular state or country is guided by a document either called constitution or whatsoever they call it. And it is not made for only Muslims to judge, either to remove the government or not to remove. But when it comes to an Islamic state I believe that the way the leader has been imposed or the leader was brought upon based on some certain criteria that must have to be analyzed, will be different with the way they are going to bring him down. I think that is the observation I have about that question.

KD1 [30141-31108]

An un-Islamic government, an un-Islamic government in the sense that, is it the fact that the person that is there is not Islamic or the way they are ruling is not Islamic? One thing that we are made to know is that, Islamically, you deserve the kind of leader you get and under no condition are you expected, are you allowed to rebel against a leader because it is believed that we deserve the kind of leader you get in the sense that because the prophet (SAW) say in the hadith that (he recites the hadith). That would encourage good and forbid evil or the evil deed that will be placed on us. So that's, I think it is more, it's a function of how we ourselves are because leader does not just, they doesn't just fly from the sky or emanate from the burial ground. It's actually from ourselves that this leader comes from. So, we actually get to put ourselves, fix ourselves right, then we have good followership, they have no choice than to have good leadership.

KD2 [11866-12067]

The jihad Muslims can use to remove an un-Islamic government is simply prayer. When they pray and correct their actions, their activities, definitely they will have God's intervention in their doings.

KD3 [9372-9721]

The kind of Jihad. There is no jihad for you to remove an Islamic government because normally, you must obey your ruler unless if the government or that particular things they are doing is against the will of Islam and only if, you can only go for jihad only if you are forced, if you are forced to renounce your own faith and dance to their tune.

KD4 [16076-16880]

Well, as I said earlier on, the type of jihad Muslims need to uproot an unwanted government, if necessary, I use that word in quote "If necessary," is first of all to use that jihadin nafs. You start fighting to put on, to portray a good example, to clear their minds. For example, let me draw you back, let me digress a little bit, let me political here. If you look at what happened in this 2015 election, you will see that it was an election conducted by the masses, they uproot the then government not by the use of force, not by the means of anything but what? The use of ballot paper and this is what any good Muslim has to do, start purifying your own heart and then vote any unwanted government out with the legal means, not in the, not by using the illegal means which is unacceptable in Islam.

KD5 [9462-9543]

I don't think there is any jihad that can be used to remove unwanted government.

KD6 [21539-21763]

It's by our population. By the process that we use in Nigeria, we have seen one already. So let's go. Jihad that, the kind of what you need now is still the same jihad, what we have done in the last election is jihad to me.

KD7 [14443-14650]

There are different kinds of jihad. We can use peaceful jihad such as protest, peaceful protest, we register our displeasure, at the government in question, if that does not work, there are so many avenues.

KD8 [28276-28767]

Ask the question again please (the question repeated). Well, if that is a un-Islamic government and that it is denying the Muslims their right to practice their religion, of course it is necessary. If there is a non-Islamic government and is depriving Muslims from practicing their religion, of course it becomes necessary because you have to topple it and establish a more justifiable or a more just government that will give everybody his rights including the Christians and the Muslims.

KD8 [28889-29435]

It is education, education, they have to read, they have to go to school, they have to acquire education, they have to acquire modern education, they have to acquire all the modern techniques of establishing a government. They will have to get engineers, they will have to get technicians, they will have to get teachers, they will have to get all these and topple it in a modern way that is if they have the population, they can vote them out and vote the one that actually practices the Islamic system of government which is fairer and better.

KD9 [18818-19269]

If necessary jihad where the leader will lead you and you fight, if it comes to that yes it has to be, the leader will lead you show you about it if it is an un-Islamic government that is tormenting the Muslims of that society, if it means that you have a leader among the Muslims that will lead you to jihad al-qital yes we are not shying away from that one and denying it these is Islam, but where you don't have the power then you take it easy.

KD10 [12868-13672]

You see, if the Muslims they have, before they can do that, two things or one thing that is kudra. They have the power to remove the government, the un-Islamic government. If you have the power to do that and is not going to cause loss of lives and property, then we can do that if we have the kudra that is what the Ulama have said. But if we don't have the Kudra, then we cannot do that. Are you getting me? Like during the regime of ah Jonathan, you see, the Muslims cannot say we want to remove him at all cost and we don't have the Kudra of doing that. You are not the commander of the soldiers, the military forces. You don't have the war equipment. You cannot do that and you put another person and you're going to preserve the lives and the properties of the people. You see doing that is wrong.

KD11 [17676-18263]

An un-Islamic government, it depends. Well even, when you talk about Islamic revivalism there are some scholars who are of the opinion that you can use the liberal democratic system to uproot a government through the ballot box while others were sharply against it, but whichever way you look at it ah circumstance, the social environment will largely be the determining factor as to which option you use in overthrowing ah an un-Islamic government. You can see that it was attempted; it was almost successful in fact it was successful in Egypt before it was truncated by the military.

KD12 [20577-21209]

Hmm we thank God that what has come to the point of Buhari today is that question. In fact seeing un-Islamic government has to be removed by the cooperation of the Muslims. When things have gone, we are multitude, we have, we have more than one wives, we have more than one children, we don't have limit of bearing children too, you see, but all the laws that have been made or what is being brought to Nigeria most of them are not suitable for Islamic environment, so what Muslims need is to co-operate and use their one foot, their single foot to vote out any government that does not give Muslims room of doing their ways.

KD13 [6865-6965]

Sincerity, practice of the truth, showing to the world that we are more sincere and we have focus

KD14 [8831-8907]

I don't think there is any jihad to use to remove an un-Islamic government.

KD15 [12349-12801]

Ahm in a state where ahm I think by their doing, by their relationship with the government ah I think by their good doing in short ah I think everything will be okay not until they use weapon or force doing or how doing, just normal good deed okay we don't want you, this is what we want and this is what we want, I think negotiations, I think everything joined and things will be okay. It mustn't be any crisis or any war before it can be removed.

KD16 [6947-7080]

Ah have said that the Muslims should be tolerant at all the time and let us show the beauty, let them see the beauty of Islam in us.

KD17 [22561-22995]

To this, I will say understand what Islam talks. Tell the true knowledge of Islam, understand the true basics of Islam, follow Islam the way is been preached by the prophet, the way it was preached by the prophet, the way the predecessors explained Islam as in practice it that way, but for you to establish the Islamic state you don't need to raise up arms, you don't need to, you don't need to raise up arms against the government.

KD18 [11682-12001]

There is not, there is not such research ehm jihad that we have to remove the government who they are not a Muslim. There is nothing like that whether the government are Christians or they are Muslims, we have to take it like that. So there is nothing like jihad to remove the government because they are non-Muslims.

KD19 [14899-15221]

Eh the kind of jihad that Muslims needed to remove an un-Islamic government is one that is all encompassing, that covers everything and is a jihad, a jihad that is all encompassing that covers everything not only war but everything every aspect of the religion should be covered. That's the kind of jihad that is needed.

KD20 [10723-11180]

I think jihad that the Muslims need to remove non-Muslim government is not fighting, is through words even the through the wealth, even though the wealth you acquire through the government, you can use it to promote Islam you can use the money for the poor or the people that they are jobless, you can use that money to help them to provide employment opportunity to construct the bridges and reconstruct the bad roads, yes those are the jihad we can use.

KD21 [9605-9763]

I think is the peaceful jihad that goes in a diplomatic way, you have to have representatives that represent you, writing articles then peaceful revolution.

KD23 [10000-10034]

Ah I don't have any idea on this.

KD24 [38760-40175]

With knowledge why did I say so because all the posts and offices in the government ah embassies and offices and buildings and eh places of work you can't be there unless if you have some certain certificates, then if you want to be there to change something go to school, if you acquire knowledge if you go there then do what you want to do. You are in the office now then do what you want to do and we will see and then if you start doing the right thing people, their eyes is there. People are doing the wrong thing their eyes is there and the head of government, they are observing they have observers that knows that is going on, if you are doing the right then they will say thanks, good of you and if you do bad, they will make sure that they take serious action if to remove you things like that. So according to them they are saying they want to make sure that there is a state of Islam in the country, then they should go to school not that to take weapon and start killing people. These people that they are killing if you ask them with this do you think after you finish killing people then you go and enter into the office? Then who will leave you there? Who will allow you to go and sit there? Then how will you even go there and sit down? What are you trying to explain? That you will build another office, there is one for government and there is your own. It doesn't even make humanitarian sense.

KD25 [50022-51947]

The jihad of preaching. Preaching the truth, preaching the truth and engaging in a round table dialogue even with the Christians, dialogue does not mean fighting. Let everybody come and eh present his facts and raise it to the hearing of the generality of the people and they will believe, they will be left to judge themselves and by using wisdom and by most importantly, by showing the good manners of the prophet unto others because we the Muslims are expected to be seen as role models for others to copy from us, but Allah has said it is not happening today, it is we that are trying to emulate the others which is not, which is wrong. We are supposed to have good manners because when the prophet was asked that, what is that thing that will make many people to go to paradise? The prophet said the thing that will make many, many Muslims to go to paradise is Taqwallah, the fear of Allah. The fear of Allah (he recites in Arabic), and good behaviour. So if it is the good behaviour and fear of Allah that will see the Muslims that, you know, to be ah in paradise, then it means they should also play that kind of role on this earth so that those that are Christians or that are Muslims will as ah is this, is this Islam? If that is Islam I will accept. But the way all these so called boko haram and the ISIL, they are playing in the whole world, they are just spoiling, they are just giving Islam a bad image in the international world and that is what we will never accept ah for anybody to address us as terrorists or to address our Islam as eh terrorism, we will never accept that. It is those people that must have misconceived what Islam is all about, they should be called to order and eh eh, but they will not accept that because they have isolated themselves in the bush, killing people, shelling bombs from far away or killing innocent people whether Muslims or non-Muslims that really is eh is not Islamic.

KD26 [12914-12932]

That I don't know

KD27 [11026-11967]

Well first and foremost I will give you an example of the Muslim brotherhood in Egypt, it took them almost a hundred years but eventually they got the job done, only for them to fail at the point of implementation. But they started out as a small group, they reached out through education, through economic empowerment, you know, and eventually they were able to grab the leadership of Egypt. But at the point of implementation, there were things that they forgot and those things now came back to haunt them.

And today you have a leadership battle back in Egypt. But look at Turkey, Turkey's Muslim brotherhood is the one in power today, but they came in step by step. Theirs was a slow revolution. Egypt was not a slow revolution, they wanted to leapfrog to a point at which they felt they should be forgetting that they have come a long way and forgetting that they had enemies even within. And so the issue of eh... what is that again?

KD27 [11994-12618]

So it then goes back to the fact that you have to start someone, you have to lay the foundation and the foundation start with giving-enlighten the populace making them understand the difference between what is presently on ground and what should be the ideal case and eliminating some of the social vices and getting involved in politics in such a way that you aspire to power and when you get into a position of power you use it in a way and manner that would make those who are not, who are in the minority not feel oppressed. You use the power in a way that serves both those who are yours and those who are not yours.

KD28 [17761-18132]

In this our country Nigeria today especially in this northern region, they way I look at it, it is the Muslims as a body, they have to make effort and encourage the youths in seeking knowledge. They should seek knowledge and understand the religion you are practicing. But it will be difficult for you to implement a government of which you don't have the knowledge of.

KD29 [10116-10443]

Well jihad by its proper context ah does not mean fighting and if we will imbibe on that ah it is up to the recipient of this concerted effort to decide whether a non-Islamic government is to be removed or to remain. It is up to recipient of ah the jihad, the concerted effort towards jihad since jihad does not mean fighting.

KD30 [17971-18933]

Ahm let me take you back to, let me take you to the Middle East where we have the hizbullah the ones I think once eh ah perceived as a terror group where they ah carried out jihad as perceived. Ahm these hizbullah once upon a time are those people that used to carry ammunition before they later sit down and rethink of their conducts and they see the need to form a political party and then see if the majority are with them and if they have the majority then they can always go into power, when they have the power with the majority then no one will complain when they have an Islamic state. So I think we should also consider such thing. I think we should go into such politics, propagate the beauty of what we have, introduce it as an Islamic ah movement and have the majority, then of course is a simple conduct and when we go into power then we put it in our mandate then we implement it as an Islamic state, so you see there is no need for any violence.

KD31 [11900-12003]

Like I said Islam is all about peace so I believe there should be dialogue yah it should be peaceful.

KD32 [14557-15641]

As I have said Allah have said in the holy Qur'an (speaking Arabic) that is a prophet must not be seen only to preach, preach to the people to come unto the way of Allah, your own is just to convey the message, you are not to force anybody into Islam because Allah (speaking Arabic) Allah will not catch any soul for the sin of another soul so anybody is on his own (speaking Arabic) so you are on your own, so you are to concentrate on yourself, just yourself first, but it is a responsibility for you to convey the message of Islam to the non-Muslim, but it is not compulsory for the non-Muslim to accept it, so you are not to force anybody to accept religion Allah have said this many times in the holy Qur'an and this is how the prophet did, so you are to convey the message, you are not to force anybody to accept the message of Islam, but just your own duty is to convey the message to him, if he likes let him accept if he likes just leave it. So Allah will not catch you for the sin of another soul, so you are on your own, everybody is on his own, you've done your own part.

KD33 [13057-13297]

The practice of their true religion, their correct Islam and with the, the correct Islam and the correct teaching of Islam. If they practice that, if Muslims practices Islam correctly, they will be able to remove the un-Islamic government.

KD34 [12909-13287]

An un-Islamic government yes in Nigeria in northern Nigeria you are referring to? Yes toh is not is not going to be possible because the Nigeria belongs to a lot of people and then all of us we have our own believes and then we have our own way of life and then the way we practice our own eh religion, so seeing that a Nigerian will become an Islamic state is very difficult.

KD35 [14367-14661]

Ahh un Islamic government should be removed by eh the Muslims conducting their way of life in a proper way, more people will be converted to Islam, so the in a nation where ninety percent or seventy to eighty percent of people there are Muslims then that government must be Muslim government.

KN1 [35009-35348]

Sir, with due respect you know am a typical Nigerian and it was said that Nigerians answer question with question, so let me ask you back, what kind of way did Egypt use to install Mursi as a leader? Thank you sir, there is a lot of ways, probably this is one of the ways

KN1 [35412-35697]

By replacing the laws gradually, this is what we need, let our legislators be doin this to us, by enlightening the non-Muslims showing them good side of the sharia, look this for our own benefits, this is for the benefit of all of us. Yes that is why am saying there is a lot of ways.

KN2 [19362-19963]

Islamic, Nigerian state has given Muslims their rights to religion. In fact the problem with Nigeria, Muslims and non-Muslims, is not the problem of religion. The problem of Islam in Nigeria as described by Ali Mazrui in his book Africa: A Tripple Heritage, is not the problem of non-Muslims it is the threat of the westernization. So it is not Nigerian government that is stopping Muslims from becoming Muslims or from practicing Islam, it is an influence of western culture which is being propagated through the media that is posing a threat to Muslims and Islam in Nigeria and all over the world.

KN4 [29183-30488]

There is no any jihad that Muslim can use to remove any un-Islamic government like in Nigeria, a secular state. When you look at the republic of Iran in 1979 they are all Muslims. When you look at it the salahuddin Aslayin, when you look at the the the Spain that is the Andalus year back, centuries back, many things has happened, it has its history. There has the way it took place; the French revolution and all other revolution around the world. But you can't remove a non-Muslim from the state. You carry more an un-Islamic government, the government that can only be removed is government that is not just and justice, the government that has that that are full of corruption, government that has no sympathy to their people that government either a Muslim government or a Christian government can be removed because in Islam there is saying that a government can remain if there is justice whether the person is a Christian or is a non or he is an idol worshipper but inasmuch that there is justice, it can be remain a Muslim recognize that and a government whether he is a Muslim and is from any sect-Shi'a, Sunni, Qadiriyya or other thing that, if there is no justice, the government can be removed. The government can be only established according to the pattern and lifestyle of the leader.

KN5 [12787-13097]

Muslims eeh jihad to remove an un-Islamic government aahh jihad bin nafs because the government is more powerful than the people, so if you are to embark on jihad ah eh the physical jihad, fighting we may not succeed in any way. So but jihad bin nafs may be you can topple as it happened in Nigeria presently.

KN5 [13269-13858]

Please with the respect to the previous question nwhich is talking about to remove an un-Islamic government even this one is not an Islamic government but the Muslims have used eh Islam more of the Muslim, most of the Muslim used Islam is one of the factors and the reasons to remove the pre the previous government which was seen as a government led by a Christian and I think that is one of the moves, so if we continue creating avenue through teaching of Islam and other advocacies we are going to in sha Allah achieve an Islamic state. Then the the next question please repeat for me

KN6 [12367-13054]

So the kind of jihad that we should use is to correct ourselves, to correct ourselves, to display our good character so when we display our good character, our good character from our home, our market, for example, when you go to our market you neighbor you can't agree this are Muslims. Sometimes Muslim can can sometimes Muslim can hmm would cheat you ah even more than those Christian people. So it is left for us to and learn, even learning is the first step of jihad, even to devote ourselves in learning. So when we display our good character so all other Christian ah will convert into Islam, for example, Allah says, Allah even guide the prophet Muhammad (SAW) to do this.

KN7 [13670-14092]

Ehmm, the kind of jihad I think ehm Muslims should ehm use to remove an un-Islamic government is ehm, let me say, delay of their complain, delay of their complain in the sense that you should go to through some channels to reach the top that ye this is what we want, and ehm this act is un-Islamic and we don't want it. It is should be through mutual coexistence between the ehm, both the rulers and the followers. So yes

KN8 [11364-11505]

As I have said initially, it is better to adopt a jihad al-jismi or jihad bin nafsi, you understand, instead of the forceful attack jihad.

KN9 [11967-12361]

Well in order to remove an un-Islamic government, I want to believe the perpetrators have to be tactical. It doesn't have to be a forceful jihad, it has to be a compromise jihad, it has be a jihad based on intellect, intellectuality, ah it has to be a jihad based on reasoning and rationality because you cannot overthrow people in power with power. You have to use other strategic means, yes.

KN10 [9554-9781]

They should stop disobeying what the constitution provided. The only thing they would do is what their book and the laws provided. That is the only means of jihad- to deny-let them deny what the constitution provided for them.

KN11 [14102-14143]

By practicing the true Islamic teaching.

KN13 [13998-14104]

Is an ideological jihad maybe through writings of essays, through political campaigns. That's the jihad.

KN14 [11108-11119]

Preaching

KN15 [11965-12403]

Uhhmm the kind of jihad Muslim should use to remove and un-Islamic government is that Muslims should always have a good faith and be well cooperated in the society and as well have a good relationship between them and you know the non-Muslims living together in the same community so as to attract and draw the attention of the non-Muslims to know that Islam is you know the only you know religion and is the only way, I think this is it.

KN16 [6128-6214]

By calling them and treating them in a good manner and conduct of Islamic teachings.

KN17 [13768-13800]

Is ah is a revolutionary jihad.

KN17 [13836-13886]

Yeah it might yeah though all revolutionary jihad

KN17 [13947-14074]

Yeah its called, its called it depends on the particular type of government is it a trial government is it a government that's.

KN17 [14314-14419]

It might be come through war through struggle like flushing out through bloodshed and through the sword.

KN18 [22586-22646]

Democratic jihad, the just concluded elections, the just...

KN18 [22685-22812]

Yes western liberal democracy giving people popular participation, ah access to popular participation, freedom of expression

KN18 [22841-22908]

Periodic election, periodic election, that kind of jihad is enough.

KN19 [15577-16134]

In order to remove an un-Islamic government, there are thousands of ways in which to this can be done because if we are to say jihad fi sabilillah-in the cause of Allah that means you should not try to strike them or to force them because you are bringing a very a very lenient means of converting people, but in the situation whereby there is ah people negating the will of Allah or un-Islamic society or something like that to some extent they might be element of force, but this force, as I have said initially, should be the last resort to be adopted.

KN20 [7850-7999]

I think by dialoguing, meeting people that really know why, ah meeting people and telling them why this the government of the day is not working why

KN20 [8035-8140]

Yeah why they need change and other eh eh means but really carrying sword or firearms is not part of it.

KN21 [5734-5773]

Jihad bin nafsi as I said earlier on.

KN22 [10955-11306]

Yah in order to remove an un-Islamic-I can- let me quote from the work of Abdullah bin Fodio in his Diyaul huqab. He was quoted as saying that in any Muslim community, even non-Muslim community that if the leader is found wanting of dispersing injustice and corruption that people are having the right to dispose him out of or oust him out of office

KN22 [11341-11384]

Even if he is a Muslim and this is jihad.

KN23 [8859-8874]

Peaceful jihad

KN24 [9725-9835]

Hmm the kind of jihad Muslims should use to remove an- that one is going to be very critical in this country.

KN25 [10921-11186]

I think they should have to go with a tactical vocal jihad. It has to be, it has to do with preaching, preaching the goodness in Islam. It doesn't have to be carrying arms because you cannot, you cannot win a ruling class, you understand with weapons, with arms.

KN26 [11345-11402]

I don't think that is necessary. Let's leave it at that.

KN27 [10769-11139]

Ah hmm the Islamic jihad, I think when, for every state there are different institutions. There are different institutions provided there to listen to the agitations of its citizens. So I think the right jihad that could be used is just for a Muslim to go through this institution to lodge their complaints and agitations and full implementation would be carried out.

KN28 [8667-8845]

Jihad should be used by Muslims through-well this I think should be a general agreement by setting down some committees which I believe are very helpful in the Islamic context.

KN30 [10550-10675]

Kai I can't response to this question because if you are saying jihad, jihad, jihad, please may be find another word for that

KN31 [13149-13404]

Well ah in this circumstance, ah in this aspect we don't need to use arms and ammunitions, normally use a democratic means to have a change of government since democracy or politics is also part of Islam. So we can use it democratically or politically.

KN32 [4925-5016]

it simply pulls ah that kind of peaceful Jihad not that of carrying arms and ammunitions

KN33 [4439-4475]

Through preaching and maybe voting.

KN34 [6458-6588]

Democratic principles, through democracy to elect the leaders they will want to pass the laws that will favor their own religion.

KN35 [8613-8801]

I think the methodology of the Sunni drawing the decision that they should be with any person Allah has enthroned power to.

Simply because Allah says that he gives whoever he wills power.

KN36 [8114-8413]

One, through the use of their resources to make sure that society is being stabilized and the corruption should not be taken as a job of the day and the poverty should be eliminated because it is the poverty that people use to give them some money and vote the government that will not favor Islam.

KN37 [7122-7265]

Just like I have said, they can use the non-physical jihad that does not require your physical body like the war no no no, you can apply that.

KN38 [4890-4904]

Jihadin nafs

KN39 [6955-7533]

Actually the procedures Muslims suppose to follow to remove an un-Islamic government is by following the rules and regulations provided in the constitution. What I mean by that is that our constitution has already giving us the same franchise, what I mean by the same franchise is that it refers to a situation whereby both male and females people I mean citizens irrespective of their religions to conduct elections. That is to say when the time of election come they should come out and cast their votes against those that they dislike and in support of those that they like.

KN40 [10434-10454]

No idea about that.

KN41 [6599-6769]

Actually I don't see any reason why Muslims will remove an un-Islamic government because we all have freedom to vote and be voted for according to Nigerian constitution.

KN42 [10266-11021]

Nigeria is a country that has eligious diversities. It is not only Islam that is there, there is Christianity; there is also even all sort of traditional beliefs. This is not the East or Middle East whereby the only government recognized is that of Islamic government and the others who, the others are considered as un-Islamic. Here there has to be tolerance, there has to be a way for us to be able to fuse Christianity, these our traditional beliefs and also have our own identities, everybody should have their own religious identities not separate. So there is no strategy, there is no form of jihad for removing an un-Islamic state in Nigeria. It is supposed to be applicable to a place whereby Islamic state is already recognized and established.

KN43 [13664-13717]

I don't know what you mean by un-Islamic government.

KN44 [8678-8852]

There are so many, I like I told you, preachings is part of the way that Muslims can, can, what kind of jihad should we use to, kai, I wouldn't like to answer that question.

KN45 [9648-9857]

I think through the democratic means because ehh by the power of the ballot box. They can use the ballot box yah to elect Muslim leaders they think they can ah implement the principles of the religion, yes.

KN46 [15009-15833]

Well, there are many ways. One is to try to explain your point of view if you have problem with what is being done in a certain situation. You need to argue with those who are responsible for that. Engage them in an intellectual debate so that the superiority of your argument may lead some of them to embrace your point of view. So I think this is also another way. And also ah this, since we are living in a democracy, democracy is about, is about people, is about serving people, is about being responsive to what people aspire to achieve. So I think through democratic process, if your people are for something, they want to achieve something and that what they want to achieve in itself is not injustice, as leaders, as representatives, you need to respect their wishes and to respond to their aspirations accordingly.

KN47 [21253-21902]

Well, if there is-what, what kind of government it un-Islamic? That is the question now. We have to define what ah un-Islamic, what you mean by un-Islamic government. Is it secular state? If it is secular state, then Nigeria is a secular state itself and then if you say Islamic state, then we have empires. Where are going to, you know, locate the empires that are established or were established on Islamic basis and principles. All this Emirs are called Emirs of Islam, Sarakunan Musuluci in Hausa you see. So we have them, so we don't need any addition and then I don't think also that ah northern state should be established Islamic state.

KN48 [7396-7627]

Excuse me if I may ask, why should Muslim remove an un-Islamic government? So like the place we are here in Nigeria, we have different religions. So I don't think there should be room for that to remove ehh un-Islamic government.

KN49 [12801-13360]

Actually, I think it needs to be addressed. The un-Islamic government and, we need to look at the population because we live in a democratic world, we need to take into consideration the yearnings of the larger population. If people need to remove a government, they need to be able to identify their priorities and the reasons they want to do away with that government and if it is democratic and if it is acceptable; it can be done, but if it is not acceptable, it is not democratic, it is not right, it is not ehm it is not civilized, they cannot do that.

KN50 [6597-6793]

Why should Muslim remove an un-Islamic government in Nigeria, for example, various cultural groups that exist and various religions, so Muslim removing an un-Islamic government does not call for.

KN51 [50123-51045]

The kind of jihad which the Muslims will use to remove an Islamic government in a democratic setting like this one, we do it through election. We elect the right leader whom we think will bring about ahm whether Islamic or Muslim government or whatever, but not through fighting, not through waging war, not through attacking, not through belittling or mocking at someone, no this is not Islamic. I have been saying this a number of times, is un-Islamic, Muslims will use, like we use this time around, will use their own votes ok to bring about changes to reform, yes and we can and we have done it this time around. The world witnessed it, the world witnessed it. We can do it, we are not doing it under force, by weapons wallahi no double no. We are going to do it with our votes; we are going to achieve that through preaching, ok, through admonishing, through advice, counselling and so on like I have said earlier.

KN52 [15460-16178]

Well, an un-Islamic government, it depends on the context of the struggle of the confrontation, if the Muslims feels they are oppressed under that government then they have every responsibility to strive, to fight against the injustice that such an un-Islamic government is meting against them. So I think the first thing that they should do is to preach against injustice and the kind of discrimination that they experience under such government, Right? To fight against those injustices by words of mouth, but if those injustices continue and if there is need to really topple that government, then they must do it to enthrone justice. But it depends on what kinds of injustices are being meted against the Muslims.

KN53 [8795-9025]

With this question you are just asking me now, as in why would an Islamic person remove someone who is also a Muslim. He is not expected to remove such a person except if he is not abiding with the rules governing his government.

KN54 [3854-3909]

Through joining political parties and contesting, yes.

KN55 [5366-5418]

through joining political parties and contesting.

KN56 [7204-7752]

In the modern world actually I can't say that Muslims must engage in a jihad to be able to remove an un-Islamic government like what currently happened between Jonathan and Buhari, you see Buhari is a Muslim and he actually came out and contested election side by side with Jonathan which we all know is a Christian leader. What happened, he contested the election and he won the election. So we can say that in summary, you can say that Buhari is a Muslim and he has removed an un-Islamic government through participating in a political process.

KN57 [8829-8954]

You see what kind of jihad should Muslims use? Jihad in the cause of Allah would help them to remove un-Islamic government.

KN58 [19418-19798]

Yah, first of all it only needs what, as I said, verbal jihad whereby you would be preaching the gospel of Islamic teachings. It is only if it fails that you would start by now forming your own political parties. Through your own political parties one day you would attain to leadership. Once you capture leadership now you can start changing the issue. So it is stage by stage.

KN58 [19802-20165]

An example is the Muslim brotherhood?

Ans: Yes the Muslim brotherhood whereby you form your own political party with your own followers even if you have minute followers, believe me honestly with time you would have followers and you can change the government of the day. And once you establish government of the day, you can now change it to an Islamic state.

KN59 [14695-15045]

I think it is the jihad, the one that you should fight with your faith, with your conscience I think that is the one because if you fight your conscience and you are doing things that are in order then definitely the Islamic government will kind of look into the system or the process and can easily remove that government not necessarily by fight.

KN60 [18083-18372]

What kind of jihad should Muslims use, Jihad is of stages, you preach and if the preaching fails then you tell the people ok submit to Islam and if they disagree and say they cannot submit to Islam then you take up arms and fight the un-Islamic government depending upon the situation.

KN61 [7110-7183]

In amicable way, try to convince him in a peaceful way, you can do that.

KN62 [24223-24869]

Well, ahh the, the, the true or the kind of jihad that Muslims should use to remove an un-Islamic government, I think is ahh a kind of first, seeking knowledge. I believe that Muslims should seek knowledge of their religion and after seeking knowledge, they should become righteous people, they should stick to their religion practices and these religious practices would actually make them so principled, so indomitable, you understand, to the extent that nobody can, you understand, ah ah interfere with their own practices. So I believe that we seek knowledge and we become righteous. These are the weapons to remove an un-Islamic government.

KN64 [10337-10838]

Like I said to you, if you, anything, you must look to the situation you are before you say you will use this part or kind of jihad. The situation you are in is what will determine the kind of way or method or manner you should do in order to remove all whatever you like. Therefore, the kind of people, the kind of society you have will determine this, eh. Therefore, if you look at the situation you are now, you use the, the soft way is better than any method in propagating Islam. I agree with this.

KN65 [14457-14712]

Like I told you, it has to do with you and I as individuals, if we are able to piou our minds and do what Allah has ordained us to do, by doing the pious and lawful things, so this are the easiest and simplest way of bringing an Islamic government down.

KN66 [7958-8683]

This is actually technical question I would say because in my own part of the world, which is currently Nigeria, Kano Nigeria, our last government before the just concluded election the president was an un-Islamic, it is an un-Islamic government, but when the people in the north who are, which are majority Muslims wanted to remove the un-Islamic government what they did is, since it is a modern world that you go for election, you vote, what they did is they stayed on the queue, they voted, and they were successful since mostly they were majority, they were successful and remove the un-Islamic government. That is the way it is done in my area.

KN67 [8773-9032]

At least in this issue of ah social media, use social media, tell government, people, government should know about what is going on and ah by telling people also then at least you can through that government, you can remove the government that is not Islamic.

KN68 [4074-4223]

Not necessarily through jihad, through contesting elections like what happened in Nigeria currently how General Muhammadu Buhari emerged as a winner.

KN69 [16213-16683]

It depends to the fact that, as I told you earlier, jihad has a wider sense, but I am not saying that jihad, physical combat is not allowed, but if a situation warrants Muslim to make physical combat in the sense of jihad to see that they establish Islamic state, it could be possible but what we are emphasizing always is that physical combat is not be regarded as jihad only, all human endeavor are as far as Muslim is concerned, could be regarded as the term jihad.

KN71 [26375-26480]

Is to educate the generation and then to have the sincerity of purpose (recites a verse of the Qur'an).

KN72 [15377-15623]

Peaceful jihad is what Muslims should practice to make or to make any or to make Islamic government. What is Islamic government means? That means to abide with and practice on the Islamic eh sharia. That is what is meant by Islamic government

KN73 [15438-15495]

The only thing just to be knowledgeable to be a writer

KN74 [26346-26961]

Okay eh we, there is, the basic jihad that we suppose to use is for we to purify our mind, and then everything for the sake of Allah (Saw) eh. Therefore, if you look at this, you find out that the only jihad that we require is that for we to use our mouth to preach, (recites). as Allah (SAW) says when he sent prophet Musa alayhissalam to Firaun he told him that (he recites a verse) that is for him to use his, to talk him in a polite manner, to preach in a polite manner. We can use our tongue to preach to the people in a polite manner, to show them the right things and what they should suppose to, to do.

KN75 [27492-27545]

We can adopt the matter of Da`wa in propagating Islam

KN76 [18020-18074]

Economic and ahh, economic and ahh educational jihad

KN78 [22848-23067]

Well when you say un-Islamic government, when you talk about secular government, ahh well I don't know the context you are referring to, are you referring to Nigerian context or you are referring to all Muslim society.

KN78 [23189-23923]

Well un-Islamic context, I think to be very fair, in the, in this globalization that we are experiencing in modern history, ahh it will be really difficult, very, very difficult, to use a means like jihad to really have or to really eliminate all form of non-Islamic government. It would be extremely difficult, but again that does not mean by some providence you cannot have a government that use, in fact one of the serious challenge I have is that presently we don't have an absolute Islamic government in the world, absolute Islamic government in the world. So if we cannot have it, for instance Saudi Arabia, and some part of Islamic where you have predominant number of Muslim, how much more of Nigeria a multi-ethnic society.

KN79 [11695-12018]

That is a peaceful jihad through Da'wa, Muslims has to engage or has to propagate or has to be propagate their faith through a or through showing a good attitude and behavior to the non-Muslim so that they will accept them and even their religion and when they dominate the area, they can have to establish what they want.

KN80 [20939-21692]

So the the kind of jihad that Muslims apply in removing an un-Islamic government, it is through propagating and ahh through propagating the true, the teaching of Islam, through propagating and championing the minds of Muslims and non-Muslims; also through eh propagation of Islam and making ahh unbelievers to embrace the Islam. So it is not a one day ahh duty, it is duty, it is systematic duty of educating people. If you educate one person is like you educate the ahh entire community and the training will go, will take direction this way. So at the end of the day Muslims will be in mass number and outnumber the non-Muslims. Once Muslims outnumber the non-Muslim, so non-Muslims becomes minority so they will even subject themselves to the Islam.

KN81 [12087-12154]

I think I answered this question

Q: That is what you said Da'wa ko

KN82 [15613-15667]

The kind of jihad required is the jihad of the mind.

KN83 [9435-9536]

good ... to non-Muslim so if Muslim have good ... to non-Muslim will not even okay so can I proceed yes

KN84 [10585-10728]

I think this can be achieve only through peaceful jihad that is showing goodness to non-Muslims and treat them the way you want to be treated

KN85 [10802-11321]

Ahh what need to be removed is not necessary an un-Islamic government. There can be an un-Islamic government at the same time Muslims practice their own religion. There can be an Islamic government which do not ahh ahh do what Islam says. So what is needed is a government under which Muslims can be able to practice their religion well. If that government do not allow that, then since you are in the democratic society that should be done through the ballot box. That should be done peacefully not through fighting.

ZA1 [13922-14345]

No. Islam doesn't give door for a Muslim to stand up for violence. That is why in Islam, nowhere in Islam that Islam said that if you ruler is cheating you can, example, we have in a history of Hajad bin Yusuf Asakafi, he is a corrupt leader, he even killed some Sahaba, but no any Sahaba or Ta'abi come up and said ok let us fight for him, so to fight so that we can over throw him, no. Islam doesn't give room for that.

ZA2 [11889-12450]

Oh normal thing, the normal thing is preaching, saying the words of God, putting in the fear that hereafter you will be questioned over your deeds, continuously, let people take it clear even the world here the outcome of this negative act, God will like, it will be, you will be tested over it, after cheating, don't be surprised you will not end find yourself in that difficulty and I think in the concept preaching, people will come to realize that oh yes doing away from this, this will earn us a better thing even spiritual and even in the world here.

ZA3 [12545-12898]

As a state as Nigeria now, is first of all to understand what our needs are and what is Islamic concept about that. And for now is democracy we practice and since is a, since we say is a multi-religious country, then we say is a secular state according to some people. So we try to feature out the best candidate fit to represent this we vote for him.

ZA4 [27842-28086]

Jihadul ilimiyya. Jihad of a good orientation, giving people good, the right knowledge, let them know what is the problem and solve the problem without fighting, you understand, because we have different way of solving problem not only jihad.

ZA5 [15639-15693]

Is by the way of preaching the way is supposed to be.

ZA6 [36706-38685]

A Muslim or un-Islamic government maybe there is a system of government that is not just, whether it is a, in fact let me even cite an example with Nigeria, it is necessary in a situation where you have a country like Nigeria where there are 50-50 Muslims and Christians hmm and then you have a government where its only emm emm it only emm promote the interest of the Christians alone. Like in Nigeria now, if you have a Christian government where it only promotes the interest of the Christians, the Muslims are being dominated, they are being submerged, the Muslims are being threatened, they don't have the freedom of association you understand? Everything is being, they are being sideline totally, in such government definitely you need a jihad that will change that government, but in Nigeria we have not heard such government, in Nigeria we have not had, at least both the Muslims and Christians, they try as much as possible to follow the constitution, everybody practices his own religion to the best of his ability. So I don't think, in Nigeria we have not had such cases, but in situation where you have such government, an un-islamic government where the interest of the Muslims are totally sidelined, definitely you need a jihad that will topple that government and entrench an Islamic state where the Muslims, the interest of the Muslims will also be highlighted. And then in an Islamic state where sharia is practiced properly, even the north and that is why that is what will push that that jihad now. I want you to understand this because if the Muslims, in a situation where the Muslims are being sidelined, the Muslims believe, with sharia now ehnn it will have a proper justices system, even if you topple that government we are not toppling it to sideline the Christians or other faiths, you are toppling it to entrench a justice system that will ensure that all religions, all faiths practice their own religion in a peaceful environment and atmosphere.

ZA7 [13787-14110]

Yes teaching of Islam, Islamic faith. I know lots of people might say jihad should be physical or should be violent, but it has nothing to do with violence. So I think preaching and enlightening the government about the principles, the polices involved in jihad and jihad should be the instrument used in achieving such.

ZA8 [29103-29189]

Un-Islamic government ahh I don't know about that. I don't have any comment on this.

ZA9 [15576-16496]

Ehm I still believe since we have since we have Muslim representatives in both the lower and higher houses, we have Muslim senators, we have honorable this thing, all these people that make laws, we have most of them, most of them are Muslims and through them they can be used as an instrument to attain this position. If the governor is practicing an because Islam, most of the things Islam negates emm if we take critical look at them, if we take critical look on them, we observe that it is not socially acceptable, but because of the way this Islamic northern Muslims, northern Nigerians because of the way they approach this issue, I think the kind of jihad Muslims need to remove an un-Islamic government is calling attention of the whole populace to the negative things rather the things, the bad aspect of that government. They have to call people's attention to it, I believe by that, that can be achieved.

ZA10 [16888-16943]

That is jihad fi sabilillah like I have said earlier.

ZA11 [13331-13669]

Well, by standing out for the right course, dropping aside the worldly interest or what you could gain from it. Looking at this as an entire entity that this person has to be examined by all aspects Islamically, is he somebody trust worthy? Does he have this?

All those, you know, in the sharia we have all this for appointing a leader.

ZA12 [7936-7959]

I don't have an idea.

ZA13 [8405-8421]

No idea, sorry.

ZA14 [7692-7891]

What they need to do is for them to cooperate within themselves and within the Ulama so that they will have one mouth. They don't need to like that is someone will come and be doing another thing.

ZA15 [13932-13969]

Un-Islamic government, I don't know.

ZA16 [7801-7931]

The kind of jihad is emm we should, I will still maintain that statement that we should follow the teaching of the prophet (SAW).

ZA17 [7959-8220]

As we did presently, we make dua, we sacrifice that is how we get to the early state of this government that we are. Do we fight them? No. We did not, just make dua, O! Allah we know this kuffur Government is not good to us and it is bringing calamities to us.

ZA18 [11675-12012]

Well we should be truthful, truthful, if one is truthful, believe you me a lot of things will go well, people will see, people will know who you are outwardly. What is within only God knows. Whatever you do openly, people will say ahh this man is good, we have seen a lot of examples. I need not to mention, there are lot of examples.

ZA19 [14583-15027]

Ah the form of jihad that Muslims could use to remove an un-Islamic government, well actually it's through peaceful means, through preaching, telling them what is good and bad and of course if you look at the Bible, the Qur'an, they are virtually teaching the same thing. None of the religions that actually advocate for siphoning people, money embezzlement, killings, you understand, disenfranchising of human rights and so many other things.

ZA20 [8335-8437]

Well I don't know how to answer that one but ahh we should have Muslim representation in everything.

ZA21 [11728-12123]

The kind of jihad Muslims should use to remove an unIslamic government is we are using democracy now particularly in Nigeria and northern Nigeria as well. So the kind of jihad we should do is garner support from all and sundry, mobilize people that are 18years and above then we vote out those we suppose they are not supposed to rule us. That is just the kind of jihad we should embark upon.

ZA22 [10640-10976]

Yah the best jihad now is through teaching of Islam. We should try and teach people really what Islam means, what Qur'an contains as its message, the sunna of rasul (SAW) and then the biographies and the history of the pious predecessors. We continue to teach people so they will come to understand that this is the right thing to do.

ZA23 [15226-15785]

Now that among us we only mention sharia, but in practice we don't practice it to its fullest, we have in Nigeria today what they call democracy and the democracy is not Islam, but since it is the mother of the day, you cannot do away with it. So make use of it. Elect good leaders that will give you peace. Take for instance what happened recently, the just concluded election in Nigeria, more especially in the northern Nigeria changes were made. So in the same vein if those that are elected now will perform below expectation then bering up others.

ZA24 [19252-20346]

Hmmmm the kind of jihad they should use is when they are leading us they should lead by good example. They should not be corrupt leaders. If you are a corrupt leader and bearing Muslims name, then non-Muslim will see Islam as corruption that Islam is corrupt. So Muslims should not be corrupt. All these things are the kind of jihad-gradually if you are attracting non-Muslims to Islam you should find means of attracting non-Muslims to Islam not fighting them. Therefore we will be having majority Muslims, although we are already the majority, but not to that extent, but we should not send away people – in fact Christians nowadays if they see something in Arabic they are always afraid as if, if they touch it, it is going to affect them. No it is not like that. They should not see Islam as a religion of terrorists. They should see Islam as a religion of peace. Once they see that, that is the kind of jihad we should introduce in order to remove an unislamic government. Like now I am urging our able president to use his religion so that people will emulate from him as a good Muslim.

ZA25 [17480-18197]

Ah first of all the Muslim are supposed to know their-at a particular point in time, they are supposed to know their strength and weaknesses. And part of the strength to start with, they are supposed to know about the number, the level of cracks among the Muslims in terms of sectarianism, yes because if a particular scholar is condemning some system of government and which is condemnable, some other groups, sect in Islam, might remain either mute, silent or even trying to give a contrary opinion to what the other scholars are saying. So that is one of our weaknesses we have to try to see how we can reduce our level of sectarian conflict and seriously we need to increase our knowledge acquisition in Islam.

ZA26 [8375-8420]

They should be righteous and stop corruption

ZA27 [7312-7321]

Justice

ZA28 [18140-18467]

Well if you go accordingly to the preaching, to the teachings of Islam properly, from the earlier definition of jihad, if you really guide and maintain the laws of Islam I think you are moving towards removing an unislamic government. So but the backbone here is knowledge. Without knowledge there is no way you will do this.

ZA29 [25273-25960]

Well here you have two overwhelming statements removing an unislamic government. One: what kind of government or what kind of setting are the people? The two set of people, what kind of setting are they? And secondly you saying jihad to remove an unislamic government, well if they are striving, they protest, not only the Muslims, they protest and show the whole world that what that government is doing is taking away their rights to practice their own religion. When their rights is being observed well, well they have the freedom not only in the religion but even in the modern world you have the freedom to protest and show that yes your own religion or your own rights is denied.

ZA30 [37139-37387]

I have said it earlier. I will also refer them back to good characters and sticking to actual teachings of the Qur'an and Sunna. When they get themselves with such attitudes, the outcome of such jihad would be greater than what they are expecting.

ZA31 [11581-11827]

The only jihad Muslims use is by saying the truth of the religion; telling the leaders that they should convey and practice the real truth of Islam, the real judgment. So if leaders didn't do that, that is, that is where, they will have problem.

ZA32 [30381-31772]

In Islam, the kind of jihad Muslims should use to remove un-Islamic government is through what, through what is allowed or what is proved to be the manner like in northern Nigeria now or in Nigeria now, Muslims should be using the format of what, voting because it is the only way for us to what, to change, for Muslims to change an un-Islamic government. They cannot do it through fighting because the prophet (SAW) is reported to have said or let me just mention the meaning of the hadith that Muslims should not be disobedient to their leaders, they should not even, talk less of fighting them, they should not be disobedient to them unless under and until when they are, when they command them to disobey Allah, there and then they are not allowed to what to obey them, they expected to dis, to disobey them in that aspect, but once it is not violating the laws of Allah, Muslims, Muslims are not expected to violate ahhh to protest, even protest to their leaders talk less of fighting them. So I see the type of jihad we should use is jihadin nafs that of self purification, let us behave in a good way, let us be practicing the Muslims and Allah will give us decent and what, and upright leaders. If we fail to practice Muslim or Islam in the proper way so we will not have to expect to have good leaders, yes.

ZA35 [9717-9726]

No idea

ZA36 [14604-14639]

Self jihad, fighting one's self.

ZA37 [14916-15030]

It is this one, awareness, creation of awareness to the best understanding of Islamic laws, this is the best way.

ZA38 [21680-22241]

As I said earlier, removing an un-Islamic government shouldn't be our problem, you understand, but when a non-Muslim is going astray, even a Muslims that is going astray, we can still remove him, but when a non-Muslim is going astray what to do is to use the democratic process that is imbibed in our society, in a secular society to remove him whereby we educate people, even people that are non-Muslims that if we want our society to survive, this man must not be there anymore because if he continues one or two things would become a problem to our society.

ZA39 [31323-31925]

Ahm the kind of jihad that a Muslim should use to remove un-Islamic government is to practice his religion according to the teachings of prophet (SAW). If he does that, if he practices his religion according to the teachings of prophet (SAW) definitely people would look at it, would understand the beauty of it. If people accept it, then the whole community or the whole country becomes, they would reason with him and they embrace his religion. That is the only way that I think nothing more than that. The actual true practice of Islam according to the way prophet (SAW) practiced it. That is all.

Th7.7: Forceful Jihad to Eliminate Corrupt and Un-Islamic Practices

FG1 [24317-24332]

It is correct

FG1 [24362-24407]

It is correct but you can't remove all the ...

FG1 [24653-24737]

If the people involved in the corruption are Muslims then how will you fight them?

FG1 [24738-24843]

That is jihad now. We said that preaching is aspect of jihad, so by preaching to them telling them that

KD1 [18798-20024]

My own position is that forceful jihad, there's no point, there's no place, there's no provision for that in the religion because Allah (SBUH) says in the holy Qur'an la iqra ha fid din, so where does the forceful comes into place. Even in suratul Qaf Allah says (he recites the Qur'an) up to the end of the verse (continues to recite) if you like, whoever likes to become a Muslim, of course Allah has already created in (he recites) so you have an option and that's why we have sense, that's why we have prejudice, that's why we have our own sentiment, that's why we have our own feelings, that's why we have our own brain to make choices, that's why we have our own discretion to make, to choose which way we want to go. So nothing like forceful. Actually God has given everybody his own free will because, even in the Holy Qur'an, when the mujrimun and the one that (recites the Qur'an), in the part that in the Holy Qur'an, where the oppressors and those that are oppressed, they begin to exchange case in the day of judgment, you realize that everybody actually does things on his own free will, nobody actually really force somebody to do that thing and that's how it has been and that's how it should continue to be.

KD2 [7440-8003]

Forceful jihad is not necessary, ah is not necessary to eliminate corrupt practices and some form of un-Islamic practices in the society. It's not necessary actually because you don't have to force people into changing their attitude especially if they are being corrupt. But if you entice them that by way of punishment, if you promise them that whenever they commit a corrupt practices then they will be severely dealt with, that will make them not to engage in such practices, but you can't force them in a form of jihad not to be corrupt or to be un-Islamic.

KD3 [5868-6101]

At this point in time with this present generation that we are, there is nothing like forceful jihad because even the saying of the prophet that time will come that everybody is on his own, you don't need to preach to anybody again.

KD4 [8503-9274]

Well if you say forceful jihad, I find it very difficult to understand the word forceful because if you say something is forceful, I try to look it as if you are trying to apply the means of coercion into compliance and Islam does not preach coerciveness. Islam is a religion of defensive, Islam is a religion of peace, but notwithstanding, Islam does not tolerate incompetency, Islam does not tolerate aggressiveness, Islam does not tolerate somebody just to take away your things without you putting on a defense fight. So if that is what you call forcefulness, forceful jihad, I will say that yes, Islam embrace it, but if you are talking of coerciveness, using coercive means of achieving your aim unlawfulness, I will say that no, Islam does not permit such things.

KD5 [5932-6061]

Yes. My position I think is no and the holy books agree with it because I have never heard of anything like forceful jihad, Yes.

KD6 [13931-14841]

You say in Islamic perspective, if you are under the umbrella of Islam, which jihad do you want to wage again? I don't understand the kind of jihad they are saying again. Even when the prophet (SAW) wanted to send some people to go eh the first thing he will tell them is, if you want to enter, even if the prophet is going for a war, if, he will never enter, if it is night, he will never enter the town, he will stay back. If he had cause of prayer, if they say allahu akbar, allahu akbar he will never enter that town. He will go back. Why? He knows that there are Kafirs inside, but there is Muslims inside, so Islam is there already, Islam is there. It is you now, it depends on you. If the Islam is there, it now depends on you to know more about Islam, to invite people to Islam not to force them to Islam, to invite people to Islam. We are not forcing people to Islam, you can't force people to Islam.

KD7 [7798-8835]

There is one thing that I have learnt and I have used from the Qur'an, from the Sunna. The prophet Muhammad (SAW) said there is no compulsion in religion, how can there be forceful jihad? There is no compulsion in religion so, how can there be forceful jihad? When you force someone to submit to something, you do not own his heart. It is the almighty that does. You are supposed to appeal to his better side to convert not by force. Islam does not like force as I said, it only resort as a last means of, as a last means for one to take up arms in order to propagate Islam or to do jihad and what is jihad? We abuse the word jihad, we do not even know it. It says submission to the will of Allah. When we are doing jihad, who are we doing jihad for? We should ask ourselves, what are we doing the jihad for? Those two things, when we ask ourselves and we answer them honestly, I believe we will be what will promote us to understand jihad better and to know why we should or we shouldn't do jihad in some places and not in some places.

KD8 [18336-18800]

Well! Islam is not about force, it's not about force. It is about faith. It's about logic. It's about practice, you understand. So, it's not about forcing anybody or using forceful means to have Islam to override any other this thing and it's not, that's not the way that Muslims will now convert to another faith. A number of Muslims that love Islam very well has the knowledge of Islam, believes seriously in God, there is no way he can convert to any religion.

KD9 [10803-11150]

Hmm I can't readily bring one now, but I think we are still going round the same issues of jihad, whether forceful jihad will eliminate corruption and bring about Islamic practices. Fundamentally education is the key, education and da'wa, educate the society and show them the fear of Allah and Inshallah the society going to be a peaceful place.

KD10 [6294-6526]

You see ah in a community that what is going on is not according to sharia, we are going to make all effort to see that we change it. We change evil to good, we change Masiya to Towa to the best of eh capability. Do you understand?

KD11 [12575-12860]

No, no, no because Islam is ah conservative religion when you look at the case of ah Ajal Yusuf bin Asaqqafi was indeed a tyrant, he was unjust-fully, if I may say, beheaded most of the sahabas of his time, maltreated them and yet, yet the few companions left did not rebel against him.

KD12 [12177-13061]

In fact according to the hadith, according to the sharia (recites in Arabic) the principle of jihad is that see where wrong things, where wrong doings are occurring in the society, or havoc are occurring in the society, Islam have laid down principles of correcting it gradually, see. So now among the principles is that we know that this thing is bad. To hearing, to doing, to the people's health, the ...of people, if it is being done and then every effort is being put like any governmental system, Islam has established that one too that like the way if the government say this street is overcrowded, people have extended from the main market to the street, he will send his people there, if they don't hear, the government will use force to drove people inside the confined area of the market. So likewise the Islam has said that one. If people doesn't hear force has to be used.

KD13 [4460-4618]

It is correct and the jihad to be conducted here is through educating the people towards the will of Allah not fighting with that of the sword or the guns.

KD14 [5285-5707]

There is nothing like forceful jihad even though in a place where there is Islamic state, where there is Islamic state normally we have limits even immoral I could say like some immoral acts which with even keeping the religion aside, it will not permit it, so such limit even though in an Islamic state must even though for the non-Muslims to be there, they must give them the limits of things they do and should not do.

KD17 [13455-14566]

Forceful jihad that is to force people, to force people, to raise to arms forcefully on people, not at all (those that are corrupt) not at all, not at all. As I just said earlier la iqraha fid din and even the corrupt ones, just as I said, by the time you make me understand what Islam says Islam does not support corruption. Islam does not in any way support corruption. There are various instances, various traditions of the prophet, even Muslims and Christians you understand or Jews, we have issues, they will bring it back to the prophet (SAW) to judge and based on what was brought, if he thinks that it was the Muslim that is at fault, he will never say that he is not the one at fault. He will put everything based on what is on ground. So why are you telling that, as I said, by the time you practice true Islam in your own home, and bring about true Islam, who are the leaders? You and I are the leaders.

By the time we practice, both what Islam says, Islam does not support corruption. If you follow the true tenets of Islam and I mean true tenets of Islam, insha allah corruption will be a past story.

KD18 [7320-7871]

There is nothing like forceful jihad and our holy book Qur'an has taught us the, it has prohibit eh corrupt, the corruption is prohibited according to the book given to us by Allah that we call Qur'an, so jihad cannot, there is no anything like forceful jihad that will make people not be corrupt, so if eh the people that will be corrupt, will be corrupt, but the people that will not be corrupt, will not be corrupt, the people that will be corrupt, will be corrupt. So there is no jihad that will force people not to be corrupt and to be corrupt.

KD19 [10223-10789]

Ah forceful jihad is only necessary when you are being oppressed. Because eh there is a verse in the Qur'an that says fight in the way of the oppressors, but do not start the aggression. So if you are not being oppressed, you are not being cheated, do not fight anybody that is what the aya is saying. Now if you decide to engage in forceful jihad, I believe that it must be only when you are oppressed and the oppression persisted, so that is the only way in my, in the in the opinion of the Islamic scholars, that is the only time that forceful jihad is allowed.

KD20 [5188-5554]

I think the answer is no. There is nothing like forceful jihad in Islam. Islam can live with even though for the past how many years, Islam has been living with non, with non-Muslims and they have being living peaceful without any conflict. They are allowed to live in a Muslim eh country or state, if there is mis eh if there is understanding and tolerance, yes.

KD21 [6329-6490]

First before going, I don't really understand what is called forceful jihad, jihad, so from my onset, I don't think I am going into evaluation of this question.

KD23 [6739-6798]

Yes I agree with that position that's all what I will say.

KD24 [24159-25489]

No, is not correct, why because Allah (SBUH) says (recites in Arabic) if you are calling some people into Islam, call them with hikma wise and ah know how to tell them in the clear and elaborate, explain to them so that they will understand, not with fighting, not with force not, don't force them and eh then prophet Musa (alayhis salam) when Allah sent him to Firaun, Firaun, he supposed to say go and kill him, go and fight him, but he said no (he recites in Arabic) if we go to Firaun, don't speak big words no layyina simple words, be patient, don't go, don't just go fighting we are prophets, if you did not turn convert to Islam we will kill you, no. Say things that will bring his heart, take his sense that he will understand. The beautiful thing in Islam is you should explain to someone to the extent that actually he understands what you are trying to say. Get him clear, you are not, you are not asked to, if you explain to someone to the extent that yes he actually understand what you are saying, you have finished your work Allah. Allah (SBUH) says to prophet Muhammad (SAW) (recites in Arabic) for them to be pious or to be guidance, to be guided in the right path is not in your, it is in hands of Allah. Your own is just to explain to them or read to them preach to them, others you should leave it to Allah.

KD25 [34317-36650]

Well by the physical statement here is not correct. When you say forceful jihad that means that, the forceful jihad means is as if it is not God that instruct you to, you are just, you are just forceful so you feel that you can just do it, eh so anything and we the Muslims must always ah we our wilful desires must suit that which the prophet brought. That was what prophet said because in a Sunnatic hadith the prophet said (he recites in Arabic) he said none of you is really a believer until and unless his wilful desire suits that which I brought. What did the prophet brought? He brought Islam. What was revealed to the prophet? The verses of the Qur'an, so if we should continue acting contrary to the Qur'an, we will never prosper, we will never succeed, so by saying forceful jihad is what will bring, what will ensure justice or what have you, no, no, no not that, but instead of saying forceful jihad, why don't you say good habits, good manners of the Muslims, obedience to ah those in authorities can see Islam to the highest level of course because eh eh just as I told you earlier, most of those that accepted Islam during the prophet's life time, is wasn't as a result of the prophet carrying sword against them, they were just enticed, they were just magnetized by the prophet's good manners, attitudes of speaking the truth, of being just, of maintaining trust and host of others and that is what we the Muslims are also expected to ah carry. So I don't ah also agree with such a statement because when you say jihad, which kind of jihad? We have the, we have various kinds of jihad. We have jihadun nafs, we have jihadin ..., we have jihad ... the jihad of ... is the jihad of trying to teach the Muslims their religion and that is what is supposed to be done this era of ours, not jihad of carrying swords. When you say, you see, you see there are, there are conditions even laid down before eh eh carrying out the jihad. What are those conditions? Most of us don't know, most of the youths don't even know and then you just call them to follow you blindly to go and fight not minding the consequence and the aftermath of that. That is really, really dangerous and I wish that our Muslim youths will be listening to ourah Islamic ah leaders whenever they speak, not just for no, no, no we should listen to them.

KD26 [7921-8264]

Forceful jihad necessary to eliminate corruption hmm yes to a certain extent it is true because when there is corruption and there are un-Islamic practices and that are detrimental to the lives of the Muslims and it is posing a threat to Islam then that is where it is necessary that is where it is permitted for you to use forceful jihad.

KD27 [7606-8067]

Well to a certain extent, but you should remember that unnecessary bloodshed, unnecessary bloodshed is abhorrent to Islam. Islam doesn't agree with that, unnecessary bloodshed, so where do you place that in the context of violent uprising against an institution such as government? Where do you place that? So you have to look at them viz-a-viz the teachings of Islam as regarding bloodshed, as regarding destruction of properties and so on and so forth.

KD28 [11379-11861]

I do not agree with that. It is not necessary, it is not necessary. I don't agree with that. Whoever is going to fight for that, is going to do that, you yourself you must have avoided what is called corrupt practices. You are not part of it. You mustn't be there where this action is taken place and once you know that yes this is corrupt and un-Islamic, your own is to protect yourself from that. Then if you know the victim s, you have to speak to them. It is not with force.

KD29 [6640-6810]

Ah it is not correct in Islam. It is a misrepresentation of the Islamic teachings to me this is not correct and it is not a means of achieving Islamic, an Islamic state.

KD30 [10290-11416]

Ah every generation have their own present challenges. They have at that particular time and even before the conduct of true ah Islamic jihad, where as you use forceful jihad, ah live under the beautiful religion of Islam, of course I agree. there are several steps taken by the prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) before taking arms and confronting enemies even to the extent of battle ahm we can see the proceedings where invitations are sent, letters invitation are sent to people to accept Islam, introducing it with the beauty of it, then it won't then we go to later stages before we come to, before we come to that, but if we are having a situation where corrupt and un-Islamic practices is taking place in a society, for example the act of killing innocent young babies simply because the parents won't like to show responsibilities and I think if people with such barbaric actions will continue carrying such activities, I think it is worth considering to force them into decent conducts which I think is Islamic conducts ah abide by the Islamic jurisprudence in order to save the life of the innocent children and

That's why I said if and only if true Islam will be practiced.

KD33 [7245-7579]

Yah, it is necessary to eliminate corruption and un-Islamic practice in the society but as I am saying earlier, jihad is not the only way. If there jihad always came in the Islam as the last option, or try to influence people through teaching, through true ethics, through our character before when the jihad will be last option.

KD34 [9004-9136]

No, no, no. There is no compulsion in religion. You can't force somebody, you can't use force against somebody to change his faith.

KD35 [11406-12232]

I don't agree with that, forceful jihad is possible, is necessary only in qisas, only in qisas, but the moment you don't practice Islam, forceful Islam or jihad in qisas, you are going astray, you are going out of the way Allah (SBUH), what Allah said we should do. Only qisas is forceful and all Muslim should make sure that qisas is necessary and is forceful. Only qisas, but any other thing is mandatory, is not is not by force. If you like to do pray, if you don't like you leave prayers when you die you see ahh the word (he recites in Arabic) every soul depend on what she does during the day of resurrection, but qisas if you remove an eye for an eye, a life for life, if you wound me you either pay me the compensation or the same wound would be inflicted on your skin, so to my understanding only qisas is forceful.

KN1 [20523-22199]

Ah you see going back to history we saw and we know how those that came before him practiced and convert people to religion, we know about it. We know a particular incident of the holy prophet when he was alive, he met an old woman in the bush making firewood he carried for her and when they entered the town, the woman was saying am very much grateful to you my son and please I will advise you there is a particular man that has emerged calling us to new religion please you should avoid that man because I see that you are a good person so please avoid him don't ever let him mislead you. And he told her at the end of the day that I am that man. There and then she converted and she accepted Islam. So what am saying, good deeds is encouraged in Islam. Show good deed, convert people through good deed, one. Two if you see the relationship between our holy prophet and the non-Muslims, you will know that it is not always an issue of force and I told you the first jihad was fought and equally if you go to the subsequent jihads and their history, the root or cause of the jihad you will know what caused all this jihads. And equally I will like to refer you to one of the imams of Islam, imam Ahmad Hanbali, he has a neighbor that was a Jew and this Jew was disturbing him causing all sort of noises to him while he is having his quiet time or while he is resting in the night, but when at a particular time he realized that there was no sound from the man's house he inquired in the morning where is that man and he was told that he has been arrested because he collected somebody's goods and he cannot pay. He personally go there and asked for the release of the man.

KN1 [22491-23137]

Now the issue is this, as a Muslim I told you that every Muslim agrees with or believes in this that Islam is a complete way of life that is our belief. Anything that we need is in our book. So even outside Islam when a nation is corrupt, take the case of Nigeria, there is series of laws for the punishing of the corrupt ones, so no law, no religion will allow corruption, and it has punishment for corruption. But what am saying is this, it doesn't mean that you go out of the way, out of what Allah has ordained in religion for you to say that you are imposing something but if you mean Islamic state is the solution to the problems I agree.

KN2 [13878-14669]

Yes to some extent because if you have a government which is an Islamic state and only a few members of the authority that happen to take part in the jihad were the ones that are the good ones, what of all people in the market, what of all the people in the civil service, what of all the women in their houses? What also can you say about adultery and fornication? You need enlightenment and enlightenment campaigns that will advertise Islam in good quality that will make people to see the good qualities of Islam, to see the solution, to subscribe it, to adhere to it, to have the internal fear of God not the fear of the authority, to be themselves, good persons rather than being corrupt and relying only on leaders. Let the leaders be good and members of the society be good as well.

KN4 [17513-18947]

Forceful jihad is necessary to eliminate corruption and unIslamic practice in the society is this position correct in Islam, no. You see God when he created us right from the Adam our father, there is misunderstanding there is sin. As a result of sin that human being found himself in the world, if there is no sin we can't find ourselves here. And God create us and we have different personalities, we have different setting, we have different history, culture and values. So this conflict is part and parcel of human being except the way that we transfer, eh we interpret it. Don't take conflict and attach it to a particular religion or particular for ah ah sake because it suits that this is how I should describe this type of people no. Conflict is part and parcel of human being. So, whether there is Islam or there is no Islam, you can escape corruption. You can't practice an Islamic state without sin, without crime. Crime is part of the society that is why the Islam true sharia, sharia is the check and balance between the Muslims, among the Muslims, and those that are not in Islam Sharia would not extend their hand on them. Sharia can only be practiced, can only be applied on those that willingly agree and believe that Islam is their religion and they accepted and they accommodate the outcome of the sharia. The sharia does not go against its cause or does not impose itself on another religion or on another person.

KN5 [7784-7787]

No

KN6 [6987-7759]

Forceful, I don't agree with this statement because Islam like I said earlier la iqra ha fid din there is no compulsory for those who are not Muslim but those who are Muslim they must obey if you agree that you are a Muslim you must obey all these, it is the total submission ahh the teaching of the prophet Mohammed (Saw). So it is only limited for those Muslims because even the prophet (Saw) during his period ah ahh he told -there is some Christians that the prophet (Saw) allowed them to worship and even during the period of Sahabas there is some alliance between Muslims and Christians even sometimes you can help them to build their church so you can help them to build their church. So you can call your opposite through good relationship not through force.

KN7 [7841-8104]

Hmm, yes eh, eh if you want to look at it, Islam is said amm, al-Islam madinu-l-salam. Islam is a religion of peace so when you talk of coercion and force here, it is totally out of it, so I don't think yes, it is we- I don't think so, force is never in Islam.

KN8 [6241-6821]

Amm, I think making reference to the holy Quran, Allah (SBUH) says la iqra ha fid din-there is no compulsion in religion. Then in the context of this analysis someone can't say forceful jihad is a means of converting, hmm hmm the prophet (SAW) and his Sahabas said let forceful jihad be the last means you adopt, use-persuade them, encourage them, tell them the word of God. Then if they are now striking your religion or bringing force to your religion then you can also strike them back, but that should not be the first means to be adopted to bring in people into the religion.

KN9 [6732-7224]

I think this statement is very correct You see when you want to root out corruption in a society especially a society where it has really infested, you need forceful jihad, people don't just bend to ah things like this. You know it is something that ah the people derive joy in doing. So you have to enforce an authority upon this people you to punish, a means of punishment so that other people would learn and not take the corrupt ways, so you have to do that. What is the second question?

KN9 [7256-7407]

A sacred text, none that I have gotten through, but I am sure there are texts in this particular statement, but there is non that I have come across.

KN10 [6161-6509]

Yes, it is possible because if you look at the past ah among the Khalifas like Abubakar, he use force after the death of the prophet there are some people that denied to give zakat so he use force to eh for them to give and he fight them until the time that they surrender and agree to give it back, so you can-force can be used in such condition.

KN11 [8526-8817]

So this question is similar to the above question, as I have said and I will say it again, Islam is not intended to force anybody to his household, but yes jihad can be done when the Muslims are- when the Muslims are force to leave their religion or are force to not exercise their religion.

KN13 [8473-8744]

Yes, it is correct, but I cannot actually testify the verses or the high order this is actually, but I know it is correct and definitely in the Qur'anic verses and likewise some prophetic saying that actually testify to this, but definitely I cannot give you that vivid...

KN14 [6122-6141]

The answer is no

KN14 [6227-6671]

Yes Allah (SBUH) says (He recites a verse of the Qur'an) this means that wala antum abiduna- you should not worship what I am worshiping and you should not, and i will not worship what you are worshiping lakum di lakum waliyaddini that is your religion is for you and my religion is for me. That is between Muslims and non-Muslims, that is this shows that there must be Muslims and non-Muslims, you cannot come and say that one must be Muslims.

KN15 [8426-8591]

Uhhmm la iqra fid din It means you cannot force somebody to join a religion so I think my view on this is that is not correct in Islam, the position is not correct.

KN16 [4304-4417]

No because there is no because there is no compulsion in Islam as one verse from Qur'an says la iqra ha fid din.

KN17 [8159-8170]

Uhhmm yah

KN18 [13460-14354]

Well I don't think forceful jihad if it is an Islamic state that state is purely a state okay of Muslims yes you can adopt a forceful jihad to eliminate a corrupt, corrupt ah officials and government. Like the jihad of Dan Fodio, he is conquering all Muslim states they were Muslim states and they were deviating from the teaching of Islam. There were corruption and many vices and his attempt was now to conquer them and deal with that corruption and those that comply he just accept them give them flag and give them the mandate to rule. Those who did not comply he removed them from office. And so if it is a forceful in this contemporary world now if you say a forceful jihad in what context in like in Saudi Arabia, to deal with these corrupt officials of Saudi Arabia and the family of Sa'ud, because they are one of the most corrupt, corrupt leaders of the world, leaders in this world.

KN19 [9878-10678]

Ah, actually I have said this initially in one of the questions that was being asked, ah even sighting the the the position of prophet Ibrahim (Alayhi salat wa salam) as a great instance when his forefathers were worshipping the idols you understand before almighty Allah could order him to go and destroy the idols there were various means he has adopted not until when they didn't yield to a diplomatic what, to your diplomatic motive, you understand, to your logical presentations, you understand, to your persuasions and everything before forceful actions could be adopted according to the doctrine of the holy prophet (SAW) there was a particular adage that was reported by Thirmidi that let forceful action be the last resource, you understand, you will use into persuading people into Islam.

KN20 [5439-5458]

I don't think so.

KN21 [3630-3695]

No I don't think there are sacred text agree with this position.

KN22 [6503-6969]

Yes, actually when we talk about jihad there are dimensions. There are issues where people or citizens might be forced in order to abide or adhere to the doctrines of Islam. But there are some instances were citizens or followers will not be forced. There should be what is called character molding. Yah Islam should try to mould their character in order for them to be discipline, in order for them to embrace peace towards the perpetual existence of that society.

KN23 [6441-6497]

No. la iqra ha fid din. There is no compulsion in Islam

KN24 [6132-6136]

Yes

KN25 [7415-7522]

Well I would still say this is circumstantial. It depends on the prevalence, social, political condition.

KN25 [7599-7649]

Well there could be but it mustn't be this format

KN26 [6947-6970]

No. it doesn't really

KN27 [6737-7237]

Well when you say, when you are talking of something of force, forceful jihad would only be creative in the situation whereby Islam itself is facing a lot of challenges, a lot challenges that are, that there wouldn't be any other motive or let me say there wouldn't be other any way to solve these challenges rather than forceful jihad. But if not for the fact I don't think forceful jihad would solve all these problems and I don't think there is any sacred text that is in line with this position

KN28 [5581-5617]

No I don't agree with this position

KN30 [5978-6126]

Is there anything thing like forceful that is to force somebody to be in Islam? In Islam there is nothing like forcing of somebody to be in Islam.

KN31 [7503-8109]

Yes I do agree with that but you know this will only apply mostly in Islamic states. Like in states whereby they are mixed this could hardly apply because Islamic ah Islam has so many rules guiding it. So let's assume, take Nigeria for example, whereby we have corrupt leaders, if it is an Islamic state definitely so many measures will be taken to eliminate them because they are not true leaders. Because I think islamically you don't even come out to vie for a position which means we have a target. Normally you are being nominated by whether maybe by the ulamas or by, I think, the Electoral College.

KN32 [2564-2575]

Not at all

KN33 [2852-2939]

Ah no because it can be done democratically and most of the books do not agree to that

KN34 [3445-3569]

Yes the reason for jihad sometimes is used to eradicate some un-Islamic practices that maybe taking place in Islamic state.

KN35. [5330-5332]

No

KN36 [4858-4991]

No. Why because you cannot force people. Jihad does not mean one means of forcing people. There can also be persuasion and pressure.

KN37. [4273-4527]

You see forceful jihad is ehm, yes it is necessary to eliminate corrupt and un-Islamic practices in the society. But the position I don't want to say it is correct in Islam because Islam has a lot of ways of eliminating corrupt and un-Islamic practices.

KN38 [2841-2844]

No

KN39 [3153-3170]

Really correct

KN39 [3255-3274]

Really they agree.

KN40 [6492-6513]

No idea about that.

KN41 [3752-3785]

No this is absolutely incorrect.

KN42 [6251-7021]

In some ways, they are in support of the fact that when they-because the society are too corrupt and there is no way of forward, there should be strict Islamic rules which is not necessary jihad to enforce and to bring the society back to normalcy. Some of the texts, some texts are of hadith are of the opinion that people should go about this in the right way. There shouldn't be killings or shedding of blood but there should be of firm handling of people that when these corruptions have gone beyond what they are supposed to, beyond limit, people are supposed to be arrested and even jailed for life in order to be bring normalcy. There is nothing that has to do killings and is not necessary that out of jihad, it is just out of following the preachings of Islam.

KN43 [8840-9425]

Yah, to me this is a wrong interpretation of the sacred text that you talk about. There are many ways that Muslims can eradicate corruptions and other corrupt practices, not necessarily through the use of, you know, the force. You know, the socialization in the Muslim family would help in eradicating corruption and corrupt practices. Then the constant preaching and the admonitions to the Muslims can contribute in eliminating corrupt practices. So to use the force or arms to eliminate corrupt practices, I think that is not a solution and you can eliminate the whole human beings.

KN44 [5592-5660]

I don't have a sacred text, so I wouldn't like to answer that one.

KN45 [5057-5354]

Ahh, no, eh to some extent this eh is not correct because ehh there is no, there was never a society that is eh that completely, that is completely without its wrong doings. So an Islamic state can, can compromise, can compromise other un-Islamic deeds of eh, to some extent, in my opinion, yah.

KN46 [7680-7716]

No, I don't think this is correct.

KN47 [12667-13430]

To this question I can say no because there is no empire, no society that you can show a way whereby jihad eliminates corrupt and un-Islamic practices, even though they do that or you know jihad helped them to do that, it became temporary. You know corrupt attitude is an attitude that needs to be always re-oriented towards the evil side of it, but if you fought a jihad and then you go away after some years, people will return to that practice because conventionally there are, you know, there is no coercion in the process of changing people's attitude if at all we want that to be effective, if you want to achieve effective attitude change, you don't need to use force, you understand, you have to use process of persuasion and then a wireless creation.

KN48 [4638-4640]

No

KN49 [6976-7268]

I think I wouldn't say that, ahm I think we need to I, I need to, I think we need to refer to the, to the Islamic scholars because people might have divergent views about the entire thing. But I think in our present scenario, we could say that, that could be described as a little bit true.

KN50 [4023-4140]

Ah, elimination, eliminate corrupt, eliminating corrupt and un, and un-Islamic practices must not necessarily be jihad

KN51 [28163-30003]

Forceful jihad is not necessary at all yes, like I told you earlier, it is only when the oppression prevails all over and more than two thirds of the people are being oppressed, are in abject poverty because of oppression, now when they cry, they cry again, now and organized body under the leadership of the Emir or any learned person can now, in a way, try to stop those oppressors from cheating the public. This is what Islam is saying. I have got it (he recites) Allah is saying why would you not struggle to prevent this people from oppressing this weaker ones, after all they are denied health care, they are denied education, they are denied anything that is human, everything they are denied. So you people who accumulated wealth is not your own, is for the public, is people's wealth you accumulating, you are killing people. So shall we fold our arms and look at you killing people, majority are dying and you and your children, majority are becoming ignorant, you are going to school, majority are suffering from various disease and illness, and you are in very good condition of health and what have you? So these are some of the reasons, but it has to be in an organized and an accepted way. The leader of the jihad in this manner should be the leader, the president, the governor, the Emir and what have you. It must be under the leadership of the leader or any learned person who is of an unquestionable educational authority and an unquestionable character, so this is it. But to say people will have to just go and fight this, no that one is not accepted, is unaccepted, is unaccepted. Jihad is carried out if it is a true jihad under the good leadership of the Imam, the president, the governor, the Emir ok and so on and so forth, but not just under any circumstances, not anyhow, not anyhow. This we must understand.

KN52 [8458-8544]

You see the problem is that I don't understand your own definition of forceful jihad

KN52 [8581-9079]

Forceful jihad, what do you mean by forceful jihad to eliminate corruption. Anyway if I understand what you mean, you are talking about physical, violent jihad right, forceful jihad as a way of correcting the ills and the corruption within the society, I don't think that is the way to do it. There are rules and regulations governing that, that should govern that in an Islamic society and I think the Sharia provides all the necessary guideline within which a Muslim should conduct himself. So...

KN53 [6003-6013]

Yes, yes.

KN54 [2568-2597]

No. Islam is not compulsion.

KN55 [3524-3572]

No. Islam is not compulsory, it is not by force

KN56 [4511-4601]

Actually forceful jihad is not necessary. People can preach and they can live by example.

KN57 [5650-5692]

You see I agree with this statement 100%.

KN58 [14532-14963]

Ehm, there are conditions whereby if you preach to people to abandon their old barbaric ways and they refuse, you preach to them, they refuse, then that situation would warrant you to use force if you want to change them. And it is there in the text too whereby Allah says that people can change by either preaching to them and if they refuse, you can even force them into acceptance, but in the modern day Islam you don't force.

KN59 [9506-9585]

Forceful jihad, to force someone to become a Muslim, I don't agree with this.

KN60 [14001-14070]

Hmm it is true actually. It is correct actually in Islam. Yah it is.

KN60 [14129-14386]

Actually I cannot agree with this because you cannot say forceful jihad is necessary to correct vices. Preaching is what does correct vices. You cannot force someone to embrace Islam, la iqra ha fid din. You don't aggress people in order to embrace Islam.

KN61 [4374-4425]

No. it is not correct in Islam, it is not correct.

KN62 [16984-18348]

No, again no. Forceful jihad is not necessary to eliminate corrupt and un-Islamic practices ah if that would be the case or was the case, in the first place, the first verse to be revealed in the Qur'an must be a verse of jihad, but it wasn't. The verses that were first revealed to our noble prophet were those who actually tell people the, the bad side, the disadvantages of taking alcohol, which is an un-Islamic practice. Taking alcohol, doing ahh, eh eh zina and other things, you understand, the verses tell people first the disadvantages of those practices, one, followed by then a total prohibition, after this total prohibition, then followed by, let' say abstaining, or let me say shunning away, shunning those people who still do those kinds of things away, yah. That is what, let me say, the steps followed by our noble prophet and this steps were actually as fully his inscribed in the holy Qur'an. So this is what I think in, in Mecca, the, the case was different. If you look at all the questions you have been posing, I think ah it's just the matter of taking a good glance at the way our noble prophet lived in Mecca yah. The problem is that illiteracy I earmarked in the first place. People wrongly and ah let's say well is just wrongly, believe that Islam is kind of a religion of compulsion. I don't believe in all this kind of things, ahm ah.

KN63 [17065-17806]

There is nothing like forceful jihad. The jihad that was has been existing right from the time of the prophet is still existing up till now. There is nothing like forceful there, huh. Even during the time of the prophet some people do come, when they want to go to for battle, some people do come and give excuse. Even some with lies ma, they give excuse and the, the, the, Prophet will ask them to go. They, they, they are not being forced to go to the battlefield. It is not possible. So there is nothing like forceful jihad.

Jihad is what you can do on your own huh between you and your creator huh. Your creator is seeing your mind, your intension on that. So there is nothing like forceful jihad. There is nothing like forceful jihad.

KN64 [6853-6857]

No.

KN65 [11355-11380]

Hmm, is not true, yes

KN66 [4016-4062]

In some extent, to some extent rather it is.

KN67 [5049-5196]

No. That is not the only necessary thing to me because there are so many ways in which you can fight corruption and ah other un-Islamic practices.

KN68 [2572-2608]

There is no compulsion in religion

KN69 [9975-10724]

forceful jihad is necessary to eliminate corrupt and un-Islamic practices only in a Muslim state. This is to the fact that a situation may arise whereby people are expected to comply with the rules and regulations, but you find out that people refuse to comply with the rules and regulations. It is only the authority that will compel people to make sure that they are following, that rules and regulations as it was happen during the caliphate of Umar, Sayyidina Umar (rabiyyalahu anu). There are some people who refuse to pay the zakat and Sayyidina Umar report against that particular people in order to see that he eliminate un-Islamic practices against that particular people. Therefore, it is limited within an Islamic state and on Muslims.

KN71 [16891-18041]

All what I am trying to, from my understanding of Islam is this, Islam achieved all what it has achieved, of course at times it is only, jihad is becoming only the last option, remember what prophet (SAW) told Ali bin Talib that you are going to fight a people and let you know that whenever you meet a non-believer, the first thing is to call him to the way of Allah. If he refuses this, then extend peace accord with him. It is only when he refuse, when he refuses to be a Muslim, when he refuses to accept the peace accord then there should be fighting. Fighting is always the last option. So as you are saying, forceful jihad is actually used to eliminate corrupt and un-Islamic practices, of course, it is not only jihad that would do that. It is when the people are enlightened. Let them know what Islam is. Look at the diplomatic way of Allah (SBUH) in calling people to Islam (he recites a verse of the Qur'an). What democracy do you need after this? so it all leads to how you the Muslims interact or relate with the non-Muslims, how your practices in your own self determine how sincere you are as to the establishing of an Islamic state.

KN72 [11180-11328]

There is no forceful jihad in Islam, but Islam can make force to strength some immoral activities among the society that can disrupt such society.

KN73 [11195-11472]

Forceful jihad. In Islam there is no forceful jihad. It's only jihad and the essence of jihad is to eliminate innate anti Islamic practice, and the sacred texts or the saying of the saints or the practice of Ulama and practice of some Islamic scholars can really show it, yah.

KN74 [18300-18704]

This question is almost is ehh, is looks like the question that we have just answered now. Therefore Islam, jihad is not necessary to eliminate corrupt and un-Islamic practice. If you can remember, okay let us say, but the jihad, if you are talking about the physical jihad, is not a necessary. But if you can, if you refer to the word jihad by using mouth that is to preach to people, it is also a jihad

KN74 [18811-19271]

I understand, I understand, means that this is a physical jihad because you force the people to do something. Therefore, if you force the people it means that there is tendency or there is possibility for you to use your physical fighting to force them to do something which is not wish, which they were not wish to do. Therefore, this is not a way to say that eh forceful jihad is necessary to eliminate corrupt and I am not agree with this ehh this opinion.

KN76 [13701-13939]

Well ahh to eliminate actually you need to have an Islamic state for you to have ehh to eliminate certain un-Islamic practices, but it is not true that you must, that you must have a forceful jihad for you to establish an Islamic state.

KN79 [7599-7838]

No. There is no any forceful jihad in Islam because the Almighty Allah said la iqra ha fid din, you should not force ahh anybody or somebody to convert to your religion or to come to your religion ahh to come by into Islam, of course.

KN80 [13713-14085]

Yes, I said it earlier, ahh forceful jihad in necessary of course to eliminate corruption, but in a situation whereby a peaceful jihad can make ahh ahh ahh cannot serve, cannot serve yes yes cannot serve the condition or the state of affair in as long as peaceful jihad can serve, peaceful jihad is best to be applied because the religion itself is nasiha is simplicity.

KN81 [7336-7499]

Hmm there is no any force in Islam. No forceful jihad and no un-Islamic practice can be eliminated by means of physical jihad, so this position is an un-Islamic.

KN81 [8166-8570]

Yes sir most of the people they can use the thing of head, but what my own ahh what I understand, my own view here is you have to use a possible way of converting Muslim ahh non-Muslim not Islam, for instance, if to say you have a neighbor who is non-Muslim you can use good thing to him so by using a good thing to him so that non-Muslim is easy for him to convert to Islam, but is not by using force.

KN82 [10212-11126]

Forceful jihad, when you say forceful is referring to application of naked power to realize an objective and Islam does not do things in such a way, but rather deploy a tactics that attracts people to polish religion in a colorful manner that people think or feel that this religion is really a good religion. It happened during the life time of ahh Sayyidina Umar alayhissalam when someone in Medinan city gathered people drinking beer and ahh dancing with women, so from that narrations you can clearly see the wisdom that Sayyidina Umar alayhissalam didn't use force to checkmate or to call that person to order, but he rather used wisdom. What he did was, he invited them to the palace where many people, influential in Medina were in attendance. Umar alayhissalam called that person he said to him that I didn't told anyone about what I saw and the person replied that okay for that I will never do it again.

KN83 [6533-6770]

Hmm somehow if there is un-Islamic activities in an Islamic state, government can apply or use coercive force to stop or eliminate it like other government because even Sayyidina Abubakar use force to collect, this thing hmm Zakat.
KN84 [7350-7532]

No, no, no, no there is no any forceful jihad in Islam forceful hmm forceful jihad in Islam and peaceful jihad is required to remove un-Islamic practice in the society not force, yes.

KN85 [6332-6798]

Actually this is not the correct position in Islam and the sacred text, all of them have tried to teach people how to reform themselves not necessarily through forceful jihad. People can reform themselves by trying to do-that is what we call jihadin nafs, try to reform yourself first then try to preach ahh to others so that they also reform themselves. You all do what is right then that-such a situation could be achieved without forceful jihad, so is not true.

ZA1 [8513-9148]

The issue that you are talking about sacred text either Qur'an or hadith, definitely there are some certain verses like in Suratul Nisa, (he recites verse of the Qur'an) up to the end of the verses, Allah says that he is commanding you O! Rasul (SAW) to take all the properties to the real owners that is you don't cheat. Now corruption in general each and every religion on earth either Christianity, Buddhism and the rest, no any religion that give support for corruption talk less of Islam. So if you are talking about corruption, we can say it is a universal issue that corruption must be eliminated, but not Islam in particular.

ZA2 [6018-6040]

Yes that is normal.

ZA3 [8747-8762]

It is not true

ZA4 [21635-22242]

Yes, if you said using jihad to negate evil things yes, but there is no how you can start at this society of Nigeria that we have multi-system at least is a mixture of different types of languages and religions. We have about 400 languages in Nigeria, we have different types of beliefs and all that. So this time of environment is your morality, is your behavior, kindness that will call them. You can't use jihad because we have different ideologies, different type of people. There is no how we can come and enter them with jihad. This is rebellious; this is not teachings of the prophet Muhammad (SAW).

ZA5 [11862-11870]

No sir.

ZA6 [20041-23288]

Ehm force forceful jihad I will ask in what sense? Now there are areas, there are situations, there are conditions and there are societies where forceful jihad is necessary. Now when, I will give, cite an example with the jihad of Usman Dan fodio, the jihad when you came to fight and he conquered the northern Nigeria, at that time now am trying to give you the societal values before the coming of Usman Dan fodio where prostitution, social vices are the order of the day. No religion, there is no fear of God, you do things, there is no justice, no justice system, you know, people do things anyhow, the survival of the fittest where only the fittest will survive emm? In a situation like that, a society like that, forceful jihad is necessary like that of Usman Dan Fodio. You understand what am saying? In the society like that where vices flourishes, there is no justice, no justice system, everybody does what he likes ehn, forceful jihad is necessary there. And even in engaging in that the scripture, the Qur'an now ehn it stipulates the conditions you do that. There are things you must not do hmm. It stipulates, there are conditions so you cannot just embark on forceful jihad without knowing the conditions to embark on that same thing. It is the same thing with that of the heart. You have to do it for the fear of God, you understand? So there are situation situations where forceful jihad is necessary. Okay, for example, let me give you an example now, I live in the University environment and there was a time the MSS came to forcefully now they started demonstrating that certain things must change in the University here because it is the northern part of Nigeria and their culture, they are not used to seeing certain nudities like that, people dressing half naked things like that. You can see in the university environment now the dressing, there is dress code ehn, it was that forceful jihad been embarked by the MSS as of then ehn it is not by fight, they did fight but forceful in the sense that they force it, they demonstrated ehn, they made sure the university adopted such policies to stop nudity in school. So that is also a good situation where forceful jihad is necessary and you see in school at least there is certain highest level of modesty in school unlike those days where you see people dressing half naked all in the name of freedom of dressing and association, is not good for the society. You find out that young girls grow up to be nude ehn to be very spoiled instead of embarking in reasonable productive aspect of their life of, their human or life of the Nigerian. They rather engage in, you know, the nude aspect and in those days you find out that graduate are prostitute and this is where it starts, you understand where am going to? I am telling you the effect now of that kind of practices. You find like in those days you see graduate from polytechnic, universities where you go to their whole house, graduates are prostitutes. So it is not fair on the society and it is not fair on the girls themselves. So is in that aspect the forced jihad in that, of that time, really brought changes even in the university and now the environments close to, the communities close to the university...

ZA7 [8940-9416]

Yes. It is necessary because I think some of the jihad they need to be forcefully imposed on people very necessarily especially when it involves crimes like maybe when somebody steals you cut off is hands and maybe when somebody sleeps with somebody else's wife you kill that person or when somebody kill another person you kill that person,. So you see if these laws are set, even any government and any society, this will go a long way in eliminating any corrupt practices.

ZA8 [12109-14169]

Hmm I don't think forceful jihad is necessary. The only thing is there are laws in every society. There are laws, if you do this don't break the law, these are the laid down rules. For a Muslim, we have our, there is what we call the constitutional law or whatsoever the country is going about. Now according to the Muslims, it is believed that no matter who you are, whether a Christian or a Muslim, you must first of all abide by the rule governing that country or the state. Number two, your religion, in Islam we have our laid down religion from God. That this is how you will do your things, don't do this, don't do that, if you do this that is the punishment, if you do that, that is the punishment. Now Islam, according to our scholars, they say you are allowed as a Muslim to follow all constitutional law provided it does not go against your religious law with God because constitutional law are made by men, this is a law from God. So which one are you supposed to follow more? So this is what they think that if you are following a constitutional law and is going against, you are not to follow a constitutional law so far is going against that of Islamic law. But you are allowed to follow any law so far, like for instance, let me give you an instance, no religion accepts gayism, isn't that so? Now they are trying to pass a bill to legalize gay in US, you know this will now be a constitution law, a constitutional law in Nigeria. Now a Muslim is not supposed to agree with that because this does not go in conformity with what God is says because no religion allows that and it is a law. So you don't tell me and say because it is a constitution, it's a constitutional law, you must abide by it while it goes against what your religion is talking about. So this is what I think. It is a law, it depends on which law you are following. So far it does not go against that of what your religion say because every religion has their own constitutional, their own religious laws, so far is not going against your religious law, I think it is okay.

ZA9 [9878-9905]

Yes, yes. I agree with it.

ZA10 [11598-12348]

Actually before now during, let's go back to during the time of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) when he migrated from Medina to Mecca, he actually did the jihad, he sent for their king, he sent the message of God to them, he sent the message of God to the king asking him to accept Islam, to stop those their believe, to stop that their worship of idols several times, so when he got revelation that he have to like make a step, a step ahead, so that was when he went and he broke the idols. Jihad does not really mean you make it forceful to someone, but in some situations there are some things you have to, may be you take one step ahead, what I mean by one step ahead does not really mean killing the person, but you show a little action than words.

ZA11 [9851-10129]

Well that depends on the degree of which the atrocities and has come to. If the corruption and atrocities have come and it is highly deviated from the practice of Islam and you see due to that action, the wrath of Allah will be and people will face calamities. I agree to that.

ZA12 [5890-6161]

I think in Islam, sharia in particular, has rules. That is if you steal then they measure it to some certain points, if it is up to that, maybe they say they cut one of your arm. If you do it again, so if they should follow it, I think it will eliminate so many things.

ZA13 [5508-5529]

Uhhmm no. I don't.

ZA14 [4682-4966]

No sir because there is nothing like forceful this thing because you can't force anybody, you can force a horse to the river, but you can't force him to drink the water. Automatically you can't be forceful in everything that you are doing somebody have to obey and keep on doing it.

ZA15 [9667-9705]

No because you call it forceful jihad.

ZA16 [5902-5905]

No.

ZA17 [4760-4765]

No.

ZA18 [7016-7066]

No. me I don't agree with this honestly speaking.

ZA19 [9515-10026]

Well actually what was obtainable during the reign of prophet (SAW) and what we have at present, differs. Looking at social, political and economic changes, well actually forceful jihad is not quite necessary in eliminating corrupt and un-Islamic preachings or practices, but rather to my own opinion telling people about the good and the bad, the lawful and unlawful part of the practices which they were involved, I think is the most necessary and achievable means of actually eradicating corrupt practices.

ZA20 [4786-5160]

By your research content what do you define the word jihad? By Islamic concept jihad means the act of calling people to Islam just like da'wa. If your question now is in correlation with that then Islam is all about peace. But if it is going by the western definition, that is violence, terrorism, extremism, fundamentalism, you know, that one is different. It is un-Islamic

ZA21 [6610-6997]

No it is not the forceful way. We said you can force a horse to river but you can never force such a horse to drink water. That entails you can only say that somebody should come to your religion by doing good deeds, by preaching your religion and as well showing that person care, love and concern. That is the only way. I suppose, you can make somebody convert to your religion.

ZA22 [6338-6663]

No. I don't agree because by the time you force people to do things atimes that is when you are there or when you have the power. By the time power leaves that person that enforces the people they will leave it. The best way is to continue to teach them so that they understand willingly what Allah really wants them to do.

ZA23 [10149-10247]

To the best of my understanding to force jihad for you to correct anything I disagree with that.

ZA24 [12374-12734]

No it is not correct. Forceful jihad is not necessary to eliminate corrupt. They war I understood the question we cannot use forceful jihad because Nigeria has its own constitution and since we are in Nigeria now we can use the Nigerian constitution to bring anybody that is a corrupt leader to book. And again we cannot use jihad to force anybody to Islam.

ZA25 [11169-11561]

This position is incorrect especially by using the word forceful. Al-Qur'an is very clear that la iqra ha fid din that there is no compulsion in religion. So the most potent the most powerful instrument of Islam and Muslims is reasoned well reasoned and logical preaching and practice, exemplary practice as I have just said, but forceful jihad it is not just unnecessary it is impractical.

ZA26 [5925-6006]

No Islam does not support attacking someone at all unless if someone attacks you

ZA27 [3978-4149]

Yes repeat the question again (question repeated) No there is nothing like forceful jihad in Islam because prophet Muhammad (SAW) did not fight anybody but he revenged.

ZA28 [12244-12479]

Well jihad itself there are, based on my own understanding, there are things that make jihad necessary and you cannot force somebody into a religion. There is no force in religion. Everybody has his own belief as God has ordained it.

ZA29 [20199-20557]

Well a forceful jihad like you say is necessary to eliminate corrupt and unislamic practices yes it is very correct. A forceful strive or a forceful act or a forceful approach let me use it this way, forcefully, a forceful approach is very necessary especially where Islam is practiced well to eliminate any unislamic act and practices yes it is very true.

ZA30 [25489-25705]

I have answered this one before because these questions are related. I said when people they stick to a good character, and also do the right thing, so, may be they will even carry gun or bomb to go and bomb people.

ZA31 [6764-7302]

So you see, jihad by definition, but some people are having bad view on jihad. What I know, jihad is total submission and follow what God says. But nowadays, there are some people that have, there are some people that have misconception about the name jihad. So now, if you say you impose jihad, people might think you are fighting them, you are forcing them to do or practice something that is part of your religion. So my suggestion is that everybody, you know, you should know how to do it, put things, if you want things to get good.

ZA32 [16016-17386]

Forceful jihad we can say it is not necessary, it is not necessary because if Allah wishes he can guide people by hearing or by preaching, by calling them to order, correcting them their mistakes. So to say that whether Islam or sacred books or books of prophets, sacred text agrees with you or with this opinion, as my opinion is that it is not necessary. I can say Qur'an, for example the Qur'an agrees with this my position. I say it is not necessary because even through preaching and correcting, through da'wa, good da'wa, the da'wa that is mentioned in Suratul Yusuf where Allah said (he recites the verse of the Qur'an). Da'wa with good manners, with good preaching, with wisdom, through that, if Allah wishes can change the corrupt or uncorrupted, can change un-Islamic practices to what, to Islamic practices and ah so also Allah said no compulsion in religion, you have to not to force anyone, you are not expected to force anyone to be a Muslim, and also you are not expected to force, to compel anybody to what, to change his way of living or to change his un-Islamic practice to what, to Islamic way, you are not expected. I mention earlier that until when the peace is violated between you and him, if he is trying to wage a war against you, so you can stand, you can defend yourself, you can respond for your defense, for self defense, that is how it is.

ZA35 [5216-5421]

It is not correct, is not correct and it is un-Islamic because even Allah (SBUH) himself has said Islam is a free religion, it is a peaceful religion, you don't force anyone into it, they join willingly.

ZA36 [10099-10997]

Toh just as I said before, the prophet did not use that. So we are not supposed to use it too to force somebody into something, you know, let me just give you an example, when I got married I was brought here from Kano to this place, I lived in Kano, so when I got married 17years ago I use veil and my co wives were even surprised because some where even making jest of me that they use hijab and I use veil, he did not prevent me, he said he cannot force me to do what my mind did not want to do, so he has left me, whenever I feel that I want to use hijab I should use it and 5years later after that I started using small hijabs and could you believe now recently I even don't feel comfortable in small hijabs, I feel more comfortable in long ones and nobody forced me, I just see that that is right. So if you allow somebody to use his own mind I think that one is better instead of forcing.

ZA36 [11291-11326]

Hmm I think it agrees, it agrees.

ZA37 [9617-10248]

Forceful jihad, there are some instances that this forceful jihad is necessary, but this is the last stage, this forceful jihad. Peaceful jihad is the first stage and many of the stages are peaceful as I said earlier, preaching, understanding, awareness and so on and so forth. This forceful jihad could arise if this corruption is trying to what, to overpower Islamic teaching and there is no way to solve it unless it. That is where forceful jihad arise, would come in and it has many conditions around it. It is not just like that for everyone to just decide to say I would go and fight this or that, it is not like that, yes.

ZA37 [10390-10510]

Yes if course there position because there are many text of the Qur'an and hadith, if time permits I can support some.

ZA38 [17283-17319]

It is not correct. Yah why won't it

ZA39 [20105-22324]

Actually forceful jihad is necessary when the condition warrants, like I said. There are conditions that make a Muslim to engage in jihad. If the conditions are satisfied, then he is doing it under the sharia system and there are conditions that do not warrant a Muslim to engage in jihad. Jihad is not only going to war, but even though the word forceful is used we are just taking it to be a jihad that warrants the use of arms. Isn't it? So to say that it is necessary to eliminate corrupt and un-Islamic practices, corrupt, from the word corrupt, corrupt is something that is having a negative impact on all human beings. I can say it is true. The idea of Islam is to embrace the way of life and do not cheat one another, do not do anything that would harm your brother be him a Muslim or non-Muslim, so if that is the case, it is true, but on the aspect of un-Islamic practices, un-Islamic practices does not mean that the practices of people with a common belief, with a belief, un-Islamic practices, what are these un-Islamic practices? Do we take un-Islamic practices as practicing of Christianity? Do we take un-Islamic practices as practicing of Judaism? So in the actual meaning of un-Islamic practices simply means that all practices that at injurious to human existence, all practices that are frowned at by Islam and these practices, don't forget, are normally or usually frowned at by both Christians and Jews because all the history of the religions originates from one source that is the prophet Abraham, Ibrahim (Sallallahu alayhis salam). So all the religions are channeling their origin to that respected man, so if that is the position and you hardly find, most of what Islam frowns at is what Christianity and Judaism frowns at. That is what we don't understand the meaning of un-Islamic practices. If un-Islamic practices are referring to practices that are frowned at naturally, I can say yes, but if the un-Islamic practices include the practicing of Christianity, I can say no because itself in Islam there is in the Qur'anic, a verse I mentioned earlier that there is no compulsion in religion. Then if there is no compulsion in religion, why will you subjugate me to submit to you own?

Th7.8: True Jihad and Multi-religious Freedom

FG1 [23702-23721]

No, it is not true

FG1 [23737-23852]

Because Islam is a religion of peace and Islam allows every religion to practice its own religion despite you know...

FG1 [23855-24134]

You can even take example during the time of the prophet there were non-Muslims and he didn't start with fight and jihad as other people used to say. He called them and he tried to make peace with them. It is when the peace could not be found it was when jihad was carried out.

KD1 [22873-24515]

That's not true. That's not true because even during prophet (SAW) time, when he was, he has already conquered, already had... to Mecca and he is, was seen as the leader in Medina, we still had non-Muslims, we still had the Jews, we still had the Christians, even his uncle died, his uncle died as non-Muslim. So you cannot say there is no more multi-religious freedom, that's not fair and that's misrepresentation of facts because all those people that existed because if not, they will have just cleared all of them or kill all of them. So that's not true because if that has been the case then we wouldn't have had non-Muslims during the prophet (SAW)'s time because towards the end of prophet (SAW)'s time, Islam has conquered almost the entire Arab Emirate, so yet we still had non-Muslims there. And that one would have meant that or perhaps there would not have been any necessities for missionary as in extending the work of Islam as in going out to teach people religion because everybody would have converted to Islam and it could have been left perhaps the responsibility of the father to keep on considering, just like a hereditary stuff, but that's not true. Islam actually encourages multi-religious society because that's when you actually appreciate that you are a Muslim not actually appreciated on the right track because when you see some other fetish things that some other religious actually do, and you see how your religion actually gives you that kind of leverage that kind of upper hand, and gives you a level of respect and value as a human being, then you actually value your religion better and respect God the more.

KD3 [7553-7761]

Yes, the position is correct, but the main word for like mostly, most people, even some of the Muslims understand the word Jihad as fighting, but the true meaning of jihad is striving for the cause of Allah.

KD4 [11750-12092]

Ha ha, this position is totally incorrect and I disagree with it. When you say that true jihad does not permit multi-religion. You mean that even in an Islamic state, there will not be other religions? I disagree with you because Islam always tolerate, it always accommodate other religion if only they can act under under the tenets of Islam.

KD5 [7116-7286]

No. It is not correct. True jihad will allow that because true jihad is only used at the right time and at the right place. It will not hinder freedom of multi-religion.

KD6 [17894-18641]

True jihad does not permit multi-religious freedom in an Islamic, I don't think so. In my own opinion because I tell, when Rasul (SAW) was still alive, he still lived with the Jews and the Christians and the Muslims. So, that time in Medina eh we have the Jews until they show him they were treacherous before he now fight them. He did not fight them, they were together even living together, but until they showed him that no, they wanted to kill him, he now said no, I will not allow you to do that to me. He now gave them time, but he did not even go and, he did not attack them like that, he told them point blank that is you have done this to me, I am coming for you. He did not say no, I will hide and, no, he told them, they now moved out.

KD7 [10561-10822]

No, it's not correct. It is not correct because during the time of the prophet (SAW), there were unbelievers, there were Jews, and they were left to practice their religion. They were left to practice their religion... but they existed within an Islamic society.

KD8 [21323-23166]

Jihad is an instrument of Islamizing people. It is an instrument that is Islamizing people in a situation whereby, instrument in the sense that, of Islamizing people in the sense that, like I said, you know there two dimensions to it or about three. The issue of fighting as you put it and then the issue of acquiring knowledge and preaching Islam and all that.

So, what did you say? That means different religion exist within a sharia state. It shall be a be a state, but when you say jihad does not allow that, in context of, well I cannot say it is true because jihad, in jihad you try to, in the context of war, you try to sometimes liberate yourself, when some people try to fight you because you just don't wage jihad on people unless they wage it on you. So, when it's like that and you wage it of course, you want everybody to convert, you want, if it is in that context that people are waging jihad on you and you also wage jihad on them and you happen to conquer them. Of course, you should not allow multi-religious existence, you understand. Yes, but I don't want us to be looking at jihad from the context of the negative fighting whatever. But remember, jihad has been distorted, the meaning has been distorted either mischievously or you know in some other ways because there has been like Crusade, Christian Crusade when they killed Muslims, you know all this Italy, what they call them. All these, many of these, you know, European countries were Muslims before the crusade and it was after the crusade, during the crusade that people were killed like that. So, if you want to be using that mischievously, you can say it is the jihad of the Christians, you understand, in fact, when, after the September, 11, Bush, I think Bush Jr. said they are going to wage crusade on the Muslims, but he was cautioned, so he stopped that.

KD9 [13529-14277]

It is not correct. When we have, if I quite understand the question, after jihad and you have an Islamic state, definitely what we wish for is for us to have an Islamic state that is dominated by Muslims, but situation where you have non-Muslims that have refused to accept Islam, you are not supposed to ah kill them because that is the idea now or throw them out, as long they accept to stay and to pay jizya and to abide by the rules and regulations of Islam of the sharia state, they've agree to pay tax, they've agree to behave themselves, they will not cause trouble, they will not fight you, they will fight against you, helping others to fight against you and so on and so forth, then of course they are allowed to say in sharia countries.

KD10 [7776-8425]

Ah you know, if there is an Islamic state now, an Islamic state whereby we are being governed by Qur'an and Sunna, you see it is only Islam, but they will not force them to, they will not force them to should embrace Islam. But they will not allow them to build their place of worship and to be doing their worship publicly, but they can be doing their own worship in their own apartment without exposing it. Are you getting me? That is that. So in an Islam state there could be Christians, there could be Muslims, but they are not going to be allow those Jews, those Christians to build a place of worship and to be making their worship publicly.

KD12 [14946-15533]

Aye (laughing) it does not accept multi-religion? Ah yes, yes, multi-religion ahh no, no, no, no it is not accepted because in Medina too when the prophet said, when the prophet came there, so he met people like Jews, the Christians, the Israelites there even the churches that are there, the prophet does not say they should go and destroy the churches or anything or the idol areas. See even the prophet called them see we are going to live happily as a community, so we go to war together, we maintain the security of the town, we do every health affairs of the community together.

KD13 [5306-5515]

It's wrong, it is wrong because even when the prophet Muhammad (SAW) conquered Mecca it wasn't everybody that became Muslim, he left some people under their own religion and to the protections of the Muslims.

KD14 [6994-7341]

You said the saying that true jihad does not permit multi-religion in an Islamic state. In any place or a particular community that is called an Islamic state, you rarely find a Christian there. 99.9% of people there are Muslims, so there is no reason for multi-religious freedom. So you see them, most of them, close to 100% of them are Muslims.

KD16 [5191-5214]

No, it is not correct

KD17 [17359-18022]

No, it is not. Just as I said earlier, during the time of the prophet (SAW), the Jews and the Christians, you understand, the Jews and the Christians they practice their religion. They have the freedom to practice their religion. They have their synagogue and they have their churches. Up till now, go to the Middle East, those churches are still there, those synagogues are still there. Go to Palestine. Go to Israel, they are still there. It was not touched and the prophet (SAW) says those things should not be touched, those holy places. So why are you telling me that eh true jihad does not allow freedom for religion? It does. It allows freedom of religion.

KD18 [9530-9921]

It is not, even though when the prophet of Islam was eh is alive, when he was alive, he lived with non-Muslims and there was a peace then, they are, there is nothing like a conflict when he was alive and he practiced jihad and he even tried to convert some non-Muslims to, I mean through his eh his behaviour and habits, so many people converted to Islam and without fighting. That is all.

KD19 [12944-13373]

Ah multi-religious freedom, if I understand you question very well that means the freedom to do whatever you like among the different religions, no, true jihad does not permit that true jihad means you be a complete Muslim. So it is not possible for you that you are a Muslim but a true Muslim and you are engaged in acts that are un-Islamic like maybe engaging in things that Christians do, so true jihad does not permit that.

KD20 [7135-7628]

It's not correct because jihad does not, jihad does not, jihad permits some other religions to the Islam and non-Muslims can stay together, even though while we are jihadist, you understand, we can stay together without fighting, as I said earlier, that jihad is when you are trying to make efforts, when we are trying to strive to try to, to mobilise other people to let the people know about our religion it is not through the weapon and all these killing habits. I hope you have noted it?

KD21 [7667-7855]

It is not correct. Still in Saudi we still have practicing non-Christians, in the Egypt we still have the Coptic Christians and I still believe they still practice Islamic sharia over there.

KD23 [7897-7936]

Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes it is correct.

KD24 [28389-30206]

No. I did get you right, but the way I understand the question let me answer it the way I understand it. An Islamic state if you are a Muslim and ah you are the majority then other people are allowed to sit within that environment only that they have to make sure it is not that they must follow the way you live, the mode of your life, no, but you the Muslims you have some certain conducts that even though you will not practice our religion, but you should make sure you maintain such things, for example, mode of dressings, don't bring out your hair open because it is not our own conduct. Don't open your body in the sense that where you are opening is not good, for example, for small children to see and even the matured people because it may turn their thinking, thinking of other things, their hearts can easily be diverted from, so Muslims multi-religion things like that, you can sit under the umbrella of Muslims, but even though you will not follow the religion, they will allow you, it is allowed, but there are some certain things that you make sure that you follow them and those things, they will make sure, the Muslims, they will make sure that those things that they will tell you that make sure you safeguard, take care of such conducts. Don't present them out to us. They will make sure that in your own religion that is how they are, just for example, opening hair in Christianity, a woman is said to close her hair, closing part of the body tight things like that in Christianity you are, she is allowed to she has forced or asked to close her thighs things like that. They will make sure that they will even turn you back to your own religion okay practice your religion when you are sitting with us, we are not practicing our own but practice your own the way it is supposed to be practiced.

KD25 [41608-43825]

Yes you see in as much as a jihad is the is the real jihad that Islam encourages, you understand, now Islam is a religion of justice and so it gives everybody his or her right whether a Muslim or not a Muslim, but by saying multi-religions freedom, what do you mean? Of course eh apart from Islam there are other regions, but to us our religion is our religion since Allah says (he recites in Arabic) the only religion with Allah is Islam and Allah went on in another verse and said (he recites in Arabic) that anybody that ah should refuse to embrace Islam, and continue to be on his eh infidel stand that ah it will not be accepted of him on the day of judgment he is going to eh Allah is going to ah disallow him from entering into paradise ah torture him, so ah by this it so mean that ah Islam, not that even permit, but Islam ordered the Muslims to be just, not amongst themselves alone even between them and the non Muslims just where a non-Muslim is on the right, right? And the Muslim is on the wrong, what Allah said is that it should be maintained like that not for you to say since I am a Muslim and that person is not a Muslim I don't care whether he is right of wrong with no, no, no, if you do that then it is injustice, so when you talk of multi-religious eh practices apart from Islam, of course they have their rights to do that, but what we will not accept is when the state is completely Islamic, now for somebody who is not a Muslim to continue to be in the state practicing his own religion, but refusing to give out, refusing to ah to embrace Islam and refusing to give out the levy, then in that case you should fight him. But if he says he is not going to accept Islam, of course Allah says la iqra ha fid din, there is no compulsion to religion, you as a Muslim should not force somebody to accept Islam, but you are at, you are at opportunity, you are at opportunity to sell the religion, you can only sell religion to him, if he so wishes to accept Islam that is another thing, but not for you to force him. So if that is maintained that means everybody should be given equal rights to practice his religion in as much as he does not ah poke nose into the affairs of the Muslims in Islam.

KD26 [10106-10186]

I don't get the multi-religious here. Yes to some certain extent, it is true.

KD27 [9095-9098]

No

KD28 [14355-14744]

Well in an Islamic state, you cannot force a multi-religious freedom in an Islamic state, if really it is an Islamic state, you know the constitution in an Islamic state since if we are dealing with Islamic constitution, you have the right for an individual and any foreign religion that will come into that state in the understanding that yes this one is contrary to what we are after.

KD29 [7910-8070]

It is incorrect. Ah Islam does not teach us to use force for one to live with Muslims you can share a different faith and be protected under an Islamic state.

KD30 [13385-13571]

No, ahm I think during the time of the holy prophet, there are people that are not Muslims under Islamic state under the watch of the holy prophet, so I think I will disagree with this.

KD31 [10244-10532]

It doesn't, it doesn't because there is no how a single child will belong to two different fathers, it's not possible. What I'm saying from a mother a single mother a child two fathers cannot claim that yes everybody owns that child and the you expect to have a peaceful atmosphere yes.

KD33 [9960-10486]

no, it's not correct, it's not correct, it's not correct because in ah in ah as we, if we go back to Islamic history, we will see Islamic state as that they live together with non-Muslims, they, everybody feel free to practice his religion without any without any abuse or attack even now if we go to some of the Islamic state, for instance, Saudi Arabia, there are some people, non-Muslims; living there freely and practicing their religion freely. So, I don't believe that jihad doesn't permit eh Islamic religion freedoms.

KD34 [10450-10476]

Is not, is not correct.

KN1 [26428-27072]

(laughs) if anybody mentions that one I would say he does not know the history of Islam, yes, because I would like you to go back to history because of the time and space and the something we would not have enough time, but I would like you to go back to the history of Egypt and Islam in Egypt, what was the relationship then between the Caliph of Islam the second Caliph of the Prophet of Islam Umar (radiyallahu ta ala) how he relates to the non-Muslims and equally how did the prophet relate with the Jews in Medina while he was alive. So if somebody has the history and knows how the relationship was, am sure he will not utter that one.

KN2 [16722-17304]

No. I don't agree because there were several religions that prospered under the auspices of the prophet during his time. And at one time he was narrated to have been a neighbor to non-Muslims. A neighbor does not mean they are sharing the same fence but within the same neighborhood. And you know if you are within the same neighborhood with a person you are likely to meet every now and then. And those people were living their lives comfortably during his time and nobody said they should convert to Islam and they were allowed to practice their religion. So that is not correct.

KN4 [23139-23368]

It is not. True Jihad does not permit multi-region or multi-religious freedom in Islamic state. Islam, in Islam there is no force, you can force somebody to join Islam. Everybody can practice his own religion. Is that correct.

KN5 [9861-10120]

No it is not as practices would have been made during prophet (SAW) you have the Yahuds, you have the Christians, you have Jews, you have different forms of beliefs during the prophet (SAW) and he has not forced them and there was true jihad during his time.

KN6 [9750-9777]

Is incorrect, is incorrect

KN7 [10078-10131]

Hmm, it is not, it is not, it is not, yes it is not.

KN8 [8238-8521]

I think it is wrong. The reason is that the-even tracing it from the source, constitution of every state, there is liberty for freedom, liberty to lead, and then Islam does not preach violence. In fact, the word Islam itself is peace, so it tolerates everybody to live and to exist.

KN9 [9083-9486]

Well, it depends on what the true jihad actually means. You see, jihad I know doesn't permit multi-religions, but there are certain instances where even during jihad there are specific distinctions as to how to treat the non-believers and ah how to accommodate non-believers during jihad. So I want to believe there is a portion of jihad that definitely accommodates the non-Muslims or the unbelievers.

KN10 [7666-7800]

Ahm, no of course no, because Islam give chance to other religions to perform their ah worship or whatever pertaining to the religion.

KN11 [10680-11473]

No, I even Qur'an contradicts this because Quran says la iqra ha fid din. And even the life time of prophet (SAW) we know some were not converted to Islam and the prophet made a good relationship with them. So even in Hadith or in Islam, there are so many hadith that prophet (SAW) lived with non-Muslims, and he didn't fight with them and he even warn anybody who will kill dhimmi, dhimmi means a person who promise not to fight with Muslims that is dhimmi and he promised that he will not fight Muslim and he promised to pay tax that is Jizya. So prophet (SAW) warned the Muslims if one of them kill this dhimmi, he will not enter the kingdom of Allah that is he will not enter the paradise. That is the teaching of the founder of Islam that is Prophet Mohammed (SAW). So this is not true.

KN13 [10301-10321]

Yes, it is correct.

KN14 [8755-8863]

Ahhh, I don't I don't have any reasons that I can defend myself, I don't want to answer the question that.

KN15 [9677-9913]

Yeah, this statement absolutely is not correct because in Islam, multi-religious freedom is permitted, even during the time of ah our holy prophet Muhammad (SAW) there is multi-religious freedom, so I think it is permitted even nowadays

KN16 [5066-5154]

No, it is permit, multi-religious freedom a state even during the life of prophet (SAW).

KN17 [10754-10773]

Yeah its correct.

KN18 [17619-18016]

It's not correct because I said during the reign of the prophet Muhammad, he recognized the ahl kitab okay, he recognized them they lived under the Islamic state, they were protected. The Jews, they were paying jizya, were given protection, were given all sorts of ah all sorts of ah a kind of ah support where needed and there are even inter-marriages you can even marry from them, so it is not.

KN19 [13820-13839]

Yes it is correct

KN20 [6409-6442]

No no no I don't agree with that.

KN21 [4584-4595]

Incorrect

KN22 [9218-9237]

It is not correct.

KN23 [7407-7454]

Yah I will agree, I take sides with the person

KN23 [7567-7588]

No it is not correct

KN24 [7408-7423]

Yes it correct

KN25 [8920-9132]

Well multi-religious system could exist but only with caution. The non-believers have to be given a laid down rules and specifications as to what not to do and what not to do within the confine of Islamic state.

KN25 [9168-9227]

There should be restrictions, there has to be restrictions

KN26 [8274-8564]

I can't say categorically this is something a bit tactical but is coming back to what I said much earlier once you have a state where it is being co-habited by both Muslims and non-Muslims the rights of non-Muslims must, must, as being stated by the book, must be protected and respected.

KN27 [8753-9130]

It is. It is in one sense and it is not because when jihad is in place, it tends to eliminate every other practices, religious practices and tend to make Islam the dominant religious practice. So in one way it is and in the other way it is impossible for a state to exist totally, there is no state one earth that single religious practice exists. So in the other way it is not

KN28 [6759-6812]

Ah it is not correct. I believe it is not correct.

KN30 [8402-8941]

Even when the prophet (SAW) was alive, there are non-Muslims. There are non-Muslims where he was, so maybe the only people that maybe might be easily allowed to stay is those that are not worshipping anything. But during the time of the prophet there were Christians, you understand, there were Christians, there are Jews. So they stayed together, even there are, even the companions of the prophet (SAW) they had neighbors who are not Muslims and they shared things in life. If they go to market and buy from them and they sell to them.

KN31 [9730-9742]

Yes correct

KN32 [3168-3179]

Not at all

KN33 [3481-3502]

No it is not correct

KN34 [4351-4500]

No it is not because when you look at under Islamic state there are so many religions that or so many people that are practicing their own religion.

KN35. [6629-6631]

No

KN36 [6052-6235]

No because even in the time of rasulu (SAW) we lived with non-Muslims in his own domain and they take care of their rights without any dictatorship or tarnishing the image of others.

KN37 [5594-5917]

It depends with the kind of state. It depends on the kind of state, like Nigeria being a secular state; you cannot just come and say that because in Kano state we have a sharia system of government that we shouldn't allow multi-religious practice. I think it just depends on the nature of the constitution of the country.

KN38 [3927-3945]

No it's not true.

KN39 [4575-4588]

No actually.

KN40 [7621-7814]

No because jihad is not meant for fighting, but rather to just follow the will or what the God said in the holy Qur'an by calling someone who is wrong or by trying to put someone in a good way.

KN41 [5038-5136]

Actually this is not absolutely true because as I said earlier there is no compulsion in religion

KN42 [8002-8042]

It is not, the position is not correct.

KN43 [11297-12065]

No it is not correct. If you go to Saudi Arabia there are no Muslims. From the time of the prophet up to the twenty-first century, if you go to the last Islamic empire, that is the Ottoman Empire, there were a number of non-Muslims and they were given freedom to practice their religions. So is it not multi-religious freedom? I don't know what people mean by multi-religious freedom. There is no way a state can exist with people who are hundred over hundred Muslims; you must have some pocket of non-Muslims who are allowed to practice their religion. Even in the Sokoto caliphate, during the ehh, life time of Sheu Usman Dan Fodio, we have a number of Hausa non-Muslims and they were given freedom to practice their religion. Is that not a multi-religious freedom?

KN44 [6794-7189]

You see part of the problem of some of this question is they seems to have taken a position and eh I don't like ah, answering a question that has taken the position, even the word true jihad has to be explained. I don't really know what is meant by true jihad. So unless the term true jihad is defined in the question, I don't really think I will be in a good position to answer that question.

KN45 [6681-7518]

No, it is not correct, Islam is a universal religion but ehh, it is all encompassing yes. In Islamic state Christians have lived peacefully in the Muslim Spain before in Sicily and the even the prophet himself have lived with non-Muslims in Medina, especially with the Jews and there was a time when the Christians visited him and he even gave them the mosque, the mosque where he used to pray, he and his companions to do a Sunday service in the church. So this is not part of Islam, Islam is very tolerant to other religions and it is a God decree after all that there must be ehh, people of the other faith: Christians, Muslims. Maybe if God have decided for all the world to be Muslims, then all of us, all of the world would be of one faith but ahh logically God make the world the way it is now and we must live together in peace.

KN46 [10393-10765]

No, this is very untrue because it contradicts the practice of the prophet (SAW). This is not what was obtained in Medina, in the Medinan society during the lifetime of prophet (SAW). There were - Medina was multi-religious society when the prophet (SAW) migrated. He even ah made efforts to make it like so. So it is not true that ah the ass, what the assertion implies.

KN47 [16260-17329]

Well no. There is the peaceful coexistence between Muslim and non-Muslim even in Islamic societies. You see if you just look at the time of the sahaba, there are, they lived with non-Muslims, they survive with them you know, there were many challenges yes as you know what do you call it, as fellow citizens of the state, but yet the people try to manage themselves, try to manage themselves, try to be tolerant, you understand, and there is also a guideline from there, the religious guideline for them to become patient enough to, you know, practice the religion, to live together with them without any harassment, to live in harmony and that is why we say Islam is a religion of peace because you, Islam teach you, Islam teaches you to become what, to become tolerant, you understand, to imbibe others to caution them, to admonish them and to at the end of the day win them into your religion by exhibiting a good habit. If you exhibit a good habit, then somebody will be attracted by this behavior and come and accept your religion that is what Islam is all about.

KN48 [5586-5709]

Its not correct because during the time of Muhammad (SAW) he lived with different groups with different religious beliefs.

KN49 [9691-10066]

Actually people that are not Muslims; atheist ahm idol worshippers ahm monotheists and ahh maybe other forms of worship are allowed to exist and to live within an Islamic state. Fundamentally, they can coexist within the Islamic state in as much as they do not impede the program ehh the the progress of the din and inasmuch as they do not pose a threat to Islam as a whole.

KN50 [5189-5351]

Ah, this is not true because during the prophet Muhammad (SAW) there are multiple religions and they lived peacefully with ah with one another. This is not true.

KN51 [36693-38081]

No. This is a wrong position. It is not correct, is incorrect because Islam allows what we refer to as multi-religious ok, multi-ethnic, multi-everything state. During the lifetime of prophet Muhammad (SAW) we understand that the prophet (SAW) lived together with the Jews, he lived together with the Christians and there was no attempt on his side to compel anybody to accept Islam. no none of them. And he lived with them, most of them peacefully except those who plotted against him, but he lived peacefully. That was why Sturvey was saying he never, Muhammad never now fight them on account of religion, no. He never fought them on account of religion, no on account of something else. They were plotting against him, they wanted him killed because of that he had to defend himself (SAW). So therefore, the idea of multi-religious country is there in Islam, in fact it was even introduced, started by Muhammad (SAW) in Medina ok. Therefore, those multi, multi things, whatever it is, it is there in Islam. We allow people, we allow religions, we allow systems, we allow ideology to exist and together with Islam. We allow them to exist together with Islam hand in hand, we allow them, we give them equal right, equal right so this is a very wrong position and I think the people who have this in mind, they have a wrong misconception. This is a misconception about Islamic teaching.

KN52 [11278-11297]

It is not correct

KN53 [7287-7600]

To my own understanding, I believe it is not correct in Islam because in Islamic state where the Jews, Christians and other religion lives, you understand what I am saying, in it; where they live as in residing in a particular residence they should all live in harmony as in living in peace without any problem.

KN55 [4365-4376]

It allows.

KN56 [5610-5840]

No. This is not correct. True jihad permits multi-religious freedom in an Islam state why because even in the time of prophet Muhammad (SAW), they lived side by side with people that are not Muslims and they lived harmoniously

KN57 [6664-6673]

Yes, yes

KN58 [17043-17165]

Yah. There is nothing or there is no such thing as multi-religion. As Muslims you only believe in the teachings of Islam.

KN59 [11282-11486]

Based on my own understanding it is not correct considering that during the prophet's time there were non-Muslims and he related with them, he stayed with them in peace. So I do not agree with this one.

KN60 [15490-15509]

It is not correct.

KN61 [5435-5479]

In my own understanding, it is not correct.

KN62 [20242-20649]

True jihad does not permit multi-religious freedom in an Islamic state, true jihad does not permit multi-religious freedom, yah, yah true jihad does not permit multi-religious freedom in an Islamic state. Multi-religious, it means you are not true Muslim if you are putting two religions, three religions together. So I think that ah Islam is described as a total submission to God, yah that is how it is.

KN63 [20450-21015]

Is not correct. Is not correct because even during the time of the prophets, Christians were there, Christians lived with him in the same community. They existed together and they, they do go, they do strive and why don't they kill those Christians or maybe they tell them that if you did not convert we are killing you? Is not. Islam allows everybody to practice his religion, understand, and there is no compulsion in Islam. If they want to do Islam, good and fine, but for you to now force them so that they kill you because of that is not, is not, is not true.

KN64 [8466-8656]

No. Multi-religious in Islam is ah you can ehh you can live with other people, other religions, but you, they must respect your religion. This is what Islam says. They must respect Islam.

KN65 [12365-12388]

No, it is not correct.

KN66 [5096-5764]

To some extent it is not necessarily correct, that is what I believe. Does not permit a multi-religious freedom in Islam, that is the question, to my own understanding, this is true, jihad does not permit multi-religious freedom because Islam is a religion that you have to believe in one God and his messenger, that is part of the pillars, that is one of the main pillars of Islam so from this pillar, you will know that there is no way a true jihad will permit you, a permit you for multi-religious freedom. There is no way.

KN67 [6468-6701]

No it is not correct because even during the Prophet Muhammad's era, there are so many people that were not Muslims and they lived with him in Medina. So I think many religions or different religions can coexist together with Islam.

KN68 [3184-3186]

No

KN69 [12903-13759]

Yes, this position is correct in Islam to the fact that Islam being a particular society in an Islamic state, it does not mean that non-Muslim is not allowed to live in that particular society but it must make sure that, that particular non-Muslim must make sure that he followed the laid down principle as provided by the Islamic state. There are some freedom which is expected or which are expected, there are some freedom which are expected by non-Muslim to be enjoyed in an Islamic state. However, there are restrictions in relation to that effect. Like to say that a non-Muslim has a right to live, right to make his transactions, dealings with other Muslims in an Islamic state but it is not allowed for a non-Muslim to propagate or to propagate some other religion other than Islam. I think this is the limitations, this is one of the limitations.

KN71 [20750-21518]

Is not, is not because I always refer you back to the era of the prophet (SAW) which is our mirror. I told you now that there were no Muslims in Medina and the even after the conquering of Mecca, were there no non-Muslims inside the city of Mecca? There were and even when Islam conquered the whole of Jazeera, were there no non-Muslims in the whole of al-Jazeera? There were. Even in the caliphate of Shehu Usmanu bin Fodio, were there no non-Muslims? There were. In fact, Islam allows them to live so that the world should know Islam means peace and justice la iqra ha fid din. All what we need is having an accord with the non-Muslims that yes we would live in peace. We would not violate any Islamic law and we would be allowed the freedom to do our own religion.

KN72 [12689-13080]

No, no. No it is not because when we look at the prophet's ehh life, he lived with the non-Muslims while his companions or his people are practicing Islam. So this means or this implies that yes the jihad is does not means or does not ehh hinder or eh prevent multi-religious in the society because in Islam there is freedom of religious practice since Allah (SBUH) says la iqra ha fid din.

KN73 [12954-12977]

No, it is not correct.

KN74 [21990-22057]

Ahh in fact I am not, this is, this is not true, this is not true.

KN74 [22133-22221]

Yes, yes, in an Islamic state yes, there is multi-religious freedom in an Islamic state.

KN75 [23283-23315]

Is not correct, is not correct.

KN76 [14985-15111]

It is not correct because the prophet (SAW) lived in Medina with Jews and they were given freedom to practice their religion.

KN78 [18219-19222]

When you say true jihad, for instance, we cannot have a better Islamic society than the past Muhammad (SAW)'s era and of course there were other the non-Muslims that were tolerated. They were allowed to practice their own religion, yah and there are so many instances you can cite, in fact I think I remember briefly, let me give you this briefly, when they said ahh there was a case where ahh Muslims told, I think one of the. from the, one of the ahh Buddhists, one of the ahh ahh after the jihad, I think ahh there was a case of a Muslim who stole from that item, ahh that were, that were kept and ahh it was kept, when investigation started, he ahh ahh he kept that particular thing he stole in the house of a Jew and when that was discovered, I think, there was a whole verse trying to defend the Jew that he was not responsible for that. So you can see the level of tolerance in Islam. So I think, for me, ahh in a multi-religious society, of course there is a freedom, yah under an Islamic state

KN79 [9773-10042]

No. Even the Jews had their own worshiping place during the lifetime of the prophet Muhammad (SAW). hmm and therefore, prophet Muhammad (SAW) was the first person who constituted a government that include non-Muslims and that ah government gave multi-religious freedom.

KN80 [17488-17755]

So according to Islam perspective ahh yes of course, but according to Islam, it is permissible for other religions to operate within the Islamic state or Muslim community. But those ahh religions should not temper with Islamic rights or whatever protected by Islam.

KN81 [10308-10475]

No. It is not correct in Islam because Islamic Islam permit multi-religious practice. So going and read Islamic history, you can see a lot of things. You get the point

KN82 [13293-13332]

This position I may say is incorrect.

KN83 [8004-8153]

No. Islam permits multi-religious practice. Go and read Islamic history and what constituted life in Medina charter during the life of holy prophet.

KN85 [8087-8306]

No. This is not correct in any way. We have seen during the time of the prophet and the rightly guided Caliphs, there were Jewish and Christians in Medina coexisting ahh ahh with the Muslims, therefore, is not correct.

ZA1 [11430-11448]

It isn't correct.

ZA2 [7589-8764]

Ahhh no. It is not correct, even when go back to Islam in totality even for the prophet (SAW) I think he stayed with those who are non-Muslims. So they lived together and he gave them their legal rights. So you when you say that is not the issue of staying together, they will not stay no, no, no issue of staying together doesn't deprive your rights. You see just let me give you more of that, there is during the life time of the prophet as the history came that during the prophet himself he had a neighbor who whenever he sweep his environment, he dumped up the dirty to the prophet's surrounding, so often he does this, the prophet will come out when he see this, he pack it and go and dump it outside, he will go and drop it away. So time comes as you said. he couldn't see this a day come he couldn't see this rubbishes been thrown to his compound, he said ah what is wrong he followed up to see this he said this testifies to me I am doing what is wrong. This man have converted, so this is what Islam is teaching, be good, when you are good people who will come along with you, So you know if you are fighting, it is not fighting no, no, no it is your presentation.

ZA3 [10349-10680]

It is not because even during the time of prophet (SAW), there were Jews and Christians that were living in Medina at that time and even come to the agreement and set out rules on how they could live together. So until such a time that they reneged on their agreement that prophet (SAW) was asked to eject them out of the Medina.

ZA4 [24731-24858]

Yes, if there is true jihad, yes true teaching and understanding to prevent all the multi, all the multi-ideologies in Islam.

ZA5 [13720-13725]

No.

ZA6 [27276-30215]

Ahhh no, its not correct because, you know, in fact true jihad that is sharia, let me correct this, true jihad that is what, in this aspect now you are talking about, sharia, Islamic state where sharia is being practiced, now to my understanding ehn sharia, under sharia, every religion has its freedom of religious association. You have the right to practice your religion under sharia, in fact more than any other government. During the time of the prophet, the Jews and the Christians, they lived under his regime and they were happy and there was no compulsion in religion. The prophet Muhammad (SAW) he never forced anybody to be a Muslim, to join is religion and he told them, he made it vividly clear that none of his followers should force anybody to convert to Islam, everybody has the right to pursue is religion, but try and be just to them, try and be good. If he sees anything good in your religion, he will come that is where the justice comes in, that is where the jihad comes in now. Try and be good to yourself and to the non-Muslims. Try and be just ehm just to them and you will see them coming to, to want to know your religion better. So there is no compulsion in religion that is their this thing of our, that is a saying of the Qur'an, of God. There is no compulsion in religion. So under a true sharia that is why, you have to understand this, there is true sharia ahh regime, I am trying to explain the true sharia now not the imported one, those they come to preach and they broadcast on media and people tend to know just to promote Islamophobia in the world, you get? I am talking of true sharia now that is why am referring to the prophet regime ehh in true sharia, even if you practice today, every religion will have the absolute right to practice his religion, whether Christian Jews or even the non-Christians, they are free not to practice any religion. But there is one thing, everybody should know, in every government there are punishments for offences, there are rewards for good deeds ehn. So if any, if the sharia says this, this is the punishment for a particular offence, whether you are a Muslim or non-Muslim, if you fall to that and you commit that offense, you definitely be punished. Like say you steal, if you steal a particular thing, your hand will be, your left hand or whatever or your finger will be cut, will be chopped off hhm, it applies to everybody. So is not the situation where you see a non-Muslim, you know, a non-Muslim being punished in that way and you say it is because he is a non-Muslim, no, it applies, if it is sharia, in fact it applies mostly to the Muslims and there are certain offence as a Muslim you do, you will be punished and a non-Muslim will do it under sharia and will not be punished because you as a Muslim you are supposed to know this and you are supposed to know this is bb, but a non-Muslim does not know that, you understand what am saying

ZA7 [10798-11114]

No, no. It's not really correct, but true jihad has to do with preaching of good and trying to draw a lot of people to Islam. So if I should say it does not permit, then everyone in that state must probably be a Muslim or be in Islam, so you must have other opposing religions to have jihad in such an environment.

ZA8 [19443-19983]

Is not correct. True Islam, real Islam permits multi-religion because, like I told you also from the beginning, during the time of the prophet, there were Christians and Jews and they lived in peace and this is a fact. He told them so far they are not going to commit, go against the laws of the country like is a state, laws of the state, they are free to practice their religion and it is depending on all Muslims. Nobody should harm anybody and they were saved and they lived peacefully. So I don't think- that statement is very wrong.

ZA9 [11013-11519]

According to my own level of understanding of Islam, I was taught as some point in my life according to the teachings of the Qur'an that non-Muslims have right in an Islamic state, definitely that makes this this statement void and wrong because if non-Muslims have right in an Islamic state definitely there will be multi religious freedom in an Islamic state. There will be, you will have your freedom, the freedom to practice whatever religion you want to practice as long as it does not affect Islam.

ZA10 [14187-14601]

Multi-religious freedom, that's not correct, if I say practice, it is different. Freedom, jihad allows you to be very free because our teaching is very beautiful and when you go by the words of God, you will enjoy everything in your life, but there is practice, there are some practices that are un-Islamic, unlawful. So when jihad is being imposed in a state everybody is expected to obey the law of the sharia.

ZA11 [11803-11826]

No it is not correct.

ZA12 [6768-6797]

Next, I don't have any idea.

ZA13 [6455-6470]

No, it is not.

ZA14 [5774-5777]

No.

ZA15 [11683-11846]

Truly it is not correct, why I am saying is not correct, Islam will give you more freedom to even practice your religion because there is no compulsion in Islam.

ZA16 [6782-6805]

No, it is not correct.

ZA17 [5802-5815]

I don't know

ZA18 [8581-9089]

You see if there is an Islamic state, whoever that is not a Muslim will be allowed to practice his religion, you understand, they will not, the Islamic state will not stop you from practicalizing your religion. You could remember during prophet Muhammad's (SAW) stay in Medina, the Jews are there, there are Christians, they do their religion accordingly and the Muslims ah practicalized their religion there as well. So nobody will be stopped, nobody will be ah will not be allowed, will not be allowed to.

ZA19 [12224-12276]

Well I don't think I have idea about this question.

ZA20 [6346-6537]

No. If this notion, the claim you have just asked about as or in form of question is true, during prophet Muhammad (SAW), the first, the immediate neighbor to Muhammad (SAW) is a Christian.

ZA21 [8857-9294]

Even before prophet Muhammad (SAW) depart-leave this world, there are still people that are unbelievers. And he does not force anybody to be the-he only preached if you truly believe ok that you can be a non-believer but you must pay zakat, what do you call it, you must pay is it zakat or what have you then you can stay as unbeliever only that you must pay something as part of, what do you call it, jizya or something of that nature.

ZA22 [7719-8006]

Rasul (SAW) stayed with people who were practicing other religions like Christians and Jews during his time (quotes a Qur'anic verse). So except that it allows everybody to worship whatever he wishes. But there is no-what Islam particularly is against is interference with its affairs.

ZA23 [11785-12227]

No it is not correct; because multi-religious meaning not only Islam other religions can also practice. The only thing Islam teaches is, in an Islamic state if non-Muslims will leave together with you maybe they will be transacting or they want to live among you peacefully the only thing is for you to charge them something that is being as tax. But you see today it is not only the non-Muslims that are paying tax. As I am here I pay tax.

ZA24 [15651-16007]

Ah it is not correct. Even during prophet Muhammad (SAW) there were a lot of non-Muslims in Saudi Arabia that time in Mecca and he is related with them. He didn't force them out of the Islamic state through jihad. Therefore true jihad is not that it should not permit multi-religious freedom. Jihad should permit multi-religious freedom in Islamic state.

ZA25 [13085-13432]

It is wrong. That position is wrong. Eh some faiths, adherents of other faiths are to reside and practice their religions under an Islamic state. But they are meant – the Muslims are duty bound to continuously preaching to them logically with a lot of love, a lot of exemplary practices and they will be made to be paying what is called al-jizya.

ZA26 [6849-7002]

I don't know if the media is trying to tell us that they want to impose, because to us we understand that this issue of human rights is against Islam.

ZA27 [5151-5154]

No

ZA28 [13853-14247]

This question is directly to an environment that is dominant of Muslims I guess from the way I understand the question. And then if an Islamic state is established so it has its dos and don'ts according to sharia. So I don't think that there is any intruder or any person that will come into such an environment and just impose another law or try to go contrary to the teachings of that state.

ZA29 [21931-22732]

True jihad does not permit multi-religious freedom in an Islamic state. Is this position correct in Islam? No, why? Because when you talk of true jihad here, I don't know what definition you give jihad at the same time, but to me the definition I give jihad, now when you have an Islamic state that is a place where the dominance are Muslims and Islamic rules and regulations observed, nobody especially if that state constitutes two categories or many categories of people that is categories of religion. That religion or that state or the people ruling the state they have no right, they have no right to stop nobody from practicing his or her religion unless if the practice of that religion will interfere with the rules and regulations of our very religion because some religions are very funny.

ZA30 [32462-33507]

It is not correct. It is not correct. Rasul (SAW) stayed with Christians, he also stayed with Jews. There are many examples, also there was even a time that Rasul also worked with constitution. This thing happened at Sulh Hudabiyya, they wrote a constitution in, I could remember during the writing of the constitution, let me put it constitution because it is a book, it is a work, it is a paper that they are going to use for different communities, both Muslims, Christians and the Jews. When Aliyu Rabiyyallahu tried to write Muhammad (SAW), they said they did not agree, if to say they agree that he is (SAW) meaning he is htm the prophet of Allah, so there is no need of writing this one. He asked Aliyu to delete that Rasulillah, Aliyu said he cannot, he asked him to show him, he showed him the place and he used his hand, (SAW) deleted the place. So you see Muhammad stayed with Christians, he stayed with the Jews and they also stayed under constitution. Islam is not rigid, it is flexible. It depends on the way people interpreted it.

ZA31 [8845-9205]

Yes, to some extent, it is correct because the way I said to you, you know, like one, like particular, you see, like Nigeria now, we have multi-religion, multi-ethnicity. So, you see, you have to convey true preaching to guide people, the truth of religion, of God's word, not through imposing people to do because it can cause chaos and problem or problem.

ZA32 [20400-21852]

No, it is not correct because the prophet (SAW) hemslef lived together with what, non-Muslims and he never denied them their freedom of that their religious practices. With that we can say Islamic states are permit in contravention ehhe it permits multi-religious freedom that it is the truth, but to say it, it does not permit, is not true because the source, the, the, our real model as Allah mentioned in the Qur'an that you have a good, (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) you have a good character to emulate in the prophet, in the prophet Muhammad (SAW) and we, and I know all Muslims believe that we only learn the religion and the philosophy of life, Islamic philosophy of life through what, through the prophet Muhammad (SAW) because he is the one that is sent by Allah to us, to the Umma with that religion and his companions also as an assistants or assistant in that, in undertaking that very work of what, of delivering the message of Allah to the Umma, that is that and that, am coming. In conclusion, I can also mention that even, even when some Muslims, non-Muslims have violated or are fought by the prophet and at that point in time ah you see, in many instances that some refuse to comply by the law of Islam, they refuse to embrace Islam though they were defeated and the victory was in the hand of Muslims, but they refuse to comply. But they will still remain there in the Islamic state and practice their religion. That is that.

ZA33 [7029-7408]

No. The true jihad permits multi-religious freedom in an Islamic state. You can see during the prophets (SAW) time when he conquered Medina he allowed the Jews and the Christians to exercise their freedom without being forced to enter Islam. They only do that through good character and teachings as well as practice of the prophet (SAW) which he inculcated in the entire umma.

ZA34 [17538-18737]

It is not correct. Why? Rasul (SAW) lived in Medina for ten years and in Medina there were three strong religions even four. The first one was Islam, which was accepted by the muhajirun and Ansar they were there and rasul (SAW) was the leader. There were the Jews Banu Nadir, Banu Qainuqa, Banu, Banu Banu they were there in Medina. There were this Christians of Najiran, Nasaran Najiran and Najiran is a village close by to Medina but it is part of Medina yet they were mixed up in Medina. The fourth one are the polytheisers mushrikun they were still in Medina. And Rasul (SAW) did not compel them that they must accept Islam. All these three other religions than Islam Rasul (SAW) did not compel them that they must accept Islam. He lived with them, and even in history the Rasul (SAW) had a neighbor who was a Jew, he had a neighbor who was a Jew and he lived in peace with him. And he had so many others that are even non-Muslims. They use to even come to his mosque and ask him about so many things. Rasul (SAW) accommodated them. So this is a good example that multi-religion in a society cannot bring misunderstanding, it is only the way the people perceive[MD4] one another. That is that.

ZA35 [6841-6861]

Yes, it is correct.

ZA36 [12536-12562]

I don't know what to say.

ZA37 [11874-12237]

Islam permits multi-religious freedom, but if that multi-religious freedom will not affect practicing of that Islam to the Muslims, but in an Islamic country or an Islamic state, if the issue of that multi-religious freedom would affect Muslims performing their own or will affect the performance of Muslims to their own religion, this is not allowed actually.

ZA38 [18961-18980]

It is not correct.

ZA39 [25316-26042]

Actually it is wrong. It is a misconception, like I told you, even the prophet himself lived with Christians, lived with Jews, they even went to the extent to signing treaty to protect one another. So if he lived with this people and he also even lived with pagans, those that do not believe in anything, so I also want to add and emphasize on this aya that verse that there is no compulsion in religion. If there is no compulsion in religion then there is no way you can live without what, you can live, you are at liberty to live with people that you share the same believe and the people that do not share the same believe. All that is required is to observe their rights and freedom, no one should go against one another.

Th7.9: Jihad as Barrier to Muslim Conversion and a Force for Non-Muslim Submission

FG1 [20764-20800]

I just agree I have nothing to say

FG1 [20802-21459]

I think I will speak into perspectives. Saying that jihad will prevent Muslims from converting to other areas I don't think that is true. In that aspect it's that ... Saying that jihad will not prevent them from going to other religions, after all with or without jihad, jihad is not actually the basis for Islam being a jihadist doesn't mean that you know everything about Islam. There are people that will go after it but in the end the aim is not achieved because what after fighting those people that are not Muslims no knowledge is imparted to them, so how could they survive. They will just bear the names Muslims and they have nothing to show for it....

FG1 [21475-21529]

We have practicing Muslims and non practicing Muslims and then saying that jihad is only what is going to bring the non-Muslims to Islam that is also wrong because if jihad is based on struggling with weapons to fight them, it will not solve that problem it will only create problems. I just can't accept that someone is fighting me and then I will now submit myself to him. I better defend myself.

FG1 [21531-21877]

FG1 [21879-22122]

Actually for me jihad will not cause all unbelievers to convert to Islam because if that is the case during Meccan era when the prophet was alive, the companions fought many jihads but yet there were many unbelievers. Sharia came from Allah.
KD1 [17219-18618]

That actually brings the case, what is actually the jihad you are talking about? Is it the physical jihad? If it's the physical jihad, it is a two way thing, you may say you prevent, but there is the case of, we all know what we call nifak (hypocrisy). I will tell you am a Muslim in your face, when I go back inside and am practicing something else. Then what have I achieved? If something you are fighting, if something, you are actually doing something for Allah, for Allah sake, you should make it, put it to me so that my faith will take me there when I actually have adequate knowledge and I have that believe in all, in the Islamic teachings. I will actually not need force to do it because I actually know that there is hell and there is paradise and I will strive to attain that. And that's what actually make me to remain in the faith and actually call other people into the faith and of course when people actually see the goodness in your neighborliness, in the way you live your life, your role model-ness, they will admire your lifestyle, they will admire your living and they will in fact seeks to join your religion. That's what I believe. Only, jihad might be only necessary in exceptional cases when there is tribulation or people are actually giving you headache, real time problems. I think that's when jihad might be necessary, physical jihad might be necessary in that sense.

KD2 [7090-7259]

Jihad is not necessary. At least, good deeds, good actions ahm can encourage and entice people from other faiths to convert or join Islam not necessarily through jihad.

KD3 [5416-5688]

The answer ehm for this question, jihad is necessary to make non-Muslims submit to Islam and prevent Muslims from converting to other faiths is false and to the extent is that you don't force even though the preaching, you preach with wisdom not necessarily with a sword.

KD4 [7856-8323]

Yah. Jihad is necessary to capture Muslims to accept Islam. Why, because as I told you earlier on, jihad it has a very wide perspective, wide interpretation. Jihadin nafs is necessary to capture or to convert any person to Islam or to practice Islam because you have to fight with your own heart, to purify your heart, to deprive yourself from things you may like which may be unlawful. All those are jihad and it is necessary if really you want to practice Islam.

KD5 [5578-5757]

I think this statement is false because as a Muslim, as a Muslim I have never heard of this statement or read it in our book of religion. I have never come across this statement.

KD6 [12536-13751]

It depends on your understanding. In Islam, if you are in Islam, you don't go back. According to sharia Islam, if you are a Muslim, you are a Muslim, if you revert, if you go back, come back to Allah then that is riddah in Islam and the punishment is death. Why is Allah say (SBUH) (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) what the scholar says about that is Islam, it is Islam when the land is purified and go back and distort it again. So by that, it's just a deterrence to stay in the cause of Allah, it's not about forcing you, la iqraha fid din. If you are a Christian, you are allowed to live in the Muslim setting, if you are ehen so la iqraha fid din, you are allowed. That is the sharia that they are shouting and all these ones that they are doing jihad under the sharia, it is allowed to stay. And people are talking about, if you stay under Islamic rule, you will pay jizya, jizya is just something like you are paying tax. In a country of ours today that we think there is constitution; you are paying tax directly or indirectly. If you come to the market, forget about it, come to the market, they have already paid the tax, we are now paying it back to them. So you are still paying jizya. So, what is it?

KD7 [7418-7618]

Bottom line, no. It is our character that will make the non-Muslims to be, to convert to Islam. It is our characters as Muslims that will make our fellow Muslim brothers and sisters to stay in Islam.

KD8 [17644-18155]

No, no, it's not true. Jihad from the perspective of war, it's not like that, but it could, I mean jihad from the mind perception I mean perspective that when you have knowledge, you can preach Islam. You preach and convert them peacefully without compelling them, preaching, demonstrating to them that we are good person, let them see some good attitude in you and emulate and from there, they can convert not through the other side of the jihad.

We are not dismissing that, but that is not what is required.

KD9 [10185-10622]

It is false. It is false. You don't convert people to Islam by the sword. Islam was not spread by the sword. That is one of the sayings of the enemies of Islam just blacklist or to give Islam a bad name. The prophet (SAW) was able to invite people to Islam mainly in a good number of ah occasion by his character, not necessarily by the sword. So it is not true that non-Muslims must be brought into Islam by the sword. It is not true.

KD10 [5574-5997]

No. Jihad is obligatory upon every Muslim until day of Kiyama. Are you getting me? But the jihad is going to be according to the sharia and we are not to force anybody to embrace Islam. Are you getting me? We are not going to force anybody to embrace Islam. If a non-Muslim embraces Islam, fa lillah alhamdu and if he does not embrace Islam, we are not going to force him to embrace Islam and we are not going to harm him.

KD11 [11736-12393]

Of course, with jihad or no jihad ah once a Muslim apostate or once a believer apostate, leaves his religion is regarded as ah or does anything that would make him ah what do you call it, ahm that will relieve him of his khalma, when I say Khalma I mean of ah of his testification, such person is regarded as an apostate with or without jihad and there is just no point in Islam where such is accepted ah such is not accepted and ah when you talk about jihad, but I mean in an ideal Islamic state, once a person apostates by law the person is to die either by hanging or through the sword or anything whatever means the Imam chooses or the khalif chooses.

KD12 [11528-11994]

Ah jihad is meant, read it again (question repeated) Ah it is false because Islam doesn't enforce anybody, to be forced to Islam or to be forced accept the religion and then we have seen various ways where Muslims too converted to other religions, other areas, but see where we are having Islamic environment everybody that does not bear Islam there or is doing another religion, he will also know that he is like a stranger in the town and eh actually that is it.

KD13 [4125-4280]

Islam, the Qur'an says is not compulsory to impose it on somebody and the Qur'an says it is those whom Allah (SBUH) loves that he calls to the right path.

KD14 [5091-5148]

This is false because there is no compulsion in religion

KD15 [7224-8107]

Ah jihad is not something compulsory is something fi sabilillah as in if you want to do jihad, you mustn't fight or you mustn't take any weapon to frustrate your fellow human being before you can convert people to Islam or to be a Muslim, whatever. Even through speech by good doing, by a good doing, by your speech, by your character, by your habit, at least if someone is interested in you, he can fall into Islam. So you mustn't take any weapon or any harsh behavior to implement on your partner before he can say okay I accept Islam or whatever. So jihad simply is not forcing or how or do by doing something activities. It is just fight in the cause of Allah, it maybe, as I said earlier on, it maybe through your speech by your characters by your feeling or whatever so jihad mustn't be by weapon or by frustration. So I don't think that question, the answer is not true, ko?

KD16 [4281-4382]

Ah it is true only that ah if they are the issue of ah fighting or being quarrelsome can be avoided.

KD17 [12200-13274]

Jihad, jihad, jihad, jihad that is raising up arms ba? As far as the writer is concerned, which me I disagree, me I disagree totally with that that thing of raising up arms. Jihad is very easy, you just have to struggle, you must not raise up arms, you understand, okay like now you come and meet me, you start doing that for me tell me what is good about this religion, if I am convinced, I accept. If I am not convinced, you leave me. There is la iqraha fid din that is a verse in Qur'an, you don't compel people, you don't make compulsion in religion, as I said earlier, if Allah willed it, he would have made everybody a Muslim. You see, guidance is from Allah, you understand, you are a Muslims is not your own effort it is Allah that guided you. If Allah wanted to guide a person, your own is just for you to preach. Preach if the person wants to, the prophet's uncle (SAW) before he died, did not accept Islam. What do you want to tell me about that? It is Allah that guides. So you must not raise up arms against the non-Muslims before you can establish the state.

KD18 [7040-7145]

I think it's false, Islam cannot force any religion to convert into their religion. The answer is false.

KD19 [9558-10050]

Jihad is necessary in the sense that we strive to do the right thing in the name of, in the name of religion. Take for example, if you are faced with a problem maybe an unbeliever is constantly attacking you, defaming your character, abusing you every day, don't think Islamically the right thing is to fight him, continue to show him the good side of Islam until he stops that perhaps he may change and become a Muslim, if every Muslim, will do that then the whole world will become Muslim.

KD20 [4631-5014]

That is false. Islam jihad I mean jihad is not all about fighting so for us to achieve our aims and objectives, it is not all about fight fighting. So we have other ways of, we have other way of eh of making people to know more about our religion, to mobilize them to educate them about what Islam is, is all about so everything is not just fighting, fighting about jihad, thank you.

KD21 [5487-6149]

Ah to some extent it is true and to some extent it is not true. Ah occasions where jihad was necessary in the battle of Badr, the Muslims have gained a reasonable number, their goods and everything have been displaced by the so called unbelievers of the area, they have to retrieve it back to sustain their livelihood, but even among the prophet there are some kafirs that are still there, there was an agreement between them, they will pay their tax and they are not going to inflict any harm on the Muslims in an Islamic state, so if you begin to say jihad must convert all non-Muslims to Muslims, I think you are going contrary to the saying of the prophet.

KD23 [6308-6562]

Okay so this perceptions ah I don't have anything much to say on this comment, ah but if you critically look at our present times, so jihad is not possible, is not possible the criteria that ah have to be followed before jihad is somehow kind of rigid.

KD24 [23298-23828]

Is false. Prophet Muhammad (SAW) in the firsts place, as I have mentioned earlier, in the first place he is not even urged or asked to fight anyone, but with that many have entered into Islam how? Good conducts, good behaviour, good neighbour-ship, and neighbourhood, good relationship with each other, forgiveness, things like that. So the Muslims are not asked to make it ordained that fighting or conflicts or jihad is the most important thing or it is with jihad that they must convert the non-Muslims to turn into Islam, no.

KD25 [30210-34116]

Well I will not say it is true or false, it all depends on the on the condition. If ah the condition warrants jihad fine, we go for jihad. If it does not warrant then it means it's false.

If it warrants jihad that is if they started (he recites in Arabic), we ain't just, we ain't expected to just fold up our hands and continue looking them killing us, we have to also wage war against them. That that was that was what the prophet did, most of the, the prophet did not, almost all the battles that the prophet fought were all defensive just like I already said, they were not offensive, they were defensive. If the non-Muslims or the individuals planned to wage an onslaught against the Muslims and the prophet is not aware, God will now send angel Gabriel through divine inspirations to tell them that there are so, so people that will be coming from so, so place, he should organize his ah army to go and wage war with them, he didn't, in that case it is defensive is not offensive. All these battle of Badr, battle of Uhud, battle of the trench, battle of what, what, many of them, Qainuqa and the rest, they are not all offensive, they are all defensive and the for you to know that eh Islam is a universal religion, it carries everybody along, it does not show any injustice against the non-Muslims, so what have you, during the life of the prophet among those that eh worked in the house of to the prophet, was a Jew, he was a Jewish boy, he wasn't a Muslim, he was a Jew, but the prophet still accommodated him, he used to come on daily basis to work for the prophet in his household and the prophet gave him something eh in the end of the time agreed be between them and one day the prophet could not see him and he asked his companions about that ah Jewish boy and they told him that he was in disposed meaning he was sick, so the prophet now asked those that were with him amongst his companion that they should escort him to go to the house of that Jewish boy to see his condition. On reaching the house, they met the boy in the lying critically ill on his sick bed and the father was just standing by his head. The prophet entered, the boy said oh the prophet, the Jewish boy said oh the prophet you can see how I am suffering, he said there is no problem I can see, you will be okay, you will soon be okay, and the prophet, what came out of the prophet's mouth was, but wouldn't you accept Islam? In the front of his father, so the boy now gazed at his father meaning trying to eh get an answer from his father, should he or he should not, the father quickly said (he recites in Arabic) meaning obey the father of Kassim, the father of Kassim is nobody but the prophet of Sunna because his first son was named, was known as Kassim, so he said he should obey the prophet and there and then the Jewish boy lying critically ill on his sick bed affirmed this words of the prophet saying asshahadu allah ilah ha ilallah wa asshahadu anna Muhammadan Rasulillah and I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except God that is Allah and Muhammad is his messenger, there and then the boy accepted Islam and in the prophet's presence, before the prophet left, the Jewish boy died, he died, now the prophet came out of the house thanking God saying (he recites in Arabic) that I thank God that he was able to save and rescue this Jewish boy from the Brazen fire because had he died a Jew he would have not, he would have dwelled in the fire forever, but now that he was just at the verge of his death, he accepted Islam and he died a Muslim. His file is free, so you can see how prophet, and good the prophet was to the non-Muslims. The prophet never accepted any injustice from a Muslim against a non-Muslim, he tries to ensure justice because he is a prophet of justice, so and that is what we the Muslims are also expected to inculcate in us and imbibe in the lives of our children.

Hmm to a certain extent it is true because it is not necessarily submit, I wont say submit, I will say to entice to come into the religion and here am talking about jihad, am talking about the non-Physical jihad because when I am good, am a Muslim and am good, you see me and you are a non-Muslim, you appreciate me and my life style, you will want to maybe be enticed to join me. To a certain extent it is necessary.

KD27 [6934-7429]

Like I said once you are able to conquer yourself, you abstain from the vices, you keep away from the sins, you live a good life, you structure your life according to the Sunna of the prophet (SAW). Then there is no need for fighting to make people to convert to Islam or to prevent Muslims from converting or leaving Islam. Once everything is properly done in the sense that the Sunna of the prophet (SAW) is followed, and the Qur'anic injunctions are followed, there will be no need for that.

KD28 [10012-10389]

It will in the sense that yes, the Muslims themselves if they follow the injunction of, the Islamic injunction and you practice according to the guidelines of Allah (SBUH) what Allah has ordered you to do, what Allah has forbidden you from doing. If you have to go by all these things you should be able to capture the community, but not going contrary to the will of Allah.

KD28 [10543-11190]

It is true. You know right from the beginning of our discussion, I told you that Islam, you have to understand the term Islam also. When you go into Islam, you should understand what Islam means because when you know what Islam is that is total submission to the will of Allah once you have all this one, you will know that yes all these things is the will of Allah. And then you seek knowledge on how to get, what Allah has forbidden you to do, what Allah has commanded you to do, what Allah has forbidden you to do. You are able to take care of all these steps. Then you will be protected from how you should go contrary to the will of Allah.

KD29 [6118-6456]

Jihad ah should not be imposed forcefully on non-Muslims and ah based on the principles of first Islamic preaching, teachings, good conduct Islamic practices if we maintain that, within ourselves and ah show good conducts and restrict ourselves to Islamic teachings and practices, is enough to encourage the non-Muslims to embrace Islam.

KD30 [9438-10106]

I think in an Islamic state, ahm the ah the non-Muslims I think will see the real beauty of Islam under Islamic state where they will see justice and fair play which I believe will be a factor, will be an, will be a very good reason for them to even learn more about Islam and even join Islam itself and I don't believe, we hardly have kids where under Islamic state that a Muslim will even turn to leave Islam into another religion. So I think we don't have to, is not necessary to put jihad in order to stop people leaving Islam because they hardly live under an Islamic state and the beauty of Islam will always invite others that are outside Islam to join Islam.

KD31 [8227-8821]

It is true, like ah if you read through the history of prophet Muhammad (SAW) you see all these things, you see how jihad is being carried out in a very, very peaceful manner. If you go through his history, his biography you'll see he of course he lived his life with some non-Muslims and due to his character without even fighting most of them majority of them converted to Islam. That's why I said most of the jihad being carried out these days is not is un-Islamic and ah I don't think those people carrying out such jihad are true Muslims because they have a myopic understanding of Islam.

KD32 [9523-9929]

Ah I totally disagree, as I have said earlier, I defined to you what jihad is, so anybody who is trying to define jihad as a war or as a way to fight non-believers is just eh misunderstanding what jihad is. So as we know there is nothing like that, jihad is just to strive for the sake of Allah. It is not to fight non-believers, is not to kill anybody so this is not accepted this is not possible at all.

KD33 [6386-7054]

No, it is not true as jihad is only necessary as, jihad is only necessary according to Islam if we go back to Islamic history, the only place that jihad is necessary is when the non-Muslim try to attack you even the first jihad that was carried in Islam, during the prophet (SAW) time, the jihad was a established and was carried out when the non-Muslims attack the Muslims several times from there God almighty, God almighty order prophet Muhammad (SAW) to retaliate, that is where this jihad start, so if we look at this, jihad is, jihad doesn't come as the first choice to convert Islam eh to convert people to Islam or to prevent people from converting to Islam.

KD34 [8289-8821]

Is completely false because I do not agree because the way this question comes up, it is like saying that jihad, defining jihad as a war, as a fight. What about other forms of jihad, like paying zakat, like going to Mecca, like doing ibadat, like being loyal to people, being loyal to neighbors, showing your good attitude. A lot of people converted to Islam due to the good activities of Islam especially our sahabas, they did one or two act that Islam teach them and because of those acts a lot of people converted to Islam.

KD35 [10702-11226]

Ahh am not so keen about this that jihad must make this one make that, if only jihad is being defined as I define it, so I agree with whoever said so, yes jihad will bring about that if only jihad is defined by the way I define it that yes is trying to do things as Islam instructs to do properly. So whatever is not is not impossible with the word jihad some effort has to be put, some sacrifice that we make so that we do things properly the way Islam say we should do them then things are possible whatever is possible.

KN1 [20016-20315]

If I understand the statement, force is included here. Probably if he said that it is hard for somebody to submit and for somebody not to, it means force should be applied and I told you from the almighty Allah himself that la igra fid din no force in religion. so I think that one answers that one.

KN2 [12916-13723]

It is not because there is a verse of the holy Qur'an which says there is not compulsion in religion. The only way you can make people convert to Islam is by enticing them not forcing them. The prophet has shown example, it is by enticing them with a number of ways, forms, and means depending on the type of the individual or the type of the group. This group is need of money and you entice them with money and they convert, another group may be in need of intellect, another group may be in need of esteem, another person may be in need of you know it depends, but you need to entice people to show them the good quality, to give Islam a good color, to advertise for people to subscribe. And the same manner you are going to use for the Muslims themselves so that they don't convert away from Islam.

KN4 [16260-17331]

Well this seem to say that ah force somebody to join Islam is not true. There is no force in the religion of God, even the prophet himself says that there is no force in our religion but there is condition in Islam. As a Muslim, you can only be a Muslim for life but Islam does not allow somebody to move to another religion that is the doctrine of Islam. But it cannot force you to come to Islam. But in secular state like in Nigeria, people have their own right since we are using the constitution; they are going for the religion they want. Look at it when you go to the southern part of Nigeria, the middle belt, you can see the same house Muslim and Christian, the same father, the same mother. So there is no force in religion. People are practicing it the way they want. It is only the media, is only people that don't like peace for us that can propagate and say much about Nigeria that can in fact preach hatred among the people of Nigeria, that can cause rancho among the people Nigeria, but we are peace loving people in the country and we are religion lovers.

KN5 [7009-7600]

Jihad actually is not necessary to make people as Allah said la iqra ha fid din... so if there is no compulsory, compulsion in Islam, it means you may not necessarily compel someone to believe in Allah. So if jihad is the thing as the only way then it means you have to force people and that is not the only way to make people not to go out even though there is provision for whoever go out he has to be killed if you leave Islam as a Muslim you can be-because you should be killed for that act, so it is not just the only way people, but there are so some way but that is part of the ways.

KN6 [6176-6514]

It is true, it is true, it is true ah the meaning of this statement Islam is to call the Christian or the followers of other religions to convert into Islam. So this is the true statement but it should be in a good manner. It should not be ah ah the ah with using of conflict or using of some ammunition. So this is the meaning of jihad.

KN7 [7555-7662]

It is true, is true because the main essence of jihad is calling people to the way of Allah, so it is true.

KN8 [5733-6058]

Yes, I think this is true, but not in all circumstances someone can use jihad. Though the process of jihad is the most alarming and the most easiest way for you to convert people at to encourage them and bringing people into your religion, but it is not the only means, you understand, for preaching of Islam to be justified.

KN9 [5703-6342]

This statement is very correct, this statement is very correct because ah you see when you talk about faith; it is not something you can bend people to believe easily. So in order for you to make people believe in what you believe the religion you preach to them. You have to first of all, it has to go through stages and then, I think, in this stages there is a stage of persuasion and then if that fails believe and other methods also fail, then it has to go to jihad where you have to apply force in trying to make people believe in what you eh, what you are actually advertising, the religion you are actually advertising to them, yes.

KN10 [5738-5772]

This is ah I can say it is false.

KN11 [7493-8270]

Jihad is necessary to make non-Muslims submit to Islam and prevent no, it is not necessary. Jihad is not intended to force anybody to religion of Islam. Yes jihad is not the first alternative. First of all, yes jihad is, truly there is jihad in Islam but some people say Muslim force people to enter their religion, no it is not true. Yes ah as we have said, is not really necessary, ah jihad is not really necessarily first of all to make non-Muslims submit to Islam, no, no, no, and ah to prevent Muslims from converting to other faiths. No. In Islam we don't do jihad to make people to convert to Islam, but is ehm jihad is like ah, ah fighting to react is an act of reaction yes initially the mushrikun or the kafirun fought Muslims, so Allah (SBUH) ordered them to react.

KN13 [7666-8291]

Uhm, yah it is essential to make Muslims to be submissive to their faith and as a matter of fact it is another major issue that make non-Muslims to be even be afraid of even joining the faith because when a non-Muslim hears the word jihad, naturally it means war like a fight is coming, like they are about to attack while definitely that is not suppose to be so. There are jihad that mean-there is jihad by sword whereby the jihad of Shehu Usman Dan Fodio, it was jihad of sword, as a matter of fact it first start with an ideological leader-jihad so definitely jihad is a kind of-it is a necessity for all Muslims.

KN14 [5856-5871]

Yes it's true.

KN15 [7853-8246]

Yes jihad is necessary to make non-Muslims submit to Islam in the sense that when you know in a in an environment when you, when there are good Muslims you know acting in a religious way so they use to attract the non-Muslims living down together with them to convert into their religion and as a Muslim it helps you to maintain your faith so as to keep on with your religion in a good faith.

KN16 [3951-4124]

This is true but not only necessarily treat, as I have said, this is true but not only necessarily jihad because there are other ways you can call people to your religion.

KN17 [7939-7962]

Hum, its em its false.

KN18 [12240-12615]

Well Islamic injunctions yes it is the Islamic injunction to prevent the Muslims from converting To other faiths yes and committing that is committing a serious crime in Islam that is Islam and that now Islam now to say that he is trying to encourage, if you say encourage then you say you use a more softly word a more appropriate word, but must is

KN18 [12646-13155]

I know must prevent its Muslims from converting is clear but you said force non-Muslims to convert is not it's not proper I don't agree with that, that is not and is not a true meaning of Islamic injunction. Islamic does not you must force him, you can't, because Islam agree that there is a life hereafter and he who did not believe, persuade him, do all the necessary things and if he did not follow then there is life hereafter. He will get his reward hereafter either good or bad, you must not force them.

KN19 [9664-9691]

To some extent it is true.

KN20 [5213-5237]

It is not really true.

KN21 [3402-3434]

Yeah it's not true, it's false.

KN22 [5997-6302]

Yah, jihad ah there is no compulsion in Islam. Islam did not advocate that the non-Muslims living in a particular society must or should convert to Islam. No. So jihad doesn't mean carrying arm to force or to coerce somebody interest to accept to the (sighs) to the religion of Islam. That is not jihad.

KN23 [5982-6242]

The statement is not true because even during the prophet there were unbelievers and that is why we have amm aljanna and jahannama for the unbelievers. So there will be no time that will come that unbelievers would not exist and they have to be acknowledged.

KN24 [5886-5932]

It is true that is the real meaning of jihad

KN25 [6890-7217]

Yah this statement is very true because people who hold different secular beliefs that is religious beliefs, you can't just convince them literally to join this. You have to prove, you have to give them strong reasons, powerful ideas to make them believe what you are saying is true. Then as a last resort, you could use jihad

KN26 [6724-6747]

No, no it is not true

KN27 [6243-6538]

Well to a very large extent it is true. To a very large extent it is true because jihad will play a very, to an extent, will play a very big role in influencing Muslims and making them understand the concept of Islam in general and in one way or the other inviting even the non-Muslim to Islam.

KN28 [5174-5380]

Jihad itself is an issue which really needs to go with your faith. Not everyone believes jihad should be the only way which can help Islam. But taking a look at the conversion itself, it is really not true.

KN30 [5293-5785]

This is not true. The reason is in Islam it is said that there is no compulsion in religion. If you say you are going to worship this door, the Muslims are not allowed to compel you not to do so. The only thing is when living in an area where Muslims are may be the land belongs to Muslims, so if you want to stay as non-Muslim and islamically you cannot stay there until with their permission. They may ask you to pay ah certain things may be like-we called it jizya or that is like a fine.

KN31 [5890-7329]

Well ah quite alright I think there was a time one of the battles they went, I think is this Badr or which, when they came back the prophet was telling his companions that they have just returned from a battle but they have a bigger battle to fight, so they were not surprised after we have gone for a battle and so many people were killed and so on, he now told them yes that big battle am talking about is fighting against your own heart that is the greatest jihad. So I think if Muslims will now try to change their own attitude that is what is more really affecting us because God is saying if you people remember me I remember you, if you forget me I will forget you. So our attitudes are contributing to our societal problems. So it is not just that jihad though there are things-is it the time of Umar or so, there was a time, I think in Mecca, whereby people are deviating from Islamic injunctions and he took his sword and went to so many of them that if they don't come and follow Islam he is going to fight a jihad against them but I think he did that may be because of their attitude people were exhibiting then, deviating from Islamic injunctions. So individually I think we have the Sunna , the Hadith which is the Sunna which is guiding us and we have the Qur'an too that is guiding us, we don't need anybody to chase us because even if—as you are doing it, you are doing it for yourself because of the hereafter.

KN32 [2185-2302]

This is not absolutely true or false because Islam does not look for possible means to convert people to its faith.

KN33 [2590-2673]

It is not true it is false because it can be done through persuasion or convincing

KN34 [3183-3269]

This is false. They are just misconceiving the whole idea of what Jihad is all about.

KN35. [5186-5198]

It is false.

KN36 [4616-4683]

To such extent it is not true because it will also lead to crises.

KN37 [4026-4096]

I think to less extent it is true, but let me just say it is not true.

KN38 [2702-2710]

False.

KN39 [2998-3023]

Actually it is not true.

KN40 [6014-6317]

I agree it is false. Jihad cannot make someone to convert to one religion or whatsoever. It is your wish. You can only just use Jihad maybe to eradicate some one or two bad things which Muslims engage themselves into. But using of jihad to convert other people to other religion, I disagree with that.

KN41 [3505-3589]

In my own perspective this is not true because there is no compulsion in religion.

KN42 [6029-6074]

The statement is preposterous and is false.

KN43 [8151-8663]

This is false because people should understand; Muslims are not mandated in any way to convert the whole world into Islam. Even during the life time of the prophet, there were Christians, there were Jews who lived under Islamic state and he didn't use force, not even word of his mouth to force them to convert. So if the prophet did not force the Christians and the Jews, to convert, I think it is wrong to give the impression that Muslims have the desire or have the ambition to convert the whole non-Muslims.

KN44 [4983-5416]

No I don't think that is ehh that is really, that is really, ehh, true. There are various means to which can be used to convert non-Muslims to Islam, not necessarily through the jihad as interpreted in the questions, preaching can help to convert many non-Muslims into Islam and then even good understanding and perhaps the way even Muslim relate with non-Muslims can go a long way in helping to convert ahh non-Muslims into Islam.

KN45 [4619-4881]

Yah, I think ahh, this is ehm not true to me because ehh presently in the world, Islam is the fastest growing religion and eh it is spreading without the use of the sword maybe through the power of the pen, the media and the rest is doing the job for Islam now.

KN46 [7484-7504]

No, it is not true.

KN47 [11179-12490]

No, no. It can't be true because, you know ah jihad, you know, is not true for through preaching, you know, you can simply say that ah there are lot of other ways, you know, since nowadays you know there is the general awareness, let me call it, general awareness that everything should be, should be carried out peacefully. So there is this issue of persuasion and the Muslims scholars are using persuasion as a means of converting people and as a means of retaining people in the, in the religion of Islam because they always come with awareness, with teachings of Islam and teaching the good aspect, you know, teaching Islam, in fact Islam involves, you know, is a religion of peace and it involves ah teaching morality in the society. So by simply is, is simply Islam uses this kind of method. There is method of stick and carrot there is punishment for the offenders and then there is reward for the good doers, you understand. So if they are teaching in a good way, they don't have to go to jihad, they don't have, you know, be fought and there is no compulsion, there is a verse in the holy Quran that says there is no compulsion in religion, you understand. How can you say you have to force somebody to come and imbibe your religion? It is not possible because the aya has already said, you understand.

KN48 [4375-4462]

Yah, false because Islam does not allow you forcing someone to embrace, to be embraced

KN49 [6415-6793]

Actually, it's not a yardstick. If somebody wants to become a Muslim, you do not need to force him because Islam itself is not a forceful religion as such and ehh in fact one of verses says la iqra ha fid din, there is no compulsion in religion. You don't compel a non-Muslim to accept your faith and ehh islamically, if a Muslim leaves the faith, he is supposed to be executed

KN50 [3722-3846]

Ah, this is absolutely not true because in Islam, in Islam there is no compulsion, there is no compulsion in the religion.

KN51 [25855-27986]

This statement is false in a way. The way that it is false is that Allah is saying in the Qur'an la iqra ha fid din-there is no compulsion in religion. Allah is making it prohibited to compel anybody to accept Islam, is completely prohibited, completely prohibited. So in this way, it is a poor statement. In another way where a non-Muslim is trying to force, please underline this one, a non-Muslim is trying to force a Muslim to come into the fold any other religion other than Islam ok, to leave Islam, to abandon Islam, to renounce Islam, the face of Islam, in this case he is allowed to fight back. Muslim is allowed to fight back to prevent those who are trying to make him renounce his faith by force. He can now fight back to defend himself, to defend his faith. This is the other aspect. But apart from this two, if anybody would talk of Islam as a religion that would force one to accept it, no. What Islam is saying, please before you come into the fold of Islam, study the situation very, very well. You understand what you are going to now uphold. Try to understand the creed ok, the fundamental principles, the teachings, before you come into it because it has a special, Islam has a special or a different or a particular ah ways of presenting itself to people, before you accept it, please don't come into Islam without proper understanding of its teachings because it will not allow anybody who comes into its fold to renounce the faith again ok. Renouncing the faith, as far as Islam is concerned, is treason like in the international law, it is treason. If anybody is committing treason the punishment is always capital punishment. So I want to tell you that there is no compulsion in Islam. It is a verse in the Quran. No compulsion in Islam. Nobody will be compelled ok to come into the fold of Islam. If anybody does this, he is now doing things contrary to the teaching of the Qur'an and that is un-Islamic and if somebody is forced to leave his faith, to renounce his faith, he can now defend himself. He is allowed to fight back to prevent those people who are trying to make him renounce his faith.

KN52 [7137-7953]

This is not true, like I mentioned earlier that jihad is not the only means through which Islam can be propagated, you know proselytization, the best form of proselytization as far as I am concerned, is the one that, you know, attracts followership through demonstration by example. You know what I am talking about. So, for example, if non-Muslims would see good behaviors, good attitude among Muslims and then struggle to imbibe or struggle to emulate them that for me is the best form of jihad, is the best form of proselytization, you don't have to engage in jihad, but even that in itself is another form of jihad but it is non-physical, non-violent form of jihad. It is the demonstration by example the good qualities of a Muslim should attract the non-Muslims to convert rather than through physical violence

KN53 [5596-5825]

Well, to me, I understand that jihad is not necessary to convert non-Muslims to Islam because there is no compulsion to Islam except if the non-Muslim wish to convert after the realization of some principles of Islam. That's all.

KN54 [2348-2391]

False. Islam does not encourage compulsion

KN55 [3298-3347]

It is false, Islam doesn't encourage compulsion.

KN56 [4161-4334]

Actually this is false because Islam doesn't encourage compulsion and imposition. And going by your question you mean that Islam is going to impose its will on non-Muslims.

KN57 [5439-5473]

It is true, it is true honestly.

KN58 [13062-14355]

It is true in the sense that jihad is only waged on people that you preach Islam and they refused to accept. That was in the olden days. But now according to what Allah has said is la iqra ha fid din. You don't force religion on anybody, you only call him to the religion, but you don't force him. So there is no need of waging jihad on them. In fact the only jihad that Muslims would do to even lure or invite other non-Muslims to the religion is by showing good examples. As a Muslim you are supposed to show them good examples that you are superior to them. Once you do that, there is no need of any jihad. Take a look at what is happening in the US now or what is happening in other parts of Europe, France, for instance, UK, Poland, most Christians or even non-Christians that are atheist are now entering into Islamic religion because of the way Muslims conduct themselves. They show them good examples, in fact they are happy or they are surprised, is this how your religion teach you or teaches you? So this is what Islam is. So you see you don't even need physical jihad, you need jihad based on what Akida, show them that you are superior. So I agree with the fact that you can wage jihad, but not jihad that you can wage with a sword, but jihad of that of showing good examples.

KN59 [8807-9329]

To me it is not true because Islam is just a call from God, to my understanding. it is something that God has already ordained that if you want to be you want to be, so there is no need of fighting you to become a Muslim, you understand, we can't fight you if you have that blessing you can just be converted maybe due to our ahm relationship, our closeness to you because the way we relate with people, our neighbors then you can maybe feel enticed to be a Muslim but through jihad it is not done that way. That is it.

KN60 [13749-13825]

Jihad is necessary to make non-Muslims submit to Islam, to me, it is false.

KN61 [3824-4197]

Hmm, this one is also depend on the people, people's psychologically because is not Muslim that you must fight this people to live with you. Your attitude, your behavior can also, ah because we have so many example that people, most of the Christians converted to Muslim because of the behavior of the other people in their neighbor, not necessarily that we should fight.

KN62 [16231-16807]

This is false, very, very false that jihad is necessary, no jihad is not necessary, yah I have been saying this, emphasizing this point that this kind of jihad that people myopically believe in, a jihad of sword, jihad of gun, taking weapons against our fellow human beings. I don't believe in this jihad as the only way out to hold people, to invite people into our religion. So that is why I said jihad is not necessary to make non-Muslims submit to Islam, remember the verse I quoted before, (he re-recited the verse) therefore this jihad of taking weapons is unnecessary.

KN63 [15254-16881]

Hmm, it is not true. Now that is not what jihad is talking about, you know, ah because there was a time I was reading one history book, this is very, something very sad. I was reading through maybe, they were talking about Islamic revolution or whatever, whatever thing in that textbook. They were saying that they carried; they hold Qur'an in one hand and they hold the sword in the other hand. They say accept Qur'an, or you will be killed. There is nothing like that in Islam. Even during the Islamic eh, during the Usman Dan Fodio whatever, revolution of a thing, there was nothing like that. How can you compel somebody to Islam? Is it possible? Okay now you do offer five prayers, you do offer five prayers in a day, you do fasting and there are some other things, all different type of worship like that. There is no way you can compel somebody to pray five times a day, even though you are there and the person is observing the prayer, what about when you leave the place? And one thing that is even very important in Islam is niyya, your intention. Even though if you are not praying solely for Allah sake and you are praying because somebody is there, watching you, you know, you are just doing that for fun. So there is no way you say jihad because of, you have to declare jihad, then now you make the whole nation or eh to be, to be Islamic, it is not possible, you cannot. Islam doesn't preach compulsion, there is no compulsion in Islam. There is no compulsion in Islam because the jihad you are talking about here, they are talking about maybe the compulsion with sword or whatever, it is not, is not, is not.

KN64 [6337-6359]

That is not, eh eh

KN64 [6478-6676]

Like I said to you, jihad is not meaning to force people to accept Islam. Jihad is to make effort that is to make effort in order to protect your religion, to help your religion. This is jihad hmm.

KN65 [10356-11174]

The statement is ah is somehow false. Hmm you cannot force somebody to become a Muslim, and even if you now force him with a sword, that means he is not becoming a Muslim sincerely. So in order for one to convert into a Muslim, you must convince him, so that he would now believe in the faith, you understand, but by the time you are forcing somebody to eh, then he is converting to a Muslim not to be sincere, you understand, and for other Muslims converting to other faiths, why are they converting to other faiths? You fail, if you fail to propagate or give them the moral teaching of Islam, that is when they would now have shock as in double mind for them to now seek that okay, they have more faith in other religions than the one they are practicing, you understand. So the statement is ah is not that true.

KN66 [3810-3834]

This is, this is false.

KN67 [4746-4788]

No this statement I can say it is false.

KN69 [9258-9789]

Okay jihad is not a tool that would only prevent non-, that would invite non-Muslims to enter Muslim or a Muslim not to leave his religions that is Islam, but as I said it earlier, a good relationship with people being you are a Muslim is the key factor that will enable you to call the attentions of non-Muslims in order to understand Islam, to be able to be Muslim and at the same time it is a key which will maintain the peaceful coexistence and understanding among the Muslim Umma by saying of Allah (he recites the Qur'an)

KN71 [14759-15921]

Ahh what happened in Medina by the advent of Mohammed (SAW), the first years of his settlement in Medina, were there non-Muslims in, were there non-Muslims in Medina? What happened there? Did the prophet (SAW) fight them? No. Did he establish an Umma there? He did. He did establish an Umma, a society and nobody among them was fought. They only believes that okay let us now come together to live as one nation to protect our individual interest as a state, as individuals. To the Jewish you have your religion, to the mushrik you have your own way of worship, to the Muslim you have your own way of worship too, but we must respect individual rights and that in itself a state is established. Was it a jihad? I don't think there is any physical fighting. So what actually happened? It was the will of the people, the will of the Muslim community to practice Islam as it is and to extend same to non-Muslims because the essence of Islamic message is not to make you necessarily a Muslim, but to allow Islam to prosper. That is why we have what we call dhimmi, one with whom will have an agreement that he will not fight Islam and Islam will protect his rights.

KN71 [16067-16691]

What we, what we, yes of course, what was there in Medina? It was the constitution that was written. The non-Muslims and the Muslims with the prophet (SAW) as the head of that nation eh state, isn't it? Or of that society. The prophet (SAW) is doing everything according to the dictates of Islam. The non-Muslims are having the right to live their own way, but not to interfere with the religion of Islam. When there is a battle, any attack from outside, they will come together as one nation, to defend their country, to defend their state, to defend their society, to defend their interest. So what do you mean by an Umma

Yes, it is true but this jihad it is not mean, what I want you to understand, is when we say jihad, it doesn't mean the war, but the jihad, the word jihad means strengthen from the wrong to the right by all means, but not by arms confrontation. So if that is what jihad is mean, it is true.

KN72 [10401-10457]

Yes, it is true, it is only true jihad that people ahh

KN72 [10829-10970]

Yes, Islam can prevent Muslims from converting to other faith, but jihad does not means to impose the non-Muslims to convert into the Islam.

KN73 [10572-11016]

The, really Islam, jihad is not really necessary for non-Muslims to submit to Islam as it has happened that some Muslims, Uh some Muslim in the time of the prophet (SAW) they wasn't converted to Islam and they was coexistence between the Muslims. So that is not true. But it's not the jihad that will prevent you to not convert, a Muslim to not convert to another faith. It is a creed of Islam that a Muslim should not convert to other faiths.

KN74 [16890-18119]

Okay if we are looking at the word jihad, jihad has many different meaning. There is a physical jihad, and there is jihad that we can use our mouth or even our mind for we to make a jihad, but this jihad yes, jihad is necessary, but is not in this way because even prophet Muhammad (SAW) not force them to convert into lived together with the people which they were not a Muslim and he did Islam ehh because we heard it from holy Qur'an, Allah (SBUH) said it that (he recite a verse of the Qur'an) therefore, is not necessary for you to make the people to convert into Islam. Even, if you can remember when Sayyidina Ali (rabiyyallahu anu) who wish to be converted to Islam, he came to the prophet Muhammad (SAW) and asked him that he want to submit to Islam, the prophet Muhammad (SAW) sent him to his father for him to ask permission whether he agree or he will not allow him to become a Muslim or not. At the end his father told him that go and follow the will of your brother and he will never let you fall, whatever he is doing is right. Therefore, if you want to become Muslim, go and ehh ahh and follow his way. Therefore, I think this is not a necessary for you to use jihad to make non-Muslims to submit to Islam, yes.

KN75 [19138-19396]

Jihad is a way of Allah, active combat is not a, not always the rule on the battle field, not can everyone fight in the front line just for one single battle preparation have often to be made for decades. So jihad as you said, if I may get the question again

KN75 [20090-20518]

I disagree, as I told you, no compulsion in Islam. Islam has its own rule of converting people to Islam by using other methods like Da'wa, preaching to people, is not by carrying sword or jihad, jihad, jihad that make someone to enter Islam, you understand, kuma if somebody, if you want to call somebody to your religion you use your hikma and wisdom, you use your wisdom to draw somebody to Islam ...nasiha you use your hikma.

KN76 [12712-13235]

No, it is not true, is not true because when you are looking at jihad from the view or the first Muslim, Muslims that is the Salafu salih that is the companions of the prophet Muhammad you can see the meaning of jihad. You can see why all the wars that were fought between the Muslims and the Quraish and the other non-Muslims communities, you will see the reason behind those wars. All you can see that most of the jihad were purely defensive, the Muslims were trained to defend the Islamic state or the Islamic religion.

KN78 [15037-15350]

Well I think, it is, it is false in a modern scheme of human affairs particularly in a secular ahh in a secular society that has secular institutions, that has a constitution that every other source of law is subject to. Within the context of Nigeria, if you are to ask me frankly, I will say it is, it is false.

KN79 [6918-7064]

No. Good attitude and leniency are the major causes of converting to Islamic faith as showing during the life time of the prophet Muhammad (SAW).

KN80 [12318-12875]

It is true, but it depends on the situation you found the place and the people. So some situation they warrant to wage jihad that is the physical combat of fighting using force to convert Islam, but all the jihad waged right from the time of prophet Muhammad (SAW) up till Usman dan fodio and other African jihadist. Jihad ahh Islam never encourages to use force in order to have conversion. So not only using force can be regarded as a jihad, but there is need for the Muslim to work and preach Islam in each and every nook and crannies within there ahh...

KN80 [13097-13534]

Yes is true because even the continued, the teaching of Islam, those who submitted, the scholars that submitted their self to preaching and teaching Islam, it is also a jihad. And the preaching of Islam may warrant in making convert of non-Muslim into Islam. And it will also retain the Muslims into their own religion because they are always acquiring more knowledge on Islam and more significance of Islam and the importance of Islam.

KN81 [6957-7162]

Yes sir, it is not true jihad is not a struggle to convert any non-Muslim to Islam. It is not only through jihad that we can convert non-Muslim to ahh Islam, so physical jihad is for self-defense in Islam.

KN82 [9646-10032]

You see there are many or substantial part of non-Muslims that were attracted by the good habit of the prophet and his companions. They are attracted as a result of that good habit. So it is not necessary that the states has to use is instrument to compel there is no compulsion in Islam. Islam is advocating for peace and things are done in accordance with the respect of that peace.

KN83 [6038-6352]

Yes jihad can prevent Muslims from converting to other faiths, but cannot impose on non-Muslim to accept Islam. Non-Muslims can only accept Islam through convince not force. In history, non-Muslims accept Islam by force that is why there is a verse in the Qur'an which says that there is no compulsion in Muslim.

KN84 [6951-7175]

I think Islam is a religion of peace no necessity on it, it does not impose anybody on jihad yah is part of Islam, so no ground, no group of any comp-in Islam and jihad cannot be means of preventing Muslims from converting.

KN85 [5870-6156]

This is false to a greater extent. So many people have converted to Islam not through jihad maybe through being ah honest Muslims, being honest, sincere, being good neighbors, being generous to them, preaching to them, not necessarily through jihad. So this is to great extent false.

ZA1 [7598-8335]

You asked two questions. One, is jihad is necessary to make non-Muslims to convert to Islam. Two, to prevent Muslims from converting to another... Now the first question Allah said that la iqra ha fid din... There is no compulsory on imposing Islam on anybody, no. Only if someone will preach if you agree you accept masha allah. Now in issue of preventing Muslims to convert definitely yes because prophet said that whosoever, whosoever tests an iman and he knows how iman is, he cannot convert to Is, he cannot convert to another religion, but there is a rule that if a Muslim convert to another religion after all the steps have been followed and it is a genuine that definitely he convert from Islam, definitely there is a rule over it.

ZA2 [4818-5887]

Yes, it is true because as we have seen now, jihad although there is a misinterpretation of the word jihad that is why we have certain problems to even the society today. When we say jihad even people assume is just carrying of weapons, going to fight people that is what the jihad, no, no. Jihad in itself is saying the way you interpret the words of God before people, the way you guide people towards sincerity, peace, the relationship between you and your neighbor, it doesn't call for anything misunderstanding, no, equal rights, give everybody is legal right, is not saying no rather if you go by the even the verse of the Qur'an at the end of the day I say even before the prophet there is a place they say a verse is saying lakum di lakum waliyyadin, is now telling that, the prophet is the one preaching, but at the end live on the kind of intervention of some words between him and the non-Muslim, God is guiding him there that their own religion is for them yours is for you. So you see he was not asked to fight them, so only that is the misunderstanding.

ZA3 [8545-8568]

I strongly disagree.

ZA4 [20623-21456]

Yes, jihad dama jihad is necessary for anything that will destroy Islam you prevent it, you understand, is a form of preventing any evil that will destroy the Islam, you understand. So is not the concept of I use jihad to destroy people's lives or to cause destruction by killing people or ... jihad is also there, is also there to promote Islam if it is necessary, but there is some a guidelines that prophet Muhammad (SAW), if you follow that guideline you may not even need jihad, you may not even need it because there are many ways of approaching people, many ways of calling people to the right path not jihad because jihad at this moment is what? Is black painting our deeds because people are saying that Islam is thing of terrorism and all that. So these things we need to be taught, this is the teaching of Prophet Muhammad.

ZA5 [11086-11682]

This one is false because I if I look at it bringing somebody you, can't force a horse to a river, you can force a horse to a river, but you can't force it to drink the water if I may say. So because of that I don't see the reason why you say that you must force somebody to a religion. Is either you give him opportunity, you explain to him, if he understands and he see is the proper way, then like go back to and stay in the religion. But somebody that is in the religion and he say that he want to go back to any other religion is either he has his own opinion, they you understand. Thank you

ZA6 [17485-19850]

Ahh yes jihad is necessary to make non-Muslims not Muslims submit to Islam, of course. That is why I explained what jihad really means. If you are charitable to someone it is jihad, if you are good to someone it is jihad. It is, jihad is the purification of the heart hmm, the fear of God. Let me cite an example now, if you are staying, like a Muslim now, if you stay with someone, even you as ah, you are a Christian right? Okay you as a Christian now, try and stay with a Muslim that is not very versed in Islam, stay with him for quite some time and very nice to him, provide what he wants, be very nice to him and be very charitable to him and you will see the impact in him. He will as well want to convert to your faith. So it is the same thing with Islam. Jihad, when you are doing jihad of the heart, you are been nice to people, you are been charitable, you are, you help people a lot, people see the good in you, the non-Muslims will come to realize okay this guy is really practicing what Islam is really teaching. Now if Islam is really this kind of religion, religion of peace hmm, the religion that teaches peaceful coexistence, you know, you practice your religion, I practices my religion, you know, but we still relate in a very mutual way, when you are being nice to people that is jihad, and by doing that, you try, you draw people's attention to your religion everybody will, in fact the human heart is a clean heart. If you are been nice to someone, you definitely will influence. That someone will want to come and be like you, he wants to know the reason behind that, you get, and once a Muslim, if a Muslim engages in such a jihad not the physical aspect as they teach, if a Muslim engages in such a jihad, definitely he will convert a lot of non-Muslims to Islam, and if you teach if as Muslims you stay together as Muslims and you treat each other fairly and justly, there is no way a Muslim will want to convert to another faith hmm you understand what am saying, so that is the jihad a talking, am telling you about. If you treat yourself, just with justice, justice is very important in Isla,m. Islam teaches absolute justice. If individually the Muslims practices the jihad of the heart and they treat each other justly, you have no reason to go and and practice other faiths you definitely remain a Muslim and will be proud of it.

ZA7 [8455-8771]

Well I believe faith in religion and other faiths; one cannot prevent anybody or impose any religion on anybody. But I think jihad goes a long way since it preaches good and ahm preachers against bad along way in capturing the minds of non-Muslims into Islam and also preventing them from going into other beliefs.

ZA8 [11315-11935]

This is not true because, like I said, in Islam number one thing the prophet said himself (SAW) that you should never force anybody to accept Islam. Jihad does not mean you force somebody to accept Islam. Jihad means tell them, give them an option, what you are doing, these are the advantages, these are the disadvantages. Islam, these are the advantages, these are the disadvantages, you should choose one, but you should tell them like an advice, this is what I think is right for you by preaching to them what Islam is all about. That is jihad in its real sense not forcing anybody to accept Islam. It is not done.

ZA9 [9314-9702]

Well is true to some extent and other wise because even if jihad is undertaken and the non-Muslims are forced to become Muslims, I believe faith is in your mind, faith is inside you, is not really what you practice. To some extent is what you practice but they might even accept to become Muslims, but deep inside them they are not happy with it and they are practicing another religion.

ZA10 [10695-11417]

Yes it's true because when you do jihad, like I have said earlier, jihad fi sabilillah is the act of going and spreading the word of God asking people, telling people what God is, God is one and Prophet Mohammed (SAW) is the messenger and the day of Judgment and the angels, you tell them about Islam, the faith, what Islam entails and that is jihad. When you do so you will make the non-believer to understand the faith that is the religion Islam and will know the importance, the beauty that is in it and will also prevent the non-Muslim because it will be like a review, an awareness to them and will always tell them that yes there is God. So it will also prevent them from going back, converting to other religions.

ZA11 [8726-9334]

Well, there are some verses in the Qur'an that says, "Let them hold to their religion and to your religion you hold on to", well even during the prophet's time (SAW), there are Christians and Muslims they stayed together. So the ability for you to convert somebody into or pull somebody into Islam is not forceful because when you force somebody into Islam is most serving in the will, so he could practice and along the line if you are not there to put that this thing he will walk back to it, but actually sharia, I guess, is the best way of the Muslim life, living and if that is actually achieved then...

ZA12 [5520-5709]

It is not true because the way the Christians view jihad is by taking arm to kill your fellow human being, so I don't think jihad will bring a non-Muslim from other religion to join Islam.

ZA13 [4979-5322]

Well ah I don't agree with this because even in a state where non-Muslims in a state, in a particular state, I think in a particular state here, there are non-Muslims who are practicing their religions and they are not being forced at all and those Muslims who live within them I think they are able to live within the descriptions of Islam.

ZA14 [4493-4506]

It is false

ZA15 [9153-9486]

You cannot stop somebody from, it is false, why I am saying it is false is, you don't compel people to enter into your religion because Allah says la iqra ha fid din, there is no compulsion in Islam, even when you do jihad, even when you do jihad, you do it and you don't force people, compel people that they must enter into Islam.

ZA16 [5532-5539]

False.

ZA17 [4135-4581]

Jihad toh I don't know why this jihad is been contradicted this way, because actually this jihad, as I mentioned in the other hadith they were coming from a battle and that battle so many have lost their lives, so many has lost, I say ah toh we are facing, they win this one, but we are facing a greater one, I think that is what the Rasulillah has said, they said ha Rasulillah what is the greater one? He said the greater one is jihadin nafs.

ZA18 [6795-6834]

No this is false, this is a fallacy.

ZA19 [8919-9339]

This is quite false or mendacious. This is because if you say that jihad is necessary to make non-Muslims submit to Islam that means you still, ok we can look at it from other aspect of jihad actually by offering, I mean being generous to them, actually that could cajole them or make them submit to the Islamic teaching, but not necessarily to the other means of jihad which people actually misconceive the word jihad.

ZA20 [4398-4607]

It is true because Ulama, the Islamic jurisprudence do call people to Islam peacefully preaching to them, getting reach out to them you know, meeting one on one or group by group without violence, forcefully.

ZA21 [6005-6433]

Like I said recently that jihad is necessary to make, to propagate non-Muslims to come to your faith but it does not entail you should completely say everybody must be Muslims. It is not necessary that everybody must be a Muslim. Yours is only to preach. If you so preach the gospel of your religion somebody will say ok this is this and this is that. Only people that Allah so desires they should be Muslims are Muslims.

ZA22 [5883-6160]

Yah jihad is there but it doesn't mean that it must compel non-Muslims to convert to Islam or to disallow Muslims from reverting or from apostasy. But I think jihad is there for our purpose just to protect our empires, Muslim territories from intruders. That is it basically.

ZA23 [8961-9963]

You see jihad-You said is necessary? (Question repeated) As I said earlier what we are doing as Muslims today we must copy it from the Muslims of those days more especially the Rasul (SAW) and the sahaba. In Islam you call non-Muslims to Islam not to fight them. If they accept Alhamdulillah rabil alamin that is what we are after. If they don't you are only authorized to fight as a defense and not as an attacker. In Islam Muslims are not encouraged to attack non-Muslims. It is only when the non-Muslims attack you then you have to defend yourself. So looking at that all those- what the holy prophet (SAW) started doing was sending his messengers with letters to the royal families then calling them to Islam. Those who accept, they accept silently and nothing happened. Those who reject, they reject quietly and nothing happened, but those who waged war against the prophet (SAW), they were the only ones that were fought. So it is not jihad as fighting that will enforce Islamic state in anywhere

ZA24 [11094-12197]

Ah it is not true, it is not true. In my own perspective and the way I understanding jihad, you can use jihad to convert non-Muslims to Islam, but not jihad the way Nigerians are looking at jihad. Jihad is not to use sword, or using cutlass or using gun to force somebody to Islam. So Islam is something that you willingly submit yourself to all mighty Allah, willingly not through enforcement. So therefore you can use jihad to convert somebody to Islam. If you are a good ambassador of your religion and doing good too and your character is good to non-Muslims they will see the good thinks in Islam and say ok so Islam is good like this? But the way people are looking at Islam, majority of people believe that if you trust Muslims they are going to cheat you. Ninety percent of corrupt leaders majority of them are Muslims that is why that one is not a jihad. But if you good to them, you are always a good neighbor to them- the only thing is don't follow them to their religion, but if you are good to them you are doing jihad. Through that they can emulate your religion and accept your religion.

ZA25 [10032-10991]

Yes as I still maintain jihad is necessary to making non-Muslims to submit yes. It is necessary but still that concept of jihad should not be limited to physical fight. It starts from real practicing of Islamic practices. There are some good virtues that are emphasized in Islam that cut across religions and the races such as faithfulness, trustworthiness and friendliness. Hmm good neighborliness all these things they are what non-Muslims can see in you and you could tell them that it is Islam that emphasize that preach this so I am doing it because my prophet, my Qur'an says I should be doing this. I should be trustworthy, I should be honest, I should be kind, I should be compassionate, I should be neighborly. So it is there we start from not just jump to physical jihad we should also remember that prophet Muhammad (SAW) did not just start fighting. He was pushed towards and he was given permission by Allah Subhana wa ta'allah to fight back.

ZA26 [5645-5752]

I told you that Prophet (SAW) never fought any jihad unless he was being attacked. I keep on saying this.

ZA27 [3552-3802]

Take any other question (Question repeated) actually jihad is beyond this one. Even as a Muslim you have your own personal jihad to do that means we have what we call jihadin nafs to now to fight yourself against all other vices. It is beyond this.

ZA28 [11484-12064]

Well as a Muslim even your action alone if you are a true Muslims your actions alone will tell people how you take your religion and how good a teaching gives you and how a good direction it gives you. So jihad is in different ways. It is not as I mentioned a physical fight and it is not even a fight. So you can preach actually, you can call people to your religion through preaching, through nicely telling them about the religion not in a harsh manner and then if somebody feels he is ok with your point and what the religion is all about fine then he joins and only God knows

ZA29 [18799-20017]

Well to the extent in which this true is that jihad, to strive in teaching the concept of Islam to the non-Muslims –anywhere I see jihad please pardon me I will use the word strive so that I would make it clear to those that misconceive the information or the definition of jihad, if they really want to know they should go back to the Arabic dictionary yes the definition is written there. So to me here when you say jihad is necessary to make non-Muslims submit, it is necessary by using the word strive yes. When you are telling them what is wrong and what is right and the teachings of the Islam and telling them that yes the religion is not a manmade religion or the rules and the regulations are not manmade are God's religion and those that have strong faith, yes of course yes the non-Muslims to submit, but not under any pressure, not you forcing them. The religion says say it, but for them to believe it is not yours that is what God said. God almighty said yes disseminate my message, tell the people, but it is not for their own power for them to believe. It is mine when I decide to make them believe I let them I make them believe. But when you disseminate the message you have done your own part. Yes.

ZA30 [22586-25302]

Gaskiya, this one I can't say it is true and I cannot say it is false. The reasons why I cannot say it is true is because now we have been witnessing Muslims, other people are converting to Islam through preaching (coughing and sneezing), thank you, if you are in Nigeria (coughing and coughing), as long that you are following this ehm tafsir going on in Sultan Bello, like last year, I forgot the actual figures but I think people converted to Islam in that mosque from the beginning of ehm Ramadan to the end, I don't think everyday, I think people, I don't think that they are, even more than fifty (50) that converted in just a month into Islam, men and female from different area kuma in Nigeria. So you see it is not only through jihad (clearing throat and coughing) that you can convert people into Islam and invite people into Islam (clearing of throat). You can invite people into Islamic through your character. You can invite people into Islam through the actual preaching, telling people what are the content of Quran and the Hadith. When you are advertise it to them and you open it to them, this is the actual message that they are passing in the Holy Qur'an, oh Qur'an is a miracle. Hadith, so people can listen to it and can also accept it because they have seen the instances because I have given the example of Sultan Bello mosque. So, but also as I said it, I can't say it is true and I can say it is wrong. Islam has also got the faith of other people through jihad before that is during the Rasul (SAW), after the demise of the Rasul, Sayyidina Abubakar that is through the commandant Khalid bin Walid and down to Usman Danfodio, he also did the jihad and he also converted people into Islam. So, but now there are development I can say. There are technologies. There are a lot of things. Through a good character, you can invite somebody into Islam. Through preaching, you can invite somebody into Islam, but am not denying jihad. Jihad can become necessary may be in when you are trying to defend yourself, is a compulsory to defend your people when somebody want, just come into you and trying to attack you, you can defend yourself. But I don't think ma you can win, the way the world are today, I don't think you can win somebody jihad, but if you win somebody through jihad, you win his faith, I think you force it into him. May be as this world becomes like a globe now, anything happening in any part of the world, within the fraction of the second, somebody from America can see what is happening. So anytime that person is free, he will go back to his own faith. So I believe though, I prefer to invite somebody into Islam through my character or through preaching than through jihad.

ZA31 [6423-6578]

oh it is false. It is false because you can't force, there is no religion that force someone to submit except through preaching, except through preaching.

ZA32 [14599-15835]

I can say this statement is not true because or is true as well as not true. Jihad is necessary, but to say non-Muslims must what, submit to Islam is not, is not true because no compulsion in religion. Allah (SUBH) said in Qur'an too that no compulsion in religion la iqra ha fid din. By saying that or by considering that verse that or Qur'anic verse we can say Islam or jihad is not necessary to make Muslims submit to Islam because of they are not destined to have believed in Allah, you cannot guide them, if they are misguided by Allah, you as a Muslim, you cannot get them. The only thing you can do is to call them. If they have submitted is what, Alhamdulillah, we can say Alhamdulillah if otherwise, still you can say Alhamdulillah because if someone, if someone embraces Islam willing-less, willing-less, so the Islam t seems to be invalid and so also you are not expected to even fight, to even fight the non-Muslim unless and until when they violate the peace or the agreement between you and them between Muslims and the non-Muslims and that is the reality.

ZA33 [5450-5981]

Yes it is true because jihad of nafs that is the faith is the most strongest and expensive jihad because for you now to fight you have to fight with your heart. So in such Muslims now make jihad in order to make sure that their-in order to propagate and to extend or to make the religion to extend to other parts by preaching. Yes so that those Muslims that have lower faith cannot convert to non-Muslim religions. So in the other way unbelievers can also convert to Islam by the good character and strength shown by the Muslims.

ZA34 [13343-14325]

I said that jihad does not necessarily mean fighting, but what people really understand jihad most times is that you must take an arm then you fight others. Jihad simply means struggle. Yes you can struggle to make other people to accept Islam, but through peaceful way. May be through preaching, through educating them, through even good deeds of yours because rasul (SAW) in some cases in Mecca, he did not preach the other people that embraced Islam because they only saw his aqlaq-his behavior and they accepted Islam. There are so many examples of such, he uses his behavior. So the behavior of Muslims can attract others from other religions to accept Islam. Likewise through their good preaching, through their educating them they can bring them to Islam and even the Muslims can correct most of their mistakes of knowing what Islam really is all about not necessarily by knowing jihad, you pick arms you just go and fight others that will not bring peace within the state.

ZA35 [4700-5038]

Yes, like I said earlier we have different types of jihad, that of the mind that you fight your own Iman I think is the type used here, if you have faith and you want to fight jihad before you can ask others to do it, before you can ask others to do it, by having that faith you would not be able to leave your own religion for another.

ZA36 [9514-9923]

To me, it is false because there is no compulsion in religion, even the prophet (SAW) said it he did not force anybody to Islam and we as his followers are not supposed to force anybody. If we believe that our religion is the genuine one and we believe in our ways, they are good ways of the prophet, if we really practice the way, am sure that people would admire it. So we don't have to go into any jihad.

ZA37 [8780-9440]

The word jihad ba, this word jihad, it has different perceptions. Number one perception of this jihad when you mention it, people are thinking that it is just for you to take a weapon and fight against non-Muslims, that is what I understand from this statement. But jihad for me to even tell you a word on Islam, assuming you are a non-Muslim, to even tell you a word of Islam whether to convince you is a jihad. You can use it, you can jihad with our mouth, you can jihad with your what, wealth and so on and the best way of jihad is by preaching with holy Qur'an, it is by preaching with holy Qur'an. So this is the observation I am making with this jihad.

ZA38 [16210-17107]

It is false, it is false because even, I will still refer back to historical aspect, during time of the prophet, there were some societies where he went to preach, to pass the gospel, you understand, to pass the good news to them, they disagreed. He did not fight them, he did not do them anything. It is when the people started seeing the good tidings that the prophet said, they started converting to Muslims, you understand, even though there are some people who they fought, they fought them because of, it is defensive not offensive fight. I don't buy the idea that you must be an Islamic, what do they call it, jihad or what do they call it the thing you said, to make non-Muslims submit to Islam. You can't force a non-Muslim, in Islam there is no even grounds for that. You don't force someone into your religion, but tell him the good tidings about the religion, tell him the good news.

ZA39 [17705-19928]

Well jihad, like I said, it is not restricted to the taking up of arms. What we should, if we are to go by this statement, for others to appreciate this thing whether to say yes or no, we look at the life of the Rasul that is the prophet (SAW) during his life time and Islam came as a new religion to the people of, the inhabitants of Mecca. As a result of that, they persecuted Muslims, forcing them to migrate from another place that is Medina and when the prophet reached Medina, he met Christians, he met Jews who were practicing their believes that is Judaism and Christianity and the prophet (SAW) signed a treaty that is a peace agreement, to be, to live in peace with one another, to protect when a war is to be wedge against the people of a particular, that is either Jews, prophet signed a bilateral relationship or relationship that is treaty that the Muslims where duty bound to protect the non-Muslims. When Muslims where to be attacked by the outsiders that is the pagans it was the Christians were duty bound and the Jews to protect the Muslim. So even at the life time of the prophet, like I said, the early migration that the Muslims started I mean witnessed was the migration to Abyssinia that is Ethiopia under the leadership of a Christian leader. So it is not rue to say that jihad must mkae non-Muslims to submit. During the life time of the prophet (SAW) he lived with the non-Muslims, the Christians and the Jews even though in the history, some may say that the prophet drove some of the Jews outside Medina, but that is something that happened differently. It was as a result after the treaty they signed with the prophet to live and to protect one another, so those certain category, those people part of the Jews they betrayed him by inviting, sponsoring a war, paid non-pagans to come to Medina to fight against the prophet. It was as a result of this after the prophet succeeded in tackling that war, he drove them outside Medina because they were considered as people, their act was considered to be treason that is treason against the prophet, but actually the prophet lived with the Christians, lived with the Jews, signed even treaty to protected one another. So it is not true.

Th7:10: Jihad for True Shari'a and Shari'a State in Northern Nigeria

FG1 [26603-26774]

Yes it is necessary. You can even see it now. Like in Kano State, Jigawa state, Zamfara State we have what is called hisbah and this hisbah they are serving as jihadists.

FG1 [26775-27151]

I don't think that is necessary. What will benefit someone when you try to impose things, it is from their hearts it is from the hearts of the people. If the people could not accept it even if you waste your time and do it they will still continue doing what they like. So I think trying to fight them or whatever is not the issue. Just for them to be educated that is all.

KD1 [28075-29139]

That's actually a complicated issue. It is complicated in such a way that you can't separate northern Nigeria, is like causing a cessation, because we already have an amalgamation from 1914. That's one issue on its own. Another issue is that this northern Nigeria you are talking about does not actually, is a place we have a majority being Muslims, is not just only Muslims that live there. For example, am in Kaduna state now, we have southern Kaduna, we have other part of Kaduna, more of, a good proportion of southern Kaduna are apparently non-Muslims, so establishing Islamic state in what sense or Islamic sharia in what sense? How are they going to accept it? One thing is to great extent we have sharia courts. We have other place, we are ourselves can actually implement sharia at our own, to our own level, to our own ability. The remaining part that is left is beyond us for now. By the time everybody are actually, we now be on the same page, nobody will actually, nobody will even think twice before we all adopt the Islamic sharia without any force.

KD2 [11085-11183]

Actually it's not necessary, jihad is not necessary to introduce the true rule of Sharia. It's not

KD3 [8664-8695]

Jihad, jihad is not necessary.

KD4 [14349-15047]

Well I will still tell you what I told you earlier on. If say jihad is necessary, I will say yes, jihad is necessary. Which type of jihad? We have to start somewhere that is jihadin nafs. You have to start from fighting yourself individually first, you have to start making your mind clean, you have to start showing good example, you have to portray your religion first, you have to show good example of your religion for others to see and say that yah you are doing the right thing. If they can emulate you and be part of you, then with that you can change the whole society. But not just wake up one day, start carrying sword, killing people and say that is jihad. I don't think that is jihad.

KD5 [8371-8711]

I will say no, jihad is not needed in the current Nigerian situation to create, to form or to establish Islamic state. That is not necessary because right before today, we have been living peacefully and harmoniously. So, there is freedom of religion and the rest. So, I don't think there is any need for the establishment of Islamic state.

KD6 [20542-20691]

Yes, it can be established, jihad can be established in northern Nigeria. But still it can still accommodate other people that they are not Muslims.

KD7 [12586-13763]

Yes, I say it is a necessary, a necessary tool eh for northern Nigeria to be Islamized, but as I said earlier, northern Nigeria, you pick, we are so many, tribes and multi-religious society. You can't just come up and decide that in Kaduna state, you are going to introduce full sharia, in a part of Kaduna state, there are large numbers of Christians, how do you expect them to react? But because the word jihad has been so much abused, we always feel that it is a fight, we have to take up arms. Yes, ahm each should bring peaceful, in a peaceful manner and even when we say we want sharia, we should be allowed to have that sharia, but the sharia should be within the law. It should not be about I am not a Christian, you are a Christian, so because I am doing sharia, sharia must be enforced on you, no. The laws of sharia, if you sit down and read the Old Testament and the New Testament, they are most of our laws, they are common in manners of dressings, in manners of behavior, in manners of marriage, life and death. They are all similar. So, if we do the sharia in the way it should be done, I am thinking that even those who are non-Muslims will be happy with it.

KD8 [25430-27049]

Okay, as a Muslim, I will like to say that it is Islam that is ruling the affairs of the state, but the heterogeneity of the state will make it impossible and the issue of modernity. We are living in the democratic era, we are living in the so called modern world, so it will be quite difficult, I would have love that so that Islam will be because Islam, what is central in Islam is justice, fairness. So, I will like to see Islamic state controlling the affairs of northern Nigeria so that because I believe that the Christians are going to be safe and the Muslims are going to be safe. We are going to live a good life, we are going to have an Islamic banking system. Our, everything is going to be okay. We are going to live a good life and I believe even the Christians will be happy with us because their rights are going to be protected because under Islamic state, everybody's right is protected. It is not expected that you will, you will inflict pain on the person that does not belong to your faith, you understand. So, I see Islamic state as, it's difficult actually. but I will love to see something like that, but first of all, we have to be educated, we have to live a good life and it has to start from your home. You have to make sure that when you go to somebody's house, you will see Islam there. You will see if the person is living well with the family, they are been educated, they are living peacefully and they are living in accordance to the injunctions of the religion which will now bring a very good home and it's good home that will now allow, you know, transcend to the level of the state.

KD9 [17153-17540]

I will agree with it. It is necessary, but we will still go back. So it is still the same thing if we have somebody that will lead us. In the true jihad yes it is necessary, it is necessary. The way things are going now if we have somebody that will really show us how to go about the jihad at the end of the day there might be no sword lifted against anybody before we get our result.

KD10 [11276-11638]

The fact is it is correct. For sharia, the din of Allah to prevail, so we need jihad. Are you getting me? But don't forget that when am making jihad, jihad, jihad, the condition must be met, the condition for fighting jihad must be fulfilled otherwise if you fight any jihad without the conditions fulfilled, we are going to be sinful and guilty of wrong doing.

KD11 [15394-16492]

Well I think in truth towards the end 1999 to the beginning of 2001 in fact there was so much, what do you call it, there was so much, those who, the politicians that attempted to introduce sharia in northern Nigeria even though it is under political democracy, under a secular state, people then, you need to see the way sharia is accepted, not accepted the way the people were clamoring for it, why because they felt it will be a system that will liberate them from their suffering, most importantly from their economic backwardness and from the injustice they have suffered from the previous administration ah what do you call it, from the previous military regime. They felt sharia will liberate them, improve their status. There will be justice, the establishment ah it will establish an equal, just and fair egalitarian society, however, when they realized, when people realized that this sharia that was brought to them was not, will not do any of such or their expectation rather it was meant to advance the cause of some few politicians, people backed down from support of such sharia.

KD12 [19272-19677]

Ah sharia so far that it is the pivotal controlling every aspect of Muslim life it has to be, it has been established during Sardauna, during Tafawa Balewa, but gradually eroding because of the influential customs that most of the northern has gone to inculcate and bring in, so gradually when they know that this things is going to affect them you see, so they are waving it, now it has to be embedded.

KD13 [6173-6412]

It is necessary, it is truthful, but the first way to fight the jihad is that we ourselves we should first of all fight on our own by changing our own selves before going ahead to change somebody. That is the only way we can forge ahead.

KD14 [8197-8357]

I would say that is not necessary because most of the northern Nigeria, they are all practicing their religion peacefully there, so there is no room for jihad.

KD15 [11335-11678]

Ah jihad is necessary if you want to create a jihad state or jihad country probably a sharia state ahm by doing good deeds and good intention, you have good intention by following the ways of God and the laws of the prophet, I think if we can be okay with that, we can definitely establish a jihad state and that means establish a sharia law.

KD16 [6352-6664]

Truly we have to take the cognizance of the state that this, even in the northern part of the country we have mixture of Muslims and non-Christians and even the prophet (SAW) has said before live with Muslims. The only thing he asked them to do was to pay jizya which they did and he lived in harmony with them.

KD17 [20187-21375]

Ah jihad, does it mean to raise up arms and start fighting the government? Is that what it means to established the Islamic state? No, getting the true meaning, telling the true Islamic meaning, the true Islamic law, what Islam says, what Islam explains, what Islam explains that is the way you can explain the Islamic state, not by rising arms. Okay you will give people arms to go and raise where those that are rising harm does not even no what it means to rise up harms against people you are rising up arms do not even know what it means to raise up arms against people. You are raising arms and you don't know how to pray. You are raising up arms you don't even know how to fast, you don't know how to perform ablution. You don't know how to clean up yourself. These are basic issues which you need to no about Islam, understand the teachings of Islam. Just, as I said earlier, by the time you understand the true Islam and understand the true Islam, we can establish the Islamic state without necessarily rising up arms, without necessarily saying we are rising arms and fighting people. We can establish the Islamic state, establish whereby sharia will be practiced by everybody.

KD20 [8586-9667]

Yes I think jihad is necessary when I say jihad is necessary is that jihad is necessary when for the Muslim, according to the rules, according to the rules of sharia and regulations of the holy Qur'an and hadith of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) eh jihad is not all about killing. Jihad we, jihad is necessary and jihad is not necessary on the other hand. I say jihad is necessary because other people, other religions can stay we can stay together if there is understanding by not killing, to the extent that we can even stay together in peace and jihad is necessary in the sense that we Muslims we use, is part of, is part of our ibadat that we use to encourage ourselves, you understand, that we use to encourage ourselves, it is not a must that jihad must fight, must no fight, even though non-Muslims can live in a Muslim state or in a Muslim community with peace without any problem. Yes, so that jihad is necessary in our religion, but not just to be fighting, but to make sure we mobilise other people, we try to let the people know what our religion is all about that is it.

KD21 [8738-8931]

Yes it is necessary. Sometimes, things don't go right only by diplomatic sittings and agreement, sometimes you have to go forcefully, sometimes you have to like employ the corporal teachings.

KD23 [9036-9322]

Yes I agree with this position. I agree with this position, but ah the problem is that so the modern ah is the modern era that we are in now, but so this statement is correct, is correct, but in our present times, but the statement in our country is very contrary to our present times.

KD24 [36853-36984]

I am responding just as I respond to the other one based upon that what they need is knowledge, knowledge will settle everything.

KD25 [47237-48468]

That is true, but it has to be done on a gradual process because just as the English people say, Rome was not built in a day and God even told us as per how he revealed the Qur'an to the prophet. It was not just overtime, it was not just instantly that God revealed the whole Qur'an to the prophet (SAW), we were told that God continued revealing the Qur'an to the prophet to the tune of 23 years before he completed the revelation of the Qur'an. So that means that we are supposed, just as Allah has ah decided not to reveal the Qur'an at once, not that it was beyond Allah's power, Allah can do it within a twinkle of an eye, but he tried to do that so that for us to learn our lessons that anything you want to do, you should be following it gradually. We shouldn't just try to follow it in a quick way and faster way and wanting to have a good result, is not possible. That is why Allah said (he recites in Arabic) Allah said and the Qur'an that we have decided not, that we've been revealing it unto the prophet from time to time, so that you the prophet will read it until people, you know, are trained so that people will understand it. Allah said (he recites in Arabic) and reveal the Qur'an unto you through revelation.

KD26 [11977-12306]

Jihad is necessary. It is necessary in the sense that, as I keep insisting, jihad of the tongue. If you are able to do jihad and then win lots of people over, I think what is not possible, everything is possible, you can actually, you can actually get the Muslim state that you are looking for without you having to draw arms.

KD27 [10209-10764]

You see like I said, one of the basic problems we face here in northern Nigeria is the lack of knowledge. We lack Islamic knowledge, we lack western knowledge. So that ignorance is what fuels most of the conflicts and the problems we face in this country, and jihad cannot be done without knowledge-Islamic knowledge. So we have to start there. We have to start by enlightening the population. Let them know because if they don't know what their rights are and where their rights stop, now how do you expect them to know when they go against the Sharia?

KD28 [16268-16831]

Well is first and foremost when you are to implement sharia in northern state, let them have the knowledge of what the sharia is. It is a law whatever it is that yes it is an injunction from Allah (SBUH) that prophet (SAW), if you have the knowledge that yes this one is done in the interest of Islam and interest of, for the sake of Allah fi sabilillah, this is the major aspect of it because you have to have understanding first because where the understanding, the knowledge is not there, nobody will know what really you are focusing on or you are aiming at.

KD29 [9238-9457]

In all honesty, sharia is not about molesting non-Muslims, is not about attacking non-Muslims, is about really following, checking the excesses, the excesses committed by Muslims misrepresenting the teachings of Islam.

KD30 [16353-16982]

Jihad is necessary to introduce the true rule of sharia ahm it depends on the type of ah what is it called, jihad. If we look at ah Iran for example, you will see that they act, they are practicing ah I think the state is under Islamic state now or Saudi Arabia, they have an Islamic state now and I don't think you will say that these people are carrying ammunition against other or their neighbors or people in the country, so I think people in the state are just sit down and see what they want and maybe ah ah putting into maybe politics or even vote for people that have the same ideology and they could go where they want.

KD31 [11345-11473]

Yes it is, it is because as far as I am concerned wherever you are in this world you have the right to practice your religion.

KD32 [12993-14453]

Ah the issue of establishing a sharia state is it has this generalize many debates eh as we have witnessed in the northern Nigeria and if you look at the case of the boko haram in the north east ah as they are calling it, they are claiming to be they are fighting to establish and Islamic state which is if you look at the ground the basic ground which is very not true, so you can establish a sharia state in a place like we have witnessed in Zamfara, there is eh around 1999 to 2000 we introduced sharia in that state and we introduced it in a diplomatic way without any war, without any killing any person it is the majority of the people that accepted to strictly practice an Islamic sharia and when they are doing that, they do it in such a way that any non-believer, anybody who is not a Muslim you can decide not to engage in such, you use the constitutional law not necessarily the sharia law, so taking that we can do it in a diplomatic way and we can just to implement the sharia just to try to minimize some of the mischievous acts like alcoholism, like prostitutes, like all other things which goes against the teachings of Islam just these are the things and this should be strictly within the Muslims, anybody who does not faith will not be engage in that like I have said there is a verse that said there is no compulsion in din, there is no compulsion in Islam la iqraha fid din, so this already been stated we cannot make it to be compulsory.

KD33 [12186-12500]

Well, to, to me if the jihad means what I said practicing Islam correctly teaching, its teaching, its good morals, ethics, yah, yah, it is necessary, but jihad which means fighting each other, conflict, I don't think that is necessary that is necessary to establish a sharia state for Muslims in northern Nigeria.

KD34 [11568-11794]

Another complicated word the word sharia. The way people are seeing the word sharia, so the way you will also define sharia, the way you see sharia, the way you view sharia, that is what will define whether it is good or bad.

KD35 [13617-13805]

Is true anybody who believes in Allah and hereafter and the Qur'an and the saying of the prophet must believe in the sharia and sharia just be carried out on him or she so that is simple.

KN1 [31953-32392]

My response is I will ask him to enlighten me more, because if he asks me to start taking weapon and killing non-Muslims under the pretense of jihad I will tell him that I know what will happen to me because God will not allow me, the wrath of God will definitely be on me if I do that. So it depends on what he means by jihad, I will definitely sit him down and ask him and what criteria, what way do you want to follow for him to fight.

KN2 [19041-19271]

That is right, they need it. All Muslims need it, but it has a process of achieving that. And you need to finish stage one before you move on to stage two or you need to finish with plan A, if it fails then you now go to plan B.

KN4 [25490-27057]

Yes, Jihad is necessary that is why you can go for campaign when you have your own manifesto or cardinal program. Tell them much, as much and much as you can tell them. Tell them what you will do when you do it as you promised that is jihad. When you apply, what is sharia? Sharia is just a set of rules, a regulation so you can establish a rule and regulation among the people but not forcing them those that are not in your religion to to join the religion. You can only treat them accordingly, you can only treat them accordingly that is possible using eh using using sharia since in Nigeria there is customary law, traditional ah, customary court ah traditional court and also sharia court. Each one of us has recognize this, you can only go only when you see people are talking much and much and perhaps I can say is the effect of electro media that is there and everybody knows except that it has very very little little eh understanding because most of us are confused because of the poverty, because of the level of poverty in the country, bad governance, poverty can come a lot of things can change the mentality of people and makes them not to think accordingly and make them not to think as human being. You know me, I know you we grow up together, we attend the same school, we are been there for one hundred and something years. You can't say you don't know me, it is only in the twentieth century that you can say I am using sharia, oh he is a Christian, oh he is a Muslim, it is not like that, it is poverty all is part of it, it is poverty.

KN4 [27232-27767]

No, people you can see, people are of different opinion they have many opinions. When you look at it in Christianity, you can say he is an extremist, in Islam you can say this person is an extremist but that does not really define the content of both religions. You can interpret and understand the content of the verses according to your own understanding not according to the real understanding of the book around the globe. People use their own concepts. Where is the question? Which question are we asking, where is the question

KN5 [11578-11959]

Jihad, jihad may not be very necessary with respect to the northern Nigeria. As to some level you have –ok you said true rule of sharia ah which is supposed to be executed hundred percent if that is the case. So yes of course you need jihad, you need jihad to do that actually, but but eh looking at its conditions and the consequences it may cause to Islam in the northern state.

KN6 [11730-12280]

Yes, ah even without Islamic state or with the Islamic state, you can practice your religious teaching, for example, many Muslims can live in America and what they are displaying based on their character or religion is better than those maybe who create their own state. So it is left to you whether to display your own character or not. So we need this Islamic state but if it is not possible we can live with all our colleagues together because the constitution of Nigeria allow all religions to practice his own religions, so there is no problem.

KN7 [12175-12790]

Ehm, jihad is necessary, is necessary because it's a way, it is a peaceful way, let me say it is a peaceful way of calling people towards the cause of a Islam and Allah in general but ehm, I think, I think with the implementation of sharia, it would indirectly, it would directly or indirectly bring jihad into it yes, it would indirectly or directly in jihad, I don't think ehm it is necessary you ehm you constitute an institution of jihad on its own. So with the implementation, with the formation of em, let me say the institution of sharia within the state. It would directly or indirectly bring in jihad, yes.

KN8 [10358-10841]

Yes I think jihad is a good prerequisite to ensure a good sharia, but is not the only condition as noted by the holy prophet (SAW) because in accordance to the will of the holy prophet, he said ijma, ijma atawadul mauluma- let the knowledgeable people come together, let there be council of elders, you understand, let there be consultations of the reasonable ones, you understand, for sharia to be put in place. Though jihad is also part of it, but it is not the only prerequisite.

KN9 [10961-11332]

Yes, jihad is necessary to establish sharia. This is because the sharia law doesn't, it doesn't, favour everybody. The sharia law comes with, it comes with ah rules and regulations that some portions of the society might imagine as being too strict on them. So in order to compel obedience from this people I think you need to apply force. Jihad has to be in place, yah.

KN10 [8833-9132]

Ehm, jihad, like I said, it is used to help but there is-it is not all the time that jihad, to fight, can be involved to achieve something in this state, in such state. So there is other means that Islam or all Muslims can be or can do it in order to, maybe ah, to introduce sharia into the system.

KN13 [12034-12586]

Is just the same to the question you asked earlier, usually the bone of contention here is that what for, for an Islamic state to be established definitely jihad must be, must have been, must have happened there, aside from that, if jihad have, if jihad have become in place, there have to be sharia whereby the institution of sharia, the way whereby sharia must be practiced whereby we have the major Islamic institutions like the baytul mali, the hisba and other institutions are supposed to be in place. So I think it is similar with the question.

KN14 [10037-10503]

Ok, in northern Nigeria, Nigeria is a secular country, I don't think you can come and introduce this kind of jihad in northern Nigeria because it is a secular country, and ahhhh i think this kind of jihad is not the solution and I told you that jihad can be in ah ah using weapons, it can be using other instruments like preaching and other things, but the jihad that one will use weapons in northern Nigeria is not possible because there are Muslims and non-Muslims

KN15 [10933-11414]

Yes jihad is necessary to introduce the true rule of sharia but ah we cannot establish it in northern Nigeria because northern Nigeria region is not a region for one religion, so let me say although Islam is the you know dominant you know religion in the region but still we have a lot of non-Muslims there that if we establish the law of sharia, it will not favour them which will bring about you know conflicts, a growing conflict that will not favour the both sides at the end.

KN16 [5756-5796]

Not necessarily jihad can achieve this.

KN17 [11736-12478]

Yeah its it is necessary for establishing sharia because it is it is true not even a bloodshed jihad but is even through a kind ah making amm the constitution to recognize ah that these northern states these Islamic states whereby the citizens of these states are we have 75% of the citizens ah citizens of a particular state are Muslims they are allowed to practice sharia as their doctrines because we still have in the normal penal courts whereby they use it in the normal magistrate court the sharia laws so I think they should be allowed to practice it is a kind of an a holy way that sanitize some kind of things in world, not even a kind of way of a way of checkmating market price is another form of jihad but still under sharia.

KN18 [20540-21060]

Well, look even within the Islamic injunctions, leadership a good leadership could come and survive even without the religion even without Islam. Even an un-Islamic, an un-Islamic leadership could be recommended and accepted if it is just and fair to the populace, but in a situation whereby the leadership is unjust okay, is unjust, unfair to the people therefore it is jihad to change that kind of leadership even with a vote, with a vote not with ah violence, is that kind of necessary jihad could be could be done.

KN19 [14953-15148]

Yes it is true because through the process of jihad after thousands of minds have been converted, you understand, I think sharia could be entrenched, the provision of sharia could be prolonged.

KN20 [7372-7391]

Yeah it's true, ah.

KN21 [5270-5381]

As I said earlier on we have both Muslims and non-Muslims living together, so it's going to be very difficult.

KN22 [10306-10586]

The true knowledge or the true teaching of Islam does not entail that it must come through jihad. Yah, through intellectual intellectuality, through seminar, conference organized by the Muslim movement and by Muslim scholars, you understand, we may have converts to the religion.

KN23 [8180-8224]

Yah it is true, like I said, by good deeds

KN24 [8226-8890]

That is jihad. That response is going to be different from other people's view because jihad, the way you put it or let's go back to 2011 in this country where Sokoto state governor or Zamfara state governor brought the issue of sharia which even the northerners here we are mixed up, Muslims and Christians. First before you even came into this idea although we are the more majority in the north as Muslims if we even accept it we have to start putting into practice and tell them how they are going to be putting their own into practice. So the issue here is that we are not supposed to put that one into practice since we are not only Muslims in the country.

KN25 [10465-10536]

Well this is very true. Jihad is necessary for this particular endeavor

KN26 [9856-10450]

Well I – the way I can respond that is that though I would not want to deviate from the question but rather, I don't think that is true because you can still have state whereby it is not a sharia state and justice and fairness still prevails even to Muslims. Since whether we like it or not, Nigeria is not a wholly Islamic country. For instance Saudi Arabia which is a wholly Islamic country they are practicing sharia there and even there the very, very minorities, some of the times visitors actually have also triumphed there. So you know to a very ah large extent I don't think that would...

KN27 [9969-10274]

Yes jihad I shouldn't say is extremely or let me say totally necessary because there are states that without jihad sharia existed there. For example, in northern Nigeria, you take places like Zamfara, I don't think there is any jihad that took place before the sharia was fully implemented in the state.

KN28 [7877-8137]

Well the jihad we are talking about I believe the one of carrying or others is not really what we should go for, but the one I believe which should be helpful to the citizens I believe it should be the one of helping with the wealth. And probably the kind help

KN30 [9470-9894]

Islamic state, to say that you are going to establish Islamic state now, gaskiya is a problem. but the only thing is the Muslims should try to get knowledge of what true Islam is all about and they should try to teach their people, to teach other Muslims what Islam is all about and to preach to those that are not Muslims for them to know what Islam is all about for them to accept it or continue their lives as they are.

KN31 [11101-11750]

Well in the context of this our own society, it will be very, very difficult for us to implement Sharia because two things are involved. Now we are living in a mixed society whereby we have Muslims and we have Christians and everybody will have-we are a very, very religious state and most people are conscious of religion. But you know normally what operates or what we operate here is secular, what do you call it, secular type of system. So we normally deal with constitution though we have our own Islamic court like the Sharia courts whereby the Muslims can go to that place so, but it will not be fully implemented in this our present society

KN32 [4145-4416]

You see ahm my son Kabir jihad is ah necessary, no no no I don't think jihad is necessary to introduce the true rule of sharia, even if it will be necessary it should be that of ah you do with your whole heart and your mind not that of carrying arms and ammunitions yes.

KN33 [4088-4151]

No because there is democracy so Muslims can't introduce sharia.

KN34 [5799-6040]

That's the perception of our other, how should I use, other non-Muslims that are perceiving it that way but I think non-Muslims have nothing to do with sharia or jihad. They are just misconceiving the whole idea of what jihad is all about.

KN35 [7830-8069]

Jihad is necessary to introduce sharia. I believe Nigeria as a country itself is not an Islamic state so taking it to be a segment of Nigeria as an Islamic state I think the constitution needs to be amended in order to talk more on this.

KN36 [7512-7628]

Jihad is necessary but it should not be jihad of fighting, violence or conflict. It should be other means of jihad.

KN37. [6828-6854]

I think that is not true.

KN38 [4436-4447]

No, wrong.

KN38 [4610-4628]

No no not at all

KN39 [6531-6696]

Of course there is no necessity of making an Islam or making a northern state to be a practically an Islamic practically oriented society because even the -Muslims.

KN40 [9115-9488]

I disagree with the question because the northern state it is not only for all the Muslims rather it involves both the Muslims and Christians. By introducing sharia into the northern states- because when you say you will introduce the sharia, people who have no experience of what sharia is all about, it can later lead to another crisis or to religious conflicts rather.

KN41 [6117-6238]

Actually, jihad I think will help to mitigate the likely obstacles in enforcing the sharia laws in the northern Nigeria.

KN42 [8923-9414]

I would respond to it because if true meaning and the true doctrines behind jihad, the true philosophy behind jihad is followed, it's a good ground for establishing an Islamic state in northern Nigeria and is a ground for making Muslims to be seen in a different light rather than people that kill and only ah they are only violent people. Muslims are not and if a true meanings and true doctrines behind jihad is embraced and established, these problems we are facing today will be solved.

KN43 [13061-13210]

Yah, this is to me a kind of self-opinion or if you like misinterpretation of the ah sacred text but this is not exactly what the sacred text says.

KN44 [8350-8383]

I won't like to respond to that.

KN45 [8626-9062]

No, I think ehh, to some extent starting from when sharia was first ehm implemented in the present first republic starting with Zamfara state, one can see that sharia ehm can be implemented ehh under a secular state, under a democratic ehh dispensation even if it is not a 100% ehh sharia and politics aside too the political undertone behind the implementation of ehh, the sharia legal system in ehh in northern states aside too, yes.

KN46 [13255-14454]

Well, I would respond to this question in such, in this way yes, we need to do all these things without calling ourselves we are sharia state. If we can stand and fight corrupt practices, if we can stand against our corrupt leaders including the religious leaders, then we are getting closer to what Islam wants us to do, but if establishing a sharia state is just by applying or the application of the, the ah what we call, ah what, I mean, the application of ah punishment, penalties for those who commit certain ah sins, then this is, they are narrowing their understanding of what sharia is because this is a very tiny part of sharia. Sharia is not, is not out to punish people It is more of constructing how people should live their way ah their life in a better way. So if we can get our ah, if we can get ourselves to, we can get rid of what corrupt practices we are doing. If we can get our leaders to do the right things then this mere name of sharia is not necessary. We can operate our affairs without necessarily calling ourselves sharia. You can even go to a non-Muslim country and see them practicing what we are clamoring for, I hope you understand, so to me it is not necessary.

KN47 [19642-20191]

No. I would say it is not necessary because the way they interpret jihad if it means killing people is not even effective because when you kill somebody you just trigger a kind of violence, you understand. If you kill someone, now what will be the response of his kinsmen? They will come after you, they can kill you also. So if care is not taken, then there is going to be a circulation of, you know, conflict in the society instead of you know trying to solve a particular problem then you create more and more and more problem in the society.

KN48 [6894-7005]

It's not necessary because I have never seen where, where jihad and enhance implementation of sharia in a state

KN49 [11650-11937]

Actually eh jihad in it's entirety is not really something that could be could be adopted for multi-cultural society like ours as a whole. I think you need to do it gradually and you need to take into consideration that it's a multi-ethnic and a multi-religious society in which we live.

KN50 [6146-6184]

Ah, I don't think this is necessary,

KN51 [46604-48427]

You see, in northern Nigeria or everywhere in the world, is not only through jihad, the jihad you mean because whenever you say jihad you mean fighting, but we are saying true jihad with its own broadest meaning, through teaching, through learning ok, preaching, propaganda and so on and so forth, will be able to achieve an Islamic state, to establish an Islamic state. I would give you an example, here in Kano state when the Ulama came together and they preach to people now those people, those Ulama who are from Izala, from Tijjiniyya, from Qadiriyya, they came together, they now united themselves and organize themselves, they continue to preach day and night about the importance of this sharia, about the inception of sharia, within shortest period of time, people of Kano understood the importance of sharia and they supported the cause and the governor who was not willing to establish sharia was forced by the circumstances, not by weapons, no, by the circumstances in which he was. Ulama now propagated very, very well the importance of this sharia and people understood now people supported them; when the election came, the people voted out those leaders who refused to observe sharia and sharia governor was elected. So you can see, it is not by force that we establish sharia it is by enlightenment, it is by teaching, it is by peaceful means, it is by addressing issues ok through the ways and manners in which we are taught by Islam but not, I want to believe that associating anything with jihad, jihad, jihad is another way of now undermining Islamic ah reformation, is another way of undermining Islamic activities because this is a blackmail, is a real blackmail, wherever Islamic is a religion of jihad, jihad, jihad this jihad is meant to be fight all the time, it is wrong, it is very, very wrong.

Well it is not true. I don't think it is true because historically in Nigeria there have been some constitutional provisions around which sharia itself could be implementable, just like I mentioned earlier, that you don't even need the state to provide you with an avenue to practice sharia, you can practice sharia at your own individual level, practice sharia at your own family level, practice sharia even in this working space for instance, you know what I am talking about, so if for instance a student comes into this office and ask for a help and ask me to sign his documents for instance, I am sitting here for that purpose, you know, I must sign that document because that is what the law says. As a Muslim, I would be contravening sharia, you know, to refuse to sign that document, so are you following my point?

Are you getting the point? So I don't think there is any reason for jihad in the sense which you define it, to be physical or violent ah struggle for Muslims to establish sharia. Remember what happened in 1999 in Zamfara even though there were allegations that that was political sharia, but there was an attempt to establish sharia even at state level without any jihad or fight as some people would say. So there is no need for any physical violence for sharia to be introduced in the society.

KN53 [8417-8510]

Yah I don't think jihad is necessary for sharia rule to be established in Northern Nigeria.

KN54 [3525-3546]

It is not necessary

KN55 [5028-5051]

It is not mandatory.

KN56 [6586-6807]

Jihad is never necessary to introduce the true rule of sharia, as I already stated in the previous question, I think, even in Kano state here there has been the introduction of sharia and it has not been through jihad.

KN57 [8044-8453]

You see it is not necessary that we establish a sharia state in northern Nigeria, it is not necessary that it is the only way that Islam would flourish. There are many ways. Whether there is jihad or there is no jihad, what we want is to stay where Allah (SBUH) kept you. Do what Allah ordained you to do and stop what Allah prevent you from doing. All these would help you, not only to establish jihad.

KN58 [17984-18435]

Yah, sharia has always been in the practice of Muslims either in northern Nigeria or across the globe. It is only that what people are saying now is that we should revive the position of sharia because you still have sharia courts whereby Islamic sharia system is practiced, but to some extent these courts or the system is corrupt somehow. So what people or individuals are saying that we should revive it to the original sharia system that we have.

KN59 [13508-13995]

Humm jihad, actually I don't agree or have, agree with this statement because like in Kano state now I think during Mallam, the former governor, he introduced sharia, but Kano state is a Muslim state, but they did not introduce it officially until of recent. That does not mean Kano is not a Muslim state despite the fact that they have not being practicing sharia but they are engaged in some sharia activities. The question is not all that straight forward but that is what I think.

KN60 [17110-17188]

You see I have answered and I have given similar answers to this in the past.

KN61 [6674-6719]

Hmmmm this one, it depends on the situation.

KN62 [22853-22985]

Jihad is necessary. I don't believe in its necessity. I don't believe in that. Jihad is not necessary; yah it is not necessary yah

KN64 [9268-9616]

The sharia we established in northern Nigeria we didn't relate with jihad, therefore, I must say this, yah. The sharia we are ah using it now in northern Nigeria. There was, that start from Zamfara to cover all northern Nigeria, most of the northern Nigeria. There is no anything, there is no any fight for this. Therefore there is no any problem.

KN65 [12989-13529]

Ehn, I think ah if we need sharia state, you understand, like I told you it does not need to go through war, right? So all we need to do is to start piouing our hearts towards Allah, what has Allah said? We started it individually; we individually make up the society and the society make up a state. If individually we can pious our mind and at the same time it goes round everywhere, invariably the state is now becoming a sharia state because everybody is doing what Allah has ordained him to do. So that is what, that is my own input.

KN66 [6997-7627]

Jihad is actually necessary to introduce the true rule of sharia and establish a sharia state for Muslims in the northern Nigeria because in, because in modern, in modern Nigeria, in modern Muslim world in Nigeria, sorry. Jihad is necessary to introduce the true rule of sharia and establish a sharia state of Muslim in northern Nigeria. I don't believe in this because this is because even Islam teaches us that there is no compulsion in a religion and the fact that jihad is part, is an article in is in eh eh Islam doesn't mean that you must eradicate all non-Muslims in order to get a true, true Islam. That is what I believe.

KN67 [8192-8502]

Yes. Jihad is very important. If you want to understand sharia then it is through jihad, through people telling us or you as knowledgeable as a preacher, you telling people that don't know. So you have to use jihad in order for you to let them know what is sharia. So I think there is need for jihad for that.

KN68 [3718-3802]

In some northern state, there has already been sharia and it is not through jihad

KN69 [15049-15227]

Yes, jihad is necessary in this regard, but if you take the meaning of jihad in a wider sense but by limiting the meaning of jihad to physical combat I think it would not stand.

KN71 [23904-24710]

As I said, let me just give you an example of the year 2000 when there was this re-introduction of sharia in Zamfara state. Who was killed there? Nobody, but was there no jihad? Of course there were. What type? It was a peaceful jihad and it was a jihad of meaning, meaningfulness because when the governor of the then said state said he meant it, he stood by that despite all odds. So of course it depends upon what manner of jihad you mean. If you mean we must fight, I don't, I don't think is necessary, but if you mean my jihad as a worthy man is to bring forth my worth. My jihad as a politician is to have the will, my jihad as a follower is to vote for a person and know that he has the will and my jihad as a teacher or of a scholar is to educate my people, of course that jihad is not necessary.

KN72 [14246-14374]

Yes, but not violent jihad, peaceful jihad in case of Zamfara and Kano state, was establish a Islamic state without any fight.

KN74 [25195-25697]

This am not, am not behind this kind of ehh I can't back this ehh this statement because the sharia, we know that we Muslim we always have something that reflect into our life whenever eh like Allah, what Allah (SBUH) says (he recites a verse of the Qur'an). Therefore we always look back to what has happened to prophet Muhammad (SAW) when Allah (SBUH) sent him to preach to his people, he did not start ehh making ehmm such kind of jihad provided that you are talking about the physical jihad, yes.

KN75 [25641-25808]

Jihad can never be necessary to the true Muslim in the northern Nigeria because in the northern Nigeria we have Christians, Muslim and even the pagan, you understand.

KN76 [16003-16265]

Well, it is not necessary because you are a Muslim living in a multi-religious society that is governed by the constitution. All you need to have is to have a provision within the constitution that will allow Muslims to practice their religion as they deem fit.

KN78 [20764-21112]

As long as we continue to exist as one country, jihad, violent jihad is not possible. Establishing an ideal Islamic state is not possible, for as long as constitution remains the supreme source and inspiration for all our activities, is not possible. I am very sorry to say that, but that is the fact and I am speaking from the bottom of my heart.

KN78 [21410-21963]

For as long as we live under the multi-religious, multi-eth ehh what do they call it, ethnic groups the truth of the matter is that after the amalgamation of Nigeria in 1914, you can understand why Islam is not possible, why is it not possible to really ahh ahh why the Islamic state cannot really emerge given this constraints I have listed. Those constraints are political, they are constitutional, they are legal, they are economic. S for us to talk about entrenching an Islamic state in Nigeria, wallahi I would not say, it is extremely impossible.

KN79 [11428-11436]

No, no.

KN79 [11467-11608]

Because there is many state here in northern Nigeria that have establish and they are implementing sharia and without any problem, of course

KN80 [19724-20232]

So, as I said in the ahh ahh in the past question before this, Islam ahh jihad does not mean ahh physical ahh ahh combat, so since engaging into preaching and teaching ahh ahh Muslims is also jihad, making non-Muslim to embrace and convert into Islam it is also jihad, so Muslims should continue practicing this trend because it is still a jihad and it is still a process of promoting the glory of Islam. And once the glory of Islam becomes flourished, so it made jihad is waged and the result is affected.

KN81 [11546-11608]

So this question has already been answered if am not forget.

KN82 [14665-14800]

Is true. Jihad is necessary in order to bring about ahh ahh rule of sharia and establish sharia state for Muslim, but jihad of nafs.

KN83 [8697-9065]

If Muslims practice their religion according to Islamic principles, they need not to do physical jihad because ehm according to the law of Nigerians all Muslim have their right to practice their religion and then if you look at Zamfara state, they have, they have practiced sharia law and they did not violate any of our country's constitutional ahh provision of law

KN84 [10135-10340]

In my own opinion or point of view all means of jihad needs to be applied to establish Islamic state in the northern except physical fight, because Muslim are not deprived from practicing their religion.

KN85 [9615-10060]

Yes, jihad is necessary, but not the fighting jihad, not the physical fighting jihad. If you try to struggle to reform yourself, reform others by preaching, being generous and whatever, is all jihad not necessarily physical fighting jihad. So jihad is necessary to establish sharia in Nigeria. We have seen that some states have established sharia in Nigeria without fighting, so yes jihad is necessary for this, but not the physical fighting.

ZA1 [13519-13540]

No, no, no, no, no.

ZA2 [9887-10083]

Yes as we explain the word jihad, when we explain the word jihad that is what it means, if you give that presentation people will have to love to that, that is now the rules that will put unity.

ZA3 [11818-12280]

Toh the only true jihad from what I have understood is always has been on the conflict aspect of jihad. Jihad could be, preaching too is jihad, so if we can have comparative religion and giving out your facts then the one with the most authentic fact should be and with that, but the sharia itself goes beyond jihad. Sharia is the total way of life of a state of a community and it encompasses even the non-believers and they are covered by the rule of sharia.

ZA4 [26899-27036]

So with the most important thing now is jihadul ilimiyya, jihad of teaching people knowledge, good knowledge, so we state with knowledge.

ZA5 [14797-15061]

Yes because by the time do jihad fi sabilillah, shey you understand, and also you do a best way of as in as in good way of doing things, the way Qur'an and Hadith of prophet Muhammad (SAW) has said it already. Then because of that I think it will be okay for you.

ZA6 [33151-34650]

Ehm jihad of course is necessary. I told you jihad is striving in the cause of God, striving for the fear of Allah. Now jihad is necessary of course, but the kind of jihad is the issue, the contending issue now, you get? Jihad is necessary if like in Kano and Zamfara in those days where they decided okay the secular constitution is not favoring their people, they are basically Muslims, is a Muslims community hmm, now they the sharia has more justice system than that ehn, it is necessary for them to adopt that so that the people will benefit more from the government now that is in an ideal sharia. So that fight to adopt that sharia constitution is jihad in itself that is if it is done for the sake of God. But the necessary jihad like the militants, fighting, bombing, killing other people, just to adopt what they think is sharia is not part of it that is not jihad hmm? But jihad of the heart is necessary, jihad for the fear of God is necessary ehn. If today a place like Zamfara where you have a very minute number of Christians hmm, if jihad is adopted there and the real, the true jihad that is the true sharia now, sorry true sharia, then it is far, it will, that state will be far more prosperous, as I believe, than other state because the sharia would entrench more justice system in the state. So that Is the kind of fight that is the kind of jihad am talking about. But the jihad of fighting and killing is not part of Islam, is not part of the the sharia, the Islamic sharia.

ZA7 [12625-12975]

Yes sharia in Islam has to do with the laws in Islam as in the laws and regulations just like its own government policy to all, to Muslims state. Now for you to achieve sharia in any state, you must have people ready to fight against corruption and enlighten people about these policies. So it is in fact very necessary to achieving a sharia state.

ZA8 [24110-26431]

Like I said from the beginning, jihad does not mean you kill people. Jihad is necessary in every community because jihad is just a word, an Arabic word, if, for instance, let me take instance of maybe the non-Muslims countries, definitely if you go tom, for instance, where the Christian rule is, when the Christian, Christianity is ruling, for instance, definitely they must have a laid down rule that Christianity do not ask you to commit adultery, don't commit fornication, don't kill human being, all these rules will be, definitely the rules will be there, they must abide by it because without abiding by those rules there will be chaos. Everybody, like I said, will do things the way they like. So jihad is not just an Islamic word, does not apply to the Muslims alone. Jihad is for everybody. Now in the, maybe for instance, the Christianity or the Jews, if they will call jihad maybe they will call it in another word. But it will still mean the same thing. They must strive, for instance, the Christian will urge people to strive in the worship of Jesus Christ isn't it? Likewise the Muslims, if they want to call jihad, the Muslims are just using the word jihad because it is the Arabic name so that it will relate to the Muslim people. But jihad is not just for the Muslims. People are just giving jihad a different meaning, but jihad in its actual meaning, like I said, is calling people striving in the course of God. For instance, this people don't know about God and is enjoining on you to tell them about God. So that is jihad you must, it is a must, it is obligatory, you must tell them because so that you will be free of your questioning on the day of judgement because God will ask you when, even though they don't have the knowledge, when they were doing this, did you tell them what God says about this, if you say no, you will be punish for that, if you say yes, there will be a witness to that because you actually told them, they will witness, be witness against themselves. they will say yah he actually told us, but we did not do it. So this is what jihad is all about. It mustn't necessary mean is for the northerners or for the westerners or whatsoever. Jihad means striving, calling people to do good and leave the bad and calling people to worship God. That is what it means, jihad.

ZA9 [13648-14414]

I still believe not everything can be solved or not every problem can be tackled by violence since we have rules in this country and we have Muslim senators. This people can at least make it, they can make it, they can assist in the propagation of or in the instigation of sharia law into our constitution by making other legislators, by making them understand the advantages and disadvantages of this sharia laws and if this sharia laws, if those laws are in line with their own reasoning too, if they are in line with the things we need in this country, I believe they will have no choice but to succumb to the sharia law. Sharia law is very essential as a Muslim, but since Nigeria is not an Islamic state, we just have to do it the way the constitution states.

ZA11 [12679-12771]

Well, establishing the Islamic laws and everything too is part of the jihad, so of course.

ZA12 [7452-7463]

Yes it is.

ZA14 [7026-7236]

No. Is not under must that there must be jihad before you have Islamic state in Nigeria. You can have an Islamic state even in your house, putting your whole house in order and putting them in the right place.

ZA15 [13241-13496]

Yes but through peaceful means, just like if you noticed 1999, Bakura was the first person that implemented sharia. It was not done through fighting that is why I am saying when you struggle, jihad is not all about fighting, fighting, fighting, fighting.

ZA16 [7516-7529]

I disagree.

ZA17 [6833-7116]

If we truly believe that we are following the right path, we are supposed to be preaching people to know the right path, to know how to salat, to know how to do their own ahh Islamic activities, If you know this that's where the issue of jihad will be concrete even if it might come.

ZA18 [10426-11064]

You see, the Islamic religion, in the Islamic religion, there is, you know, there is what we call sharia, you understand, so this issue of sharia is binding on the Muslims, you get what I am saying, so if sharia could be introduced, a lot of things will work well actually. Sharia is the most important, and we shouldn't you know fold our hands and say ok until sharia is officialized, no, on your own. You as a Muslim, what did the religion say you should do on about, how do you do this, how do you that, continue to do it yourself, you are practicalizing the sharia ah that is another thing, so we should be good at our own level.

ZA19 [13473-13966]

Well ah jihad I could not ah through the introduction of sharia in any particular state not even northern Nigeria actually is a reliable means where Muslims will adhere and follow the Islamic laws and regulations actually and when an Islamic state is being achieved, there would be institutionalizing of sharia where Muslims will follow the code and conduct of Islam, just like in Saudi Arabia and many other Middle Eastern countries where they are following the Islamic tradition and ethics.

ZA20 [7550-7772]

Well, who ever held the position, well all we know is that jihad is all about I mean Islamic state is all about people who are Muslims expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the dictates of Islamic principles.

ZA21 [10312-10866]

This position I must respond to it in such a way that I should not offend any, but that I see this as – ok you should establish a true true true and Islamic state or you should establish sharia in northern Nigeria in such a way that you can only propagate your religion. If a non-believer deems it ok I will be part of this then you punish him with that but if he so says no Nigeria is secular state and as I rightly said there is no compulsion in Islam. You can only go about doing what is ordained in the holy Qur'an or the Sunna of the holy prophet.

ZA22 [9671-10050]

At this very moment I don't think that is possible. We should just continue to enlighten our people and implement jihad within ourselves or the sharia within ourselves. The Muslims are now very much corrupt. Muslims atimes are even more corrupt than other people in other beliefs. So I think that is what is contributing to the backwardness in the implementation of the sharia.

ZA23 [13384-14613]

I have answered similar question like this. Anywhere you are establishment of an Islamic state or establishment of sharia-now take for instance Obasanjo is not a Muslim, he ruled Nigeria as an army officer, he ruled Nigeria as a politician, one of the sharia aspect is for us to be praying five times a day, it is for the wealthy ones to be giving zakat, it is for the wealthy ones to go for hajj. When did you ever hear that Obasanjo tried to stop Muslims praying? Do you get that? Or forget Obasanjo. Come to the just defunct government. What is his name? Goodluck Ebele Jonathan. Did you ever hear that he made an attempt to stop Muslims from praying, to stop Muslims from going to hajj, to stop Muslims from giving out zakat? So the sharia is with the Muslims already and nobody stops you from practicing it. Sharia starts in your own self, in your own family. Take for instance the Muslims, if you have a wife, how are you maintaining your wife? If you have wives, how are you maintaining them? Are you just to them or unjust? To your own humble self, are you just to yourself or unjust to yourself? This is the sharia. So already it has been established in us. It is only for us to make use of it or to turn back at it.

ZA24 [17867-18403]

As I said earlier Nigeria is a secular nation that we have different kinds of religion and we are not using sharia constitution.

Therefore you cannot say that –the only thing is that in northern states, for instance now if you go to Zamfara state they are using sharia, but they are not enforcing that sharia on non-Muslims. Sharia is made for only Muslims. So sharia should be adopted even not only in northern Nigeria, but in all Muslim communities, but we should not force it on non-Muslims because sharia is meant for only Muslims.

ZA25 [16292-16703]

Yes as I have always said jihad in all its ramifications is a necessity. It has to do with the entirety of knowledge and practice and last resort physical fight for establishing a state because it is- the leaders and the followers in an Islamic state are supposed to be sound Muslims not just nominal Muslims. In that situation the starting point, I still remain, is serious seeking of the knowledge of Islam.

ZA26 [7874-7954]

No, jihad will not rule, but let Nigeria allow Muslims to practice their own law

ZA27 [5900-6517]

Actually I don't really understand what you are referring to jihad because by jihad some people are referring to taking weapons, fighting against unbelievers or not Muslims, but jihad we have jihadin nafs as I said earlier, the jihad that even within Muslims there is a jihad. We have to do that internally to clarify to clean our soul before going out to call other people to jihad. Even calling giving out things to other people is a jihad, helping other people, cleaning taking out thing on the road, all this ones are part of jihad. So when we are talking about jihad we are not referring to the physical combat.

ZA28 [16102-17080]

Well I will assume this question is pointing at when you say jihad is necessary to introduce the true rule of amm, I think the questionnaire is trying to attribute some explanations to jihad here. Jihad is necessary to introduce the true... I can see the question clearly. So if at all I understand the question clearly I think the questionnaire is trying to attribute physical conflict to this question that jihad is necessary to introduce the true but no, jihad is always necessary as I mentioned earlier on, but am not saying based on my understanding of this question, may be the questioner is trying to attribute jihad to a physical fight, no. But jihad is necessary to establish true rule of sharia. Without jihad, without the people, without the Muslim belief being able to go accordingly, according to what the teaching of rasul and allow himself, so I don't think this will be established but when they go through that so I think true rule of sharia can be established.

ZA29 [23917-24355]

Well like I said, jihad is necessary to introduce the true rule of sharia, yes it is necessary to strive hard to show the people the true knowledge or the true concept of sharia and what sharia-what is sharia in the first place? What is sharia? Because sharia is not an English word that is why sharia is not being misunderstood rather jihad is being misunderstood and misconceived not only by non-Muslims but by the Muslims themselves.

ZA30 [36378-36559]

I already responded to this one. I say that one is not necessary. We can achieve, we can win the heart of all Nigerians through preaching and good character not only through jihad.

ZA31 [10254-11139]

So, the way, what, what I say earlier on is that, you know, we have multi-religion, multi-ethnicity. So you see where there is many religions, although, even we impose, even they impose religion, as in the jihad in the northern region, I know, I believe, it won't affect the non-Muslims. But due to some factors, I don't see a reason, everybody can practice jihad on his own, jihad means conveying the message of Allah (SBUH) and guide people into the true, as in to the right path and which I believe we are even doing it because some people didn't, they don't understand what jihad means, may be they mean is some particular government that make, that will make some creation and impose people to follow their, what they don't want to follow. So I believe up till now we are practicing, as Muslims they are practicing jihad by doing what God says we should do, that means the jihad.

ZA32 [27660-28862]

I can always say that jihad is necessary, but to say to establish a sharia state for Muslims in northern Nigeria. I can say it is not necessary if you consider the nature of the northern Nigeria, it is a mixture of Muslims and non-Muslims and if you say an, and in some areas, you may find that there are non-Muslims that are in the power, in fact, Nigeria itself can be led or could be led by non-Muslims in several tenors or several period of time that Nigeria was led, was ruled by non-Muslims because so that you cannot say the establishment of Islamic state is not necessary here, but the jihad in the one way, I was able to mention in the above points about the type of jihad that Muslims, Muslims of northern Nigeria should be engaged in that is the lesser ah greater jihad not the lesser one because this physical combat, in fact Islam discourage killing, Islam dislike blood shedding, that is why the prophet (SAW) called the fighting, the physical combat of jihad to be a lesser, to be what, a lesser jihad that is minor jihad and called that of self-purification and preaching, and destruction of injurious and harmful materials in the society as what, as the greater jihad, yes.

ZA33 [8305-8804]

Yes jihad is necessary to some extent to the rule of law and establish a Sharia state for Muslims in northern Nigeria, but to some extent it is not because Nigeria is a federation, it is a territory that is bounded with Muslims and non-Muslims so therefore even in the northern Nigeria we have people that are not Muslims. So therefore to impose Sharia on them is like threatening their lives and Islam does not permit threatening of someone's life. So Sharia is voluntary. So it is not by forcing.

ZA35 [7374-8535]

Well yes, jihad is necessary, why I said it is necessary it is because it is not fighting because by the time you start fighting and killing one another people would even hate you, yes, but by preaching as in be kind to others, even if you don't introduce sharia, at least by the time you should love to the non-Muslims, non-believers, well they can think of this person she is from this religion even when we came to be her enemy she doesn't look at it to be anything because I remember during the time of the prophet there is this man, he is an unbeliever that would always sweep his house, pack the dirt and come and pour in front of the prophets house, as soon as he drops it the prophet would clean it up and everything would just go, he doesn't fight because he is a non-believer, when he stopped seeing the man he has to look for the man, traced the man to his house and he found out that the man is very ill, so the man apologized for what he did, you see by doing this, had it been he use to fight the man, you see that fight would never stop and it could lead to something else. So I don't think fighting or shedding of blood is really necessary.

ZA36 [13798-13884]

That one is not. We should go to the next question (coughs), go to the next question.

ZA37 [13609-14338]

Yes of course it is necessary and even the non-Muslims, if they would understand the Islamic sharia, I am very sure that they would agree with it, unless if they maybe feel that it is not part of this religion that is why they not agree, not because that sharia, the Islamic sharia is not the best. So if they understand and submit to the teaching of Islam they would automatically know that this is the best way of life Islamic sharia because even the non-Muslims during that period they agree with the judgment of the holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW), they use to bring their issues because they know he was the only person who can judge accordingly. But the issue is that some of the Muslims also are not practicing it perfectly.

ZA38 [20078-20836]

Well basically even before now we have been using the Qur'an. As a Muslim you would be guided by the sharia law, you would be guided by the Qur'an, but then we are in a secular society whereby our, we stay with people that are non-Muslims, what do we do? We are still using the Qur'an as a sharia law, but then even the non-Muslims, there is still a part in the Qur'an, yah in the sharia law that give them their own rights. It is not bad, there is nothing too bad, you understand, there is nothing too bad using the sharia, you understand, but if you give the non-Muslims their own rights, allow them to do what is necessary, what is open for their own religion, but what is not good to their own religion you can be able to even stop it, you understand.

ZA39 [29360-30420]

Jihad, jihad, jihad, the over use of the word jihad connotes in this context to mean people should always engage in war before they live as Muslims in a particular area. What we should know is that in northern Nigeria, it is not only Muslims that occupy the territory. In northern Nigeria we have the Muslims, we have the Christians, we have none of the above that is the pagan those that do not believe in none of these religions and that for you to say you want to introduce sharia, it is not something, the sharia simply means Islamic law, sharia simply means Islamic law. If for you to observe, you can observe it, like we have to trace back to the history of Islam, how the early Muslims lived. The early Muslims lived with non-Muslims, the early Muslims lived with Christians, the early Muslims lived with pagans and those people that I mentioned who are not Muslims, provided that a Muslim is allowed to conduct himself in the way that he wishes, he chooses to be, he chooses sharia to govern his life. Sharia simply means the law of Islamic religion.

Th7.11: Jihad and Islamic stat: A Solution to All Muslim Problems

FG1 [19061-19079]

No I do not agree

FG1 [19111-19177]

First what is the problem of Muslims? That need to be identified

FG1 [19270-19575]

I can agree with you because jihad is of two types. There is jihad of one's self and jihad which you can take weapon and fight people. If in the Islamic society all people will guide themselves in Islamic way then nobody will be in problem. Rich people will give zakat to the poor and so forth and so on.

KD1 [14541-16740]

My view on this statement. Actually, I believe an Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems. But if you have studied history very well, you will realize that some instances arise during even when Islam we had Islamic state and that does not mean the whole Islamic problems were solved. If people are speaking about our prior predecessors, you see after they call the four righteous guided Caliphs, they will skip and the next thing you hear is Umar ibn Abdul-Azeez because of the way he handle the Islamic state, but that does not mean that before him there was no other people, and that actually refers to you that during those people, they were not too proud, I can't say they were not proud, but they were not too proud of the way they handle the Islamic state. So that cannot actually be the solution to the entire Islam problem. But another thing is it will actually go a long way if the right leadership handles the Islamic state to solve the Islamic, it will be able to solve the Islamic problem. But being that jihad can, jihad is the only solution you can get, achieve this. I don't want to believe that's true. A lot several ways because how? Do you mean, if you look at the world population by statistics, Islam is not even the number one religion by world population, so are you saying we should clear everybody or we should conquer everybody or how or in places that maybe we have only like 10 Muslims out of maybe several millions, how do you intend to have an Islamic state in such cases? You have to actually work in realistic way which is educating people and letting people see the real term of knowledge and an Islamic state when it actually comes can be starting from little, little enclaves in cases of like we all know like Saudia is fully kind of Islamic. From then they can continue spreading in a peaceful way, peaceful manner. People can succumb and give ah pay allegiance to them and of course things will flow. But I don't necessarily believe that physical militancy is the only solution to that. When there is bloodshed and you kill everybody, then who are you inviting to the religion? Who did you now intend to preach the Islam to? So that's my own point of view.

KD2 [5822-6553]

Let me, which ones are even the Islamic states? Let's take for instance, the Afghanistan, the Saudi Arabia for instance, we all take them to be an Islamic state completely, but they have not solve their problem of the Muslims entirely and you can't get an Islam state through jihad. Iraq ahm Iran, Afghanistan they have all been fighting, killing each other just to establish an Islamic state and up till now they have not achieved that hundred percent. They have not achieved what they wanted to achieve and there is still abject poverty ah disturbing their people. So Islam, jihad, you can't get jihad ah you can't get Islamic state through jihad and those Islamic state can never hundred percent solve problems of the Muslims.

KD3 [4460-5115]

An Islamic state cannot solve all Muslim problems and the saying that only jihad can achieve this, is not. But first, our main emphasis for that is that the first question an Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems, the answer is NO. And the second question only jihad can achieve this, but the main reason there is which of the Jihad? is it the jihad of battle between Muslims and the non-Muslims? The main jihad there that can, the only jihad that can achieve that is Jihadin nafs that's jihad of ourselves that is for we to on our own abstain from what Allah prohibits us and we do what he asked us to do. That's the only way we can achieve that.

KD4 [6492-7048]

Islamic state solving all the problem of Muslims, I agree and I disagree with it. Why because Islam itself is a totality of way of life. A Muslim has to submit all his life to Islam, whatever you do, you have to act according to Islam. Then how do you relate this to an Islamic state saying that it will solve all your problems? Islamic state cannot solve all your problem rather practicing according to the scripture of Islam will solve your problem and you can live peaceful with it. That is why I said I disagree as well as I agree with this assertion.

KD5 [4663-4975]

I think an Islamic state cannot solve all Muslim problems because problems are inevitable. So, I think establishing an Islamic state cannot solve all Muslim problems. I think to establish an Islamic state is not through jihad, but rather through good behavior, good teachings, good deeds and co, that's just it.

KD6 [9335-11147]

Islamic state will solve if you want to strive about Islam, can solve any problem. Just like I said, Allah (SBUH) is the one that created us, he knows us, he knows our problems, we understand that. So, if you follow Islamic perspective, it will solve all our problems, but not unto jihad. It depends on the understanding I have and you have. In my own house if I can understand Islam, do it in my own house, my neighborhood, it will better for me not until you take gun and killing people. From your neighborhood you can talk to him, talk to yourselves about what Islam says. This is what Allah says. This is what the prophet says. He will go along. He doesn't need to be killing people. Just let me buttress my point with this that Allah says (he recites the verse of the Qur'an) So, you first come out to preach in the way of your lord, bil hikma with wisdom and with good characters. So, if I cannot just come out a nd be saying ah oh it is to kill them, to do this to them, if Rasulillah (SAW) did that, he will not get the kind followers he got today. And mark you, about the jihad they are even saying jihad, jihad, jihad, look at jihad, look at what born out of jihad. Is it the prophet that come to meet them to, no, they come to him, they faced him, he defended himself, he did not go and attack them, he defended himself. Go to the sura, look at it very well. For example, go to all jihad that Muhammad (SAW), the prophet (SAW) fought or the ones that he send to fight on behalf him or the one that the Sahaba fought, they fought the Jihad, look at it, look at the distance of where they are coming and where they are going, you will look at the distance of where they are coming is more shorter than where they are going, the enemies come to attack them not them going to attack the enemy. That's all.

No, jihad is not the only way that can get us there. We have to sit down, the laws and regulations guiding, Islam is a way of life. So, the laws and regulations of Islam have been there over one thousand and four hundred years. They've been there, they've not been changed, if we go back, we will get what we want and we will live peacefully with any other religious eh from another different religion. So jihad is not the only way.

KD8 [16198-17095]

No, I don't agree with that. First thing is that, it's not the state, it is the individual first. You have Qur'an, and you have hadith. So, you are supposed to comply with the teachings of the Qur'an and hadith. From there, you try to expand it, bring other people into it, educate them, let them have knowledge and then from there you can have the state. But it is not that the state, I mean and is only jihad. Well. It depends on the way somebody is looking at jihad. From the way am looking at it that it could be jihad in the sense that it is talking about acquiring knowledge, it is talking about building mosques, building schools, building spirituality in people, you understand, making people behave according to the Islamic injunctions. In that context, I can say jihad in that context, but in the context of war as perceived, you know, narrowly by some people, I don't believe in that.

KD9 [7913-8699]

Islamic state will solve Muslim problems agreed. Can it be achieved only through jihad, jihad al-qital, jihad by killing everybody or jihad by what? Whatever we want to do in Islam we have prophet(SAW) as our teacher. So how did he liberate the Quraishi people and the people of Mecca? Did he kill anybody when he conquered Mecca? These are the questions that we should ask. We should ask ourselves. What kind of, toh it still boils down to the fact that we need to learn very, very much about jihad. Yes sharia is the bane of the society, we need it because that is what Allah as asked of us, but whether it is going to be, it is jihad that is going to bring it about, we need to learn about jihad. I want to believe that there are other ways we can bring about sharia in our society.

KD10 [4636-4805]

Yes it is true that Islamic state, it is true that Islamic state is achieved through jihad, but when you say jihad, that is jihad that is in conformity with the sharia.

KD11 [9715-10931]

Ah oh yes. It depends, achieving Islamic state depends really, really on the population, on what characterizes the society, is the society homogenous or heterogeneous? I mean in a country like ours like Nigeria you can't talk about the Islamic state because of the heterogeneity. Even in most part of northern Nigeria you are talking about, there are still other religions. I mean minority religions. In some states they are not even minorities, but hardly, even in northern Nigeria where they say Islam is dominating, you know, when you look at southern part or most northern part of Nigeria you find other religions different religions especially Christians in abundance. Look at Southern Kaduna, Southern part of Kano, Jos and Bauchi, virtually every part of northern states when you look at the extreme southern part of these places. So I don't think ah achieving jihad here would be realistic in a society that is heterogeneous. But if the society is relatively homogenous, like what we have the Libya and most part of the northern Africa for instance Morocco, if they follow the proper channel they can achieve jihad but ah talking about that in a society like ours will be completely or almost unattainable.

KD12 [9651-10840]

You know by having an Islamic state not only the Muslims will enjoy. Non-Muslims too will enjoy but not only, what people say in doing the jihad is eh the jihad of having an Islamic state probably by going into war with non-Muslims, no. It is not so. See what we need here is that the jihad here is that the awareness of the teaching of what almighty Allah said we should do in life, it has to be taught to people, people have to know the good and the right being put down by the almighty Allah, if this one is the way and if such is done within the people and people understand that they want, like what they are seeing in Nigeria today is what Islam has said, see you know people don't follow the law they have taken laws into their hands and even common people they, we are more or less under Allah's protection because no more under the protection of eh the government, so in such a way when we form an Islamic state we no everybody will have his own rights and then we try to extend not even within that Islamic state we will extend outside that state too everybody will enjoy. Like what is obtainable now in Mecca and Medina.

KD13 [3297-3822]

The Islamic state will not in any way help the Muslims through contending with anybody or fighting with anybody. Acquiring an Islamic state does not necessary need a type jihad people focus on because the type of jihad people focus on is that of sword and the jihad the Muslims fight correspond with the system at hand, you understand me. So the type for fighting with weapons has gone behind and now the jihad we have to do is through writing or any other way to educate people towards the good that is contained in Islam.

KD14 [3904-4768]

An Islamic state cannot solve the problems of Muslims and the saying that that only jihad can achieve this, but let us emphasize what is jihad, like most people do take jihad as fighting that is to kill, but the true real meaning, the literal meaning of jihad is striving, striving for the sake of Allah. So I could say only jihad can achieve this in one way the answer is yes and in another way the answer is no. For my reason why I said the answer is yes that is the jihad is yes is only when, you know jihad is divide there is jihadin nafs that is jihad of one's self for us to force ourselves on the teachings, what Allah asks to do, we do it. What prohibit us we abstain from it while the reason why I said no that jihad is not, jihad can't solve the problem is that the understanding of the people is jihad simply means to fight and kill the non-Muslims.

KD15 [6126-6982]

Ahm you see this question, I love the question because if you can follow the way of God, I believe everything will be solved peacefully and by following the will and the way of God is by following Islam because Islam is the religion of God. So if you can follow the Qur'an because the Qur'an is a statement of God which being sent by angle Gabriel to Muhammad ahm to the prophet Muhammad (SAW) and prophet Muhammad (SAW) is a massager of God too, which he is being sent to the mankind. So I believe the word of God is peace so Islam can never mislead you. Islam is a religion of God and is peace, so if you go for Islam and go for Qur'an, I believe you will be in a straight path not the misled path. So and jihad ah jihad if you can fight it in the cause of God and in the will of God, I believe everything will be okay not in your own self interest.

KD16 [3532-3970]

It may be that the Islamic state can solve all the Muslim problems, but not necessarily by the jihad, although jihad it depends on the context in which one sees it. Is it the act of preaching to people which is jihad or is it the act of converting others. It depends on the perspective from which one see it, but actually it will solve because it is natural, it is a natural religion so we expected it to solve the problems of Muslims.

KD17 [10079-11256]

Ah as far as am concerned, jihad, what I said earlier, means struggling. Does it mean that you must raise up arms against people before you can establish the Islamic state? Does it mean that from your own family, have you established the Islamic state? Have you, you as a leader, you as a man, you own immediate family, have you tried to make sure that your children follow the Islamic rules? Or you can just came out and raising arms against people and telling that everybody must follow Islamic state. Everything is step by step, by the time you go home, you make people understand what the religion says as in the way it is being preached by the predecessors, you understand? The earlier predecessors of Islam I think by the time you go on your own, I go to my own and preach ok please follow the Sunna, follow the way prophet (SAW) says you should do this, that this is the way Islam says you should do this. By time everybody, who are the people? Who is the state? You and I are the state, we make up a state. So why would you tell me that we must raise up arms before or establishing the Islamic state. Let's start from our own self first. It is a step by step issue.

KD18 [5885-6278]

Okay Islamic state can solve their problems and is not by jihad, you understand, there are many ways in which Islam can solve their state problems, one of the, one of the ways that Islam, they should make sure that there is a unity between them, they should not just allow an insider to or an outsider to come and separate and disunity them, you understand. That is what I understand by that.

KD19 [8568-9240]

Eh, yes an Islamic state will achieve everything but not through jihad. If you're looking at the word jihad as fighting, then jihad cannot achieve that because even if you are fighting everybody to be a Muslim, you're even going against the aya that says la iqraha fid din, there is no compulsion in religion. Now eh an Islamic state will achieve peace and harmony throughout the world if everybody will strive in the cause of Allah, like I earlier said, striving in the cause of Allah is the exact meaning of jihad, so let us do everything possible to ensure that we do the right thing in the name of religion and there will be peace and harmony in the world (coughs).

KD20 [4238-4255]

The answer is no.

KD21 [4357-4981]

An Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems and only jihad can achieve this. I don't think ahm an Islamic state is going to solve all our problems. I think we have to look deep down inside of us, what are the problems? We have to make amends in our inner selves, our people or our creator. I think that is the beginning of having problems. There are Islamic countries that have ah sharia as a way of life, they still have the Arab uprising, fornication, adulteration, in all rights, their politicians still embezzle. So I don't think ahm an Islamic state via jihad is going to be a source to eliminate all our problems.

KD23 [5146-5538]

Islamic state will not solve all the problems to, my own perception, but even if there is not Islamic ah Islamic sharia or something like that, if government ah is doing anything or is doing the right thing for the people, so it will not solve ah the problems because there are some countries that is ah that are not doing, they are not practicing Islamic state, but ah they don't have problems.

KD24 [18799-19814]

No. This statement I think I did not get it clear or I am going against it. Jihad is the only way, only you mentioned only, so it is not the only way to tackle problems. There are ah many other ways ah which we can tackle problems, when prophet Muhammad (SAW) started preaching what we have in the history and in the believe that yes it was what happened and then he had no any strength, he has no any arm, he has no followers that can safeguard him, protect him from each and every outsider coming in to his own environment then this ah Qur'an that has been revealing from time to time, time to time, Allah has been saying to him be patient, be patient, be patient time will come be patient and he has been following what Allah has been telling him be patient. So likewise it will be what will be applicable to us if we are in such situation we should be patient, time will come everything that you are seeing in life that has beginning definitely there will be an end by the grace of God it will come to an end.

KD25 [23643-27631]

You see when you say jihad, the word literally means, jihad means, is derived from the word al-juhud, juhud means struggle. Struggle, striving, for instance in one verse of the Qur'an Allah says (he recites in Arabic) that verily those that strive in our cause, this is Allah talking, he said those that strive in our cause we shall certainly guide them to our ways, to our path and verily Allah is able with the righteous ones. You understand, so that means jihad does not just mean somebody carrying sword and then going to the battle front to kill eh non-Muslims no, no, no, no it is not even that, jihad means struggle, any means, any legal and lawful means that a Muslim can follow to see that Islam goes up that is jihad and that is why when a person came to our noble prophet (SAW) during his life time and said oh ya Rasulillah, there is a person that ah (he recites in Arabic) there's this person that fights based on tribalism (he recites in Arabic) the person is also fighting to show that he is a brave one, so he mentioned about three, then he said please the prophet I want you to tell me which amongst this is a jihad in the cause of Allah, then now the prophet in order to tell him that none of those three he has mentioned is part of jihad fi sabilillah. The prophet said (he recites in Arabic) the prophet said anybody that strives, anybody that fights, not just fighting with sword, anybody that strives through his, you know, with his actions or through his utterances to see that the word of Allah is at the echelon, is at the highest peak, then the prophet said that is struggling in the path of Allah (SBUH), so most of the Muslims or let me say most of our ah deceiving ah clerics, Islamic clerics ah, you know, ah are really confusing our Muslim youths with such statements to drag them to jihad, just as we have been seeing this Shiites, yes this Shiite, whenever they are doing the Mudahar that is just going on the street, you know, just going on the street, you know, taking eh eh carrying placards, carrying you know flags with mixture of males and females, the females at the back putting black cover, you see all these things is just suffering, is suffering, is not what God said. You find out that most of them, you see them almost all 100% of them are youths, only few maybe just 2-3% that are old eh among them that are old maybe up to more than 50 or 60, but most, most are within the range of you know eighteen, twenty something, thirty, thirty something, hardly you will find something, very few are above forty, but most are within this range of 20, 25, 30, 35 38 like that like 40, I mean you will start seeing them going about instead of them to go and learn and know what is Islam, but because those people have brainwashed them, they have brain, you know, they have psychologically you know ah strived, you know, their yes exactly indoctrinated them, so they were able to succeed and, you know, to...them towards another thing which Islam does not even recognise, so in the nutshell, I will say that ah I will not agree that ah it's when the Muslims fight physically that eh they will be termed as being mujahidun fi sabilillah no, no, no, no, they, you see the prophet even said that in a hadith that the best of all jihad is jihadun nafs, the best of all struggles is the struggle of the heart you know that is the place of the Satan, the outcast, the Lucifer, so when somebody is able to conquer or subdue or subjugate that hidden enemy that is the Satan, then that is the best jihad, is better than going to the battle front to fight in the cause of Allah, for you to purify and sanctify your heart, have this sincerity of purpose with you, anything you want to do, do it for the sake of Allah, not for people to praise you, not for ... sake to be able to appreciate you, no, no, no, do it for the sake of Allah whether people are pleased with what you do or not forget about it, you know you are doing it for eh the sake of Allah (SAW).

KD26 [5970-6578]

I beg to differ. I agree that it can solve all Muslim problems and jihad can achieve it yes agreed and the reason why I said that am not promoting physical jihad here, am promoting the other types of jihad. As I earlier said, da'wa is the best way of jihad. I can, from the way I live, from the way I live as a Muslim, the way I live, the way am humble to my neighbors, ahm it was, the way I relate with my neighbors, it is something that can draw somebody that is a non-Muslim to become a Muslim and okay to solve the problems of the Muslims. so yes if it is possible yes it is, it can solve the problems.

KD27 [5151-5493]

Yes like I said jihad is not just-it is not about fighting, it is not about killings. There are stages, there are stages and the basic one is to start with yourself, and once you have been able to conquer your own self then and your neighbor does the same, and the other neighbor does the same then where is the conflict going to come from.

KD28 [9090-9687]

First and foremost we have to understand what is jihad because we know that to solve people's problems it is the effort, the effort you are making so that yes if any problem, if anybody comes to you, whichever problem at all, anybody you find in any problem at all and you make effort to assist him it is a form of jihad. What people are looking at as a form of jihad, is a simple word, but it has a broader meaning because we ordinarily language that if we are talking of jihad we are talking of waging war, which is not the type of jihad we at least mentioned here, if I understand you better.

KD28 [9793-9878]

We must not fight a jihad because if I understand the jihad you are talking about.

KD29 [5166-5402]

Well to my view here is that ah Muslims state is bound to protect both the non-Muslim and Muslim. But my strong ah view and perception here is the means of using force to achieve a Muslim state. I am not ah actually in support of that.

KD30 [7518-8214]

Ah Islamic state to solve all Muslim problems, I think all Muslim problems ah I'm not sure it will solve all Muslim problems, but Islamic state is part of the, of the basic needs of all Muslims, I think all Muslims will like to live under an Islamic state and ah jihad if you mean carrying arm to confront enemy or the unbeliever or the person that is not a Muslim, I don't believe you have to carry arm nowadays every generation have their own jihad ah have their own form of jihad and jihad has different ways of conducting it. I don't think we have to carry arm in our present days, we have other ways to convince and invite people into Islam. I think we should indulge into such activities.

KD31 [7164-7537]

Actually, yah, my view on that is because Islam is a complete religion it has room to accommodate both everybody, it has room to accommodate everybody and Islam is a complete religion that has that knows or that teaches us how to treat or the rights of everyone that's why I think yes an Islamic state a pure Islamic state will bring about such a solution to our problems.

KD31 [7648-7811]

Through dialogue. Jihad itself, the term the word Islam itself means peace and if you read much on jihad you see that it will always start from peaceful dialogue.

KD32 [6929-8213]

An Islamic when we said Islamic state that is the state that is strictly performing the sharia law, and I don't think it is Muslims problem because there are many Muslims who cannot live under such a state, so there is no Islamic state that can solve some Muslims problem because there are some people that are performing some acts, a bad seeds that under Islamic state they will be punished while they will live freely in all in other non-Islamic state. So this does not does not solve the problem of Muslims, it is not all Muslims that are supporting Islamic state because like example in Islamic state you cannot perform eh an illegal sex to go freely, there must be some punishment and if you can look at, there are many Muslims who are doing this, like taking alcohols all those things, this will not be allowed in Islamic state and I don't think most Muslims will accept there are some Muslims who also engage in performing such sinful acts so they cannot go freely in an Islamic state so they may not support it and I can't say it's solving any Muslims problems, this is not Muslims problem at all and jihad to achieve an Islamic state this is another misconception as I have said jihad is just to strive for the sake of Allah, so there is no any relationship between the two.
KD33 [5297-5690]

Well Islamic state will solve all Muslims problem sir I believe with that, but jihad is not the only way to establish that because as we know if we go through Islamic history there are some cities town that where established and they practice Islam without jihad so Islamic state will surely solve Islam will solve all Muslim problem but jihad is not the only way to establish Islamic state.

KD34 [7502-7920]

This statement is little bit eh big or horrible am going to call it because by using words, as I said earlier, that some people translate jihad as a war and if you said it only Islamic state will solve the problem, I disagree with that because we are living in a secular society, by mentioning this word, it will even scare the non-Muslims not to even listen to you and to listen to the message you are going to pass.

KD35 [9485-9760]

Is true only jihad can solve this problem, as I define jihad previously. Jihad means trying so hard to do things the way they are properly, so the moment you do things the way you are supposed to do them properly by God's fearing, then its only that will solve our problems.

KN1 [17244-17988]

Yes, my view is this, I agree that Islam is a complete way of life because unlike other religions, I told you Islam contains the aspect of ibadat that is physical worship and mu'amalat that is the complete way of life. So now, for somebody to achieve an Islamic state, it may not be necessary under jihad, so as far as Islamic state is achieved, it may be under jihad and it may not be under jihad it all depends on the situation and circumstance. It has been achieved in many states. Now in... in fact consider the northern part of the country that has been going into Islamic mood, is there any physical something? I doubt. It is just a political revolution, even if it is not complete at least in the process it was achieved without violence.

KN2 [11744-12174]

Yes I agree that Islam has come to address social problems, all of them. And I agree Islam will provide solutions and I also agitate not only that I suggest that countries should use Islam as an alternative to check and see if they will be able to solve their problems using Islamic principles. I agree Islam will solve the problems and this can only be attained when there is an authority and that authority is an Islamic state.

KN4 [12982-13881]

No no no no, am an Islamic state would solve all human problem no. Only jihad can achieve this, no. I did not believe with this, with what they are saying, even in the Islamic world, there is sharia. In an Islamic state there is a- amongst of stealing that you can make and your hand to be amputates. In an Islamic state, when you kill you can be killed. In an Islamic state when you chase somebody that is you can-you you will come to the judge the judge will judge, will judge and give his verdict accordingly, according to the the according the amount of the cheating that you did to the other party, you understand. So you see, in Islamic world also there is problem that is why there is a sharia. I don't believe that jihad can be achieved, an Islamic state only can solve the problem of the people except they are moral and following the doctrine and the teaching of God and accordingly.

KN5 [5819-6064]

Yes of course an Islamic state can solve all Muslims all people not even ah ah all human problems when you talk of Islamic state but because of justice but jihad is not just the way through which that could be achieved. There are a lot of ways.

KN6 [4304-5292]

Yes, Islamic state is the only way that would solve the problem but ah ah but it depends to your interpretation. What is the meaning of Islamic state? Islamic state when you go back to the- during the period of Shehu Usman bin fodio you can understand what is the meaning of Islamic state. This Islamic state does not allow a Muslim ah to go maybe and build conflict between Christian and Muslim. So ah ah when you- if you want to fully understand the Islamic state you can go to the history of Islam during the prophet of Mohammed (SAW) because he built Islamic state and this Islamic state even it ah it give job even for those who are Christians to teach ther sons who are Muslim. So the meaning Islamic state maybe it differs from the one that this European try to give it now. So Islamic state is the only solve the problem and jihad is the only ahh thing that would solve this problem. If you but if you fully understand the meaning of Islamic state and the meaning of this jihad.

KN7 [6388-7113]

An Islamic state would ehm, would, we shouldn't see as people that ehm, are matured enough and look at things from different perspectives. We shouldn't say it can solve all problems but yes, but how do you think it can solve all problems? It depends on the perspective you look at things from. Well as a Muslim, we, as a Muslim, let me say, let us remove all sentiments, all sentiments say we shouldn't say it can solve all problems because we have different problems, even non-Muslims have their own problems, so if you say you want to, you want to, you want to solve the problem of non-Muslims from the Muslims perspective definitely this may cause crisis. So in one sense, I don't think yes it can solve all problems, yes.

KN8 [4717-4931]

Not only jihad can achieve this because there a lot of ways through which an Islamic state can be restored and orderliness can be put to place so there are lot of means through which there can be an Islamic state.

KN9 [4872-5081]

Yes, an Islamic state would solve all Muslim problems but jihad is not the only way to achieve it. There are other consensus techniques to establish an Islamic state. It doesn't have to be through jihad, yah.

KN10 [4727-5094]

Hmm an ahh in Islamic, yes Islamic state can solve the problems of all Muslims. The reason why is that it is the only one that knows the laws or that can provide the laws and ensure justice in the-among the Muslims. So any other ahm, let say non ah let say non-if it assumes not a non-Muslim state, so Muslim cannot get the freedom to get their problem being solved.

KN11 [6650-7149]

As I have said earlier, some people misunderstand the word jihad. Jihad is not necessarily means ah to fight physical fight no, but jihad means ah to make people to be good we can call it jihad ehen, an Islamic state can solve all Muslim problems are not only by this physically jihad but by through preaching, through good behaviors yes because people will imitate you, yes people will imitate your action. If you are good, people will try to be good not necessarily to set a war or holy jihad hmm

KN13 [6766-7343]

Hmm, yah an Islamic state would solve not yah, would solve all Muslim problems but within the 21st century whereby we have em we have series of things that have come up as a result of globalization and civilization, in philosophical sense can Islamic state actually solve all Muslim problems? Because whereby we actually have people who go to work, we have some rules that are actually western rules that you have to follow although this rules naturally they are not in contradiction with the Islamic laws, so I don't think Islamic state can actually solve all these problems.

KN14 [4903-5113]

No, it is true that Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems, but ah the issue that only jihad can solve this problem, the answer is, to my opinion or from what I have been hearing from the scholars is no.

KN15 [6767-7118]

My view on this statement is that in an Islamic state all Muslim problems can be solved of course because of domination and ah because after domination, due to it's a Muslim state so they use to they use go on sharia laws that will favour them through their religion so you know by such doing I think their problems all their problems will be solved.

KN16 [3252-3421]

Totally jihad is not the only way of solving Muslim problems but Islamic teachings and the most important way are the-but Islamic teachings are the most important ways.

KN17 [6401-6758]

Huh, I don't think that is possible because even Iran most of their citizens are having problems. They have this kwala poverty issues some people are even facing the problem of unemployment, although let me say about 65% of the population um they have this good standard of living but at least they are still having some minor problems, they are having...

KN18 [9082-11280]

If we say no we need to work with this context, look at the work of ah al-Farabi Mohammed Abu Nasr al-Farabi in his work The Virtuous City and ah Madinatul Fadhila and Madinatul Fasiqa. These two categorization he is trying to show that yes the Madinatul Fadhila is one state by which there are true teachings and true practice of Islam as it is and there is one leader who is leading ah leading according to the dictate of sharia and according to the dictate of ah Islamic injunctions. So if you are trying to now establish an Islamic state you said Islamic state from that notion of maybe al-Farabi (Madinatul Fadhila, Madinatul Fasiqa). And his interpretation of the other side okay, the other side which is Madinatul Fasiqa, he said is a city or a kind of political setup that is being undermined by by many by many crimes, many ungodly things, many and that kind of state is corrupt and does not actualise its true ah its true obligations. So as such now if we can contextualize a kind of ah sharia em Islamic state now we should take like Kano is an Islamic state if we take Kano itself as an Islamic state whereby it is saying in paper and in practice they are following the teaching of Islam as the as a basis as a basis for making, for making I mean for having stability, peace and development yes its right because that kind of Islamic state is Islamic state that is accommodative. Islamic state that flourish that kind of Islamic state flourish during the prophet Muhammad, it flourish that it recognise non-Muslims, traditionalists and it recognizes the Jews, the Christians and it accommodates them, it protects them that kind of state. Therefore, if it is that kind of state that respects the interest of minorities and recognizes minorities and also protect the rights of minority groups yes that kind of state will bring peace and development, but but if a state of Islamic state the one we are seeing now in the media the Islamic state of Iraq and Libya, Libyan or that of ah ISIS yes that is ISIS, Islamic state of Iraq and Syria. That kind of Islamic state that is trying to annihilate any other population of those that are not Muslims that is not the true Islamic state we are here are different tenets of Islamic aspects or Islamic ah components that can bring about an orderly society but not only jihad.

KN19 [8780-8910]

KN20 [4870-4905]

I don't agree with that statement.

KN21 [3086-3090]

No

KN22 [5646-5680]

I do not subscribe to this notion

KN23 [5447-5610]

Yah I believe to a very large extent that Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems but the facts that only jihad can achieve this I strongly disagree with it.

KN24 [5464-5565]

Yah it true if you understand they said that only jihad can. So the meaning of jihad is sacrifice.

KN25 [6221-6275]

True an Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems

KN25 [6314-6431]

Well, there are other ways I think this can be established, there is consensus. It doesn't have to be through jihad.

KN26 [5846-6441]

You see there are a lot of issues. First, Nigeria is a multi-religious group by two dominant religious groups, both Islam and Christianity. You can't call for a sharia state in Nigeria as such. Even some of the states that have been said to or are being seen to practice ah Islamic law we are all living witness of how things are being operated. In practice it is not feasible. So I don't necessarily agree to that, you know, you can make a cluster of people whereby you can make some, you can make some checks on Muslims, you know, but largely you have to respect others that are not Muslims.

KN27 [5414-5633]

Well an Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems only if it comprises of everything a Muslim wants. But if you look at it in the real sense, what is it, does an Islamic state have everything a Muslim wants? Does it?

KN27 [5723-5943]

It is not only jihad that can achieve this. There are other ways, even peaceful and mutual agreement between, let me say, social contract will in one way or the other that can also serve as a lead way in achieving this.

KN28 [4525-4584]

Well I don't think, there is no any idea from me for now.

KN30 [4229-5009]

You see jihad is not an easy thing and even when the prophet (SAW) started jihad, he didn't start it just like that. So we need to understand what jihad is and what stages are to be followed before reaching to jihad because if you say jihad I may start, people may start taking arms to go to Sabon gari and start killing people. That is not jihad. And even if Misali the issue of this person that killed or that said bad thing to the prophet (SAW) Islamically you cannot just carry arms and start killing him. No it is the institution that is supposed to do that, it is the responsibility of the institution. So jihad is the institution, Islamic institution that would give directions, teachings, orientation from the first instance to last bottom of where the jihad should start.

KN31 [4447-4840]

Well it is not only through jihad that you can achieve those things. I think we have now reach a certain age that through dialogue and other means we can come to consensus and –so it is not only just jihad that we can achieve this. And that as we know politically we have two ideologies that is realists and idealists. I think we should be more idealism that realism in our current society now

KN32 [1882-1904]

No that is incorrect

KN33 [2268-2300]

Yes but not only through Jihad.

KN34 [2462-2551]

I agree with the first part of it but I disagree with the second part of the statement.

KN34 [2602-2770]

It can be achieved not through Jihad. There are so many instances where some Islamic states were well established not through jihad and they still living under peace.

KN35 [4616-4919]

Actually we are in contemporary world and most especially in this very part of the country, so saying that through jihad that is only when you can station Islam, it will be very difficult task because the age of the prophets have gone, so we are only trying to see that we practice Islam the way it is.

KN36 [3807-3978]

Islam can solve but is not only jihad that can sustain that, because it is not jihad that is only the means of making people abide by the rules and regulations of Islam.

KN37 [3183-3407]

The statement is not correct. There are many ways that Islam, Islam has many ways to solve problems not just through jihad. If you say through jihad you are limiting the perception of the religion of Islam. It is not true.

KN38 [2182-2198]

Totally wrong

KN39 [2549-2563]

Actually no

KN40 [4577-4957]

Ok. I believe jihad, making use of jihad to fight or to solve the problems of the Muslims, is just that, in my own understanding, I believe is just to eradicate some of those bad things or some of those people who are doing or who are trying to make something against the Muslims. So I believe that is my own understanding about using jihad to solve the problem of the Muslims.

KN41 [3043-3135]

Actually this can never be achieved without unity and loyalty among majority in the state.

KN42 [4638-5019]

Yes, an Islamic state gives the rules and regulations, what are supposed to be done and what are not supposed to. So yes an Islamic state is the way forward for peace and everything and for we to achieve this, everybody has to be tolerant, we have to be accepting of one another, our defect, our flaws, what we are, we should accept we are not perfect and we should live in peace.

KN43 [6963-7834]

Yah Islamic state is the only thing that can solve the problems of the Muslims Umma, the Muslims community because it is the Islam that has a complete understanding of the Muslim lives. It is the Islam that provides the dos and don'ts, the precept, the rules and regulations governing the life of Muslims. So it is only Islamic state that can address the Muslim problems, but Islamic state cannot be established through jihad. It cannot be established through jihad. It can be established through a peaceful means. For example, if let's say ah Muslims state, the state where Muslims are the majority decided to come together and form an Islamic state and operate sharia, will you describe that as a jihad? It is not a jihad; so eh Islamic state can be established through peaceful means and it can solve and address majority of the problems facing the Muslim community.

KN44 [4154-4238]

Ahh Islamic state can solve all Muslims problem, is that what you are saying, eh?

KN45 [3770-4073]

No, I don't think it is only through jihad eh the Muslim umma, the Muslim community can achieve the ideal Islamic state. Even through the eh the present democratic dispensation. They can work and, they can establish Islam and the state through that, yes several examples eh in the world politics abound

KN46 [6347-7006]

Well, it depends on how jihad is perceived or understood. If jihad means military campaign, only military campaign against those who do not share the Islamic ah perspective or do not subscribe to Islamic faith, then this is not the solution and will not lead to what ahh they think. But if jihad means to engage in ah physically, mentally, and even ah emotionally in getting the right things, then then of course that will lead to the good life they are clamoring for, and this is what Islam is; to build a good life, to have people strive to live a better life here so that they can achieve a better things in the hereafter and I think Islam is about that.

KN47 [9264-10299]

Hmm this statement it seems to be a extremist, I mean, it is an extremist statement, you know, you can't just say that only, you know, only jihad can achieve this, you understand, only jihad. This saying is like only jihad can help Muslims to achieve or to resolve problems; and if you say problems, which problems? Is it economic problem if you go to jihad then you will, you you can achieve economic prosperity, if you go to jihad, can you say ok you lay a foundation for your children to educated because you go to jihad? So these problems can be of multi-dimensional, you understand, so if they are multi-dimensional it is not enough to say that, you know, Islam will to solve Muslim problems. What are the Muslim problems? No. we are the people here in northern Nigeria that we, we are battling with poverty, we are battling with, you know, a lot of societal evils, you understand. So diseases and other things characterized by African countries and then there are many ah Muslim communities in Africa. So how can you say that?

KN48 [3657-4078]

Hmm, To me, to have a number of Muslim in an environment not by doing it in a fanaticism way in fact the one we are even following self which is Muhammad (SAW) he use to do everything steadily like, as part of quality he has, so gentle, he is not the type that use to get angrily so easily like that, so I don't think to me to my own belief to invite people to this Islam, not by doing it in a fanatical way or doing it.

KN49 [5196-5720]

Actually, we cannot only achieve and Islamic state strictly through jihad, I think there are ways and steps to achieving an Islamic state. I am not condemning or abrogating jihad as a step to obtaining or acquiring an Islamic state, but I think there are lots of others ways, other, other less coercive ways of acquiring an Islamic state, I think we could, we could use dialogue, we could change the psyche, we could educate people in such a way that they can yarn for an Islamic state, and they can consequently achieve it.

KN50 [3290-3327]

Ahh, I disagree with this statement.

KN51 [22489-24012]

An Islamic state can solve all Muslim problems, this is absolutely true; but is not achieved through jihad, fighting because jihad has many meanings. When you say jihad; that is why Qur'an is saying jihad, jihad striving hard, working very hard to change from bad to good ok, from evil to wholesomeness, from ... situation to a good situation that is a jihad. But if now people would interpret jihad to mean fighting with weapons, if this is what ah they want to believe, this is a misconception, yes is quite misconception. As far as Islam is concerned, Muslims lives should be governed, yes, in accordance with the dictates of sharia and this sharia should be implemented by the state. If the state implements the sharia, it means the life of the Muslims would be in accordance with the Islamic teaching and they would live peacefully and in prosperity. But non-Muslims, Muslims are not allowed to take weapons and begin to fight even the leaders, even the leaders, they are not allowed todo that, yes they are not allowed to do this. Like I was telling you the other time, the only three reasons that Islam pinpointed without which you could not fight jihad by way of force are the three I have enumerated before. So as far as we are concerned, Islam-Muslim would be in prosperity if they observe Islamic sharia in their own state. But achieving this is not dependent upon taking of arms, killing people, destroying properties, trying to bring commotions into the society, no, this is not Islamic. Yes it is not Islamic.

KN52 [5658-6200]

That is not true. Yes a good Islamic state is expected to solve the problems of all Muslims, not only Muslims but also all other citizens of that Islamic state because in an Islamic state you could have Muslims, Jews, Christians, just like the prophet did during the time of the classical Islam and during the Medinan period, you know, you have the Jews, the Christians, the non-believers all under one political umbrella. The most important thing there was justice. So it doesn't matter whether you are a Muslims or not in an Islamic state.

KN53 [4850-4977]

To me, fighting in this context cannot achieve the problem I disagree that, but all state I believe it can be done. That's all

KN54 [1969-2044]

The problem is inevitable to human society be them Islamic or un-Islamic

KN55 [3123-3141]

No I have no idea

KN56 [3367-3658]

Actually I don't believe that it is only through jihad that an Islamic state can be established and the Muslim problems can be totally corrected, even in Saudi Arabia where we have the majority of Muslims and we can refer to it as an Islamic state, I think they also have their problems.

KN57 [5018-5126]

My view on this statement Islamic state would solve all problems, Muslim problem no. It is not honestly.

KN58 [11174-12169]

Islamic state can solve all Muslim problems is true, but not necessarily through jihad. W

What we mean by that is that it is only Islamic states that justice and equality prevails. It is only in Islamic states where leaders emerge from the community based on their what, excellent performance not based on how they can speak or how they can defend themselves. It is based on what we refer to as Akida that is the Islamic Akida. It is equally based on your perseverance. It is equally based on how you control your emotions. It is equally based on how you control your inordinate desires. It is only in Islam that justice is given to whom it is due. It is only in Islam, as I said earlier on, where individuals are treated equally based on how it is ordained by Allah. It is only in Islam that if you are found guilty you would be treated according to the nature or gravity of your crime. Wal nafs bin nafs, wal ain bil ain, Wal anfa bil anfa etc. So Islam is the only solution to world peace.

KN59 [8226-8260]

I view this statement as not true

KN60 [11785-12505]

I think is the same point I talked about. It is not only jihad that would bring the Islamic state. Actually it is not only jihad, you understand. Certain good qualities of Muslims can, now, for instance, are the people in America using weapons? The Muslims in America, are they using weapons to bring in many Americans into Islam? No. They say in America the fastest growing religion is Islam now, but they are not taking up arms nor are they using weapons to fight those people but they have being preaching day and day, you understand, and Islam is progressing, you understand. So the best form of jihad is what you said now jihadin nafs that is you try to practice, to put into practice what you are taught in Islam.

KN61 [3464-3527]

Ah, it can be true in other sense, it cannot be true in other.

KN62 [14401-15114]

Hmm Mallam...it is not necessary that n Islamic state is the only solution to our problem yah. Ah look at how our noble prophet lived under the rulership, the kingship of ah Abu Sufyan in Mecca and not only Abu Sufyan, about three hundred and thirteen idols were there inside Qa'aba and so our noble prophet lived that way and he practiced his religion together with his companion very well and there in Medina ah he lived with Jews all around him and ah nothing affected their way of worship or religion or anything like that. Therefore, what I am saying is, it is not necessarily necessary that we must build or establish an Islamic state before we become free enough to practice our religion, is not necessary.

KN63 [13314-14516]

Ehh, ehh you know, that question is over tempting. Islamic state agreed, the Islamic state is only possible when you have Muslim majority ahh. You cannot say for now, maybe somewhere like Abia, Imo that you want to organize them to have an Islamic state. It is not possible. But in a, okay like in Kano now, when you are having more than ninety percent, more than eighty percent of Muslim, of course they can have an Islamic state. I know that Islamic state will go a long way to assist the Muslims in those states and also to assist the non-Muslims, even the non-Muslims have more advantage than the Muslim in the Islamic state. It protects their rights, it protects, it has more protection on their rights than the Muslim themselves and the Islamic, in Islamic state when they, when they now talk of sharia maybe in Islamic state now, is binding on Muslims only, sharia is only on Muslim only, it doesn't, even though in Islam it is not binding on those Christians living in that locality. So Islamic state is good, quite alright, you know, in an Islamic dominated area, Islamic state is good, is very ideal because it guarantee the rights of the Muslims and the non-Muslims as well in that state.

KN64 [5801-5916]

Not only jihad can achieve, can make Muslims to achieve their goal in helping ah Islam. I do not agree with this.

KN65 [8848-9672]

Okay, well if you are to ahh an Islamic state will not solve all Muslim problems because Islam is a personal thing, is between you, yourself and your creator, you understand. So having an Islamic state is not the end to it. You may have an, okay let us take a state like Iran, now they are being Islamized, you understand, but now go to their courts, are they using the full sharia? No, you understand. Islam is a way of life actually, but it cannot solve all of our problems, you understand. So that is my own view, it cannot solve all of our problem, and we cannot achieve Islamic state through jihad, no, we can't achieve it through jihad, like I told you, even in the Annawawi collection, there is ah ah al-din nasihatun, you understand. So we cannot, it is not through fighting or war that you achieve Islamic state.

KN66 [3143-3212]

Yah, an Islamic state can solve any problem in the world, I believe.

KN66 [3311-3383]

Yah ah Islam can be established not ah not necessary though only jihad.

KN67 [3088-3378]

Yes, this is ah true, according to ah sources in the Qur'an and hadith ah if people cannot protect Islam, the people in Islam, I mean Islam as a religion then they will face many problems and if they want to solve the problem, they first protect the religion and then Allah will help them.

KN67 [3444-3599]

No. It is not only, but the issue of jihad as you can see is not something, is very ah comprehensive and wide, ah concept, so depending on how you see it.

KN68 [2002-2045]

Even in Saudi Arabia, there is problem.

KN69 [7186-7785]

Yes, Islamic state would only solve the problem of Muslims in so far that it is in Islamic state is abiding with the dictates of Allah that is Qur'an and hadith definitely it would solve the problem of its inhabitants, but to the fact that it is only jihad that would solve the problem, I think I may agree in one respect and disagree in one respect. To the fact that if we take the meaning of jihad in a wider sense it means that it will solve the problem, but if we restricted our minds to the fact that only physical combat meaning as jihad I think that this will not stand, to my understanding.

KN71 [12135-13317]

If it is a declaration, if it is a declaration, I should have ask the authority who made the declaration because I believe that an Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems true, but when you say that and jihad can achieve and only jihad can achieve this, I say what type of jihad? I have to ask this question again because, as I said, and as you know, jihad doesn't mean only fighting, it means striving for the cause of Allah to establish a state, to make people know, to make act, that doesn't mean, that doesn't necessarily seek the interference of a sword. It depends on how you are able to convince their minds just like an Hadith era of the prophet (Saw) for the first thirteen years they spent in Mecca, were there any jihad? Were there fighting anywhere? In fact they were even being persecuted, but in themselves, they believed that they are Muslims and so they believe that they are bound by the dictate of Islam and in that everything to them was normal and even while in Medina and even the first thirty years of the caliphate, things were normal and what do you mean by problems? When you say problems of course there would never be any society without a problem.

KN72 [9059-9260]

So on my own view it is not only jihad can solve this problem, can achieve this views, but I agree that Islamic state can solve the problems of Muslims, but it is not only means to declare a war, yes.

KN73 [8273-8521]

It is not only an Islamic state that will solve Muslim problems. It's not. Abul Ala Maududi in one of his books, has stated it and one of his counterpart Ulama Sayid Qutb has it in is Tariqul-Ta'alim and it is not only jihad that can achieve this.

KN74 [14647-15318]

(chuckles) Ehen en I am not agreeing with this, it is not only jihad that can achieve this because if you can remember when Allah (SBUH) sent prophet Muhammad (SAW) to preach, he lived with his people for long before he started jihad, even when his people sent him out from the Mecca, at that time he did not do anything. Therefore, there is something, there is a lesson behind that. You can't come to the people and ehh and fight them without any reasons. Therefore, I am not agreeing with him that it is only jihad that can achieve the, the- it is- I am not in believe or agreeing with the saying that it is only jihad that can solve the problems of Muslims. That is all.

KN74 [15485-15857]

Yes, okay you know that most of the people now if they are talking about jihad, they are talking about the physical jihad, that is fighting people, that is why I did not specify, but even with mouth you can even do jihad with your mouth, with your money, with everything. Therefore, the prophet Muhammad (SAW) did not make a physical jihad when he came to the Mecca, yes.

KN75 [17893-18170]

First and foremost, what is Islamic state, Islamic state? An Islamic state is a Muslim state, you understand, an Islamic state is a Muslim state, but a Muslim state may not be an Islamic state unless and until that constitution of the state is based on the Qur'an and Sunna.

KN75 [18254-18339]

Islamic state will not solve the Muslim problems, will not solve the Muslim problem.

KN76 [12070-12233]

Well I can't say that only jihad can give a rise to an Islamic state, there are other peaceful ways or means through which an Islamic state can be established.

KN78 [12894-13331]

Well I said, as I said earlier, jihad has a wider dimension, has a wider meaning. It depends on the context ahh which we prefer to use jihad. If you say jihad through violent means or are you referring to jihad through peaceful means. There are other levels of jihad in Islam. So I want you to be very specific when you ask me any questions on jihad, I think we have to be very specific so that I cannot fall into a serious error, hmm.

KN78 [13743-14388]

No. I don't think it can solve all problems. It can't solve all problems, but when you say ahh you see in the modern society, there are challenges that jihad, in itself, is not the ultimate panacea, is not the ultimate ahh problem solver. There are other dimensions of human existence that we have to take into consideration, but jihad if you mean the violent means, in some certain societies, but certainly not in Nigeria. In some certain predominant Muslim society that I agree, it might have the high potentials of changing some of their problems, but in the case of Nigeria, I think we have to be ahh we have to be very considerate as well.

KN79 [5685-5801]

No, Islam preaches for peace and happiness, and not all cases require physical confrontation, of course, of course.

KN80 [10649-11447]

Yes of course. Like the situation we are in Nigeria, only jihad can save or can make ahh Islamic state in Nigeria, but if you look at what is happening or what was happening historically, so you can see that it will come to an extent that hardly to wage a jihad in Nigeria because the colonial adventures have separated and divided Muslims into many sects whereby initially Africa belongs to one entity and Muslims are the most largest ahh ahh inhabitants of west Africa, so now they become divided into some fall into other countries, minor falls into another country. So it is the case, it is the same case with Nigeria whereby even the northern Nigerians attached to the non-Muslim, so let alone the whole Nigeria. So it is hardly to wage Islam in Nigeria or any West African country.

KN81 [5880-6176]

Hmm my own opinion, it is not only jihad that can solve Muslim problems or that can solve, as I said, that can solve Muslim problems. If you define jihad as a physical combat, but if you look the word jihad in its original meaning that is striving or struggling toward a good act, it can solve.

KN82 [8589-9136]

You see most of the states that flourish or succeed if they succeeded at all, you can see that the achievement was not as a result of jihad. Even the jihad itself depends on which type of jihad. The literary meaning that some use to interpret jihad as is taking arms to fight non-Muslims which is not the actual jihad Islam is talking about. So realization of Islam could be possible even without taking arms. If you study the nature of modern states where some other means have been deployed or are deployed and the intention has been realized.

KN83 [5076-5259]

Yes it is true, but which type of jihad? Which type of jihad? I think if Muslims apply all forms of jihad jihad defined by Ulama, all their problems should be solved by God's grace.

KN84 [6073-6310]

Well if you mean violence or fighting jihad I totally disagree, but if you mean jihad that in the sense, wider sense which comprise all human struggle in accordance to sharia and I will agree because it always brings a positive change.

KN85 [4934-5271]

Yes an Islamic state actually if established will solve all the problems of Muslims insha Allah as we know, but it is not necessarily through jihad. We can establish Islamic state without jihad and yes even if it is through jihad, not the kind of jihad some people think. You strive to establish Islamic state without fighting actually.

ZA1 [6731-6945]

No. Islam is a way of life between you and your brother, you and non-Muslims, but not that Islam, the way to solve it is to wage a war, no, no because all the wars that prophet fought is for self-defense (coughs).

ZA2 [3883-3900]

No. no, no, no.

ZA3 [7846-8050]

Toh I don't know the author will know his own reasons, but there is no any state that can solve the whole humanity problem and I have said earlier that is not only through jihad that it could achieved.

ZA4 [18819-18921]

No, no is not only by jihad, you know you can change all Muslims to the righteous, to the right place

ZA4 [18952-19892]

Yah no, no, not through jihad only because jihad is the last, you understand, is the last end, is the last solution, but after you finish some other solutions, you have to give people faith, you be kind to them, make sure what they can eat and survive is well taken care of, there is no corruption in the society, there is no poverty, there is ability of people, you have good preaching to them, you have other things before you come about jihad and even jihad is not every person that you start killing. Jihad is a set of people that, they have military forces that even if you have any problems with other, they are there to settle it. Jihad is not for everyone, it is for selective people in Islam that are being chained to and they are doing it according to the guidelines. So everything has guidelines. So jihad is not the only way you can change Muslims, is a bad way because it interprets Islam wrongly, it interprets Islam wrongly.

ZA5 [8855-9414]

Islamic state, we can't have an Islamic state in Nigeria. Nigeria is a secular state, you understand, automatically we say Islamic state will solve the problem, Islamic state cannot solve the problem. You can't tell me that is only Muslim that will stay in that community, how? It can't happen. So Islamic state cannot solve the problem eh because you have to look for, is something that you have to do both side because even though you have an Islamic state, we still have a conflict between community and community as in whether tribal of stuff like that.

ZA6 [13993-16544]

Okay that all Islamic state will solve all muslim problems and only jihad can achieve this, Ahmmm an Islamic state, it depends, ideally if you have an Islamic state is an Islamic state is the state where the Muslims, is a state where the Muslims, is a Muslims state where its majority and in fact 99% are Muslims, hmm. An Islamic state is a state where sharia is been practiced, you get, now if you are saying an Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems, in a state where the Muslims are 99% dominant, of course yes. If you have, if you have a population of Muslims and only Muslims definitely the only way they will solve their problems is by adopting sharia in an Islamic state. But in a situation like Nigeria where we have a secular state, where we have a secular state now, you know it's a 50/50 something between the Muslims and the Christians, you cannot say an Islamic state will solve all the Muslim problems considering the political values of Nigeria now, but in the constitution now, there is a provision for every state to practice the regional law it wants to the, kind of constitution it wants to adopt because the constitution gives everybody the right to his or her religion now. The Christians have the right to practice their religion, the Muslims have the right to practice their religion now. In a state like Zamfara and Kano where in those days they practiced, they adopted the sharia law, it is allowed in the constitution because in Kano and Zamfara it is predominantly a Muslim state, but that did not really solve the whole problems of the Muslims. So Islamically when you have a Muslim dominated, in fact it is advisable, it is necessary to have an Islamic state, but now you are talking of Nigeria now where you have a secular state, when you live, you have to like give the other the non-Muslims there, you have to give them an enabling environment to practice, though even under sharia, they have in fact they even live more free under a sharia law. The Christians live more free, but it's very difficult to convince a Christians now because of the kind of understanding of the Muslims' faith now and this is because of those imported teachings yes, so I don't think in Nigeria it is only, like the jihad, the militant are pursuing now that they want an Islamic state, it is not possible. It is an adulterated teaching, it is not possible. The Islamic state is not the solution to the Muslims, the problems of the Muslims especially the northern Nigeria, it is never the problem in Nigeria.

ZA7 [7465-7757]

Yes I want to believe jihad in Islam is like a principle or like a lifestyle that every Muslim should abide by. Jihad has to do with trying to prohibit yourself from doing anything evil or bad. So I think jihad is one instrument that is necessary in achieving all Muslim goals in any state.

ZA8 [8976-10330]

Ehm based on what we call, an Islamic state is not actually the solution to the Muslims' problems. What I will say is, in my opinion, I will say everybody has his own opinion of what should happen, but even during the time of the prophets, there are Christians even up to tomorrow and they make a pact with the prophet even then that we will live, is an Islamic state, Islamic rule, Islamic everything, but they made a pact with the prophet that look we want to stick to our religion and he allowed them because in Islam, number one thing is no compulsion, you can't compel or you must not make somebody, force anybody to accept the religion. It must be by will, so even then there are Christians and even when the prophet was alive. They were not killed because they were not following God, Islam, they were Christians, they were Jews. They are Jews, they are Christians. So they make a pact to live peacefully, you do your things the way you do, we do our things the way we do. We worship our God the way we want, you do your own religion. If any of you thinks he wants to convert he is free, but nobody will be compelled, will force anybody to change to Islam. So I don't think Islamic state, just Islamic state is the solution because an Islamic state can be created and still there will still be problems. So I don't think that is the solution.

ZA9 [8266-8686]

Well, like I said earlier, Nigeria is a heterogeneous country that is we have different set of people. Nigeria is not like Saudi Arabia or Egypt that we have very population of Muslims. We have considerable number of other worshipers in this country, I believe getting an Islamic state in Nigeria is close to impossible, even if they are to attain it, it will not be forceful. They should not force it on this people.

ZA10 [8701-9191]

Actually when we talk about Jihad that is Jihad will propagate Islam, will tell people what God is, what God wants and what God doesn't want that is the Doings and don'ts that God said in the Qur'an actually things will go fine and the world will be free of a lot of things that is Corruption, injustice, stealing everything. When we have faith everything will reduce and that is what it means by Islamic state and the rest because when you have fear of God your country will move forward.

ZA11 [7485-7930]

Well if we go back from my initial statement, jihad of the heart, if we could practice the actual teachings of Rasul (SAW) and the statement and the teachings in the Qur'an, we steadfast, we steadfast with the sharia and other these things and the hadith, I guess that's the only jihad we think we need for now and if things go well, we are practicing it, we go closer to God, God will come closer to us and then I think that's the best jihad.

ZA12 [4589-4946]

It can't, the reason being that let me take a country like, is it Syria? Syria or one of this Arab countries which are 90 percent Muslims, they still have this problem of group fighting, the Shi'ites fighting the Sunni, so they, it is an Islamic state, but they are still fighting one another. So I don't think an Islamic state will solve Muslim problems.

ZA13 [4482-4639]

An Islamic state, I disagree with this because jihad is not the only way that can, it is not the only way that can brought about the true practice of Islam.

ZA14 [3896-4194]

Islamic state cannot solve all the problems we have in northern Nigeria because the northern Nigeria is a secular state, you understand because automatically there is no way, even though they said that they Islamize all the northern Nigeria, all these ethical and cultural crisis and other things.

ZA15 [7587-8306]

You see, jihad, what people may say about jihad people think jihad is all about fighting, fighting, fighting, no, not necessarily about fighting, fighting, fighting. Yes Islamic state definitely will solve Muslim problems that one is for sure, but jihad, jihad, jihad people misunderstood what jihad simply means, it is not just fighting. To strive for the cause of Allah, striving is not necessarily fighting. When you at least assist people to do something, is also jihad. When you see something on the way that you know maybe will harm people and you remove it from the way, you are doing jihad and so many other things. So it is not just all about fighting. Definitely Islamic state is the right state for Muslims.

ZA16 [4834-5092]

My view on this statement, I do not agree with that only jihad can be use to achieve this because we in our selves we can change ourselves by relating the teaching of the prophet (SAW) which will change us and will also help to solve the problem of Muslims.

ZA17 [3513-3653]

Is not only jihad, jihad is if you preach, you enlighten people to understand what is din and how din is all about that is the first jihad.

ZA18 [5721-5777]

In an Islamic state, ah not only jihad, not only jihad.

ZA18 [5829-6106]

You see first of all educate people, when your people are educated in fact that will help them a lot, you understand, but in a situation where you leave people in darkness, they don't even know the Islamic teachings, you understand, look jihad is the last resort to be candid.

ZA19 [7198-7413]

Precisely Islamic state could definitely solve all Muslim problems, but not necessarily through jihad because there are several Islamic states that were still in existence but were not being achieved through jihad.

ZA20 [3681-3954]

Islamic problems cannot be achieved through the definition they give to jihad because their own definition, the western definition of jihad is all about; their definition is all about violence which they ascribe to Islam. Islam, the word Islam is called ehh means peace.

ZA21 [4734-5141]

Of course an Islamic state will solve all Muslims problems, but it is not only jihad that can achieve this because by doing good things for people to people they can emulate that good thing and if they so believe this good thing you are doing is right they can join your religion and it does not matter whether you go about fighting this and that that you can call for people to accept your religion.

ZA22 [4779-5283]

Yes Islamic state will definitely solve almost all the problems we have today. But nowadays it is supposed to be through teachings, through teachings of Qur'an and the sunna of rasul (SAW) based on understanding of the companions of (SAW) and the first generation of the Muslim umma. When we do that our people get enlightened and somebody may be wants to interfere with our activities as Muslims then we defend ourselves. So that is the best way I think not this physical fight that we cannot do now.

ZA23 [6525-7317]

Yes taking the meaning of jihad not only to confine it to fighting of course yes. But if you are talking about fighting alone I disagree with that simply because even when Islam conquered Mecca jihad was not fought. No blood was shed. Not even a hen was killed. Peacefully the Holy prophet (SAW) was able to conquer Mecca to become an Islamic state. So if that could happen even in those days, why now it will not happen? The simple things that Muslims will do, as a Muslim let us stick to the teaching of Islam, let our behaviors be moderated by the teachings of Islam. And see without you going to invite a non-Muslim to Islam, by mere conduct good conduct that will call people to Islam. During the time of the holy prophet (SAW) it was not everybody that embraced Islam that was fought.

ZA24 [8678-9644]

My own view on that statement is that Islamic state will solve all Muslim problems because if you look at the Qur'an and the hadith the prophet (SAW) said when he is going he is going to live two things for us: Qur'an and sunna. There fore if we follow Qur'an and sunna our problem will be solved, but not only through jihad. So what is jihad? Jihad is not to fight, the meaning of jihad is contribute towards the progress of Islam. The way people perceive jihad is as if if you say jihad it means you have started killing people or you are fighting. Jihad is not is not fighting. Jihad I for instance now let's say somebody is go on his way and going somewhere and he has money and there is no money you can do jihad and give him money and give him transport fare so on and so forth that is jihad. So you have solved that particular problem. So therefore a good jihad, the way we perceive jihad it can solve Islamic problems not through fighting. That is my own.

ZA25 [8352-9056]

Yes, forming an Islamic state is an integral-it is what every Muslim is supposed to wishing for and working towards. But that it will solve all Muslim problems that is doubtful because if you go back even to the sahabas' period we had an Islamic state but the Muslims still had some problems as of then which led to the assassination almost all our alkhulafa alrashidun. So that only jihad can achieve this, yes only jihad, but it depends on how the conceptualization of jihad – jihad as a concept is not confined to physical fight alone. So there are some factors that must have been satisfied, some requirements must have been fulfilled that will make physical fight inevitable as a last resort.

ZA26 [5019-5264]

I don't believe with that because the so-called Islamic state people proliferated, they don't mean that because Islam has enshrined the way to do it, but they are not following the right course of even the jihad talkless saying Islamic state.

ZA27 [2939-3032]

Actually yes an Islamic state can solve all Islamic problems, but only truly through jihad.

ZA28 [9233-10742]

Well Islamic state. When you say Islamic state things that will come to many people's mind here is may be trying to Islamatize or Islamize a region which contains both Muslims and non-Muslims. Well that is not the true definition of trying to create an Islamic state. Here based on my own opinion is creating an Islamic state is actually trying to establish laws and orders according to Qur'an and hadith that will guide people, yes I would say people, including Muslims and even the non-Muslims to some extent. Because if a set of people within a locality accept some certain rules and regulations which are not contrary to the decrees of others, which means the opposite religion, maybe people of the other religion living in the same environment with the Muslims, I think that is an Islamic state and it is actually a condition, a favorable condition for the Muslims to establish good relationship between themselves and even the non-Muslims because creating an Islamic state will create a real understanding and a very good understanding between both religions. And I don't think it there is a good understanding between both parties, I don't think there is any conflict that would arise between them. And only jihad can achieve this? Ammm as I said earlier jihad is not a physical fight and it is not a fight. It is just the believers' role and duty to maintain the status of the religion and I mentioned earlier on that it gives your rules and regulations according to the sunna and hadith and Qur'an.

ZA29 [16651-17643]

Well talking about Islamic state, when you say an Islamic state. An Islamic state is simply, let me first elaborate to my own view, when you say Islamic state simply is a state in which or a society that the dominance or the population of the people living in that society are Muslims; which they see that they can only live peacefully if rules and the regulations of the Islam are being observed. Well saying that they can only achieve it through jihad it is a big, big, big wrong perception because when you say jihad like I explained, jihad that is to strive, well if you are to strive to do the rules and the regulations of the religion well quite alright, but not the way the people perceive jihad. That is why I keep emphasizing on that. The jihad if it means to strive yes it is the only way in which those people living in the Islamic state can achieve their own objectives yes, but if the jihad, the way the people see it today, is what they mean here is very wrong, is very wrong.

ZA30 [17178-21659]

Yah, I strongly agree. Islamic state can solve Muslim problems exactly. And it can only achieve through jihad? That is where may be I will also ask question. Is it only through jihad that Islamic state can be achieved? Yah, before it happened through that, that is the only way, but now we have seen an example. In I think, 1999 to 2002 or 2003, we have seen an example here in Nigeria where Ahmad Yarima, the former governor of Zamfara state created sharia, let me say, is it created or formed sharia in his own state, through what, through democracy. So and the only thing and they started, where it started from Zamfara to almost reach up to four to five states in northern Nigeria. I can, some people are saying that one is a political sharia, but me I agree it is a real sharia. The reason is that, I was born and brought up from Funtua, in my line, let me say my area, it's just less than, let me say, the line, the long of the line is just less than eh twenty 20 meters, twenty to fifty meters, let me put it this way, but in that line alone, I think we have three 3 prostitution houses, three to five 3 – 5: gidan mai gauda, Mai rasa Hani, gidan marmara, gidan altashi she has two houses. So all these houses owned by prostitutes. What ahm I used to see anytime I came out from house, I will see females outside with only one wrapper they wrap up to their chest. In the evening I will see people, they will come out, sit down on a bench and brought karta, I don't know how to put it, this something which is greater than WhoT, I don't know the name, they will be doing chacha in Hausa. I don't know. That is how our area is, but as a result of that Yarima's sharia, a children born a year after that one, they don't know all such kind of atrocities we have come across. So the sharia was started from Zamfara, but it reached up to my area in Katsina state. So you can see sharia can achieve or Islamic state can achieve through other means, but the only thing may be is the people. That is why in the beginning I said everybody should be stick to Qur'an and Hadith. The sharia has been implemented and it has been doing, but the people themselves, they don't want the sharia. So before you impart or people thinking of Islamic state, they have to first know themselves, believe that they are a Muslim and exercise that Islamic right on themselves and their families. You can do sharia now, even on yourself at any time you feel like and anything you are doing. Islam is the kind of religion that did not let anything behind, and eating, if you want to eat, there are some certain teachings that is recommended in Islam. If you want to go and ease yourself, there are some certain teaching, whatsoever Muslim is doing, he is doing an ibadat unless if he did it out of sharia. So when Muslims engage themselves in actual Islamic teachings, you will see them even if they don't have the head as a central body, they can appoint their Imam to be their head and I don't think whether anybody will come and fight them. If something happens now between me and you may be we have a quarrelling, I will take our case, instead of going to police station to report to police and they will use constitution no, I will prefer to go to my Imam and complain to him that this is what somebody did to me and he will call that person, he will bring, he will recite ayas that is verses from the holy Qur'an and give all the judgment. That is by doing as such, I don't think government will just come and harass you that why didn't you take your case to the court. There are even some certain situations, may be in marriage or any other conflict that when you take the case to court, they will ask you to go back, to please go back to home and settle, if it didn't settle, come back in so, so, so time. That settlement involve when people regard their Imams in their local, no matter how any area, you will we see, they have their mosque that they usually give out that five daily prayers, as long as people engage themselves in Islam and with all Islamic rights and anything happen they refer to their Imam more than any other person, then that person is like they are putting him to be the what? To be the actual Imam of that area and after that Imam, you see you have private mosque, anything that is greater than you, they can also refer to the Friday mosque Imam. So, by doing such may be when people are engaging themselves with such activities, I don't think they need even jihad.

ZA31 [5695-6049]

To, I don't see that as a jihad can, can solve problem because if you look at it, all, like Nigeria now, we have different religion, different ethnicity, toh my advice or my view of this that everybody should practice his own religion by not or like jihad, you can impose that to your Muslims, but non-Muslims can't affect it, can't be affected with it.

ZA32 [12839-13816]

I agree and believe that Islamic state will solve all the Muslim's problem and only jihad, and but to say only jihad can achieve this. We can say or I can say yes and no. Yes in the sense that, if the people are not on the right way, if people do not believe in Islamic way of life, in fact, they don't believe in Islamic religion, I mean the majority of people, if the majority of people living in that state do not believes in what, in an Islamic, in an Islamic way of life that is Islamic religion, so I see no reason one can say jihad must be conducted, jihad must be undertaken there. And I can say no, I can say yes, I mean why because once the Islamic state is established, I know the, because that state will be driven or will be led under the teachings of sacred books or sacred books of Allah and the prophetic hadith and I know is the cure of all illness in the society, in the societal life as well as what, as well as personal or as private live of an individual.

ZA34 [11360-12347]

Yes I agree that an Islamic state can solve problem, but I disagree that it is only through jihad, yes. As I said there are so many kinds of jihad, not necessarily fighting. Jihad can be through wealth, through preaching, through enlightening people about their religion. An Islamic state is a state that is completely undergoing the rules and regulations that are revealed in the religion of Islam. All set of rules and regulations are being followed and by that you have a God fearing leaders, the laws, rules and regulations, will be there as established; so people will come back to their conscious[ness] and know this is what is right, this is what is wrong. This is what religion commanded them; this is what the religion prohibited them. So as such anybody that contradicts the law of Allah he knows that the law is going to be established on him. So everybody will come to his consciousness and then everything is going to be smoothly run within the state. That is my own idea.

ZA35 [4116-4123]

No idea

ZA36 [8187-8390]

You know an Islamic state is a state in which all the affairs is based on Islam, so I don't think I can say anything more about that because Nigeria is not an Islamic state, is not an Islamic state so.

ZA37 [7052-8000]

The first part of this that Islamic state would solve all Muslim problems, it is not all Muslim problems. It is all individual problems because prophet Muhammad (SAW) during his time, he solved all the problems of those people that are within his, under his control, whether you are Muslim or Christian or non-Muslim, both Muslims and non-Muslims and he archived many of these things, many, most of these things, the prophet (SAW) achieved them without jihad because you can even count the number of jihad that he attended he himself or he sent for it, it is not up to 50 in 23 years and he, this jihad and there are many areas, many countries, towns and so on that accept Islam without even anything like jihad or something like that, but because of the good understanding of Islam, so Islam can solve problems of Muslims and non-Muslims and not only through jihad, but through the what, preaching and enlightening people on the issue of Islam.

ZA38 [13997-14996]

Yah you know the first thing you see in an Islamic state, the first thing you observe in an Islamic state is that we use sharia as our constitution and when you abide by the law of the Sharia, you will say Sharia is an Islamic law, the law from God directly and you know when we practice it well, when we practice it perfectly, I don't think there would be problem in our society, but the issue is that because of our, this our 21st century becomes difficult for people to even adhere to the issue of religion, it becomes difficult, but me I somehow believe that an Islamic state would solve all Muslim problem, an Islamic state will solve all Muslim problem when they adhere to the laws perfectly and jihad can achieve this when we do what we are supposed to do to our neighbors, to the non-Muslims and to our environment as a whole, even the animals we stay with, we must give justice, justice must be the basic principle that we must adhere to before this Islamic state would be normal to us.

ZA39 [15049-16240]

Ahm actually human problems are unending. So there is no way as a human being you can completely have your problems solved overnight and also in addition, like I told you before that jihad should not be taken as taking arms alone, so if jihad, like I have explained earlier, is taken to be the way of doing something be it financially, politically, militarily, whatever, socially culturally, historically with the aim to promote the human in order to benefit the human being with the view that God would reward you in the hereafter, then I can say it would assist in promoting what, achieving the aims and needs of the people. But I cannot just directly say that Islamic state would solve all the problems of human beings. Human beings have unending problems and so I don't understand how this problem can be solved by adopting an Islamic state all this problems can be solved, but I can agree that majority or many of the problems can be solved where a particular system of Islam is imposed and adhered to without misunderstanding who is applying it. But to say that in Islamic state, being an Islamic state that all human problems would be solved, I can simply say no, it is not correct.

Th7.12: Islam and Absolute State Authority: A Requirement for True Shari'a

FG1 [19705-19708]

No

FG1 [19722-20535]

Because recently there is this video I watched of one Nigerian representative, he is a rep representing one constituency in Jigawa; honorable Farouk. So honorable Farouk was saying that there may be a good Christian leader in a society like Nigeria and there may be a bad Muslim leader so far all these leaders are leading in the interest of the society not in their interest or not them representing a particular interest. So being a good Muslim being only Islamic state or being a Muslim that will have the authority doesn't mean that the society will be free from all this militant activities. But a Christian also may lead we have situation of countries different countries in the world now that Christians are leading and they have stability. And we have states that Muslims are leaders but we have chaos.

KD1 [16880-17060]

I disagree. I disagree because you do not necessarily capture everywhere because at no point in, I don't think at any point in time the whole world has been under a single ruler.

KD2 [6690-6930]

Actually I don't agree with the, with the idea that Islam must capture all state authority because if Islam must capture all state authority, then it means it must capture the whole world, the whole globe. Actually I don't agree with that.

KD3 [5252-5255]

No.

KD4 [7186-7699]

Well talking about Islam capturing all state power before sharia can be established, well now looking at the contemporary world, you will see that capturing the whole power, it cannot be achieved. And if you say jihad has to be partaken before you can capture a state politically, socially or intellectually, I will say that it is what I called utopianic in nature, something that is not unrealistic. But this is something that if actually an Islamic state is to be established, this is something that is needed.

KD5 [5112-5419]

Hmmm I don't think so because when we trace back during the time of the prophet Muhammad (SAW), they have not used jihad to capture all the power and authorities during their time, but rather they lived side by side together with Christians and non-believers for example. So, that I think is not necessary.

KD6 [11284-12375]

It cannot capture it through Jihad at all. It's not done, it's not done. I have said it to you. You have to preach, you have to start preaching, you have to start letting them know the beauty of Islam, all this, all this jihad, all this saying sharia, it's just a deterrent. How many people does Annabi Muhammad (SAW) stoned when they were involved in adultery, how many of them did they cut their hands when they steal something? So, you look at the percentage and look at the years that prophet was alive and was practicing sharia, and you look at those people that they, how many people did they cut their hands? How many did they stone? So, you look at it or how many of them did they give them lashes of cane? You look at it, just those ones for deterrent, is not, people are just shouting sharia, sharia, sharia, they thought sharia is to cut hand, sharia is to behead somebody's head, sharia is to stone people, No. Those ones are the punishment that Allah gives us such a thing and before you will even arrive there, you will see that nobody can even (laghs). So, that is just it.

KD7 [6799-7258]

Yes, to an extent. When there is dominance of Muslims, I believe since we are in era of the people's rule, they should be allowed to be governed by the rules that they see fit since Islam is a religion that encompasses everything. They should be allowed their state, they should be ruled by what they believe in not by what some believes in. But in a situation whereby there were others who are also in large numbers, Islam has also made provisions for that.

KD8 [17182-17456]

Well, as a Muslim, I will like that. I will like Islam to be ruling everywhere of course. I will like Islam to be everywhere to catch, to have all the authorities I will like that, am a Muslim, I don't have any other thing apart from Islam. So, of course, I will like that.

KD9 [8830-9451]

Yes of course. The other time in this country we started something like that, I think starting from Zamfara State, but for the fact that it was just like an enclave just to Zamfara state, it didn't really hold water, but even then we saw the effect of the then governor Yarima of Zamfara state, the giant leap of sharia, giant strides he made with the introduction of sharia in quote, but if the whole country were to be a sharia country, then it will be a multiplier effect. Of course there is no government that is, the role is specified for Islam or the way we are supposed to live as Muslims is by following sharia.

KD9 [9617-10031]

I said it earlier, there can be other ways or I may not be able to state categorically the ways, but going back to how prophet (SAW) was able to sanitize the hijaz, the Islamic society then, it wasn't all about jihad, there was jihad, but when he entered Mecca it was a peaceful handover of power, if you like, so of course there are other ways, but fundamentally there must be education and there must be Da'wa.

KD10 [4931-5425]

No. The Muslims are going to make all effort to see that the world becomes, all the people of the world become Muslims and we are using sharia in the whole world. We make all effort, but, you know, it cannot be possible that all the countries are going to be Islamic countries and everybody in the world is going to be Muslim. You get me right? The way Allah has destined it, Allah has destined it that there should be a Muslim, there should be a Christian. That is how Allah has destined it.

KD11 [11068-11577]

Of course yah Islam must have totality of control to be able to enforce sharia. But what kind of sharia are you talking about? Are you talking about the sharia, the shouldn't be ah the kind of political sharia that was introduced in Nigeria where if a man steals, what do you call it, a goat or a ram, you cut or chop off his hand and when the politicians steal billions of naira, you understand, they are allowed to go free. I mean ah sharia cannot work in such system. It has to be total and ah inclusive.

KD12 [10980-11370]

Ah in fact, in fact we hope so that Islam should capture all the states, ah we hope so because is upon that one that if that one is done, the government revenue will increase, people's health will increase, everything, but the jihad what is done by the jihad there is jihad of imparting knowledge of what Allah says on people, the dos and don'ts of Almighty Allah not the jihad of weapon.

KD13 [3958-3971]

It's wrong

KD14 [4906-4933]

I do not agree with this.

KD15 [7060-7071]

Of course

KD16 [4109-4123]

No. I didn't.

KD17 [11382-12045]

Just like I said earlier which effort have you made on your own home to establish the sharia, to establish the law of Islam, which effort have you made that you say that you must raise arms against everybody before you can establish the sharia? It is not just done, it was not done like that. It was not done, look at, you always look at the western as in, I don't know how this people preach Islam. Preach Islam, just go and meet people preach Islam. By the time you practice this Islam the right way, I practice Islam the right way that is the Islamic state you already establish Islamic state. Everything will be going well for us by God's grace, insha allah.

KD18 [6414-6432]

The answer is no.

KD18 [6463-6888]

Islamic cannot capture all state all because of power. They cannot do that and Islamize the country. Islamic power and we are able to understand ourselves and we are able to we are, we are able to know what we read in our Qur'an, so Islam does not eh ask us to force other religions I mean we cannot convert them by force, so our religion is our religion, their religion is our is their religion there is nothing like that.

KD19 [9376-9406]

No. I don't agree with that.

KD20 [4434-4446]

That is no.

KD21 [5113-5138]

I don't agree with that.

KD23 [5670-6153]

No. I did not agree with this ah perception because why I did not agree this perception is that ah as I earlier said just recent so it is not compulsory that ah that jihad ah will ah will bring to the existence of ah of let me say ah for ah of everything to be ah normal because there are some certain ways that if you followed people will be ah you can deceive people, so but there are some ways that if you say you will force people so you cannot be able to ah achieve your goals.

KD24 [19974-23126]

Just as I have said earlier, the Muslims, true Muslims are following what is being mentioned in the Qur'an and hadith ah, in the Qur'an what Allah says (he recites in Arabic) in another verse Allah has said (he recites in Arabic) that he should fight in the cause of Allah kuffar those that are not in your religion kuffar, kafirun, almunafikum, the hypocrites...and you should make life not easy for them. Tackle them in the way that they will feel that life is not comfortable in any way maybe that will make them to change their own habits and character in such a way they will say we are Muslims now, time is moving now the prophet says (SAW) other religious, religion people may not believe because they are not in the religion, but we the Muslims, we read it ah scholars have read it to us and we've believed, we believe that prophet Muhammad (SAW) said for us to believe in what he is saying he even mention that prophet Jesus Isah (alayhis salam) he is coming back and why will he come back? Why not Moses? Why not Yahaya? Why not all other prophets we've learned? We've learned in history that when they were living in their own era times comes when Allah (SBUH) sent prophet of death he has taken their live but prophet Jesus Isah (alayhis salam) the Muslims and the Christians or some parts of the Christians, we believe that he is not dead. In Qu'ran Allah said (recites in Arabic) Allah has picked him up to him, he is there in heaven, it has been there in the narration of ah Muslims that is Muslims and Bukhari, their books that the prophet Muhammad (SAW) when he goes to Isra and miraj he met Jesus that's prophet Isah (alayhis salam) and he mentioned some of his eh physical appearance, physical characters and there he mentioned that he is alive and he will come back definitely and there are many verses in the Qur'an that testifies that yes prophet Isah is coming back ah amongst which include ah the first one I have I have mentioned that they did not kill him, but Allah has lifted him up to him, then he is not dead. Secondly, another verse is saying (he recites in Arabic) no one among the ahlul kitab the Christians, but they must accept prophet Isah when he comes back before his death which means he is coming back because he did not die. Eh thirdly, the day which he has given birth what he mentioned among what he said is (he recites in Arabic) peace be upon me and the day I have been given birth and the day I will die and we know that he is not dead, then he is coming back definitely because he has to die and the peace will be there on that very day that he will die. Another verse says ah or let me come back to hadith, prophet (SAW) says (he recites in Arabic) verily, very close, not far prophet Isah is coming back to you (he recites in Arabic) if he is coming back he will come back as a ruler not as a prophet, but he will come as a ruler because assuming he is coming back as a prophet, he will use the book which has been revealed to him, but no, he is using this Qur'an that we are using hakman adlan and he will be good and pious and he will be loyal to everyone and good character good conduct to everyone.

KD25 [27783-29862]

I don't believe. I don't believe that, but I believe that there shall come a day and there shall come a time before the hereafter is established that the whole world, there is no where that Islam will not penetrate and Islam will be at the echelon that is a promise by Allah and nobody can stop it and the prophet has also prophetically confirmed that. But somebody to say that eh is when we go on jihad, we carry sword, we continue fighting, fighting, fighting that cannot, if Allah says this is the path that you should follow if we should follow the other way, we will never succeed, we will never prosper, so this kind of statement are just coming out from the, you know, ah minds of those that are ah I don't know, is it I can say that they are psychologically disturbed and eh maybe socially, you know, ah ah manoeuvred, you know, ah so really ah what I want to say at this juncture is that the Muslims we need to, right from training, the parents should really see to the, you know eh you know, to the good aspects of the children that the children are really, you know, practicing the din as expected by them not as they wish, not as they wish, because God will ask each and every parent that eh what have you done with what I have given you in terms of your family, wives and your children? Were you able to eh you know put them in the right path or you were just negligent and eh careless and leaving them to do whatever they want to do? Any parent that is careless and negligent and leave his family to be doing whatever they do, his wives whatever they wish to do, his wives going out you know with without the veil, just manifesting their nudities to others or nakedness and they be leaving their children, not minding who are the friends of his children, definitely God will ask him God has given ah caution as with the blazing fire that awaits any parents, whether the mother or the father or both of them the negligent of the children's habits and morals and ah that leads to the ah ah moral decadence in their children God will, God will certainly punish them.

KD26 [6711-7173]

Ahm no. I don't believe that ahm sorry can I get the question again? (he repeats the question). I don't think so. I believe for us to be able to enforce true sharia it doesn't have to be, we don't have to capture, we don't have to use force, we don't have to use power. We have to, I don't know, lead by example and then from there it will show them that yes there are really good people and they might want to adopt our laws and sharia law can be implemented.

KD27 [5628-6779]

No I don't. I don't subscribe to that. Like I said start with yourself because Sharia in essence does not seek to punish. It is not just about punishment. It is about prevention. You know, you create an environment that makes it difficult for people to indulge in vices. During the time of the prophet (SAW), there are cases of individuals that came to him to say that they have done this or they have done that. It was very rare for the prophet to out rightly say carry out the punishment or not until it became, you know, because at a point in time there was an individual that reiterated the fact that he has committed adultery, the prophet turned away from him three times. It was on the third repetition that he said that the adhaab should be carried out on him. So it is not just about punishment, it is about prevention. Create the environment that prevents the people because even in the case of most of this haddhi the serious offenses like adultery for instance, look at the steps of proof, proving the presence or the occurrence of adultery. That goes to show that Islam does not just, it is not just out to punish, no, prevention first.

KD28 [10012-10389]

It will in the sense that yes, the Muslims themselves if they follow the injunction of, the Islamic injunction and you practice according to the guidelines of Allah (SBUH) what Allah has ordered you to do, what Allah has forbidden you from doing. If you have to go by all these things you should be able to capture the community, but not going contrary to the will of Allah.

KD29 [5548-5956]

Well I, to my own view, is that the use of must ah should be completely eliminated here ah because there is no force in Islam, there is no force in Islam. Ah by the context jihad does not mean use of force. Muslims should concentrate in self reorientation, preaching, and good conducts that ah was entrenched in the Islamic teachings. This is a way to achieve this drive, this is to my own personal opinion.

KD30 [8362-9281]

Well I wish ah you have ah defined what you truly mean with the sharia with sorry with jihad because I told you jihad can be conducted in different precepts. If carrying arms is what you mean as I said earlier then we don't have to carry arm and fight the whole continent sorry the whole planet. I think we don't have to carry arm to fight for jihad rather of course as Muslims Islam is a revolution, I think every country or every set of people deserves to see the beauty of it which I believe if they see the true beauty and they are shown, they have been introduced into Islam, I am sure they will all accept or at least they will learn more about it. I think Islam with the jihad of peaceful conduct whereby we can invite or enlighten people I think it will be more better than carry arms. I don't believe we have to carry arm ah to conduct sharia or fight all the countries and lure them into the same sharia law.

KD31 [7966-8047]

Ahm I think so, I think so if like I said if true Islam pure Islam we practiced.

KD32 [8355-9366]

No. This is eh a very another misconception about Islam because as Allah (SUBH) said in the holy Qur'an la iqraha fid din, there is no compulsion in religion, so you cannot force anybody to do your own religion even the prophet (speaking Arabic) the prophet who has not been sent to force anybody to accept Islam, so there is no any compulsion in accepting Islam. Your own is to just convey the message of Islam to people if you like if you accept it masha Allah if you do not accept it masha Allah, so for capturing all other states to make it an Islamic state this is not, it is not even possible and it is not a commandment from Allah it is not the teachings of the prophet so Allah says there is no any compulsions of Islam when you go to any state you preach who ever wishes to accept the message of Islam can accept, who does not wish to accept he can go free. This is your own way, there is no compulsion in religion, so there is nothing to Islamize all the state this is not and it is very impossible.

KD33 [5826-6229]

No. I don't, I don't agree with that because there were some various, even if during the time of prophet Muhammad (SAW), there are, they lived with people that they were not Muslims and jihad is not the only, is not the way that they use to, they don't enforce Islam to on anybody, on anybody as it is said, as it I called in the Holy Qur'an, la iqraha fid din, nobody will enforce you to accept Islam.

KD34 [8057-8134]

I disagree with most especially in the modern world that we are now.

KD35 [9898-10546]

Islam may capture the whole even world but when Muslims does what they are supposed to do by showing the other part of Christian or those who don't even believe in God that there is God. A Muslim is a submitter who is good on the road, who is good at home, who is good at the market, wherever you find a Muslim, a Muslim even the way he dresses must look different. The way he talks must look different. The way whatever a Muslim does is different from a non-Muslim believer, so if at all Muslims do what they supposed to do, practice what prophet and Allah said to them properly, I think that no person will ... the whole world will become Muslims.

KN1 [18110-18694]

Well, there is a particular verse in Islam that it say la iqra fid din and the direct translation is there is no force in religion because the source of the or the cause of the ayat was this a particular Muslim dragged his son to the holy prophet saying that am a Muslim and my children refused to become Muslims and the prophet (SAW), the ayat was revealed to the holy prophet la iqra fid din; there is no force in religion. So you cannot force anyone into a religion. So Islam is not about forcing someone it is about convincing him to see the light of the place and to accept it.

KN1 [18874-19836]

Well, (chuckles) I don't know. We here in the northern Nigeria, because our case study is the northern Nigeria think. Please I would like to refer you to history of Shehu Usman Danfodio, in fact I will even give you reference of some of his books like the ... Infaqul Almal suri it was written by his son Muhammad Bello and the commander of his army Infaqul Almal suri, equally by his general commander, there is a particular book tazir waraqaat. So it is not always that everything is... what am saying is that as at that time some positions are given to non-Muslims. So a times positions are known to be given to non-Muslims even under Islamic state, it depends on who is capable of doing the right thing. As I told you, under Islam there is Kufr amana, we call them in Hausa Kafiran amana because there is a sort of agreement or understanding between. So you cannot deny somebody what is his natural right. Islam is not about taking away everything from somebody.

KN2 [12361-12719]

Honestly the only way Islam can establish itself especially in modern day is the only alternative it has it the alternatives other powers are using to conquer and to subjugate in a number of respects. There is intellectual conquering, there is economic conquering and there is political. I think what most people are limiting is to the political drive only.

KN4 [14017-16103]

No no no no Islam cannot capture a state before it can achieve it aims. When you look at it now in the ah the the development of sharia in Nigeria in 1999 section 10 of the Nigerian constitution has already states it. You can, you can have your own law that the people like, you can have your own law that can suit the community. Look at the mother of the democracy now, when we talk of America, we can say that they are the mother of democracy, they are the founders of democracy, they establish and they are doing it very well. In the state in America, there is a state that you cannot sell alcohol, you cannot sell cigarette, because the people of that state feel like this is the life that we want, the majority of the people this is what they want. So likewise, even here in Nigeria, I can say that you can have the kind of life that you want when the majority have been go through the voting or by election or other things like that. You can have your own government of your choice, but not to say that you can capture a state before you can have sharia within you, or you can use jihad, what they say jihad, according to their definition, is war before you can form your own state, no. In Nigerian there is sharia in Zamfara state and they do not kill a single person because they the people there, the majority are all Muslims and they feel they can, they can have their own say, they can have their own government that is the essence of democracy. That is why I bring the reference from America there is state that can even go for propagating for homosexual, same sex marriage, they also have it there that is their own thinking that is their own feeling that is their way they perceive the world. You understand, you can go to the France also. In France they say that you cannot use purdah, you should not use hijab because majority there they are Christians or they have their own religion and when you are under that government, you must do according to what they have said. That is my belief. Nigeria is a circular state; you can't impose your religion on another person.

KN5 [6345-6853]

Ah a true sharia can be enforced not necessarily through jihad yes. You enforce through sharia when you have the power and eh eh if you have the power you can enforce true she ah jihad and the best way to do it to achieve that is by making people knowledgeable of what the Islam has for the respect to all its teachings which I believe are good enough to make people abide by them as the Islamic state you don't need to be forced to do anything people normally do what is good and what is right, eh known.

KN6 [5433-6012]

Yes Islamic state must ahh impose Muslim because if you say Muslim, who are Muslim, a Muslim is not only a person who goes and do this Salat prayer or do this fasting, So Muslim, Islamic is somebody who is a Muslim must be accompanied with all this rule and regulations. Islam is not only limited to do salat. So Islamic- if I say somebody who is Muslim eh to be totally obedient of the whole teaching of the prophet Muhammad (SAW). This is the meaning of Islam but it does not allow you to go maybe and fight other people there is no la iqra ha fid din...-there is no compulsory.

KN7 [7252-7397]

Yes ehm, jihad is also an ideology, so yes if you truly want to implement a true sharia. Yes it must capture all state authority and power, yes.

KN8 [5066-5576]

Yes, I think jihad is a prerequisite to ensure a good Islamic state, but not only jihad can bring about good Islamic state. For there are lot of ways, you understand, jihad is just like, is a process of compelling people, giving them compulsion in order to comply with the uniqueness of the religion whereas you not necessarily compel people before you can persuade them, you can encourage them, you can let them realize what they are doing is wrong, and through this they can be development of Islamic state.

KN9 [5219-5523]

Yes, for a proper governance of Islamic state, Islam has to capture every sector of economy and every angle of government. There should be no room for ah a non-Muslim or an unbeliever in the administration. So Islam must capture each and every sector for the Islamic state to function effectively, yes

KN10 [5234-5575]

Yes but also no because ahm if you can see, is not some-like in this country there is some parts that Muslims have the power, they conquered the place as they can easily perform their sharia and whatever, but there are some part that they don't even have Muslims so there is no need for them to go and ah fight them for them to ensure rule, yes.

KN11 [7290-7335]

Well not necessarily, not necessarily, mmmm.

KN13 [7483-7500]

Yes, yes I agree.

KN14 [5411-5699]

No, because Allah (SBUH) What Allah says in holy Koran that (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) there must be believers and unbelievers. So, if you say that you must capture all these states through jihad, i don't think-that is not right, there must be some states that are non-believers.

KN15 [7273-7696]

Yah, I agree that Islam must capture all state authority and power through jihad to be able to enforce true sharia, my reason is that, Islam must have all states that they will you know govern to be under them and they have to make sure that they are the majority on that you know region so that they will carry on with their sharia laws as it will not affect you know the minority of the individuals living in that area.

KN16 [3564-3794]

Well, Islam must capture all state authority and power to be able to impose sharia to be able to impose sharia but jihad is not only way you can even persuade people and call them to Islam by good teachings of Islamic practices.

KN17 [7060-7612]

Yes I agree because ah if you look at an Islamic state like ah, Iran...because for you to-Iran or even Iraq the konamis they have captured all the the em Iranian revolution leader, they have captured all the major sectors of power so this gave them the the hegemony of actually making control making-controlling all these sects of powers so its make it effective to pass information actually pass ah ah a kind of ah ah a resolutions on some particular view even if they have a em particular sticking point with the western blocks.

KN18 [11428-11957]

Islam must not do that that to ensure true sharia. Even the Prophet Muhammad himself did not engage in capturing all states to establish true sharia. He recognized other sects in his first migration, he migrated to a Christian territory, he migrated to a place called today Ethiopia. The king then was a Christian. He migrated there and if he is now to conquer all other states that are not Muslims, he would have fight that king and he wouldn't have gone to a Christian state and seek for a refuge there.

KN19 [9040-9513]

Yes exactly, I agree because the process through which this can be put in place can bring about development in all aspects of the society if some basic Islamic tenets could be introduced like all these process of sharia, you understand, but follow the will of God and, you understand, all the teachings of the Qur'an and the holy prophet they are means to bring about a restoring and developing society. So to some extent could generate a better society.

KN20 [5032-5064]

No that I don't agree with it

KN21 [3218-3222]

No

KN22 [5806-5837]

I do not agree to this notion

KN23 [5734-5821]

No. I don't believe in that. I believe good behavior will attract state power to Islam

KN24 [5697-5724]

Yah I agree with the view

KN25 [6555-6728]

Well for true sharia to prevail or to take place, Islam has to capture all the state and in all ramifications but I still strongly believe it mustn't be only through jihad.

KN26 [6572-6575]

No.

KN27 [6069-6091]

I disagree with this.

KN28 [4708-5021]

Though taking a look at the sharia itself it is probably a new ideology which was recently brought down to the nation itself. So talking about involving it into the government, the issue of authority and power I don't think it should really, it should directly instantly. It really needs to take a little time.

KN30 [5138-5141]

No

KN31 [4970-5736]

Well it mustn't be so. We have so many Islamic worlds or Islamic states today whereby they are more dominantly there, their Islams. I think it will be easily implemented there. Then a state whereby, just like we say, dar el harb whereby we have a state whereby they are mixed, you know, we cannot easily implement it. So we have to move along also with the secular constitution so that you will favor both because I think God has a reason for creating even the non-believers. So we also have to give their rights. I think the time of the prophet we have non-believers in Medina and mecca and they all gave them their rights. They lived, they did transactions together, they did trade, everything together. So I think we should also apply it in the current situation

KN32 [2032-2035]

No

KN33 [2432-2436]

No

KN34 [2894-3028]

No. There are so many means that maybe we can be able to maybe even if you want to implement something through democratic principles.

KN35 [5043-5045]

No

KN36 [4110-4464]

No because in a situation that you are living with non-Muslims you cannot be able to capture all the power because even people are being captured together to live in their society, so what you just do is that those that are teaching the Islam, they teach it the way that people will understand, the way that the holy prophet reveal it to us.

KN37. [3531-3559]

No I don't agree with that

KN37 [3570-3871]

Ahm it is just that you see in this twenty first century we have been injected with the western ideology of, should I say, capitalism or democracy which has spread across most Muslim states and it will be very, very difficult to say that Islam should go and conquer most state in a particular region.

KN38 [2322-2548]

No. This is because Islam is a systematic way of calling onto people to something which they believe in, it has nothing to do with force. It is a self volunteering or self accomplishing part of selfless revolution.

KN39 [2686-2843]

No actually because even the holy prophet during his time in Medina, he really, he governed the Medinians by inviting over ah even living with non-Muslims.

KN40 [5089-5862]

Ok, if I get your question very well (he repeats the question) Nigeria as a whole is not a state of sharia rather than to say using the jihad to capture all the state through the power of jihad, and even ahm not even in the olden days where things have not been changed like this as in ah when the western education has not been involved into the Muslims because I believe it is this western education that changed the behavior or the attitude of those bad things of the Muslims. But I disagree with that using the Sharia or using the Islamic or using the Sharia to, I mean using the jihad to capture all the Muslims by using the authority or the power whatsoever, I disagree with that. It is not what is supposed to be because Nigeria as a whole is not a state of sharia.

KN41 [3267-3354]

I also disagree with this assertion because I believe the sharia should be restricted.

KN42 [5152-5875]

Yes, for- in a town whereby there should be a ruler, definitely the ruler would be- there is law. True jihad which is pride of Islam, the leader comes into power and there is this laws whereby, which takes care of both people of the faith and opposite one, that is people that are not, that are not Muslims. How would you enforce law whereby your religion does not rule? So if you are ruling, you will be able to enforce laws and take care of even people that are not, that are not Muslims. The capturing of power does not mean they suppress the opposite faith. It means they take care of them with din and Islamic community, with din Islam and Islamic state, it doesn't mean they are oppressed or they are treated badly.

KN43 [7968-7997]

No, I don't agree with that.

KN44 [4362-4424]

All Muslims problems, I wouldn't like to give answer to that.

KN44 [4558-4598]

I wouldn't like to answer that one again

KN45 [4212-4463]

Yes, it is true that to enforce true sharia 100% Islam must have eh, eh the machinery of government in their hand, yah because if the court of laws are not purely Islamic then they cannot be fully implementation of 100% sharia principles. This is right

KN46 [7309-7328]

No, I don't agree.

KN47 [10433-11024]

No. I don't think it is necessary because the establishment of sharia is not only by jihad. You know, if jihad is what you call physical fight, physical, you know, battle f people because Islam, sharia was introduced in Nigeria after 1999 democracy, you understand, after the return of the democracy in 2000 I think ah the Zamfara state government used civil process to establish ah Islam ah sharia sorry, in the state and many other state in the northern Nigeria followed suit to establish the sharia system, you know, without shedding blood. So how can you say that jihad is the only way.

KN48 [4211-4220]

Ah, no.

KN49 [5855-6261]

No, it's not, it's not, it's not about that. I think when you educate Muslims and they know their rights, their obligations, and eh they know how to coexist with others from other religion, they can, they can actually work towards ah isla, Islamizing the nation depending on, you have to look at- there are several factors, you need to look at population, you need to look at tribal and political dynamics.

KN50 [3466-3569]

Ehh, this is, this is not actually true because jihad is not an instrument of Islam capturing a state.

KN51 [24148-25701]

I think I have answered this. Islam is capturing places by a way of teaching. For example, the people who brought Islam into African continent, they did not fight anybody, they did not fight anybody, through their own activities, through their own teachings now Islam separate all over. So if at all we want to understand the way Islam separate is by peaceful means, not by fighting. So for anybody to say we must establish our own Islamic state through fighting that is not Islamic. We have to teach, we have to guide, we have to disseminate information, right information, truthful information, we have to enlighten people about what Islamic is all about. Let them understand the myth, please who is compelling people in the West that are coming, even some two, three days ago, I heard Barrack Obama addressing, addressing the parliament, he was saying Islam has come to stay in United States of America, he was saying they are passing the law against anybody who is trying to deny women the right of wearing hijab, Barrack Obama. Who is now compelling people in America to come into the fold of Islam? About seven million people, who is compelling people that are coming into the fold of Islam in United Kingdom? Now they are saying there are more than one million Muslims there, more than three million Muslims in the United Kingdom, there are seven million, who? It is the teaching of Islam ok. That lofty teaching, that peaceful teaching, that educative teaching, that entice now people into the fold of Islam, not fighting, not fighting at all.

KN52 [6335-6980]

That is why I am saying that the definition of sharia and the way you asked these question is restricted to jihad, is restricted to this kind of view about Islam being the only religion that should exist in the world, but that is not and you know what Islam enjoins. I do not believe that the only way through which Islam could establish Sharia is by capturing all the instruments of state and power, you understand, like sharia even at the family level you could enthrone sharia, even at your own individual level you could apply sharia, you know what I am saying there is sharia at individual level, family level, and at the community level.

KN53 [5111-5434]

A'a with this question why would you expect Muslims to capture all states with their authority? After all there is freedom of humanity and according to my own research I believe that there is existence of Christianity before the Muslims. So I don't buy the idea of capturing the whole states to be under their own control.

KN54 [2178-2191]

Actually no

KN55 [3123-3141]

No I have no idea

KN56 [3792-4003]

It is not necessary that Islam must capture all state authority and power to be able to enforce true sharia even in Kano here Islam doesn't capture all state authority and power but sharia has been established.

KN57 [5260-5281]

Honestly it is not.

KN58 [12309-12905]

Unless if the people are wayward, but if we are having true Muslims there is no need of Jihad. Jihad is simply here to change their behavior just like what Shehu Usman Danfodio did in 1804. The essence of jihad was to change the barbaric behavior of the Hausa leaders to now a new form of Islamic way of life. So if the people are upright and live according to Islamic teachings, there is no need of jihad. There is no need of waging war on them. But if they are Kafirs or they are wayward like what is obtainable now in most part of the world, definitely you must need jihad to be sincere.

KN59 [8402-8649]

NO, why because the state, take for instance, Nigeria is not a Muslims state, you understand. There are other religions. Nigeria is not meant for Islam alone there are other religions, you understand, so you cannot say Islam dominated the state.

KN60 [12646-13591]

To that extent I can say I agree to that extent because, for instance, now we are practicing democracy. In democracy it is not the injunctions of Allah that have been put into place actually, but there is no way we Muslims can say we would not practice democracy because it is what is being practiced universally, worldwide. Anywhere you go they are talking of democracy, but for Muslims to have total control and full authority to enforce all the Islamic teachings, all Islamic injunctions actually Islam have to be the power, the engine that is now pushing things, that is now bringing changes, that is now saying this is what we want to do and this is what we want we don't want to do. So unless we have a full placed Islamic state actually we cannot practice Islam 100%. Even Saudi Arabia they are not practicing Islam 100% because of so many factors, so many forces that are now militating against their practice of Islam.

KN61 [3667-3670]

No

KN62 [15248-15917]

Hmm, No. Again I don't agree that Islam must capture all state authority and power, no is not. It is very much ah, ah let say, improbable and ah a kind of unrealistic hope, if you like, this is a weird hope, if you like, how do you, I think it is really a kind of ah eh ah contaminated way of thinking, a bad way of thinking to assume that one cannot actually practice or one must ah take all the power of a state, you understand, as a Muslim, no I don't think, I don't believe in that that is why we are against ISIS, and boko haram and all other ah let's say, so called Muslim communities that actually claim for this, we are against them, we don't believe in that.

KN63 [14650-15100]

Is not, is not true. Islam cannot capture all the state, it is not possible. Let me maybe, if you look at, let's talk about the world, if you look at the entire world now, we don't have the largest population as they said, as they said, Islam is not the most dominating religion or whatever. So how can we take over the whole world or maybe the African continent or what? It is not possible. It is not, it is never possible. Huh, it is not possible.

KN64 [6050-6177]

I agree that Islam is better to capture all state in the world. This we wish, but not by the means of jihad or killing people.

KN65 [9806-10200]

No. The reason is this, in 2000 and no, in 1999 and 2000 here in Kano, there is a clamour for a sharia state right? and that has been achieved, did we use any gun, there is no any means, so we can achieve an Islamic state or authority or power through other means legal, diplomatic, economically, and social tools or means rather than using military or ahh, ah war to attain sharia state, no.

KN66 [3519-3650]

In modern days, the way things are going in the modern way, I believe that Islam need authority to be able to enforce its sharia.

KN67 [3740-4065]

No, I don't agree with this because there are so many ways which ah Islam and other religions coexist and ah Islam will have the upper hand through so many trade, even through trade, through inter-marriage between the Muslims and non-Muslims, there are so many ways that Islam can have the upper hand over other religions.

KN68 [2165-2204]

No. Sharia can be enforced peacefully.

KN69 [7928-9091]

Well I am not in agreement to say that Islam must capture all state of authority and the power through jihad to be able to enforce true sharia, yes. This is the fact that Islam is a comprehensive way of life and Allah (SBUH) when he sent prophet Muhammad (SAW) he placed prophet Muhammad (SAW) in a position whereby his followers understand him very well and even if those that are not in position to follow him, they appreciate his dealings. So that is why Allah said in his Qur'an (he recites the Qur'an) meaning that you prophet Muhammad (SAW) you are in the right position in which people will follow you and copy your life style. So if you see what is happening during the life of prophet Muhammad (SAW) most of those who entered Islamic religion, they entered or embraced Islamic religion as a result of good relationship with people between prophet Muhammad (SAW) and other unbelievers, those that are surrounding him, not in the cause of jihad, meaning that a Muslim is expected to see that he exhibit a good dealing with people, maybe they are Christians or Muslims. This will enable other people to understand that Islamic religion is a true religion.

KN71 [13466-14585]

This is one thing that I have problem with, because what I see as Islam is one I believe that I would live by the dictates of sharia, you too would do that, everyone agree to do that. So when you have this, do you need anybody to fight us? Of course we don't need. So the state of Islam is within a Muslim himself. I hope you understand what I am saying. The state of establishing an Islamic state is within a Muslim, individual Muslim himself individually. If everybody agrees that let us live in peace, let us practice Islam then I think we would have no problem of definitely fighting here and there, taking authorities away because ah Islam ah, like let me, let me just, when do we have that last Islamic eh government, I mean, I mean state? In 1924, in 1924 where there, that was the fall of Ottoman Empire, okay when it ended, were there no Muslims in the world? Were there no sharia in practice in some other places of the world? of course. So what happened? Who took sword and say they must practice it? It is because within themselves, they agree that we will live by the dictates of Islam and so they did.

KN72 [9403-9724]

No, I did not agree with that because there is no imposition in sharia because Allah (SBUH) says eh Allah (SBUH) said la iqra ha fid din meaning there is no imposition in eh believing in Islam. So it is only the persuasion, you can persuade the minds of the people to believe the Islam. That is what I believe on that.

KN73 [8591-8973]

Muslim problems can be solved. It is not only in Islamic state. There are even some states who are not Islamic states. It's not only jihad can achieve this. We have seen it in other countries. We have seen it in other, we have seen it in history I mean. That ah some Muslims have gotten whatever they want under non-Islamic leadership. So it's not only jihad that can achieve this.

KN73 [9106-9768]

No. ah there is one of the Ulama that said where the country, the ruler or the leader of the country is a Muslim, and there is injustice, and the country that has non-Muslim leader and there is justice, is much more better, this country is much more better than the country where there is a Muslim and injustice. This means that you can find a leader who is a Muslim and there's injustice; Muslim leader, under Muslim leader and it happened in history. So it means that it's not only that through that you can achieve or jihad or sharia to implement. Sharia it be started from your own, from you, me, family, from your own home, your local immediate community.

KN73 [10038-10382]

Yah so this is what I'm saying. It's not, it's not only, it's not that Islam must capture all the power and authority that will enforce sharia. If you want to enforce sharia, do it by your own first. Let me do it: my family, my immediate relatives, my immediate community that is how sharia started to be enforced, from there on it be started.

KN74 [16029-16734]

Hmm I am not agreeing with this statement, I am not agree because if you can look back to the history you find out that after Prophet Muhammad (SAW) eh in his Khalifa, there is Khalifa Uma bin Khatab (rabiyyallahu anu) which is the second Khalifa after prophet Muhammad (SAW) is among the people that eh that make the Islamic state very wide at his period. Therefore, he did not cover all the places or capture all the state authority and the power, he is just yes, yes, under the Islamic government, but he just do what Allah (SBUH) ah permit him to do and he left. Therefore, this statement, I am not agreeing with saying that Islam must to capture all state authority and power through jihad, yes.

KN75 [18512-18531]

It is not possible

KN75 [18559-18622]

Hmm because there is no compulsion in Islam la iqra ha fid din

KN76 [12375-12558]

Well Muslim like ah in multi-religious society like Nigeria you can't say that Muslim must capture all state authority for them to establish an Islamic state. I don't agree with that.

KN78 [14519-14699]

Well there are interpretations that accept that. There are disagreements by some scholars as ah to the possibilities of that. So I think it is a matter of opinion among scholars.

KN79 [6141-6280]

I disagree. In an Islamic state authority and power is an attribute of Allah he give to whom he so wish, is not by power, is not by force.

KN79 [6582-6713]

Yes, Muslim have to engage in peaceful jihad that is through Da'wa, not ah ah not all cases that is requiring physical fighting.

KN80 [11578-12166]

This cannot be possible because if you look at the current states and position of Nigeria, the country is purely secular country operating secularism and both religions are given ah minor priorities in terms of the activities of the people belong to that particular religion. So the constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria places at the high authority, so whatever Islam decided in as long as it is contrary with the constitution so it means that the one of Islam should be rejected. So this will not permit ah Muslims to operate their Islamic powers in their own jurisdiction.

KN81 [6636-6804]

Hmm Islam need not to capture any political power because Islam does not struggle to acquire power but to solve problem from well, so I disagree with this position.

KN82 [9277-9490]

In the contemporary Nigeria, I think this is an old idea or notion. The new ideology on Islam is not preaching or is not advocating for violence Islam is preaching for total peace and harmony within the society

KN83 [5395-5580]

Yes if, agreed if Muslims will apply all forms of jihad they will capture all state power to introduce sharia, but if you refer to violence or physical jihad I think it is impossible.

KN84 [6442-6799]

Yes in some cases, if Muslims do to have freedom to exercise their religious obligation, then they have to struggle, they have to strive to capture all the power, but if there is right or freedom of their religion like Nigeria, I think there is no need of this problem, yes. There is no need of struggle because they have the right to practice their faith.

KN85 [5403-5717]

Hmm yes if we are talking about Islamic state, then Islam must guide all aspects of ah the state and in the people in the society, but not necessarily through jihad. There is preaching, trying to provide for eh needy, for the poor, trying to do whatever is right in the right way, not necessarily through jihad.

ZA1 [7079-7450]

No, no Islam is not like that, let us look at what happened Rasul (SAW) he demised from a Medina, he left non- Muslims in some other parts of Jaziratul Arab, he-even this ayat in the Qur'an (ya ahl kitab, ahl kitabi) Rasul (SAW) is addressing people of the book, non-Muslims, Christians and Jews. So it is not a Muslim-Islam doesn't impose anything on non-Muslims, no.

ZA2 [4037-4666]

Well it is based on the feeling and the perception people have, but I don't think if the perception, if the preaching is the real fact then I think they will be the one to, they will be the one governing every aspect because it should not be in line to-Islam is a total way of life and when we say total way of life, it couldn't restrict itself to one aspect, it is the total meaning your life pattern from the beginning to the end till even the day you leave the world. So if is what other preaching that all religion, I don't think they are doing anything to the contrary if we moving in line with the teaching, all of us

ZA3 [8187-8390]

Ammm I will not agree with this view because for, we have different opinions in the definition of this jihad. If your own definition of this jihad is about physical part of jihad, then I will say no okay

ZA4 [20178-20468]

There is no how you, Allah says in the Qur'an la iqra ha fid din, there is no compulsion in religion. So if you wish to believe, you believe dama if you believe is for your own good, if you don't believe is all for your own good, so there is no compulsion in religion, la iqra ha fid din.

ZA5 [10018-10931]

This is the issue of simple understanding that people doesn't understand. If you say sharia, what is sharia? Sharia is a way, they you understand, sharia is a way of life, you understand, there is no need for the this thing to conquer all the three arms of government before they implement sharia. You can simply implement sharia in your own house. There is no need to go outside or to go and affect somebody. Sharia is just the way of life, they you understand. Anywhere you go to they have their own way of life. Like the way the zamfara people introduce sharia in zamfara state, if you look at it, is something that okay if you want even there is a crime its either you go to sharia court or you go to customary court. Anyone you chose like you want to be judged then you go there. There is no need for this thing I did not agree that everything has to be conquered before they introduce sharia in any state.

ZA6 [16720-17323]

That is that is where the militants are getting it wrong now hmm. Jihad is not all about fighting, jihad is not all about the physical assault to capture power, no, is not all about that, and in Nigeria today, where you have the Christians and the non ahm, the Christians and the Muslims, it is not possible for Islam to capture all state authority and more over amm right now we are practicing a democracy and there is no way one religion will come to dominate over another where you have a 50 50 amm ratio. It is not possible. So there is no way, I don't agree with this. I don't agree with this at al

ZA7 [7889-8301]

Do I agree that Islam must capture all state authority and power through jihad to be able to enforce...yes from my previous answer I said jihad is an instrument or perhaps a very important aspect of Islam that preachers about, against doing anything evil or bad. So to have emm to have authority, to have a state authority, to capture a state authority and power, jihad is necessary, it is very, very necessary.

ZA8 [10454-11163]

No. That mustn't be. That is not necessary. So far is this is religion and in the sight of God everybody is entitled to what he wants to follow. For Muslims to enforce sharia, sharia can still be enforced within yourself, you mustn't force anybody to do that. For instance, we have sharia courts; we have the judiciary court in Nigeria. So if, for instance, I want my case to be handled by a sharia court, I can take it to the sharia court as simple as that. Sharia law is still being passed. If I want judiciary court to handle my case, I go to the judiciary, is of opinion of what I want. So is not because of seizing power, government that will make sharia law to, even now sharia law is still happening.

ZA9 [8818-9161]

I don't agree because even in the constitution of the Federal Republic. I believe there are sharia laws in it. If the sharia laws are in accordance with the culture or rather the way people behave in this country, the president and the legislators will have no choice than to incorporate into our constitution, if they find it useful to our...

ZA10 [9886-10539]

Umm actually through jihad that is jihad fi sabilillah, through jihad we will be able to accomplish a lot of things, we will be able to eradicate a lot of things, yes through jihad that is jihad fi sabilillah, we do for the sake of Allah, no killing, no shading of blood, freely and when you capture a lot of states, yes it's possible that you can impose sharia because when they have, when they are enlighten about God, about the teaching, everybody will be free and willingly that the government should impose sharia. It will not be a problem of imposition though some people will not be comfortable with it, some will not happy with it, you know.

ZA11 [8068-8565]

Well, sharia is a practice and the practice must not come from the high, it is a chain, it is a chain practice. I guess if everybody or every Muslim will begin the sharia right from his own person, then and ah it is going to be an easy achievement. We don't need forceful or any other this thing to achieve sharia in every state. If every Muslim knows accordance to the Quran and hadith teachings that this is how to live his life and he is living towards it, insha Allah everything will go well.

ZA12 [5125-5321]

I don't agree, because Islam is comprises of different groups, if only they can come together to understand it as one entity, it stands. But in as much as there are many groups, I don't think so.

ZA13 [4774-4825]

No, physically no I don't think so, physically no.

ZA14 [4332-4336]

No.

ZA15 [8443-8995]

Definitely if you look at Shahu Usman Danfodio, he is able to implement sharia in most of the place because he was able to capture these places because without that you cannot have full total implementation of sharia in those particular states without, but in the present situation of Nigeria now, it is very, very difficult to implement sharia, why I am saying so is, we have the Christians and we have the Muslims, we have the Muslim majority and we have Christian majority. So there is no way you can go to Christian majority and implement sharia.

ZA16 [5370-5374]

No.

ZA17 [3790-3978]

No. There is no enforcement on it, you preach. The Rasulillah has live with the Yahudu and the nasara and is not fighting them to accept Islam by force he is asking them to Ulu asalamna.

ZA18 [6243-6638]

No, a'a like during the ah the then ex-governor of Zamfara, you could remember, Ahmad Sani Yariman Bakura, he introduced the sharia and there wasn't any jihad, did he fight anybody? Uhn hun and there were a lot of successes that had been recorded, without the jihad, sharia came. There was one man who even stole something, he was amputated at that material time and there wasn't any problem.

ZA19 [7550-8765]

Ah no. I did not agree with this. I did not agree at all because if you say Islam must capture all the states before they will be able to establish sharia ah most definitely you are talking of ah, you are connoting or calling for violence because not in, there is no single country all over the world where only the Muslims are dwelling in that particular country and if you look at this issue of ah establishment of Islamic sharia, you cannot just say ok now the Yoruba who are Christians or the Igbo who are Christians in Nigeria must become, must be Islamized or must accept the Islamic religion just as other people were misconceiving what jihad is all about ah especially for those who are seeing jihad as killing people, taking weapons of mass destruction, lynching, ethnic cleansing, genocides and other forms of killings could definitely contradict themselves ah considering this very question. So you cannot say you must capture virtually all the state before we establish Islamic sharia. So jihad does not mean killing all people and of course achieving eh establishing Islamic sharia, Islamic state and solving the Muslim problem does not mean you must capture all the state through jihad.

ZA20 [4088-4242]

Wellll, in short if a Muslim can go by the Islamic tenets that one is sharia itself. Not necessarily establishing those rigorous sharia as they call it.

ZA21 [5276-5848]

Islamic dictates is not as this because the provision of the holy Qur'an has it that la iqra ha fid din. That there is no compulsion in Islam, if you – even the God himself Allah subuhana wata'allah said to his holy prophet that you can only preach but you cannot convince all. Sharia is the way of Allah. It is only Allah that can make somebody to be a Muslim or non-Muslim. If that is the case, that is the more reason why some are Christians, some a pagans, some are Muslims because Allah vow and swore that he must fill jahannama with people, sons, jinns and the like.

ZA22 [5421-5728]

No. For now at this moment I don't agree with that. I think we should just continue to enlighten and teach our people let us implement sharia within ourselves first. By the time we implement it within ourselves I am sure many people will want to follow us and join our religion. No cause for that for now.

ZA23 [7452-8806]

Take for instance in Nigeria today, our constitution allows us for our own religion and that was the even reason that I think in 1999 the then governor of Zamfara state Ahmed Sani Yariman Bakura was able to make use of the Nigerian constitution and adopt sharia system in his own state. I can recall in Kaduna state Ahmed Muhammad Makarfi looking at the type of people living in Kaduna he was able to bring sharia courts, customary courts and the penal courts the modern courts we are having where they use penal codes. So the issue of jihad to come and enforce sharia ai the only thing you as Muslims you know the sharia follow it. Courts are only set so that people will restrain from doing what is wrong and stick to what is good. And we have sharia courts in every state to the best of my understanding more especially in northern Nigeria you have grand khadis. These grand khadis they are not like judges those that are lawyers. In most cases they even have conflicts between the alkali and the judge who happen to be a lawyer, who undergo training in law schools, the alkalis use to have conflicts, the alkali is merely an Islamic eh sharia judge. Do you get that? So sharia can be enforced if the people or the Muslims are ever ready to abide by the teachings of the holy Qur'an and the sunna of the holy prophet (SAW) without going for any war.

ZA24 [9778-10939]

No I do not agree with that because Allah created all of us the believers and non-believers. And he said in the Qur'an that lakum di lakum waliyyadin that those in Islam should follow their religion and those –therefore we cannot force anyone to come except that person willingly accept Islam. So I do not agree. Even if Islam is going to capture the whole state it is not through jihad or through eh force somebody to ehh - in fact sharia is total way of life. If you use sharia in fact we are using sharia in Nigeria so all those who are corrupt-in fact there won't be all these – in fact everybody will enjoy. But the way non-Muslims perceive sharia or jihad is that they think sharia is to kill somebody whether he is innocent or not innocent. Sharia is not meant for innocent people sharia is meant for those- even there is sharia in the Bible too. Therefore Islam may capture the whole state but not authority and power through authority and power. In fact Nigeria is a secular state and so you cannot force anyone to do Islam or to come to our own religion. Islam is going to be the only religion that will capture everywhere but not through conflicts.

ZA25 [9191-9877]

Hmmm as I have told you the western system –Muslims have been imposed upon with the western systems of government such as democracy and some other strands. So as of now, as I said about jihad, capturing all state authority and power it is not for now a necessary condition. It has to start with individuals and groups because this people have dealt with our practice of Islam and to a large extent even our accord. We have to start serious cleansing, Muslims have to start serious cleansing of the tenets of the religion and where at a stage where we now have many practicing Muslims then they can start from there. Not necessary capturing all the state and power, it is suicidal

ZA26 [5397-5492]

But I don't know do you believe that the current orientalist they want to dominate the world?

ZA27 [3171-3398]

No. There are many ways Islam can conquer or can capture all other aspects of –not only through jihad taking weapon but through other means ah morality, good behavior, showing good brotherhood and other things.

ZA28 [10876-11330]

Well I will make reference to our country here which is composed of basically two religions. And amm even in the country here the sections divided like the north and the south, the east and the west, so you see if you come far north majority is Muslim, if you go the other part majority are Christians. So (long pause) well this question I think it needs proper ironing I don't think, I don't think, it is not to be that easy, it is not to be that easy

ZA29 [17782-18641]

You see, like I said, you see here it is also being misconceived. You see Islam does not have to capture all state authority and power. Islam does not have to do that. Islam does not need power, it has power. Islam does not require any power from nobody;

it has its own power. The power of Islam can only be seen by those that have the believe in it. When you are in the religion you know that yes the religion has power. When you practice what the religion teaches you will know that yes the religion has power; but you saying that to as in through jihad to be able to enforce true sharia and why? Well in that aspect I would tell you like I said if they mean by striving to make people understand the religion not by forcing it or under any pressure to make people to do what they are not ready to, well to me it is very right. Yes it is only through that

I answered this question in the last one, I made mentioned that even in your own house, you can exercise sharia may be when you exercise it well in your own house somebody will also imitate you through the way you are living, your family are living, people will begin to like the way you are doing. They too will exercise it and you try to, you can try to impart the knowledge into the people, may be after finishing any prayer you just stand up and give people example of the way you are doing in your life and you are enjoying.

By this way you will capture more than, not even state, you can even capture a continent.

ZA31 [6193-6259]

No, there is no reason for that and Islam doesn't agree with that.

ZA32 [14001-14442]

I don't agree because if we say only through jihad Islam can what, can capture all the state and the power, we are not right because even by preaching, but even if we consider the jihad as preaching or as both the two types of jihad, we can say it is true and I can say I agree with that because when the state is what, it is a mixture of Muslims and non-Muslims in power, in authority, I can say no way Islamic sharia can be enforced, yes.

ZA34 [12482-13185]

Well I might not agree with this idea because a simple example was established in our country, the Zamfara Sharia that came up in 2000. It is through an election, which is a democratic election that Yariman Bakura Ahmed Sani was elected and he becomes the governor of Zamfara state. Yet he uses the power vested on him by the federal constitution that he established Sharia in Zamfara state and most of the atrocities and the misdeeds that are being conducted before his coming to the rule was abolished and was stopped. It is a quiet example that you may not use an arm before you can establish a state, Islamic state of ah-before you establish Sharia. This is one of the good example in our country.

ZA35 [4258-4547]

Hmmm yes though I didn't agree that Islam will capture all the state authority and power through jihad to be able to enforce true sharia because in Zamfara, I remember some years ago, jihad, that is the sharia law, was introduced, but I don't think they are still practicing it today.

ZA36 [8522-9356]

No. It doesn't have to go that way. Islam is a peaceful religion so by preaching and then Observation the way we behave because there are many people that became Muslim as a result of the way we dress. They admire the way we dress and our behavior, so we don't have to go into jihad. If we implement Islamic sharia and they see that all our rules and regulation is ok with them, they would agree with us because like a colleague was telling me that the punishment for stealing and fornication, the way she was telling me in her own religion honestly that one is far more serious than that of Islam, so when she heard of our own, she said ah our own is even more better than their own. So if we should implement sharia law even on those things they would be able to agree that our own is fair, our punishment is fairer than theirs.

ZA37 [8134-8622]

Hmmm in order to enforce true sharia, true sharia, actually Islam must capture all state, must capture all because in this time around people normally we are under constitution, yes and this constitution, there are many constitutions that are contrary to Islamic teachings, so in order to practice sharia absolutely actually it is to capture all state authority, this is true. But this is not saying that you cannot practice some, no we can practice many in fact more than half of them.

ZA38 [15130-16056]

I disagree. I disagree why because even, I will still refer to historical perspective, even during the time of the prophet, you understand, he stayed with Jews, he stayed with non-Muslims, in fact he conducted trade with non-Muslims and other things. His own grandfather or his own uncle are not even Muslims, they died as non-believers, but he stayed with them and he did not change them from what they are doing, you understand, not only that presently now you can be a Muslim and a Christian can become your leader when that Christian is a trustworthy person, you can stay with him. But actually what they said in the Qur'an, it is better for a Muslim, a believer to be called you leader than a non-Muslim, but when the Muslims, the believers, the believing aspect of them is questionable, we give chance to a non-believer if he can give us the justice we need, we only need justice, Islamic state is all about justice.

ZA39 [16374-17552]

Actually I can say this is a kind of statement that Islam must capture all state authority and power through jihad to be able to enforce true sharia and why? Actually that is not the position. The position of Islam, I explained before, that Islam is the total submission to the will of Allah. That submission must be willful, it should not be coerced because there is one verse in the Qur'an which say there is la iqra ha fid din, simply means there is no compulsion in religion. It is a human choice, it is a human choice, you choose what to practice and no compulsion in religion simply means it is explaining that there is no way you can make somebody, subjugate him, force him to accept Islam, it is not even allowed. It is a free will. It is a religion of free will. You choose to be and when you choose to be, then you become. So it is not necessary that you most subjugate other people because you capture power. If the people of a particular area or community or country decide to practice Islam then so be it. There is no way that they must engage in war, against who? So this idea is not true and it is incorrect, it is a total misconception of the meaning of Islam.

Th7.13: Jihad and Islamic State: A Necessity for the Practice of Islam in northern Nigeria

FG1 [27293-27365]

Northern Nigeria is an Islamic state (chorused by a number of students)

FG1 [27367-28074]

Am sorry to say this, but I don't think northern Nigeria is an Islamic state because when we say Islamic state, Islamic state in the sense that the rules and regulations imposed, the constitution of the northern Nigerian people will be based on Islamic principles. As for now northern Nigeria is not practicing Islamic state because all the states that are even close to practicing it are not opportuned to practice that why because in the state, Is Kano occupied by all Muslims? There are some people that are even pagans they don't have religion. So an Islamic rule cannot be applicable to them and the state since we are not practicing Islamic state they have to adjust so that they can at equilibrium.

FG3 [38353-38364]

I disagree

FG3 [38366-38376]

Yes and no

FG3 [38379-39808]

My opinion pertaining this one, I can say, maybe they have misconceived the whole term. Right from the jihad and also the state of Islam. If Muslims want to embark on the actually teaching of their own religion, they can start from the normal five...mosque they have in their own area. First purify your heart then purify your family make sure that you pass the actual message to you family then also make your imam to be your judge and to be you DPO (District Police Officer). You can see may be some cases might happen, either marriage or anything when you go to court that they will tell you please go back home and settle if it is not settled come back so and so time. So that settlement if people are taking these cases back to their imam, please imam this is what happened between me and this guy so he will quote the hadith and Qur'an and judge between you guys, by doing so you are already having your own state and you are practicing Islam well. I don't even know what else you are looking for and I don't think government will stop you or any other person will stop you from maybe reporting my case to my imam. May be when the cases are bigger they can even forward the cases to juma'at mosque imam. By doing so I don't think whether there is need for carrying sword and go and fight in order to obtain a state. You can have it from your house or yourself first, your own body then your house then your community.

KD1 [29311-30057]

That's not true because presently nobody stop me from praying salat, nobody stops me from doing polygamy, nobody stops from going to my Islamiyya. Nobody stops me from preaching, nobody stops me from fasting, nobody says no, I have laid an embargo nobody is goes for Hajj here. Nobody says okay because you are a Muslim, you are not going to school. So for that reason, I think that's the misplaced idea there. What actually is necessary is for us to actually get ourselves empowered then we will be in the right track. Right there because if we want to even call for fighting jihad now, how many weapons do you have? Do you have a military? Do you have this? So it's strongly disadvantaged position, so you can't call for that at this instance.

KD2 [11354-11780]

No. Muslims, we do not ah we Muslims in the north do not require Islamic state to practice our religion. If anybody wants to practice his religion, the constitution at least enables one to practice his religion without any duress. So no one, no one is deterring us from practicing our religion, except if a person doesn't want to practice. But you don't need an Islamic state, a whole Islamic state to practice your religion.

KD3 [8864-9284]

Toh the saying, the argument that northern Muslims require Islamic state to practice their religion, how? Whereas the books, the Quran and the hadith are already, is just for you to read and put yourself into practice. The only other ones maybe some teachings of the Islam that have to do with limits in terms of may be you steal or you fornicate. Those ones might be laws of Islam that we suppose to put into practice.

KD4 [15216-15991]

Yah! Let me say that first of all northern Muslims, we don't need any jihad or an Islamic state for us to practice truly our religion because if you say that you are trying to tell me that the northern region, the northern part of Nigeria today are not practicing their religion and I totally disagree with that. But for us to have a totality control of our state and act the way the scripture said, then we truly need an Islamic state and that Islamic state cannot be achieved through violent means of jihad which they portray today rather we have to start building our mind, putting up a mind set to deprive us from having conflicts within even what the religion is saying and what we are practicing. I don't know if you get what am trying to make to you, to put in here.

KD5 [8879-9377]

I don't think northern Nigeria Muslims need an Islamic state because looking at the formation of most of the northern state, you will understand that majority of the people of those states are Muslims and I don't think there is any hindrance or any inconvenience that is making Muslims not to practice their religion. So, I think the need to establish Islamic state is needed only when Muslims are hindered not to practice there religion and I don't think jihad can serve as that instrument. Yes.

KD6 [20860-21454]

Do they? I don't agree with that. Did they say we should not pray in northern Nigeria? Do they say we should not go to, we are in the fasting period now, do they say we should not fast? Did anybody come and ask you that you should not fast in the northern Nigeria, you should not pray in northern Nigeria? Does anybody have that power? So, Islam still rules in northern Nigeria whether you like it or not. It is we Muslims that we suppose to change our attitude toward Islam not Islam changing attitude to us. We Muslims suppose change our attitude to Islam. That is what I understand by that.

KD7 [13932-14357]

Jihad is not, Yes, jihad is necessary for northern Nigerian Muslims to practice their religion, but what kind of jihad are we talking about here? We are talking about for one to take up da'wa to preach to people and to and not to allow people to practice their religion in the best context, not as we see fit, not because someone is from the north and the other one is from the south, not because one is rich or one is poor.

KD8 [27228-28175]

Of course we need, (the question asked again). Well, without even establishing an Islamic state a Muslim can practice his religion. You can practice, you can acquire knowledge and make sure that your home is okay, is living according to Islamic injunction and from there you will begin to now extend it outside. And again, we would want it. It is necessary, but not through that kind of jihad of violence. Jihad of preaching to people, jihad of educating people, jihad of trying to convert other people peacefully, jihad of Islamic, jihad is establishing justice and fairness, jihad of protecting the right of everybody not the kind of jihad that is perceived from the, I mean, you know the kind of jihad that is seen from the negative angle of just fighting people, killing people, that's not the kind of jihad we need, but we need the jihad of been educated, you know, living a good life, you know preaching Islam and seeing a prosperous state.

KD9 [17714-18733]

Yes we need sharia in northern Nigeria whether it is by jihad al-qital or by jihad starting from the grassroots, sensitizing people, gathering enough information about Islam, knowing about Islam and so on and so forth, whichever way it is going to be, we need sharia in northern Nigeria. Whether it is going to be by jihad because anytime you mention jihad people just say ahhhhhh you will pick the sword and cut peoples neck, no. It doesn't have to be like that. Today in the western world, jihad is already happening, jihad is already happening for goodness sake. The other day I was reading online that George Bush has embrace Islam. I don't have facts to expatiate on that yet, so I don't want to talk more much about it, but I think it is true that one on his daughters is a Muslim today You. can imagine ah in the so called enemies of Islam that is the way the world has viewed it, you know, that we have Muslims sprouting from the white house its self. Jihad is already happening. So this is what we call jihad.

KD10 [11822-12758]

Yes there is no doubt jihad is necessary for the religion and the sharia to prevail, but ah we can also practice the din if we are sincere and want to practice the din well. If we have the knowledge and Allah has protect us from following our self desires, the Muslim can also practice the din, but it cannot be practiced in totality if we are not in an Islamic state where we are being governed by the sharia. Like now, you see, if it to say we are governed by the sharia, the vehicle that is going to be conveyed, the commercial vehicle for the female is different from the commercial vehicle of the male. The hospital the male is going to attend to male, the female to the female. Then the government will make all effort to see that the people they dress properly, they dress, you know, according to the sharia even though, there is the Christian is going to dress decently not to dress in a such way that is going to cause fitna.

KD11 [16671-17588]

Of course jihad is always necessary to create an Islamic state, not just Islamic state, but to propagate the religion, but jihad, as I stated earlier, has its own clear procedures in fact for you to have a jihad, you understand, there is need for, I can't talk about jihad when or a revolution in Islam, jihad itself when there no people in the vanguard. There are no intellectuals in the vanguard who, like for instance, the sharia that was brought to us in Nigeria some years back, had no any intellectual backing, but it was a political slogan, it was essentially a political slogan not sharia in any sense, not in any real sense of the word sharia. That is what am trying to say here essentially is that ah essentially what I am trying to say is that there were no intellectuals in the movement as such and any movement that lacks intellectualism is bound to fail and that was what we witnessed in ah at that time

KD12 [19854-20504]

Ah yes so far you see, what they say ah to create an Islamic state, the northerners, the forefathers have done good, they have laid the foundation down here that you see, if the northerners, the real Muslims, if they really practice what has been laid down by the forefathers it will not take time at all to establish an Islamic state, so and then when it is established, when it is done in such a way, see it will now give problem. It is only when they have not fished out the thorns that is the thorns in the flesh that is those who are saying that they are carrying sharia, but they are antagonizing it indirectly, so they have to fish them out.

KD13 [6590-6783]

Each man in Islam is a state so with the context of the way they want it by saying that except everyone becomes Islamized, it's a wrong view because every individual needs to fight on his own.

KD14 [8546-8747]

So the northern Muslims do not require any Islamic state to practice their religion because already the religion is there and you have, we are doing the religion freely to my own, that is my opinion.

KD15 [11858-12272]

As I said earlier you mustn't do through weapon and ah through force doing, by good doing, by good deed and by good intention, I think everything will be in peace and it will be established. You mustn't frustrate someone, you mustn't be harsh on community or your neighbor or partner before you can establish a jihad, by your good doing you can establish jihad, so I think it mustn't be force doing so that is it.

KD16 [6842-6863]

I disagree with that

KD17 [21541-22479]

My opinion is that yes northern Muslims need to establish an Islamic state, yes for them to make it easier to perform their activities. But I don't know, even presently, I don't think there is any law that is banning the Muslims in the north to practice their religion the way you want to practice it, the true Islamic religion. Is there any place where they say you cannot leave your beards? Is there any place like that? Is there anywhere they said you cannot bear your Islamic name? There is no even law that say you cannot even marry more than one wife in Nigeria. So when people now say you must fight jihad, you must go and fight, go to establish an Islamic state. You already have, there is sharia court in Nigeria. There is sharia court. Okay if you say you don't want to go to the contemporary court, the sharia court is there for you to do anything as far it is the sharia law will be used for you, and this is in Nigeria here.

KD18 [11132-11603]

The answer is no. Jihad can be done at any place. You can do your jihad at any place. It is not necessary that the Muslim should have their own state before they can practice their religion. The religion can be practiced any where you are because it is through your heart, you understand, so there is no need for the creation of another state because eh before the Muslim will be able to practice their jihad. There is nothing like that. Jihad can be done in any place.

KD19 [14472-14820]

No. I don't think it is only northern Muslims that require an Islamic state to practice sharia, no. Jihad is very necessary. The entire country needed an Islamic state so as to practice true jihad because there is constitution, the constitution is a hindrance to the practice of true Islamic state. They do not mix, constitution and Islamic state.

KD20 [10004-10644]

Yes, I think jihad is necessary whether in the northern Nigeria or anywhere that we have a Muslim, even though in the East that we have a majority ah that we have a majority of the Christians there, the little, the, you know, the population of the Muslims they were very low in that area, those Muslims that they were there, they are still practicing jihad because I told you that jihad can be practiced without killing, you understand, jihad can be practiced without killing, so even though in the northern Nigeria that they are practicing jihad, we have other religions that are living together in peace without killing each other, yes.

KD21 [9131-9526]

I don't think uh the northern Muslim should require an Islamic state to practice their religion. Jihad is not necessary to create an Islamic state. Lagos, Abia, Anambra, the Muslims are there, they have been practicing their own religion. So if their practice is right upon true and good faith, I don't think a Muslim who resides in an Islamic state is better than them. (he recites in Arabic)

KD23 [9486-9920]

Okay my opinion is this ah my perception is contrary to, is contrary to this opinion because even without sharia ah Muslims in northern Nigeria can practice their religion ah without any fear because they are the dominant in the regime, they are the dominant in the regime and if government ah ah will be on will be neutralising things regulating things so everything is possible, but ah this statement is contrary to my own opinion.

KD24 [37165-38680]

Is not ah is not right; why did I say so? It is because this issue of boko haram I think I have mentioned something earlier, the issue is that some part of the government personnels are using their money to sponsor some of the Muslims, telling them that why not you should create an Islamic state and outside of the country, many countries outsiders, they will be thinking that yes what is happening is right, but you that is living inside the house, you know what is happening inside the house and actually these are just numerous simple people that you can mention their numbers. Consider for example, in the northern part of Nigeria we have for example let's say fifty million people if you can mention these people that are practicing all these fightings for that they want Islamic state, Islamic state, they are not up to maybe twenty thousand. It is very hard to convince people that twenty thousand in fifty million are trying to bring these things and that those people fifty million are accepting, no they are not accepting. The way they are doing their religion now they are enjoying it because they are in a state that if you praying you will build mosque no one will say no. We will destroy the mosque, no, you are allowed to build mosque anywhere you are living and you pray there, no one will stop you, then what do you want else? It is just that some people are being sponsored to create such conflicts that is what I will understand based on I that I am living here in the northern part of Nigeria.

KD25 [48651-49809]

It is inevitable, is inevitable, It can, it cannot happen, if we look at it very well, we just have to try to see that everybody performs his or her external rights according to the teaching of the Qur'an or the Sunna. If we continue to do that insha allahu one day Allah will bring a source for us, but not just for us to say that ah say the people of Nigeria must have their own state. If you do that you are inviting trouble and even in the face of you are inviting Allah's wrath because that was not what God said he should do. God said he should worship him, so in as much as you are able to worship Allah, no matter how difficult the condition is, don't mind just try just worship Allah based on your effort, based on the effort that you can put and leave the others to God, you are not going to say no, no, no we don't agree, how are we going to leave with those Christians? No, no, no we must have our state. If we should ask anyone, like all these boko haram and the rest that are practicing such insurgencies, ask them to bring a single verse of the Qur'an that eh that backs their statement they have none neither or the prophetic tradition. Yes.

KD26 [12467-12832]

Hmm m I don't agree with that. Yes it is a requirement, but it is not only the essence for you to practice your religion, without Islamic state, you can you can practice your religion as long as you don't, as long as the rules guiding the state is not, you don't follow it to the extent that you go out of context of your religion, then why not? You don't need it.

KD27 [10926-10942]

I don't agree

KD28 [16997-17332]

First and foremost the northern region as a whole is not a Muslim, all the northern region is not an Islamic region because part of them are non-Muslims, part of them are the Christians and other religions which are not Islamic, but once they don't have the understanding of the religion, you cannot use it to make a law in any state.

KD28 [17430-17665]

Well they should require an Islamic freedom not an Islamic state. Once they have the freedom of worship, if you have the freedom of doing your religious obligations then it is not necessary that yes you have to have an Islamic state.

KD29 [9639-9893]

Well to me since there is entrenchment from our present system of governance to allow all ah states that are dominant in the Islam to practice sharia, it is our own will to do that not through the use of force. I think through that means we can achieve.

KD30 [17155-17879]

You don't have to ah to stay under the banner of Islamic state before you practice your religion, you can always practice your religion where very you are. Ah in Islam you can even be able to pray while you are travelling on a camel, so you see how, this is how simple Islam is made, it is the action of Islam itself. I don't believe you have to stay under the Islamic state before you practice your religion and jihad, if calling people and showing people the beauty of Islam is what you refer to as the jihad then of course we always need that to invite people into Islam, but we don't have to live under, although Islamic state is necessary, but even without the Islamic state Muslims can always practice their religion.

KD31 [11617-11821]

No. I don't think that is true like I said it is not the matter of creating an Islamic state, it is just the matter of personal interest whatever is happening it is just the matter of personal interest.

KD33 [12685-12976]

Well, jihad as I, as I used to say is not necessary, there are some Islamic state, for example, Indonesia, they establish their Islamic state without jihad or any conflict and they are there living peacefully and practicing their religion. So, if we can copy them, I think we will succeed.

KD34 [11966-12325]

Hmm my opinion is that ehm I don't think that is true because why I said I that I don't think that is true is that I never heard a group of people claiming to have a state of their own that is an Islamic state. I heard some sects fighting for a particular reason, but they are justifying their action claiming they want a true state which is not achievable.

KD34 [12488-12822]

No, I don't think because they can practice their religion, we are living in a multi, secular state, in our own government there are representatives of Islam and they are also representatives of Christians and other religions. So those representatives, they are representing us and they did not stop us from practicing our religion.

KD35 [13983-14283]

My opinion that is not possible because we are living with Christians, non-Christians, non-believers in God, my believe is only to establish Islamic courts, a Muslims should be taken to a sharia court, a Christian should be taken to what a Chastain or is emm European courts so that is my believe.

KN1 [32618-34855]

Sir, let me start by saying this, in the first place let's consider the constitution of the country, as a local government, if you require a particular law, whether it is customary law or religious law all you need to do for that particular local government alone, all you need to do is for the local government council to write what they want and take it to the local government assembly or state assembly to make it a law of that particular state. So if the Muslims want an Islamic state or sharia law they can do it on their own, I mean they can have it within their state that this is what they want and their legislators will definitely give them what they want. So in the first place even through the constitution you can achieve that as easily as possible. So there is other means you need to know a lot of things before you go that one. Ahh probably at this point there is need for us to go back to the first jihad in Islam that is the battle of Badr. Probably there is need for us to understand the intellectual cause of the jihad. In the first place you know that our holy and ... prophet (SAW) was born and brought up in Mecca, he was forced out of Mecca to Medina, he was forced out of that place and most of those that migrate from Mecca to Medina with him they left their worldly goods, their wives, their children almost everything because they were escaping, they escaped to Medina. So at a particular point in time when the Caravan of Mecca was coming back from Syria they decided that it is time for us to take what was taken from us. This is the collective caravan of the Meccans, so now let's get what belongs to us, as they are trying to take it away from them they escaped, they created a route and escaped, but before then since they got an idea that something is happening the leader of the caravan Abu Safyan sent a message to Mecca to tell them that they should come out and protect your goods, so they came in full force. Now after escaping he sent a message to them telling them we have escaped you can go back, but those that were against the Muslims and Islam based on their business they said we must proceed against the Muslims and the Muslims have no option but to come out and fight to defend themselves.

KN3 [29239-30515]

But I told you right from the beginning Islam allowed for the establishment of dar el Islam and dar el harb, right from the beginning. And if Allah wanted the whole world to be the same he could make it the same. He has the power to do that. But in his wisdom he has created differently and of course there is a verse in the holy Qur'an and if you go to the United Nations you will see a wall in front of United Nations headquarters building conspicuously placed there with a verse (he quotes the Qur'anic verse in Arabic) O ye people, o ye people mark you, he didn't say o ye Muslims or o ye believers, o ye people everybody we have created you of a man and a woman and divided you into tribes and races so that you may understand one another. No one is greater than the other in the eyes of God except he who is more pious. Imagine Allah has created differently so that we may understand one another not so that we may fight one another or quarrel with one another or cheat one another or be unfair or unjust to one another. Now if had wanted he could have made us the same. The same color speaking the same language wearing the same clothes having the same culture. But he created us differently and says that we should live in peace or we should understand one another.

KN4 [27865-29097]

No. even now they are practicing their religion, you see. The people are practicing their religion as I have stated they are practicing, they are practicing that is why I mentioned extremism among the both religion. Don't take the the is only the government that does not involve, that does not committed to people that makes people to talk anyhow without check and balance. You can't to preach without reporting yourself to the state authority service. They can record your own preaching right from its- in various state we can select who can go for preaching and you cannot go preaching you can send it to ah different to their different ah emm sect and they can be used in and control and modulate the kind of preaching people could do but when you allow somebody a human being, a human being is very stubborn and is a very complicated machine, he can use his own selfish and address people not the not the real message that you are sent to for with, you understand. He can use their own concept, they can use their own opinion, they can use their own selfishness and people refer it that he is a Christian or is a Muslim but not the teaching of that religion, in my opinion,. is not necessary since everything was established.

KN5 [12125-12705]

Ok I think when you when you talk of Islamic state, you are talking of the Khalifa, you are talking of the Qur'an as one of the condition ah the constitution: the Qur'an and the Hadith to be used as the constitution and a lot of other things. Yes of course you would need jihad to do that, but is a northern Nigeria eh state on itself or no? If the cessation is to be made for an Islamic state, would that cause bad consequences to the Islam and the Muslims in general. This has to be taking into consideration before we embark into Islamizing in the northern Nigeria as a state.

KN6 [11730-12281]

Yes, ah even without Islamic state or with the Islamic state, you can practice your religious teaching, for example, many Muslims can live in America and what they are displaying based on their character or religion is better than those maybe who create their own state. So it is left to you whether to display your own character or not. So we need this Islamic state but if it is not possible we can live with all our colleagues together because the constitution of Nigeria allow all religions to practice his own religions, so there is no problem.

KN7 [12958-13588]

Well ehm, I don't think ehm this would be necessary enough as long as when we are well oriented, well oriented in the sense that we should ehm, that is as I have always said, ehm we should ehm, those are the Islamic clerics, teachers of Islam and people, let me say rulers are in better position of orientating, orientating the lesser ones, let me say their followers, or am so I don't think it's necessary to really introduce any Islamic state since we already-if we have all the understanding that yes, we are all one and we shouldn't have any cause of am going to any crisis before we can achieve our aims and objectives, yes.

KN8 [11011-11278]

I think to a reasonable extent, the fact about this question could not be absolutely justified; though it is also a condition to bring about an Islamic state in northern Nigeria, you understand, but if at all the jihad would be adopted, let it be a diplomatic jihad.

KN9 [11515-11880]

Well in the present day northern Nigeria I don't believe-the Muslims here have every right to practice their religion and carry out all their festivals without any other religion or religious group frowning at them. So I don't believe there is need for-they are good as they are now. All they need is to follow the teachings of Islam and go on with their religion.

KN10 [9303-9467]

The state are already created since Muslims are the majority, so no need of jihad in such places. The only thing is just to introduce the sharia law. That is all.

KN11 [13599-14015]

Ah, some argue yes, ah well we don't have-we don't require any state to practice our religion because we are not forced to follow any religion. In Nigeria you have every tendency to practice your religion. So now as I have said, the Muslims now, we northern Muslims, we Muslims, we northern Muslims, what we all required is to practice the true teaching of Islam yes true teaching of Islam, not creating any state.

KN13 [12756-13909]

Hmm, yes northern Muslims definitely do not, in this sense, they don't actually need a jihad to practice their religion because definitely right now they are practicing the religion. You can go any place in northern Nigeria is very, very difficult for you to go into a street or a lane without seeing four or five mosque, so definitely this shows that actually these people actually they are religious. Nevertheless we can't say that jihad is a necessary condition for practicing this religion because this religion has been there right from time, it has been there for the past 400 or 500 years and they have been practicing it. So definitely jihad that has occurred since right from, since em since from the 18th century has been the major jihad that is needed. Even before the Usman Dan Fodio jihad happened there has been Muslim, although there was moral decadence in the society that was why they came on with a revolutionary jihad to clean up the society. So I think for now they don't need that because definitely the jihad has happened in the societies in line with Islamic tradition. I don't think there is necessary need for any jihad again.

KN14 [10677-10922]

No, northern Muslims, this northern Nigerian there are a lot of Muslims and there al I don't think that ah only jihad can allow the Muslims to practice their religion, even with jihad or without jihad Muslims are free to practice their religion.

KN15 [11585-11783]

Yah, I think this is not true because even now we are not in an Islamic state and we are still practicing our religion so my opinion on this is that is not necessary to create these Islamic states.

KN16 [5968-6043]

No is not like that because even now they are practicing their religions.

KN17 [13237-13351]

Now the necessity jihad in an Islamic state we have the population they can pass a referendum in a state that is

KN17 [13388-13684]

Yeah they can use um through the opinion poll of people actually these people only want jihad, they actually want the sharia to be used in this state so if through this mechanism they can actually know who among the citizen truly wants sharia to be the to be the sole constitution of that state.

KN18 [21473-22420]

Well I don't believe in this kind of Islamic state in northern Nigeria within which this context because what we are saying now, we have a constitution that recognize multi-ethnic and multi-religious group. This constitution gives rights to all religious groups to practice freely their religion, practice without any constraint practice any any any all parts of the religious teachings and whatever that is the constitution we operate and that same constitutes that same constitution allow for the states, for the states to use certain legal means, local laws, make local laws that are religious that is why they implement sharia in some northern states and it is within the constitution. So what kind of discrimination do we face as a Muslim in northern Nigeria that we will be seeking for something different? I don't think we need anything else since we have all the freedom we want of worship, freedom of religious practices and other things.

KN19 [15323-15497]

Yes I think its true, you understand, if many scholars have justified that I think ah jihad is one of the most necessary elements to ensure an Islamic state, you understand.

KN20 [7575-7635]

Yah jihad is really necessary to create an Islamic state.

KN21 [5569-5621]

No, no, no, no, no, no, the argument is incorrect.

KN22 [10761-10866]

Modern northern Muslims require a good and responsible leader, require in a good institution not jihad.

KN23 [8395-8476]

Yah, it is true that northern Nigeria require Islamic state but I don't believe...

KN23 [8510-8685]

yah to practice their religion perfectly because Islam itself as its own jurisprudence and this jurisprudence, it has its effect on the people living in an Islamic community.

KN24 [9140-9645]

Yah I am going to respond yah it is true because if you see most of these northern states like Sokoto, Zamfara, Bauchi, Maiduguri, even if they are not putting the Islam into practice, most of the practice that they use to do is part of Islam. Although it is not Islam they are even putting there, the kind of system government they are doing there is not Islamic system of government but still some of their movement is they like brought it into their own system beginning with the implementation of it.

KN25 [10705-10842]

They do not necessarily need an Islam state to practice their religion even the present setting favors them to practice their religion.

KN26 [10632-11235]

No I don't agree. What I will add here is are they, are northern Muslims in Nigeria not practicing their religion as of now? That is the first question to ask, of course they are. Are there sharia being or is the sharia being implemented in all parts of the states?

No. Even the so-called states that planned to sharia, is the actual sharia being practiced? No. So let us be frank and sincere to ourselves we don't actually need that since there is no constitutional provision that bars you in fact even protects your right to religion, it is even protecting you, even the constitution of the state.

KN27 [10451-10688]

Well I shouldn't say it is in the real sense because not only northerners are Muslims, are not only northerners are true Muslims. We have northerners that are Christians, we have then a lot so I don't think this position is so correct.

KN28 [8310-8587]

Well Islamic state I believe is something that is new probably as I have said before the state has been in existence right before Islam, so the issue of Islamic state I think is not really a must, we can practice Islam and jihad as a whole can never be based on Islamic state.

KN30 [10070-10468]

No, we need freedom to practice our religion not an Islamic state. Once we have freedom, to practice our religion the way it is supposed to be, it doesn't matter whether our governor is a Muslim or a non-Muslim. It doesn't matter whether we have Christians as our neighbors or not. All we need is a peaceful environment to practice our religion and a peaceful environment to preach for our religion

KN31 [11930-13063]

Yah actually ehh normally Muslims in the northern states they cherish Sharia as in a Sharia state but the problem is two things are involved just like I said. First, the people implementing and people carrying out the Sharia themselves. Will they do justice? That is the first thing. Secondly again, it could not be fully implemented because there are things that maybe the non-Muslims feel it is not against their religion or they could live freely with ok things like having places like clubs, hotels, bars where they go and drink, you see by the time you say you totally eliminate this and it is a mixed society they too-it could lead to violence, they may want to fight back and it could lead to one thing. But I think with or without implementing Sharia, Sharia-What is the meaning of Sharia? That is going according to the rules of Islam. Whether you implement it or not as far as Muslims they will live or in accordance with the Islamic injunctions, that can even influence some of the non-Muslims to come back to Islam because they see that the way things are being carried out in Islam are done in accordance with the book.

KN32 [4599-4830]

Yah as I said ah the northern Muslims and ah actually practice their religion without the involvement of an Islamic state. Ah you see ah Jihad ah ah other Muslims can practice their religion perfectly without the involvement of

KN33 [4305-4354]

No. Islamic state is not necessary at this time.

KN34 [6206-6378]

This is just the work of a political or the elect or the politicians that are trying to use their techniques of rule and divide in order to achieve their selfish interest.

KN35 [8235-8365]

Yes even in the Nigerian constitution of 1999 said there is the freedom of religion. So where you are you practice your religion.

KN35 [8402-8533]

Jihad is taking place, is taking place because we have the majority, we always carry the voters no matter how the situation maybe.

KN36 [7791-8034]

No it is not mandatory to have an Islamic state because we are in a democracy that freedom of religion is allowed, but the only means that you can do Muslims should collide with each other and ensure that during the voting they vote Muslims.

KN37. [7023-7038]

It is not true.

KN38 [4794-4810]

They are wrong.

KN39 [6862-6875]

Actually no.

KN40 [9652-10354]

I can only say jihad is not meant for everything, it will not solve all the problems of –I believe jihad cannot solve the problems of northern Muslims in Nigeria rather to unite with each other; involve the Muslims and Christians, but by separating Muslims in one part and let them be doing their sharia activities-in Islam. Islam doesn't separate themselves from other religions, but by bringing other religions together even based on what the prophet spoke, but when you try to bring other religions together and seeing what you are practicing, from there they can also try to emulate what you are doing based on what maybe based on what the Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet Muhammad talk about.

KN41 [6402-6519]

This is not true because Nigeria is a multi-religious society and everybody has the right to practice his religion.

KN42 [9579-10185]

I am in support of this opinion because we, although there should be religious difference, at the same time there should be religious identities. We are different from the other part of the country, so for us to be able to- we should have our religious freedom. We should be able to follow and preach about our religious beliefs and the way we see fit. People should respect our religion and the only way for us to do it is for us to fully embrace the teaching behind jihad and to fully establish our own Islamic perspectives. So freedom for us to be able to create our own Islamic state should be given.

KN43 [13376-13582]

This is not necessary remember northern Nigeria was once under British colonial rule. And the most of the British officials were not Muslims, if not all and the still the Muslims practiced their religions.

KN44 [8548-8595]

I wouldn't like to say, answer that one also.

KN45 [9228-9569]

Hmm, jihad is not necessary I think all Muslims not only in northern Nigeria in the whole country ehh are practice, are practicing their religion the way it should be without any hindrance. We all have freedom to practice our faith, so I don't think to practice faith we need any jihad. There is a total freedom of religion in Nigeria, yes.

KN46 [14620-14927]

No, it is not true. They don't need ehh, an Islamic state or they don't need to engage in any activity to realize their aspirations as Muslims. As long as the leadership of the country is fair to all followers of religion, I think Muslims would not have problem, would not have reasons to, to, to complain.

KN47 [20431-21171]

I don't think we need any, any Islamic state in northern Nigeria. We have been practicing Islam for quite 100's of years in northern Nigeria. Islam has been practiced and the majority of the people in the region are also Muslims. So what do we need a state for? We already establish Islamic political institutions like the ah sultanate, like the sultanate of Sokoto, like ehh Kanem Borno, you know, empire also is established by Islamic principles. It was established, you know, we can simply say that we already have our own type of Islamic state. So we don't need any other Islamic state to come and do anything here because Islam has been practiced. We pray, you know, we pray, we fast, we do everything that is necessary here in Islam.

KN48 [7172-7314]

I would not agree with that because not until you are in an environment where Muslims are populous then you can now practice your own Islam.

KN49 [12103-12718]

I think if we have justice in the entire system, Muslims do not need to seclude themselves and create an Islamic state in which to, in which they can properly practice their religion. They can still sustain what they have, just like we presently have within our multi-cultural and multi-dimensional system. Muslims can still have a perfect religion, they can still coexist naturally with their or amidst their counterpart. We could have a balanced and almost perfect system, within the present system in which we exist. Muslims do not need to create or found an entirely Islamic state in the midst of what we have.

KN50 [6344-6515]

Northern Muslims do not need an Islamic state to practice their religion as far as there is freedom to worship. Ah jihad is not the yardstick of creating an Islamic state.

KN51 [48593-50042]

As English is wrong perception, because establishment of Islamic sharia like I have said earlier is not by force is by educating people, by enlightening people. So when people are truly enlightened, are truly taught about the Islamic teachings, they would now uphold those teachings, if they uphold the teachings definitely, they are going to elect someone who is now to bring about this Islamic sharia. When the sharia comes, it is the time when the Muslim will observe their own lives in accordance to the teachings of al-Quran and Sunna and this is the highest, the highest of the longing, the highest longing the Muslims have to, to establish sharia, to live in accordance to the teachings of sharia, to observe those guidelines set by sharia but not through force, not by force. I have cited one example now for you yah, what happened in Zamfara state was not by force, what happened in Kano state was not by force, what happen in Yobe was not by force and other places. There are some eleven or twelve state sharia, we call them twelve sharia state, but sharia was brought to all this states, not by force, not by killing anybody, but it was some non-Muslims who begin, began to attack sharia, who began to attack sharia so establishing sharia in northern Nigeria is to be carried out through preaching, through admonishing, advice, through counselling, good counselling, through peaceful and respectful ah propagation, but not through fight.

KN52 [14647-14747]

How would you say that without jihad you cannot practice Islam, is that what the question is saying?

KN52 [14914-15377]

That for me is not true, you don't require any jihad to practice your religion, you don't require any jihad to practice your- especially in the context in which is defined in the question. Jihad is simply being a violent conflict, you don't need it. Even to go to the mosque to pray for the sake of Allah is a form of jihad. Everything in Islam that is done in the interest of religion, in the interest of Islam and for the sake of Allah fi sabilillah is Jihad.

KN53 [8676-8713]

Hummm no, no, no it's not necessary.

KN55 [5218-5272]

It is not only through jihad that this is obtainable

KN56 [6973-7117]

It is not only through jihad that this is obtainable. There are other ways that the northern Muslims can engage in and have an Islamic state. [

KN57 [8619-8747]

You see yes, but it is not only through jihad, like I have mentioned before. It is not only through jihad. There are many ways.

KN58 [18603-19334]

No. Are we not practicing our religion? We are not in an Islamic state, but we still practice our religion despite the fact that sometimes there are some obstacles, but for instance in Kano, we practice our Islamic religion to the fullest without let or hindrance. So we don't necessarily need that complete sharia state before we practice our religion. If it would be obtainable fine we want that, but if it is not obtainable, we would forge ahead like this. We create a demarcation. That is why we said, if you are a non-Muslim and you don't want us to practice our religion in your own sight, you relocate to the area that is dominated by the non-Muslims. Go to Sabongari that is where you practice your own barbaric culture.

KN59 [14161-14614]

Actually some northern states thought that if there is a kind of sharia in their state then everybody, everything would go in accordance, that is their perception, you understand, but it's not through the jihad, you understand, that you can create an Islamic state, you understand, but the perception is that when there is Islamic state then everything would go in line with the Qur'an and Hadith, you understand. So it all depends on the individual.

KN60 [17354-18002]

Even the prophet (SAW) have stayed with the people of Khaibara, those people are Jews they are not, as I was saying, the prophet (SAW) lived amidst and among the people Khaibara and these people are Jews, they are non-Muslims and prophet (SAW) is preaching Islam, is spreading Islam what have you, but yet he did not ask the Jews to leave Medina his territory. So it is the same thing that is applicable in the way we people find ourselves living in Nigeria. Whether we like it or not we have to live Muslims and non-Muslims alike, we belong to Nigeria, we are all citizens of Nigeria nobody would deny the other the right to live in Nigeria.

KN61 [6885-7028]

There is no, it is not necessary that, unless there is jihad, now are we not practicing? We are practicing it a 100%. so it is not necessary.

KN62 [23153-24037]

Ah northern Muslims require an Islamic state, yah every Muslim, wherever he is around the globe needs an Islamic state because we believe that with an Islamic state, we can be free and we can do all what we want to practice, all what we want to do islamically speaking, yes we need that, but it's not necessary that we need, we must have that in order to practice our religion, you understand, and ah jihad is not necessary to create this Islamic state because as I told you earlier, jihad is ah eh is of different kinds. So it is not necessary that we take sword before we build this Islamic state. One can build or can make himself a true Islam, practicing true Islamic practices, your, sorry one can make himself true Muslim ah practicing true Islamic practices, you understand, ehh if he is good ah and faithful believer, if he is an unflinching believer that is what I believe.

KN64 [9783-10166]

Even now in Kano we are saying that we are operating Islamic state. Like if you, if you come back to the time of ah Shekarau, even he writes clearly that his government is under, his government is sharia government, therefore, you can use sharia. In Kano, in northern Nigeria most states they are using, they are using sharia in operating their government. There is no any problem.

KN65 [13695-14375]

My opinion is that Islamic ah Muslims in the north does not need a jihad to practice their religion because Nigeria as a country does not prohibit anybody from practicing his own religion. Wherever you are, you have the freedom of religion. Nobody has been persecuted anybody for practicing his own religion. So there is no need for ah rage, ah jihad, hjere a war is being prescribed by the Sunna is that, it is only when you are being oppressed and persecuted for practicing your own religion, that is when you can retaliate, you understand. So in northern Nigeria, we don't need jihad, in order for us to practice our religion according to what the sharia say or ah prescribed.

KN66 [7794-7871]

I don't believe, I don't believe this is true because the argument is false.

KN67 [8672-8685]

Yes I agree.

KN68 [3968-3992]

No. This is ridiculous.

KN69 [15403-16128]

It will, when we take the meaning of jhad in a wider sense we can achieve that, but by restricting or narrowing down the meaning of jihad to physical combat, I think it would not stand because there are so many activities, there are so many things that are within the arena of jihad by taking the meaning of jihad in a wider sense, all the preachings our scholars doing, all the activities that we are doing to survive, all what we are doing to see that we are abiding by the rules of sharia is part of the jihad as such we can achieve this by following this, not only to say that we must restrict the meaning of jihad to a physical combat to say that, to follow the, to follow the way is the only way to achieve this goal.

KN71 [24891-24970]

Of course, northern Muslims require an Islamic state and already we have one.

KN71 [25185-26280]

No. It is not necessary when you have an Islamic state that you will practice your religion, is not because I am still referring back to the era of prophet (SAW), when he took the first immigrants to Habasha, Abyssinia, to who? Najashi, was he an Islamic leader? No. Was he in an Islamic state? No. Did they practice their religion there? They practice, they practice devoid of any hitch. What is required is your personal commitment to your religion that I wanted to practice it, you can practice it anywhere. Let me give you an example, I saw a man in a local government in Ondo state, Irele local government, he was the only Ikale Muslim in the state, I mean the whole local government. So when we visited the area, it was the local government leader that rushed to call him that here comes his brothers, he belongs to their tribe, but he is a Muslim. In fact it was the local government that sponsored him to Mecca for pilgrimage and he was the only person in the local government yet he function the religion. What does that require? Is it not the will? It is the will that is required.

KN72 [14547-14751]

You have to take eh you have to take note the opinion, the opinion that jihad is always a fight, no. You have to change that opinion into the jihad is a strengthens to the will of God but not to fighting

KN72 [15004-15293]

Ehh, what I want you to understand or is that you have to avoid thinking on jihad is a bloodshed, but the northern Nigeria already is an Islamic state since most of the northern people are Islamic practitioners ko? There is no need to take any weapons killing somebody in the name of jihad.

KN73 [15240-15355]

Ah it is not necessary. This is not necessary of course. They don't really need jihad, they don't really need it.

KN74 [25896-26199]

Hmm also this question is almost the same, is almost the same thing like the one we have answered previously. This opinion, am not supporting this eh opinion because I have already told you that in the northern Nigeria, there is nothing that stops a Muslim to practice their religion in an accordance.

KN75 [26154-27284]

Is not true, even those who are trying to introduce, who are calling for the Islam eh sharia Islamic state, you find that in their heart they are not a Muslim, let me take a typical example, during the time of Shekarau when Shekarau was the governor of Kano state he never say that he wanted to practice the sharia, is for the people of Kano that say they need a sharia, they introduce sharia into Kano state. So when he started, let me take a typical example from issue of hisba, stopping the first assignment was to stop taking women into taking motor rider, eh motorcycle rider, but it was the Muslims that still fought Shekarau again that he is trying to bring a disunity between the people of Kano state, how should they stop people of Kano for, women for riding achaba. So you find that those who fought, when they find a law is going to affect them, they change their opinion. Let me take another example many people see a criminal because he is their fellow human being they hide him, they refuse to say the original truth of what is going on. So what they are saying is not what they are practicing, honestly speaking.

KN76 [16536-16776]

Actually we are now practicing our religion and ah we have a Nigerian state and we are practicing the religion in Nigeria state, I don't think Muslims need to have an Islamic state, purely Islamic state for them to practice their religion.

KN76 [16902-17496]

It is not necessary because we are living in a constitutional country, is a modern societies are governed by constitutions and we agree to live in NIGERIA, with other people practicing different religion from ours, some are Christians, some are idol worshippers, some doesn't even have the religion they are free thinkers. So if you agree to live within such a society, all you need to have is for the constitution to recognize your religion and the provisions within the sharia. If the constitution of Nigeria can recognize and allow the Muslims to practice the sharia, I think that is all.

KN78 [22319-22762]

In my opinion is ah I would like to digress a bit from this. My opinion, honest opinion is that Muslims should be more pre-occupied with telling the truth, living by Islamic virtues, ah be very fair in your interactions, be very honest when you interact with people, for as long as Islam, Muslim does not practice the true ideals of the religion, talking about the Islamic state would remain hallucination, will remain an illusion forever.

KN80 [20396-20855]

Yes this is so, but it can only be possible when the northern Nigerian Muslim wake up, follow strictly the injunctions of Allah, practice ah the true religion, acquired the necessary knowledge. So when this become possible so it is possible for a Muslim to request of the independent Islamic state, but without proper knowledge, without taqwa that is fearing, God fearing, so this cannot be possible and cannot be even positive even if it was happened.

KN81 [11773-11903]

Well there are so many ways like ah Da'wa that is propagation ah like ah da'wa is propagating Islamic teaching you understand?

KN82 [15167-15529]

You see it is not necessary to say that you can only practice religion under Islamic state. There are some provisions that make the environment to be convenient for someone to practice is religion freely without any compulsion or molestation. I think the atmosphere in Nigeria today is that every person is allowed by the constitution to practice his religion.

KN83 [9223-9341]

It is not true. We already have our Islamic states. Some Muslims propagate this jihad for their personal interests.

KN85 [10227-10719]

Hmm no, not exactly the establishment of Islamic state. Even within the current national arrangement, Muslims can be able to practice their religion very well. We have seen it in so many places and at so many times where the rulers or the government is not Islamic, but the Muslims were practicing their pure religion and they were not prevented from doing so by government. So there is no need for the creation of an Islamic state before Muslims can be able to practice their true religion

ZA1 [13706-13840]

No. Islam no because you can practice you own type of religion even within yourself and your family before somebody will emulate you.

ZA2 [10250-11807]

Hmm well Islamic state as we call it, I think during, lets come back to the life pattern of the prophet (SAW) Islam have been practiced and Islam has overcome most aspect, most area and still they have the non-Muslims in their midst. Is that not true? But all what we know it is the language, is the way the interpretation that call for, is the attitude that calls for that. If we look at Nigeria today is, when we look at the kind of behavior that we accept in the country, it is not issue of the religion alone as I have stated is the selfishness because none of the religion even the religion we call also called ATR, that is the African Tradition Religion, I think he doesn't permit cheating, it didn't permit robbery, he didn't permit you fighting, killing, this is are a lot of things, it calls for peace even that period call for peace. So I think we should, to me, the opinion is that ehm calling for the state is determined the kind people who are there, living in the particular community in the way they have participated, look is not when I call that this is Islamic state, is the attitude there, practices there. That is the attitude that will interpret that this is Islamic state. Let's take it clear that is what will interpret not until when I come to vow, no, is not the vowing, but the attitude in people that is interpreted there, is what we call Islamic state or this is an Islamic state. Most of, let's say you have 80 percent of the attitude in line to what God have said then we say that place is at least Islamic or Islamized.

ZA3 [12445-12462]

I didn't agree

ZA4 [27203-27760]

This people are bad, this are bad people, they are the people blackmailing Islam. They are people even the prophet Muhammad have talked about them that before the day of judgment there is going to be out these people that will claim they are in the right path killing people and they are not of me. So they are not part of the good religion that we are preaching, we are not with them and they are not with us. We don't know how they get their Qur'an and that is not the teaching of the Qur'an and that is also not the teaching of the prophet Muhammad (SAW).

ZA5 [15305-15557]

I disagree because I don't think they need to fight jihad for them to come Islamic state, you understand. We have so many sharia courts here in the northern Nigeria, so you can just go and practice your sharia without even intimidating your brothers.

ZA6 [34820-36280]

No ahh they are very wrong, they are, they are very, very wrong. Nigeria ahh Islam teaches us, the Qur'an teaches us to live harmoniously, to live in harmony amongst ourselves the Muslims and the non-Muslims. The Qur'an teaches, it preaches coexistence, peaceful coexistence hmm between the Muslims and Christians. In a situation where you find yourself, you know, in a 50, it is God that created us. Did you create yourself as Christian? No. So definitely that is why the Qur'an is the, is the final emm basis for justice, you get? Its clear there that it is not God, it is God that created everybody, he created everybody in his own image and his own religion that is the Qur'an for you. That is why it obliged us not to force anybody to join any religion. There is no compulsion in religion, you get? You must live harmoniously and I cited an example with the time of the prophet Muhammad (SAW), you get, he lived in harmony with the non-Muslims in Mecca. Mecca is the center of the Muslims, you get, but there were non-Muslims that lived in harmony with the Muslims and they lived very happily and their business flourished, they worked in the government parastatals, you get, they practiced their own religion without any ahh as far as you will not to go against the constitution of the state, as far as you will not be caught with some offences against the state, whether you are a Muslim or not the law is binding on you that is sharia for you.

ZA7 [13223-13708]

I don't want to completely say I agree with that that says that Islam needs an Islamic state to practice its religion. I think before Islam came into existence, the country first, which is Saudi Arabia, it came into is not an Islamic state. So and jihad was an instrument used in finally converting this people that were living in their ways of live and cultures into Islam. So I don't think it is necessary for ehm for us to have an Islamic state before we can practice our religion.

ZA8 [26609-29022]

I don't think it is necessary. They don't need jihad, like I said, is just calling people to do good. They don't need to force anybody to do anything and Muslims don't need, they need jihad because we are all humans no matter how right even the most righteous of human beings can commit an error. So that is why the prophet says, even during the time of the prophet, after his death, the people that succeeded him, they are the most closest to him and they are the most knowledgeable of all people, but when they want to rule, they will tell their followers that look this is what God says, this is what God says that they should not think that they are above error that they are also humans and whenever they see them, for instance, I commit an error or I commit a mistake, do not hesitate to correct me even though am a leader. This is how they rule during that time not now that people will be afraid to tell their leader that look you are committing a mistake, this is what God says. During that time, when a leader, a Muslim is the leader of the Muslims, when he goes astray, the followers will call him that look you are, because they are doing it for the sake of God not for his own sake. They are doing it for his sake, for their own sake and for the sake of God because when, these are the foremost followers of Islam. If anything they do at that time and nobody corrects them, everybody will follow it, are you getting what am trying to say? Because when you see the most knowledgeable person that knows, you are sure that this person knows religion more than anybody, you know, you will try to copy whatever it is because this is what the religion says. So with those during those time they tell their followers, if you see me moving away from what God says, call my attention because am also human I can commit mistake and am prone to error. Call my attention because whatever I do, if you do not correct me, people will do it and one thing in Islam is, when you start a good thing or you teach somebody a good thing and that person continues doing that good thing, whatever reward he gets, you will get double of it because you are the one that call him to do that. So that is what I believe. So they don't need that creating a jihad state or whatsoever within the state that they are, they can still worship their God, do their jihad, call, enjoin people because everybody has freedom of religion.

ZA9 [14578-15427]

I still don't believe in it though am from northern Nigeria, norht central, but I think this, they are, our position in north central is as a result of geographical representation in this country because I believe we should belong to the West because we practice western cultures and from a very core place in Yoruba, in Kwara state in Yoruba land, plainly Yoruba land and we practice our own Islam, we practice our own religion according to the teaching of the prophet. I was surprised when I came over here and discovered the way this Muslims, this Hausa Muslims, most of them even, they even segregate like they differentiate between a Hausa Muslim and a Yoruba Muslim and even in little case, if there are some Igbo Muslims, they believe Yoruba Muslim are not true Muslim, they believe they are the only ones that practice this religion best.

ZA10 [16125-16804]

Actually northern Muslims are, okay if I get you right you said northern Muslims require an Islamic state to practice their religion and jihad is necessary to create this Islamic state. Okay, yes it's actually true because, like I have said earlier, Islam came to Nigeria through the north, northern part. So practicing sharia in any of the states, any of the northern Muslim states is not wrong and it will actually help them a lot, it will make them to be exposed more to their religion, to know what their religion is because those predecessors, those that actually brought Islam are no more. It is only the scripture and some teachings of the Ulama that are left behind so.

ZA11 [12941-13245]

By mentioning jihad, are you referring to fight or violence? Jihad is not all about violence; we don't need violence to actually establish an Islamic state. So the jihad here we talking about, is having come close to God and having the real concept of the sharia, the morals and other Islamic practices.

ZA12 [7673-7855]

Jihad is not necessary to create Islamic state, even during the time of the prophet, there are non-Muslims and they lived together. So if we can follow that path, I think it is ok.

ZA13 [7722-7944]

Ahh even back then when you look at after the colonial rules when Sardauna took part on this, there were, Sardauna was a Muslim and there were also some non-Muslims with him which he carried along. So I believe with this.

ZA14 [7410-7607]

Jihad is not necessary for them to create an Islamic state, you understand, and even though they want to create an Islamic state you can do it within your jurisdiction without even forcing others.

ZA15 [13670-13846]

Northern Muslims actually yes, but jihad, what kind of jihad? I still emphasize, through fighting? No. It should be done through peaceful means to acquire their Islamic state.

ZA16 [7701-7714]

I disagree.

ZA18 [11234-11590]

No. I don't agree with this. For instance, now you see there are fundamentals, there are pillars, Islamic religion has pillars isn't it, the fundamentals we are practicalizing them, I think you understand, nobody stop us, so even on this dot believe me you, you continue to practicalize your religion and you will live well and die in peace not in pieces.

ZA19 [14132-14501]

The statement is not quite true because I am a bonafide of northern part of the country, I grew up there and I am still living there. Well actually none, I repeat none of the northern citizens, I mean North Eastern Nigeria that ever requested, either in the media or any form that he need an Islamic state. So it's just the affairs of some small cycle of individuals.

ZA20 [7946-8251]

My opinion I have to be very objective you know, Islamic state, see I have said it earlier, Islamic state, any community, any area that people come together and conduct a life style. Life in accordance with sharia then they are living in a state of their own Islamic way of life and it has no limitation.

ZA21 [11030-11648]

I say no because here in Nigeria we said Nigeria is a secular state, conglomeration of Christians, Muslims, Pagans and people like this. So it is not necessary for people to say ok everybody must come to their religion. in northern Nigeria we can practice our religion and that anybody who says he is a Muslim yes he is welcomed he should be part of the sharia. If you so said that I am not a Muslim anymore you are free to do that in Nigeria and in northern Nigeria in particular. So for somebody to say one must be part of Islam or must go with the dictates of sharia then that person is amm I don't think is fair.

ZA22 [10216-10558]

Yes I you know I agree with that, but it is step wise. It should-we have to follow it gradually. The state will come but let us continue to propagate the religion to the best of your ability, continue to practice it, put Islam in ourselves, let people see Islam reflect in our living and the rest then the Islamic state will come with time.

ZA23 [14788-15144]

To my understanding everywhere you find yourself you are in an Islamic state so you can practice your religion. It is said in the holy Qur'an that the whole world belongs to Allah. If you live in an area where you will not be allowed to practice your religion, migrate, leave that area. Go to where you will be allowed. Allah says (he recites the Qur'an).

ZA24 [18568-19171]

It is not, it is not necessary. We are practicing our religion, we just finished maghrib prayer nobody came to harass us that we-if you go to other parts of the country – in fact I could remember during that Ramadan in China they were forced to break their fasting, if something come to that extent we can now say that true jihad is necessary so that we can have our own freedom. But in Nigeria everybody is free to practice his own religion. Therefore it is not necessary to introduce forceful jihad in order to practice Islam. We are practicing our religion, everybody is practicing their religion.

ZA25 [16869-17398]

Yes, as I have said the western powers, global powers, have eh stylishly imposed their manmade political system-democracy, on the Muslims and hence the political especially the political system of Islam is being undermined. They have just stylishly limited the scope of Islam to just going to mosque, fasting Ramadan and the rest while the main the all important political system has been undermined. But as I still maintain, it is a necessity, but we have to start from serious acquisition of knowledge and exemplary practice.

ZA26 [8121-8294]

No it is a wrong notion. You can achieve your goal peacefully and logically. When America wanted to attack Libya they justified it using media and they killed their leader.

ZA27 [6684-7232]

Actually I don't know this issue of jihad and Islamic state this are two things that people are conflicting. Jihad is just part of Islam. So when we talk about Islam, jihad is part of Islam. So the issue of jihad, jihad I don't really know the direction they are talking about. Are you talking about the so called jihad people are propagating now or the real jihad that Islam is talking about. Because all this issue of jihad, jihad the western people are commenting all over the world is not what really is in the context of religion of Islam.

ZA28 [17272-18059]

well emmm as we are here northern Nigeria, we practice optimally, we are trying. We are really trying and nobody would, I don't think far north here, nobody would come and tell you why are you performing ablution, why do you want to pray, why do you want to do this, why do you want to go to islamiyya school, why you know. There are certain things that occur previously, previously years back, when people were praying, come into them and like that is before Islam really stand on his feet so things like this happened, but now that we are, now that Islam has its own stand from years back so I think we are here, northern states, at least we have freedom. I don't know have never been to other parts of the country deeply, but I guess we are free to practice religion optimally here.

ZA29 [24506-25187]

That is very wrong and a very big fat lie; a very wrong and a very big fat lie. Anybody that has this belief or say such a thing he only said it to blackmail and tarnish the image of the northerners which are always, always humble and hospital, hospitality rather, welcoming. So you saying that northerners are saying that the only way to live peacefully is to create an Islamic state, no it is very wrong. Northerners have never in any way-but there was once an Islamic state that was about to be built which some Islamic objections were being observed there, but yet Christians lived there and they comment well that the only place to live is in such state, is in those states.

ZA30 [36733-37051]

I already stated this one earlier. Refer back to those questions, last questions that I answered you. That is, through good character and preaching, you can win the heart not even the ordinary Nigerian, even win the heart of the whole continent, the whole world through good character not only when you carry weapons.

ZA31 [11312-11496]

What I said, there is no religion that impose or force you to practice, to practice or to force someone to convert to another religion. So I didn't see necessary, it is not necessary.

ZA32 [29040-30292]

It is not necessarily for Muslims to make a what, to make an, to make an Islamic state in northern Nigeria. You as a Muslim, you can watch, you can practice a religion once you are God fearing, you are God fearing Muslim, you have the right, which is expected to every, every, to be found in every Muslim, so you can practice your religion and in terms of judgment, like the judgment when someone has committed adultery or fornication, those judgments even Islam led a strictness before someone can be justified as a one that committed adultery or fornication. Before he can be justified, so this Islam itself put a strictness there to what, to prevent the dignity and the humanity of Muslims to defend, to prevent the chastity of Muslims, that is why Islam disagree with what, two (2) witness are not enough, two (2) things are enough in the issue of business, marriage and other things, but in the issue of fornication or adultery two (2) witnesses are not enough and the prophet (SAW) said that you should avoid, you should remove the what, the punishment of the had even through shubaha something that is contemplated, if there is any contemplation, just use that opportunity to remove the had and this indicate that Islam discourage, discourage...

ZA35 [8701-9632]

Well, why some are saying the northerners need an Islamic state to practice their own religion and jihad is necessary is this, you see, mostly the Hausas they would say they don't like the men, the guys, the boys and the ladies to mix together, even in some primary schools, if you go to their classes you discover that boys seat separately and the girls sit separately because they believe mixing together is un-Islamic, so they want to have an Islamic state so that they would be able to practice jihad, so that men, like formally in Zamfara state, I heard that there is taxi drivers for female. If you are a female, you want to use a taxi, the taxi driver that would pick you up would be woman and the men would go for the men driver even the same thing in the Hospital, if you go to hospital a female doctor would attend to females, while the male doctors would attend to the males, I think that is what they want to practice.

ZA36 [14052-14522]

That is not necessary. People are just saying what they feel like. The most important jihad is to fight one's self, if you fight one's self you are able to do what is right and you are able to stop what is wrong. That is the most important thing. Why should you want the implementation of Jihad when you, you don't fight yourself? Even after the jihad you would still go back to your wrong doing and be doing it, but the most important thing is to fight yourself first.

ZA37 [14393-14834]

Yes of course, I have already mentioned it, but what can of jihad? Is it jihad using weapons or jihad by creating awareness? So creation of awareness is necessary and it can what, lead to the creation of Islamic state, of course yes because if one can understand that all these states are what, trying to bring law and order to the society. So if they can understand that this Islamic sharia is the best way of creating this, then why not?

ZA37 [15195-15565]

It should be through the Jihad of creating awareness because creating of awareness is necessary and it could lead to the creation of Islamic state of course yes. Because if one can understand the Importance all this steps are trying to bring law and order to the society so if they can understand that this Islamic sharia is the best way of creating this then why not.

ZA38 [21002-21598]

Actually yah, since our inception of democracy in 1999, a year later, the governor of Zamfara state, Alhaji Ahmed Yariman Bakura woke up one morning and felt that sharia should be the guiding principles of Zamfara state because the Nigeria constitution has given the right to freedom of religion, but the major challenge is he it started from Zamfara state, it spread to almost 15 northern states. But the sharia lack the test of time that is why most of us look at it more of a political sharia than an original sharia. That is why I never agree at it, anything better would come out of it,

ZA39 [30593-31241]

Actually when you said that you need people, are you talking about the religion of the northern Muslims in Nigeria? If you are talking about the northern Muslim in Nigeria, actually that is not true because every person who lives in this northern area or who knows northern Nigeria, northern Nigeria comprises so many kinds of people both the Muslims and non-Muslims and they interact with one another, they conduct business, they even intermarry with one another. So saying that a person, a Muslim needs, a pure Muslim to live, they need a territory to live as Muslims before they practice their sharia, that is not the position. It is not true.

Th7.14: Jihad as a Political Tool and the Conduct of Jihad.

FG1 [28448-28497]

I disagree with this. It is not a political tool

FG1 [28499-29015]

I may say jihad is a political tool. For me to some extent I may say so because look at the present northern Nigeria most of the highly religious scholars we have from different sects now are conniving with the authorities in the outgoing government (GEJ government), most of them have connived with the outgoing government. And most of them do not even preach the evil deeds of the past government. Instead they use religious inclination to manipulate our thinking. We have this kind of cases with several of them.

FG1 [29253-30316]

Just see, it was past year, I think last year, the outgoing president, the former president of Nigeria invited a highly religious scholars to his palace. So when these scholars were back to their residences majority of them were posed with questions from their followers that why are you there? I heard this comment made by Sheikh Dahiru Bauchi. I am one of his loyalists. But when I heard the comment, I was not happy when I saw him with the president, but when I heard his comment he was saying that he invited us to eat and I was there to eat. There was one scholar again from Kaduna he is not part of Sheikh Dahari Usman Bauchi's side but he was also representing his own side. They were all there, he too was asked the same question why was he there but he somehow used religious inclination to manipulate the thinking of his followers that no there might be a good Christian leader when he is doing so and so, it is not necessary for us to have a good Muslim leader because..he just manipulate the things but he did not really say what took them there.

FG3 [43325-43925]

Yes I want to say something about it. You see political tool in the essence that you see is still another misconception. That specifically if I will look at the question and look at the context of Nigeria today, that once you say a jihad has been used as a political tool my mind will now go straight to Boko haram who are declaring themselves to be Muslims and jihadists. Who currently even the government itself is believing that some people are even involved or should I say partially the government is involved or not I don't know but let's say 50-50. And then in the right context, sir can you...

FG3 [43963-44541]

We said it before I think he explained something about jihad in terms of its usage and time and he also said something about jihad in terms of its usage and time. But the other aspect of the jihad that is used as a political tool just as I have said before we are looking at the aspect of the Boko haram which is wrong, actually jihad there is used as a political tool to create misconception and chaos and misunderstanding and being another different name for Islam that, a nasty meaning to Islam.

FG3 [44543-46117]

I really strongly agree with him with the following example I am going to lay down. The jihad that is currently going on in Nigeria that is going on in the north east, it has been created. Right from the beginning the former governor of Borno state – Ali Madu Shariff created this Yusufiyya for the purpose of winning his election. He called this Huji Mustapha, Muhammad Yusuf, he sat down with them, he said he want them to support him so that he defeats Mallah Kachala then, it was before 1999 – 2003, it is around that time. So he sat down with them, he said he needs their support and when he wins the election he will allow them to do sharia in Borno state. They put it in form of agreement, he agreed they agreed, they supported him and he won the election. After the election he called that Huji Mustapha and gave him the commissioner of Sharia. After giving he that, they gave him some three obligatory things that they want him to do but he didn't sign any of the three. That is what made Huji Mustapha during a security meeting he tore his own certificate and said Boko is haram. That is the beginning so they just took themselves out of his government and so they started fighting each other. So you see it was created and politically used. So even when they were asking Jonathan to go over and crush Boko haram, he said the want to use religion because almost all northerners their votes will go to a particular person. So they just want to use, maybe when the chaos continues so elections will not happen in those areas. So they used jihad as a political tool.

KD1 [31278-31981]

When should jihad be conducted is when it is summoned by the supreme Islamic leadership and that is when it is sorted, so whether, if we, the point of allowing political rulers or leaders cajoling and maneuvering the jihad concept is actually when you become feeble, when you become susceptible to their lies. When you actually know what you are doing, you know your onions, you don't get, you don't fall for that and that's just the bottom line. You don't fall for it because you are well exposed and you understand their antics and their tricks and that actually most times when it comes to election period is actually when they get what they want, you don't see them again until the next four years.

KD2 [12237-12329]

To me, jihad should be conducted at a point when the doctrines of Islam are being breached.

KD3 [9891-9988]

Jihad is not necessary in northern Nigeria because already Islam is there and we are practicing.

KD4 [17050-18076]

Well! My brother I will tell you that jihad, as you said, is a political tool in the northern Nigeria. I will tell you that you are been biased here, if you say it is only used in northern Nigeria. Just as Christianity in the southern part of Nigeria they use it as a tool in order to portray some ideology or political means such as other insincere Muslims are using jihad to portray their interest, politically to achieve some interest. Well, if you asked me when is jihad needs to be conducted? Wow! That is a very tough question which when you are looking at, anytime jihad is to be conducted. I think I will tell that every time you have to conduct jihad just as I told you jihadin nafs is necessary anytime, anytime we have to be fearful to God, anytime we have to know that you are guided by rules and regulations, you have to act according to the scripture of you creator and that is jihad to you. So I will tell you that anytime, anywhere you find yourself, you have to know that yes you are on the course of jihad.

KD5 [9713-10011]

Yes! I think jihad has been used as a political tool in one of these days due to the lack of understanding between the Muslims and the non-Muslims. So, using that lack of understanding between the Muslims and non-Muslims and the political class used that as an opportunity to divide and rule. Yes.

KD6 [21933-22138]

I don't understand the context of the jihad that they are saying about. Islam is political whether we like it or not. Without, Islam is politics, politics is Islam. So, I don't know what they mean by that

KD7 [14856-15163]

Jihad should be conducted when the Muslims are being persecuted, they are not allowed to practice their religion, Muslims are not allowed to go to mosque; they are not allowed their own right in anything. Then, that is when jihad, that is the jihad of talking up arms to be able to practice their religion.

KD8 [29605-30160]

Well, some are politicizing the jihad, you understand, they are politicizing it, but I don't even see any jihadist movement in northern Nigeria because there is no any attempt, the kind of jihad that is being interpreted by the West, I don't see it, that is killing people in order to establish Islamic state. I don't see that going on in northern Nigeria. So, there is no any politicization of jihad because I don't see any group using jihad as a means of establishing a government. I don't see anyone, but it's like I have not answered the question or?

KD8 [30232-30640]

Jihad should be conducted at the time, when Muslims are denied praying, they are denied practicing their religion, they are denied access to what is due to them. What the constitution has given them, you understand, what is their own, they are deprived from praying, they are deprived from going to hajj, they are deprived from practicing their own religion, at that time jihad is necessary, the other jihad.

KD8 [30678-31733]

No. When they denied there is something they can do. Well of course the peaceful one whereby they vote, they do all those kind of things. But if you are denied, somebody say you should not pray, you should not, there is nothing you can do other than react, yes, you have to retaliate because what is going on, look at, it is only when it is seen from the Islamic perspective that is seen as a crime. What America is doing is war. It is only because it is not called jihad. If it were Muslims that are doing it, they will say that they are doing it in the name of jihad, you understand, they are doing straight, they are terrorism, they are killing people, they will just go to Iraq, they go to, they sponsor all this kind of things, it is because they are not Muslims that is why it is not called jihad. If they were Muslims that are doing it, they will say that they are doing jihad. In fact, they will not call it, they will try to link it to the Islamic concept so that Muslims will be seen to be, you know, people that they are doing a very bad thing.

KD9 [19440-19993]

I don't agree that jihad is now a tool in northern Nigeria. It is conflicts that we have in northern Nigeria today. Jihad is in fact am not qualified to analyze jihad, am just giving a lay man's view. I keep saying that. So Ulama's will really tell you what jihad is truly is, but of course for even a lay man we know that what is happening in northern Nigeria today, the conflict, just conflict, they are conflicts, definitely not jihad, simply not jihad because if you look at it most of the times it is even the Muslim that are the major casualties.

KD10 [13843-13992]

Jihad must be conducted when the conditions are fulfilled, when conditions, the Shurud of jihad are fulfilled that is when the jihad must be fought.

KD11 [18437-18838]

As I have said ah jihad is an integral part of Muslim, a Muslim that doesn't conduct jihad is not a Muslim. Sorry I wouldn't say he is not a Muslim in that sense. What am saying is, he is generally weak in his faith. Whatever you do I mean to strive in the cause of the religion, to propagate the religion is jihad. And anything you do in damping the image of the religion is direct opposite of jihad

KD12 [21387-21705]

We conduct jihad every day. Jihad is also a religious contest, is what we can say is like a jihad in a motor where we have engine, we have everything that, tyre everything is there, but the jihad moves it on that is the practicalization of the principles of Islam is what we call jihad. So it has to be done every day.

KD13 [7136-7444]

Jihad first and foremost in the political aspect of it should be removed, you understand because you can't politicize whatever belongs to Islam and the tools to be used here, like I said earlier on, should be creating awareness of what the teachings of the Qur'an is sincerely saying in spirit and in truth.

KD14 [9078-9124]

I don't think jihad should to be conducted.

KD15 [12971-13521]

Ah for a Muslim or in a Muslim state, jihad should be among your day to day activities, it is your responsibility. As I said earlier on, jihad mustn't be by weapon you see jihad, by doing good deed is also a jihad. So in a Muslim state or a state where they obey God and his prophet I think automatically they are fighting for jihad. So it mustn't be through weapon or through any violence. So jihad simply means peace, let's just say it means peace too because if you can be a good person, doing good deed I think you are also fighting for jihad.

KD16 [7254-7271]

Please go ahead

KD17 [23162-24232]

Jihad that is raising of arms against people. You are not allowed to raise up arms except when you are pushed to the wall. You are not, just as I said, politicians now maybe during the time of election, they tell you ok vote for a Muslim, vote for a Muslim. The Christians too goes to church and say vote for a Christian. Whereas when, ok go to the senate, go to house or representatives, how many Muslims represent the true tenet of Islam? How many of them? But when they come back home, they use religion, they use religion to push their political ambition, they say that you have to fight jihad, you have to put Muslim there, jihad, jihad, you understand, making people, buying guns, making people to raise up arms against the non-Muslims. As I said, the way it is now, the jihad you are saying you are, is very, very political as far as am concerned. It is just for political purpose, just to drag their political ambition, just to get their political ambition. That is why they are saying jihad. No true jihad is being practiced in Nigeria as far as am concerned.

KD18 [12166-12601]

Yes jihad has become the political tools in the sense that even though when you are in government parastatal, the money you gain or the money you get through the government you can use that money to build houses for the needy. You can use you, can use the money to construct roads and bridges so that the rate of accidents is going to be reduced is part of jihad and jihad can as well be conducted at any place any moment at any time.

KD19 [15386-15633]

Well, jihad should be conducted at all times whether at peace time or in times of war. That's my belief and jihad should not be a political tool because if we allow the politicians to hijack jihad, there will be problem and crisis in the country.

KD20 [11362-11454]

I think jihad can be conducted at any place, at any given time and at any opportunity, yes.

KD21 [9928-10018]

I think jihad should be should be conducted only and only if it is for the sake of Allah.

KD23 [10199-10607]

Well ah jihad is a political tool in northern Nigerian ah Islam rather than a religious activity when necessary in the right context. When should jihad be conducted? So that is the comment so jihad should be conducted in the time that people totally disbelieve the teachings of the Qur'an the teachings of the holy prophet, they totally or massively take any other aspect of religion or something like that.

KD24 [40364-40731]

Anytime if a Muslims are not allowed to practice their religion the way it is supposed to be, then they are allowed to go for jihad in Islam, but if they are allowed to practice their religion the way it is, no anything like jihad only that they should go to school, they should go to market, they should do, follow the way human beings use to live in the community.

KD24 [41032-41156]

Actually ah based on this, we just heard rumours we don't have facts that we can testify, so I can't say anything about that

KD25 [52130-52974]

Jihad should be conducted when, when the Muslims are denied their rights or even to perform their acts of worship. If it reaches or it gets to that stage then the Muslims should not just fold up their arms. They have to stand up to protect them, but in as much as we are living now, there is nobody that stops us from practicing our religion, so we continue and then we continue preaching and we are worshipping Allah and preaching. But where they said no, the Muslims should not even go to the mosque to pray, then that one will not, that is what will, one of the things that will bring jihad that, you know all of us will come out in mass we don't care whether we will die or live. But where we are not stopped from practicing our religion then we will practice our religion and we will leave others to practice their own forms of practices.

KD26 [13347-13789]

I think yes it is, there should be a specific time for you to carry out jihad that is if it doesn't influence, if it doesn't have any ahm how will I put it? Ahm any okay ulterior motive because most of the jihad that is happening in this country, hmm there is ulterior motive. It is not being, it is not for the sake of Allah, its down for the sake of somebody, so I think when it should be conducted it is when it is for the sake of Allah.

KD27 [12786-14945]

Jihad, I don't think it is eh, jihad is a goal, it is not a process, it is a goal that we want to reach. Now the perfect, perfect situation in such a way that what you have in place is a system that encompasses all Nigerian, a system that does not oppress any Nigerian based on ethnic or religious beliefs. There is no compulsion in religion. Now even at the time of the prophet (SAW) there were Jews and Christians living within the Muslim Caliphate then and the prophet never oppressed them on the basis of their religion. Now I think this is where we are getting it wrong. We feel that everybody must be a Muslim. If Allah had wanted everybody to be a Muslim he would have created us all Muslims. There has to be that enlightenment that we have to live with each other because Allah has created Nigeria so. We have to live with each other, we Muslims must adhere to our own teachings based on the Qur'anic and Sunna injunctions, and we Muslims must relate to our neighbors who are non-Muslims based on those injunctions taking into consideration the fact that earlier Muslims lived, in fact if I remember correctly the first hijra was to a Christian land. And it was ordered by the prophet (SAW) and the Muslims lived in Abyssinia until-for over 10 years, they lived in Abyssinia, the first group of immigrants. Now if it had been wrong for them to have lived such a society the prophet could not have instructed them to live there in the first place. So why are we, you know, why do we shun history? Why do we shun history? History –you know those who neglect history, who neglect the past don't repeat it. Now this is the problem that we have today. We had a peaceful relationship with our neighbors here in Nigeria, in northern Nigeria. There was a time that a Muslim will swear by Allah and a non-Muslim will say ah he has sworn by Allah ah ok, that means he is going to do it. But today a Muslim swears by Allah even to his own fellow Muslim he breaks the promise. So where is jihad supposed to start now? Start with yourself. When amana is given to you, make sure you deliver it. Once you make a promise, make sure you keep it. Things like that.

KD28 [18300-18924]

You know like what I have been saying, if we understand what is meant by the term jihad then we will be able to appreciate, to know when to fight jihad and how to make it because the understanding of jihad in many people, it varies in many ways in the sense that as I have been saying you have the self jihad and there is external jihad which you are to protect yourself from any intruders or any ah from your enemies, is a form of jihad because as a religion, as Islam is, the jihad in Islam is how do you do to propagate the Islam, how do you do to make the people to understand and have the belief on what you are doing.

KD29 [10619-10975]

Well ah to be, on all honesty, the politicians have decided to use, to misuse the issue of jihad for their political gainful purposes. If we will be able to identify jihad in true context and ah remove it from the political ah perspective or political intensions, to drive political goals, I think we will go a long way in achieving, we will be somewhere.

KD30 [19109-19579]

Ah for forceful jihad, carrying ammunition can only be legal under an Islamic state, not even a cleric has the right to call on for Islamic jihad. So I think ah looking at Nigeria presently there is no way we can even eh eh we can, we can conduct an Islamic jihad, a proper Islamic jihad where we will be need to carry ammunition unless if it is to protect ourselves. So you see when we don't have an Islamic state, then it is impossible to have a proper Islamic jihad.

KD31 [12185-12356]

Like I said jihad should be conducted you know when the need arises that is when ah there is it is obvious that people are trying to deviate from their almighty creator.

KD33 [13495-13850]

I don't think in Nigeria or in northern Nigeria that eh jihad should be conducted because we are living in a mixed environment and the people we are living with them, they are the non-Muslims, they are also the indigenes of this northern Nigeria. So, I don't think jihad is necessary to remove them or to create an Islamic state in the northern Nigeria.

KD34 [13456-13959]

Toh, as I said earlier again and again and again and again, the word jihad in the way this question comes up is talking about jihad of fighting against non-Muslims. I don't think there is a time that we will say it is the right time to just start striving against the people that we are living with or against our neighbors. The right jihad that we should do is that by doing the right thing, trying to advertise our religion by doing good deeds, telling them what is in our religion not scaring them.

KD35 [14830-15303]

True Muslim, a good Muslim always go on with his normal life with the word jihad, is to my understanding, the politicians use the word jihad in order to gain their political ambitions that is why they connive and give some imams little amount of money to preach nonsense, but the moment people are acknowledgeable about their religion, they know about the rules and regulations of Islam, I think the bad politicians would not will not have access to this cause of trouble.

KN1 [35928-36714]

Yes I agree that some of the times politicians to achieve their aims are creating divided and rule, instigating their own and this is not restricted to the Muslims or the Christians, almost everywhere in Nigeria this is achieved, if somebody wants to achieve an aim probably that person may even be a cultist, he will claim that something is done to him because he is a Christian or a Muslim, we all know this. It has been happening. So I agree with the statement. And now that is why am saying probably there is need to ...there was a jihad in northern Nigeria by Sheikh Usman Danfodio and I give you reference to one of his books and I think I will even provide you that by his younger brother Tanzil waraqat I think you need to have that one so by God's grace I will give you a copy.

KN1 [36745-36966]

and equally the other one, it is in Arabic that is the challenging issue but this one is translated but the other one is in Arabic....if you have somebody that can translate it to you by God's grace I will give it to you?

KN2 [20548-20679]

Yes I will agree with him if I take consideration of the process most of these jihadists are following. Yes I will agree with him.

KN4 [30655-32121]

Jihad is now a political-media use jihad. People don't understand the religion. People don't understand even themselves. They lack the knowledge of their ah system so they can say as much as ah as much as they can say when it comes to religion, when it comes to power, people can say as much as they can say. They can use it as a political tool to gain a right, to gain the consent of the people and jihad cannot be used according to the definition of those that don't understand the meaning of jihad. Jihad is always being used if you are a good Muslim you cannot escape from being a philanthropist. Being a philanthropist is jihad. You can have a very good moral, very good conduct, very good attitude like Mandela, like Julius Nyerere, you can be anything, you can become anything in the world but only in Nigeria that no matter how good you are, religion can determine your fate, being against the corruption you can say you are extremist you are trying to convert and change the country and makes people to follow your religion, being a Christian people can say that you are a strict person you are from deeper life you are from the redeemed you want a change is the mentality of the leadership and the kind of the campaign that people are being use, but you cannot use jihad in any context when you are looking for vote or when you want to establish have a government jihad is part of us is part of our moral, is the morality of the people not taking of arms.

KN5 [14025-14060]

When the conditions are fulfilled

KN6 [13622-14130]

Even now we are doing this jihad, we are doing this jihad because it depends to your ability, so what-I don't know why people don't understand the meaning of jihad. It is not-it does not-what this jihad it does not mean to take this ammunition, for example, Sheikh Ja'afar he is mujahid, so when you are a good preacher and you are displaying your moral character you are among the jihadist and even to propagate Islamic-even to build a primary school or secondary school or Islamic school is part of jihad.

KN7 [14264-14700]

Well ehm, I don't think jihad ehm, should ehm be seen as something that ehm, something that is, let me say, independent on its own because as we have said earlier on that ehm jihad, jihad is important and ehm closely mandatory on every Muslim. So, ehm you should, jihad is something that is continuous, it is a continuous activity, so we can carry out jihad, I don't think there is a specific time that yes jihad should be carried out.

KN8 [11677-12272]

I think it depends- in accordance to the word of Abubakar (rajiyyalahu anun) Abubakar (rajiyyalahu anun) is one of the khalifa, rightly khalifa of the holy prophet (SAW) he said when people are deviating from the tenets of Islam, and the willingness of the Qur'an, in that stage jihad could be put in place, but majority of our people are embarking on jihad in a contemporary society in other to have fame, you understand, or having one or two economic benefits, or so as to people to embrace them that they are doing something good where that is not the primary reason for embarking on jihad.

KN9 [12532-12897]

Well, jihad has to be conducted as the last resort whenever the religion of Allah is threatened, whenever the Muslims feel that the they are threatened, their hindered from practicing their religion. So I think the present day northern Nigeria is ok as it is. If only the Muslims can explore the opportunities they have and practice their religion to the fullest.

KN10 [9951-10096]

Jihad will only be conducted when Muslims or Islam is in difficulties, but that is the only way when jihad is needed if such conditions arise.

KN11 [14315-14805]

Jihad should be conducted, there are some steps before jihad would take place. There are some seven stages you must ah you must be faithful in your-first of all Tauhid. Tauhid is the first tool before taking any jihad. We must, first of all people must live in the unity of God in the first place because some people are worshipping evil spirits, some people are worshipping men, some people e areven worshipping prophets. So there are some seven stages before jihad would be taken place.

KN13 [14276-14946]

Hmm, jihad should be conducted at the time when there is serious decay in the society whereby people are not in line with moral tradition like right now we are in the era of postmodernism whereby you see people don't actually follow the moral tradition of Islam. You can see many of our ladies now wearing trousers, some don't normally cover their hair, some fix nails; series of things, even among the guys, there are a lot of things that you see someone going to pray with a very short, so definitely this, because of the influence of westernization on our culture and religion, it has actually affected the society and definitely it has affected the religion itself.

KN14 [11294-11614]

That is when to be said or when the ulama respected ulama, not ah ahhhhhh the so called ulama, when they say that this is the time of jihad because of the so so so reason and they must, the reasons that will be accepted from them must be in conformity to the Koran, Sunna and the ah ah consensus of the ah, our Sahaba.

KN15 [12575-12652]

I think I cannot precisely give you the time that jihad should be conducted.

KN16 [6384-6402]

When needs arise.

KN17 [14609-14831]

When there is ah series of insanity in the society when there are issues of they have problems a lot of problems that they have they are not practicing the moral standards of Islam again, that's when jihad should come up.

KN18 [23084-23678]

Jihad could be conducted in all circumstance and in all times. What we are saying it's a way of life correcting, correcting things that are going wrong is a jihad, removing a stone from a road is a jihad, okay, preventing the occurrence of a crime is a jihad, preventing an accident from occurring you know that certain things could cause accident in a road, on a roas and you make sure that that thing maybe it is a pothole and you make sure that that pot, is just a normal jihad, so eh eh from that context is ah normal ah jihad must not be defined, I mean from any other political dimension.

KN18 [23908-25211]

Well, jihad in this 21st century I think, I think is a complex concept a complex and ah difficult ah difficult ah concept, because look at what is happening in Iraq, look at what is happening in northern Nigeria, look at what is happening, so it is seen some it is seen in in some countries like Egypt those brotherhood that are politically seeking for a more political mandate are now referred to as a jihad group-terrorists, and these jihad if you say jihadist if you say jihadist the true meaning that will come to each and every one of us is terrorist. Therefore, if you now said ah terrorist opponents and political descendants are called, are called jihadist or terrorist. In Syria, opposition to Assad rule were seen as a terrorists, in Russia where they don't even have and this Ukraine, Ukrainian crises where they don't have these religious fanatics you don't have it but they still call those opponents, those opponents as those ah rebel groups they call them terrorists, they still call them terrorist. The Ukrainian government call them terrorists, so what we are saying the entire concept of jihad and terrorism is politicised. U.S. is the founding, founding and the most militating problem around the definition or the context ah concept of ah jihadism and the jihadist and these enemies.

KN19 [16300-16372]

Jihad could be conducted when people are deviating from the will of God.

KN20 [8358-8580]

I think jihad as in carrying arms, it should be the last resort after consulting I mean after consulting with eh eh eh the stake holders, trying to make peace then the carrying arm part of jihad should be the last resort.

KN21 [6014-6136]

Jihad should be conducted at all times, but when it has to do with physical fighting, then it must be at the last resort.

KN22 [11577-11645]

Jihad, as I said earlier, jihad should be the last resort in Islam.

KN23 [9038-9098]

I can't really say but when the right time for jihad comes

KN23 [9160-9263]

When we have a good Islamic awareness, good people, good preachers and people that are right thinking

KN24 [10112-10193]

Jihad is supposed to be conducted when people of a certain area are non-Muslims.

KN25 [11350-11636]

Jihad should be conducted, as I have mentioned, as a last resort when the religion of Allah is threatened to its peak, when all the ethics and principles of Islam has been used then and when it is noticed that the religion could be eradicated completely then jihad could be conducted.

KN26 [11575-11609]

Well violent jihad never, never.

KN27 [11302-11384]

Jihad should be conducted only when it is necessary, only when it is necessary.

KN28 [9010-9193]

I believe jihad should be conducted as at any given time. There is no precise time which we can easily say this is the particular time to make jihad or so. Yah it should be anytime.

KN30 [10925-10980]

Never. Just teachings, we need more teachings of Islam

KN31 [13568-13812]

Jihad should be conducted as I said earlier when the non-believers or those who don't have a religion are trying to subdue the Muslims or when the Muslims find out that those who are non-Muslims are trying to violate the activities of Islam.

KN32 [5189-5248]

Ah Jihad should be actually conducted when it is necessary

KN33 [4640-4703]

Jihad should be conducted when the society is totally corrupt.

KN34 [6738-6766]

When the society is lawless

KN35 [8965-9409]

Access has been opened to everyone that jihad has been hijacked by the politicians to be part of their instruments meaning that religion has been politicized. So we need to take a very careful step in what we are doing in that case. Jihad can take a way of preaching and shaping someone's character towards their neighbor because the constitution gives everyone the right to live wherever he wants to live irrespective of his or her religion.

KN36 [8577-8865]

Jihad should be conducted, jihad can be a political tool, but jihad should be conducted in a mannerful way. Jihad should not be in violence, jihad should be conducted in right direction that people will get this tenet of Islam in simple way, in right way without any violence or crisis.

KN37 [7428-7813]

Jihad just as I have said they are of different types, but I think from my understanding you are trying to talk about that of war.

When you say that of war it can only be possible when you have a complete Islamic state and you have non-Christians, non-Muslims, trying to come into it and of kind of take away your glory. I think that will be the proper time for you to go into jihad.

KN38 [5068-5127]

Every time, starting with your own self from your heart

KN39 [7697-8106]

The time when jihad is supposed to be conducted is in a time whereby those Muslims, for example, they are economically powerful and those that are in need of coming into the religion also they have the interest of doing so. But even Islam does not teach Muslims to invite others into the Islam itself through force. Islam has taught Muslims to invite non-Muslims through peaceful and non-forceful procedures.

KN40 [10619-10639]

No idea about that.

KN41 [6934-7041]

I think jihad should be conducted at anytime because fear of God should always be within you at all times.

KN42 [11188-11963]

Jihad is part of our everyday life. There is no specific day; there is no specific place where jihad should be conducted. To be a good Islam, to be a good Muslim and Muslima we all should, jihad should be something that is fused in our everyday life. It is not something we should do or something we are required, it is not something we should be told to do. It is something that we are required to do, out of being kind, out of being, of preaching to our neighbors what is right and what is not right, how to spread Islam for people that are ignorant, out of changing even the way people see Islam are all part of jihad. There is no specific time or place you are supposed to practice jihad. Jihad is supposed to be practiced from the day we are born up till the day we die.

KN43 [13883-14179]

So if you say jihad is a political tool in northern Nigeria, what do you mean by political tool? Are Muslims using jihad to get power? Are Muslim using jihad to make money? Are Muslim using jihad to establish a kind of political links? I don't know what you mean by this ah, ah political tool.

KN44 [9018-9079]

I don't think jihad is a political ah where is the question

KN44 [9105-9548]

No, I don't really agree with that. I don't really agree with that, that jihad is now a political tool in northern Nigeria. I don't really agree with that and like I said, we shouldn't only narrow the concept of jihad to only fighting because the jihad in the real sense, jihad means striving in the cause of Allah. So there are so many ways you can engage yourself in jihad not, like I said, necessarily waging a fight or war against others.

KN45 [10024-10386]

Ahh, I don't foresee any time that jihad should be conducted in northern Nigeria and I don't agree on this opinion at all, yes. As I said earlier, there is no need of it if it is for the sake of Islam, but if it is for the sake of politics then we pray to God to protect us from the evil of the politicians who wants to use the religion to destroy the country.

KN46 [15999-18518]

Just like I said jihad should be a lifetime process because I do not understand jihad in that narrow context, narrow ah ah am not narrowing the concept of jihad to engaging in military or ah violent activity. So to me, jihad is a lifetime ah process is a lifetime ah engagement you should always be, you should avail yourself all the time to engage in whatever activity that is pro, that is productive, that is useful to yourself and to your society. So if that is what jihad means then ah you cannot say that I would take a break for a day and say I would not do jihad today. But if it means the, the, the tiny or the narrow understanding people have about jihad then it is a totally different thing because you cannot engage in a military activity without having the reason to do that. For example, if you are attacked, of course you need to ah you need to defend yourself or if you think your rights are being infringed, then you have to do something to protect your rights and protecting your right takes a lot of forms so and that military activity may be that form. And one thing people fail to understand even military activity it is not an individual responsibility, it is a state responsibility. Military you cannot accept individual Muslim take arm against some people because you feel ah they, they, they deserve to be ah fought against, no, it is the responsibility of a state, of an Islamic state to wage a war against some people deemed to be enemy. It is not all non-Muslims are enemies. If an Islamic state after all considerations and enter into place and decides that certain state is an enemy, therefore, should be treated as such, then it is this Islamic state that decides how the rules of engagement should be, not individuals, not only a person in his mosque decides that my followers should engage, no, he is not a state on himself. that is why even the prophet (SAW) did not engage in any fighting while he was still in Mecca because in that society the prophet (SAW) did not establish a state, so military activity only started after migration to ah Medina after establishing an Islamic state which ah has the responsibility of protecting the right of the Muslims. So you can see that in our own situation now in Nigeria. You cannot or I would say it is out of place for any Muslim or any group to come out and say ah we are representing the Muslim because they are not a state, they are not a state. So if they are not a state then they cannot engage in fighting, that is very, very wrong.

KN47 [22069-22620]

(Chuckles) I don't think until maybe, well I can't simply say that because ah we don't have, as I keep saying, we just don't have the conditions, you know, necessary for carrying out, no I don't think it is a political tool in northern Nigeria because yah some politicians use some group of people to solicit violence in the northern region of the country, but to me, this are not jihad, you understand. What they do is their own political way, you know, of- instituting violence in the society so not jihad, it is not the jihad, you understand, hmm.

KN48 [7794-8056]

Islam, Islam can never be a political tool, jihad am sorry, jihad can never be a political tool and ehen en I think jihad should be, must conducted every time. You must be given yourself some kind of check and balance as in by renewing your faith every time so.

KN49 [13525-13603]

I think ah jihad should be conducted when there is not a single option left

KN50 [6959-7156]

I don't understand what you mean by jihad is a political tool, well jihad should be conducted at all-times, why, because the fear of Allah should always be in our mind and doing good at all time.

KN52 [16346-17156]

Yes jihad should be conducted, like I mentioned earlier, when Muslims feel that their lives, their existence, their religious wellbeing is under threat. As far as jihad or sharia whatever is concerned today in northern Nigeria, yes there is the political dimension to it, like I mentioned earlier, there was an attempt in 1999, in fact it was not even an attempt, but there was ah the government of Zamfara under Yariman Bakura introduced sharia as a state legal system. Like I said earlier, a lot of people viewed that as a political decision rather than jihad really. So there is a political dimension to sharia in northern Nigeria. Some politicians, you know, manipulate that sentiment to mobilize people along those lines in order to win an election. Yes it is done and has been done in several instances

KN53 [9192-9337]

Jihad is always expected at all times because if we are not expecting it all the time we won't have the fear of God in our minds, so that is it.

KN54 [4075-4152]

Well if Muslims are denied their rights to religion, their right to religion

KN55 [5585-5632]

If Muslims are denied their right to religion

KN56 [7919-8034]

As I previously said, if Muslims are being denied their right to religion, they have the right to carry out jihad.

KN57 [9121-9248]

You see jihad would only be conducted when ah only when government and its people are out of the right path or position. Yes.

KN58 [20332-20445]

There is no period. Anytime jihad can be conducted, there is no period in time where jihad cannot be conducted.

KN59 [15212-15767]

Humm there are two questions in one, actually Yes, it is true that some people use it as a political tool because those people who use it have a misconception of what jihad really is so that is why they use it as a tool in other to achieve some of their aims and objective. To me, jihad should be conducted whenever there is a kind of a corrupted faith I think that is where Jihad should be conducted, If followers have corrupted minds, you understand, then I think jihad can be wedged against them, not physical jihad, but jihad of preaching to them.

KN60 [18538-18828]

Right away, as I said, in the answer I gave for the fact that the Prophet (SAW) has lived among the people of Jews, in Nigeria also we cannot say we would take up alms and fight the Christians because the country belong to both Muslims and non-Muslims, but we would continue to preach.

KN61 [7350-7364]

Is not true,

KN61 [7407-7777]

Ahh, there are so many situations that makes us conduct jihad. If they, even if, for example, there is a misunderstanding between a Muslim and non-Muslims, which it reach a stage whereby it reach a stage there is fighting and what have you, so I think if that is the case, then maybe you can fight against them back, but if there is no that one, there is no necessary.

KN62 [25042-26373]

When things are ready, and ah the only way we can follow in order to understand that we are ready is taking all the steps outlined by our religion. If we take the first step, the first step is to know. We need to know because that is the first thing that the noble prophet actually ah comes with, he comes with knowledge (He recites the verse) that is the first verse. You need to know first, after knowing, after he, let's say, spending like thirteen years or ten years or more than that, you understand, the noble prophet eh teaching, teaching, teaching then he starts going after the people who wronged him, because the first jihad in Islam was a kind of ah kind of jihad that was waged, a war that was waged eh eh after a certain wrong committed to the Muslims. They, their, their, let's say, possessions, their wealth, their money and so many things were confiscated, seized from them when they were migrating from Mecca to Medina and as a result of that when they were a little bit strong enough to have gone after those confiscators, if you like, then the noble prophet told his people that we need to go after this people and take our things back, simple. So that is why I say one should not go after a jihad when, one should not wage on jihad, one should not do jihad before becoming ready and we are not yet ready.

KN64 [11193-12027]

Jihad is conducted whenever a people capture your area as Muslims, they come and capture your area, to Islam makes jihad necessary for you to come out and flush them out from your area. It is only the circumstances there will determine whether jihad would become necessary in Islam. Therefore you didn't- here you said jihad is now political (tool that is some people are using it to achieving their political selfish interest) okay, you did call it jihad yes, jihad is now a political tool is not jihad. Jihad is something in Islam, therefore, they are not using jihad. They are using their, maybe you can say ah, conflict or crisis. They are using Islam eh in order to receive their goals. Therefore, is not jihad. Jihad is Islam, is term, a concept in Islam. Therefore, you don't use this in any other area that is not good, hmm.

KN65 [14878-15454]

Like I have said earlier that jihad which is if we are referring to the war, holy war, is only permitted when a Muslim is being oppressed and being denied to practice his religion you understand, that is when. And who calls for the holy war? It is not everybody that calls for the holy war, there is a body that has the power to call for the holy war. So I think jihad would only be called when Muslims are being oppressed or denied to now practice their religion that is when the authority that, I mean the body that has the authority would now call for the holy war, yes.

KN66 [8849-8902]

I don't believe this is true, okay, it is not true.

KN67 [9197-9283]

Ehh, I think jihad there is no time, every time, any, always there is need for jihad.

KN68 [4395-4480]

When non-Muslims persecute Muslims from practicing their religion and or kill them.

KN69 [16855-17655]

There is nowadays politicians use to take the meaning of jihad to serve their own political interest. So many cases happen here particularly in northern part of the country, see what is happening in the north east of Nigeria. Nobody would say that there is no element of politics in this problem that we are having particularly in the eastern part of the country. So, in this respect, we can say that they use to regard it as a political tool, but in other way, we can say that when jihad is said to be conducted, jihad is to be conducted at any time, is anytime because all what we are doing today, tomorrow, yesterday is part of jihad in so far as we are doing it in the name of Islam and in accordance with the teaching of prophet Muhammad (SAW) and the sole mind of seeking the reward of Allah.

KN71 [26599-26749]

That is to educate the people. Education is the most principal instrument to remove any injustice in the world. When you are educated, you are free.

KN71 [27107-29687]

From what I understand, and I observe very well is that you remember even during the sharia declaration in Zamfara state General Obasanjo made a statement. We saw him as very biased when he said it, but it contains a lot of words one he said, if it is a political sharia, it will die naturally maybe we definitely did not maybe go well with him within that time. We saw him as very biased, even insulting us that if the implementation of sharia in Zamfara state is having a political motive, it will die naturally. Alhamdulillah because Yarima of the then time was not having that political motive, it came down beneath his heart, he really wanted to establish that Islamic state, he did. So if jihad should be held just to achieve political purposes, like, just like myself I would be clamoring in the name of Allahu akbar, Allahu akbar in the political field to tell the world I would establish an Islamic state whenever I become the governor of the, the governor just for me to mobilize popular support or whenever I become the president that is what I want to mobilize the popular support, this is very wrong, people must be very sincere to themselves because jihad, as I said, as you know, as everybody knows, it is a daily activities. Let me give you an example of Mallam...sorry if I mentioned, if it is wrong to mention him, I have to, I know him in this course right from a very younger ages I mean back to 90's and he maintained the same stages. It does not mean whether he has power or he has not, what he believes is there should be an Islamic state and what he believes is that let me do my best. So if you should do your best, I should do my best, any other person should do his best, not only in the name of power seeking motive, I hope you understand what I am saying, then of course we are moving in a very right direction just like ah, let me give you this, the issue of this Jama'atul Ikhwan Muslmi in Egypt.

How many years now have they been fighting or striving in the course of establishing an Islamic state. It was over eighty years, isn't it? But what was their motive? Was it political? (Interjection: I don't think it is political, it is political), somehow political, but you cannot take a genuine of over eighty years was only, it is political because Islamic state is also political, you understand what I am saying, but in Nigeria context if what had happen in Egypt, we would transfer it to Nigerian society in Nigeria you would see that it is very much impracticable because there are hardly any bomber in Nigeria that stay longer than those years.
KN71 [29736-30007]

Jihad should be conducted in each ah I mean in every, in every daily, I mean in each and every daily lives, daily what are you saying, jihad should be conducted throughout our lives, from the day you understand what is the din of Allah and then your journey has started.

KN71 [30055-30116]

Yes, it is a daily activity that is what I am trying to say.

KN72 [15795-15998]

Hmm, ahh this is misunderstanding the jihad because it is not a tools or political tools rather jihad is a tool that can strength the whole Islamic practices in holistic life, but not only in politics.

KN72 [16066-16237]

Ai there is no times, yes. No need to conduct any jihad, now we are in jihad, already we are in jihad ehh because we are always ehh need to practice the Islamic practice.

KN73 [15660-15783]

Still we have not reached the conditions that permit northern Nigeria that or warrant northern Nigeria to engage in jihad.

KN74 [27874-28496]

Okay if you look at this word jihad, you will find out that, as I have been saying, it has a lot of wide range of interpretation.

Therefore even a good behavior that is al-mu'amalat is a part of jihad is a part of jihad. If you practice such kind of mu'amalat as Prophet Muhammad (SAW) saying that ehh that is am talking about the mu'amalat that is to treat the people in the right way, therefore, if you did all such kind of things, therefore, this is a tool or is a part of jihad, is a part of jihad. Therefore, the jihad can be conducted only when the conditions are satisfied. That I am always repeating ehh this, yes

Yes, they are using ehh the jihad as a political tool especially in the northern Nigeria, especially the politician, they are using such to fight. Let me take a typical example between Jonathan's administration and Present administration of Muhammadu Buhari, President Muhammadu Buhari, you find that because Jonathan is not a Muslim people use that advantage to be preaching to their people that Jonathan is not a nobody should vote for him, nobody should do this, nobody should do that, you understand, of which even them, what they are fighting for, they are not doing for their own people. A lot of scholars that are, they are there, they are not even trying to assist their own people Islamically, but they are telling their own people that they should not vote for this, vote for that, Among the Muslim there is disunity between the sects of religion using, if ehh an Izala stand for political party, let us assume governor, they will say you should not vote for him because he is an Izala man. If a Qadiriyya man stand, Izala say don't vote for him he is a Qadiriyya, if a Tijjaniyya man stand, let me take a typical example of Takai, 2011 a lot of religious scholar came out that they should not vote for Takai because he is a, he is an Izala man. So all those kind of problem cannot lead us to anywhere.

KN76 [18666-19088]

Actually jihad is ahh is ehh there is no any particular time for jihad to be conducted. If you say that you are confining jihad to only taking arms, but if you are viewing jihad as something that is all encompassing, it encompass all spheres of life or of the Muslim and is aimed at lifting the Muslim and his religion, then jihad is not an activity that can start and end at a given time but it is a continuous process.

KN78 [24334-24997]

Well jihad should, will be, should be conducted when you have a very appreciable level of consciousness. An average Muslim knows his first responsibility to serve as the Caliph, to serve as the vicegerent of Islam in all his activities. Well it is true, among the elites, there were people who use the jihad, who use sharia, who use all the Islamic teaching as a means of ahh bastardizing, if you like, or abusing the religion itself. But to be very, to be very straight forward, ahh I don't think there is any favorable condition for now than Muslims, the greatest jihad, for me, is Muslim to live by the rules and regulation of the teaching of their religion.

KN79 [12533-12877]

Of course politicians use or call means of jihad to facilitate their political interest, see what happened in north east, for example Yobe, Borno, Adamawa, Bauchi, and they ignore the essential purpose of Islamic jihad, and also in wider sense jihad is conducted in daily basis of Muslims activities because jihad is all about human striving.

KN80 [22083-22472]

So yes jihad can only be conducted when the Muslims fish away their own self-interest interest because nowadays in northern Nigeria the ahh most populous Islamic scholars are doing their jihad based on their political ambitions in order to gain more supporters. So jihad can be waged, a true jihad can be waged when Muslim fish out all this ah self-interest and face the reality of Islam.

KN80 [22536-23189]

All the forms of jihad. So what I mean is that the preaching we are saying up till today ahh Muslims ah scholars are conducting preaching everywhere in radio, in television, in streets everywhere because their own intention, because of their own intention, still anti-religious tendencies among the Muslims are flourishing, are existing within the Muslim Umma, within the Muslim states. Had it been the scholars are preaching with intention, with good intention without self-interest, without any political gains, without any political inclinations for such, ahh anti-religious tendencies by Muslim themselves would have been eliminated to the extent

KN81 [12341-12516]

Well ahh jihad is conducted daily in Muslim in Muslim world and of course some Muslim use jihad to serve their political interest especially in the northern part of Nigeria.

KN82 [15836-16187]

If you perceive jihad to be physical fighting then there are clearly stated outlines, rules and guidelines for someone to engage into the forceful or practical jihad, and if you look at northern Nigeria of today such conditions are not evident, they are not there which in Islam you cannot just engage into jihad without respecting those provisions.

KN83 [9702-9860]

No ground for conducting any physical jihad in northern Nigeria and the jihad is used for power seeking in northern Nigeria. I agree it is a political tool.

KN84 [10897-10965]

I think jihad is conducted in in every daily of Muslim activities.

KN84 [11041-12050]

Yes, yes, yes some are doing like that because, you know, if you take look at, there was a paper I read, I can't just recall the date of that paper. There is former governor of Abia state Orji Uzor Kalu I heard him saying that northern Nigeria create a tension in the northern eastern part of Nigeria simply because they don't want Jonathan that is the former president to continue is tenure in such a way that the northerners will be, you know, blame him and so on and so forth. So that is why they expose those people that have been calling boko haram to create tension in part, in northern part of Nigeria in such a way that he will not be able elected to the next tenure. That is how he said, so if you take look at his point of view and what you are talking about now is something unrelated because according to him, if you take look at his point ahh and issue related to this, you come to understand that maybe is possibly possible because it maybe they choose to use that in order to get government.

KN85 [11485-12117]

Ahm actually Nigeria politicians most particularly politicians are using religion as a tool to get political power and influence. If we look that this situation, we should see jihad in Nigeria ahh as a political tool to those people. Now jihad should be conducted at any given time there is the chance to do so because this has been incessant in Nigeria and all parts of the northern country. So there is no any particular time when this jihad should be conducted. Anytime whenever there is chance people should try to reform themselves, reform others, try to show ahh and teach people what is the best to do in such a situation.

ZA1 [14513-14668]

Aha you said it is a political, so since you already suggest (laughing) what do you mean is a political, so now let us go to the politicians and ask them.

ZA2 [12618-13790]

Hmmmm jihad it shouldn't have, that is the wrong impression we have because one impression we have is that emm it shouldn't come under politics. It is never, it shouldn't be under politics. This is, even politics itself, we know the religion aspect when we are talking of leadership, the leadership there is for equal rights, giving everybody his legal right which will be in line to the teachings of God. So if that should be, if people coming into both in making it that Islam politics is, no. Is only, as I said earlier, is just trying to win up its objective. Take a note of the last election that commenced in Nigeria, people have tried that to use it as a weapon to politics, but people say no, it is wrong. If not so Buhari may have not even come in again. People are trying to, if you observe and listen, people have politicized that, is it not be religious ehnn, is going to be this this, but people say no it is never. Some people sat he will turn the country to a religious country, but people say no that is not what we are talking about. So it couldn't observe, so it is never, it is never, is just this ehmmm talks based on their own selfish interest.

ZA3 [13066-13289]

As I said earlier that the definition of jihad in Islam you would have striving in the path of Allah, so whatever tool you use in that struggle to please and to achieve the commandment of Allah (SBUH) then you adopt that

ZA4 [28254-28854]

So that is why, jihad can only be conducted depending on the way you understand the jihad. We don't need jihad alqital, we don't need jihad of killing, you understand. So they understand jihad with bad definition, so the problem we are having in Nigeria is how can you get people out of this problem that are in, good knowledge, you understand, destroy poverty, stop corruption and all that. That should be the jihad that we focus upon, jihad of how to build people with good morality, create a good environment before you talk about anything. So we don't need jihadul qital, jihad of killing, yes.

ZA5 [15860-16223]

Yes if you look at what your statement really means to me, to my understanding, jihad have turned into politics, if you look at the issue of boko haram, those boys that are even doing the issue of boko haram, if you look at it, it turned to a politics that the politician are sponsoring them, they do not know anything about Islam, you understand, that just it.

ZA5 [16265-16408]

Jihad can be conducted when necessary, when there is no more moral in the society, the culture has been spoiled and so many things like that.

ZA6 [38851-40272]

Ahm yes, you know, it is an imported teaching. The jihad of the militants now is an imported teaching, is not the real jihad of Islam. I have explained what jihad means, striving on the cause of Allah, but not killing. You don't kill. I have explained different way to strive, you understand. Even the forceful jihad I have explained to you, but not this one that they are doing in Nigeria. The jihad in Nigeria is not jihad. The entire religious fight in Nigeria is just a religious manipulation not jihad. Even the one we've heard in Kaduna, in Jos, even in Jos, in wherever, it is not jihad hmm. To some aspect, it might be jihad because in Islam when they come to kill you, you don't wait and allow someone to come and kill you and even in Islamic world you don't attack, they have to attack you before you, you understand, you counter attack that is even in that aspect of jihad, you get? So in Nigeria we have not had a true jihad, it is a religious manipulation by the politicians and the religious elites, you understand, so we've not had a true jihad in Nigeria. So definitely we need a rebranding of the notion of jihad in Nigeria, we really need the rebranding of that notion. The scholars would have to stand up to their, you know, of their work of teaching and preaching the real jihad in Islam not the one we have in Nigeria where every emm those militants will just come and kill and do all that.

ZA7 [14458-14960]

Well I don't want to believe jihad has been used as a political tool because if you really understand the true meaning of jihad, Islam does not encourage people to go fight because of a party or whatever, so it is not a political tool to be used by anybody or it has not been used by anybody. People might just be under the cover up of what they just try to frame and do all sorts of things. Jihad, if in the real context preached to us by Islam, it has not been used as a political tool ... in Nigeria.

ZA8 [29354-30507]

Like I said, people are having a different a negative misconception of jihad. Like you said, it has become a tool of political conflicts. For instance, when a politician is maybe he knows he is not going to win or is about to lose, the next thing he will start inciting people telling them this is what religion says, they should not allow this, they should not allow that, they should not do this, they should kill this they should do that before you know riot will break out. Now this is somebody, now if you ask the person that is killing somebody, why are you killing this person? He will tell you his mallam told him this. Who told your mallam that? You understand? Before you know, you will not find a basic root of where is coming from and this is a politics; this is something politicians use to cause riots. Like I told you from the beginning, some politicians they gain from unrest. If there is no riot, they don't get anything, but the moment there is unrest, killing of people, curfew, that is when they get money. They are doing, they are only doing this, using jihad as a tool to gain, to have their own worldly gain, is not anything.

ZA9 [16661-16877]

I believe jihad should be conducted when northern Muslims are not allowed to practice their religion anymore not at this period because I don't think this people are stopping Muslims from practicing their religion.

ZA10 [17114-18053]

Actually it's true because, one, all the politicians, all the Muslim politicians we have are not too educated in Islamic way. So imposing Islamic sharia in the states is very difficult because we cannot have our governor maybe in a particular northern state to be a Muslim and he can't memorize the Qur'an, he doesn't know the sharia, and he wants to impose sharia in his state, it will be very difficult. So they use it to politicize people because they call their self Muslims while they don't have full knowledge of their religion, just to get their manpower or other things. They will say they are doing jihad just to get much interest to their way. So I don't think it is very, very important. What they should do is first, they should have the Islamic knowledge, any top politician or any one aspiring for any post that is a public figure that will impact some things to his state, they should have Islamic, full Islamic knowledge.

ZA11 [13841-14166]

Jihad is a day to day activity, by the meaning, is striving for the cause of Allah. You wake up you go to the mosque you are doing it for Allah. You do every of your activities without hurting or, you know, you are doing it in Islamic cause is part of it. So jihad is a day to day activity. There is no specific time for it.

ZA12 [8123-8192]

Jihad should be conducted when someone is following the wrong path.

ZA13 [8589-8711]

Quite right, yes it is being used as a tool because of the selfishness of the politicians and sometimes the elderly ones.

ZA13 [8754-9107]

Well a times you know, you are been pushed to the wall and you have no saying, you don't have a saying, then you have the right to fight back, struggle for what you believe on, ok. When they are being pushed to the wall or when politically they are being pushed to the wall, they struggle back that will be when the struggle because of Allah comes in.

ZA14 [8062-8308]

Jihad can only be conducted when the society is morally decayed, they you understand, and they need a kind of revolution, if you say the revolution that is not a bloody revolution. There are so many ways of doing revolution, they you understand.

ZA15 [14140-14222]

Jihad normally should be done in everyday, and also implemented in our daily lives

ZA16 [8101-8424]

Jihad should be conducted when people or when the Muslims have their own states. That is only when jihad will be conducted that is when the Muslims preach to the ehh to the non-Muslims and other religions that Muslims is the, Muslims is the only, Islam sorry, Islam is the only religion that is accepted before Allah (SBUH)

ZA17 [8390-8710]

When there is problem of you cannot do your din. I think that is when the Islamic people can rise up and say toh they are, they do not allow us do our religion perfectly and there is no anywhere I see in this ah part of our government that they were denied the right of doing their, performing their Islamic activities.

ZA18 [12182-12365]

A political tool in what aspect? Islamic jihad is not a political tool? How could it be a political tool? I don't understand. Ok in the actual sense it is not, no that one is wrong.

ZA19 [15193-15785]

Well of course yes jihad in northern Nigeria presently in this contemporary Nigerian society, is more like a political tool in order to achieve ah some certain goals and objectives. And the other aspect of the question is saying: when should jihad be conducted? Well jihad is, there is no specific time on when jihad should be conducted, as we have said earlier, jihad starts from one's self by actually appearing in good manner, conducting yourself in a good manner where people will see you and admire you yourself and your religion. So jihad actually does not have a specific time frame.

ZA20 [8604-8642]

How has this happened if I may ask?

ZA21 [12291-12644]

That I said whatever crisis we are into in Nigeria nowadays is politics. Be that as it may we are saying here in northern Nigeria we consider religion as a tool. We use religion to vote out people. If you can hear our ulamas here say vote this out vote this in vote this out, but they are going along the line of politicians that is to say with dismay.

ZA22 [11143-11169]

I can't say this actually

ZA23 [15955-16452]

Do you get my point from this your question? That even the disputes, the conflicts are political. All I know and what I have been saying and what I believe in northern Nigeria, in southern Nigeria, in the whole of Nigeria and in the whole of the world Islam is one. So there is no northern Nigerian Islam or other places as different from each other. It is the same Islam we practice. You either do it or you do your own way, which will not qualify you to be doing what Islam asks you to do. Yes.

ZA24 [20513-21409]

As I said earlier there is no jihad again it is politics. They are using politics now. If Muslims and non-Muslims although in the Qur'an Allah says we should not allow non-Muslims to head us if we are the majority, so not withstanding in Nigeria we have constitution, we are using Nigerian constitution. Our constitution says if the President is a Muslim the deputy should be non-Muslim, but jihad now is politics. When jihad should be conducted is when somebody wants to harass your religion or somebody is abusing your prophet or somebody comes to your mosque and destroy everything that they don't want to give you freedom to practice your religion, it is then you can establish eh – you can use jihad, forceful jihad. But jihad is obligatory by good character, by being a good for your religion. Don't tell lie, don't be corrupt and so on and so forth. Those ones are jihad as I said earlier.

ZA25 [18369-18706]

If you refer to physical fight in this context as jihad, yes. As regards to when jihad should be conducted, it has to be when Muslims know that they are ready that is they have the requisite size of sound Muslims and some other requirements as well. Then we can organize ourselves, we have a central amir and then that can be declared.

ZA26 [8588-8676]

I said it earlier that this jihad issue is political issue. It is not an Islamic issue

ZA26 [8716-8947]

Jihad right now is in your house. Be kind to your family, assist others you are doing jihad. You should restrain yourself from fornication, restrain yourself from taking someone's wealth without his wish is a jihad. Jihadin nafs.

ZA27 [7489-7614]

When should jihad-it is part of life. Jihad is part of life from day one to the last day jihad is part of life as a Muslim.

ZA28 [18634-18710]

This is a very interesting question but I don't think I have much to say.

ZA29 [26132-26285]

Well coming to this point now, saying that now jihad is a political tool, I won't say no because some people think they can use religion to win elections

ZA29 [26437-27300]

Well thank you. There is this renowned scholar Sheikh Mahmood Ja'afar Adam Abdallah, Allah ya jikanshi da gafara amin (May Allah have mercy and forgive him amen), he said the perfect time to do jihad is when one –you have enough food, enough incentive to face your enemy. But wait who is your enemy? Your enemy is someone that challenges your religion that deprives your right to practice your own religion that is your enemy. Do you have it now? Yes if you do have it now yes jihad is necessary. That is to strive and eliminate that person or that government is necessary to you, if that is not there is no need. But you say-yes some people are using jihad as a political tool to win their own elections of course yes we know that very well, but jihad not the way that is being conceived as fight for the name of the religion to pick up a sword and strike, no.

ZA30 [37556-37978]

I strongly disagree with such a word. I strongly disagree because I gave you an instance of the way people are converting into Islam through teaching in Sultan Bello mosque. If to say such a forum could be created and some people will also sacrifice themselves enter into different villages to advertise, Islam would be accepted not through the weapons, but through the actual teachings and good character of the Muslims.

ZA31 [11997-12244]

So jihad like our nowadays, you know people use to use name Islam or religion to achieve what they want. So the way what I say earlier on jihad means to, to convey the message, to convey the message and to practice what God said and his prophets.

ZA32 [31915-32465]

Jihad is conducted, jihad should be conducted when the peace especially when the peace is violated or Muslims should conduct a jihad only (bleating of sheep)...their religion or when the peace of living between the Muslims and the non-Muslims is violated. So there and then Muslims can stand on jihad and Allah will help them, if they are not allowed, if they are not allowed to practice their religion, when they are disturbed by non-Muslims or the peace they have agreed to live in is violated. So they can, jihad there, then jihad can be conducted.

ZA33 [8972-9391]

Jihad should be conducted when the Muslims are confronted with severe hardship that is they are pulled to the brim which will trigger them to retaliate and even I the holy Qur'an Allah (Subahana wa ta'allah) said don't strike, let them strike first before you now respond to their strike. So however, the jihad of the nafs, the wealth, the physical and the preaching should be introduced rather than the jihad itself.

ZA34 [20552-21229]

If it is as I think most of the questions here are talking about jihad in its literal meaning, if I can respond is that jihad and its literal meaning can only be conducted when a Muslim has been pressed that he has been prohibited and banned from performing his religious duty as revealed by Allah (SBUH) that is when a Muslim can revolt. But when you are being given freedom to participate or partake in your religious activities is only maybe the Sharia part of the revealed that was maybe turned aside for you. If you can't bear Allah (SBUH) says la yukallifu lahu nafsan illah uzrah-Allah does not put a burden on somebody unless what you can afford. That is my own idea.

ZA35 [9893-9902]

No idea.

ZA36 [14807-15268]

Jihad should only be conducted when ah the religion of Islam is being molested or our leaders. For example, our leader is the prophet (SAW), he is the one who brought the religion of Islam, so by seeing people molesting him, we have to fight for that. It is not proper our religion did not teach us to molest other religion, but we should respect them, we should respect their leaders and religion. So they should also respect our religion and our leaders too.

ZA37 [15731-15837]

This statement, I don't agree with this statement that jihad is now a political tool in northern Nigeria.

ZA37 [15882-16289]

I am very sorry for this my observation, as I told you before, this jihad means different things. Sometimes you use the word jihad meaning preaching, sometimes if we say jihad it means what, application of maybe force and so on and so forth. So answering this question is necessary for this jihad to be specified because each and every time, everyday a Muslim must perform a jihad to development of Islam.

ZA37 [16494-16759]

So jihad should be conducted every time in order to strengthen the Muslim's faith and I have said it earlier, the best way of this one is by telling them the teaching of the Holy Qur'an and the life history of the holy prophet (SAW). This is the best way of this.

ZA38 [22407-22865]

Actually there is no actual moment that jihad should be conducted why as stated in the research work, it has become a political tool. They use sharia, they use jihad as a political tool, some of them use it and they succeeded and some they did not succeed. That is why I said that aspect it is a wrong notion, it would not take us to anywhere rather it would turn the back hand of time, we go back to yesterday life, there is nothing to write home about.

ZA39 [32092-32389]

Jihad is the complete living in such a way that you do your things according to the provisions of the religion with the aim to be rewarded. Whatever you are doing in the name of getting reward in the hereafter is jihad. So a Muslim is expected to always observe this practice throughout his life.

Th7.15: Colonial Experience and Politicization of jihad

FG1 [30523-31106]

Yea there is because during colonial era most of our traditional institutions were somehow westernized. So religion, as a sociology student, I may say religion is part of tradition. So now religion, this politics of a thing is brought to us by them. So religion as a traditional institution is somehow being inflicted in this political thinking. That is why now jihad is somehow being politicized, somehow being inflicted by political amenities. So there may be this positive relationship between the former experience we have and the present politicization of current jihad.

KD2 [12467-12596]

There is no any relationship because there are two are two different things entirely. There is no any relationship between them.

KD3 [10126-10237]

I don't think there is any relationship between western colonial experience and the jihad in northern Nigeria.

KD4 [18214-18778]

Yah! Western colonial experience, if you ask me, westernization is tantamount to capitalization and then if you look at the Islamic part, westernization experience has been able to enter, to bring the means of capitalism into any ideology now. So I think that's the relationship in which you can deduce in this two because everything has been capitalized, but I know by God's grace, one day, this awareness will be open and people will know the difference between westernization and then the other culture which we are imbibing especially the Islamic perspective.

KD5 [10149-10525]

I don't think there is any relationship because during the colonial masters, I don't think the government of colonial masters had anything to do with religion and the current politicization of religion occur in one of these days. It is s a recent, should I call it development? Sha, it is a recent experience. So, I think it doesn't have any relationship with the colonial era.

KD6 [22292-22818]

Politicization of jihad in Nigeria, I think what people are saying is that politicians, our Muslim politicians are not playing the game as they are supposed to play it. So, that is what am understanding by their questions. As a Muslim, in this our country, you suppose to showcase yourself as a Muslim, this is what Islam teaches you and this is what is forbidden, but we do worse than the people that are not Muslims that is why people think that we are not really represented at the top as a good Muslim, as an upright man.

KD7 [15301-15867]

The westernization, if I may use that word, has had impact in our lives in a such a manner that today, what we see as Islam is a westernized Islam, we see ah some part of Islamic rights being mingled with the western ways of the world and it has been used in so many ways. We've sort of evolved into that a'uzubillahi, it has had an impact in the sense that, that tool of jihad today has been, once a Muslim came up to say something, the first thing it is asked is that is he a Muslim and if he is, he is agitating for something that does not augur well for people.

KD8 [31870-32298]

Prior to the coming of the colonialist, they West, northern Nigeria was practicing sharia but thereafter, when they came, they started unleashing terror, they killed all the Islamic leaders, they change our ways of life, our Islamic system of government, they destroyed it in a way and bring their own, you understand. They brought their own and then that is what is going on now. Sorry ask the question again so that I can...

KD8 [32413-34127]

Okay, so when they toppled the Islamic type of government, what is being practiced is the western system of government, which the Muslims are not happy with, but there is nothing they can do other than to operate under it and try to Islamize it. Islamizing it in such a way that they are acquire education, they know the western education and try to see that they occupy good positions, you understand, like the Army, the administration, the technician of all that so that they can, you know, practice the Islamic religion and try to a kind of portray those values that are good not that they should do it in such a way that they will deny the Christian their rights or talking about violence, but they should do it in such a way that Islam instructed because Islam instructed that we should live peacefully. So it should be done in such a manner, but the proliferation of the jihad, I don't believe in that concept because there is nothing like jihad, the kind of jihad they are talking about of killing people, of, what we are experiencing here is just conflict, it is fight between Christians and Muslims, but not jihad, because jihad has a process, it has a process and there is a way that Islam said jihad should be conducted, even during the primitive era. So, not the kind of jihad that you just be killing people, there is no any Muslims that will even, that believes in that. What the boko haram and others whatever they are doing, they are doing something for protecting a particular interest which we don't, I mean subscribe too. Of course, the interest, the interest of the people that are sponsoring them even if they are Muslims, it is not Islamic interest. It is an interest that is different.

KD9 [20133-21211]

Politicization jihad in northern Nigeria ah the question is twisted a bit, but I can just say that of course the colonial master that brought their own idea, their own way of doing things, they call it democracy which is anti-Islam so and it has colored the way ah government is northern Nigeria because before the coming of the colonial master in quote, there was establish government in northern Nigeria. Other part of the country didn't know that, they were living in ah backward kind of life, but in northern Nigeria there was established government. There was, people were really into real governance. There was education, there was, government was running, so when the white man himself came, he had little or no input to make and that is the more reason why they had to bestow the power to the northerners to take over, the coming of Sardaunas of this world, the Tafawa Balewas and so on and so forth, but of course with time, their idea that they brought colored the Islam of Usman Danfodio and of course you know what is happening today, corruption all over the place.

KD10 [14132-14647]

The two is wrong. You get what am saying? The western colonization, they come and colonize us, they don't allow us to practice the din properly, is that not? And these of a thing, their politicized the din, the sharia, the jihad in the northern part of the country or in the southern part of the country. Jihad must be politicized, you are not to politicize jihad, do you understand? Don't bring politics into jihad. Politics is different and jihad is a different thing. Don't mix them together. You get me right?

KD11 [18975-19378]

Hmm yah, there is a great relationship. I think after the colonial powers left, we established our secular state and the relationship I see here is that the attempt of some political class trying to establish sharia or jihad through this institutions that we are left by the colonial masters and the renaissance of the sharia or jihad will require different set of institutions for it to be propagated.

KD12 [21842-22758]

Hmm you see when the colonial masters came most especially in the northern, they don't tamper with the sharia, in fact you see they were able to enter most of the towns by supporting the establishment of eh Islamic schools, the ways, the customs of Islamic ways people behave. So they were able to establish, in that wise what they also brought like western hospitals, western system of government was able to be abided or was able to be established. So far that the principles of Islamic ways have not been tampered ah much and then they even gave, they even invited some of our mallams, like Sardauna he went to London and Tafawa Balewa I saw a film where he was in London with the queen of England, many people like many of our soldiers or recruits they also brought them there, but where we, where colonialism is going to ah is going to affect the principles Islam beyond bearable steps is where people revolt.

KD13 [7585-7802]

You see the western colonization still have something to balance on. The western civilization brings about the social aspect of life while Islam differs entirely. Islam is talking about the spiritual aspect of life.

KD14 [9261-9392]

I don't think there is any relationship between western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria.

KD15 [13658-14208]

Ahm you see in our own generation today ah our politicians are actually they hide under the umbrella of religion, not that they are really doing the politics, they hide under the religion just to achieve their own aim. So they use religion to mislead people and achieve their own aim. So jihad and ah politics even in Islam we have ah there is ah politics in Islam, so if you can do it in the right way I think it is okay, but people now, our leaders now they are using politics against Islam because they are hiding under Islam, so that is just it.

KD16 [7412-7421]

Go ahead

KD17 [24464-25427]

You see when you are selfish and greedy and you want to reach your aim, there is one word here in the north that mulki na Allah ne, Allah ne yake bayarwa. It means the post of leadership is from God and it is God that gives it to whoever he wills. If you understand this fact and that is just the way it is, even in the Qur'an it is there. (he quotes a verse in Arabic). It is Allah that gives the post that gives leadership. He gives it to whoever he wills and he takes it from whoever he wills. Nobody can ask him that is why he is Allah and that is why he is our Lord. You get these facts and by the time you get these tenets, as far as they don't need to use religion, if it is for political ambition, you can go. Get your political ambition but please don't use religion. Please separate religion from all this bad issues in politics please. You don't need to use religion, use religion, use jihad in the wrong context to fight for your political ambition.

KD18 [12733-12882]

There is no any relationship between the western colonization and the ah politicisation, there is nothing there is no any relationship between them.

KD19 [15766-16317]

Well, colonialism has impacted a lot on the Islam. If you go back to history the colonial masters met a truly Islamic state and decided to introduce their own concept of rule and that affected the religion of Islam. Take one typical example is the case of eh the head of the Muslim before the coming of the colonial masters the head of the Muslims is known as Amurul Mu'minin but when they came they changed that title to sultan, sultan just means king, king of Islam. So westernisation rather colonialism has affected the Islamic state very greatly.

KD20 [11609-12188]

I think there is no any relationship between the western colonial experience and that of the sharia in Nigeria, because even in those days when the western when they came into Nigeria to bring the western knowledge, we've been practicing our religion before they came, so they came and most of our children they are schooling and they are still reading their Qur'an, they are still going to their Islamiyya, so it doesn't affect each other, so they are they are doing their own we are doing our own, but now we are doing everything together because education is very important.

KD21 [10326-10621]

They are the opposite sides of the same coin or rather I will say different coin. Western colonial experience is something that goes contrary to the Islamic teachings, then sometimes they go as far as politicising jihad in northern Nigeria, blackmail, trying to paint the religion black and co.

KD23 [10740-10975]

Well ah western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad ah in northern Nigeria is like ah the western country that is especially the British that colonized Nigeria has totally changed things, the way people understand it.

KD24 [41032-41158]

Actually ah based on this, we just heard rumors we don't have facts that we can testify, so I can't say anything about that.

KD25 [53303-54864]

Well even though we were not born then, but eh we have ah we've grown up to see some books that were written about the colonialists, we were told that ah the colonialists did not just come into Nigeria and continue killing that is not what they did. They tried to use wisdom by pumping money, by employing people, peasant people in the farms, in the villages engaging them in one way or the other activity. Then from there trying to be drawing their attention to something different thing thereby having control over them and when they now feel that they are in control then they now subdue or subjugate them and enslave them and take them as slaves, but that does not even though they suffered eh the Nigerian citizenry, but ah it's all in the name of ah conquering the nation and ah well they, I can say they succeeded, but as God will have it, with the advent of such like people like Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa, Sir Ahmadu Bello of Sokoto, chief I mean Nnamdi Azikiwe. Chief Obafemi Owolowo and the rest of them, they were able to struggle for Nigeria's freedom and eh they made it eh on the 1st of eh January 1960 when Nigeria got its independence no more under colonialist, it has its own freedom then, that was and I believe and then Nnamdi Azikiwe for the first time ah what do you call it? Ah what do you ah is it ah president or what? Yauwa of Nigeria after independence, so you can see that things have to follow to gradually, softly, one way or the other not just for us to want to scale and skip other things and just go to the, it's not possible.

KD26 [13951-13974]

I don't get question.

KD27 [15077-16086]

You see when the white man came we had our own system. It was not perfect because it had gone through a lot of-it had mutated into something different from, different from-well it has changed into something different from what it should have been. We had oppressive leaders, oppressive rulers, we had hereditary leadership forgetting that leadership is not hereditary that Islam, you know those that—the best amongst you should be the leader irrespective of who he is or whether his poor or he is rich, you know, the oppression of those rulers. So that is why when the colonialists came it was not too difficult for them to colonize northern Nigeria because people have had enough of the system at that time. When the colonialists came with their lessaiz faire attitude to moral precepts, it dawned on Muslims scholars and leaders that here is a system that is out to destroy our religion and our people. And that was the beginning of the politicization of sharia in northern Nigeria after the colonialists.

KD28 [19059-19627]

Well the western colonial experience, the relationship to this northern eh is that the western colonial experience came to the north through the western region that is the civilization of this western education which is commonly not Islamic. You know like Islam as it is the Islamic state comes from the northern part, northern hemisphere towards the northern part of Nigeria and the western colonialism which came to Nigeria is from the non-Islamic countries and the knowledge they acquire from that time is in conflict with what they come to observe in the north.

KD29 [11117-11299]

Well in all honesty there are a lot of efforts directed towards blackmailing Islam and ah Islamic practices and ah the channel being used is our politicians and the politics itself.

KD31 [12501-12551]

Skip this place I don't have much to say on this.

KD32 [15970-17065]

Yah like in the western law which is from where we derive the constitution of Nigeria, there are so many things who are, there are so many laws like I've said they may not go against the Islam but they are not favoring the Islamic sharia law, so but despite that in Nigeria we still have sharia court. These are the courts which can settle some eh true Muslim cases, civil cases and like the marital cases in Islam, if you look at in the western law, western understanding so it is quite different from an Islamic understanding because in westernization I don't think polygamy is allowed that is marrying more than one wife while Islam allowed marriage up to four wives and there are some laws in the that is in terms of breaking the marriage agreement from western and Islamic law, so there are so many differences between the two and in some cases the western law is conflicting an Islamic law, so while in Islamic law we don't use force to establish Islamic law on people we use preachings, we use, if you believe in Allah you accept it if you don't believe you can use other sources of law.

KD33 [13994-14154]

Well, it's all the same, it's all the same because there are, they are the people that establish, that created the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria.

KD34 [14096-14835]

The western colonial experience yah the way I see it because is that missionaries when they come to Christianize ehm some part of Nigeria definitely they used a lot of things against Islam, even presently now some that wants to convince people not to join Islam, they use to criticize Islam and the only way they will find it easier to do so is by saying that jihad is about killing non-Muslims, jihad permit to start killing, people are killing, look at them the way they were killing, bombing people in the northern Nigeria, it is Islam that are doing so, so why are you joining a particular religion that was doing so, so, they were, looking at the activities of some minor or tiny group of people to justify the generality of Islam.

KD35 [15440-15919]

Ahh in in northern Nigeria when the Europeans came first, they met northern they are religion, the way of the complete way of life of Islam, they have their local courts, they have their way of marriage, they have everything, but in order to penetrate, to control they maneuver and connived with the chieftaincy of those days, then they maneuver and turn everything to be western and ahm the what do you call it the sharia, the modern ah system of yes system of judgment, yes.

KN1 [37617-38355]

Yah to some extent I can agree because you know when the colonial masters came to Nigeria the enlightened ones or the elite among the northerners will tell you that solely their coming is for the sake of their economic expansion but equally because their missionaries came along with them so the common man cannot differentiate between a missionary and the colonial master so the two are joined together and assumed they are the same thing. While they were trying to expand their economic activities equally they are promoting their religion so it seems as if they are the one that invade and introduce that kind of things and anybody that is attached to them or have their belief as a Christian is assumed to be a sibling of the former one.

KN2 [20803-21350]

When colonialists came to Nigeria, in those days, they were more interested in the economic aspect of Nigeria than the social or religious aspect of Nigeria. Even during the colonial period, Muslims were allowed to practice Islam. So the impact it had if it is being felt it is through the aspect of its westernization values than merely being non-Muslims, imposing western values on both Muslims and non-Muslims.

KN4 [32256-34580]

Eemm, the relationship it has no any eh eh affiliation to eh eh religion when the colonials came in northern Nigeria they use indirect rule because the northern part of the country has already received a civilization unlike the southern province which they have their own way of life. In northern Nigeria there is well organized government. In northern Nigeria there is setting of good administration. So the relationship between the colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria is that only majority of the people are Muslims. Since they are Muslims people look at it whatever they would do, no matter wherever they are, how they did, what they did, their life entirely is jihad. They use arms, they will amputate my hand, they would not allow me because of the cultural diversity in the country. That is why people look at it that jihad is politicized because the people of Nigeria has different history, different culture, different values and norms we are in the multi-plural state and the minority and the majority all they are going for the same goal, there is challenge. That challenge makes people to look at it the majority are using Islam or are using jihad to conduct themselves because they are the majority, when you are the majority most of the leaders, most of the light, most of the rumbles that are around would be on you since you are the majority and those that are on the minority side could not be heard, they can only be voice out when they use the religion that is what I look at it as the relationship between western ah eh experience and the politicization of religion. Westerners when they came to the northern part of the country they found that we have organized government, so you can differentiate between the Islam and the people, you can't explain, you can't differentiate between the language they use Hausa and their people, they are moving together, they are moving the same, they have lived more than 500 years before the coming of the westerners into northern, the western world into the northern part of Nigeria. So they must have relationship all the time. People would look at it as jihad as jihad but only the concept can be modified and changed, and changed the perception of different communities or our neighbors in the country to have a better Nigeria.

KN5 [14200-14713]

Ah eh you know when this colonial people came to Nigeria, they have tried to impact a lot of influences in the sharia by creating the Penal Code, the Customary Laws and other things and in that they have a reasonable restriction to the practice of Islam as it used to be since during the Usman Dan Fodio jihad movement. So yes it has created and a made an impact eh the the colonial experience and the politicization of jihad has really played an eh negative role in the aspect of jihad and Islam in Nigeria.

KN6 [14482-14935]

So, even this politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria it came as a result of this colonization. So this is the result of this colonization because there is some instances because now some people are suspect to even those Europeans are among those who are participate ah in this escalation, in this maybe in this Boko-haram and the others, so which is ah maybe some people can be - some people that are practicing this jihad, so it is not true jihad.

KN7 [14840-15600]

Yes, I made mention of am, modernization earlier on that ehm, what brought about modernization? It is colonialism. It is colonialism we have-from different writings of scholars, we have understood that ehm, is colonialism, colonialism, yes, have, have been successful to inculcate western ideologies, in one way or the other, it affects directly our political activities. So yes, I think jihad, let me say, has been, is want to be, is being influenced, let me say, by our political leaders as the fact that, considering the fact that yes, colonialism and colonialism has really shaped the life and thinking of we Nigerians, most especially in the, let me not say in the northern Nigeria, but yes Nigeria as a whole, or let me say, other third world countries.

KN8 [12411-12665]

They are closely related because there are some western ideologies that is influencing the contemporary religious leaders in the northern Nigeria. Then as a result of this, the jihad they are embarking on, I can even say that it is a westernized jihad.

KN9 [13037-13430]

Well I think the relationship between this two is that ah you know the western ideology have always, from day one, has been against the Islamic culture. So they would do everything in their power to undermine the teachings of Islam. So whenever you see Islam going through turbulence or chaos, you should be rest assured that ah the west have eh they have a hand in whatever is happening, yes.

KN10 [10236-10561]

Western colonial experience and an ehn politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria. Ahm the western experience is totally differ from the practices of Islam in the northern country. So it will never be ah such experience cannot be accepted or be looked as something superior within the, within such amm states of Islam, hmm.

KN11 [15194-15232]

I think there is no any relationship.

KN13 [15086-16054]

Hmm, the experience between western colonial experience was that the western actually did not, let me say, let me put it in this way that they were unable to penetrate into northern Nigeria like within the southern and eastern part of the country and the western part of the country because as a matter of fact they found it difficult to penetrate because of the religion; side because of the religion in the sense that they didn't influence in this part because if the western tradition actually influenced this northern part of the country. Their level of civilization and there level of morals and intellect would have been like the way of the eastern and western part of the country, but because they were unable to penetrate deep into this people, they were unable to tamper with their religions and culture so definitely it is not-they have not actually tampered with their own tradition culture and religion unlike they did in the southern part of the country.

KN14 [11863-11876]

I don't know.

KN15 [12788-13158]

I think there is no any relationship that has ever existed between the western colonials and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria ko so because what they brought to northern Nigeria was you know let me say it precisely is Christianity which the Muslims really rejected it, so they rejected it because they cannot take it based on their religious provisions.

KN16 [6538-6672]

They don't have much impact here in the north compared to south because when they came here they met us with our religious attitudes.

KN17 [14965-15273]

Uh what actually I see as western colonial experience was that the western powers does not actually-were unable to penetrate the northern Nigeria as they did in the west and the southern part of Nigeria. So I think the Islamic principle in northern Nigeria is more super-serious and ah let me say is more uh

KN17 [15538-15656]

Uh yeah there are some relationship because now they have actually indoctrinated some western perspective into Islam.

KN18 [25335-25785]

There is the western colonialists always try to define who are the jihadist, who are the terrorists. They always give a meaning if you go contrary to their view no matter how you are ah terrorist, they will turn you as a terrorist okay and, and those fighting in their course if they know that those people fighting carrying arms are defending the interest ah defending the interest of the U.S. and the West, they will be termed as freedom fighters.

KN19 [16520-16938]

Ah actually this is very very similar because the western influence you understand is also very similar to the politicization of what of jihad in northern Nigeria their influence of people under the politicization while the western ideology also is also influence of some ideologists, you understand, from the western regions that are inculcating into the habit of Islam and something like that they are very similar.

KN20 [8896-8959]

Yah there is a bit eh eh eh some high level of relationship.

KN21 [6308-6406]

You said the considerable, sorry you see, there should be a considerable amount of relationship.

KN22 [11889-12551]

The relationship is when the, let's stress it from the early generation of the or prophetic generation of Islam where there is no adulteration of western ideology to the Islam, then early generation, then contemporary generation where there is no contact with colonial masters. They came with their sort of ideas in order to adulterate the religion. So therefore, in which it serves as one of the challenges of the contemporary Muslim world because it results to the concept of moderate Muslim. Some are neither Muslim nor secularists in which it even results to this concept of Chris-Islam. Some are neither Muslims nor Christians. So this is the relationship.

KN23 [9675-10022]

Well the western world this are the people that ah this are the people that so much believe in democracy; government of the people, by the people and for the people. And for that reason, Islam like in the case Plateau state 2007, it was because of a local government chairman election that led to jihad-so called. So you can see the relationship.

KN24 [10326-10549]

There is a very good relationship because in Nigeria here we are having different type of language and sometime for you to do jihad you have to learn how to speak some westernization. You have to know how to speak English.

KN24 [10643-10682]

Yah. Through politics

KN25 [11770-12045]

Well western colonial experience has a lot in this. This is very true because the westerners are always concerned about their interests and right from day one they were never friends of Islamic ways and religion. So I think they play an important role important role in this.

KN26 [11745-12737]

You know these are virtually almost two different things that are at par, you know, but we have the popular Danfodio's jihad which came before the colonial administration and that has really that was even actually looked at or rather helped in shaping northern Nigeria even that made it organized. And if you look at it is not as if- it was not the amount of bloodshed that was lost during the Danfodio jihad, but the persuasiveness, the insistence and all that, you can see how all that was a neat one. There are most of the conquerors came without killing, some came with killing, but most of them came without killing, once you submit that is all you just have to abide by certain rules and regulations. So when-history has it that when colonialists came it was difficult for them to operate in the northern part of the country in fact that was why they had to go for the indirect rule because already those jihad as they were then, you know, came with established way of doing things.

KN26 [12877-13097]

There might be but at a cause and effect level for you to establish direct causal relationship there is not for now because the two can still operate but we have had many points that are this actually has been in place.

KN27 [11517-11925]

Well as we know politics touches every human aspect. And we can't do without touching politics in every aspect we enter into. So in one way or the other it touches the political, western ideology sorry ba. The western ideology in one way or the other definitely touches the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria not only now but right from time immemorial when we experience the western colonization.

KN28 [9326-9770]

Islam has always been the issue, has always been the issue and even though the past heroes in Islam who are the pioneers have always maintained their stand no matter what it takes, they try to actually am, they try to actually prevent their interest and they go with set rules and regulations of Islam, they never desist from it. So the issue of past colonial experiences can never be a detriment to it I believe. It is always on its stance.

KN30 [11113-11773]

Yah like Shehu Usman Danfodio's jihad was being talked by so many people and there were so many writings about it. But then it was a true jihad not the ones people are talking about now. The society now is so sophisticated not like those times and even the Shehu Usman Danfodio's jihad, he fought pagans, those that are not worshipping, you see they are not Christians, they are not Muslims. They only worship things that your imagination cannot even take. So he fought them and the reason even why he fought them is the kind of ruling they are doing. They killed whosoever they want, they do so many things that are not human. So that is why he fought them.

KN30 [12168-12339]

No there is not because the colonial era doesn't influence and doesn't-I don't think there is any influence from the colonial masters to the issue of jihad in Nigeria.

KN31 [13948-13994]

Ah I think they don't have any relationship.

KN32 [5382-5399]

Eh non actually

KN33 [4826-4900]

Colonization does not allow for the true jihad and so it is politicized.

KN34 [6899-6941]

I don't think there is any link between the two

KN35. [9542-9824]

It is a lesson being learnt from our politicians that the way the colonial master did to them, to oppress them, I mean to preach to their friends so definitely it is this lesson learned from these very people that our politicians in the northern part of Nigeria have also adopted.

KN36 [8998-9319]

There is a lot because colonial experience has turned our few Muslims that are engage in political class to politicize jihad. In such order they use this colonial experience to destroy or apply jihad in the wrong way in the wrong way because of their selfish interest. And that is not for the purpose of almighty Allah.

KN37 [7947-8167]

Just as I have said earlier, it is just simply a matter of ideologies that brought in through their political, economic and social systems. I think all these could be factors on how it affects the present Islamic jihad.

KN38 [5260-5550]

Well I will say partially because as for then I didn't see any relationship, but for now due to politics I think western colonization gave a room to politics and political activities which politicians today use propogandas and politicizing the term jihad through social media and the rest.

KN39 [8238-9333]

Of course there is relationship because by the time when the colonialist came into Nigeria, as of then, there was no Nigeria by name. Really at that time really there was Islam and really northerners where practicing Islam and the southerners where practicing their traditional religion despite the fact in the northern Nigeria too there were some traditional religions as we have Maguzawas and others. And at that time when colonialist came into Nigeria and when the Islamic leaders started understanding that if, for example, they didn't make sure that they continue putting the zeal and desire of Islam in the Muslims really one day one time Islam will be banished. Then they started reviving the Muslims minds and they keep on inviting non-Muslims to Islam. That is why we even have Usman Dan Fodio's jihad as of then and after that even his followers that is his adherent kept on doing that by going to northern and southern even the interior part of the country, they went there they called those non-Muslims to Islam and they revived the habit of Islam in the minds of the Muslims.

KN40 [10772-10781]

No idea.

KN41 [7173-7205]

I don't have any idea on this.

KN42 [12099-12715]

Colonialism has helped in reducing Islamic power, Islamic ehm jihad, the essence of jihad because it has not only infused western ideas and philosophies, it has actually kind of bastardized the way we see things. We don't always, we don't only see things the way we are supposed to see them, which is in an Islamic view, we try to want to mix Islam with the ehh what is it called, the western idea and our former colonial powers which means we want to make Islam no more normatis but neonomativist. We want to make it people, they want to make us now embrace the acts of western ideas and forget Islamic doctrines.

KN43 [14314-14640]

This is what I told you earlier on. The west is always creating concepts and terms which are aimed to stereotype Islam. So probably, our colonial experience and colonial encounters had contributed in giving jihad a new definition and a new interpretation which is completely different from what we know and what we believe in.

KN44 [9682-9913]

I don't know, I don't know whether they have-do we have politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria? I don't think there is anything like politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria. So that question I wouldn't like to answer it.

KN45 [10607-10647]

Yah, I think I have no comment on this.

KN46 [18653-19288]

Well, ah I think there is kind of relationship between the, the, the, two because ah Muslims before the advent of the white men ah have their own established state. They have their own state, so when the white men came and colonize them, they sort of subjugated them, they replaced their laws, with theirs, I mean the white man's laws, so they generally-the Muslims in northern Nigeria think, have this understanding that the white man came to Nigeria specifically to northern Nigeria to replace what Islam brought to us with what the religion of the white man or what the white man want to. So the, I think, the relationship is there.

KN47 [22755-24144]

Well, ah yah, I can simply say that ahh there is what we call clash of civilization in this context as Samuel Hartington said in his book, clash of civilization because there is a kind of conflict between the western ideologies and the eastern ideologies. So it's a reflection of that, you understand, in northern Nigeria because in northern Nigeria we go by eastern ideologies and then in conflict we found ourselves in the middle of conflict between the western ideologies and the eastern ideologies because eastern ideologies reached the region, you know, many years before the western ideologies came to the region, you understand. So when they come they had to struggle to survive, you understand. So western colonial experience of course is radically from the Christian perspective while what they found in the place already established as Islamic ideology, you know, from the Trans Sahara trade when it came, it was from the east, so they found themselves into serious competition that is what the experience we have. So we have the well established experience of Islam and then something came from the West. So you understand, before we agree unto this, we simply have to struggle a lot, you understand, we find it to see that we have to replace this older theory, older notion, you know, with the new one. So it is still in the process, we are still in existence, you understand.

KN48 [8200-8210]

No, idea

KN49 [13738-14047]

Actually, I think it has to do with eh, the whim and caprices of the present crop of leaders that we have. The concept during the precolonial era was different and the dynamics were also different and the circumstances in which we find ourselves were different. But this is an entirely new scenario we have.

KN50 [7280-7289]

No idea.

KN52 [17463-17911]

Western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria. This is such a difficult question. Western colonial experience, well I am finding it very difficult, really struggling my head around the idea of the connection between colonial experience and the politicization of jihad because I am not aware of any instance during the colonial period when the British politicized sharia, I can't really say, ask the question again

KN53 [9472-9479]

No Idea

KN54 [4289-4324]

Well its imposition and rejection

KN55 [5767-5793]

Imposition and rejection.

KN56 [8168-8536]

Ok actually the relationship between western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern-Nigeria can be said to be imposition and colonization, the western colonial powers came to us in Africa and Kano, Nigeria, they came and they removed and relegated our religion to the background. So we have no alternative but to fight back through jihad.

KN57 [9383-9562]

You see, this colonization experience and politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria, their goal is to achieve their aims and objectives. This is the relationship between them.

KN58 [20580-21690]

There is a serious or good relationship between them. In fact one of the essences of colonization was to even remove our own culture and then impose alien white culture to us which is predominantly what Christian. In northern Nigeria we are not used to the so called concept of democracy. We are only used to the concept of what we call the Emir, and the Emir is seen as a spiritual leader. He is a political leader. He is a social leader. He is an economic leader. So through the Emir, since he is a supreme being, you can preach the gospel of Islam. But when western Europeans came they abolished all this institutions even in northern Nigerian that these institutions still exist, but they are insignificant. They have been reduced to the minimum or to the background, and then new institutions emerged like the institution of what you call the new states now whereby governor is more superior to the Emir. He has the powers to even dethrone the Emir. You see all these are ways through which to subdue we Muslims in the North from practicing our religion or even thinking of establishing a sharia state.

KN59 [15902-16679]

Hummm actually as I can say there is an influence because the colonial masters or western people actually don't want Islam, they are kind of devils incarnate, you understand they can use the, they are even using Muslims to fight Muslims, you understand. So I think there is a relationship between colonial and the politicization of jihad in the northern Nigeria because the westerners even use their resources to train a Muslim, after training him and he becomes a scholar they then take him back to his country and let him to fight them, preach so and so thing to them which is contrary and you fight them. They use as a tool to fight northerners. It is common; it is a hidden something, it is not known by everybody, but it is a hidden something based on my understanding.

KN60 [18963-19392]

It plays a great, it is a great factor actually, it is the colonization, colonialism the way the western countries came and invaded our country, they now enforce their laws and what have you, making us to play in a way that they wanted us to do and what have you, it has a great effect in the context of the kind of sharia that is being practiced in northern Nigeria actually. I agree with the fact that it is not a true sharia.

KN61 [7912-8005]

Ahh, they are quite two different issues there, yah, they are quite two different issue there

KN62 [26507-27958]

Ahh, this is a very difficult question, ok the relationship between the western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria. You know this people when they came they remove us from our religion, remove us from our way of life that is our culture and everything, and they put in place their own culture, their own religion and everything of so because you know historically speaking ehh the first people who came in were not the colonial masters, but rather the Christian missionaries, so they came with their Christianity and they built the first school here in Nigeria in Badagri Lagos in 19, in 1842 and ah looking at this, they use their own religion in order to fight our people ideologically, you understand, so they indoctrinate or indoctrinated our forefathers in those days to the extent that our forefathers became liberal. This very word is dangerous, liberal, liberalism they, they want people to be ah, let's say, fundamentalist, you know, this is another, you know conservatives, yah they don't believe in that. They want you to be liberal, liberal to the extent that you allow things to just happen ah without you, you are open to change, yah something like that. So actually there is a kind of strong relationship between western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria. We can actually talk about this to a great length but no time because it is just an interview, ehn en.

KN64 [12748-12778]

There is no any relationship.

KN65 [15589-15914]

The, the western colonialism and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria today, they are similar because the western colonization use their power to now gain their own undue advantages, so the politicians are also using jihad as a tool to also gain undue advantages. So they are similar in my own ah ah observation.

KN66 [9037-9434]

Ahh the western, the relationship between the western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria is nothing but war, because during the time of the western colonization, they took away the teachings and the practicing of Islam, but what the modern, modern northern, but what the northern Nigerian did was they fought, which is jihad, they fought for practicing Islam.

KN67 [9401-9630]

Well, I think there is a very good relationship because when the colonial western came, they try to remove any root of ah jihad or I think Islamic practices that are not in favour of them so I think there is a good relationship.

KN68 [4621-4755]

They invaded northern Nigerian Muslims and prevented them from observing true Islam. All the Muslims have to fight back though jihad.

KN69 [17800-18524]

Yes, the issue of western colonial experience and the issue of politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria, there is a relationship in the sense that when the colonial masters came to Nigeria, they came with their own culture, they came with their so many things, their system of administration and they apply their system of administration, so many things that we were having before the coming, before their coming, we lost them to the fact that all what is happening nowadays is part and parcel of their own culture. Therefore, some people are of the view that there must be a jihad in order to see that at the end of the day all this social vices introduced by the colonial masters are to be eradicated, eradicated.

KN71 [30255-31331]

Yes, you know this issue is very critical, let us be realistic. The western colonial masters were non-Muslims and when they first encroach into our land, they killed our leaders like Attahiru and so many others who were all Islamic leaders of their respect domains. So we have that experience. So without doubt, there is no way they can convince us that their invasion of land, of the then time was not to do with religious motive. There is no way you can be convinced now that, and they did all they can to colonize our land and later they leave. So when they left, we were having that experience, you will always hear people referring to how Attahiru died, how Ahmed of Hadejia died, how so many others were killed in the battle field and that always revived or rekindled that light of hatred, of misunderstanding, of what have you against us, from between us and the colonial masters. So in essence we see any other person following their suit is also like a bird of the same feather. So we view him as if they were the same colonial masters who killed our leaders before.

KN72 [16482-16884]

Yes, ehh most of the northern Nigeria experience that colonial masters had already scattered the political Islamic in northern Nigeria so now that is why they intended to reform the true Islamic ehh politicizations through jihad, yes, through jihad, but not the jihad ehh the arms confrontation jihad.

KN73 [16081-16402]

The relationship is that yes we have known all western colonial. They have done a lot to us and they have taught us the militant power. That's just the relationship. Most of the people have learnt a lot from their own, from these colonial masters and from there on they just use their minds, they just use that practice.

KN74 [28629-28782]

Ok in my, in my view or in my opinion I think, there is no any relationship between colonial experience and politicization of jihad in Northern Nigeria.

KN76 [19530-20353]

Politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria, a relationship between western colonial experience and politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria, you see actually there is a relationship because the colonial masters when they came, they were not fully embraced or accepted in northern Nigeria because of religion. And the Muslim community in northern Nigeria knows about the colonial masters in the holy Qur'an and that view, the whole system and everything of colonialism is viewed by the Muslim community as an extension of Christianity. So ahh so that gave room for other people to politicize the issue of jihad as given meaning that we have to take up ah we have to take back our independence, take back, take back our society, take back our identities as Muslims and decide for ourselves what we will want for ourselves

KN78 [25173-26587]

Well, I think I would want to be eh clarify the important issue here. Although I have given ahh some opinion that I think ahh ahh are genuine from my own interpretation, from my own understanding, but that does not mean you see when the colonial masters came, we know what happened, there first contact with the Muslims here in northern Nigeria particularly what happened and after the Mohammodu, Mohammodu ahh what do you call the, what do you call, Mohammodu Athairu the first in Sokoto, I think that is somewhere around 1890, 1903 thereabout, I think you see from the very inception, there was this ahh ahh unwillingness from the Muslim to have a contact with the colonial masters because they felt the colonial masters are not Muslims and for as long as they have interaction with any power that is not Islamic, there is a fear for an un-Islamic influences in your midst. So from the very inception of the colonial experience in the northern Nigeria, I think there were conscious Muslims who have this serious problem with ahh allowing the colonial masters to have anything to do with their society. Given the fact that the colonial masters have done serious damage in the political, economic and socializing identity of the indigenous Hausa people here in the northern part of the country especially areas like Sokoto, areas like Gusau, areas like Kano and the rest of other core north ah northern areas.

KN79 [13090-13461]

Well northern Nigeria is dominated by Muslims before the coming of western colonial masters, when they came they over throw Islamic government established by Usman Danfodio. This provoked many Muslims and decides to resist colonial attacks, this problem is what is still fueling Muslim agitation to establish or to re-establish Islamic state defeated western colonial.

KN80 [24446-25567]

Yes the backwardness of Islam in Nigeria got its root from the influence of colonization of course because before the advent of colonial authority into this ahh northern Nigerian territories, there was a reformed, as you said, of Islamic revivalism, even before the revivalists emerged, Islam was exist in ahh in the northern Nigeria. So if you can recall around 16th century, around this ahh time 16th century, there was a ah there was ahh there was comprehensive ahh Islamic state in northern Nigeria like in Kano and Katsina. The then emirs even ahh prepared to draft an Islamic constitution which derives its principles and ethics from the Qur'an in which it will guide them to rule their subject. So compare to what is operating currently ahh after colonization even though there is proclamation of having ahh ahh sharia in some states, but if you look at it, sharia is not fully practicable ah practicable in those states because of the influence of colonial adventures. Most of the old institutions including the role of Islamic ahh Ulama's, the role of emirs were taken away by the ahh ahh colonial ahh authorities.

KN80 [25570-25670]

You mean this facilitate the political jihad in northern Nigeria?

A: Yes, yes, yes, yes of course.

KN81 [12911-12954]

There is no relationship based on my idea

KN82 [16325-16599]

There is a close relationship between the two because the colonialists perceived that the only contending element to the promotion of their agenda is Islam. That is why they employed all tools at their disposal to ensure that they discourage or rather they demolish Islam.

KN83 [10274-10523]

Hmm yes there is a relationship because northerners engage in struggle to defend western colonial in history; so they still agitate to have this advantage of overthrowing secular government, secular government established by such western colonies.

KN84 [12184-12299]

I think there is no relationship because this current jihad movement in the northern is just of western creation.

KN85 [12246-12627]

Yes colonial experience was imperialist and imperialism uses force. It uses every available instrument to achieve it's aim.

Therefore, the northern politicians are copying from the colonial masters. They are using religion just in order to achieve their own objectives. So the colonial experience has brought about the thinking of the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria.

ZA1 [14803-15418]

My friend this orientalist all they are using the word jihad, jihad, jihad. Look at what the Christians are doing they are following us door after door in our hostels, village after village, you didn't look about they are doing their own jihad. They are- jihad and missionary are the same thing. So now if you talking about jihad, put in bracket stroke missionary where some certain incidence happened in some North East where non-Muslims from Italia, Rome will just come and reside in a village to make all this people to converted to Christians, so why can't you as for that, you are talking about the jihad.

ZA2 [13936-14992]

Well no they, the colonial experience when you look at it and then the religion have not eh colonial period these are true or let's say the more concentration in that period I could say it was the ATR religion was in existence more strongly, it was more stronger, people believe in their traditional culture life of a pattern and doing all their things. It was later the religion of Christianity and Islam came to take over the affairs. so you find out that there now it was just, will I say a rare thing coming and taking over from the past activities that was in existence and when you look at it too all what I want people to understand what is interpretation of this two religion and what are interpretation of the book itself? We have when with two books there, when we say Islam and Christianity, which they took over, is that not true? What are the books interpreting? So that is the bigger issue, is lack of understanding going to be in detail of the teachings of this book, that sometimes we use to have problems even it was their only problem

ZA3 [13425-13934]

As I have said earlier that when the colonial people came around they found out that the most organized was the northern Nigeria because there were leaders and there were followers who are happy with the leadership, but as it is always what happened all over the world as time goes by, some people, some leaders tend to deviate from the standard rule and that is what happened too in northern Nigeria. So right now the people are not happy about what their leaders are doing and there is poverty in the land.

ZA4 [28990-30224]

The westerners as the West came into Nigeria by colonizing Nigeria that has to be, that is how they came at least to develop themselves, you understand, by giving, how they can make government on their own by using benefiting the natural resources by that...with Allah. They gave us knowledge and all this knowledge this western knowledge is very important because that is the knowledge of this world, you understand. There is no how you can achieve everything and that is-even the prophet is saying, Allah is saying in the Qur'an (he recites the Qur'an) Prophet Muhammad don't forget about your portion in this world, you have to have the knowledge of this world, you have to get your share, everything is halal unless you do it wrongly. So the knowledge of this is very, very important because there is no how we can sit down our enemies will come and destroy us with the knowledge, we are not going to separate ourselves from it, so it is very necessary for us, to the West to contribute because they are bringing western education that allow us to know that develop us because they are giving us awareness, you understand, and we can challenge ourselves, defend ourselves from anything. So I think they contributed positively, yes.

ZA5 [16709-17137]

There, if I may look at it this way, western colonialism came through the west when Islam was, Islam came through the north. The relationship is that both the two came to Nigeria. That's Islam came to Nigeria through trade when western world came to Nigeria to, colonize us and to exploit us and Islam did not do that. They did not come to exploit Nigeria, come to enlighten them more about the religion and ways way of Allah.

ZA6 [40411-41749]

Hmmm relationship between western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria. I think there is a relationship, there is a relationship in the sense that now the colonial experience we have hmm, their structure of government is an inheritance of the colonial masters. Now we have ahh we have, before their coming there is an Islamic caliphate in the northern Nigeria of which they never tempered with, they never forced the Christian religion on the northern Nigeria, but the system of indirect rule made the north inherited the structure of government of the west, now the colonial masters. Now in doing that, the relationship between this with the manipulation, the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria, the politicians now try to manipulate the Muslims they try to politicize the religion just to gain political ahh cheap political advantage. So definitely there is a relationship. The politicians in the northern Nigeria now because of the structure left by the colonial masters, the system of government it is not sharia, they left a western system of government. Now here you have an Islamic, you have people that are predominantly Muslims eh for you to get cheap political advantage, you have to manipulate, you politicize the religion, you manipulate the religion just to get cheap advantage.

ZA7 [15224-15700]

Well from western colonial experience they are two different things, you know, the westerners, they did not come to preach religion to us, actually they came to invade us and establish their way of life in our lives. So they are two different things and politicization of jihad as you said, from what I have truly, jihad has not been politicized in any way because jihad from its content, it cannot be politicized from its definition in Islamic way, it cannot be politicized.

ZA8 [30706-32135]

Yes there is. I think mostly, the western colonization, they also know now that some of the less illiterate, let me say illiterate people that call themselves Muslims because in Islam the prophet make it compulsory, he says it is binding on every Muslim to what, to seek knowledge of Islam and it is also a rule from God that know me before you worship me because if you don't know me you can't worship me. Now the prophet now also says that it is binding on every Muslim to seek for knowledge wherever it is. It is because of all this kind of things. When they have knowledge, you can't come and incite them to start killing. Now you come and start telling me now that kill this person God says, I will ask you where did you read it from because I already have the knowledge that God say you should not kill innocent blood. So now this western colonization has relation with this political jihad because this is what politicians do. The moment they find a weakness that they can mobilize people to cause riot or start killing people, they will use it irrespective of whether it is jihad or whatsoever, if it is money, they can use the money. If the money did not work, they use jihad. They know that the basic thing, the most sensitive tool now is religion. So anywhere you see politician, the moment he wants to get his aim, he will use religion and the next thing he will say is jihad. So I think it has a relationship.

ZA9 [17011-17509]

Well I think during the colonial system, indirect rule succeeded in northern Nigeria mainly because this people are submissive, anybody who is their leader who is their appointed leader they believe they should follow him or her rather him, they should follow him with maximum respect, why I think this thing has been misused by their leaders as such they are using it to propagate their own selfish interest to use Islam as a tool to cover their own evil act like I have been saying before.

ZA10 [18981-19808]

Ok good, the experience, the relationship there is very, very clear. When the western colo, those that colonized Nigeria came, they actually brought a lot of constitution, a lot of policy which were actually very good, but they were not based on religion, Islamic injunctions, but they were all good. But when we talk about the Islam, jihad, when we talk about Islamic jihad and politicizing things, we are actually talking about the commandments that is the Islamic commandments that God stated, don't do this don't do that, actually also they have good relationship with the colonization because the constitutions were okay, but the jihad, the Islamic jihad will actually show you the practical look of it because it has to do with faith. So and when you don't do it, it is sinful, and when you do it you have reward for it.

ZA11 [14305-15160]

Well, like I said, the perspective is different. The conflict we have for now is from the western opinion. The western colonization, like you said, brought a different perspective to we, brought about the Christianity and then at the long run not just propagating it, but trying to damn the Islamic religion... Yah so it is a way to bring down or to damn the religion of Islam. So that is why when you look at it, they are all playing the politics about it and naming it as the act of terrorism and just to make the name. So when you tend to observe everything, when you talk about terrorism, they go Middle East, you are a Muslim, you walk around, they say you are a terrorist so because we are striving in the name of Allah not necessarily forcefully or there about. They see you and then...

ZA12 [8326-8349]

I don't have an idea.

ZA13 [9242-9264]

I have no idea sorry.

ZA14 [8439-8645]

Yes if you look at the colonial time, colonial came here to spread Christianity. When the colonial came to the north they came to meet the, they meet that Islam is already there a hundred years before them.

ZA14 [8758-9005]

The politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria. Yes if you look at it, they have politicized jihad in Nigeria most especially the government nowadays, they are politicizing it because it is not a religious idea that really they are going against.

ZA15 [14355-15170]

What do I think is the western, hmm they are not, there is no much difference because these ones they came and colonized us, we were under them, they were giving us directives, do this do that and so on, but it was not through fighting that they were able to achieve what they achieved. Then you said the other one is the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria, ahh there is no much difference because these ones came with their own and they started it and these ones again started and there is no much implementation, but the only thing that is helping us now in the northern Nigeria is the sharia court that we have that if you feel it is ok for you, you go to, that if you feel you want to do anything that has to do with Islam, you go to sharia, sharia court those ones will assist you achieve your aim.

ZA16 [8881-8953]

Well I think that they have their relationship, they have relationship.

ZA17 [8881-8896]

I don't know.

ZA18 [12599-12643]

Actually I don't really get it, understand.

ZA19 [15962-16878]

Well, this could actually take us back to history because Nigeria, as we can see, the present Nigeria was annexed by the Britain colonial powers in 1861, actually, when they annexed Lagos. And most of the reasons why these colonial powers came to Nigeria is actually to have some economic gains that is economic reason. I can refer you back to one of the books that Dr. Yusuf Bala Usman, a lecturer from history department, but presently he is late actually, a book which he has authored, The Manipulation of Religion in Nigeria, where he talks about the antecedent of manipulation of religion for political tool in Nigeria, where he cited the issue of this Maitatsine, Arab league and so many other western Allies, which have perpetually used our political elites in order to manipulate the religion to make the religion a political tool in order to mask the reality and achieve their economic and political gains.

ZA20 [8770-9053]

How are wish you could lay your hands on the book written, I can't exactly remember the scholar who wrote the book, but the name of the book is The Islamic Caliphate, The Sokoto Caliphate I mean. That book explains a lot about the territorial areas of, you know, Islamic community.

ZA21 [12779-13387]

The colonial masters came to Nigeria and that I rest assure you they introduced the political system which is contrary to that of our pre-colonial traditional rulers. So this is to say the relationship between the western colonial experience and the politicization of jihad in northern Nigeria is very obvious that they changed the political system thereby making our traditional rulers not that powerful. In that regards they are not even considered not to talk of our imams and what have you. This is so far is to say that the practice of religion and the Islam in northern Nigeria is somewhat westernized.

ZA22 [11304-11498]

There are so many things that on cannot say, cannot explain what really that thing is. But I think there are so many things, there are so many factors that are affecting the situation we are.

ZA23 [16587-16678]

It is the same thing. It is even from the colonial that they brought all these disputes.

ZA24 [21546-22239]

The relationship between western colonial – if you look at the western colonial they didn't come with sword. They didn't come with eh they didn't fight anybody. They used their knowledge. In fact they converted – if you go to south west, the converted a lot of Muslims then to their religion. It is the way that people politicize jihad now in northern states it is quite different from the way colonial came that time. The colonial did not use sword, they didn't kill anybody. But look at if you go to north east now and those so called boko haram they are killing people whether you are a Muslim once you do not belong to their sect, it is politics. So they are quite different between them

ZA25 [18841-19831]

Ah yes. As I said during the colonial experience what they did, they did not empower religious scholars. What they did was to empower traditional rulers and traditional rulers it is hereditary. It is one family so if not even one lineage. And that is not Islam. That is not how Attakholuf that is eh khilafa is established or it run. It is not hereditary system. So in that situation a particular royal family would not want anything that will disrupt the system because one time I have reasoned out this word called emir. I learnt that it is the corruption of the word amir in Islam. So they are not amir, but they are just traditional rulers because to be an amir you have to be a religious learned Islamic scholar. But in this situation these traditional rulers they tend to suppress the learned scholars in their community. And because they are at the behest of the political class they can be deposed. Their appointment has to be approved endorsed by the political class. That is it.

ZA26 [9078-9406]

Well to me I don't know, Nigeria cannot develop or manufacture any gun. All the guns in the hands of these militants are manufactured in Europe. I don't know why. How do they get in their hands? Who sell it to them? Then it means the western or the European or the outside countries they are the ones sponsoring the militancy.

ZA27 [7750-7798]

I don't know this, I don't have idea about this

ZA28 [18850-18941]

Even this question seems to be so tough for me as I actually I don't know much history of

ZA29 [27440-27841]

Well the relations there is that I can tell you that is the dichotomy because there is no relations. Me saying dichotomy using the biological terms is, is a big difference. You can't join the western rules and regulations and the rules of Allah. Rules of Allah are different. The way God sees things are different with the way those western people see their own things. So there is no relations here

ZA30 [38116-38182]

This one, I can't say anything yet. I have no answer to this one.

ZA31 [12382-12807]

So you know during colonial, like Nigeria, during colonial period like in the northern region, during Usman Danfodio, Usman Danfodio persuade people, travel all, almost all, almost round the nation, to convey, to convey the message of God that is Islam to preach against on unholy things. So I believe that really helps and people were guided, people were guided through, through the conveying of, through the true religion.

ZA32 [32606-33519]

I think it is that relationship of introducing western education ah western education paves a way for what, for people engage in it to be in power and when they become in power usually they oppress the masses, they oppress them and ah if you consider the, okay in northern Nigeria you say ba? In northern Nigeria, is that relationship of western education when they become in power, they, those with western education, those that acquire the western education, when they are become in power, when they came, come, when they are blessed to be in power, they used to be oppress people and when the jihadist, when the people trying to, trying to engage in that, in jihad, they always refer their selves mostly towards, to the leaders because they see the leadership as the source of injustice and the corruption and any type of corruption or all types of corruption within the society that can be the relationship.

ZA35 [10037-10045]

No idea

ZA37 [17307-17861]

I think this issue is that these are issue of ah of western colonial, issue of this western colonial is that the people that bring about all this colonialism are non-Muslims and they bring about many things that are contrary to the teachings of Islam and what happens since that time up to date is this issue of colonization became the dominant issue even in the northern, almost the dominant issue even in the northern part of Nigeria and it is always, its influence is always increasing, so I think this is the relationship between all this things.

ZA38 [23000-23556]

They have different; even though they have different relation, but it almost have the same movement, you understand, because most of our leaders today, present day leaders are the product of colonialism. They have been enjoying this thing when they knew power is leaving them they would maneuver, you understand, they would use the equipment of divide and rule system, they may use religion, religious ideology for them to remain in power. That is why I say there is no difference between the colonizing and the religious this thing, just different names...

ZA39 [32524-33560]

If you are asking for the relationship, I can say both concepts differ. Ahm the only relationship is that the politicization of jihad is just the way some people are doing it, is the misconception of the religion of Islam with the idea to achieve a particular goal. This goal may not be in line with Islamic value and standards. So if a person politicizes religion with the view to archive a set of objectives, then that person may not be considered as a true person who is practicing that religion. A religion is practiced irrespective of politics, irrespective of your political affiliation. So colonial experience, well colonial masters came to Nigeria in order to promote their colonial activities that is colonialism to extend their territories with the view to get more wealth and cheap labor in Nigeria, so if somebody promotes religion, trying to reap a particular benefit at the expense of illiterates or the people that do not understand it, we can say the only relationship between those colonial experience is selfishness.

Th7.16: Islam as a Revolution

FG1 [18479-18547]

By inviting people to come to your religion you are doing revolution

FG1 [18585-18760]

We heard this from a scholar that Islam is a revolution. Revolution may take different dimensions. So when we say Islam is a revolution on yourself you are doing a revolution

FG1 [18801-18901]

Yes, so everybody Islam may be a revolution to him since revolution may take different dimensions.

FG3 [31944-32466]

Hmmm really I have not heard it but when I heard it I can still refer back to the time of the coming of the Rasul (SAW) when he came if he said people should come and worship only one God people, people were surprised, we that have more than 200 hundred goats and they did not satisfy our needs and you are calling us to worship only on God – meaning Islam started from a single person reaching to how many billions now of Muslims in the world. So in that within-considering that situation we can say Islam is a revolution

FG3 [32538-32570]

I have never heard that before

KD1 [14360-14415]

Ahm with all sincerity have not heard that statement.

KD2 [5623-5695]

Islam is not a revolution because actually I have never heard about it.

KD3 [4329-4333]

No.

KD4 [6079-6366]

Well my brother, the assertion that Islam is a revolution has been portrayed, has been portrayed, has been ringing bells in our ears. I heard of this statement mostly in the literatures you found in the internet and what have you. But if you ask me I will disagree with this assertion.

KD5 [4375-4536]

I think I did not hear Islam, Islam religion being a revolution because revolution in my own understanding is to revolt and I don't think Islam is a revolution.

KD6 [7986-9210]

Eh to some people, it's a revolution. To me, it's not a revolution. Islam is the din of Allah from the onset one. Every...that comes, it comes with Islam. You can call it other name. What is Islam? What is Muslim? What is the literally meaning of Islam? People will say peace, peace, no, no, no, no, that's not the meaning of Islam? The meaning of Islam is to submit to Allah, to the creator that created you this is how you do, just like a motor. You will buy a car, you have your manual there. So, why can't we have a manual? God that created us eh gave us a manual from onset. When he created ah for example, if a Peugeot manufacturer manufactures the Peugeot 504, he has a manual for it. When the time comes again, 505 he has a manual for it. When the time comes again 407, he has, so that is how it is. From the onset, it's still the same manufacturer, it's still the same person that is manufacturing it but he is giving them different, am just citing an example, given them ehm different catalogue to look at. If you want to operate this, this is how you operate it, but still it's still born out of the same one thing may be they can change the name. So, Islam is one from the onset, there is nothing like revolution.

KD7 [5927-5956]

Yes, I have heard it before.

KD7 [6012-6057]

I cannot remember, may be through the media.

KD8 [14948-16069]

Islam is not a revolution. Islam is peace. Islam is peace. Islam has to do with a comprehensive life of a Muslim. It has to do with issue of governance. It has to do with the totality of the life of Muslims as individuals, as organizations as a groups, and as a state. So, Islam is not a revolution as seen by other side, but it could be seen as a revolution from another way in the sense that you try to revolutionarize your mind, try to be upright, try to be morally upright, you know, imbibe good virtues and values by that you are revolutionalizing yourself and at the same time, you try to preach to other people, preach peach to them, preach Islam to them, give them knowledge, by that you are revolutionalizing the, either your state or the world. It depends on the way you look at it, but at the general perception of revolution, Islam is not like that, but the way I look at it, it is a revolution in the sense that it has to do with mental revolution, it has to do with spiritual revolution, it has to do with knowledge revolution and it can be like that. In that context, Islam can be said to be a revolution.

KD9 [7716-7765]

I can't remember hearing that, but I don't know.

KD10 [4475-4506]

I have not heard that before.

KD11 [9495-9588]

Ah no, I have not heard of it. Islam is not a revolution, but submission to the will of God.

KD12 [9295-9524]

I actually Islam is a revolution, I really accept and every, we have been seeing revolution in the whole world. The Filipinos have done it eh Americans have done theirs too, so they are still revolting, revolution has to come.

KD13 [3033-3061]

Islam is not a revolution

KD14 [3709-3776]

Islam, I have not heard the statement that Islam is a revolution

KD15 [5410-6000]

Actually have ever had of that, but Islam is not a revolution. Islam is ah religion from God and before the coming of Islam, there is a religion being worshipped by the people like idol worshiping and Christianity or whatever, but Islam is being send down by God through prophet Muhammad (SAW) and ah it is being tested and granted because in the holy Qur'an Allah (SBUH) says that (quoting verse) the only religion with God is just Islam that means peace. So I don't think Islam is a revolution or whatever, revolution is not Islam, revolution is not Islam. Islam is a religion from God.

KD16 [3378-3403]

I have never had of it.

KD17 [9061-9956]

No, not at all. Islam as a revolution, the term revolution, me, what I can say to be, what I understand as revolution maybe to change the people as in may be revolution by trying and killing people. I don't know if you get me, try and killing people just to suit your own way? I don't really know how to explain it, but the literally there about revolution is just that Islam is not a revolution even back then during the time of prophet (SAW), there are those that are not Muslims, they are still living inside the Islamic caliphate or the Islamic state, you understand, and nothing was being done to them. How will tell me that Islam is a revolution? Okay you should try and everybody, everybody must be a Muslim, no, no, no, not at all. If Allah wanted everybody to be a Muslim he will have created everybody to be a Muslim. So I don't think that statement is true as far as am concerned.

KD18 [5680-5763]

Yes I think I have not heard of Islam as a revolution, I have not heard it before.

KD19 [7967-8448]

Ah let's look at the word revolution, revolution means to be revolt, to kick against an established order, now any in a peculiar sense, Islam is a revolution because when Islam came, it met the people in a state of total darkness, people were in, people were in a state of ignorance now when the messenger of Allah Muhammad (SAW) came, he met his people in a state of total darkness and he kicked against what they are doing, so in that sense, we could say Islam is a revolution.

KD20 [4043-4069]

I've not come across it.

KD21 [4139-4235]

I have never heard of the statement Islam is a revolution. I don't believe Islam is revolution.

KD23 [4782-5015]

So ah Islam is not revolution, but this statement is ah is coming out of from the mouth of some people that call themselves scholars that misquote or that usually say the contrary of the teachings of the Qur'an and the holy prophet.

KD24 [17171-18650]

Ah actually based on religions acts or aspects they are not like eh human beings activities because the Muslims claim that all these things they are doing so far it is in there in the Qur'an or it is found in the hadith of prophet (SAW) then that thing is supposed to be followed hundred percent only in the situation whereby you find yourself in eh situation which you can't act or react, then Muslims say Islam say we should wait until time comes which you can do something or react or take action on your hands, but on the other way round, the Christians that are following Christianity they have the same thing because the Bible if it says do this, do this, do this. What it means is you should do it hundred percent based on your own power, based on their own strength and ability. Okay stop this, don't do this, don't steal, don't cheat, don't rape, don't, we are asked to stop from doing such things that is how I understand it. Okay if that should be the case, then the Muslims they have in their noble book the Qur'an and hadith that do this, do this, if I understand you, it is what is there that they are just practicing. They have the belief that it is word of their God Allah (SBUH) that said they should do that. If time comes for this, do this, if this happens, do this, if like people react in the other way like that this is how you should react to them. They are following what that's I am talking about the true Muslims that are practicing the real religion.

KD25 [21818-23494]

To eh to the extent I will not agree with the word that Islam is a revolution because when you say revolution, revolution, you know, is eh it refers to ah somebody trying to maintain or earn his standard or status by any means, trying to bring back his status through any means either by carrying, you know, machine gun or by detonating bombs in order to acquire the land or what have you that is revolution, I mean the word is relative, it can mean different things. So I don't buy that word because when somebody uses a word that can be seen from a relative point of view, people can be misled by the statement, but if you say Islam is a religion that is based on striving, striving to attain to success or to see to the elevation, struggling that is it or if you use that.

When you say struggle is not something that is negated, but when you say revolution, even people, when you say revolution it means something that has to do with physical exchange of eh, you know, weapons or what have you, you understand, so I don't buy the idea really and ah that is why the Qur'an said (he recites in Arabic) that if you want to talk, be just, speak the truth and the prophet also said in his authentic hadith that (he recites in Arabic) that anybody that believes in Allah and the last day, should speak good or keep quiet, so if what somebody wants to say is not a good thing, he should keep quiet, so such statement that you have said now, is not a good statement, is an evil statement, is an all inciting statement, is an instigating statement that instigates people to war, to start killing themselves, so such word should not be used in this our present ah Islamic arena.

KD26 [5815-5836]

I have not heard it.

KD27 [5023-5026]

No

KD28 [8872-8966]

Well I heard such a statement, but I don't believe in it. I don't believe in that statement.

KD29 [4644-5030]

Well it all depends on the content of a revolution. By revolution to me a revolution, Islamic revolution is a means of convincing persons through your good conducts, through your good practices and good interrelationship between believer and non-believer to be convinced through these and if there is mass conversion through these acts, I can say a positive revolution has taken place.

KD30 [6959-7386]

I think from the world of the Muslim, of Islam it has been a revolution to the whole world because I think ah Islam came during the dark ages where people can even slaughter you, slaughter their children for simple believe that you are afraid of responsibility and such things and I think Islam is what brought light into people's life and brought stop to all these activities, I think Islam is true a revolution to humanity.

KD31 [6937-6945]

Ah, no.

KD32 [6316-6814]

No, there is nothing like revolution in Islam. So the Islam we are practicing comes from the prophet and we don't change anything, so we practice it according to its tradition just like what the prophet says (speaking Arabic) you are to follow my own tradition and the tradition of the four guarded caliphate, so whenever you bring anything new into the religion is not accepted, so there is nothing to revolve, so we practice it the way the prophet did this is the only Islam acceptable to Allah.

KD33 [5092-5168]

I didn't come across the statement, but I believe Islam is not a revolution

KD34 [6919-7375]

Hmm I never heard of it, but I agree Islam is a revolution because it is the way you define word revolution would determine whether Islam is a revolution or not. A revolution is a drastic change, a change that would change the society, change the activities of a people and Islam definitely it has changed the way people behave, the way the kafirun of Mecca are behaving by the coming of the Islam it completely changed and it changing the world entirely.

KD35 [8209-9363]

Islam is a revolution of the heart really is true. Islam means revolution of the heart from bad to good. The moment you, let me give an instance, you see a lady you want to marry her, you just come, you can't just snatch that lady and then take her to your home, you seek for permission from her parents, you pay the dowry, you legally bring the child by her consent and her parent's consent, you take her to home. When you see something in the market, you bargain, you price it then you pay before you take it. So Islam is the revolution of the heart that is why in one sura Allah said (he recites in Arabic), so whatever, whatever a soul does he knows the right from the wrong because Allah has made it clear. So is a revolution of the heart am saying it again, you revolutionize your heart from bad to good. You love people, you keep their properties well, you keep their lives, you do this you do that, on the way or at home wherever you meet people in the country, even the animals, so don't you cheat, you don't tell lies, you don't do this you don't do that as God said that means you revolutionize your heart and this is nothing more than that.

KN1 [16085-16466]

Well, I have not heard and if this is coming from a non-Muslim well I would say that he needs to know more about Islam to say the least because in the first place I know according to our holy prophet, the word Islam means peace, it doesn't mean revolution it means peace, one. Two, concerning revolution, I don't know in what way? If it means revolution of bad to good, then yes.

KN2 [10634-10949]

A revolution is also misinterpreted. A revolution does not mean fight. It does not mean war; it means a general change that cut across all parts of the society. Ideological, intellectual, spiritual, moral, behavioral, political, economical that is what we call revolution. So we should have a criteria for ...

KN2 [11036-11543]

If it is my own definition of religion, yes I agree Islam is a revolution, my own definition of revolution. My own definition means intellectual change, spiritual change, economic, it changes the politics, it changes the education and intellect, it changes the morals and behavior and attitudes and of course Islam comes to sweep across all these and replace it with an entire ideology of the Qur'an and Sunna of the Prophet. If that is revolution yes I agree.

KN4 [11686-12856]

Yes everything, even the world when you look at it the law of dynamism, it started with revolution, look at the form of human being, a human being is started like an ape or I can say a animal from one stage it metamorphosed from one state to another from the other to another to today that we find our self, Or you look at it in the Darwinism form. Revolution it comes in different way depending on the way that you interpret the revolution. What will you say when you compare the French revolution? When you look at it, there is different revolution that takes place in the world. Islam is a revolution religion but when you look at it from the, from one stage to another, it transform but the real teaching of the Qur'an and the Hadith is fixed, is ok, is constant. It doesn't change it is only the people that change. Islam does not change, Islam it is as it is, it is only the people that change that is the revolution. It can revolutionize people and change the thinking of people and change their attitude, and change their mode of behavior and change their way of life, that is the revolution, but the revolution of Islam does not, has no relationship with war.

KN5 [5544-5695]

Yes I did, some people eh consider Islam as a revolution which truly is not. Islam is peace and has never but thought eh eh revolution. Islam is peace.

KN6 [4124-4172]

I didn't heard any word that Islam is revolution

KN7 [5486-6258]

Well ehm, people that ehm that do not have ehm vast knowledge about Islam would take Islam as a revolution but am in the real sense, Islam is the total way of life and its ehm, its a revelation, its a revelation that has come to us and we should agree because as a Muslim, as a Muslim ehm the Qur'an says, the Qur'an says that ahm, the Qur'an is talking about the fact that yes, what really makes you a Muslim alazina yuminuna bil ghaib yes mu'min, as a mu'min yes as a true believer of Islam, you are the people that believe in things you do not see. Islam is a revolution sent, let me say a revelation, is a revelation sent through Prophet Mohammed, through the angels to Prophet Mohammed (SAW) to us, so Islam is not a revolution and I don't think it's a revolution.

KN8 [4530-4589]

I dis-concur with this because Islam is not a revolution.

KN9 [4478-4742]

Yes, am conversant with this statement that Islam is revolution and I want to believe that I came across this statement right from the early days of my Qur'anic ah knowledge research. So the statement is conversant with me, am very conversant with the statement.

KN10 [4332-4595]

Yes, I heard that it is a revolution but ah, that is not a true statement because is something that already ah is continuously like ah God said inna dina lahil Islam So this means that Islam is not revolution since from the beginning of the world Islam is there.

KN11 [5806-5948]

Now to some extent, you can say Islam is revolution yes if so how did you come across the statement. Explain the question, is not understood.

KN11 [6211-6519]

I heard it in Iran when this Ayatollahi came. yes you say Islamic revolutionary, so that is how-I didn't understand the exact what did he mean to say because the man who was Shi'a so when he came he taught people that he wanted to revolutionize the country as long last he turned the country to Shi'a state

KN13 [5999-6638]

Through readings, through readings and ehm through experience because if you look at, for example, if you look at most of the Islamic states like the Iranian state, Islam brought a revolution through that state, through the person of their spiritual leader Ayatollah Khomeini, even if you check back to places like Syria and Kuwait, Islam is a kind of commonsensical revolution, 75% or let me say 85% of most of the populations are Muslims. Although we have, we still have few Christians there but definitely Islam has become a major ideology of the state, so Islam it normally comes up with a revolution although not a bloody revolution.

KN14 [4595-4626]

I have never ever heard this.

KN15 [6440-6503]

Islam is not revolution. Islam is not revolution, not at all

KN16 [2984-3124]

Islam is not only revolution but it is a total way of life governed by the creator of mankind rather the revolution can come when necessary.

KN17 [6098-6172]

Yeah Islam is a revolution is a let me say, is an ideological revolution.

KN17 [6222-6257]

Through research, through reading

KN18 [8763-8781]

No. I have never

KN19 [8619-8652]

Hah, I have not heard about that

KN20 [4745-4748]

No

KN21 [2936-2964]

Islam is not a revolution.

KN22 [5457-5522]

Yah, I have heard of the statement and I agree to that statement

KN23 [5259-5262]

No

KN24 [4774-4935]

Yah Islam is a revolution but I don't know your own view of understanding the meaning of revolution. Revolution is, to my own understanding, I think is change.

KN24 [4963-5339]

Yah. Islam means, Islam can be change in some other views and in some other views Islam-to new people that you are going to introduce Islam to it can be change them because Islam is all about faith and faith is all about whatever your life is all about. It takes all the procedures of life, whatever life goes through Islam brought it, however life is supposed to be moving.

KN25 [5870-5902]

Yah I have heard the statement.

KN25 [5954-6099]

The statement was mentioned by an Islamic scholar who happens to be fatwa giver as he delivers his speech in Islam yah I heard it from him once.

KN26 [5709-5711]

No

KN27 [4978-5003]

Well I have, yes I have.

KN27 [5048-5301]

Well I have. I came across it in one magazine or so I read. On how the westerners have been tackling Islam and in ways Islam has been able to, let me say, influence their members to become militants and then involve themselves in militant activities.

KN28 [4263-4400]

Well that is a challenging issue which really needs to be looked at. Islam is never a revolution I believe, Islam is never a revolution

KN30 [3580-4104]

Yah, whenever there is going to be a change, whenever there is going to be a change, it can be a revolution but revolution most people use to think that revolution use to come through taking of arms but is not like that. You can revolutionarize yourself by changing the way your life is, going into maybe changing into from the bad side of your behavior to a good side. You have revolutionarized. So I don't think it is, may be, I don't know whether that is the thinking they have and my understanding is not that way.

KN31 [3773-4328]

Well if anyone will say that, I think which means he doesn't really know the origin of Islam and what Islam is all about because Islam has been in existence for decade. So when you said it is something new, which means you are conflicting the two things. So I don't think Islam is a revolution that has come to change the society. It is just that we have so many movements most especially in the Islamic world that are trying to bring back or fight to bring back the Islamic ethics which has been lost due to westernization or globalization as they say.

KN32 [1745-1755]

No, at all

KN33 [2152-2155]

No

KN34 [2348-2351]

No

KN35. [4473-4475]

No

KN36 [3681-3685]

No.

KN37 [3002-3060]

Islam is not a revolution it has gone beyond a revolution.

KN38 [2058-2075]

No no I haven't.

KN39 [2415-2428]

No actually.

KN40 [4030-4373]

We can make Islam as a revolution for all the Muslims in order to just try to renew about their faith or about what they have discussed with them early maybe in terms of may be just try to bring about the prophet, what the prophet have done so in order to just put it in the recent Muslims in order not to get involved in some bad activities.

KN41 [2892-2922]

No I don't have idea on that.

KN42 [4398-4515]

Yes, I have heard about the statement, it is ehm, it was said by Ayatollah Khomeini and I actually studied about it.

KN43 [6805-6841]

I am hearing it for the first time.

KN44 [3984-4031]

Islam is a revolution. I don't think of that.

KN45 [3434-3500]

No, I don't agree that Islam is a revolution at all, yh, I don't.

KN46 [5721-6222]

Well, if revolution means to change the total perception of life to, to, to introduce new understanding of how one should live his life if that is revolution, then Islam is. But if the revolution ah referred here means to, to, to engage in ah violent activities to cause change of government, change of order, then I have some reservations about describing Islam as revolution. It may lead to that but ah not maybe the way some people may understand the, the, the, description of Islam as revolution.

KN47 [8331-9141]

Well Islam, in many other perspective you can simply say that Islam is a revolution because Islam may bring some new, you know, it is a way of life, you understand, so if there is new thing that brought by Islam then we can say that there is revolution and then this revolution may be political, you know, the way it happened during era of Usman Dan Fodio jihad we can say simply there was revolution in Hausa land because it was, the religion was not practiced the way it should before the jihad, then when the jihad took place then there was this transformation of people's life so Islam is life then we can believe that Islam is revolution because it changes people's lives, so Islam is life so they can believe that Islam is revolution, yes it changes people's lives and it is all about attitude change.

KN48 [3485-3531]

Hmm, I am just hearing it for the first time.

KN49 [4868-5073]

Actually I would say I have encountered such a statement, but I feel Islam as a religion of peace is a positive revolution from the evil to the good, you know, from the darkness to the light more or less.

KN50 [3099-3165]

Huh, am just also hearing it for the first time, I don't have ah.

KN51 [20753-22368]

Islam is a revolution. In fact (Athaura) revolution is not an Arabic word, is an English word and it has always been associated with the uprising of the masses against the ahm, what do you call them, the haves, is the crisis of trying to change the situation by demonstration ok, by civic uprising to fight those who are oppressors, to fight those who are now cheating people, the children, this is in western perspective. But in an Islamic perspective, whenever we talk of, when this word is now in ah borrowed, it is only borrowed to indicate that people wants to change from an un-Islamic ways of life to an Islamic way of life that is the meaning; change from an un-Islamic way of life to Islamic way of life and this is achieved not by militancy, is achieved not by force, is achieved by scholarship. For example, when we take Imam Shafi'i (rahim...), we start from Umar ibn Abdulazeez, who was the first reformer, the first reformer, he changed- now he revolutionarized the situation by educating people, by practicing justice, now this is it. Imam Shafi'i after him, made a revolution by ilm-knowledge. Then after, after him came Ghazali, another reformer. You can see most of the Muslim reformers, all of them, they reformed Islam by way of al-Ilm-knowledge, instilling discipline to people, knowledge, teaching people, this is what is bringing about change, bringing about revolution, but not fighting people, not killing people. This is never associated with Islam. When you, you hear anybody trying to associate this with Islam, he is doing it out of hatred ok or out of ignorance and so on and so forth.

KN52 [5360-5534]

(Laugh) I have never heard of this statement. But I don't understand what it means. What you mean by Islam is a revolution? I don't, I have never heard of this statement.

KN53 [4688-4725]

Gaskiya I haven't heard this before

KN54 [1843-1846]

No

KN55 [2955-2989]

I have no view on this statement.

KN56 [3179-3242]

No I have never had the statement that Islam is a revolution.

KN57 [4538-4894]

Honestly no. Islam is not a revolution. There is difference between Islam and revolution. Islam is the teaching of the Muslims while revolution, when we talk of revolution, is a change of Government especially if it is not in line with the constitution of the said country or state, where revolution must in, be it political, social what have you, yes.

KN58 [9677-11049]

Yah I have heard it once in a book I came across, a book that is even having this name, they call it Islam and Revolution written by Rashid Moten. He is a prominent scholar in political science. He is now in, I think, he is currently in Malaysia. So he now stated the true meaning of Islam where Islam is an interphase between capitalism and communism that Islam always takes the medium course. Islam believes in capitalism because under Islamic..., you have right to ownership, ownership of properties or means of production in as much as you can either pay the state or the owner of the property. While in Islam too, it believes in other aspect of socialism whereby there are properties that are only owned by the state or that are supposed to be owned by the state not individual. For example, electricity, water. So now Rashid Moten went further in trying to establish revolution of Islam thereby changing the course of history. Look at what is happening in the world today. Islam is the fastest growing religion in the world as a result of the kind of revolution that Islam is taking in different parts of the world. So Rashid Moten emphasized that Islam is also a revolution in the sense that Islam now came with a new concept. It is giving people an alternative to way of life that is why we say Islam is not only a religion, but a way of life. That is it.

KN59 [8042-8102]

Revolution, gaskiya I have not come across this statement.

KN60 [8807-11661]

Of course Islam is a revolution I have heard it. Well you see it depends on how you understand the word revolution. A lot of Ulama since the time we are in secondary school when they are preaching they would tell you that Islam is a revolution, but it is now left for you to interpret the word revolution. If you take revolution to mean people taking up arms, fighting the government in order to bring change, then I can say your understanding of the word revolution has a defect in it. In fact revolution, to me, means bringing changes in whatever way you can bring, that would bring progress to the people, that would bring progress to the wellbeing of the entire populace living in a particular environment anywhere in the world. At least if you have a leader that can maybe bring a kind of policies that would now cushion the hardship people are going through, at least that person can be said to have bring in revolution. And if you have a sound preacher, a sound Imam who preaches to other people to shy away from violent activities, to shy away from these ah a lot of vices that are contrary to the teachings of Islam that would the wrath of God upon the person that is doing such act, you find a preacher that would preach to people that would tell the people that ok imbibe the teachings of the prophet of Allah, prophet Muhammad (SAW) and those people now embraces that teaching and continue to practice the teachings of prophet Muhammad (SAW) that is his Sunna, in a short term that is the meaning of revolution, bringing changes ven without taking up arms. There are situations whereby you can say ok we cannot get revolution unless we use weapons, but what is that situation? The situation is that some people may be a strong nation would come and say you people are not allowed to pray five times in a day, then the next thing you do is that you migrate; you change your abode, your habitat, you change it now. You go to another place you make a new living there then such powerful nation followed you to the environment you changed and they said we are not permitting you even though you migrated to this place now we are telling you you cannot pray five times a day and you cannot say God is one, in fact they are trying to deny you your freedom of worship as enshrined by Allah (SBUH). Then in that situation now you take up arms you fight the jihad war against those people. Then we can put the meaning of revolution to be towards that direction that is if that situation warranted you to take up arms in order to correct or in order to fight for your freedom of practicing your religion and understanding. So that means to me the word revolution is a bi-headed ideology, you understand. It can either mean taking up arms to fight for somebodies right and in another way it means bringing change in a peaceful way and manner.

KN61 [2940-2973]

Hmm, somehow I heard about that.

KN61 [3026-3340]

Eh I came across the statement because I during the prophet (SAW) ahh the world or particularly in the Mecca, they are not practicing Islam, so he has to preach so as to convert them to the Islam, so that one people us to look at it as a revolutionary because from changing people from one attitude to another.

KN62 [9828-14273]

Hmm Islam is not revolution. I don't believe in that. Islam is peace, is not revolution. Is just a misconception due to media I believe in that, and that ah sometimes people actually think that ah ah we Muslim force people into the religion and ah it is not. Sometimes we know that we use force, but we use that force only when we are wronged, when we are cheated, when we are actually ah when a kind of evil is done to us. Ehh that is what Allah says (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) those who are wronged are given the right, a kind of chance to go after those who wronged them yah without you being wrong in the first place, you are not allowed islamically speaking to take sword against anybody and ah if Islam is propagated by sword, yah, yah I was saying that ah if Islam was propagated by sword or is being propagated by the use of sword ah about let say ehm 800 years that Spain spent under Islamic empire wouldn't have been erased. That was, let say the order of the day in Islam for about 800 years, but all of a sudden one day, a kind of Christians, let say, a group of Christian crusaders went to Spain and eradicate yah, let me use the word of eradication, they eradicated Islam from the surface of this very country and ah another thing is now go to Arab world, especially Egypt, you will see that we have more than fourteen million Coptic, fourteen million Coptic Arab Christians yah, we have more than fourteen million Christians there in a, in the Arab world, we have that and if Islam, if Islam is being propagated using sword, gun, this and that, we wouldn't actually have this number there in the Arab world because we know that Arab world is a kind of empire that has been under the rulership, the governance, the governorship, if you like, of Islam for more than one thousand years. So, so this is another reason and again we can say that India was ruled by Muslim for more than one thousand years, but actually today, about 80 percent of the Indian, of, of the Indian population actually is not Muslim. Ah that is what I am saying, was talking about India, now about 80 percent of the Indian population is Christians and Hindus, you understand. But for one thousand years am telling you, for one thousand years, India was being ruled by ah Muslims. So if Islam is being propagated by the use of swords and ah guns, machine guns, this and that, you wouldn't find this percentage of Christians and ah Buddhist in, in India. And ah another thing, another reason is that ah in India today, the same India today, we have a kind of ah Buddhist, as I said earlier, a kind of group of Buddhist in Gurma you understand, killing Muslims and the Muslims are defenseless, they have no weapon, children, women, old, you understand, are all being massacred mercilessly. Why all these things? Just the reason is that Muslims around or the Muslims around the globe, around the world are defenseless. If they use guns at people, actually propagate, wallahi I believe that we would have already overrun this very ah insurgency thing taking place there in India. And another thing, look at Hitler. How many millions of lives that were killed by Hitler, Adolf Hitler? But people never call him terrorist, terrorist yah, never call him terrorist, a terrorist, yah, never called him a terrorist. Look at this W. Bush. What happened? How many millions of people? Look at Ariel Sharon there in Israel. How many millions of lives has he killed so far? People never called him a terrorist. So what we are saying is, in Islam, there isn't anything like terrorism, there isn't anything like revolution in Islam and even Allah (SBUH) tells us in ah, tells us in Qur'an ah in chapter 2 vs 256 that is in sura Baqara ah la iqra ha fid din let there be no compulsion in Islam la iqra ha fid din let there be no compulsion. What does it mean? No force, no impose-ment. We don't force anybody to go or to come into our religion and that is why now the fastest growing religion in America and Europe is Islam because we don't use weapons, we don't use weapons, even in Sura Nahal Allah says (he recites the verse) so this very hikma means (recites the Qur'an) invite people to the way of your God, bil hikma, using wisdom, with wisdom and wal muizitil hassana and with good preaching or preach. So this way now people are being converted into Islam everyday, day by day, day in day out there in Europe and in Asia. This is my take on this very question.

KN63 [11673-13185]

Hmm am just hearing it for the first time, but in the real sense, let me just talk about that, you know, because some few years ago, what happened in Tunisia, Libya, Egypt, whatever that talk of revolution of a thing, you know, I cannot attribute that to Islam. You know even looking at the initial, the initial stage, what happen in the Tunisia, it started in Tunisia if I am not wrong, you know, that someone go on hunger strike and something like that and finally died because of that people take to the street and start, you know, protesting for that. You know, even in Islam you cannot just take your life. It is even wrong for you to take your life by yourself, for what? So you cannot even attribute that to Islam huh. So Islam has been there, and is going to continue to be there huh. Islam doesn't need, you know, Islam is not what you can- if you have the real knowledge, you can pray on your own, it is not necessary you have to be, you have to be in a revolution and it is not necessary you have to take a revolution. If you have the knowledge, how to worship Allah, you know, that is all huh. But taking over the country or taking arms against the government or whatever, is not the best. Okay looking it, they even, looking at Egypt, Tunisia today that were in revolution the other time, up till today now, they are not settled. They don't have peace of mind. So what are you talking about? So it is not, it is not, it is not, Islam doesn't mean anything like revolution or doesn't stand for that.

KN64 [5547-5550]

No

KN65 [8437-8477]

Yes, I have heard something like that.

KN65 [8522-8727]

Huh, well I read it in different articles, about this ah uhm Ayatollahi Khomeini in 2001 during this ehm ehm, September 11 bomb blast, you know, so that is how I came about it in an article that I write.

KN66 [2990-3019]

Islam is not a revolution

KN67 [2888-2965]

I heard it, but I don't have a, ah source that I can refer to, but I heard.

KN68 [1877-1881]

No.

KN69 [6661-6888]

Islam is not a revolution, but rather it is a law of Allah (SAW) which revealed to his last prophet Muhammad (SAW) in order to change the attitude of Muslims that is from evil to good, from bad, from right, from left to right.

KN70 [9313-9572]

Islam is, well ehm it is trickish when you say Islam is a revolution, but when you say revolution is one of the teaching of Islam, then I say yes, I agree, but you cannot equate Islam with ah revolution as synonymous, revolution is also one aspect of Islam.

KN70 [9613-9913]

And of course, revolution as you say ahm there are certain degree of revolution that calls for violence, there are certain degree of a revolution that equally calls for internal struggle in ah trying to liberate yourself from certain ahm human appetite, like immorality, ehm like sex out of wedlock.

KN71 [11272-12000]

I have never heard that word that Islam is a revolution, but even if I have never heard of it, Islam is a revolution, but what do I mean? You have to take yourself back to the years of jahiliyya period, to the emergence of Islam. What is a revolution? Is it not an attempt to change one situation to another? The Arabs were in a complete state of ignorance, in complete chaos, then there was Islam that came to sanitize everything and that is a revolution. Take you, take yourself back to the years of Shehu Usman bin Fodio, when there was this multiple injustice of the Emirs of the time. Now what Shehu Usman bi Fodio did? Was it not a revolution? So even you heard or you have never heard of the word, Islam is a revolution...

KN72 [8252-8646]

Yes. When we say revolution or Islam is a revolution, revolution it doesn't mean war, it doesn't mean war yes, because there is so many revolutions even in scientific, there is scientific revolution, is there any bloodshed war in that? No. So the Islamic or the Islamic revolution is not mean to declare war, a bloodshed war, but rather to declare a verbal war, war without bloodshed. That is

KN73 [8046-8125]

Have never heard this statement that Islam is a revolution. I've never heard.

KN74 [13822-14337]

Yes, hamdulillah Islamic is revolution because if you look at what had happen even before the prophet Muhammad (SAW), the people used to live anyhow, they did not even take care of themselves, they lived like an animal but Allah (SBUH) says that (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) that is this aya is refer to the prophet Muhammad (SAW) and the main issue that prophet (SAW) carry is Islam. Therefore, if you look at it you find out that Islam is revolution. It changed the life of the people ehh to the right way.

KN75 [17241-17649]

I have been hearing that Islam is a revolutionary religion, why Islamic is a revolution, I use to feel so, so depressed for some people or some western to be using such utterance statement in Islam. I am not happy about that, over that, you understand, as I have told you, from the Islamic definition, Islam is a way of life, Islam is a religion of peace and total submission to the will of Almighty Allah.

KN76 [11490-11633]

Ahh, actually ahh Islam I never heard somebody calling Islam a revolution, Islam has been a religion and all I have known Islam is a religion.

KN78 [12284-12736]

Well I think that is an understatement when you say Islam is a revolution, but when you say revolution, ahh ahh this is a modern concept actually, but when you say, it is a process of change, but Islam, my definition submission, but submission ahh if you said change is part of Islam that I agree, change is part of revolution ah change is part of Islam or perhaps revolution as a phenomenon is under the teaching of Islam. So they are not synonymous.

KN79 [5422-5472]

Yes of course, of course through my reading, hmm.

KN79 [5520-5550]

Yes, Islam is a revolution.

KN80 [9728-10101]

Yes, yes Islam is a revolution because Islam is a religion of peace, is a religion of Allah Allah (SBUH) ahh in Qur'an chapter 3 verses 3 it says (Recites in Arabic), so there is no any other religion other than Islam also prophet Muhammad (SAW) says that Addin and nasihat, so this addin is referring to Islam. So whosoever luckily find himself as Muslim so he is lucky.

KN80 [10254-10523]

Yes of course I heard it and in my own view Islam is a revolution because whosoever follows the commandment of Islam, the injunctions attached to Islam, followed them strictly he is bound to have a reward and whosoever ran from following it, is bound to have a sin.

KN81 [5674-5752]

Well ahh I didn't not hear this statement, but Islam is positive revolution

KN82 [8144-8405]

Islam is a din. Islam is din, meaning that it encompasses all the life throughout everything of the Muslims and the Umma in general. Everything that an individual or a Muslim is to be done must be done according to the prescription or description of the Islam.

KN83 [4713-4952]

I do not heard this statement, but I believe Islam is a revolution because it is a means of reform. Reform go back to history, the holy prophet came to Mecca and they changed it from idol worship to real worship that is worshipping Allah.

KN84 [5586-5952]

Yes, at times I used to, I might agree, I might not agree. But I will just possibly use the agreed one because I do agree because Islam is a revolution because ahh Islam I think is a revolution because is a revolution. Revolution does not mean violence, is just a change and a positive change. So Islam is a change from darkness and sorrow to light and happiness.

KN85 [4398-4812]

Ahh yes ah most of the people particularly scholars in the west see Islam as a revolution. Ahm I think emm most of emm their scholars who are against Islam and Islam teaching try to qualify it as a revolution, but is not necessarily a revolution, it is a way of life and it has been there for a very long time. I think from time in from the beginning of the world Islam has been there, so it is not revolutionary.

ZA1 [6333-6612]

Islam is not a revelation, no. But if you look at what is globally is going on, like what we are seeing, what we are hearing, America and so called super power, they went to Somalia, for what reason? They went to Iraq, Afghanistan, for what reason? So Islam is not a revolution.

ZA2 [3767-3772]

No

ZA3 [7485-7723]

By my own understanding of revolution is for a system existing and you are not pleased with it and people decide to change their system, so Islam I do not agree that is a revolution. It has been a way of life right from time immemorial.

ZA4 [18492-18693]

So Islam is a revolution that people thinks that, maybe Islam, maybe by jihad killing people, trying to convert every person to Islam that is not the concept of Islam. That is not the concept of Islam.

ZA5 [8370-8729]

I have never heard of that and I have never read anything about that whether Islam is a revolution or not. But to me, if I can like put it in another way. What is a revolution? Revolution doesn't mean that you have to fight to bring blood and some other things, but to bring somebody towards the proper way, you understand, that is just what I contribute there

ZA6 [13047-13869]

Hmm ahh it depends on the aspects they are using it. Islam has been a revolution from the onset. Islam is a religion that has been in existence since humanity. So revolution in the aspect of changing the bad norms ehn yes revolution in aspect of changing societal values to a good one, to a peaceful one something that everybody can coexist and live together yes that is the teaching of Islam. Islam is a religion of peace, it always teaches peace and peaceful coexistence. So revolution in that sense is fine, is justified and that is the teaching, but revolution in the sense of the militancy now, coming to force propaganda or saying they must get certain things as their right as Muslims is not a revolution that is taught by Islam, That is an imported one that is a selfish one and it is not the teaching of Islam.

ZA7 [6975-7343]

Yes I think I have heard about it because in most Islamic books that I have read, you know, our society changes and it changes every day and ehm Islam is one religion that changes with the society. So and from the word revolution has to do with a change, you understand, so it is always changing and as it changes Islam changes with it. So I think it is a revolution.

ZA8 [8001-8854]

I don't think Islam is a revolution. I have never heard that, but what I know of is like I said now, during the time of the prophet, I will say Is a revolution because during that time there was nobody preaching to people about Islam, so it was his coming that he started telling people and those times there was no religion, people worship idols, stones, sun, the moon that is what they worship. His coming is when they started preaching that there is only one God, worship God, stop worshiping the stones. So I will think it is a revolution of that time for people to leave what they have been worshiping, their forefathers, their fathers have been worshiping for a long time. Now he is coming to say you should stop that, take this and do this instead. So I will think that is a revolution because it came to change what has been happening before.

ZA9 [7588-7592]

No

ZA10 [8093-8581]

Yes. Like we know, the Qur'an has told us, Qur'an has made everything very clear. It was from the beginning of the world and to the end, Qur'an has stated it, right from Nas down to Baqara it's all about the world and most of the occurrences, the Qur'an have stated it there. So if we look at it vividly we will know that Qur'an is truly a book of God and it shows that Islam is a revolution because when something talks about the life before you and how it will end, that is revolution.

ZA11 [7322-7355]

Well I have not heard it before.

ZA12 [4211-4389]

Islam is a revolution yes I think because Islam it is growing, as in some people don't understand Islam, but now they understand. So the more they understand, the more it grows.

ZA13 [4262-4365]

Ahh I quite disagree, it is not a revolution at all. Islam is not a revolution to some certain state.

ZA14 [3578-3768]

Yes Islam is a revolution. What do we simply mean by revolution? Revolution simply means bringing things into order because of that Islam also preach about revolution in a peaceful manner.

ZA15 [7283-7455]

Islam is a revolution, what Islam simply means is total submission to the will of almighty, when you submit everything of your life to the will of almighty that is Islam.

ZA16 [4669-4707]

I have not heard this kind of eehhh.

ZA17 [3122-3385]

I understand, the revolution is when the first time, the early time of Islam, it start with the revolution because they were denied to continue that ah, performing their own activities that is din activities, so when they wake up then the revolution has started.

ZA18 [5204-5593]

Islam is a revolution as how? Well in those days when Islam came, you know there was period of Dark Age that is the jahiliyya period when women were sold, men killed, harassed and what have you. So as a result of the advent of the Islamic religion, all those things stopped, so if that is the kind of revolution you mean good and fine, yes it has brought. There are certain civilizations.

ZA19 [6472-7074]

Well actually I have heard a lot about Islam being a revolution, Muslims are being revolutionaries, but actually whenever I hear this kind of assertion by people I use to feel like perturbed and startled sometimes because ah saying Islam or Muslims are revolutionaries that is quite untrue because what revolution might actually mean is ah bringing new things and I don't think Islam itself is a new thing. It is something that has been in place for thousand years. So actually saying revolutionaries is like people coming to bring something new, so Islam is Islam and Muslims are not revolutionaries.

ZA20 [3538-3556]

That is illusion.

ZA21 [4345-4601]

Yes we have heard about this on so many occasions but that does not entail this is true because Islam is all about propagation.

You propagate your religion, do good things for others see if they so believe that this your doing is right then they follow you

ZA22 [4622-4656]

No. I have never come across it.

ZA23 [6328-6396]

I didn't hear about it all I know that Islam is peace not revolution

ZA24 [8039-8553]

Eh yah Islam is a revolution, but there are different kinds of revolutions. So there is conflict revolution, there is innovation of revolution. According to Prophet (SAW) he said that Islam is the only religion that will last in our generation now so therefore to that extent Islam is a revolution-Islam is the only religion that has remained now because during prophet Isah alayhi salam when he has gone there is no other religion again. I agree that Islam is a revolution in a good manner. That is my own view.

ZA25 [8180-8218]

Ah I have never heard that statement

ZA26 [4442-4895]

No, Islam is no revolution. Islam is peace. All the jihad fought by the prophet (SAW) is under oppression, he has not fought any jihad that he met someone somewhere to perform jihad. Unless if someone came and attacked him. I know prophet did treaty of hudabiyya for ten years. He was denied his own town. I don't know if someone will go say deny Israel or America its own home town. Today Israel are attacking Muslims because they want what? Shelter.

ZA27 [2580-2814]

Yes I heard about them. When you say a revolution we are not talking about Islam taking a weapon we are talking about total change of humans, humanity in all aspects not only taking weapons or guns and killing unbelievers, un-Islamic

ZA28 [9019-9108]

Hmmm Islam is a revolution question there. I don't have much to say seriously about that

ZA29 [16235-16522]

Actually I won't lie to you. I have never heard that Islam is a revolution. But right from the beginning as the history shows there was a propagation of Islam right from the beginning, the way in which Islam is propagated, but it is never been a revolution. I have never heard of that.

ZA30 [16082-17045]

Yah, I can agree that Islam is a revolution because revolution, it does away with a lot of things, it does away with a lot of things, it does away with a lot of things, like before came to Mecca, when you say la ila ha ilallah, people will be surprised. There is no deity worthy of worship except Allah, people will be running away, all these our gods, you are calling us to worship only one God. So but today when you started saying la ila ha ilallah before you finish it, somebody will complete it for you. Meaning what? It do away with all those shirk before. And also people today, may be even before today, let me say, people today, there are people that can, that understand Islam in their own way, they are ready to give their lives. So, it is a revolution really, the way its even winning everywhere in the world today. Like there are so many write ups that they say the fastest growing religion in America is Islam. So you see that one is a revolution.

ZA31 [5067-5567]

Toh, Islam is not a revolution; it is a religion of God. Down from Adam, Noah, Moses, Jesus up to Muhammad, peace be up on them all. Religion is not a revolutionary religion. Religion is, Islam is the religion of God, sent by prophets, every, any, every regime, every prophecy is, God use to send prophet for people, understand? So Islam is not a religion, revolutionary religion. Islam is been, is been there since the time of Noah and prophets I listed to you up to down to prophet Muhammad (SAW).

ZA32 [12685-12712]

No, I have never heard it.

ZA33 [4879-5291]

Yes Islam is a revolution because it is a kind of like jihad that is being carried out to separate the religion of Islam where Muslims are predominantly occupying a place, for instance the Islamic revolutionists that took place in Iran which led to the revolution in that country. Now which subsequently established their state the called Islamic Republic of Iran that is it is due to that cause of revolution.

ZA34 [10411-11233]

Islam really is a revolution, is a din of revolution, but to my own understanding it is not really a revolution of taking arms to fight against an innocent person. It is a revolution in the entire life of human beings that is why Allah (Subahana wa ta'allah) says in the great Qur'an Subahana wa tallah that is this is a . . . from Allah (SBUH) that . . . somebody. It changes completely the life of somebody from the way he use to act before embracing Islam and now has embraced Islam. But it is not the way that people think about revolution that it is just to take an arm, fight and then kill, destroy, no. It is a revolution in the entire life of somebody. You leave all what Allah (SBUH) has prevented you from, you engage yourself in what Allah (SBUH) has commanded you to. That is the revolution of the religion.

ZA35 [3675-3991]

Yes, Islam is a revolution, like Quran itself is a revolution because when the Qur'an was brought to prophet Muhammad (SAW), it did not come in book, it came and the aya did not come at ones it came one after the other. So it was compiled by some scholars after his death. So that is to say Islam is a revolution.

ZA36 [8059-8063]

No.

ZA37 [6821-6850]

I have never heard of this.

ZA38 [13437-13602]

Yah, from my little, actually from my little knowledge about Islam, as I said historically, Islam's survival and existence would not detach it from the revolution.

ZA38 [13652-13873]

Yah, the statement I did not get it basically on any material, but based on my knowledge as a Muslim and the history of Islam and how it started, the establishment till now, this is how it be, it came as a revolution.

ZA39 [14184-14919]

Actually I can, I have never, Islam is a revolution. Islam, if you can take it, I don't understand the meaning Islam is a revolution, revolution of what? Because revolution simply means taking one particular be it believe, political system and replacing it with another. So if that is the meaning of revolution in this context, I can categorically say Islam is a revolution, revolution in what sense, revolution from believing from one thing to another. It was a revolution during the life time of the prophet (SAW) when I say prophet Muhammad (SAW) when people where worshiping idols, Islam came and replaced worshiping idols with worshiping God. So if revolution is taken in this context, then I can agree that Islam is a revolution.

Sub-Research Question 2

Th8: Din wa Dawla (Islam is the same as State)

Th8.1: Inseparability of Islam from Politics

FG1 [32242-32448]

Islam is part of life. Everything about a Muslim there is always a provision for that. There is nothing that a Muslim will do in his life from the beginning to the end that there is no provision for that.

FG1 [32450-33015]

There is this differences that we have to clarify. A Muslim and Islam are two independent concepts. There may be a Muslim; he may be a Muslim but not practicing the real teaching of Islam. Islam and Muslims are different. You may have a good Muslim practicing the good teachings of Islam and a Muslim not practicing the teaching of Islam. And even the free thinkers per se, people like Plato, Socrates and others said that religion and politics goes in hand. They said that religion can never be set apart from religion. So politics and religion go hand in hand.

FG1 [33016-33171]

In religion, there is politics in religion because even in religion there is politics in religion. Religions states how you are going to rule yourselves.

KD1 [36481-37475]

I think it all depends on the society. Let's take for example, Islam and leader and politics. If you take for example Egypt eh sorry, let's say Egypt, Saudi Arabia for example, when the late king died, just the next day we had a new leader that's it. But if we say Islam, are we now saying Muslims should fold their hands and just allow whatever, whoever wants to emerge to emerge from politics. I think everything even our lives, even family lives involves politics. Its involves politics to managing things and that's, you can't, I don't agree with the fact that Islam should be isolated from politics, but it all depends on the society and the environment and now the scholars and the agreement, consensus of scholars of that particular area based on what they are facing, the contemporary challenges they are facing and how they see the situation on ground in their place. So you can't use, you can't have a universal rule whether it should be separated or it should go hand in hand.

KD2 [13619-13894]

Islam should not be separated from politics because ahm in everything you do, Islam teaches us how to go about it. Islam teaches us how to treat our leaders, how to govern the society, how to maintain our resources. So all this is politics, so they should not be separated.

KD3 [11169-11399]

Islam should not be separated from politics because in whatever action we want to take may be the political, anything we want to do, we must first of all bring out the rulings and teachings of Islam on how we should go about it.

KD4 [21227-21866]

Well ah there is a verse in the holy Qur'an that said that all what you are doing, your life, whatever you do, you do it in the cause of Allah, it belongs to Allah. So let me tell you that even politics, all man activities, they are part and parcel of Islam and they cannot be done away with without putting Islam in recognition. So Islam and politics you cannot do away with them because Islam has all the laid rules and regulations in which leadership can be justified. Then if you talk of politics, politics to me is a way of leadership then Islam cannot do away with leadership. That is to say politics cannot be separated from Islam.

KD5 [12311-12603]

I think I disagree because the scope of Islam. Islam as a religion covers whole, the whole aspect of people's life, whole Muslims' life, and politics is part of life, leadership is part of life. So, I think politics or Islamic religion, I think Islamic religion has part to play in politics.

KD6 [25145-25678]

I have told you, Islam is politics, politics is Islam. It cannot be separated. When you, in Islam, Allah did not tell you, he didn't allow you when you are two you don't have a leader, everything is still born out of leader. So, if you want to elect a leader, it's politics. So, Islam teaches you the way to elect your own leader, it's politics. Islam teaches you the way you should live with your family, its politics. Islam teaches you the way to live with your neighbor, its politics. So, you cannot separate Islam from politics.

KD7 [17213-17423]

Since Islam is a way of life, I do not believe that it should be separate from politics ahm it should be part of our lives ha Holy Scriptures should be part of our religion, they should be part of our politics

KD8 [35352-36013]

Of course it should not because the life of a Muslim is very comprehensive. Politics is part of it, of all the life of a Muslim is Islam. So, politics should not be separated from Islam because you need, if it is a Muslim that is contesting, we need to have a Muslim that has good values, somebody that is just, somebody that is knowledgeable, somebody that is considerate, somebody that can protect the right of, the right of both the Muslims and the Christians. So, Islam can, should not be separated of course from politics, not at all. I never for once, I never subscribe that Islam should be separated from politics, not at all. Politics is part of Islam.

KD9 [22634-23066]

It depends on what you mean on politics. If you mean democracy of course they cannot be together, they should be separate. But if you mean governance as prophet (SAW) thought us politics as he carried it out yes they are together, political and spiritual leader is a particular person. So he leads the people spiritually and tells them what Allah is expected of them and then the political running of the society, he does that too.

KD10 [15922-16418]

That is Islam, you know, we have two kinds of politics oh. We have Siyasa Adila and Siyasa Fajira. You get me right? If it is Siyasa Adila it is welcomed, but Siyasa Fajira, Islam should be separated from Siyasa Fajira because there is Khair, there is no goodness in it. Like this democracy is not, democracy is Siyasa Fajira, Vu'alima. Do you understand? So Islam should not be separated from politics, but the politics that we are saying here is Siyasa Adila not Siyasa Fajira. Are you with me?

KD11 [20888-21159]

When you are talking about Islam, Islam the religion in an Islamic state should not be separated for politics of course, but in a secular state they should be, religion should be a personal affair. In a secular state like ours, it should be strictly be a private affair.

KD12 [25147-26108]

Ah Islam cannot be separated from politics because ah what the prophet has said is that Islam is din wa dawla is a religion and together with the government you see. When Islam came, the prophet came he brought everything, he brought the teaching of Islam in togetherness with the ways of managing people, of governing the people, the economy the everything together. So why Islam cannot be separated from politics is that whatever we are doing, we know that we are going to be accountable to the almighty Allah, you understand. So where we are going to vote for people we vote for them the right people and then in case where we know that the Muslims are not the multitude in that area, you see when you want to vote for, Muslims should also go and vote we have two Christians or two non-Muslims there we should know the one that is lesser eh lesser in atrocity or lesser in a havoc to Islamic way of Life, we choose such a person that will be accepted.

KD13 [8483-8660]

Islam should be completely separated, should be on a separate side from politics because the leadership of Islam is Allah and the system of Allah's government cannot be named

KD14 [10024-10249]

Yah Islam should not be separated from politics no matter how the politics is or the constitution of the politics is. You are supposed to use Islam to guide you to the way on how follow that political endeavor you are in.

KD15 [16691-17136]

Islam is Islam and politics is politics. So if you are going for politics I think go for politics but be a fearer of God eh I think if you are the soul that fear God, I think politics will be very, very easy for you. So I think Islam is something ahm is a religion of God and politics is politics, so if you can associate the two together, you are doing your politics and you fear God, I think everything will move smoothly so that is just it

KD16 [8145-8198]

My view the two can go together, Islam and Politics

KD17 [27638-29780]

If, how can I start, Islam and politics. Islam is the way of life. Islam is a religion. There is this individual that says everybody is a political animal ba? But Islam as it is, even in Islam, how you govern is there. The sharia which is the Islamic constitution is there. Everything is there on how to rule, how to as in everything, the sharia, the Qur'an is there, the hadith is there, everything is there to guide you in the sharia. So Islam and politics, sometimes because I don't know whether this politics we practice in Nigeria is the true politics, but if this is true politics whereby me and you cannot afford, look at the generality of the populace, cannot afford three square meals per day, whereby people still live on less than a dollar per day and you say this true politics, but okay you see during the time of prophet (SAW) whereby the sharia or look at the time of Umar (rabiyyallahu anu) as in the second Khalifa of the Islamic state after the death of the prophet (SAW) look at the way they marketed Islam, look at the way they governed Islamic state whereby food are being given to the poor, everything, the needs of the people were being reached, people enter Islam in manifold because the way, the welfarism of Islam, the way, sometimes you see the way you and your neighbor, a Muslim and a non-Muslims are staying just because of the way you stay with that person because of the way you are staying with that person, we see the sweetness of Islam and accept Islam. So but if this politics meaning going out, campaigning, no, even in Islam it is not encouraged to fight for post or to contest for post. Who is, it is the people that say ok this person is more suitable, he has the character, he has all the behaviour, he has all the characteristics to be given a leadership post the other person is being given. But you don't need to come outside and campaign just like politics of eh majority carries the vote, no and Islam even the majority as far as there is reason for doing that are in Islam based on the Qur'an and the Sunna which is the major source of constitution, Islamic constitution that one is accepted.

KD18 [14290-14536]

Yes, Islam should not be separated from politics. Even when our prophets when they were alive, they practiced politics, but the way they practiced politics is different from the way we are practicing politics most especially in Nigeria and here.

KD19 [18295-18598]

Islam should not be separated from politics yes because Islam is all encompassing, it covers everything, every aspect of the human life is captured in Islam, even the politics, so if you want to be a good politician, just practice all the good tenets of the religion and you will be a good politician.

KD20 [13901-14183]

Islam cannot be separated from politics in the sense that there is a politics in Islam. Yes even though among us, the politics, we practice politics in Islam but that politics is going to be based according to the rules and regulations laid down in the Qur'an and in the hadith, yes.

KD21 [12346-12567]

Islam is the total way of life. Politics is part of life. I think they should go together. So politics in modern day, you represent your people, represent your constituency, the fear of Allah should be your top priority.

KD21 [12584-12619]

Yes. They shouldn't be separated.

KD23 [12920-13288]

Yes ah my opinion on this is Islam should be separated from politics because politics is not Islam and Islam is not politics. So if you are a Muslim and you are a politicians then you can do you politics, but ah but without going out of what your religion say. Anything that ah will that will ah contradict the teachings of your religion, you should try and avoid it.

KD24 [45584-45603]

I agree with this.

KD24 [45615-46952]

Since we are not living in a community that we are all Muslims, then we have to know how to live with the community. This politics if you are citizens in a country definitely you have to go under the umbrella of those politics, rules and things like that. Then they have notes, actually they should not be separated because if you say they are two things different, I can make ah ah eh reference for example or an example which can declare that in politics, if you did not send your man, your religion, your religious person to go and stand for the particular post or position, you will just hear them say, no, our religion doesn't have any concern with politics. What do you think after election? He that has been elected to be in the position and he comes to your own side, you say okay we need so, so thing, we need for example, borehole, we need roads, good roads, he can easily say no, you did not elect me because some may say that, even though in the normal position, in the normal case, leader supposed not to think these are the ones that vote for me and those ones they did not vote for me. So I will work for those, no, he should work for everyone, in fact if possible he should even work for those ones so that they will know that he is a good man, he is not one sided, then Islam has full and total coalition with politics.

KD25 [62226-62695]

Yes Islam is politics and politics is Islam. But Islam is not democracy anyway. We should try to strike a balance between this because most of Nigerians are merging the whole thing. If we say politics, they will say ah its democracy no, no, no we are not talking democracy. Democracy is anti Islam and we will never accept that. We will only take it since it is a global thing, but we try to do what we are able to do that is not contrary to our Islamic ah teachings.

KD26 [14868-15083]

Islam should not be separated from politics, as I earlier said, Islam is a way of life. It should guide our everyday life, our social life, our political life and our personal life. So I agree with that statement

KD27 [18134-18231]

Islam is a complete way of life and encompasses everything and has a provision for everything.

KD28 [21110-21589]

Well, Islam and politics. You know Islam is a way of life. Politics is just a way to attract people's idea to your own self so that they can be by your side achieving a mission. But Islam as it is, is a way of life of which the fear of God is the basic aspect it. But when you are to use Islam and politics, well at this present we, the life we are in now especially in this our Nigerian way of life as of now, politics has been used to bastardize Islam. It is very unfortunate.

KD29 [12115-12417]

Ah Islam ah my reason why I disagree with this is that ah there are a lot of issues highly polluted in the conduct of our current day politics, so any attempt to mingle politics with Islam is going to be to the detriment of the Islamic teachings and there through that channel misrepresentation arise.

KD30 [23217-23805]

Ah Islam should not be separated from politics, yes, I think these are two things that are ah that are mutually exclusive you can't say ah the state without the people ehen or so I don't know if I am putting it right, but you can't have a state and the people that totally ah totally disagree with the ah rules of the state, the state. Before we have a state we must have a setting where rules and regulations goes with the beliefs of the people and if these rules and regulations contradicts with the peoples believes then I don't think you have a state rather you have a trouble state.

KD31 [13324-13544]

Yah Islam should not be separated from politics. Islam should not be separated from politics because Islam teaches us the complete, it shows us the right of the people being ruled or governed by those who are in power.

KD32 [19285-19813]

Ahm, yah, now we are in a political era that eh we are in a political regime so definitely eh we must have to accept it, Muslims should participate in politics, so as we look at the time we are we are in a political regime but associating Islam with politics they are two different things, they are two different phenomenon. So Islam is a believe while politics is just a game of numbers Islam just means faith, so they are two different things, but Muslims should participate in politics because we are in a political era now.

KD33 [15703-16088]

Yah I agree that Islam should not be separated from politics because if we look at the emm the history of Islam during the time of Khalifa Umar bin Khatab that is when the Islamic politics started, he established ministries, government building, government parastatals, so I agree that Islam should not, I disagree that Islam, I agree that Islam should not be separated from politics.

KD34 [16710-17225]

Hmm, I will agree that Islamic should not be separated from politics. I will agree with that because Islam is a total way of life. Islam teaches us how to do all our activities if you look at it critically. So, taking away politics and Islam ah ehm, I don't think it is possible, but it is the way you understand the teachings that it will determine whether it should be separated from politics or not, but to my own understanding, Islam is a total way of life because Islam teaches us how to even eh use politics.

KD35 [17498-18173]

If Islam should be separate from politics then they should be no good governance. The moment Islam is attached to politics then be you the politician is a muslim then he should govern with fairness, with sincerity, you know, because he is guided by the word Islam that no you know, you can't, I mean you can't rule with biased, mind you can't rule with the aim of aggrandizing your state with the financial status, you should rule fairly and justly, so I think Islam shouldn't be separate d from politics. It is only Islam that is guiding you, do this, don't do that, rule with fairness. But when you put Islam aside then that means that the there will be bad governance.

KN1 [41386-41499]

What sort of politics? Politics of deceit, politics of stealing people's money, politics of subjugating people...

KN1 [41528-41823]

no that is because you have to define what politics is. Like now if somebody wants to diplomatically, or the citizen wants to say that you are lying in Hausa he will say dan siyasa ne kai, you are a politician that is the conception of politics, if he is referring to that part of politics, no.

KN1 [41959-42663]

...if you are talking about statesmanship and state craft definitely Islam is a complete way of life. It has provision for that one but all I know the early Muslims or let me say our leaders of the past they have been shunning away, they have been running away from taking political responsibility, they have been running away from it because they know what it ...they know the demand. Talking about that, you can go back to the period of the second Caliph that is Umar rabiyaallahu ta ala, he is the sort of man that would have to go all around the Medina to see everybody is fed that nobody has problem before he can come back to his house and sleep. I don't know if our politicians of nowadays can do that.

KN2 [23925-23981]

I agree Islam and politics should go hand in hand. Yes

KN4 [37661-38111]

Yes, you can't separate Islam with politics because Islam is preach morality, good moral, good conduct. Islam is against the decadence, decline in moral value so as a Muslim or one that practice Islam we always like people to understand him and get what is doing so being in the politics in the mountain of power can make one to apply and exhibits his character. Islam cannot be separated with religion because people want to know more about Islam.

KN5 [15869-16584]

ah eh ah I agree, first of all I agree ah I disagree. Islam should not be separated from politics ehh let me say I agree that it should not be separated from politics as politics is becoming fully part of our life. So also Islam is the whole way of- is the total way of life of every Muslim eh that the both has to go together and if you are not putting Islam in the politics then you are going to at the end of the day be controlled fully by secularism and you cannot in any way even if 2 million years to come greater you cannot eeh ehhe assure, you cannot eehh affirm the practices of Islam fully in your state because you are separating politics which is now the other of the day and practices of the religion.

KN6 [16647-17600]

So, yes Islam cannot be separated from politics because what is Islam? Islam is a total way of our life so if politics if politics is our life so we can't separate it not only politics but also even our educational system, maybe our business system, our government system, all are included in our Islamic view because as Islam would say if there is no Islam see what is happening in this our politics because, because we take this idea that says give unto Cesar and what this is the western orientation we should separate it because all our western ah orientation says we should separate the government with religion. So Islam says that you should not separate it. But if you separate it government with policy, so this is what is happening in the politics because Islamic religion tells you don't rig during the election, don't do that, don't do that so by, by including this politics to our religion who would be able to maybe correct this politics.

KN7 [17374-17696]

Well, as we all know, Islam is a way of life and in the modern society, politics definitely touches every aspect of human life, so they cannot be separated, yes they shouldn't be separated, they can't even be separated, yes because they work hand in hand, they work hand in hand with each other so they can't be separated.

KN8 [16099-16568]

I can justify this answer through the position of the holy prophet (SAW), you understand that (he recites a verse) that whenever the tenet of Islam is separated from siasa (he recites a verse), you understand, whenever the processes of Islam is separated from politics then problem might ensue. So there is need for some Islamic processes, Islamic tenet to be put into politics, then through this I think, development can be ensured, and orderliness could be justified.

KN9 [16298-16841]

You see, right from onset, Islam and politics were always hand in hand. They work together because there is no way, there is no way Islam can actually triumph without politics because as vicegerents of Allah, man in this world cannot rule alone, he needs support from others. So I think basically the politics here can be seen in the fact that people come together, you understand, to choose leaders. People come together to solve problems whenever there is one and people come together as a community in trust to worship Allah (SBUH).

KN10 [11706-12036]

Yes, Islam will not be separated from politics because politics is just the acts of governing a political entity such as nation and also it is the one that use the administrative. So if Islam is separated, this means that Islam cannot have any power at all but by involving, by relating them, so Islam can govern the nation, yes.

KN11 [16786-17267]

Yes, When we say Islam, politics. Islam and politics are going hand in hand ko. You can't separate one from the other as the question requires to say. So ah that is ruling, when we say politics it is to rule people ko, to rule. So Islam we can't live, we can't just live like this without any leadership, so leadership is necessary in Islam and ehm how do you view this statement and that ah using politics, because if there is no politics, there is no ahh, there is no life, yes.

KN13 [17829-18164]

Hmm, Islam should not be separated from politics in the sense that even earlier we have seen that power actually comes from Allah yah that political authority actually comes from God, so I think Islam should not be separated from the state. For Islam to be practiced, it has to capture the major institutional institutions of the state

KN14 [13073-13224]

Yes, there is Islamic political system, so you cannot say I am Muslim so I don't have anything with politics, so Islam and politics should be together.

KN15 [14671-14989]

Yes, Islam should not be separated from politics and my views on this statement and reasons are, you cannot separate Islam and politics in a country whereby non-Muslims and Muslims live together a typical example just like in Nigeria so our politics can never be separated from Islam so they have to work hand in hand.

KN16 [7501-7577]

Yes, I agree because Islam should not be separated from people's activities.

KN17 [17909-18148]

Yeah Islam should not be separated from politics because Allah said ah power actually comes from Allah so even in-right from the prophetic era, politics and religion have actually been in practiced together the Khalifa serves as a leader.

KN18 [29610-30657]

Well Islam as a complete religion, as a complete religion should not be separated from politics because Islam as a complete way of life have dictated means of carrying out state activities, making ah ruling the country it brings about the responsibility of the ruler, his limitation of the power and besides look at look at governments of ah of ah of the Sahabas Abubakar himself Sayyidina Abubakar in his own type of government, he was quoted saying follow me if I go by the Qur'an and Sunna. You have no right to follow me if I go astray, your weak the weak among you is the strongest to me and the strongest among you is the weakest among me ah to me and that I must take from him from the strongest the right of Allah and the right of the weak. So what we are saying now it shows you the activities of the state could be limited it checks checks and balances even though as Amirul mu'mini, the leader of all Muslim umma at that time, he could be, he limits his power and that shows that yes Islam and state activities ah can go hand in hand.

KN19 [18615-18711]

Yes Islam and politics should work together if truly we want to have a good political society.

KN20 [12251-12446]

Islam should be separated from politics, From politics Islam is politics and should be separate separated from politics, they are two different things.

KN20 [12457-12521]

There are politics in Islam when it is done in the Islamic way.

KN20 [12534-12720]

Then when it comes to politics, the westernization politics should be totally separated from Islam should not be seen as a political thing, should not be kind of interwoven thing.

KN21 [7832-7900]

I don't believe Islam should not be separated from politics because.

KN21 [7947-8057]

They should work hand in hand, even during the time of the Khalifs, we have you know politics (laughs) during

KN21 [8131-8180]

Oh yes, it should not be separated from politics.

KN22 [14808-14877]

Yah Islam is part of politics while politics is also part of Islam.

KN22 [14918-15246]

Yah because Islam, the emergence of Islam came through a leader in which God sent a leader to revive, to change our minds from corrupt practices, from decadence from that society that is going on. So there is a leader and when we talk about leadership here then we talk about politics, you understand, we talk about government.

KN23 [11476-11557]

There is politics in Islam. So Islam cannot be separated from politics, but not...

KN24 [12055-12268]

Hmm even this statement there is a scholar that said that whoever that does not understand Islam well eh politics-it is only the person that does not understand Islam that will say Islam is not related to politics

KN25 [14154-14857]

This is true because Islam and politics are the same right from on set. Islam has to do with politics. You see when Allah (SBUH) brought us all together in this world, he realized that it wouldn't be a success without the leader. There is no way even among the people, you need someone, a figure head, someone who would be a direct middle man, a direct intermediary, a vicegerent, a direct vicegerent. So and these people, they are vicegerent of Allah, they are not in any way ah ah they are still human beings, you understand. So Allah sees us all as the same, you understand. But there are certain respect accorded to these people just so as to ensure justice, equality and see them as politics.

KN26 [14672-15239]

Well ah this is something very topical in Islam. Islam should not be separated from politics but it depends on how Islam should not be separated from politics, you understand, yes whether we like it or not Islam it is being said to be a total way of life. But the most important thing is not the yes or no but how can Islam not be separated from politics. What I mean there by preserving the teachings and tenets of the religion, by also respecting the rule of law, by also respecting the roles of non-Muslims and the rights, sorry, of non-Muslims and their lives.

KN27 [13363-13597]

Islam cannot be separated from politics because to a very large extent we have Islam-politics, as I said it earlier, touches every human aspect. And as a human and as a Muslim you practice Islam, so you can't do away with politics.

KN28 [10235-10385]

Ah I believe life itself is all about politics. Islam should never be separated from politics because Islam and politics they both work hand in hand.

KN30 [12840-12937]

Islam and politics are two different things, you understand, so I think they should be separated.

KN31 [14646-14707]

Yes exactly, politics is part of Islam, they are intertwined

KN32 [6727-6773]

Yes Islam and politics have to work together

KN33 [6058-6129]

Yes, because Islam is a comprehensive way. It covers all aspect of life

KN34 [8023-8357]

Actually I agree with them. Anything in life that you are going to do you have to put your religion first if actually you want to do justice. So it is best through on that, that you can be able to achieve this and do justice to everyone irrespective of tribe or religion, but once you abandon your religion then something is missing.

KN35. [11230-11410]

Right from the Islamic origin that is the time of the prophet (SAW), Islam that is the religion and politics, that is the religion and the state they coexist they are inseparable.

KN36 [10973-11290]

I agree because Islam serves as a foundation for well governed society. If you want to govern society and if you want to have unity, peace, stability and the well strong where everybody there will not be discrimination in Islam because Islam have the character, the good character or how to select a good leadership.

KN37 [9606-9716]

The statement is correct. Islam should not be separated from politics and I agree with that. I agree with it.

KN38 [6722-6846]

Like I have earlier said, Islam, religion and politics are termed as one in Islam. So I believe it shouldn't be separated.

KN39 [10929-11226]

Yes Islam will never be separate from politics because even from the first stage of Islam really politics were practiced because even the holy prophet himself, he invite those non-Muslims to Islam through politics. That is to say through peaceful procedures by inviting them not by force really.

KN40 [11838-11997]

I agree with that. Islam should not be separated from politics because Islam should just serve as a guide for the leaders to know how to rule their followers.

KN41 [9755-10052]

Yes I agree that Islam should not be separated from politics. In fact not only Islam, religion entirely should not be sundered out of politics because religion is so fundamental to all and I also think religion being part of politics will serve as an instigation for abiding by the law and order.

KN42 [17893-18895]

I agree totally that Islam shouldn't be separated from politics because there are rules in the Quran and the Hadith that shows that how for us to go about, how political aspect of Islam should be. That is talking about the state, is talking about the government, is talking about treasury, appointment of leaders, is talking about all these sectors in the government, which should be, should function. So there is I don't see any difference between Islam and government, Islam and politics. They are the same because Islam actually tells us how to behave, how politics should be, how we should behave in our political matters. There is no separation from Islam. Islam has talked about virtually everything. There is nothing Islam has not touched and if you don't follow the Islamic way in your politics that is like having a hole and nothing like to form, it will not be tangible. So if we really want a way forward, Islam should be infused into politics and so people should follow all the rules and.

KN43 [16412-16667]

Yah, I told you politics is part of Islam, Islam is part of politics. As I told you our prophet was a religious leader, are political leader and educational leader. So for someone to separate Islam from politics I think it's a, you know, futile exercise.

KN44 [11605-11781]

Dama Islam ai is a complete way of life: politics, economy, almost everything. So there is no way you can be able to separate Islam from politics. They are always intertwined.

KN45 [13433-13729]

Ehh I think I agree since Islam eh is a total way of life and politics being to me the most important thing in our life. So Islam ehh should be part of politics and politics should be part of Islam ehh this is a good interpretation if Muslims can take it and use it wisely in a democratic means.

KN46 [25984-27412]

No. Ah Islam is a religion but not like other religious. It pays attention to all, all angles of life: politics, finance, social life, you know, all this ah angles of life Islam has certain injunctions on how they should be conducted. So I would not say Islam is synonymous with politics, no, Islam could be practiced without necessarily engaging into politics, but Islam has its own view about how politics should be conducted. So it is about justice, it is about freedom, it is about protecting the weak members of the society. So if that is achieved then you will see that Islam ahh, you will not have problem with calling that ahh that is why in such things you will not say, will just say this is against Islam. I mean if you do certain things in a wrong way, we would say this is wrong, because it is against Islam. For example, if some people are marginalized in a society, that is injustice and injustice is not condoned in Islam. So you can see that Islam advocated justice in politics, so when we say Islam and politics, yes definitely, you cannot ah, practice politics without, as a Muslims you cannot practice politics without ah getting or having to take guidance from what Islam teaches. You need to understand what Islam is for and what Islam is against. So that as a politician or as a Muslim, you will not do what is against Islam and you will do and even encourage people to do what Islam ah advocates.

KN47 [27295-28602]

Yes. Islam and politics always go together, you understand, they go together because there are Islamic ah empires, you understand, there are some Islamic empires in the place yah. If you look at Saudi Arabia, if you look at Jordan, you know, you can see that they are Islamic empires and then you cannot separate politics from religion yah generally not only Islam, politics and religion because if you go to ah, you know, United Kingdom, the great Britain, the queen or the king would not be crowned until you have the bishop of England, until you have bishop of ah Wales, until you have again the bishop of north Ireland, you understand. So there they are the ones to come together and crown the queen. So those bishops are from the church, you understand, so how can you say that they don't have influence in the politics of Great Britain? So it is just the same thing that we have here in the Muslim society. You see the Amir or the or the Emir himself is supposed to be a learned man, you understand, he has to learn Qur'an, he has to have a broad knowledge of Islam as well as nowadays western education so that he can simply confront every issue that came before him or her, you know, it is kind of ah ah what do you call it, that kind of diverse view and the ability to solve it, you understand.

KN48 [8996-9167]

Ehen Islam and politics, they have nothing to do together. So nothing like Islam and politics, so is either you practice Islam and you do your politics elsewhere period.

KN49 [16678-17117]

I think I agree with this statement because religion should, should play a pivotal role in our politics because I think it identifies us as human beings, it eh it helps in formulating our thoughts, it helps in making us better leaders, it makes in, I think, reforming our politics and making it more organized because religion is one of the most powerful and potent forces, so it can play a vital role in our politics and make it better

KN50 [8143-8264]

Islam cannot be separated from politics. Why, because Islam encompasses all our life and teaches us how to run politics.

KN52 [20784-21452]

This I think is the same thing as the question you asked previously about whether there is a distinction between the state and Islam or whether the state should be separated from Islam and I made my point clear. I do not see any distinction between Islam and the state and historically Islam developed alongside the state. So it is not possible to separate Islam and the state because Islam has a religious program, has a social program, has a political program, you know, has an intellectual program. So it is an all-encompassing ideology and project. So there is no way you can isolate Islam from all of this in fact especially the question on politics and state.

KN53 [10423-10796]

To my own understanding, I believe Islam should be attached to politics because most people ruling us in Nigeria for now, if they really have the fear of God in mind and if this Islam has really been attached to the politics, they would have the fear of God and they would not be ruling us ridiculously the way they have been doing. So it is expected to be attached with it

KN54 [5448-5503]

Well Islam is a culture, a complete way of life, yes.

KN55 [6933-7039]

Islam is a true way of life. Therefore, Islam and politics are two twins that should not be separated.

KN56 [10585-10832]

Ok actually Islam and politics are two sides of the same coin. If you tossed one side of the coin you would see the other side of the coin. So I believe that Islam and politics should not be separated why because Islam is a complete way of life.

KN57 [11167-11317]

I agree with this because Islam and politics are inseparable things. They are two different words, but they are going hand in hand with one another.

KN58 [24419-25022]

According to the teachings of Islam either by Maududi or Mawardi, there is no such thing like politics and Islam. Islam is fused together with politics why because even during the time of the prophet (SAW), jihad or wars are designed in Mosques. These are political issues. You don't separate them from Islam. The Mosque is a place whereby you pray, you strategies war, then you teach the tenets of Islam to other Muslims. You equally advice, you encourage. These are all political issues. So politics is not synonymous with Islam. They are fused together, you cannot separate them.

KN59 [18880-19199]

Actually Islam, goes hand in hand with politics. There is no separation because if you say politics, politics means a kind of administration, and government and there is no Islamic state that there is no government that there is no politics in it, so it goes hand in hand. So you cannot separate Islam and politics.

KN60 [20083-20317]

Because Allah (SBUH) has said Udhu khulufi silmikafa that is if you want to embrace Islam you embrace it in its entirety and even in Islam there is politics so you cannot separate politics from Islam. It is part and parcel of Islam.

KN61 [8696-9014]

Hmm mm quite alright, there must be a relation between Islam and politics because politics is eh, is dealing with people, coming together, share idea at all times, and also Islam is the same thing. You can use your, your political way to influence people to be in your religion and this so many people has done that.

KN62 [30692-30988]

Ahh, bismillahi rahmani rahim Mallam ... Islam should not be separated from politics, that is what you said? Yah, ahmm I don't believe in this, I believe that Islam provides everything, every answer ah answer to everything therefore, Islam is politics, politics is Islam. That is what I believe.

KN64 [14716-14887]

Hmm, I agree that Islam should not be separated from politics or anything else. Islam is the total life that is what, you can't separate Islam from anything eh I agree.

KN65 [17410-17859]

Yes. Islam should not be separated from politics, hmm to some extent I agree with this because Islam is a way of life and politics is using what, all other means in order to get ah, ah power, political I mean power in order to influence a country or a decision. So if I can put it this way Islam is a way of life whereby we use power to influence decision or activities of a state. So Islam should not be separated from politics. I agree with that.

KN66 [10360-10510]

Islam, Islam and politics are synonymous because Islam, Islam covers everything in life. There is no reason Islam should be separated from politics.

KN67 [11179-11383]

Well I agree. Islam and politics are the same because there are so many provisions in which ah an Islamic leader or as an Imam can also be ehh a leader in government. So politics and Islam are the same.

KN68 [5560-5598]

Yes. Islam is a complete way of life.

KN69 [21040-21446]

I am strongly believe that Islam is not expected to be separated with politics because of the fact that Islam is always go together with politics. This reminds me with one of the saying of one scholar that, which say that there is no any distinguishing factor between politics and Islam, but the politics of Muslim is to make sure that all what he is to do must be in the upliftment of the word of Allah.

KN71 [35854-36333]

I agree. Islam should, I agree and I agree because there is no way you can separate, as I said earlier, Islam is both a din and a state. And a state means politics and there is, and there is only going to be governance when there is politics, and it would be easier for Muslims to be in politics so that they can, they can be able to achieve their laws, to make whatever laws they feel necessary for the sustenance of Islamic teaching anywhere. I quite agree with him very well.

KN72 [19780-19930]

Yes. You can never separate Islam from politics because Islam covers all social aspects of life and politics it is one of the aspect of the humanity.

KN73 [19259-19600]

Hmmm the politics, I don't know why some people are always saying about the politics. What politics means; from there you realize what politics means. Islam should not be separated from politics. If politics means leadership, the way to find a leader and a leadership, so Islam will not be separated from politics. They are always together.

KN74 [31413-31514]

Even the Islam is politics, the Islam is politics, you can't separate Muslim ah Islam and politics,

KN75 [33409-33493]

Agree that Islam should not be separated from politics. It is a way of secularism.

KN75 [33507-33743]

Islam should be separated from politics, you understand, it is a way of secularism by which your religion, your politics is Islam as Mallam Ba Haushe use to say siyasanaka addininka, your politics is your religion, all go together.

KN76 [21534-21894]

Actually ahh Islam should not be separated from politics because the entire Muslim life is guided by his religion: be it economic, be it political, be it social because Islamic religion is all encompassing. It is a system on its own and it is a civilization on its own. It has all the things that is required to govern a life of an individual and the society.

KN78 [32432-33016]

Heartedly I believe that Islam is a way of life, heartedly I believe that, whole heartedly, sorry. I believe that Islam is a way of life ahh all our activities should be guided by Islamic teaching. But as I have said, one of the difficulties ahh living in Nigeria is the ahh constraint, the political constraint, the constitutional constraint and all the constraints of course that will not permit a Muslim to practically, to practice all those ideals of Islam. So we have been, by necessity, constrained to practice those, but we believe in the whole heartedly, yes we believe, hmm.

KN80 [29575-29789]

Yes I agree that Islam should be combined with state and politics because from the name, from its name it implies it is universal and comprehensive. It combines everything, including everything not only politics.

KN81 [14345-14506]

Yes, my own view, I disagree Islam and politics cannot be separated, why, because politics is associated with Islam, hope you get it? If am understand you well

KN82 [19560-19863]

I agree that Islam should not be separated from politics because there are some that think that politics and religion and Islam are two different things. But to my perception it is one thing. It is just about the superstructure and the substructure. Islam determines the nature and the type of politics

KN83 [11904-12173]

Initially Islamic should be separated in one way with politics and it cannot be separated in another way because Islam is a religion of Allah and politics is human plan to achieve certain goals, but they can be united because Islam needs politics to achieve its ends.

KN84 [14039-14166]

I totally disagree. Islam should be separated from politics, but is not all the time because Islam needs politics to operate.

KN85 [15696-16021]

Yes, Islam should not be separated from politics emm not like the western understanding of the state where the state is separated from religion. In Islam ahh the state, economy, politics and every aspect of human life is connected, they are all connected. Therefore, there is no separation between the religion and politics.

ZA1 [16879-17124]

So how can you separate, if you say Islam, is a way of life. So how can you separate your way of life and politics? So you want me not to engage in politics so you go and talk to somebody to come and govern me when have a majority, no, no, no.

ZA2 [16342-16366]

They move together now.

ZA3 [15210-15424]

Of course as I have said that Islam and state are one as far as Islamic laws are concerned, the state cannot be separated from the din, so the din of the state is the din of the people that is of the government.

ZA4 [32161-32844]

Yes actually there is no how you can separate Islam from politics because Islam is all politics because in the sense that you say people should worship Allah alone and should not associate partnership to him, they should pray is, you know, is eh that is all politics, you understand. Politics is for you to call people on your own understanding, on your own doctrine, so there is no how you can separate them because there is no how any time you can exist without Allah. Anything you, you need assistance of Allah. So the total submission to Allah, worshiping him is the total politics. So Islam is all about politics and people should worship Allah alone and be obedient to him.

ZA5 [18995-19163]

Islam cannot be separated from politics because anything about Islam is all about politics. Anything in life, democracy started during Prophet Muhammad (SAW) thank you

ZA6 [46873-47561]

Islam should not be separated from politics. I agree, I agree with that. Islam, as a Muslim, I don't believe Islam can be separated from politics because you have a politics with justice and equity when as a Muslim, you practice Islam as it is supposed to be practiced. If you separate Islam from politics, politically if, like in the democratic society, definitely there are things you have to embark on, you have to separate Islam that is depending on those you are dealing with just to make peace, but generally I don't think, Islam can be separated from politics because you have a pure politics, you practice pure politics if you practice Islam the way it supposed to be practiced.

ZA7 [17248-17660]

Islam should not be separated from politics? Well from my understanding of politics, I think politics cannot be separated even from our daily activities. There is even politics between you, between even you and your father in the sense that sometimes you try to, there is politics between you and your environment and even your government and everything. So there is no way you can separate Islam from politics.

ZA8 [38816-39144]

Islam. I don't think Islam can go hand in hand with politics, politics of nowadays because everybody knows our politics of nowadays. There is no way light and evil or light and darkness will walk hand in hand. It is either it is light or it is darkness, there is no in-between. So I don't think they can walk hand in hand.

ZA9 [19228-19682]

Islam cannot be separated from politics right from the time of our prophet, there has always been a leader and his followers will follow, will have to follow the teachings of the leader, have to follow the teaching of the leader and the leader has to have the interest of his people in his heart. You can just take any hard decision like that, but most of this, most of the ways that every Muslim should live by has been stated on the holy Qur'an.

ZA10 [22304-22495]

Islam should not be separated from politics because Islam entails everything in life, so politics is also part of life. So when you want to go into politics, you must have Islamic knowledge.

ZA11 [16396-16944]

Islam is a way of life, if politics is part of the life then it should be, they go hand in hand. But politics which is being stated in the aspect of the present country, I don't think that is how politics is supposed to be. Like I told you earlier on, before you stand for an office to represent the people, your masses, you don't stand for it. They see you fit, they appoint you, in the sharia we have, there are procedures taken before you are elected that is politics. So I believe Islam everywhere, is the way of life, so they go hand in hand.

ZA12 [9279-9408]

Even in Islam there is politics in as much as you follow the rules and regulations of the only Qur'an and Sunna that back it up.

ZA13 [10328-10632]

Yes Islam should not be separated from politics because each ah when you have a representative, then you have your saying and you have your saying in the government and that is why most people emphasize that they should have their own in the power or they should have somebody who can speak for them.

ZA14 [12041-12605]

Yes Islam cannot be separated from politics because there is nothing you will do in politics without involving religion. If you look at it, in Nigeria we don't have problem before, it is after the democracy government came into power around 1999 that is when we start having problem because they use religion to get what they want, toh automatically you can't take away religion from politics because there is a book that one scholar wrote that is in Ahmadu Bello University they call him that is Bala Usman, that's religion and politics, it talks a lot about it.

ZA15 [16167-16345]

As a Muslim everything you do is Islam. So even if you are entering to anything is Islam that guides you that is why people say that Islam should not be separated from politics.

ZA16 [9829-10068]

I disagree with Islam should be separated with politics, because the real politics is in Islam, but if we follow the way the prophet (SAW) and his caliphates did their own politics, then we can understand that there is politics in Islam.

ZA17 [9679-9881]

Islam is in your whole life (he recites a verse of the Qur'an), so there is no any activities that you do, which there is, you can keep Islam aside to do the religion, so it is your whole life matter.

ZA18 [13407-13993]

It is true, it is true Islam should not be separated from politics. You see, the meaning of, is there in the Arabic language, there is what we call Siyasa, (he recites in Arabic) that is administration, how you administer and govern people, so how can you separate it from religion, in fact the prophet Muhammad (SAW) you know ah brought politics, Islamic politics, you understand, to be candid, the way he interact with his companions, the way he, you know, lived with his family, you understand, it's administration now, so how can you separate this from that. They go side by side.

ZA19 [18096-18990]

Well I agree that Islam should not be separated from politics because politics is ubiquitous, what I mean by ubiquitous is because it is everywhere depending on the understanding of what politics is all about, ah understanding of what politics is all about by individuals, because politics is been entrenched in virtually all affairs of human endeavors. So Islam itself connotes some kind of politics because politics, it simply means the act of influencing the decision or behavior or thought or opinion of someone in order to agree with your own opinion. So by way of preaching, you are invariably involving or influencing people by trying to convince them to accept the Islamic teachings. Therefore, you cannot separate Islam and politics because politics simply means, ah not necessarily the struggle for power, but actually struggle or striving to influence the behavior of one another.

ZA20 [10427-10572]

The root of politics comes from Islam but it is only that the western countries, the western nations hijacked it. So politics exist in Islam.

ZA21 [15048-15530]

Whatever you do in this life is politics. The shirt you wear there is politics behind it. The food you eat there is politics behind it. You can never separate Islam from politics because if you venture yourself into politics the end result of that is leadership. And there is leadership in Islam because the Qur'an says the hadith of the holy prophet rather said if two of you are going you should make one to be you leader. Therefore Islam should not be separated from politics.

ZA22 [14144-14623]

Yah Islam shouldn't be separated from politics because if you are not in politics you have no power to control anything. So Islam should be fully involved in all aspects of life because even the time of the prophet (SAW) there were things that were political like some of the wives he married it was for political reasons; after marrying them then their people all accepted Islam at the end of the day. So there must be Islamic interference in the politics at all times.

ZA23 [19429-19639]

I have said it earlier and I gave you an example of my humble self. As the chief imam here I am also a partisan politician. Only that I don't have money to contest that is why I didn't contest for any post.

ZA24 [25679-26216]

I agree that Islam should not be separated from politics because prophet Muhammad (SAW) created – he also formed a government during his time and also when he died Caliph Abubakar also formed a government, So therefore Islam is politics and politics is Islam. So prophet Muhammad (SAW) told us how to rule. He ruled the whole world so therefore Islam should not be separated from politics. But when you are doing politics you should do clean politics, we should not do dirty politics because Islam is not meant for dirty politics.

ZA25 [22597-22897]

As I have said, we have a siyasadul aslamiya. So Islam should not be separated from politics yes. It all depends on what politics are we talking about. It has to be Islamic politics but Islam must be necessarily separated from this western democratic politics because the foundation is not Islamic.

ZA26 [11001-11091]

Islam shall distance itself away from secular politics, but Islam has its own politics.

ZA27 [9483-9566]

Islam should not be separated from politics because Islam is a total way of life.

ZA28 [21500-22137]

I agree that Islam should not be separated from politics because as I earlier mentioned Islam is a religion of peace and it gives proper teaching on how to go about with people around you and it teaches on how to go on issues arising between people, how to lead people, how to make people really understand their purpose, what they desire to have and how to go about it. So I think basically if amm if they say Islam should be separated from politics so the people which are of peace and believe, I think they are the best people to go into politics so as to achieve these goals of maintaining order between people they are governing.

ZA29 [29935-30787]

Yes. Right from the beginning there is politics in Islam even right from the life of the Caliphate there is politics in Islam and there is teaching on how it is being practiced and preserved, not the way that politics is being practice today where it leads to the shedding blood and inflicting anger in the minds of your fellows. In those days politics is practiced by your own merits, what are your abilities, what you can deliver, what knowledge do you have? Are you good at that or not? People view you they see they assess you before they call you for a position not how it is being conducted today. If politics is to be associated with Islam with the way is conducted today I will recommend not, but if it is practiced the way it is practiced in those days back during the life of the Caliphate yes. It should be, a Muslim should do it that way.

ZA30 [40599-407]

Yah, politics means the way of governing people also Islam means the same thing. So they shouldn't suppose to be separated.

ZA31 [14121-14486]

I disagree because you have to, in Islam, you have to, you have to vote for your leaders, you can't just vote some one that don't know religion, either Christianity or Islam. So you have to engage in order to vote for your own leader that will guide you, that will, that will lead you. So I disagree that religion is not part of, Islam doesn't agree with politics.

ZA32 [38855-40532]

I view this reason to be agree, to be correct because no one can separate Islam from what, from leadership, in fact, Islam encouraged or Islam brought leadership because the prophet of Islam disallowed or recommend the people, he disallowed a group of people to work-out or to take a trip without nominating a leader among them and the he lead (SAW) as a leader of the Muslim Umma and when ahhh the when the prophet (SAW) died, ahhh, the issue of leadership arose and the Muslim Umma did not live without a leader. In fact they selected a leader among them which was Abubakar for the first time and the secondly the Umar al-Khatib and third Uthman bin Affan and the fourth, fourthly the Aliyu bin Thalib rabiyyalahu anu Amen may Allah be pleased with them all. Ahh these, if you look at the nature of the life of prophet (SAW) and his companion, you can see that Islam encourages politics. So you cannot leave, you cannot distinguish between them. You cannot separate one from the other. Islam is always together with politics and they cannot be separated and reasons why I said that, the prophet (SAW) act, acted as a leader and the companions also and up till now, the Muslim Umma, in facts, even in our prayer, we are commanded, it is recommended to what, to have an imam, in fact, in fact for a Muslim, to pray lonely is not recommended, it is somehow, his prayer seems to be somehow incomplete. To some extent, there are some conditions in which when a person observed the prayer alone his prayer incomplete, to some scholars ma is itself, but is invalid at all. So by looking at this nature of Islam ahhh, you can say, we can say Islam cannot be separated from politics.

ZA33 [10280-10908]

Yes Islam should not be separated from politics because the politics itself originate from Islam because during the life of prophet Muhammad (SAW) he has a council which comprises of distinguished scholars and distinguished Caliphs, companions of sound intellectual domain. So therefore, and if anything the prophet (SAW) want to pass across to the umma, he appoints some of them to take charge of the various appointments he wants to-he sent even some of them to places like Iraqi, Yemen, and other places in the Arabian Peninsula. So from that setting itself it is politics so therefore it shouldn't separate from politics.

ZA34 [23696-24081]

I agree exactly. Islam is all about politics because politics and Islam go hand in hand because Rasul (SAW) when I came to Medina he did not only practice the religion but also engaged in other affairs of the state. One of the affairs is he called all the leaders of the tribes and the clans in Medina to sit down and then reach an agreement which is called the Medina constitution.

ZA35 [10754-11124]

Yes, Islam should not be separated from politics though I am not saying Islam is politics. Islam is not a politics, but it should not be separated from politics because Allah (SBUH) has said in every country or in every gathering there should be a leader who would lead and guide others and a leader must be intelligent, faithful, committed, patient to his followers.

ZA36 [16786-17171]

It should be separated now, because when people bring Islam into politics, honestly they are trying to bring conflict because people would see as if everything about the nation is trying to be Islam, so Islam should not be added to politics. Politics should be politics and Islam should be Islam because politics involves everybody and it is not an Islamic state, so it should not be.

ZA37 [19222-19334]

This is true Islam should not be separated from politics, but which politics? Is it this our present politics?

ZA37 [19369-20258]

Is it then that is why am asking myself because this is, this word or this statement is well known, is a well-known statement, Islam should not be separated from politics, but which politics? It is a point of observation. Some people think that whenever one makes this statement, some people think that it is this our present politics, what do you call it, this of democratic or this or our democratic politics like PDP and so on. Many people if they heard this statement that is where their mind is, but that is not the thing. The politics here is the Islamic politics not this politics because Islam teaches how to pray, how to worship Allah (SUBH) and also teaches all the politics, how to live with each and every individual. So this is the politics we are talking about. Whenever you hear about this statement, this is the politics we are talking about not this democratic politics.

ZA37 [20351-20402]

Islam should not be separated from politics.

ZA38 [26097-26514]

Yah, even before now during the establishment of Islam when they left Mecca to Medina, you understand, there is a need of administration in the Islamic context and they need a leader, before administration you need a leader and probably even though they are not conducting election, but there is still a nomination of leadership, so Islam cannot, you cannot detach Islam from the state and from politics, you can't.

ZA39 [37135-37340]

Actually politics is part of life, and Islam is the complete way of life. So politics is part of Islam so that is how I understand it. Islam and politics is part of Islam, so I agree with this statement.

Th8.2: Islam as Synonymous with State and Government

KD1 [20159-20274]

That Islam is synonymous with the state, I don't seem to understand the claim actually. So I can't speak on that.

KD2 [8138-8431]

The only way I think Islam is synonymous with the state is if Islamic teachings are being duly complied with the way the state ah any state is being run. But if Islamic teachings are not being imbibed in the way the state is run then Islam is, you can't say Islam is synonymous with the state.

KD3 [6236-6535]

So the claim that Islam is synonymous with the state and the din in Islam is the same as a state and government is wrong because Islam is not the same with a state. Islam is a standing body on its own and state, people define a state while Islam, Allah has already given us the revelation of Islam.

KD4 [9404-10102]

My brother, looking at the word synonymous, you are trying to tell us that Islam is the same thing as or can be replaced with the state which I find unreasonable to even understand. Islam as a religion, as a belief, as an ideology if I may put it that way, is a distinct on its own and then the state is also distinct on its own. So there is no synonymy between those relationship and also the state and the what is the other thing you call, din and then government, din as a din, belief is distinct on its own and then government is also a way of governing, rules and regulations, binding on a particular community. So you cannot call it the same thing with din. That is my own opinion on that.

KD5 [6196-6283]

I think is not, Islam cannot be synonymous with the state. I think that's my position.

KD6 [14976-16420]

Islam, it depends on the kind of state you say Islam is synonymous with the state, it depends on the kind of, if it is according to Qur'an, if they are operating Sharia, it's still the same thing. But if they are under what I can call the agreement with those that they are not muslims and they did not disturb you from doing your worship to Allah, so is as good as you under the Islamic sharia, it depends on you. That's why we say we don't have a leader. It depends on you because, for example, let's take a case study, I know they are just perambulating, it's about Nigeria, in Nigeria of today, no any Christians or non-Christians or non-muslims that can come to you and say you should not pray. If he tells you not to pray, so, he is looking for your trouble and you did not say no, he should not do his own. So, whether it is under Islamic sharia, you still leave the Christians to do their what? Because you have written an agreement already. So, if he wants to tear the agreement, according to the sharia, you now tell them no, from this day on, we are no more together, let's face ourselves. You cannot even do jihad without telling the person you want to fight that am fighting you. That's result to threatening. In Islam, you cannot just come to me and I did not know you and you come and attack me, in Islam it's forbidden. If you want to fight me, you tell me that am fighting you for this cause and he will know you be prepared.

KD7 [8974-9584]

Islam, as I have said before, is a way of life, is not only a religion. How you eat, how you drink, how we marry, how we name our children, all is stated in the Qur'an and we as followers of Islam, we are expected to follow our religion. Like the case of Nigeria, we are a very big country with a very large population. We have a number of ah the two religions that is Islam and Christianity are the ones in the majority and both has large numbers. If we aspire to have a state of ahm based on Islam, it is okay, but we cannot force that person who is not governed by Islam to submit to the ways of that state

KD8 [18940-19372]

What I believe is that Islam encompasses everything. It is not synonymous. But when you are reducing Islam to state, you are reducing Islam. Islam is more encompassing than that. It's beyond the state, it's beyond politics, it's beyond everything. So, Islam contains all these, so it's not synonymous. The only thing is that with Islam you can have the state, you can have the politics, you can have the other ones. They can follow.

KD9 [11275-11742]

Yes the prophet (SAW) was the ruler, was the spiritual ruler or leader of the Muslims and he was political leader of the Muslims. So it was collapsed into one ruler-ship or one leadership, as you like, if you like. So he was the overall leader, he was the ah political leader, he was the one that leads in salat. He was the one who gives command for jihad and so on and so forth. So in Islam the one that leads is the political leader and he is the spiritual leader.

KD10 [6660-6933]

They are not supposed to be different since if to say we are in an Islamic state where the people are Muslims, they practice the din and how it was supposed to be practiced. The government, they are going to make sure that they also command good and they prohibited evil.

KD11 [13000-13174]

Well when you say din oh yes everything, the religion itself draws its own laws from the Qur'an and the Sunna, so is the state and there is this great relationship, correct.

KD12 [13190-13726]

Ah Islam cannot be different from what is operating in the state, you see because the divine book, it has made it compulsory that what is reflecting the inside and outside of human being have to be the same, see. If what is being done religiously is different from the operation of the town, it can't produce the real result we want and then the blessing of God will not come. It has to be magnetism. What we are doing have to be matched with the principles, the laws of the religion and the practical observance of the religion too.

KD13 [4752-4775]

No. nothing like that

KD14 [5846-6128]

As I said earlier, Islam you said eh the might claim that Islam is synonymous with state, no. Islam was not created by us so Islam can never be the same as the state. State, people make up state and the din in Islam is the same as the state and government that statement is false.

KD15 [8242-9036]

I totally disagree with that because Islam is a religion and state is state, so you can only associate, you see, there is one thing between character and let say religious character, so if you have your own character definitely religion has its own character. So you see character of human being and character of Islam is totally different, but if God help someone and Islamic character overcome your own character I think that is okay. Everybody has his own habit and his character and Islam has its own habit and character. So Islam is a character of God let's put it that way. So you have your own interest and character, but if God character overcome your own character I think everything is okay. So Islam state ah and state activities is totally different stuff. So it is not the same.

KD16 [4513-4531]

You can go ahead

KD17 [14699-15793]

Islam is a culture and what is culture? Culture is the way of life of people. Islam covers every aspect of somebody. How you dress, how you relate with people and how you practice your religion, how you relate with your Lord, how you relate with your neighbors, how you eat as in everything dressing, how you talk to people, Islam shapes everything, how you govern, everything, everything you can think of is in Islam. That is the witness of Islam. So, but when you tell me that you must establish the state, I don't know if you get me? Establish a state, what does it really mean? Does it mean that okay by the time everybody, yes it is good. If sharia is being practiced in Nigeria, yes it is welcomed, but the sharia is being practiced on Muslims not on Christians. If the sharia is being practiced today, you cannot use the law of Islam on those that are not Muslims. You use their holy books or what their law says concerning them, use it to judge them. Even if the state is established, the Islamic state, the Islamic law will be used on Muslims as far as I understand that is what is it.

KD18 [8001-8337]

I think it's no, because Islam, the state, I mean Islam cannot force and they cannot Islamize all the people in the state all in the name of their interest. In a state that we have Islam and non-Muslim and non eh Islam, the Islam will be doing their own while other religion will be doing their own so, there is nothing like that, yes.

KD19 [10919-11622]

Yes, Islam encompasses everything. Islam encompasses your din, the state even the government everything in totality whatever we do because eh in the farewell message of the holy prophet he said eh sorry it is an aya in the holy Qur'an that says today I have completed my religion and I have completed my favours unto him and I have approved for him as religion and Islam, so I have completed my favours unto you means God has finished everything to his people and everything is in this religion. Islam does not leave everything, whatever thing that is happening today if you come to the Islamic fold, you discover that it is being covered, everything even matrimony that involves everything is covered.

KD20 [5684-6152]

Yes I think there is a relationship between the Islam and the and the government because when the prophet is alive, he practiced politics even the not just only the prophet even when the prophet, the prophet Suleiman was alive, he practiced politics is just that it is not that is just there is a difference between, I mean there is a difference, the way they practiced their own politics then is different from the way we are practicing our own here in Nigeria, yes.

KD21 [6786-6801]

Next question.

KD23 [6928-6990]

Well ah this statement is somehow beyond my ah understanding.

KD24 [26057-26842]

During the life time of the prophet he, for example, their own terms is not as the way these ah politicians now are using their own terms. For example now, we have the president, parliament, secretary ah legislatures and the governors, senates, things like that. Then it wasn't like that it is the imam, the chief that is the prophet when he is alive, he is the imam then he is the head, then he has ah council of ah sahabas that they are the front sitters, then those, they are the ones that usually he has to ask them to give their own view. If, for example, they are going to jihad or something is trying to happen within the community he will call them ask them what are your views that is how the government of Islam proceeds, so ah actually they are not going on the same hand.

KD25 [36791-38111]

Well you know, when you say something is synonymous it means you are trying to equalize them that they are the same. There is no way that you can just say Islam is the same with government or state. What kind of state? (coughs) The state can be a non-Islamic state. It can be a corrupt state. It can be a Christian state. It can be a violent state. So when a country is violent, when a country is, I mean, when a state is violent, when a state is eh eh is corrupt, if you say it is the same with Islam that means Islam is also a corrupt religion. So that is wrong, is a wrong view, is a wrong view entirely, is a wrong view entirely, but instead why don't you say that eh of course that ah any government that carries people along, right, based on the teachings of the Qur'an and the Sunna is synonymous to Islam of course meaning what they are carrying, even if they are not Muslims, but they are doing what Islam says so we abide by it. You understand, not just a kind of a blind following, blind followership is when somebody knows the truth, because that person who has called you to falsehood is his father or is a scholar, you just, he just close his eyes and say okay even though I know it is not right I will just follow because this is my father is not that because we are worshipping one God and that is Allah.

KD26 [8394-8791]

Islam is actually synonymous to the state and din yes because Islam is supposed to guide our everyday lives that is why we have the sharia law. It is supposed to guide our social, our personal and political, everything about us yes, I think it is, they are supposed to work hand in hand with the state but not to the extent that you have to go out of context to do that yes, but it is preferable.

KD27 [8198-8564]

When you look at the context of the life of the sahabas and during the time of the prophet (SAW) the state and government was one. And we Muslims, as I said, we have our example in the prophet (SAW). So I think that there is no other context in which you look at this issue apart from the fact that even at the time of the prophet the state and government was one.

KD28 [11995-12707]

Well you know the understanding of Islam within the state, you know Nigeria as it is especially when we talk of, is a secular state, it is not an Islamic state per se hence even if the Islamic believers of greater percentage that one doesn't mean yes the state is Islamic state. Hence Islam you know that as, Islam as a religion when you talk of as a religion, it is not completely the attitude of the state or the culture of the state. An Islamic believer, as an individual, you own is limited to your own community or where you are because even if you are a leader, I cannot use you as your own leader because you are a Muslim you will know that this is your role, it is not all that applies not non-Muslims.

KD29 [6949-7194]

Well ah most at times the state, there are a lot of things that is similar to Islamic teachings ah in our present ah state situation; ah what we need to reemphasize is the aspects that is not ah in the way the Islamic teachings has ah provided.

KD30 [11556-12014]

Well of course you can hardly separate the state and Islam because Islam is the religion the total believe and conduct of the people that are believing in that very state, so you see you can't take away Islam and take away the state, ah I will agree that of course is synonymous because Muslims will like to live under the Islamic jurisprudence and the Islamic jurisprudence can only be provided by the state, so I will agree to a lot of extent ah with that.

KD31 [9232-9262]

Ah actually I don't get that.

KD33 [7721-8416]

Well, Islam is the same and the state and the government because Islam covers all aspect of life. Your eating, even when you are eating, the way you eat, the way you walk, the way you do every part and each part of your life. Islam covers everything, in yourself, in inside your house, how you raise your children, how you deal with family matters, it comes out in your society, how you relate with people, your neighbor, from there till off from this eh family level to the state level; to society level, to local government, to the federal government. So, Islam is true is synonymic with the state and the (and the government). Eh, with the state and the local government ehm the government.

KD34 [9323-9349]

To my own opinion is not.

KD35 [12361-12883]

Islam is synonymous when we agree with that then there must be force of Islam that means other people who don't believe in the word Islam they have to be forced and come into that, no, but whether you believe in Islam or not once you kill a fair judgment would be rendered and you will be killed. Once you beat and fair judgment would be called for and you be punished, but out of this everybody practices what he believes in, so to my understanding of that I don't really believe in Islam with the state is synonymous.

KN1 [23272-24132]

Yes, I would like to believe as I have been mentioning, Islam is a complete way of life, if you mean that Islam is the governing something that is governing a Muslim I agree, but if it means that wherever a Muslim finds himself they must enforce or create an Islamic state am saying that is not practicable, because now consider the situation where by a single Muslim finds himself within one million non-Muslims, there is provision in religion how he should conduct himself, and even when a non-Muslim, no matter how few they are find themselves under an Islamic law there is provision for them you cannot take their goods, you cannot kill them, everything you do to them there is punishment for you. The law will judge you as it will judge a Muslim, it has a punishment, if you inflict any that is wrong on non-Muslim the law will not allow you to go free.

KN1 [24783-25205]

That is why am saying it depends on the circumstance that is why I gave you an example, let's assume a Muslim finds himself in India must they enforce themselves and take away the government from the Hindu? Or now let's assume that you find yourself in US or somewhere that they are no practicing Islam what will happen, so that is why am saying it depends on the circumstance if the majority of the populace are Muslims.

KN2 [14807-15097]

No din is more than a state or government. It is a complete way of life where it takes care of the culture, it takes care of rites and rituals, it takes care of security, it takes care of education, it takes care of health issues. It is more than government. It is beyond just a government.

KN4 [19078-20392]

Let me say that how do you view the claim that Islam is synonymous with the state and din in Islam is the same as the state and the government. Islam is synonymous to the state that is in Islamic world, that is in Islamic states but not in secular state like Nigeria. When you go to the republic of emm, the Islamic republic of Iran, also the Arabia, is synonymous because the people there they are the same there is no mix, even if there is number of the Christians, they are very negligible number and they do not impose their religion on them. And then also, when you say Islam is the same as the state and government, yes to some extent where they are practicing Islam. Islam is the state and also the government because you can only practicing what the word of God or what the God says. You can come with the constitution or your own decree to impose it on some person or on some group. God has been stated has been completed his religion. In Islam the same, is the same, is right. But in secular state like in Nigeria could not take place because Islam is not the religion that is ruling the country. Is only constitution that we are heading everything in the country. When you see bad or good among the people, blame the government not the citizen because there are, because of their negligence to justice.

KN5 [8199-8436]

Islam is synonymous with the state ah ah as actually it is not. Islam is not synonymous as the state, as the state has some characteristics which the Islam does not have. But the Islam do have some characteristics which state does not.

KN6 [8090-8375]

Yes, there must be the government ah so Islam is always emphasizes government is Islamic because we don't agree with the view that say give unto Caesar and unto God, God this is the western orientation, we don't believe with this, so the government must be attached with the Islamic.

KN7 [8243-8548]

Emm, well ehm we can say its synonymous only in the sense whereby the ideology of the state is ehm, is a bit more of sharia, is a bit more of sharia and ehm and move with the teachings of Islam, that is the way, the only situation whereby you say it is synonymous but in the real sense, they are not, yes.

KN8 [6966-7339]

Ehm, I think both concepts are related because Islam is necessary to bring about an orderly state, you understand, and the government because for every successful government if some tenets of Islamism are not being adopted, it might find it hard to achieve its aim, so as a result of this, Islam is related to this concept, there is a means to assure a better government.

KN9 [7557-8085]

Well, this statement is very correct, you see in Islam there is no distinction between ehm between religion and state. They work hand in hand and as a matter of fact there are two sides of the same coin. So in Islam, Islam considers the state as part and parcel of the religion because it is within this state that all instrument and institutions that will ensure the happiness of the people both here and the hereafter. So it is within this state that these instruments are found. So Islam is strictly related with the state.

KN10 [6808-7084]

As they are almost ah, relating because Islam, Muslims cannot get the power to perform all what the law provided without having the government, yes because if the government is the one that has the power to agree or allow or stop for any activities to be ah carried out, hmm.

KN11 [9485-9508]

They are not synonyms.

KN13 [8885-9271]

Hmm, Islam is synonymous with the state in the sense that what, even Allah said that- it was actually stated in the Qur'an that power actually belongs to, comes from God and definitely these leaders we see, are just vicegerents of God, they are just trying to like, they are just like servants of God on earth who are made to lead the people. So Islam is synonymous with the state.

KN15 [8725-8822]

Yah, the claim is really good in Islam because there must be a state and a government, isn't it?

KN16 [4550-4634]

I think they are because Islam must necessarily provide good state and government.

KN17 [8307-8325]

For its positive

KN18 [14606-14893]

Well Islam is an all encompassing religion. It dictates how to run entire life, social economic and political and even religious life. Therefore, if it is all encompassing, the teaching of Islam can state and define how a state could run to be objective, to be just, to be fair.

KN18 [14998-15360]

No din, din is more superior than a state and government because even without the din existed outside and within the state, therefore, the state can operate under the din, din need the state and the state follow the din that superiority chart and religion in Islam, in Islam, in Islam we recognize that. It is recognized. The religion comes first then the state.

KN19 [11142-11882]

Uh actually you cannot absolutely say this, this could not absolutely be justified. The reason is that though if the teaching of the din, you understand, Islam is synonymous to state because the the principle of Islam could be adopted in order to ensure a developing society in order to ensure a stable state, you understand, but someone cannot absolutely say din, you understand, because there are many people that will negate over this, you understand, its just like we are bringing about an Islamic society where there are other religions that exist. I think you understand, as the sect of the religion that exist as diverse as they are, so that fact could not be justified absolutely that a means to bring about I think you understand

KN20 [5598-5621]

Yeah that I agree with.

KN21 [4008-4125]

Ah Islam is broader than the state and din in Islam has gone beyond state and government so the claim isn't correct.

KN22 [7103-7494]

Yah Islam is synonymous to the state because Islam is the right religion and Islam is supposed to capture a particular society. Islam is supposed to distribute what the people want. Islam is supposed to institutionalize leaders, Islam is supposed to come with a constitution that would go over the conduct of the particular committee, so that why it is synonymous with the concept of state.

KN23 [6630-6902]

ah I believe so because Islam itself is the only religion that has the claim that no religion has that claim, which means-the claim is that have this belief that Islam is a designed religion, it has everything in it: legislation, judiciary and all aspects of life itself.

KN24 [6313-6325]

Yah it is

KN25 [7779-7814]

The statement is very correct sir

KN26 [7107-7294]

Well no not like that if you are talking of ah Islamic law yah things like this can but if you are talking a secular we have a constitution, this is highly-have a limited applicability.

KN27 [7366-8051]

The claim that states that Islam is synonymous with the state, you see the state, its two different things, its two different things though there are some likelihood and activities that do exist between them. But I don't think, they are synonymous though yes they are synonymous. And din in Islam is the total way of Allah, but when you are talking of faith, we are talking about state sorry, when we are talking about state, you can bring din inside. Take for example, you are talking of a secular state, A secular state where there exist different cultural ehm different culture, different religions, and different-you can't bring din in it, definitely it will be totally different.

KN28 [5748-5885]

Islam is not synonymous with state because right before Islam I believe there were states. So that argument should really be tentative.

KN28 [5959-6043]

Din I believe is just a personal is a personal interest let's just put it this way.

KN30 [6294-6923]

Yah you know this are western terminologies of defining groupings of people or living of people or administrations in societies. But what we know is Islam is a general thing. Once you believe in Allah and the prophet of Allah (SAW), you are part of Muslims and whatever happens to you happens to them. Whatever feelings you have is the same feelings the Muslims should have. So you can call it a nation, you can call it a state, whatever you call it all we know Islam is a general thing. Once you are a Muslim, if I see you wherever even if you are from China, I am here, if you are a Muslims once I see you I feel like am home.

KN31 [8243-8272]

Ammmm well, I agree with that

KN32 [2749-2805]

Ah din in Islam is beyond the state and the government.

KN33 [3069-3122]

Yes because Islam captures all aspect of human life.

KN34 [3699-3822]

Hmmm I, Yes actually when you look at it you cannot separate religion with government or state. They must go hand in hand.

KN35. [5515-5800]

Yes this is because as it was the practice during the Prophet (SAW), there is no division between the state and religion. So even in the Athenian state even in the so called democracy, even the like of the Saint Augustine, they believe the religion cannot be separated from the state.

KN36 [5120-5301]

Yes Islam is foundation of even government because it covers all the right and wrong doings and how the government can be piloted in the affairs of all people to be carried along.

KN37 [4652-4826]

You see the claim is true okay Islam is synonymous with the state and din in Islam is the same as state and government I think that is true. There is no problem about that.

KN38 [2972-3100]

Yes I agree because I believe in Islam there is no circulation or separation of Islam and politics so I believe they are one.

KN39 [3400-3488]

Yes of cause because in Islam there is no separation between Islam and politics itself.

KN40 [6643-6663]

No idea about that.

KN41 [3906-4153]

Actually this is true because the...stated that the state is created by God and the rulers of the state are representatives of God. So therefore the umma must obey the government as such the state, Islam and government are synonymous to each other.

KN42 [7152-7223]

Islam eh, I don't have any opinion about that, I don't have any view.

KN43 [9561-10085]

Yes you know people should ah get this clear, they should understand this. There is no or the divide, the dividing line between religion and politics in Islam is very thin because the two go hand in hand. A simple example is that, the prophet Mohammed, peace be upon him, was the leader of the Muslim community in the seventh century. He was both religious leader, political leader and if you like, educational leader. So for someone to create a dividing line between Islam and the politics, I think he is wasting his time.

KN45 [5490-5759]

Yah, I think strictly speaking this is true, yah, Islam that is what maybe some scholars call ah political Islam. This is a true opinion, yes that Islam is the state and without the state there would be no full implementation of the Islamic principles, yah this is true

KN46 [7844-8872]

No, they are not the same. They are not the same, but they are not exclusive. State is state, Islam is Islam, but you cannot expect for example to practice religion without needing state protection for example. So if you get that protection to practice your religion freely without being ah harassed or persecuted, then you have what ah it takes ah from the state ah even we can recall that prophet (SAW) sent some of his companions to a non-Islamic state to get the freedom to practice their religion without any hindrance. So the essence of state is to get the protection, this is number one. Number two to main, to, to, to make sure that ah your practice, you practice your religion according to ah what our sacred text ah, ah prescribe. So actually the state and the ah Islam are two different things but one is, I mean, religion, Islam as a religion needs protection while state cannot be considered as maybe representing the aspiration of Muslims if it is not ah in, if it is not run in accordance with Islamic teachings.

KN47 [13561-14662]

Well yes, the Islam and the state are somehow synonymous nearly, nearly synonymous because Islam as a way of life if we look at it from that perspective you can simply say that there is the, the, the sharia system in which all the authority of the Islamic empire, you know, are govern the empire ways. The sharia system, you know, the sharia system involves using the Qur'an, using hadith and then using Ijma, you know, as the sources of law, you understand, where the Qur'an and Hadith is silent, you can simply involve the interpretation of Ulama that is ijma, you understand, to govern that society. So there is sharia system for Islamic state and then Islamic state cannot, you know, survive without this particular sharia system so you have to, you can simply say that where they correlate, where they just become one is where people, you know, majority of the people are Muslims and then majority of the yah, majority of the people are Muslims and they agree to be led by Islamic religion. So in that state we can simply say the state is Islam or the state is Islamic like Saudi Arabia itself.

KN48 [4768-4857]

No, because the reason for me saying that is there are some things that are in contrary.

KN49 [7401-7729]

No, actually they can actually function under different ah different ah scenarios and the state and the din are two entirely different things that could be, that could be achieved as one, depending on the circumstance ah depending on the position of the rulers or the led. It all depends on the existing political arrangement.

KN50 [4272-4301]

I don't think this is true.

KN51 [30138-32482]

You see ah when you talk of din and dawla Islam is always like that. Islam is everything in one. You find Islamic economic system, Islamic social system, Islamic educational system, Islamic political system, Islamic this, Islamic that. So a state is called an Islamic state when every aspect, when every institution, every activity that is taking place in that state is in accordance with the teaching of Islam and you see this is not new even to Christianity, is not new. Before the renaissance the Christianity are like this. Anybody who studies anything which is ah Republic Christiana learned Christians who know about Republic Christiana, they know that Christianity is all in one. There is social, political, economic, educational aspect of Christianity. It was only after renaissance that now they have changed. The modernity, the so called modernity they are saying, they have changed to separate maybe state and religion and don't forget even the person, the first person who introduced this separation of state and religion in world politics was Jefferson, that American head of state, Jefferson. We say Jeffersonian law of separation, separating politics from religion in America. It was first introduced by Jefferson and it was adopted by most of the western countries. So before the renaissance, Christianity was like Islam, was like Islam. Everything: economic is there in Christianity, everything social, everything political, everything is Christianity. If somebody wants to understand this, you can refer to the books of ah, for example, Saint Augustine. Saint Augustine made a comprehensive statement on this issue. So Islam is a comprehensive religion, is din wa dawlatu. It is a state as well as a religion. It is a religion state. It is a religious state. This is very much known to all western scholars ok, like Esposito in his book, The Jihad, he made it very, very clear to the world that jihad in Islam, this is how it is carried out. So even from the western perspective, they understand it very clearly. They know what jihad is all about and he wrote about shirt, not shirt ahm Esposito, he wrote about this issue, din wa dawla, state and state religion. So you can see if somebody wants to acquaint himself with what Islam is all about, he reads the book of, written by Esposito ah Esposito.

KN52 [9211-9698]

Yes I think in Islam there is no distinction between politics and religion and that is why Islam abhors secularism, you know, and if you look at the history of Islam you would see for instance that the religion emerged within the context of the politics of that period. And there was no any attempt to separate religion and the state. The Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was both the spiritual head of the state and as well as the political head of state. So the state and Islam are synonymous.

KN53 [6146-6292]

No, no, no, it is not the same, the state is there separately and the state comprises both the Muslims and the Christians. So I disagree with that

KN54 [2729-2769]

Yes. Islam is the state and politics.

KN55 [3704-3741]

Yes Islam is the state and politics.

KN56 [4733-4772]

Yes they are one and the same thing.

KN57 [5824-5923]

I don't strongly agree with this statement so I cannot go further and explain anything about it.

KN58 [15095-16477]

Yes. There is nothing like synonymous with the state because the state is under Islam. In Islam we believe in what we call Islamic state. That is why we say Islam is a way of life. The Islamic state is headed by the Amir who is the supreme leader while the Umma are the followers. So there is nothing like Islam is synonymous with the state. There is Islamic state and under Islamic state, as I said, you must have the Amir who is seen as the leader. so also under the Islamic state we have the Islamic economic system whereby it is agreed under Islamic economic system you can transact, you can share Riba or what we call profit, but not ribbah. Usually this is an Islamic economics. You are allowed to trade, but don't hoard. You are allowed to transact, but don't smuggle. You are allowed to own a property if you can afford it. So also there is Islamic Judicial system whereby within the state if you are found guilty or wanting, you would be punished according to the Islamic teachings. There is Islamic family life whereby Muslims are allowed to marry and then procure children in accordance to Islamic teachings. There is even Islamic social teachings whereby you and I can interact. That is why the first Islamic teachings is that once you see a Muslim brother you say salama alaykum. You are extending a personal relationship to him. Is that not so? So that is it.

KN59 [9753-10347]

This statement is a little bit confusing you understand, but based on my understanding to the question, it all depends on the state if a country is Muslim dominated country, then you can say they go hand in hand, the state and the government and Islam go hand in Hand, but if it is a state it is 50:50 then you cannot say they have to give everybody the privilege to practice its own din under the government rule or their holy book, you understand, so it all depends on the state. Like in Saudi Arabia we, which is a Muslim dominated country or state, so such opinion can be achieved there.

KN60 [14518-14568]

I do agree with this statement, Islam is a state.

KN61 [4557-4839]

No. There must be a, there would be a kind of relation mostly synonymous. When we say synonymous, they look alike but they have a kind of relationship that maybe we can say this is state and this is Islamic state and what have you. There is just a relationship to my understanding.

KN62 [18612-19572]

Well eh, this question eh em is a little bit confuse, confusing and ah well the, the best answer I can give is that no it is not, meaning they are two different things. Although Islam provides everything, provides answers to everything, is a total way of life and we know that the state and the government, you understand, if you like, let's say ah systems through which we build, we establish certain way of life. So yah, in that respect, Islam can be synonymous with din and state and government. But there is a little difference even in Islam because there is what we call mu'amalat Islam and there is what we call aspects of ruling, aspect of kinship, aspect of governance, and things that has to do with governance have their own provisions, things that have to do with this ah mu'amalat that total way of life, have their own provisions in Islam. So that is why I said there is little difference between the two and one should not put the two together.

KN63 [17937-18572]

Now really Islam is having its own way of life, its own constitution of life. Now in an Islamic state, huh now those that are practicing such or maybe in an Islamic state, you know, they do tend to abide and by what is being laid down by the Qur'an, by the Hadith, you know and maybe some other secure something like that. But in some other state it is not for, it is not compulsory that they have to be follow the same pattern of teaching, but for an Islamic state that is why you are even calling it an Islamic state, they have to abide by what is being laid down by the Qur'an and Hadith. That is what makes them an Islamic state.

KN64 [6988-7297]

Yes, there is no separation Islam between state and Islam. All are the same. State must follow the rule of Islam yah there is no separation, hmm. State and Islam and everything, everything in our life is Islam. We follow, we must follow Islam in all what we are doing. This is Islam. I agree with this, hmm.

KN65 [11512-11714]

Okay, eh to me, Islam and the state are two different things, you understand, din is also on it's own, they don't ah although they are have some eh inter-relationship, but they are not the same, yah.

KN66 [4201-4500]

Ah to some extent Islam is synonymous with the state and because Islam provides all you need to know, the rules and because government, government provide you with constitution and Islam provide you with the Qur'an which will guide you. So to some extent, I believe it is synonymous with the state.

KN67 [5333-5522]

Yes, the, my understanding here is, the way I view it is that ah Islam do not separate between politics and eh economic and other social matters. So everything is the same wherever you are

KN68 [2740-2787]

They are one and the same, and the same thing.

KN69 [10870-11533]

Yes, to my understanding is true because they can be used interchangeably. Here we are talking about the entity, that is the authority and in other respect we are talking about the people making the authority. If the authority is Islamic one, the people within the authority are expected to be Muslims, therefore they are Islam, they are Islamic, they are Muslim therefore they can be used interchangeably to the fact that an Islamic state is always is to engage towards the interest of Muslims in order to enhance Muslims to observe Islam and that Muslims must try as much as they could to see that they protect their entity that is Islamic state or government.

KN71 [18193-18795]

Islam is synonymous with the, yes Islam is synonymous with the state because al-Islamu din wa dawla. Yes is a din and is a state and when it is a state, it does not mean that there shouldn't be any non-Muslim in that state, of course there is, but it is the law of Allah that is supreme that is all what matters. It is the law of Allah that is obeyed by all, that is practiced. So that is what entails establishing the state. Establishing an Islamic state does not mean not having a corrupt leader, not having an unjust leader, no. But it is the law of Allah that is running the affairs of that state.

KN72 [11631-11882]

Yes, Islam you can say that it is synonymous with the state and government because Islam practice cover all aspect of social lives that is politically, economically and the socially. So it goes with the state or to say a nation or even a nation, yes.

KN73 [11875-11893]

It's so ambiguous

KN74 [19413-20215]

Okay you talk eh now let's take the statement one by one. If you, I think in this question there are two things, three things that comprise the question that is Islam state and the, and the government. Now if, first of all we are looking at the government, if there is an existence of a people in a particular area or in a place, there must be a ruler or a leader that will lead that people into the right path. Therefore, before that, there must be a state. Now the thing that we are talking, that last thing is an Islam. Okay this if, if there is a state, there must be a government and I think the claim that Islam is synonymous with the state and din that is Islam is the same as the state and government, I think they can be the same or they can they can be not the same in one in the other way.

KN76 [14081-14480]

Actually there are not synonymous, but they may be part and parcel of one. If you talk of an Islam, Islam is all encompassing, you can have the system of the government and you have the religion within it and even if you look at the history of Islam you will always see that the state is not separated from the religion while the and the state is part and parcel of the religion and the government.

KN78 [16045-16709]

Well you see Islam is everything. To a Muslim, is a way of life, is submitting to the will of God in all spheres of human endeavor, in politics, in economic activities, in social activities, and legal. So Islam encompasses everything human endeavor, yah. So when you say the state and the din in Islam is the same as the state and government, and ah well government ah is part of ah is part of the din, ah state is part of the din. Ah similarities here, Islam is more wider in u said jihad, for instance, is one component of Islamic teaching. The state, all those questions are part, are not, I mean, they are sub, they are part of the Islamic ah teaching.

KN79 [8446-8616]

No. Islam and state have differences as each strive to achieve specific objectives. Islam is for Muslims only while state and government is for Muslims and non-Muslims.

KN80 [14224-15041]

Yes Islam is, it is true because Islam does not confine itself to the worship alone. Islam does not even worship alone, it does not mean ah ah amputatin or punishing those who committed ah sin. Islam is comprehensive, is universal religion. If there is no area within human endeavor which Islam did not touch. So Islam ah is everywhere if you are talking about the government there is certain principles and a proclamation on how government should be run in Islam. If you are talking about the state, there are certain guidelines laid down by the Islam on how the state should be run. So in this sense we can say that Islam and government, Islam and state, Islam and ibadat, Islam and worship are all the same because Islam is general because Islam is a general phenomenon concerning all aspect of human life.

KN81 [8869-8952]

Well Islam is synonymous with them because Islam cover every trend in human life, o

KN82 [11269-11831]

You see, I also pointed out earlier, that Islam is din. Islam is synonymous to din, but it is not necessary that din most correspond to the state and government. You find a situation whereby in a state large chunk or substantial members of that state may be Muslims or non-Muslims. Therefore, Islam as a din make a provision in that case, in a situation whereby large portion, large proportion of the inhabitants, citizens of the state are Muslims, Islam prescribes what measures to be taken in order to control or to carry along the non-Muslims and vice versa.

KN83 [6900-7100]

Islam is not synonymous with them. Islam is a religious institution and above all other, all other information, all other institutions including states, governments, but din is synonymous with Islam.

KN84 [7830-7916]

I don't think Islam is synonymous with government because of ahh Islam is a religion.

KN84 [7963-8009]

No, no, no, it is not synonymous with the state

KN85 [6929-7174]

Ahh Islam is a comprehensive religion, a comprehensive way of life. Therefore, if we say that ahh ahh Islam is synonymous with the state, yes, in an Islamic state everything is guided by the principles of Islam. Therefore, yes we can say it is true.

ZA3 [8895-9085]

A claim that Islam is synonymous to state, Islam, in Islam there is no separation between the state and religion, so in Islamic state whatever the religion say is what should be practiced

ZA4 [22374-23124]

Islam means the government, is a government on its own, you understand, because is like Islam, people are worshipping Allah alone, doing everything in the commands of Allah, that Allah says in suratul Nisa (he recites the Qur'an) that if they could have been doing what Allah commands them to do, they are going to live a better life and prosperous life, and precious life in this world and hereafter, you understand. So that means following the guidelines of prophet Muhammad (SAW) is also the government and that Allah has promised and that is the state yes Islam is also the state, but there have, there is no how, if there is no state, there is no how you will can just use jihad to create state, it has its own guidelines and it is not jihad.

ZA5 [12001-12322]

Islam, then state, government. Sorry I can't say much on this, there are some people that are in better position to explain better because when you say din, din is a religion, they you understand, comprise of governing and some other things. There are some people that have more ideas to explain more better than I do.

ZA5 [12471-12783]

Yes Islam is related to state and din, you understand, that is state? What is din, they you understand, because state have the way of regulating their things and Islam have the way of regulating the state, so because of that if they can put it into a state for the betterment of the people in that state, nice.

ZA6 [23424-24393]

Ahhh Islam is synonymous with the state, of course because Islam as a whole is the system, is the way of life and in a way of life you have there are guiding principles hmm. Human being is a social being, you live amongst each other. You cannot live in isolation, so Islam is, if Islam is a way of life so Islam is synonymous to a state because everything, Islam is a complete code of life. The rules: how to live, how to coexist, how to live within and outside your own faith, it is all in the Qur'an and hadith hmm. During the time of the prophet, the sharia was adopted after the conquer of Mecca ahh, the sharia was adopted and the Qur'an was used as a guiding principle, as the constitution of the state. So definitely in a place where there are majority Muslims Islam is synonymous to a state because every guiding principle, whatever constitution you use, whatever guiding principle in a state is found in the Qur'an and hadith. So definitely it is synonymous.

ZA7 [9547-9966]

Well most governments goes ahh most government laws have been imposed on the society to give them the belief that there is orderliness and there should be decency and order in the country. So I think its similar, most of these government policies are gotten from religions, both Islamic religion and Christianity, but in exception of paganism probably. So I think, yes I will say it is synonymous even to Christianity.

ZA8 [14303-15100]

Ahh I don't agree with that. The Islam, there is politics there is, there is no politics in Islam. I don't think there is, according to me, my own opinion because no matter how righteous you are, the moment you join politics, I think that righteousness will not be there anymore. You must commit one or two things especially in Nigeria, everybody knows that (he laughs) the moment you are a politician, you are a crook or a criminal. You must be one of the two because you can never be a politician in Nigeria without you committing one or two things that goes against even people, against the fundamental rights of humans. You must do that fundamental human rights, you must go against one and going against fundamental human rights, you are a criminal. So I don't think it is synonymous to it.

ZA10 [12587-13190]

Like I said I got the question Islam is synonymous with the state. I will say yes and no because Islam also is, it comprise of a group of people that have one believe that is believing in the teaching of the prophet (SAW) and state is also a group of people in a country, but with different beliefs, with different cultures possibly even with different religion. And I say no because Islam is not just hibernated in one place like the state is just in a particular place, Islam is very volatile, is more than a nation, I can say continent because every nation we have Muslims and there is Islam there.

ZA11 [10265-10566]

Well, in the religion, in Islam, the way of life is being stated, which is the sharia and it is what governs Islam that is the Muslim himself, so the way of life, the governance and everything is based on the sharia laws. So actually Islam and your din is synonymous to the state and the government.

ZA13 [5677-5690]

No, I don't.

ZA14 [5102-5183]

Yes, you know, once you talk about Islam you can't separate Islam from politics.

ZA15 [10598-10762]

Islam cannot be, because if you look at the state, first of all what is state? You cannot compare Islam with the state, so I don't think they are even synonymous.

ZA16 [6041-6044]

No.

ZA18 [7202-7271]

Synonymous as how? What kind of synonymity? We should just proceed.

ZA19 [10219-10666]

Well as a student of political science, when we say state actually we are talking about an independent sovereign state, that is a territorially demarcated area where there is constitution, there is population, you understand, there is territory and so many other necessary characteristics of the state, and when you say Islam, Islam is just an ideology, so there is no synonymously, I mean they cannot be synonymous. That is Islam and state.

ZA20 [5291-5551]

Well Islam is not a specific territory. Islam has not single territory. Islam is all encompassing. Islam extends its arms to the length and the extent of the four walls of the world of the universe. So there is no single area that you can call Islamic state.

ZA21 [7130-7584]

Well the true nature is the tradition of Islam is different from democracy. That we mean the practice of democracy is somewhat, somewhat, let me say somewhat different from the tenets of Islam. By this it entails-in Islam they said leadership can prevail with Christianity or unbelievers if there is justice, but it cannot come to stay if there is injustice. That entails the dictates of Islam is completely different from the so called democracy.

ZA22 [6790-7049]

Yah. Islam encompasses everything. It is not only a religion where people just go to mosque and pray. It encompasses all aspects of our lives. It touches everything. So Islam is more than just a state –it comprises everything in the life of a Muslim.

ZA23 [10380-11167]

Yes to some extent, Islam as a religion is automatically a way of governing people. It is Islam that teaches how to govern. That is why as I am talking to you now, I am the chief imam here, I also practice politics and I take my politics as my religion and my religion as my politics. To me there is no difference between the two. I can recall one of our Islamic scholars in Nigeria more especially in the northern Nigeria, he used to say leadership or politics is even more than the prayers we are praying in Islam. Some people couldn't understand that. If you don't have a leader as people as a community if you don't have a leader then you will end up living as eh I can say in an animal kingdom. Only those that are healthy or those that are wealthy will not get everything.

ZA24 [12867-13556]

Yes Islam is synonymous with the state and din in Islam is the same as the state and government. So Islam – in fact if I understood the question very well, the way you practice religion whether you are in the northern state, the way you practice religion whether you are in the southern state Nigeria, whether in the south West or north West and so on and so forth. So Islam is a total way of life. We have only one Qur'an, we have only one prophet (SAW), we have other prophets, but we believe all the prophets and the way we pray here we are praying five times a day in northern states so in South West also they are praying five times a day. So therefore Islam is synonymous everywhere.

ZA25 [11694-12367]

Ahhh my view is that Islam is a holistic socio-cultural and political system. But as I have said the western powers have tended to limit the frontiers, the scope of religion to religious rites such as going to the mosque, praying, doing the fasting during the month of Ramadan, going to hajj in the sense that they know that if the political aspect, we are allowed to practice the political aspect, their power will be diminished a lot. So Islam as it as it were- state, the political system of a state is supposed to be a subset of Islam, it is a component of it. Only that the enemies of Islam have tended to reduce that which tended to push the extremists to the wall.

ZA26 [6134-6320]

Islam is the way of life of people so all Muslims need something that will govern them that that is islamically wise that will allow them to practice their religion the way others do.

ZA27 [4282-4286]

Yes

ZA28 [12611-12683]

Oh this is a very difficult question. May be you should just skip it.

ZA29 [20694-21175]

Well you saying that we claim that Islam is synonymous with the state and din in Islam is the same as the state and government?

Well to me you can only say this in a situation where by you are having a created Islamic state. When you say Islam is synonymous to state no, it is not at all in a place where you have two different parties, two strong different parties. Only when you have a place or let me say an Islamic state yes you call it is synonymous to state, same as state.

ZA30 [26344-29133]

Hmm, well, this is from the interpretation of some philosophers. They say the aim of any religion is to achieve a political power. I think during my undergraduate, there were some theories that we read that they said that anything they are referring to God, their meaning, they are referring to power, any god that doesn't have power, so, it is not a god.

They said the example is when you call Muslim and ask him who is Allah? They will tell you Allah has power. When you interview Christian who is Jesus? They will tell you Jesus has power. When you are see somebody worshipping idol, they will tell you idol has power. So, that is the, may be the interpretation they are putting in that way that the end or the aim of any religion is just to achieve its state or to achieve a nation. Muslim is far, Islam is far greater than that. The aim of Muslim, the aim of Islam, the main aim of Islam is Allah (SBUH) has created Jannat and also created hell fire that is paradise and hell fire. So the aim of bringing people into world just to bring them and test them because he already created two houses, so he wants to judge those according to the deeds we are going to commit here. He brings us, he sent us to the world. Those that follow the right path will end up in paradise and those that follow the wrong, the wrong one will end up in hell fire. So people are, I think worshipping anything that they are worshipping. According to Islam, there is difference, in Islam, people are worshipping Allah because they are fearing him and also they want, his own bounty to come into them that is aji tsoron Allah saaman kuma a kwadaqita da rahamanshi. Aji tsoron Allah da azabarshi akuma kwadaita da rahamanshi. Fear is ehm, I don't know how to put it and also be in need of his own assistance. So by doing of such, bringing yourself, bringing your family, bringing your household, bringing your area into practicing a certain thing that involve everything, in other definition, we can also put down it's achieving state or even central government because you did not need anything from government. Anything of (speaks Arabic and Hausa) that book has already contain everything. So by following it really you are achieving a state and even the central government because anything is in it. Your whole day, your business, marriage, ehmm, whatsoever, contracts, everything contained in the book because all those knowledges that are ahh, I think may be that may be waste have gone far in the beginning, they don't have anything until after they started after the first aya was revealed of the holy Qur'an that is the beginning of the civilization of the whole world. So for those then, when you say may be the, the aim of this one can be in, may be it can be on the philosophical interpretation.

ZA31 [7501-8070]

Toh you see, Islam, the way I defined it to you earlier on, Islam teaches us the way we move our activities, Islam in, in, can I, I can say Islam is the way of life. Islam design your life, the way you are suppose to live your life, the way you are suppose to live with people, the way you are suppose to rule people, the way you suppose to be just, to do justice in all your activities. So I mean, you see, so that means Islam, if Islam is the total way, total way and correct way in order to, that will lead you to beautify your life and to practice your activities.

ZA32 [17521-17815]

No, I can say here Islam is not synonymous with the state, it is not synonymous, they are only related and the din, din in Islam is the same as what, the state of government, they are not, they are not, din is not, din is only a way of life, is a philosophy of Islamic way of life that is din.

ZA33 [6114-6407]

The claim that Islam is synonymous with the state and din is the same as the state and government, is Islam has its base which it establishes most of its activities. And upon that base or pillars Islam is built. So in such a case Islam is a kind of enclosed statement of the same government.

ZA34 [14457-15631]

Well actually Islam is, as I agree with is synonymous with the state because Allah (SBUH) says in the glorious Qur'an ya yuallazina amanu dukhulu fissil mika fatan- oh you who believe enter into the religion of Allah completely. Therefore, if you are really Muslim, you must allow yourself to abide by all the rules and regulations in Islam. Accept it. The one that you can do, you can practice, go about. The one that you cannot, if the authority there are Muslims and Islamic, then they should also carry their own because everyone among the people of the society has his own limitations. If you are an individual citizen you have your limitation. Those on leadership they have their own limitation. And everybody has his own limitation. So you enter the religion completely seems that the din of Islam is a complete religion. There is no sphere where Islam does not talk about in life; how to enter even your bathroom, how to sleep, how to walk, how to even speak to others, how to interact, how-everything has been spelt out in Islam, in the religion of Islam. So there is no ambiguity in Islam. So by following the religion completely that is what Islam is all about.

ZA35 [5552-5561]

No idea

ZA36 [11457-11507]

No. Islam is not that. Islam is not like that.

ZA37 [10642-10766]

This is true, Islam as they normally say in Arabic is din wa dawlatu. It is a religion and it is a state at the same time.

ZA38 [17456-17829]

Yah any society that Islam dominates, the first thing we so much believe in is that the Qur'an should be the constitution and the way of life should be Islamic way of life. When we say Islamic way of life we make sure we conduct the whole thing in a perfect shape. I agree with that aspect that actually it is synonymous to the din and the state. I agree with that aspect.

ZA39 [22457-23566]

Actually that is the, when we say what is a state? A state and Islam, actually this is a short, it is a question that needs a short answer. When we say a state, a state according to the political, is it political science or whatever you call it, is defined, political aspect, a state is just a defined territory occupied by particular people having a body among them that would be governing their affairs, so if Islam is the total way of life, then Islam comprises both state, the government and the people. So this is the position. If you agree that, if we agree that Islam is the total way of life, that life involves living with one another, living in a particular area, defined territory with a particular people entrusting their, entrusting their power to them to be governing your affairs, so that is it. So it is true. Islam comprises the state, the people and the territory because it is a total way of life of the people, when you agree to live your life in this manner then of course your territory, your leadership, that is the government and the people, must agree to the teaching of Islam.

Th8.3: Relationship between Islam, Politics and State

FG1 [34474-34663]

These are interdependent because one cannot live without the other. As I said earlier even in religion there is politics. So the state is a political phenomenon. There must be a relationship

KD1 [38904-39388]

Islam, politics and the state, that's a complicated issue I will, I think, I have least say on that, but the bottom line is there should be at every instance, there should just be a symbiotic relationship where one assist the other and where they work hand in hand and to make for the welfare of the people and goodness and for the people to be able to worship Allah with effectiveness where they have the basic amenities of life and the confidence that there is security is assured.

KD2 [14816-15346]

Definitely there is a relationship between Islam, politics and the state because in Islam ahm there are teachings that govern us that guide us on how to go about on our political activities, like on how to choose our leaders, how to maintain our resources, how to take care of our family, all these are politics because we treat them in a political way. Politics does not necessary ah necessarily mean to be voted, to vote and to be voted for, that is not politics. So there is a relationship actually between Islam and politics.

KD3 [11976-12180]

The relationship between Islam politics and the state. We say politics and states then use Islam to guide them. Let anything pertaining that politics and state be guided by what, by the rulings of Islam.

KD4 [22990-23865]

Islam and politics, as I told you earlier on, Islam has to do with the totality way of life of every human being. If you ask me, I will tell that you every man is created purely an Islamic being. It is only when he is growing up that ideology changes. So you cannot do away with Islam and politics, they move peri per su and then with the state, you said, it depend on which type of state are you referring to. If you are referring to a secular state, I will tell you that Islam does not have anything to do with the secular state rather that the Muslims living in a secular state have to know that yes, there is spiritual being, being that he is watching over them and whatever they do, they will be accounted to it. So they have to be the true Muslims and portray the true teaching of Islam in every state, anywhere, anyhow they find themselves, even in the secular state.

KD5 [13280-13640]

Hmmm I think there is a relationship between Islam, politics, and the state because, as I said earlier, that Islam covers the entirety of life of Muslims because I don't think that there is any aspect of life of Muslims that Islamic religion did not cover and politics is part of it and the conduct of people within a state also Islamic religion has provided.

KD6 [27493-27580]

Ah! Still saying the same thing, the same thing. Islam is politics, politics is Islam.

KD7 [18285-18887]

Islam politics, for any society to be ruled, whether an Islamic state or non-Islamic state. It uses politics as its instrument of governance. During the time of prophet (SAW), the Sahabas, he did not decide to name the sons or heirs of people who are empowered or decide to send them somewhere where the was importance, where there was an expansion of the Muslims, he will sit down and see who fits there, in my own view, that is politics. Who fits the job, who will help deliver the job that is politics and the state however a state is, it will always be governed by politics, Islamic or otherwise.

KD8 [38819-39842]

Islam, politics and state. Islam is a religion of peace. Islam is a complete way of life. Therefore, Islam, the state should live, depending on the nature of the state, it depends if it is in an Islamic environment that is a positive relationship between Islam, state and politics. All of them are going together because the politics and the state will be living or would be operating in accordance with the Islamic values and principles. So that's the kind of relationship, but in a situation whereby it is an environment that is not an Islamic society, then Islam has given, like I said, it is a complete religion. It has specified the way you live with a person that is different from your religion. It has stated to you the way you are going to live in politics that is not an Islamic politics, there is a way you are going to live under that. So Islam is a very comprehensive religion. It has already specified the way you are going to live under an un-Islamic state, in politics that is not, you know, really Islamic.

KD9 [23962-24296]

Yes it is still the same thing. I don't know if am making myself clear or giving you the point the way it should be. We should still go back to the best of examples, the prophet (SAW) he has done that, you know, we have Islamic state then, you know, he was the spiritual leader and of course he did the politics of running the state.

KD10 [17167-17536]

The relationship between Islam and politics that is Siyasa Adila, you know, religion ko? The relationship is that in the Islamic state they use the Qur'an, they use the Sunna then the politics, when we are talking of the politics, is going to be the politics that is ah Siyasa Adila the upright politics not the wrong politics. So there is a relationship between them.

KD11 [21729-22046]

Well there should be no relationship between Islam, politics and the state in a secular state. But when you talk about in an Islamic state there is a strong relationship, in that there is strong relationship between these because politics and other things are, Islam largely influence everything in an Islamic state.

KD12 [26779-27565]

Islam, politics and the state are ah see they are three in one, but when we say and politics and state, you see, it means probably we are not having totally Islamic government like what have in Nigeria now, but my advice in such a way is that Muslims should know their way of operating since we have gotten the constitution of Nigeria which has stated, which have even given Muslims the way of practicing their religion even in the office. The Salat period is there, no officer, no head can stop a Muslim from going to mosque when it is time, you understand. So Muslims should not offend the state so far as that they have not gotten their own Islamic state. So politics has to done the way we have agree that it should be done so far that we have a mixture of Muslims and Christians.

KD13 [9045-9099]

There is no relationship between Islam and politics.

KD14 [10790-10998]

I could say yes the relationship, there is relationship, there is no relationship because Islam is a standing body on its own while politics and state they are subordinates, they need something to embark on.

KD15 [17591-17927]

Ahm the relationship between Islam, politics and a state, Islam is a religion of God which is being ordained by the people ah while politics ah is played by the people and state is being created by people, so if ah the people of the state who play politics can obey the laws of Allah I think everything will be okay as simply as that.

KD16 [9018-9296]

The relationship is that the Muslims they need a leader, they need to have a leader and the point of having a leadership and having a leader that is a political matter already and it is very, very compulsory that in every set of people there must be a leader in that community.

KD17 [31395-31704]

Islam and politics and the state that is the question. Islam as a whole, everything, how you can live your life, your social life, everything is in Islam. The state, the Islamic state, is that not what the question is saying, the Islamic state which is practicing or adopting the sharia as as a constitution.

KD17 [31798-32504]

You cannot separate the state from the politics, which kind of politics will you play? Is it on how to interrelate with other state, other non-Islamic state, just like the previous question, I mean the secular state whereby the Islamic injunction is not being practiced there. There are different ways, even the sharia which is being practiced in the country has already teaches you how you are going to relate with people. Does it mean that during the time of the prophet there are non, there are states that are not controlled by the Muslims, how did they relate with them? Go back there, read the history and see how the predecessors, how they related with those states that are not control by Muslims.

KD18 [15014-15557]

Yes there is a relationship between the Islam and the politics state in the sense that you know Islam teach us the way of life, the way we select our leader, the way we do things, the way we behave so everything is ah has been written in the holy book that Allah has given us. So and when we talk about the politics so they have their own way of, they have their own way of selecting the leader, so it's almost the same thing, but the way we do our own things in Islam is quite different from the way they do their things. That is my opinion.

KD19 [19576-20153]

Well, Islam politics and the state now the relationship is that both the politics and the state are aspects that are found in Islam, so Islam covers the politics and the way a state should be ruled. So but the way politics is being practiced today is not the way Islam wants it. Take for example, politics today is all about a winner takes all, the one with the highest vote is going to be your leader, but in Islam, the man that has the vast knowledge of Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet should be the leader. So that is the relationship between politics, Islam and state.

KD20 [14791-14976]

Yes there is a relationship between the Islam and the politics, as I said earlier that there is a politics in Islam, our past prophets they practiced politics when they are alive, yes.

KD21 [13095-13394]

As I said earlier, Islam is the total way of life. Politics have come to stay as the way in which people tend to select those who will represent them in the state. So I think the relationship here goes in the state where they don't practice Islamic law that gives an avenue for politics to prevail.

KD23 [13726-13928]

Okay the relationship between Islam and politics and state ah is that the people ah the Muslim that are living and doing their religion in that state without any hesitation or without any intimidation.

KD24 [48252-49210]

The relationship is that eh the politicians that we are having now, if you say, we, we are Muslims, we have no any view to be part of these policies issue, then actually you will be left aside okay these ones they said they done have any interest, they don't have any interest in politics, if they finish their own politics and things they want to do, they may not necessarily turn to look at you, what do you want? The modern thing that will move you forward, building this, maybe devices that you will use in your even mosque, things like that, no, they said that they are not part of us, they are not practicing politics. Well actually no, we are practicing politics because we are humans, we need to be guided, we need to be enrolled, someone is supposed to show power on us, is supposed to be our leader to show that yes we are not taking things in our own hands, no, there is someone that if he says yes we will say yes, if he says no, we will say no.

KD25 [66602-68460]

Well you see ah ah Islam is what brings politics. There is no, there is no aspect of Islam that there is no politics in. What is politics means? That is, is it not leadership? It is only leadership by the way, leadership is the act of leading people, right? So even if you just try to have a look or observe from our five daily compulsory prayers, if the imam should come into the mosque while the Muslims have queued themselves in rows and the imam should decide to withdraw from his standing place to the first row, if the prayer is conducted like that, is the prayer, is the prayer accepted? No? Why because the imam is supposed, must come out of the first row, he must be in his row alone, if he should join the first or the second row and he is the imam, that means negatively there is no leadership. If he withdraws is not leadership and that is why you see most of our Muslims that have kind of ah shallow thinking, continue blaming and even showing, pointing fingers unto our late sheik Abubakar Muhammadu Gumi when he said eh the importance of ah of politics is even more than the importance of prayer and people started shouting why should you say that, that they don't know the hidden the hidden thing there, you see, if there is no calmness, if there is no peace, can prayer be offered? It will be, it will not be and then just as I have given an example, if the imam is not standing in the front of the first row and decides not to, decides to stay in the first row, is the prayer accepted, no. Why because there is no leadership. The imam is not the imam everybody is, is as if everybody is claiming to be the imam, so and then we have seen it, we have seen what Sheikh Gumi have said 25, 30 or 35 row back, now it is it has manifested and everybody is a witness to it, what have been happening just recently I don't need to paraphrase. Aha

KD26 [15727-16357]

Islam and politics and the state, the relationship between Islam and politics and the state. Hmm Islam is a religion of peace, one. It is a total way of, it is a way of life for Muslims and then it guides, it is supposed to guide everyday lives of Muslims that is including their personal, political, social lives and then politics has to do, politics cannot come in without a state, so I think there is a very great relationship in the sense that Islam, politics and the state they all, Islam guides the state by the law that is the sharia law that is guiding it, so I think sharia law is supposed to be what guides the politics

KD27 [18937-19165]

Like I said Islam and politics, as far as I am concerned, there is no clear distinction between Islam and politics. Politics is part of Islam, and the state also. In my own understanding, Islam, politics and the state are one.

KD29 [13197-13375]

The relationship ah is on the path of our conducts, conducts between individual and the society and conducts between individual and individual, based on my shallow understanding

KD30 [24089-24580]

Islam, politics and the state, ah I think the relationship between these three ah important things is that Islam is the total ah belief of the people which they live their life by while politics is ah is a channel of which is been followed to attain ah the leadership of a given state, so I think both these have to be looked into because Muslims it is important going through Al-Maududi's ah opinion or view we have to go through politics in order to achieve the total control of the state.

KD31 [13898-14172]

Politics is Islam, politics yes why I said politics is Islam, what is politics? Politics itself means you elect someone you feel he is competent and ah you remain under his rule and that person should be fair and just and that is what Islam teaches us throughout our lives.

KD32 [20394-21116]

Yah as I said Islam is a faith, is a believe that is submission to the will of Allah while politics is just a western way of choosing a leader, who to rule you and a state that is a state of being living that is the land, so they are three different things per say, but now in the in the current system we are, you cannot do without one, so the three must exist, you must live because westernization has imposed it, make it compulsory in some of these developing countries most of the developing countries to be participating in politics that is democracy while eh people may not believe, people may not leave their faith for the politics so we may accept the two, you must now have to live with the two at the same time.

KD33 [16516-16649]

Its all the same Islam and politics and the state they are all part of government, so none of them can be separated from one another.

KD34 [18216-18632]

The relationship between Islam politics and the state is that the politics is the activities that run a state and the state is a group of people that come together with a sovereign government, sovereign authority. So, the relationship between them is that we Muslims, we believe that Islam is a total way of life, Islam teach us how to govern, Islam teach us how to apply politics, to Muslims and to non-Muslims.

KD35 [18965-19348]

The relationship between Islam politics and state is the word Islam is guiding the politicians. The word Islam is guiding the politicians, when the politicians are guided that means the state is guided, when the politicians, they are conscious of their religion, they rule by God's fearing fairness, they govern fairly then that means the state and the whatever is govern fine.

KN1 [43803-44335]

Well as I told you earlier, politics is now adulterated, the statesmanship is equally adulterated to achieve personal aims but if you are talking about pure state-ship as it is, yah Islam encourages ... in fact there is a particular saying I cannot really attach it, I don't know where actually the source of that say is, but it is said that it is better to be a non-Muslim as a leader but be fair, a fair leader and a non-Muslim than to be a Muslim and not be fair and to be an oppressor, that one is not encouraged in Islamically.

KN2 [24498-24622]

A very strong relationship, a very strong relationship. You cannot divorce the state and politics within the state and Islam

KN4 [38725-38846]

The relationship between Islam and politics is good morality, good conduct, justice, fairness and equity with the state.

KN5 [17309-17650]

Islam, politics, and the state. First of all Islam as I said is the total way of life. Politics is the normal practices day and day practices of the people and the state also has to have the people, it has to have the government and as such the people have to play a politics which is Islamically supportive or Islamically supportive, yes.

KN6 [18286-18513]

There is all, there is all the they have mutual relationship because you can't separate our government, we can't separate our politics, we can't separate our business, we can't separate our educational system with our religion.

KN7 [18357-18596]

Islam uhm, we have stated earlier on, Islam, politics they work together and ehm, whether we like it or not, politics work with the state, politics exists everywhere. So they work hand in hand, there is correlation between them all, yes.

KN8 [17858-18283]

Islam-politics is just more or less like the relationship between secular state and the what: the Islamic state. Both, the state is the contemporary nature of the society we have in our contemporary era with various political system while that of Islamic state is the one that is based on sharia, you understand, and Qur'an. If both could be mixed together and work, you understand, interwovenly, there would be development.

KN9 [17750-17971]

Islam, politics and the state in my own opinion are more of three concepts in one because all these three concepts go hand in hand. In Islam there is no distinction between all these three. They have to go hand in hand.

KN10 [12655-12941]

Islam, politics and state. Yes you know a state is just some part of the country I can say and politics is what governs such place or such state. So Islam, if Islam is found in such territory so they must be related why because with that politics the Islam can be, can govern the state.

KN11 [17976-18057]

Islam and politics and state, so I don't, I haven't seen any relationship here.

KN13 [19240-20171]

The relationship between Islam, politics is actually it correlates because uhm Islam is a religion, you understand, state is just like a social institution that comprises of people within a definite boundary, right? And the other thing is uhm politics, politics actually involves the- is an activity of the people that involves the manipulating of one particular side to agree with the opinion of another particular side. So when actually we talk about an issue of ehm Islam, politics and the state, for an Islamic state to become, for a state to become Islamized, first and foremost, it has to be, it has to capture its politics because even right from the prophetic era, right from the time of the Caliphs, the Imam, the Amir al-mu'mini is the political leader. So definitely there should be a- there is a correlation between the Islamic state and politics because definitely in Islam politics and religion are actually together.

KN14 [13772-14267]

Relationship between Islam, politics and the state? Islam is a religion, politics is something that has to do with the power and other rule of law and you say and what state? The state is any geographical area that is populated with ahh human beings so the relationship between Islam, politics and the states, there is ah relationship of course, there is relationship, because Islam has to do with politics and that politics has to do with the state. Yeah there is relationship.

KN15 [15580-15790]

There is a huge relationship between them because the state is the people while Islam and politics are the system guiding the people in which the people live, so there is a good relationship between the three.

KN18 [32698-32990]

The relationship of Islam and politics and also the state, ah is an integrative one. You cannot separate them. It is an integrative because Islam needs the states in order to actualize some of its principles and so also the politics is the normal process of actualising some of these things.

KN19 [19907-20042]

Islam, politics and the state there are three related concept that should work together because they have impact to play in one another

KN20 [13804-13907]

They are interrelated but each of them should be a kind of ah stand differently in their own governance

KN21 [8541-8598]

There's a cordial relationship between these two things.

KN21 [8627-8662]

They are, very, very interrelated.

KN22 [16714-17035]

Yah, I said earlier, Islam is synonymous to state. Islam is a way of life in a particular community that it should be led by Islamic leader or even non-Islamic leader the will ensure that the teachings of the prophets and the Quran is being followed. Each and every citizen is being given right to practice his religion.

KN23 [12543-12711]

Ah the relationship between Islam and politics and the state is that Islam cannot be separated with politics and state cannot be separated with religious institutions.

KN24 [12709-12823]

The relationship between Islam and politics and the state is it should be and interrelated and interdependent one.

KN25 [17945-18007]

Well I think these three concepts work hand in hand basically.

KN26 [16709-17312]

The relationship between Islam, politics and the state, well the relationship-we have to go back to history-was when Islam as a state ahh the inception state of Islam whereby you can't divide the religion the state and also from leadership. Then you have the leader of the umma is the so-called governor if you like, and is also the imam. Then the divide was not-there was no divide as such it was, it was ahh even in Nigeria if you look at the Danfodio jihad you see that it is only one group, same group that will lead Islamic the faith spiritually, same group politically and same group also state.

KN27 [14556-14764]

The relationship between Islam and politics are, let me say, insignificant, insignificant because they are more or less the same. When you look at it from a broader perspective they are more or less the same

KN27 [14837-15082]

The relationship between Islam, politics and the state is that when practicing Islam, you can't do away with politics and when having and its only under the umbrella of a state that is where you would have a full practice of Islam and politics.

KN28 [11110-11256]

These I believe they all work hand in hand; Islam, politics and state are all what exist in a Muslim state itself. So they all work hand in hand.

KN30 [13432-13455]

They work hand in hand

KN31 [15767-16246]

Well Islam as we say is a religion. Politics is part of Islam because you know it is through politics, in short generally we say life is politics in itself. So that is why we say politics is part of Islam and you know politics takes place in a state. You know when we have states normally as a result of changes that we have from one type of government to another came about democracy so I think they are all-just like we call it that they are tripartite. They work hand in hand.

KN32 [7110-7133]

They work hand in hand

KN33 [6438-6484]

They should be one and there is no separation

KN34 [8995-9272]

Like I have just mentioned you cannot separate politics from religion because even Islamic religion encourage politics. There are instances that it will encourage you to do dialog or to paly some techniques in order to achieve what you want to achieve through political means.

KN35 [11799-11866]

Islam, politics and the state are the same, they are inseparable.

KN36 [11760-11967]

Islam, politics and the state are like father, mother and the children because Islam is the mother of all politics and the state. How state can be established is been stated in the holy book of the prophet.

KN37 [10218-10497]

The relationship between Islam and politics and the state. I think it is that of a relational relationship, something that this coincides with the other okay. Islam can simply be a kind of be seen, sorry, let me just say, Islam, politics and the state they work together as one.

KN38 [7257-7297]

They are all one and the same in Islam.

KN39 [12049-12505]

Ah when we say Islam, the relationship between Islam and politics really we mean leadership. Leadership in the sense that really Islam has made a systematized leadership that is to say even the holy prophet himself through Allah (SBUH) has thought us that even if we are going to embark a journey with three people really we must appoint a leader. Therefore, we can conclude that really Islam really makes it compulsory upon Muslims to practice politics.

KN40 [12235-12403]

We mean the relationship between Islam and politics and the state, we mean who should rule or who should be appointed as the ruler and how a ruler should be appointed.

KN42 [20392-20541]

Islam as a religion that worships that Muslims worship Allah, politics as a way of governing an Islamic state. So the relationship is inter-twinned.

KN43 [17394-18029]

The relationship between Islam and politics is that Islam emphasizes on the need of leadership because if two to three people are to travel according to the teaching of Islam, they should appoint one of them as their leader. That shows the significance of leadership and politics in Islam and on the other hand, the relationship between Islam and state is that Muslims do not live in vacuum. They live in a kind of territorial area with the defined boundaries and neighbors. So this creates a kind of relationship between Islam and state, the Muslim also live in a state. So there is a strong relationship between Islam and the state.

KN44 [12482-12831]

Ai you can't separate Islam from politics, like I don't know when you talk of Islam, you are talking about the totality of the Muslim's life. So there is no separation between the two. The relationship is always there between Islam and politics, between Islam and economy, between Islam and social relations, between Islam and so many other things.

KN45 [14437-14816]

Ehh, the relationship between Islam, politics and the state is very conspicuous, is very ehh, is very eminent since ehh there would be no, there can't be ehh a full implementation of Islamic principles without the political leadership and that political leadership must operate within a state, within a government, an Islamic government, yah so the relationship is quite there.

KN46 [28985-29323]

They are overlapping. Islam interfaces with the, the affairs of the state because in Islam, Islam will tell you that certain people cannot be made to be, to hold certain responsibilities, so you can see that Islam has a saying on how the affairs, the political affairs should be conducted while ah so I can say Islam is all encompassing.

KN47 [30643-31192]

The relationship between Islam and politics and state. Well there is a relationship between Islam and politics because it gives guideline for, you know, as in how to practice a particular politics and then the Islam, the relationship-politics and Islam and then the state. So state is just the institutions where all this, you know, inter-relationship took place, the Islam and then the politics, there is politics of Islam and there is Islamic politics and then it takes place in a state which agrees, you know, to have them together, that is it.

KN48 [9581-9591]

No, idea.

KN49 [17704-17853]

I think the relationship is clearly defined. The state is different and ah at the same time, it is also interconnected and interwoven with religion.

KN50 [8669-8704]

They inter-lapse with one another.

KN52 [22921-23561]

Well Islam is a religion but is not a religion that is narrow in its focus around human existence. So for instance, unlike Christianity, you know, that does not make claim to political or to providing any comprehensive political or social program, Islam is different. It has a comprehensive social program, it has a comprehensive state ideology, you know, and the political program. So for me, Islam, state I mean Islam, politics and state are very important elements that cannot be separated, I mean, they are intertwined. They are inextricably connected. There is no way you can separate Islam from the state or the state from politics.

KN53 [11398-11488]

The relationship between Islam, politics and the state are interrelated and interwoven.

KN54 [5758-5792]

They are one and the same thing.

KN55 [7283-7300]

Interconnection

KN56 [11169-11331]

Islam and Politics and the state are one and the same thing as I answered in the previous question. They are interconnected, interrelated and inter independent.

KN57 [11792-11903]

You see the relationship between Islam, politics and the state is putting things in the right position. Yes.

KN58 [25871-26048]

They are fused together. Islam and politics are fused together and then the state is under Islam whereby you have as I said what we call the Amir, or the Khalifa or the leader.

KN59 [19921-20144]

The relationship between Islam Politics and the state. The relationship is that they go hand in hand because if there is Islam there must be politics and there must be state. I think to me it is like the same thing, yes.

KN60 [21184-21220]

To me it is still the same thing.

KN61 [9409-9619]

Ahh, Islam is a religion, a total way of life while politics is a process of maybe ah administrating the people. So they have a relationship. This is one administration of the people; this is one way of life.

KN62 [31772-32301]

Islam, politics and the state, they are one and the same. They are one and the same. Islam, there is no contradiction here ehh, I think I said it before that I believe that Islam provides everything and it provides every answer, every answer to everything therefore, Islam, politics and the state because the state is always run by a certain political system, right? And the political system, whatever political system we may think of ah is there in Islam, in fact this politics comes from Islam. That is what I believe huh unn.

KN64 [15898-16034]

All these, even if you are talking about the real Islam there is no separation between Islam, politics and the state. All are the same.

KN65 [18728-19266]

The relationship, Islam, like I told you, I have find ah, I have been saying it at the back is that Islam is a way of life, and politics is using your power to influence people or decisions. While the state is the sovereignty, you understand. So there is a direct relationship that exists between Islam, politics and state, you understand. So if state is now the people, your politics is the power you use to exert your decisions or influence on those people and Islam is the way in which you coordinate your activities, so this is ehh.

KN66 [10898-11204]

The relationship between Islam, the relationship between Islam, politics and state is they are joined together. There is no way you will talk of Islam you don't talk of politics, Islamic politics and there is no way you don't talk of Islamic politics you don't talk of state, so they are joined together.

KN67 [11938-11967]

To me they are all the same.

KN68 [5848-5866]

Interconnection

KN69 [22473-22557]

Islam, politics and the state, yes. They are one component me to my understanding.

KN69 [22675-23115]

I think there is a relationship between Islam, politics and the state but if you take the issue of Islam and that of politics, they are almost synonymous but politics in the other way is a man management, is a man management whereas Islam is a total way of life of Muslims because it is a code of conduct which administers the way of life of Muslims, but if you take the state, state is an entity in which Islam and politics are observed.

KN71 [38363-38674]

Yes, the relationship is Islam is a state and is politics. Yes Islam is a state and is politic. A state means the body of embodiment ehn an embodiment that is looking after the affairs of its people, isn't it? And politics means the science of looking after the affairs of the people and Islam is that body.

KN72 [20696-20989]

Islam and politics and state have relationship because when we say state, we mean an organized people those are or those occupying a territory with a government that means the state. Islam also is an organized group of people which occupy a specific ehh territory or entity with a leadership.

KN72 [21159-21621]

Islam, politics and the state, yes Islam is all about the managements of people as well as politics is also is a management of people and the state is an organized people that occupy a definite territory with a leadership. So there is relation between state, Islam and the ehh state because even in Islam when two people are trying to make something, there is need to establish a leader among them. So this implies the politic or political aspect of Islam, yes.

KN73 [20530-20820]

Islam, politics and the state. I have told you the relationship Islam and the state and politics there is pretty relationship and you can't separate between Islam and politics. And the state, if we are thinking about the secular state, then there is difference and there is no relationship.

KN74 [32273-32541]

The relationship is that eeeeh Islam is a religion and you know that you can't never differentiate between Islam and the politics and provided that there is a state of Muslim, there must be an ehh Islamic politics. Therefore, they are together, nothing separate them.

KN74 [32574-32718]

Okay, okay if there is a state, there must be an Islam and the politics; it means that if there is no state, there is no Islam and no politics.

KN75 [34702-35019]

There is a relationship between Islam, politics and the state. That is why I say Islam is known as a, is known as politics, Islam is an ideology holding that Islam should guide, social and political as well as the personal life of a human, of a Muslim, you understand, Islam, politics and the state go hand in hand.

KN76 [22741-23227]

Well, there is a relationship, strong relationship between Islam, politics and the state because, as I said before, Islam is all encompassing, you can't separate the life of a Muslim ahh the political life of Muslim from his religion and you cannot also separate his economic or social life from religion and also when there is an Islamic state, you can see that the whole politics, the economy, the social life, the culture and everything is guided by Islamic ahh by Qur'an and Sunna.

KN78 [35162-35888]

Well there is politics in Islam, just as there is Islamic politics ahh either way ahh politics ahh there is Islamic teaching in politics. There is a teaching also in Islam that guides on how a state should be run. The relationship simply ahh is that anything that has to do with trying to fulfill, in the spheres of politics, the Islamic teachings, there is the relationship. Anything that is guided by the state that emanates from the Islamic teaching, then that state is said, there is relationship between the state and Islam. Islam is a way of life, as I said, it is all encompassing so it has its own politics that is one relationship. It equally has a state that is another relationship under an ideal Islamic government

KN80 [30570-30771]

They are almost all related because Islam cannot govern itself alone. Islam is a regulation governing our aspects including the politics and the state, so since they are also part of the Islam per se.

KN81 [14875-14942]

Okay they is related because Islamic needs politics and the state.

KN82 [20483-20593]

The relationship between Islam, politics and the state is that Islam dictates politics and directs the state.

KN83 [12517-12622]

They have relation because Islam needs state and politics for it to operate effectively in sound form.

KN84 [14679-14893]

I think the relationship is that Islam needs politics and the state to operate. When there is no politics in Islamic activities, people cannot understand Islam and state requires to establish Islamic government.

KN85 [16788-17015]

Yes they are all connected. There is no separation between all. Islam is a comprehensive ahh ahh emm religion, it is all encompassing, all aspect of the society, all aspect of human life are connected. There is no separation.

ZA2 [17746-18141]

Ehm when we say Islam, we are looking at Islam as it is. Islam is religion of peace, you say politics, when we talk about the politics here, we are referring to people who lead and how leadership are gotten. Then we go by the chain and when we talk about the state that is the entire society. Ehen which must have a leader, so there must, it is interwoven, no one can stand without the other.

ZA3 [15952-16083]

The relationship between Islam and politics and politics and the state, the Islam decides or dictates the politics and the state.

ZA4 [34593-34896]

Yes, ehm Islam preaches about monotheism, of worshipping Allah. Politics teaches about how you can, you know, call people into your ideology, right? Yes and state is the governance, yes is the governance of the people. So allhamdulillah if you get Islam is all about these concepts, these three things.

ZA5 [19638-19943]

Islam, politics, state, the relationship? So many people involve in the politics because they want to be involved, the relationship between them is just that, they can't do away with the Islam between the government and the state because there is nothing that you will do without involving the scholars.

ZA6 [48580-49106]

Relationship between Islam and politics and the state. Ahm politics, Islam hmm is a way of life ahn and when you practice Islam that is when you know Islam is a way of life, the way you govern and all that hmm, so definitely it has its own way of ruler-ship that is using sharia, so there is a relationship, there is a relationship between Islam and politics and the state. The state in the sense that if you have a sharia constitution you have an Islamic state hmm and then in the ruler-ship itself, there must be politics.

ZA7 [18294-18825]

Well there must be a relationship at all times between Islam and politics because as we know some Muslims occupy a certain amount of ahm okay certain geographical area in Nigeria or certain population or some of to certain population in Nigeria. And if you really want to be a good politician or you want to be in politics, you must understand that you must carry everyone along whether Muslims, Christians or pagans. You must carry everyone along because there are indigenes and they all from the same country. So its important.

ZA8 [42957-43050]

Islam politics and the state there is no relationship between Islam politics and the state.

ZA9 [20855-21417]

This, it still revolves around power, it still revolves around power because everybody practicing each religion would want someone from his own religion to be the leader so that they will protect their interest according to the teaching of their books or so. Or the state have laws, I believe these laws correlate to some extent with sharia law because sharia law gives room for some things that most people that are not Muslims do not really appreciate and as such I don't think it should be forced into the constitution since Nigeria is not an Islamic state.

ZA10 [23355-23592]

The relationship in Islam, politics and the state. Islam, let me use that word, is the mother of it because from Islam you get politics and you get state. So the relationship there is them working with their mother to achieve the best.

ZA11 [17847-18037]

Like I said, Islam is the way of life, politics is part of the life and so there are relationships, so if Islam being a way of life you know is the same thing, the relationship is the same.

ZA12 [9942-9975]

Islam, politics and state. Next

ZA13 [11006-11105]

Between Islam and politics and the state, it still goes down to sharia, I think practicing sharia.

ZA14 [13257-13567]

The relationship between Islam, politics and the state, if you look at it, there is no way there can be state without politics and there is no way there will be Islam without government or without state, toh because of this you can't separate those things because it is people that are doing all those things.

ZA15 [17319-17819]

The relationship between Islam, politics and the state. Islam is when everything you do is you submit it to the will of almighty Allah. Politics, that is something done or brought by the west, you understand, on how to elect their leader. Islam has told us how to elect our leaders and the present day or the modern day practice is politics, so when, politics simply means the bigger number or when I say, carries the day, but Islam looks at how knowledgeable you are and then gives you a particular...

ZA16 [10706-11068]

The relationship between Islam and politics and the state, the relationship is that since the constitutes Muslims, then there is relationship because there are Muslims so therefore, their rights, they should be given their own rights to practice their religion that is one, and the politics, they should be given equal chance to be vote, to be voted and to vote.

ZA18 [14847-15518]

Well there is a relationship, a very close relationship, Islam, politics and the state itself. Ok Islam and politics are together, you understand, but the state, you know, if you take like, for instance, let's take Nigeria as an example can we, can we take Nigeria as an example? (yeah), Nigeria, in Nigeria there are multi, well the two major religions as people say are the Islamic religion and the Christianity, and there are multi diverse ethnic groups, I cannot claim that this country belongs to the Muslims alone, you understand. So also the Christians cannot claim ownership, so if we are made to know this, then we should be able to live in peace and harmony.

ZA19 [20450-20886]

Well as I said earlier, Islam is an ideology while politics is ah a situation or a condition where people come together and achieve some certain aims while the state, in other words, in other hand rather is a sphere where the people, you understand, who are adhered to that particular ideology which is Islam, dwell or find themselves. So there is a strong or connected relationship between Islam, the politics and the state as well.

ZA20 [11186-11582]

Islam and politics and the state, well Islam is the religion that involves the applying process of leadership which is politics. And that leadership and politics has to do with certain territorial area, some certain domain where Islam will also apply its administrative principles there thereby justifying its administrative capacities there. So that is an interactive relation to that effect.

ZA21 [16313-16709]

The relationship between Islam, politics and the state is that Islam is a religion of Allah as lived by we the Muslims and politics is more or less a game, a game in the sense that you play it and if one eventually becomes a winner and the other becomes the loser. Who eventually becomes the winner automatically rules the state. Therefore both politics and Islam exists under a particular state.

ZA22 [15400-15579]

Islam encompasses everything, as I said earlier; Islam encompasses the state and the politics as well. Islam has the right to discuss -to interfere with any matter in our lives.

ZA23 [20693-20919]

Politics is a mode of leadership. If you talk of the state it is an environment where people live and Islam is guidance on how to go about leading in a given society or an environment. So it is a chain that cannot be separated

ZA24 [27438-27471]

I don't have much idea about it

ZA25 [23813-24316]

As I have said amm Islam is a holistic socio-cultural and political religious package. It is a complete one. So politics and state are components, they are subsets of Islam. Only that the western imposed democratic systems and gradual erosion of true Islamic scholars and learned people, have tended to reduce the scope of Islam to just rites: going to mosque, going to hajj and what have you. So state and politics, which is Islamic politics not democratic politics, are integral components of Islam.

ZA26 [11554-11738]

Politics has –Islam has its own politics peculiar not the politics that they are doing it now because Islam does not promote corruption and other things. So Islam is no party to that.

ZA27 [10005-10068]

Now politics is part of Islam, is part of Islam and the state

ZA28 [22515-22722]

A lot of relationship up there as I earlier mentioned Islam and politics should not be separated so they are actually hmmm I will say one will not function properly without the other so applies to the state

ZA30 [41555-41731]

I said the relationship between the politics, Islam and the state, they are all, the end aim, the end aim of each of them is to govern people and they are all the same thing.

ZA31 [15432-16165]

The relationship, they have some relationship but not all. Let us say in hundred percent (100%), I can say the politics that we are practicing now, I have not seen any relationship per se right now because our leaders they are trying by all means to persuade people or to in order to, in order to get what they want which is not part of religion and religion, Islam like in pertaining government, Islamic government as in give first priority to their people that is leaders, that is Islamic leaders give priority, their first priority is their people, how to rule them, how to get everybody comfortable while politics now the think of their self first before people. So you see, I don't think there is any likeness or relationships.

ZA32 [42386-43031]

The relationship between the Islam and politics is what I have mentioned about the ahhh inseparable nature of what, the two. Islam as we made mention cannot be separated from politics, they are going hand in hand, they are together because without politics, leadership cannot be found and without leadership religion, Islamic religion cannot be found, cannot be practiced well, yes. And the state also ah the two are within the state that is their relationship. They are within the state, the politics is within the state, the religion also is within the state, and all the activities concerning the two are carried out within that state, yah.

ZA34 [25646-26158]

The relationship between Islam, politics and the state, Islam is a religion that is completely to the life of a Muslim, it doesn't have any segment, and politics is part of Islam. A state is also part of Islam because the way the state has to be controlled or has to be governed is there in Islam. The political or the way how to elect a leader and how the responsibility of a leader is there in Islam. So Islam is just like an umbrella that is embracing, shading both politics, state and every affair inside.

ZA35 [11411-11420]

No idea

ZA36 [17797-18013]

Islam is a religion. Politics is a game a dirty game. A state is a place where everybody lives both Muslims and non-Muslims; they are indigenes of a state.

ZA37 [21656-22161]

Islam, politics and state, it depends, you know we have our own Islamic politics and there is democratic politics, so the relationship between Islam politics and the state, this are something that they are always together, they are always together because without politics, I think there should not be interaction between peoples or individuals in a state. So provided Islam is allowed to be practiced in that state, so politics is there, state is there and Islam is there. This is my own understanding.

ZA38 [27128-27300]

Yah, the relationship is an established one. You cannot be talking about Islam without you talking about state, without you talking about politics. You can't detach them.

ZA39 [38165-38602]

Like I have said earlier, Islam is the total way of life, politics is the way of governing people, state is the place or comprises the place, a defined territory where people live. So the relationship is that both the state and politics should be practiced according...you asked me the relationship between Islam, politics and the state. Ok Islam is the complete way of life of people living in a particular area so they are intertwined.

Th9: Islamic State in light of Maududi's Claims

Th9.1: Scope of an Islamic State

KD1 [56999-57233]

The scope of Islamic state in my understanding should be principally the leadership, the welfare and full time responsibility of how, of taking charge of how people are actually ah the wellbeing of the people, the subjects under you.

KD2 [27229-27395]

The scope of an Islamic state is purely to establish the teachings and doctrines of Islam as it is being contained in the Qur'an and hadith. That's my understanding.

KD3 [21148-21264]

An Islamic state has to do with a state where the teaching of Islam is being practiced by one's will not by force.

KD4 [52280-52622]

In my understanding, the scope of an Islamic state is living at the righteous path, living at the, living in the way of Qur'an and Sunna of the Rasulillah and then scope of Islam is wider than one can imagine because Islam has to do with the totality of all man's life, all what you do, even the way you sleep has to be Islamically inclined.

KD5 [27585-27816]

The scope of an Islamic state covers territory, people that live in that territory, leaders of that state, and then the holy books like which that serve as the guidelines or guiding principles by which the Muslims live their life.

KD6 [44000-45083]

To me, saying Islamic state, Islamic state, Islamic state is when you are using the Qur'an or the sharia to judge people. I still say it, have you started in your own house that you were shouting? Are you practicing Islam in your own house? In my own house, am I practicing, are everybody is practicing? If we are practicing, it doesn't mean he will just come naturally. In Tudun Wada, for example, in Kaduna, predominantly we are Muslims, are we practicing Islam there? Does anybody stop us not to practice Islam? Are we practicing? So, we are doing things that is not Islamic there and everywhere that is predominantly muslims. In Kano that they say there is sharia, go there and see what is happening. In Sokoto, in Zamfara, we think we have ninety percent there, even if it is not ninety nine percent, let's give it ninety percent, in an examination if you scored ninety, eh you are a distinction student or am I lying? So, that is how it is. So, what are we doing from there, let's see, has our attitude change? It did not change so, why are we shouting about secular state.

KD7 [35045-35162]

The scope of Islamic state. I believe the scope should encompass everything, everything, everything, and everything.

KD8 [60905-61116]

My own understanding of the scope of Islamic state is that it encompasses everything. It encompasses the economic aspect, the political aspect, the social aspect, the technological aspect, it covers everywhere.

KD9 [43403-43425]

That too I will skip.

KD10 [34564-34867]

No any scope. Everything should be Islam, we make effort that in Islamic state, the leader is Muslim, the Qur'an and Sunna are being used, then the leaders preserve the following things I have mentioned earlier. You get me right? And then they give the Christians and the Jews their rights accordingly.

KD12 [37396-37877]

Ah in fact the scope of Islamic state says is just a state like giving example of capitalism and socialism, their scope was to maintain eh the revenue the development of the people toward a single goal but when it was jeopardized or it was treated unjustly it can't be achieved. The goal of Islamic state is that things have to be done according to ways almighty Allah has established the whole world, if it is done like that everybody is going to enjoy both here and the hereafter

KD13 [17061-17271]

The scope of an Islamic state in my understanding should be a perfect state where truth, as I earlier said, where truth and sincerity based on the teachings of the prophet (SAW) and the message from the Qur'an

KD14 [22238-22381]

To my understanding an Islamic state is a state that dominate mostly and a place where there is full and total submission to the Islamic law.

KD16 [17917-17926]

Go ahead

KD17 [53445-53572]

The scope of Islamic state covers leadership in entirety. Islam as a culture whereby the way in which people live their lives.

KD19 [34954-35036]

The scope of an Islamic state is very wide. It covers every aspect of human life.

KD20 [28527-28755]

I think it covers the life of the of the Muslim and it covers the hadith and the Qur'an since we have some rules and regulations that guide us in Islam, so it covers the people living in that particular state or countries, yes.

KD21 [26598-26710]

As I said earlier, basic fundamental is the rule of law and has to go with the Qur'an and Sunna of the prophet.

KD23 [27139-27406]

The scope of ah Islamic state in my understanding, is where sharia is ah where sharia is imposed and Muslim rules his obeyed and with the support and authority of the government, with the support of ah an authority of the Islamic government, yes that is what I mean.

KD24 [81099-81173]

Scope of an Islamic state is to follow the way of Allah and his prophet.

KD25 [93972-94349]

Well the scope, the scope of an Islamic state is ah it falls within the state. It shouldn't go outside the state in the locality or hamlet or village. If it is situated outside the Islamic state the Muslims must not try to occupy that small village by just eh trying to use force on them. That is haram. But they should just try to make it I mean to make it within its vicinity

KD26 [29961-30188]

An Islamic state is a state that guides you as in it is a state that is governed by the teachings of Islam. It controls your personal life, it controls your social life, it controls your political life, it controls everything.

KD27 [28932-29127]

Well the Islamic state is not a totalitarian state, it is not a dictatorship. It guides, it serves as a guide for humans, for Muslims living within the boundaries of the state. It protects.

KD28 [38515-38753]

The scope of a Islamic state to my own understanding is all the aspects, the law and everything is governed by the Islamic and the mode of life and all the administrative aspect of the government is guided by the Islamic constitution.

KD29 [24315-24501]

The scope of an Islamic state in my own understanding ah covers every Muslim, covers every Muslim and ah tries to really guide his conduct and practices so as to not misrepresent Islam.

KD30 [43906-44074]

Ah as I said earlier an Islamic state ah is the state being led by an Islamic ah by a Muslim, by a Muslim leader and is being controlled under an Islamic rule of law.

KD31 [21644-21771]

The scope of an Islamic state is just to provide a peaceful and conducive atmosphere for both the Muslims and the non-Muslims.

KD32 [31083-31442]

Is just the scope of Islamic state is to make Muslims practice Islam according to Allah's commands, so they abstain themselves from practicing major sins like I've said eh alcoholism, terrorism, prostitution, gambling all some of these things this is just to try to guide Muslims from participating in such sinful acts, this is just what an Islamic state is.

KD33 [28578-28776]

Yah because people are using that or the main reason for an Islamic state is to allow Muslims to practice their religion fully and to show other people around them that this is the beauty of Islam.

KD34 [34049-34177]

The Islamic state in my own understanding is that a state that practice pure Islamic law which I doubt if it exist in Nigeria.

KD35 [33776-34054]

The scope of an Islamic state ahh the scope of an Islamic state is limited to or is limited to a guidance of that is Islam, so they shouldn't go beyond that, they shouldn't go out of that, they should be guided within the area of their jurisdiction as Islam I mean as Muslims.

KN1 [68096-68456]

You see my understanding I don't think even matters because everything is specified in the religion. The scope of an Islamic state is a state that is fair to all. It is a state that i...you see let me say I told you that the fundamental the fundamental something about the Islamic state is about fairness, adalci in Arabic, adalci, fairness to all. That is it.

KN2 [40124-40281]

But the scope of Islam starts and ends with the Qur'an and Qur'an is only a guiding principle. It guides in a number of respects but it is not a text book.

KN4 [52802-52955]

The scope of an Islamic state in my understanding, I don't have understanding but except that there is rules of engagement. The rules is there, justice.

KN5 [34895-35023]

The scope of an Islamic state in my understanding is to enforce the obedience of Allah (SAW) in its fullest. That is the scope.

KN6 [39718-39975]

So the scope there is no -I can't say there is no scope of Islamic state ah because Islamic state is the total way of your life so it is the total way of my life so this is the scope because it is all total, this is the, what is the meaning of, so this it.

KN7 [35546-35888]

The scope of an Islamic state in my own understanding is that ehm yes, an Islamic state tries to ehm compel all its followers, all its followers to ehm and use the Qur'an and the hadith as a guide to ehm practice or emm, let me say, live ehm there life in any, in any context be it political, be it social em, be it in an economic way, yes.

KN8 [33444-33748]

Islamic state is a state that is based on sharia that is the willingness of God based on Qur'an, the teachings of Allah, based on Sunna, the teachings of the holy prophet, al-hadith, the word of the prophet. If all these could be found in a state, some extent, the concept of Islamic state is justified.

KN9 [30489-30595]

The scope of Islamic state covers every angle of human life, both the public and private, everything, yes.

KN10 [24427-24499]

The scope of an Islamic state is where sharia law is in practice, hmm.

KN11 [32344-32504]

Islam ah Islamic Quran and hadith are the two major sources of sharia, so whatever will be done ahh would be done according to the teaching of Quran and hadith.

KN13 [34805-35142]

The scope of an Islamic state must be the major institution of Islamic state must be, must be working whereby we are having the institution of this Hisba, we have the baytul mal, the institution of the Shura, this institutions must be in line and they must be operating in their full capacity without any form of the word interference.

KN14 [27764-28006]

Is worshipping is ah ah ah this is is worshipping, is ah the Islamic states ah ah Islamic exercises what Allah says, that is the belief, it is a divine, they are doing things that-this is the best things we have to do for the sake of Jannah.

KN15 [24229-24316]

I think it comprises you know everything because Islam is the total way of our lives.

KN16 [14118-14187]

It comprises everything because Islam is the total way of our lives.

KN17 [27734-27746]

It is broad.

KN18 [48685-48856]

The scope is where-what is the real interpretation of the religion about the issues, if the religion clearly defines issues and gives injunction that is the scope now.

KN19 [30252-30398]

An Islamic state is a state where things are orderly coordinated in accordance to the will of God-Qur'an and the teachings of the prophet (SAW).

KN20 [22908-22962]

The scope of is very wide is a very wide beyond limit.

KN21 [16085-16091]

Broad

KN22 [32546-32845]

The scope of an Islamic state in my own understanding, it is that state ah that actually adhere to what people want that actually dispense justice. It is also that state that gives minority rights also to propagate people, also the people that are not following the teaching of Islam are protected.

KN23 [21419-21585]

The scope of an Islamic state in my understanding is that Islamic state amm put in place a sort of platform for well practicing of Islam, for well practice of Islam.

KN24 [20415-20430]

It is very wide

KN25 [33174-33456]

Well the scope, just as you said, the scope is very wide. It covers both your personal, your private and public life. It covers everything. It covers how you run your family, how you run your business, what you eat, what you wear. So it covers basically all aspects of human life.

KN26 [35750-36143]

That is philosophically what is the scope or in practice I don't know because if I say philosophically what I am trying to say how it ought to be. Even it is how it ought to be it is supposed to be a state where it guides a largely organized Islamic population. It is very important we, like I said earlier, you can't impose or run an Islamic state whereby you have a majority of Christians.

KN27 [25338-25486]

The scope of an Islamic state in my understanding is a state bases its rule with the teachings of the Quran and hadith and has sharia as its laws.

KN29 [19699-19853]

An Islamic state, in my understanding, is all about a region which is practically going with the set down rules and regulations which is guided by Islam.

KN30 [18368-18374]

Wide

KN31 [32550-33006]

The scope of an Islamic state? The scope of an Islamic state is very, very wide and I think mostly when you go to an Islamic state you find out that everything that is being done is trying to be done according to Islamic rules and just like you all know we have ah Islam has been divided into different sects, however, I think Islam has a very, very wide scope and it is very, very – a religion that preaches peace and always strive towards the hereafter.

KN32 [16279-16427]

ah you see the scope of an Islamic state is very very wide and it is something all in compassing so let me just say it is very very wide actually.

KN33 [12372-12441]

To my understanding it covers everything and all aspect of human life

KN34 [21306-21961]

The scope of Islamic state in my understanding is based on, when you look at it, it depends on the country and there are certain standards like when you look at in northern Nigeria particularly let's take Kano for instance, there are certain like taking alcohol is just applicable. There are instances whereby you see it is applicable to only in civil matters while there are instances whereby it may be applicable to criminal matters. What I mean by civil matters, something that has to do with marriage, custody of a child while criminal matter has to do with murder, theft and other social vices. So the scope to me is both civil and criminal matters.

KN35. [20795-20867]

Simply put Islam is a total way of life so it is all like encompassing.

KN36 [21631-21762]

Islamic state comprises all activities of human life and which ensure that fair equity and justice should be done in all manners.

KN37 [20212-20440]

You see an Islamic state is a very broad concept to understand, it has put into it a lot of activities and it is difficult to say that this is a particular direction where Islamic state is moving to. So you can say it is broad.

KN38 [15265-15321]

The scope of an Islamic state, it comprises everything.

KN39 [23674-23957]

Really Islamic rules and regulations covers every aspect of life be it economic, social, political because even during the farewell sermon, the holy prophet said that Islam does not leave every aspect of our life untouched. This means that Islam has touched every aspect of our life.

KN40 [19663-19672]

No idea.

KN41 [17024-17046]

Propagation of Islam

KN42 [43384-43495]

The scope of Islamic is made of Muslims and non-Muslims residing in the state and living in peace and harmony.

KN43 [32159-32326]

Yah the scope of an Islamic state is a state where sharia operates, to and be applied to Muslims and respect the right of non-Muslims who are living under that state.

KN44 [25670-25788]

It covers everything, every aspect of life so far it is an Islamic state, it covers everything private and ah public.

KN45 [35084-35275]

There is a scope of an Islamic state? Ehh the scope of an Islamic state ehh is just to implement Islamic ah principles in its totality; in its totality since Islam is a complete way of life.

KN46 [57091-57129]

I think I explained that previously.

KN47 [53274-53516]

The scope of an Islamic state you know in my understanding is ah to do things, to have a state whereby people do things, you know, in respect of Islamic in junction of the things. You understand, especially the things that you do in public.

KN48 [17883-17992]

The scope of an Islamic state, means a state whereby they use Islamic teaching, basically Qur'an and Haith.

KN49 [28326-28387]

I think an Islamic state encompasses everything and anything.

KN50 [15610-15751]

The scope of an Islamic state on my understanding is the state that ehh, ehh that uses the Qur'an and the teachings of the prophet Muhammad.

KN52 [50620-51430]

Like I mentioned this earlier, it is comprehensive, but there is the private sphere, there is the public sphere, even in the Islamic state, for instance. So as an individual, for instance, you are entitled to your own personal choices, things like that, you know, in as much as they do not contravene the main, the injunctions as provided by the sharia, do you understand. So if you feel that, you know, you are more disposed to wearing a pink attire for instance, that is your personal individual choice that the state whether sharia compliant or not you should not attempt to regulate your choices in terms of what you like. Of course there could be regulations as to dress code for instance but there are things that the state must not attempt to encroach in terms of privacy of the members of the society.

KN54 [11692-11714]

Islamic injunctions

KN55 [13670-13692]

Islamic Injunctions

KN56 [22455-22555]

To lead the people according to the way that the Qur'an and Sunna of our noble prophet prescribed

KN57 [19592-19630]

You see it is very wide and standard.

KN58 [44666-44734]

The scope is very wide. It covers and encompasses a lot of things.

KN59 [43964-45155]

The scope of Islamic state, my I understanding on this scope of Islamic state is that Islamic state should not kind of extend to a non-Islamic place. Take for instance in Kano state where they implemented sharia, sharia didn't go to Sabongari because Sabongari is a Christian, purely Christian dominated area. When you say that you will implement sharia in that area you are just wasting your time. It won't make any impact, you understand. An Islamic state should only stay, should only restrict itself to Islamic people, to Islamic dominated area. that is where it would achieve its aims and objectives. It shouldn't extend its tentacle, scope to other places. It has a limitation really. The limitation is that it shouldn't go to a non-Islamic dominated area, like in the barrack here whereby there are soldiers, soldiers don't have religion that is the perception some that they don't have religion. Barrack, uniform, war, conflict is their religion. If you take sharia there they didn't kind of welcome it but it is a negative perception but at times it happens that in barrack there is no sharia, but they do practice Islam and they do practice religion there, you understand.

KN60 [32488-32734]

The scope of an Islamic state, my understanding of it is even in your home you can have an Islamic state, even in your home, by the time you do what is the jihadin nafs you practice Islam you and your family, you have achieved the Islamic state.

KN61 [16928-17052]

Scope of Islamic state, it covers quite alright the, the, the, whole everything within the state, yes it covers everything.

KN62 [54226-54485]

The scope of an Islamic state, in my understanding, is to control ah the, lets say, the wrongs, sins, the crimes, you understand, and ahh to guide people how to worship, how to do some things that have to do with the ahh public affairs, but not private ones.

KN63 [45881-46277]

Scope. You know the scope depends on, you know, maybe though it depends on the large geographical area, where they are living, like in the northern now, in the northern part of Nigeria, we have the Muslim majority. So that is our own scope there. We cannot claim the eastern, we cannot claim the southern, something like that, it is not possible since our territory doesn't encroach those areas.

KN64 [27271-27406]

The scope is actually means ehh is the state that they are practicing Islam and everything is Islam. They are under Qur'an and hadith.

KN65 [34525-34730]

The scope of an Islamic state is you doing what has been ah decreed in the Qur'an and Sunna, so I think this is the scope, anything that is within the Qur'an and the Sunna the practice of Muhammad (SAW).

KN66 [23375-23498]

An Islamic state, to my understanding, is nothing but living your life under the appropriate teachings of the sharia laws

KN67 [23649-23909]

The scope Islamic state is to protect the law and then protect the lives and properties of the people and also their business with other non-Muslim, their relationship between other with the non-Muslim. So I think this are the, this is a scope of the sharia.

KN68 [11629-11651]

Islamic injunction

KN69 [39836-40362]

Scope of Islamic state is very wide in the sense that it is a state that is expected to govern people in accordance with Islamic principles, in accordance with sharia and Sunna, in accordance with ijma and qiyas of Ulama. Therefore, this is the scope of an Islamic state meaning that if we are under Islamic state our constitution is Sunna, Qur'an and Sunna of the prophet Muhammad (SAW). All our dealings, all our dos and don'ts are to be considered in accordance of the Qur'an and the Hadith of the prophet Muhammad (SAW).

KN71 [68485-68586]

The scope of an Islamic state in my understanding is where Islam is allowed to be practiced freely.

KN72 [35633-35822]

Yes, the scope of an Islamic state in my own understanding is when the people are believes and practicing Islam accordingly.

That is the main scope that is the scope of Islamic state, yes.

KN73 [38078-38450]

Scope uhm the scope of Islamic state really eh the scope of an Islamic state is to protect the lives uh lives, the lives of people, how do I call the, there is one of the Abul Ala Maududi, you know, his book The State and Citizenry. He tried to show why Islam has always wanted to have a state. Living freedom of everything you like must be within this scope Islamic state

KN74 [47281-47413]

Base on my understanding, the scope of an Islamic state is the place where there is Muslim people dominated the place, that is all.

KN75 [50586-50747]

The scope of Islamic ehh state is they have to act accordance with the sharia law, then follow the qiyas and ijma that is analogical deductions, you understand.

KN76 [42627-42808]

My scope of an Islamic state is a state, as I said, that is governed by the Qur'an and Sunna, the entire life of the society and the governance is governed by the Qur'an and Sunna.

KN78 [59571-59693]

It encompasses anything Islamic, anything Muslim, anything Muslim: politics, legal, social, financial, it covers anything

KN80 [45387-45553]

So the scope of an Islamic state, in my own understanding, is to rule the whole state within the tenets and principles of ahh Islam that is the guidelines of Islam.

KN81 [29572-29659]

Based on my understanding it covers everything within Islamic premises and boundaries.

KN82 [31379-31431]

The scope, the limit, it comprises every activity.

KN83 [21625-21717]

So ahh based on my understanding, Islamic state cover Muslims, sharia and the state itself.

KN84 [24788-24807]

Qur'an and Sunna.

KN85 [35924-36122]

We have said it earlier on, establishment of Islamic institutions, implementation and guarding of the sharia system and ahh ahh all activities in the state to be guided by the Islamic principles.

ZA2 [44735-45965]

The scope, what is covered, when we say the scope, I think we are talking about how far, the areas it covers. You see the scope here of Islamic state, is it Islamic state you are asking for? Ehmm determining the people there you should be in line, all the area should be line with Islam emmm activities should be in line with Islam fully. The books, the books of God should be the one practiced not emm may be creating your own personal doctrines which are not. The scopes are that doctrines that are in line to Islam are the key things that are necessary in an Islamic state. That is the key thing, the doctrines of the books of the teaching of the book or the book itself Qur'an is the key doctrine there because that is the only thing governing that particular state and when you are going back then the teaching of the prophet of prophet itself, those are the hadith, should be what is surrounding you. So that it should just be a barrier for you, if you want to go here check, I think God did not say this, if you want to this I hope this people, no they would not go against me. so that is the things surrounding you, you should not go beyond those area. Ehen be governed with those statements and going with those rules.

ZA3 [28077-28459]

Hmm an Islamic state is all encompassing taking care of the people and their resources in its entirety. Though state allows for capitalist tendency people can acquire their own property by themselves, but however even in those capitalist, in these properties, they are supposed to give the alms once it is time and the quantity as specified by the law in order to assist the poor.

ZA4 [49125-49312]

Ahh scope of Islamic state is to bring Adal, to bring justice to people, to allow people to feel freedom of practicing Islam and to make sure they are successful here and the hereafter.

ZA5 [30796-30951]

The scope of Islamic state in my understanding is the way of doing things the way the Qur'an and Hadith of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) lay it down for us.

ZA6 [71142-71267]

Ahh the scope of an Islamic state is a state where the sharia is implemented, is implemented and that is the constitution.

ZA7 [36979-37121]

Generally the scope of an Islamic state has to do with the state that practices doctrine of the Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet, simple.

ZA8 [75151-75287]

The scope of an Islamic state in my understanding, like I told you from the beginning, is a state where there is justice and fairness.

ZA9 [40632-40875]

An Islamic state is a place where sharia law thrives and where the true definition of the word Islam is experienced that is peace. I don't I think anywhere where there is no peace can be referred to as an Islamic state. That is my opinion.

ZA10 [34888-35091]

The scope of an Islamic state is, it should be very wide. That is Islamic state the scope? The scope of an Islamic state is just the Qur'an, hadith and the Sunna and the teachings of the prophet (SAW).

ZA11 [30162-30323]

The scope of an Islamic state, in my understanding, it is a state which every truth that has to be in place for Islamic state as in Islamic activities in Islam

ZA12 [18596-18688]

Scope of an Islamic state is established based on the principles of the Qur'an and hadith.

ZA13 [19069-19160]

The scope of an Islamic state in my understanding is to reach out and engage in dialogue.

ZA14 [25617-25724]

The scope of an Islamic state is whether following the Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet Muhammad (SAW)

ZA15 [27497-27639]

Islamic state, where everything is practiced fully according to Islam that is your way of life, everything you do is done according to Islam.

ZA16 [19902-20180]

The scope of an Islamic state, in my understanding, is that they will only operate on Muslims and to teach non-Muslims or to preach to non-Muslims and also, they should not stop, they should protect the lives and the properties of those that are not Muslims as well as Muslims.

ZA17 [24383-24486]

The scope, that's the way the sharia should be, by following the teaching of the Qur'an and the Sunna.

ZA18 [29077-29208]

The scope, well the scope is that people will now worship their creator the way he wants them to hundred percent, you understand.

ZA19 [42267-42747]

Well the scope of Islamic state is actually ah very pervasive. What I mean by scope here is the limit, and the limit of Islamic state is actually not impinging, I mean to trespass into other religions that is not to kill, not to do this, this and that, you understand, because this Qur'an and the Sunna, you understand, prophetic hadith, actually curtail Muslims on killings and all these things and of course these are the scopes, these are the limitations of an Islamic state.

ZA20 [28100-28337]

The scope of an Islamic state? Does Islamic state have scope? The scope may be is the number of people living in a certain community. Well there is no scope in terms of sharia that is applied to them to the people of a given community.

ZA21 [33808-33861]

The scope of an Islamic state is where Muslims live.

ZA22 [29422-29500]

The scope of Islamic state is wide. It covers all aspects all spheres of life.

ZA23 [37981-38167]

The scope of an Islamic state is to see to the peaceful coexistence. People are living peacefully. Nobody will be allowed to harm another no matter what his position in the society is.

ZA24 [45887-46412]

The scope of an Islamic state is that they are governing by Qur'an and hadith. The state will be governed by Qur'an and hadith and the sharia of-that is what God said we should do if anything happens they will first check Qur'an if they cannot find it in the Qur'an they will check hadith if they can't find it in hadith they will now look at ijma that is the imam sorry the knowledgeable people so there conclusion on that particular issue, the scholars their agreement on the particular issue. That is the scope of sharia.

ZA25 [46170-46304]

The scope of an Islamic state is that it legislates on all aspects of human life; political, cultural, religious and socio-economic.

ZA26 [21351-21375]

What is the scope of UN?

ZA27 [20303-20601]

To my understanding the scope of an Islamic state is the whole-like I said earlier Islam is a total way of life. So it must touch everywhere, everything. When we say everything now like I said in Islam we cannot impose sharia it is part of it, it touches everything you give equal rights everybody

ZA28 [34231-34337]

The scope of an Islamic state in my own understanding to guide people according to the Islamic teaching

ZA29 [48756-48879]

The scope of an Islamic state is simply a state put in place by the Muslims to operate in the conduct of Islamic system.

ZA30 [58402-58414]

Everything

ZA31 [28751-29037]

So the scope is that to some extent they tried because of the sharia, the preaching, they will be able to persuade some people, to persuade them to follow the right path even though you can't or you refuse or you don't comply because of the fairness, you will not do what is not right.

ZA33 [24038-24223]

Islamic state is a total entity or sovereignty that is being operated based on the Qur'anic principles and guidelines as well as the teaching of the prophet (SAW) which is the Sunna.

ZA34 [42920-43221]

The scope of my knowledge is an Islamic state is a state that is completely abiding by the rules and regulations of Allah, as I said that five essentials are being protected, the five essentials. That is protection of din, protection of life, protection of wealth, protections of progeny and others.

ZA35 [21151-21160]

No idea.

ZA36 [29556-29610]

Human rights, ahm security, human rights and security

ZA37 [36354-36540]

I think there are about five things that I mentioned earlier in one of the questions that is protection of life and protection individual's wealth, protection of properties and so one.

ZA38 [41794-42020]

Yah, when they say scope, they mean the limitation. The limitation is the rules governing the people, the abiding by the sharia law and justice. Those are the principles that should be the scope of operating an Islamic state.

ZA39 [54352-54455]

The scope of an Islamic state is the full operation of state activities according to the Islamic ways.

Th9.2: Principles of Operating an Islamic State

FG1 [35626-35646]

Making Sharia laws

FG1 [35647-35683]

People should be self disciplined

FG1 [35685-35729]

Saving the properties and lives of members

FG1 [35731-35750]

Ensuring equality

KD1 [41383-41922]

As I have said, I am not an expert in that field, but what I know to be the main principle of Islamic state should be the Qur'an being the superior law and then things done, being done in compliance with the Qur'an and Sunna and of course protecting the sanctity human life and seeing to the welfarism of people and taking full time responsibility of how things are being done in the society in seeing to it that society is an egalitarian society that actually tackle and solve a problems, caters for everybody in that particular society.

KD2 [16412-16555]

A purely Islam state I think the principle should, the principles of operating that of operating an Islamic state should be Qur'an and hadith.

KD3 [12467-12873]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state first, the first must be, the Islamic knowledge must first be passed to the people because even before Islam when Islam came to be, the after all the understanding of Islam, then the prohibition and obligation start coming in one after the other. It is only after knowledge, when people have full knowledge of Islam before Islamic state can be established.

KD4 [25096-25321]

I will still emphasize on what I told you earlier on. The main principle or tenets, if you may put it that way, of an Islamic state is acting according to the Qur'an and the Sunna. Those are the principles of Islamic state.

KD5 [14183-14295]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state, I think the Holy Qur'an and the Hadith of the Prophet (SAW).

KD6 [27916-27993]

The principles are still the same thing as operating the same secular state.

KD7 [19462-19919]

The main principles of operating in an Islamic state. The most important, the most important is Tauhid. Tauhid is somewhat the same as iman. You believe in one God, that is your most important tool, you believe in one true God. Ahm there are other tools which will guide an Islamic state, it is being governed by, it is governed by justice, honesty, character, the will of the people to know that this is their society, they want something better out of it.

KD10 [18342-18557]

The Qur'an and Sunna should guide them. You get me right? The Qur'an and Sunna is the only book that is going to guide them, the Qur'an and the Sunna that is the explanation of Quran by the prophet Muhammad (SAW).

KD11 [22482-22740]

The main principles of operating an Islamic would largely be on or should largely rest on the Qur'an which is the source and the Sunna of the prophet. These are the main principles. And I think the last thing should be from the views of prominent scholars.

KD12 [27848-28025]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state is what has been stated by the prophet in the Qur'an. The main principle is that it is only the fear of almighty Allah has to be.

KD13 [9426-9596]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state, as I earlier said, is based on truth, the five pillars of Islam, believing in the glorious Qur'an and true teachings.

KD14 [11477-11724]

We could say the main principles of the Muslims to operate an Islamic state because any Islamic state definitely a part from being the Muslims and not only being just a Muslim a learned Muslim that is the only way we can operate an Islamic state.

KD15 [18328-18666]

Ah the principle of an Islamic state hmm ah, as I have said earlier on, ah the principle of Islam is to believe in Allah himself believe in his messengers ah believe ahm in his books, believe in his angels and believe in last days I think if you can have all those ones as a Muslim or in an Islamic state ah is okay by good Islamic state.

KD16 [9726-9742]

Please go ahead

KD17 [33844-34170]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state is just the Qur'an and the Sunna that is the pronouncement of the Muslims, the Qur'an and the Sunna, and if what you are looking for is not in the Qur'an and Sunna then you need the consensus, the ijma of the scholars that is just the principles of operating an Islamic state.

KD18 [15921-15964]

I think is through the hadith and Qur'an.

KD19 [20628-20708]

Well the main principle of operating an Islamic state is justice and equality.

KD20 [15406-15513]

Yes I think people, people is there, Qur'an and hadith, should be the principles in an Islamic state, yes.

KD21 [13734-13925]

I think, for me, I should go first the sharia should be there and then other than constitution or whatever, we have to rule based on the Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet peace be upon him.

KD23 [14463-14522]

I don't know that question. I don't have experience on it.

KD24 [50818-51090]

The Islamic and hadith that is the sharia. All things should be what Allah says we should do. What the prophet says we should do. All things that we are not to do should be that yes it is Allah that says we should not do them and the prophet also says don't do that one.

KD25 [69771-70927]

Well the principles of operating an Islamic state ah you see they are many and these ah these period I don't really think it can take us but maybe part of the major principles of ah ah Islamic eh ah operating an Islamic government ah state Ah number one, ah there must be a total ah submission and surrendering of all affairs to God that is Allah that is number one. Number two, ah there must be ah always ready followership whether, what do I mean by followership of the ruler in as much as the instruction he has given does not argue the Qur'an or the Sunna, but where it argues the Qur'an or the Sunna then the Muslims or they should not even listen talk-less of obeying him because that is what the prophet said he said (he recites in Arabic) the prophet said it is compulsory and mandatory upon every male Muslim or every Muslim to listen to his leader and to obey him except where he has been instructed by the leader to act contrary to the sharia of Islam. If he is, if he is instructed to act contrary to teaching of the Qur'an or the Sunna, the prophet said (he recites in Arabic) he should not even listen to that ruler talk-less of obeying him.

KD26 [16917-16943]

Principles, I don't know

KD27 [20051-20207]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state are those that are set by the prophet (SAW) and the four guided Caliphs (Umar, Abubakar, Uthman and Ali).

KD28 [23078-23454]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state, number one is the fear of Allah the creator once you understand, know your creator number one first and foremost and you know that everything, nothing exist without the issue of almighty Allah and you that all the issue about your own government whatever you are going to do is under the guidance of the Islamic constitution.

KD29 [13867-14295]

Although I am not an Islamic ah cleric, but to my own shallow understanding ah based on my own shallow opinion, the principles attached is that of security, every community living under Islamic state is assured of its security and safety and ah is assured of its ah to practice his faith. It is assured of its ah safety on the path of health, is assured of his economic practices that is of day to day life for his livelihood.

KD30 [24985-25106]

I think the main principle is the Islamic sharia law that is what is what give the backbone to operate an Islamic state.

KD31 [14660-14736]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state are fairness and justice.

KD32 [21480-21925]

Ah I have said this earlier, that is applying the sharia law in the state and following the Islamic guidance of living, following the Islamic teachings, the Qur'an teachings, the law from Allah that's on your own you are to follow exactly what Allah forbidden, you are to leave it and what he makes it compulsory, what he makes it eh to be practiced, you practice, what Allah makes compulsory for you to follow, you are to follow, just submit.

KD33 [17463-17487]

Is to worship one God

KD34 [19654-19774]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state that is if it exist like in Nigeria, should be the Qur'an and hadith.

KD35 [19866-20124]

Ahh I mean the before you have an Islamic state the majority of the people in a particular place you should be Muslims, in a situation where you have about sixty percent or seventy or eighty percent of people are Muslims then the leader should be a Muslim.

KN1 [46228-46510]

fairness, fairness, it is called adalci in Arabic, adalci- fairness. Fear of God, fairness. Those are the fundamental principles.

Fairness, I mean fairness to all in considerate of the religion, age, tribe or anything. Fairness, you have to be fair, give everybody what is his due.

KN2 [25498-26044]

Now principles number one is all and sundry should agree that there is no god but Allah and the prophet is his messenger. All non-Muslims must respect this aspect viz-a-viz performing their religious practice. All Muslims and non-Muslims should not be found wanting in corruption. The Islamic state is there to protect the five daily prayers and the five pillars of Islam to impose them on whoever accepts that he is a Muslim. The Islamic state must make sure that he does not violate the five pillars of Islam and all that is related to them.

KN4 [39701-39710]

Justice

KN5 [17976-18089]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state are the Quran. It should be the main principle and the Hadith.

KN6 [19982-20517]

Ok what do we mean by these principles? Do we mean the constitution or you mean what? If I say may be principle is what? It is some rule and regulation ko? Ok there is some rule, like I said earlier, maybe it is repetition ah those principles, what is the meaning of principles? So it is guideline ko? Or it is rules and regulations, so all our rules and regulations can be found in our Quran and the teaching of the prophet Mohammed (SAW) and the history or the history of The Sahaba, you can find all this solution of that problem.

KN8 [18830-19405]

There are many principles for operating an Islamic state, but the most noted ones are ijma, you understand, that is let there be sitting down of two or more knowledgeable people in the society, let them agree on the principles at which the society will be based on, you understand, ijma- let again the sharia, let the doing, actions of the people be based on the holiness of God: Quran. Let it be the constitution that will be guiding the state: Sunna and Hadith, the act and the doing of the holy prophet should also be in a guiding place towards the action of the people.

KN9 [18522-18878]

The main principles, as I have alighted earlier, has to be, it has to be-an Islamic state has to be established solely on the idea that Allah is one and then that ah prophet Mohammed (SAW) is the prophet of Islam and then respect to the four right guided Caliphs and any other leader as such. So I think these are the main principles of an Islamic state.

KN10 [13705-13851]

The main principle is to provide a sharia law that is the main principle. The main-that is the main principle just to provide a law, a sharia law.

KN11 [18551-18652]

Principles of operating an Islamic state? No the answer is, the question is not clearly understood

KN13 [21159-21362]

There should be an institution of baytul mal, hisba, there should be Shura committee spiritual committee. I think this are some of the major things, major necessities that is needed in an Islamic state.

KN14 [14850-15341]

Number one, the state must be majority Muslims, you cannot come and find that the Christians or other religions are the most populated in a place and you can say that you are trying to operate an Islamic state. That is not possible. Ah. Number two is ah there must be ah educated Muslims in the system, so that they should try and follow ah the Islamic guidelines because you cannot come and say you are practicing Islamic state and you are ah ah ah doing things without the Islamic teaching

KN15 [16244-16393]

I think the main principles of operating an Islamic state is through using Qur'an and the Sunna of the holy prophet Muhammad (SAW) that is ahadith.

KN16 [8295-8347]

Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet through sharia

KN17 [20515-20639]

The principles? Is like you ah have these all these major institutions in place, you have the hisba, the baitul mal, the ah

KN18 [33675-33894]

hese principles should be following the dictates of Qur'an and Sunna, following taking the teachings of the prophet which is the Sunna, utilising Islamic injunctions which are prescribed in the Qur'an, so these are the

KN19 [20624-20812]

As I have said initially, the basic principle is that let the establishment of the Islamic state be based on the will of Allah which is Qur'an and the din of the holy prophet (SAW) sunna.

KN20 [14244-14385]

Principles of operating the question again? Ah the principles yah the hisba the baitul mal and the rest of them I have mentioned it earlier.

KN21 [8873-8917]

Hisba, baitul mal, zakkat, shura, etcetera.

KN22 [17425-17596]

One of the principles of operating, the main principle of operating an Islamic state is the ensuring of Islamic legal system in that particular state which is the sharia.

KN23 [13623-13656]

The principle is just the sharia

KN24 [13189-13222]

Hisba, Sharia, Qur'an and Hadith

KN25 [19216-19496]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state has to, it has to be a state founded one, on Tauhid, oneness of Allah; And then Risala, two-the prophethood of prophet Muhammad (SAW) and then three, popular vicegerence, which is Khilifa. I think these are the basic principles.

KN26 [18016-18114]

It has to be according to the tenets of the religion; justice and fairness that is the key word.

KN27 [15241-15427]

The main principle of operating in an Islamic state, let me say number one fundamental principle is the Qur'an, hadith that is the teaching of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) and the sharia.

KN28 [11614-11844]

Just as I have said earlier on it just have to go with the rules of Islam itself not considering an Islamic state. Islam could go anywhere as far as anywhere. But talking about the state definitely there should be rules as well.

KN28 [11878-12035]

Well the principles, the norms and values, the socio-cultural and the political attributes are the main things to consider when talking about state itself.

KN30 [13670-13697]

The Qur'an and the hadith

KN31 [17208-17501]

Ah it is just that you know everybody has to live in accordance with the Islamic injunctions and in a situation whereby you have non-Muslims you give them their rights only that there are things you have to make them know that this is against Islam and that they have to do away with it.

KN32 [7348-7366]

Hisba and sharia

KN33 [6712-6772]

Some of the principles are like sharia, shura and the rest.

KN34 [9591-9860]

Well the main principles of, that I can say, of operating an Islamic state you have to, one, establish hisba, the shura committee that will be checking the activities of the people of the society. These are some of the main principles that you have to establish first.

KN35 [12095-12148]

We have shura committee, hisba, zakat and the rest.

KN36 [12340-12561]

An Islamic state is a state that is being governed by sharia principles and establishing the sharia institutions like the shura, hisba which can fight those illegalities like drinking of alcohol, prostitution and others.

KN37 [10840-11068]

Firstly, you have to say that institutionalization of the sharia body okay. This has to do with spreading across its principles and practices and that of the introduction of the jizya, the zakat, the hisba and the rest of them.

KN38 [7642-7825]

Main principles like the implementation of sharia, the shura council which are the scholars who make laws that are not clearly outlined in the sharia and also the hisba and the rest.

KN39 [13146-13617]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state is there has to be Islamic institutions. Islamic institutions in the sense that there is supposed to be advisory councils, that is councils of shura, that is council of elders, council of people that have Islamic knowledge in vast that is they are versatile in Islam. They know the rules and regulations concerning Islam politics, concerning Islamic economic system, concerning Islamic social system and so on and so forth

KN40 [12913-13030]

The main principles to operate in an Islamic state by using the Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet Muhammad (SAW)

KN41 [10972-11003]

I don't have any idea on that.

KN42 [21484-22011]

Principles operating an Islamic state, there should be a leader definitely. The leader should be either appointed divinely or selected through the people. All the offices and all the like offices in the state should be in place and there should be ehm, room for accountability. There should be room for suggestion of way to go forward; there should be relationships between Islamic state and non-Islamic state. There should be friendliness, neighborliness and then God fearing. The fear of God should prevail above all things.

KN43 [18517-18736]

The main principles is to use the sharia as a yardstick because Islam is all encompassing, it has well defined system of operating a state, so those ah provisions by the sharia to be used in operating an Islamic state.

KN44 [13169-13261]

This requires me to read and perhaps supply you with a very good answer which I don't have.

KN45 [15540-15933]

Ahh the principles ahh are there written by scholars even here in northern Nigeria ahh there is a book written by Sultan Mohammad Bello the son of Shehu Usman Dan Fodio Usulul Siyasa and he wrote the ten principles of an Islamic state there and the rest of the books written by Islamic philosophers like Al-Faraj and the rest too, yah, about the principles ah definitely based on the sharia.

KN46 [29845-32029]

Well, number one, I wish to reiterate this thing that Islamic state and secular government are similar in so many things. You need the leader, you need aides, you need those who represent the, the mechanism of ruling or of conducting the affairs of government. It is not or should not be seen to be different because I already try to make the difference between the two by saying the main difference between the two is source of guidance. But all the, the, the, you can have it in different forms. It could be ahh in ehh parliamentarian system because this are all are not against Islam, Islam accommodates all this human innovations in how to improve the life of people. So Islam is not against certain form of government or sticks to one form. We should say this is the only way Islamic state can be operated that is not ahh that is not the, that is not the issue. Islamic government could be operated in different forms. The only thing is there must be justice and its guidance must come from the teaching of the religion. But it could be looked like any other government it can be ah consultative, it could be representative, it could be in any form that people are, the affairs of people could be conducted properly. So anybody who comes out and say, for example, we must have a Caliph, that is the only way we can have an Islamic state, that is wrong. That is wrong because a Caliph, a caliph is just a leader. So Islam stresses the importance of having a leader who steers the affairs of the people. So as long as you have leadership and that leadership is effective and is serving the interest of its people in a just way, then you do not have anything to complain about. So Islamic state, so to say, is not to me and if you really understand the literature, the Islamic literature, is not to one form of government. Because history, history does not give us only one form of governance, we have different forms, some of them are Caliphate, some of them are Sultanate, some of them ah even ehh, you know, ah we have kind of parliaments we have in modern times. So if this is understood then we cannot ah ah we cannot have problem of operating one system or ahh another.

KN47 [31851-32461]

Many principles of operating Islamic state. That, you know, there are some offences which Islam you know prohibits in the society, for example, like drinking alcohol, you know, and the other offences like corruption, you understand, that Islam does not allow people to do. So if this society can simply be governed, you know, with this kind of guidelines in mind, you understand, so this can be some principle of governing Islamic state. Somebody has to be just, somebody has to be ahh fair, somebody has to be law abiding, somebody has to be ahh patient and somebody has to be strong to be a leader in Islam.

KN48 [10136-10244]

Yah, the main principle is the leader must make sure that he uses Qur'an and Hadith to lead his followers.

KN49 [18465-18652]

The main principles I think are dependent on the actors within the political system, but it has to do with eh ah righteousness, justice and things that are related to piety and all that.

KN50 [9126-9146]

Qur'an and Hadith

KN52 [24274-24817]

The main principles, well like I said, sharia is the most important and then under sharia you have other elements or principles: the Qur'an, Sunna, the ijma, the consensus of juristic opinion and then we have other elements of the component of sharia, like even qiyas, your own individual judgment, sound judgment at individual level is also part of the process leading to the formation of opinions or fatwas in an Islamic state. So these are the principles of course that should form or under which Islam or Islamic state should be governed.

KN53 [12113-12186]

If I am not making a mistake, it should be sharia and the holy Qur'an.

KN54 [6133-6175]

Sunna, Qur'an yes and qibla and prayers

KN55 [7530-7547]

Qur'an and Sunna

KN56 [11847-11946]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state are the Qur'an and the Sunna of prophet (SAW).

KN57 [12190-12229]

Qur'an and Sunna of the prophet (SAW).

KN58 [26804-27314]

Well the main principles in operating an Islamic state is first and foremost electing or nominating an ideal leader or a supreme leader who is pious in all ramifications. And then uphold the tenets of true Islam in ruling the state. Three: establishing justice. Four: conducting the state in accordance with the basic teachings or tenets of Islam. These are some of the principles of establishing a true Islamic state because everything relies on first and foremost the leadership who is to steer the state.

KN59 [20670-20914]

First of all the principle to operate an Islamic state I think there should be sharia, there should be Cleric men, there should be followers which are Muslims as I have mentioned, there should be Quran and Hadith, this should be their guides.

KN60 [22001-22225]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state, to my understanding, is doing what the Qur'an teaches and the Hadith of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) and what the Ulama have said in the interpretation of Qur'an and Hadith.

KN61 [10289-10357]

Ah this question is the same thing with the other question , yes.

KN62 [33540-34077]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state; The are many principles are famously and universally known, they are Qur'an and Sunna, and then qiyas, before qiyas we have Ijtima or Ijtima, you know, what our scholars agree on and then qiyas when a kind of ah situation arises when there is neither Qur'anic, Sunnatic or Ijtimaiyya on that very matter or issue, then a person may just go after qiyas. So these are the main principles, the guiding principles of ahh that operates or that we use in operating Islamic state, an Islamic state hhm.

KN64 [17174-17274]

Main principles of operating Islamic state is to be governed, like I said, by Qur'an and the Sunna.

KN65 [20754-20910]

The main principle, like I told you or like I keep emphasizing, is the Shura, you understand. So shura is the main principle in operating an Islamic state.

KN66 [11704-11910]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state, as I mentioned earlier, is number one having a Khalifa who knows the teachings of Islam and number two is having, following the sharia so with that you can

KN67 [13070-13127]

The principles that are laid down by the Islamic sharia

KN68 [6082-6118]

Islamic teachings, Qur'an and Sunna

KN69 [23272-23712]

The main, the main principles of operating an Islamic state is Qur'an, Sunna because they are the primary source of sharia, and we have ijma, qiyas and logical reasoning and consensus of Ulama. They are always, they are also regarded as secondary source of sharia and the sharia simply means that is a way whereby Islamic principles are to be observed, when to be followed, in which Islamic principles are to be observed in a Muslim state.

KN71 [40600-40900]

When you say main principles of operating of an Islamic state, is it not one: justice, peace, knowledge, respect for one another, religious tolerance, embracement of one another and all, yes and then, yes and then always making the law of Allah as supreme above any other law. That is all you need.

KN72 [22056-22235]

The principle of operating an Islamic state is belief that is the true belief. When we say belief means the total submission to the Islamic practices. That is the true belief.

KN73 [21715-21804]

That's the Fuqaha. After Qur'an, the practice and saying of prophet (SAW) then the fuqaha

KN74 [33322-33467]

Okay, the main principles, we have mentioned it earlier, that is al-kitab wal Sunna and the and that is Al-Qur'an, hadith, and the qawlul fuqaha

KN75 [36070-36120]

Qur'an and hadith that is sharia, Ijma and qiyas

KN76 [23695-23984]

Principles of operating an Islamic state, well the main principles of operating an Islamic state is when the judiciary or the system of codes is guided by the Qur'an and the Sunna, the economic life is guided by the Qur'an and Sunna and also the government is guided by Qur'an and Sunna.

KN78 [38208-38534]

What are the main principles of operating an Islamic state, principles of operating Islamic state? One is Tauhid, oneness of God, he is the only law giver, he is the only one who prescribes what to do. Two: Muhammad (SAW) and three ahh what are the principles of operating in an Islamic state, and then fairness and justice.

KN80 [31195-31311]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state is to apply the teaching of Qur'an and the Sunna of prophet (SAW).

KN81 [16688-16728]

Okay ahh should be Qur'an and the Sunna

KN82 [21331-21447]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state is that Qur'an must be the guidance and the source of leadership.

KN83 [13024-13071]

Qur'an and hadith, the Islamic jurisprudence

KN84 [15623-15674]

I think it is still in sharia, it is Islamic law.

KN85 [17823-18043]

Yes. One, as I have said that, ahh the there mostly be establishment of Islamic institutions such as the Hisba, the Za, kat the shura and the rest. Two, there must be full implementation of the sharia and so many others.

ZA1 [19386-19819]

You are talking about Islamic state, Islamic state, so I think you want us just to bound our and say this is an Islamic state abi? So I think what the researcher will ask the issue of resolution between Muslims and non-Muslims. What will bring peace and stability is justice and good leadership whether you are Muslim or Christian, if you find yourself as a leader you have to do justice to whom you are ruling. This is my opinion.

ZA2 [18544-18785]

The principle, as you have said earlier, you see we what we call the teachings. It is the teaching, we need the teaching. The teaching is the principle, teaching of the doctrines of the religion, Islamic religion, it start with the principles

ZA3 [16291-16523]

The main principles are that there should be leadership, there should be the guiding principles which are the sovereign, the sovereignty of such state is that of Allah, governing by the Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet (SAW).

ZA4 [35361-35561]

Principles is that you have to follow the Sunna of Prophet Muhammad (SAW), be kind, don't cheat, you understand, no corruption, be just to people, you understand, so all these things carry them up.

ZA5 [20404-20538]

What is the main principle of operating of Islamic state? For keep, to keep the society morally okay, keep them in the way of Allah.

ZA6 [50527-50717]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state is you have, the main principles of operating an Islamic state is there must be justice, equity and fairness; justice equity and fairness.

ZA7 [19807-20007]

Yes the main principle is still the same, is just obeying the rules of Allah and also following the teachings of the prophet. I think that is just the main principles of operating an Islamic state.

ZA8 [44159-44319]

Main principles must be the person that will operate there must be righteousness, God fearing, upright, morality in fact there are many. I just list some few.

ZA9 [23040-23359]

Yes. Islam is not practiced based on one's knowledge or one's personal ideology, everything that should be done has been stated in the holy book, in the Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet (SAW). I don't think anybody can just lay down any rule like that in Islam. Everything has been settled by this books.

ZA10 [23993-24037]

The principle is the hadith and the Qur'an.

ZA11 [18875-18961]

Well, we have the Sunna, we have ahh actually the Qur'an, follow the sayings and the...

ZA12 [10261-10285]

Still Qur'an and hadith

ZA13 [11460-11581]

Main principle of operating an Islamic state, the main principle is all narrowed down to I think Qur'an and hadith also.

ZA14 [14318-14563]

What you have to look into, you have to look at the need of people and the development and some other aspects that will benefit the people of that state and put them according to the will of Allah and the way prophet Muhammad (SAW) lay it down.

ZA15 [18100-18226]

Ok the question you just ask me now, anything you want to do it should be done according to what Qur'an says and the hadith.

ZA16 [11402-11525]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state are that you need to have a leader, jihad and other religious followers.

ZA17 [11980-12229]

That is what I said before, in Kitab wal-Sunna anything you do, before you do it you have to know what Allah said about it, if you do not find it in the Qur'an, you have to find it at the Rasul (SAW) talk about it or the sahaba has talked about it.

ZA18 [15889-16364]

The main, you see in an Islamic state, there should be a very good leadership, you understand, if we have a good leader or if we are able to have good leaders, there are some basics things, they should make sure that they are up and doing. For instance, now people's life should be protected, you understand. Secondly, their wealth too, their ah na manta, mallam what do you call hakal, hankali na ke so in che, fada fa mai a ke ce dashi a turanchi, ok that will come later.

ZA19 [21886-21930]

Wow I don't have idea actually about this.

ZA20 [12098-12367]

The main principles of operating an Islamic state is, well I cannot know item, I cannot itemize what are such principles, but the truth, transparency, integrity must be the core values in establishing state in congruence with the dictates of the sharia legal system.

ZA21 [17884-18010]

The main principles we say is to go by the dictates of Islam and to make sure that everybody is treated fairly. That is all.

ZA22 [16454-16639]

We need to have leadership. We need to have leadership then we need to have strong teachings of true Qur'an and sunna of rasul (SAW). Then we need to have commitment within ourselves.

ZA23 [21511-21636]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state is for people to hold to the rope of Allah and they should not be divided.

ZA24 [28493-28565]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state is the use of sharia.

ZA25 [25345-25419]

Islamism that is strict adherence to al-Qur'an and Sunna. Those are the...

ZA26 [12207-12433]

I don't know. Which Islamic state? Because people call for Islamic-I don't know whether they have their own rules, but Islam does not permit any violent to establish any state. But you can achieve it through peaceful means.

ZA27 [10546-10739]

Through the teachings of the Qur'an and the hadith. Everything is there. The prophet Muhammad (SAW) when he came he came with total- we say Islam is a total way of life. So everything is there

ZA28 [23281-23341]

To maintain peace and order among beliefs not just Muslims

ZA29 [32635-33007]

Well the main principles of operating an Islamic state is this, the religion, the dominance of the religion must be Muslims that is one. Two; the dominance that very region must agree that yes they are ready to observe rules and regulations of the religion and pray that they person to be brought on board a s a leader must qualify the whole personalities of leadership.

ZA30 [42164-42344]

I told you. The first principle is to obtain the Imam that is the person who will lead and everybody would have to accepted them, do him mubayi'at. So that is the first principle.

ZA31 [17012-17037]

Is by telling the truth

ZA32 [44582-45123]

The main principles ah first, all the member of the state should, the large number of the population of the state should be Muslims and then they should be lead, the state should be led in what, in accordance to teachings of the Qur'an and Hadith of the prophet (SAW), ye, these two principles I can say is the main principle. The guidance driving and making Qur'an as the constitution of the state and the making the Qur'an and hadith as the constitution of the state and the population of Muslims should be the large number in the state.

ZA33 [11800-11917]

The principles operating in an Islamic state, it should be based on the Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet (SAW).

ZA34 [26458-26650]

The main principles operating in an Islamic state is one, the book of Allah-Qur'an and then the Sunna of the prophet (SAW).

These are the two basic principles that controls an Islamic state.

ZA35 [11690-11765]

The Hadith and Qur'an should be the principles of operating a sharia state

ZA36 [18471-18521]

I think it is to make for justice and fairness.

ZA37 [23191-23694]

The main principle is application of that constitution. The main principle is the issue of constitution that is obeying the teaching of Holy Qur'an and the sayings of the Holy prophet that is why I am even saying presently in northern Nigeria you can see that more than half of our practices are Islamic practices even though at the top, the constitution of the country is different, is something different, but there are many rules even in that constitution that correspond to the teachings of Islam.

ZA38 [28058-28136]

The main principle of operating an Islamic state should be based on justice.

ZA39 [38989-39166]

The principle is that when the people agree to live their life according to Islamic way, so all the dos and don'ts provided by Islam, if people agree to embrace it that is all.

Th9.3: Constituents of an Islamic State

FG1 [34311-34353]

Teaching and practicing Islamic religion

FG1 [34355-34400]

Muslim majority constitute an Islamic state

KD1 [38316-38826]

What constitute an Islamic state is the Islamic leadership taking charge of the welfare of the people, talking control of the economy, just the similarity of what we have as the typical government we have, but if being handled by a Muslim and having Qur'an as the supreme law and having some other bye laws that guide the way one or two things are actually done. That's my own opinion, that's how I see it because it's not actually my field, but that's what I know, the little I know about the Islamic state.

KD2 [14587-14738]

What constitutes an Islamic state is when, Islamic state is when that state or that country is purely based on Islamic teachings and Islamic ideology.

KD3 [11763-11898]

My opinion on the constituent of an Islamic state is a state that do, everybody, people their practice Islam to their own capability.

KD4 [22724-22912]

What constitutes an Islamic state as I told you is the teaching of the holy scripture as well as the Qur'anic and Sunna. That is what constitutes an Islamic state to my own understanding.

KD5 [12932-13202]

An Islamic state can be constituted, a state, Islamic or non-Islamic must have territory, population and leadership and then and I think also Islamic state constituted by the people, territory, leaders and also the guiding principle which is the Qur'an and the Hadith.

KD6 [26843-27415]

In my own opinion, what constitutes an Islamic state according to them, they are saying Islamic state, Islamic state is when your leader is a Muslim, upright Muslim. In fact, that is just it. Secondly, we talked about that we are in a secular state, we supposed to accommodate ourselves, and we have to accommodate ourselves in terms of Nigeria. So, to me if you have a leader as a Muslim, you are in a state of Islam. For example, take an example now, even in Saudi Arabia that they practice full sharia, our flag is up, why? People don't ask about that. So, let's go on

KD7 [17862-18207]

An Islamic state is a state by which the laws and regulations of Islam down to everything, everything, how a husband treats his wife, how a father names his child, how one buries his parents, how one is expected to treat his parents, these are all included into our laws and regulations and this state is governed by those laws and regulations.

KD8 [38215-38741]

An Islamic is a state that all the institutions are Islamic. A state where the head lives by Islamic injunctions, a state where you live by shura, consultations in order to protect the lives of people, is a state that all the lives of the state is in accordance with Islamic injunctions in terms of inheritance, in terms of family life, in terms of politics, in terms of ehm banking system and all the life. That's what an Islamic state is, living a moral life, protecting the rights of everybody both Muslims and Christians.

KD10 [16482-17089]

What constitutes an Islamic state that is the leader is going to be a Muslim and they are going to use Qur'an and the Sunna to govern the people whereby the leader is going to preserve the din of the people, their lives, their property, their soul and their integrity. This is what constitutes an Islamic state. Nigeria, you get me right that is some people don't regard Nigeria to be an Islamic state because it is democracy we are practicing either, if the Muslim is a leader or the Christian is a leader he is going to practice democracy. They are not following the Qur'an and Sunna. Are you getting me?

KD11 [21465-21655]

An Islamic state is a state which is governed totally or entirely by the tenets and the dictates of Islam that is the Qur'an and Sunna not any other secular, not any other law outside this.

KD12 [26522-26699]

Hmm what constitutes Islamic state is the way, is the two ways the prophet has said eh (recites in Arabic) being good and (recites in Arabic) you go away from what is unlawful.

KD13 [8824-8971]

What constitutes an Islamic state is maintaining the five pillars of Islam and recognizing the constitution of Islam which is the glorious Qur'an.

KD14 [10639-10714]

I could say the main thing that constitutes an Islamic state are Muslims

KD15 [17203-17509]

In my own opinion what constitutes an Islamic state ah is the fear of God and ah following the Sunna of the prophet, respect all the messengers of God believe in all the messengers of God, believe in his angels, believe in his books and ah believe in last day. I think that is what Islamic state all about.

KD16 [8798-8938]

The human beings themselves and then the teachings of Islam, Qur'an then the hadith or the Sunna of the prophet and the ijma of the ulama

KD17 [31036-31146]

In my opinion practicing the sharia as the constitution of the a place is what constitutes an Islamic state.

KD18 [14787-14941]

What, I think what constitutes an Islamic state is Qur'an and they are following the hadith of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) that is what constituted there.

KD19 [19254-19503]

An Islamic state is a state in which Islam is being practiced in its totality. That is what we term an Islamic state, where the Qur'an and the Sunna of the holy prophet Muhammad (SAW) are the guiding principle of the state that is an Islamic state.

KD20 [14595-14718]

Yes, what constitutes an Islamic state is I think is people, the hadith and the Qur'an even non-Muslim all together, yes.

KD21 [12776-12907]

I think eh in my own opinion what constitutes an Islamic states Qur'an and hadith, Sunna of the prophets rather than constitution.

KD23 [13608-13653]

This question should go to the big scholars.

KD24 [47424-47973]

What constitutes an Islamic state, the leader first, leader and the followers. Leader should be of some certain qualities of a leader. They should be trustworthy, they should be truthful men, they should be peaceful men, they should be eh loyal, they should be obedient, they should be of vast knowledge, they should be patient, he should, all the qualities that a leader should possess in Islam it is the same thing. A leader is supposed to possess good qualities and ah he should know whom to bring closer to him so that he will get good advises.

KD25 [65506-66445]

Ah right what constitutes an Islamic state ah has to do with ah first and foremost the knowledge. The knowledge of Islam and then two, its practice because when you have knowledge and don't practice it is like zero or empty, so knowledge and its practice right and then ah perseverance also comes because there is no how you will want to attain to something or achieve something, you have to suffer, so if you are not persevering, if you are not the persevering type or forbearing type it can, you can, it can, you can miss it. It might escape you so you have to bear with everyone...and you have to be determined that yes you will make it, with God all things are possible and try to follow things gradually, insha Allah if these things are followed up I believe one day insha Allah is a simple thing in the sight of Allah for us to have understanding, but not just through this eh fighting and carrying sword that cannot bring anything.

KD26 [15581-15653]

An Islamic state I think is a state that is been guided by sharia law

KD27 [18604-18861]

To me I feel Islam has no boundaries and an ideal Islamic state is one that encompasses all Muslims wherever they are. And that an ideal Islamic state is one that also makes provision for non-Muslims living within, amongst the Muslims. That is my concept.

KD28 [22020-22400]

In my own opinion what constitutes an Islamic state is that, what constitutes an Islamic state in my own view is a community or a state where 95 percent are Muslims and they have the knowledge and they know that yes as a Muslim, your own duty to a Muslim brother or your own duty to your neighbor, your own duty to Muslim to those that are not Muslims within your own community.

KD29 [12858-13080]

Ah in my own opinion what constitutes Islamic state is ah a state where there is effective monitoring of conducts of the society in such a way that it allows rights and practices of both those living within that society.

KD30 [23870-24016]

I think what constitutes an Islamic state is ah is total Islamic setting, having Islamic leader set to work under Islamic ah sharia, sharia law.

KD32 [19881-20325]

Now an Islamic state when we said Islamic this is a state that is totally applying the sharia law. It is a state that you will not find so many mischievous things in that land like for instance there may not be free, you will not have rights to drink an alcohol, you may not have rights for prostitution, there are many other sins, for the gambling, for all other things that is against the teaching of Islam. This is what an Islamic state is.

KD33 [16369-16439]

In my own opinion Islamic state constitute of Muslim and non-Muslim

KD34 [17752-18116]

What constitutes an Islamic state? An Islamic state if you define an Islamic state that is a state that practice sharia, the state that owns by the Muslims, so what constitutes it? It is the, it is the funding of that particular state, but if you look at it in Nigeria, it is a different segment that was joined together to live together in particular government.

KD35 [18523-18883]

Ah what constitute an Islamic state is the politicians are Muslims, they are versed in Islam, they know what they are doing, they are governing people with fairness and the house of legislative they don't temper, they go, they don't go against any rule of Allah, any law of Allah, they leave it as it is and they do what the people give them the mandate for.

KN1 [43344-43686]

Thank you very much. What constitute an Islamic state is the one that is wholly guided by the Qur'an and the saying or tradition of the holy prophet. That is an Islamic state. And it is a state that provides for all, whether you are a Muslim or you are a non-Muslim, it will recognize you as a citizen and it gives to you what is due to you.

KN2 [24272-24347]

It is a state headed by Muslims under the auspices of the Qur'an. Simple

KN4 [38585-38650]

In my opinion, what constitute an Islamic state justice? Justice

KN5 [16908-17235]

An Islamic state, in an Islamic state you should have the leader with the name of Khalifa and the shura, you should have the shura, you should have the Quran and the Hadith as the constitution, you should have the territory in which that you should be governing. I think that is some of the things an Islamic state should be.

KN6 [18029-18214]

So, what constitute an Islamic state is the teaching of Prophet Mohammed (SAW) and Quran so this is the-when you go back to these two thing you should be able to get the Islamic state.

KN7 [18123-18286]

Yes, I think ehm in my own opinion what constitute an Islamic state is ehm the implementation of sharia as regard to the teaching of ehm the Qur'an and Sunna yes.

KN8 [17141-17781]

There are various constituents of Islamic state but the most significant one as noted by the holy prophet is that an Islamic state, the sovereignty in Islamic state belongs to Allah, you understand, while the basis of constitution in an Islamic state should based on Qur'an while the actions and the doing of the people should be based on sharia, you understand, that is the hadith, the Sunna, hadith is the, the Sunna is the act of the holy prophet while the hadith is the word of the holy prophet. All these should be the justification and processes, you understand, the guidelines through which Islamic state should be built upon.

KN9 [17364-17674]

Well ehm, I want to believe an Islamic state that is founded on the principles of oneness of Allah, popular vicegerency and ah fairness, equity and social justice. I want to believe it is an Islamic state and Islamic state is a state which preaches how to acquire happiness in this world and in the hereafter.

KN10 [12412-12582]

What constitutes an Islamic state; the first thing is when the Muslims are the majority and the second is for them to use sharia law as their law in that place, that is...

KN11 [17775-17900]

That is, Islamic states are, unless they follow the teaching of the Qur'an and Sunna that is what constitutes Islamic state.

KN13 [18632-19163]

An Islamic state is a state that whereby they have sharia as their major institution, they have the major Islamic institutions ehm there major constitution, they have the major Islamic institution like the institution of baytul mal, they have the hisba, they have other major constitution, like the normally observe uhm, uhm observe market rule, they collect zakat, zakat that people-they normally make sure that people actually pay zakhat and series of other Islamic ehn, ehn principles and doctrines are followed and adhered to.

KN14 [13660-13698]

An Islamic state is the sharia state.

KN15 [15243-15506]

The first thing you will find in an Islamic state is sharia law, after that you will find out that in an Islamic state we use to use you know hisba, you will see baitul mali and all these religious parts so as to make the sharia law run smoothly, so this is it.

KN16 [7859-7957]

Uhm, sharia law, as a system and the protectors of the law like hisba guards etcetera etcetera

KN17 [18757-19204]

An Islamic state is a state that that use sharia as its major constitution, so it's just sharia, then we have the hisba, we have the ah the emm they actually ah collect this em zakat from people that's em and tax. Then we have this walkiyya something walkiyya we have the baitul mali. If all these kind of institutions, definitely it can be tagged as an Islamic state, examples of these states are we have this ah Kuwait, we have Iran and Iraq.

KN18 [32358-32618]

Is a state which is (greetings) is a state which is built on the basis of Islamic injunctions and Islamic teachings following the true teachings of Islam and taking Qur'an and Sunna as the basis of the constitutional of law and normal practices of government.

KN19 [19163-19834]

Ah, there are thousand of things that constitutes an Islamic state, but the most similar and the most close one, you understand, the most similar and most close ones according to Sherifi you understand, al-Maghili. Sherifi al-Maghili is the one of the great Islamic scholars of the 19th century he said an Islamic state must be, must embrace Qur'an as its constitution, you understand, an Islamic state must embrace ko em the Sunna that is the deeds of the holy prophet as its guiding principles, an Islamic state must embrace sharia that is the will of Allah, you understand, as the justification processes, you understand, for the people that have gone against...

KN20 [13402-13514]

There are a lot of things that make up the Islamic state, like the hisba, the baitul mal, the zakka

KN21 [8394-8468]

We have the likes of hisba, baitul mal, zakkat, shura, etcetera etcetera.

KN22 [16294-16643]

What constitutes an Islamic state is, a situation where the majority of the citizens, the majority of the inhabitants in that particular community or society, let's put it 99% are Muslims and they are advocating willingly, it is in line with their interest, that they want to operate Islamic legal system. So therefore they call for Islamic states.

KN23 [12336-12470]

Yah, it is defined in the holy Qur'an, practicing of sharia that is the thing that constitutes an Islamic state; Sharia in one word.

KN24 [12595-12635]

In my own opinion, the practice of Islam

KN25 [17610-17728]

Well what constitutes an Islamic state basically is a state founded the principle of oneness of Allah that is Tauhid.

KN26 [16555-16635]

Well a state that is being run on the tenets Islam. Let's just leave it as it is

KN27 [13923-14047]

Well what constitutes an Islamic state I would say is the leader and sharia that is the teaching of the Qur'an and hadith.

KN28 [10838-11050]

Islamic state is all about the set rules and regulations of Islam itself not talking about the state in general. It just has to go with Islam itself like all those set rules and regulations should be guided by

KN30 [13272-13359]

What constitutes an Islamic state, the stages, the teachings of Qur'an and the hadith.

KN31 [15569-15692]

Ah well, I will say what constitutes an Islamic state is just that those just living by the Sharia, Islamic injunctions.
 KN32 [6972-7029]
 We can easily say hisba and sharia and the rest of them.
 KN33 [6328-6364]
 A state where Islam rules the state
 KN34 [8810-8922]
 What actually constitutes an Islamic state is a state that governs its activities based on Islamic principles.
 KN35 [11643-11727]
 An Islamic state is where the rules and application of Islam is being put in place.
 KN36 [11592-11687]
 Islamic state is a state where sharia principles are being applied for the common man to live.
 KN37 [10098-10145]
 The practices and principles of Islam I think.
 KN38 [7112-7184]
 An Amir, a leader, a Qur'an or the sharia as its rules the regulations
 KN39 [11872-11977]
 Islamic state refers to a state whereby they are governing themselves according to the Qur'an and Sunna.
 KN40 [12153-12162]
 No idea.
 KN41 [10240-10330]
 I think an Islamic state is just a state where the rulers or I say the leaders are Muslims
 KN42 [18955-20317]
 Islamic state where there is Islam and all the other religious people, all the other faiths reside, be it Christianity, be it Jews, they are there, but it is most important thing is teachings and doctrines of Islam itself followed that is the Qur'an and the Hadith is the basis of sharia that is the law, the constitution is according to the preaching of, is according to Allah and preachings of the prophet. And there is also, there is a leader who is appointed or selected in a very fair and democratic way and then all the instrument of government, the orphans, the needy, the officials are well appointed and represented. People are taking care of and even people of the religious, of the other faith, they are comfortable and they could actually live without fear and ehmm insecurity that they are not in the place whereby they are not amongst their religious people, but they are actually treated nice because in Islam, actually in Islamic state there is provision for non-Muslims. There are said to be taking care of right from the time of the prophet, he has said it that in an Islamic state a non-Muslim also have the right. He can also be appointed. He can be given lands, he can be given everything, he shouldn't be differentiated, he shouldn't be discriminated because of his religious beliefs. In Islam there is religious tolerance, there is peace.
 KN43 [17228-17319]
 An Islamic state is a state where sharia is implemented and applied hundred over hundred.
 KN44 [12370-12407]
 I don't have the variables on that.
 KN45 [14280-14363]
 Yah, I think ehh an Islamic state ehh is a state that is guided by the sharia, yah
 KN46 [28503-28834]
 Number one the source of guidance. The source of guidance, this is number one. Number two is justice. So wherever justice is found, then Islamic state is there. Wherever justice is not found, then Islamic state is not there. But justice only cannot make a state to be Islamic unless it derives its guidance from Islamic teachings.
 KN47 [29758-30569]
 An Islamic states are the states that go with ahh go with the principles and teachings of Islam, you know, for example, you know, in their own conduct, in their own dealing, you see they establish sharia, they use something like hisba, you understand, they have everything that is warranted to be done in Islam because in Islamic political institutions there are many Islamic political institutions, you know, they have some conventional practice, you know, of conventional or what do call, you know, when you call modern government or modern governance, they have some skills, they use some skills used in the modern governance and then they use some other particular skills that were derived from Islamic perspectives, you understand, so they combine the two to become Islamic state, according to my opinion.
 KN48 [9378-9506]
 Islamic state is a state whereby uses Islamic principle to govern, to govern, that uses Islamic principles in their government.
 KN49 [17478-17629]
 I think ah an Islamic state has to with the din, has to do with centralization of the religion as a pivotal, as a pivot of the entire administration.
 KN50 [8489-8594]
 An Islamic state is a state that uses Quran and Hadith as a guidance principle in operating its society.
 KN52 [22437-22845]
 An Islamic state is a state that is supposed to be strictly governed by sharia, sharia in the context of or in the sense of the provisions of the holy Qur'an and the traditions of the holy prophet alongside with the opinions of the respected, respected jurists, respected Ulama, the ijma, you understand? So this for me should provide the fundamental frame work within which an Islamic state should operate.
 KN53 [11029-11323]
 Hmmm an Islamic state constitutes the Hadith of prophet (SAW), then the sharia also constitutes, which the sharia will govern the behavior of the particular people that lives in the environment, then the last thing should be the Qur'anic doctrine which are used also in governing the society.
 KN54 [5658-5683]
 Well, Islamic teachings
 KN55 [7193-7209]
 Islamic rules
 KN56 [11043-11094]
 An Islamic state is constituted by Islamic rules.
 KN57 [11696-11718]
 Religious. That's all

KN58 [25510-25796]

An Islamic state is a state whereby true Islamic religion is practiced, true Islamic knowledge system is practiced, true sharia Legal system is practiced, true Islamic social, judicial, economical, political, a complete way of life as we said. That is what we mean by Islamic state.

KN59 [19717-19846]

An Islamic state ah what constitutes an Islamic state are Muslims, Qur'an, Hadith so that is what constitutes an Islamic state.

KN60 [20652-21110]

In my opinion what constitutes an Islamic state is people agreeing, coming together, preaching to themselves and then trying to put across to other people the way they behave, the way they talk, how they practice their religion and what have you. I think this can give us a chance to now achieve what we want to achieve by the time we preach to non-Muslims, we show good examples with the way we do our things automatically they would like to embrace Islam.

KN61 [9210-9335]

So in my own opinion, Islamic state this are the state that has devoted 100% to purely practicing of ah Qur'an and Hadith.

KN62 [31579-31697]

An Islamic state is constituted by having an Islamic leader who works with Qur'an and Hadith as is constitution, yes.

KN64 [15575-15823]

Islamic state, hmm this means the state that have governed and ruled by the rule of sharia, by the Quran and Sunna. This is what Islamic state mean: states that are governed and ruled the affairs following the Qur'an and Sunna of the Prophet (SAW).

KN65 [18290-18653]

Okay, a Islamic state is a state where it is being governed by a body called Shura, you understand where just a committee of scholars that come together, deliberate and come up with a decision. So that is what constitutes an Islamic state unlike other states that you see that it is political leader or any other thing, so an Islamic state is being run by shura.

KN66 [10763-10824]

An Islamic state should constitute Islamic laws, the sharia.

KN67 [11799-11863]

Islamic state I can say it is a state which is ruled by sharia.

KN68 [5758-5774]

Islamic rule.

KN69 [22166-22275]

What constitutes an Islamic state is Qur'an, Sunna, ijma, qiyas and Islamic government that is a leadership.

KN72 [20399-20612]

The constituents of Islamic state is practicing the Islamic attribute or Islamism or Islamic code of conduct that is the Islamic state. When the people 95% accept and practice Islam as ehh revealed from the God.

KN73 [20033-20449]

What constitutes an Islamic state it is long, but in short and precise, Islamic state is constitutes a state where purely, since from the beginning, from the leadership...up to the provisions of the law, activities of the government, activities of the people are all governed by Islamic factors and these provisions, there is another provision that would have a non-Muslim a right to live a life, a freedom of living.

KN74 [31904-32075]

Yes ehh the constitute, the constituents of an Islamic state is ehh al-kitab wal Sunna that is Qur'an and Prophet Muhammad (SAW)'s sayings and his deeds and also Fuqaha.

KN75 [34236-34283]

Islamic state as I told you is a Muslim state.

KN75 [34351-34483]

What establish Islamic state is that we have a highest percentage of the Muslim, need to have the highest percentage of the Muslim.

KN76 [22327-22658]

Well, in my opinion, what constitutes an Islamic state is when you have a government that is guided by the Qur'an and the Sunna, by Qur'an and Sunna, and the economic life, the entire life of the community is guided by the Qur'an and Sunna and the leadership is also guided by the Qur'an and Sunna then you have an Islamic state.

KN78 [34437-34985]

What constitutes an Islamic state? Islamic state is having a government that is guided by the Qur'an and the Sunna, in other words is guided by the primary source of Islamic sharia and the primary source and the secondary source of an Islamic sharia. That is an Islamic state. When we say the primary source, we simply mean the Qur'an and Hadith. When we say the secondary source in sharia, we simply mean qiyas, ijihad [that is consensus of opinion?] exactly, exactly any state that is governed and is guided by that, that is an Islamic state.

KN80 [30314-30495]

So what constitutes an Islamic state is the engagement of Muslims living in that particular state and their competency, zeals and confidence in ahh ahh approaching the proclamation.

KN81 [14717-14802]

The source of Islamic state is ahh from Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet (PBUH).

KN82 [20178-20406]

What constitutes an Islamic state is not more than submitting the, what do you call it, sovereignty to Allah, submitting sovereignty to Allah unlike in democracy where sovereignty is said to be located to the people, yes.

KN83 [12382-12443]

Ahm Muslims and their plan and determination toward Islam

KN84 [14560-14603]

I think it is sharia that is Islamic law.

KN85 [16330-16714]

Unlike how so many people, the understanding of so many people of the Islamic state constituting mostly of Muslims, Islamic state is ta state where the principles of Islam are fully implemented, where sharia is implemented and guarded, where all the institutions of Islam are, political institutions of Islam are well established like the shura like the Hisba the Zakat and the rest.

ZA1 [17760-18617]

What constitutes Islamic state? So now if you look at this words, you want me to answer that a way that you as a researcher need to go and set people so as to go and conquer a certain area as a state, no. What Islam is always talking about is justice between you and our brother, between you and non-Muslims, between you and non-Muslim. This is how Islam teaches. All the aya ya ahl kitab, ya ahl kitab is talking about non-Muslims. Prophet has stayed with non-Muslims and even prophet married ah one of his wives Maryam Kathiyya, she is not a Muslim, but after all she converted and also during the Khalifa Umar bin Khatab one of his Sahaba married a non-Muslim ahl kitab. So is between how you interfere, how you behave, how you associate with your brother that's what Islam needs is not a matter of just to have your boundary as a Islam.

ZA2 [17501-17671]

Peace now, yah peace. That is what constitutes it, when there is peace in area, we require peace in an Islamic state, we need peace that is the ... is not more than that.

ZA3 [15714-15877]

An Islamic state is that state that the majority of those inhabitants of that environment are Muslims and they are practicing, they govern by the laws of Allah.

ZA4 [34248-34464]

Yes, things that constitute Islamic state is first of all we have implementation, people are following the Qur'an and Sunna of prophet Muhammad (SAW) and they are practicing all the dos and don'ts of the teachings.

ZA5 [19370-19560]

What really constitutes an Islamic state, in my own view, is that anything that they are doing in that state it has to be Islamically, it must be Islamically, Islamic way of life, thank you.

ZA6 [48206-48504]

Ahm sharia law. The only major thing about the Islamic state is the constitution. When you have an Islamic state that means you have a sharia law in practice. So that is the sharia law itself, the constitution, the sharia constitution is, Islamic constitution is what constitutes an Islamic state.

ZA7 [18059-18220]

Yes, in my opinion, I think it is just the preaching of Islam, Islamic laws and preaching of the Qur'an and preaching of Prophet Muhammad. I think that is all.

ZA8 [40874-42883]

Hmm constitutes an Islamic state? You talking about Islamic state wow. I think Islamic state is a state where sharia is being done. For instance, where good is been enjoined, not sharia of what people are thinking oh sharia of killing or cutting peoples hand, no. That also is there because in the sharia book or law is also a sharia for a thief, there is amount of, certain amount of money that a thief will steal that will warrant the cutting of his hand and there is amount of, there is number of people that will be present if a fornicator or an adulterer is committing that adultery that are physical present that they actually see her doing it. If you go, for instance, if is in sharia it is allowed that four people must be present as in actually saw them committing fornication, they saw it with their own eyes, nobody told them oh, they saw it. Four witnesses must be there if the sharia should be carried out on the person. Four people must be there, witnesses must be there and those four witnesses must not be people that are liars, they must actually be people that speak the truth. Everybody know them in the community or in the state that this people are truthful, they don't lie, they don't drink, they don't do this for that sharia to stand, but if it's a thief, if he is caught there is certain amount, if they, whatever he steals, if they go and gauge how much it will be, then it must reach certain amount of money for them to cut his hand. So people are busy saying it is barbaric, it is that. God knows why he says that, nobody knows. The thing is just for you to carry it out. Now Islamic state is a state, for instance, it mustn't be just Muslims alone, are you getting it? If they say an Islamic means this is a state that is been that good and the worship of God is been enjoined irrespective of whether Christians are residing there or ... or whatsoever, but this is where they call people to do good as, in short, where there is minimal where there is minimal commitment of sin.

ZA9 [20551-20770]

In my opinion, I believe if 90 percent of the population of a particular geographical area are Muslims, definitely that is an Islamic state, but Nigeria is totally different, I think only 35% of Nigerians are Muslims.

ZA10 [23178-23277]

What simply constitute an Islamic state is the Qur'an and the hadith and the Sunna of the prophet.

ZA11 [17669-17767]

Well, having a good judiciary system and the sharia that have to touch in every aspect of life.

ZA12 [9792-9867]

An Islamic state, what constitutes it, that is the Qur'an and the hadith.

ZA13 [10828-10931]

In my opinion what constitutes an Islamic state, I think what constitute an Islamic state is sharia.

ZA14 [13028-13182]

What constitutes an Islamic state that is following the Sunna, following the Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) in that particular state.

ZA15 [17000-17192]

When you do your things according to Islam, when all the rules and regulations that is being practiced or done in a particular state is being done according to Islam that is an Islamic state.

ZA16 [10455-10626]

Ok, what constitutes an Islamic state that is the leader, as I said, there should be a leader, there should be the Qur'an as the constitution and there should be Muslims.

ZA17 [10259-10360]

Following the book of Allah and the Sunna of Rasul (SAW) that is what constitutes the Islamic state.

ZA18 [14654-14753]

What constitutes an Islamic state; actually I won't say anything on this, most of these questions..

ZA19 [19670-20253]

Ah in my own opinion, what constitute an Islamic state is actually many things. One of the basic things is actually having a Qur'an and a prophetic hadith as the major guide, major constitution in the transaction of every affairs of human endeavor within that particular territory and of cause when you have Qur'an and the prophetic hadith as the guidance or constitution that governs the activities of human beings within that particular society, actually it has everything enshrined. So, therefore, there is no any other thing aside this Qur'anic teachings and prophetic hadith.

ZA20 [10923-11112]

The provision of the holy Qur'an and the Sunna that is the saying and the actions of the holy prophet (SAW) in which a given community go by it, stand by it and defend it and work for it.

ZA21 [16124-16241]

An Islamic state constitutes of a state that is practicing sharia and that is going based on the dictates of Islam.

ZA22 [15051-15324]

I think what constitute a true Islamic state is true teachings of Qur'an, Sunna of rasul (SAW) implemented everywhere to the best of our ability. When we have that and we have leadership as well that will enforce some laws among Muslims, I think we have an Islamic state.

ZA23 [20526-20615]

An Islamic state is just anywhere any place where people are devoted to Islamic teaching.

ZA24 [26545-26877]

In my own opinion Islamic state is a state whereby the leaders of the community, of the area or the territory are using Islamic sharia. They are governed by the Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet Muhammad (SAW). So therefore they are using Islamic law in a particular country, so therefore that place is called an Islamic state.

ZA25 [23334-23737]

An Islamic state is the one whose rules and regulations are derived clearly from Al-Qur'an and the authentic ahadith and which has one single Amir with probably some regional ummaral or Wuqala and not the one that claims to be an Islamic state but only practicing partial Islam. As far as I am concerned, in the whole world today, we don't have a single authentic Islamic state Saudi Arabia inclusive.

ZA26 [11369-11479]

Well what constitutes it is a state where Muslims are allowed to do their own rights without any oppression.

ZA27 [9884-9929]

What constitutes an Islamic state ah justice

ZA28 [22373-22439]

Well sharia, law and order as stated by the Qur'an and the hadith

ZA30 [41229-41322]

What constitutes an Islamic state that is following the actual teaching of Qur'an and Sunna.

ZA31 [15196-15347]

What constitute an Islamic state is the, is the way our leaders preach and the followers accept it. I think that is what constitutes an Islamic state.

ZA32 [41757-42307]

Ahhh, what constitutes an Islamic state in my opinion can be the provision of, the provision of caliphate, the establishment of caliphate. When the caliphate is established and the eh leaders that governs us and other like Waziri, chief of Army staff, we all have it in the Islamic state and that constitutes it, and it appears to be incomplete when in the absence of what, of the caliphate. The main center or the major aspect of Islamic state is that what, caliphate and the caliphate usually act in accordance of what, Qur'an, Qur'anic provision.

ZA34 [25222-25570]

What constitutes an Islamic state are one; the state is ruled by a pious Muslim or Muslims. Two, they are following the teachings of the religion and revealed by Allah (SBUH) bit by bit. Three, the people that are living within that society are conscious about the teachings of the religion and they are also following the religion. That is that.

ZA35 [11277-11337]

What constitutes an Islamic state is the Qur'an and hadith.

ZA36 [17544-17722]

An Islamic state is a state whereby the citizens are Muslims and the affairs or the rules and regulations is based on Islam, pure Islam that is what makes it an Islamic state.

ZA37 [21210-21582]

So an Islamic state, what constitutes an Islamic state is ah if that state is using Holy Qur'an as its constitution, so it is an absolute Islamic state, but even if the constitution is not an Islamic one, but Muslims that are living in that state are allowed to perform their Islamic worship, their religion without any problem, it can also be regarded as Islamic state.

ZA38 [26770-27053]

What constitutes an Islamic state or the first thing is the use of the sharia law, the Qur'an as the basis then the use of the Hadith, the tradition of the prophet and making sure that justice prevails in the society, both Muslims and non-Muslims should be given their own rights.

ZA39 [37944-38090]

Islamic state, what constitute an Islamic state is the adoption of Islamic religion as the cardinal principle of governing the affairs of people

Th9.4: The Ruler in an Islamic State

FG1 [34728-34738]

An Islam

FG1 [34740-34758]

An honest person

FG1 [34760-34790]

The most knowledgeable person

FG1 [34791-34802]

Educated

FG1 [34804-34819]

Honest Muslim

FG1 [34821-35068]

The most knowledgeable particularly in science and technology (some opposition) Yes there is a course in political science level one- Islamic political thought and the number one qualification of a Caliph is he should be knowledgeable in science

KD2 [15407-15625]

The person who should rule in an Islamic state I think should be the leader. May be it should be the chief imam or the highest person with the most knowledge in Islam, both Qur'anic knowledge and knowledge of ahadith.

KD3 [12241-12264]

A well learned Muslim.

KD4 [23926-24341]

Ah! This is known everywhere. In an Islamic state the intellectual, the most knowledgeable, the one that is knowledgeable in all part is the one that should rule.

So in the Islamic state, the leader should be intellectual, he should be a leader, it should be somebody that is knowledgeable in the scripture, it is somebody that is familiar with the Qur'an and the Sunna. That's who should rule in an Islamic state.

KD5 [13701-13817]

Who should rule in an Islamic state? A competent leader, one with vast knowledge of the holy Qur'an and the Hadith

KD6 [27641-27753]

A Muslim, in an Islamic state, a Muslim. You can't have an Islamic state without having a Muslim as the leader.

KD7 [18948-19002]

I believe the Muslims should rule in an Islamic state

KD8 [39903-40350]

In an Islamic state, of course, Imam, the imam should be the leader. The imam is expected to be very knowledgeable, to be very versed in a Qur'anic knowledge, in Sunna, in terms of behavior, in terms of justice, he should be just. An imam should be the person that is very knowledgeable, very just, very fair, very knowledgeable, very exposed, and has good understanding of modernity and understand, good understanding of the dynamics of life, yes.

KD9 [24357-24389]

The spiritual leader the Amir

KD10 [17605-17950]

Ah Muslim should rule, and should rule with Qur'an and Sunna in an Islamic state, Muslim should rule and he should rule with Qur'an and Sunna in totality. In our Akida, he should rule with Qur'an and Sunna, in our ibadat is Qur'an and Sunna, in our mu'amalat is Qur'an and Sunna, in our akhlat Qur'an and Sunna, and in our adah Quran and Sunna.

KD12 [27628-27776]

The most knowledgeable person. The most knowledgeable person, the most knowledgeable and faithful to the religion should rule in an Islamic state.

KD13 [9157-9270]

To decide for who rules in an Islamic state is that man who is totally aware of what the din is talking about.

KD14 [11060-11184]

In any place where there is an Islamic state, a well learned person in terms of Islamic wise should be the person to rule

KD15 [17991-18256]

Ah in an Islamic state ahm number one ruler in an Islamic state is supposed to be a Muslim who fears Allah, who fears God and follow the footsteps of the prophet. I think if we can have that in an Islamic state ah the fear of God, I think everything will be okay.

KD16 [9358-9527]

One, an exemplary leader, a leader that has as a passion, that has a feeling of others, that is knowledgeable, that is God fearing, that is tolerant and the rest of it.

KD17 [32561-32826]

It is not who I think it is who the Islamic state says should rule or what the sharia says. What the Islamic religion says or what the Islamic religion says who should rule as far as am concern the Amir which is the spiritual leader should rule the Islamic state

KD18 [15613-15662]

I think that one is a knowledgeable Muslim. Yes.

KD20 [15032-15065]

A knowledgeable Muslim man, yes

KD21 [13450-13668]

I think ah there should be a supreme leader or somebody who is coming from a royal family, let's borrow the fact from the Saudi who has been the modern nation of all Islamic countries been ruled by all the royalties.

KD23 [13985-14102]

The person that should be that should rule in an Islamic state should be a person that has a vast Islamic knowledge.

KD24 [49290-49350]

A knowledge ah ah a person that posses quality of a leader

KD25 [68613-69288]

Ah he that should rule in an Islamic state must be somebody that has the knowledge of Islam that is has the in-depth knowledge of Islam and that is a practicing Muslim and that is fearless and that is pious to God and that is ready to carry people along, not minding their religious diversities in as much as a case is brought before him between two people, one Christian the other one Muslim and he saw it that the Christian is more at right than the Muslim, he will give the Christian his right and apportion wrong to the Muslim that, those are the kind of people that should lead. And somebody that has that has no desire of wanting to acquire the materials of this world.

KD26 [16418-16644]

A Caliph, ye he is supposed to be somebody, he is supposed to be a figure head that is supposed to guide people and he is supposed to have well known as in sorry well learned, knowledgeable scholars are supposed to guide him.

KD27 [19224-19898]

Well, you see, ammm in Islam, leadership goes beyond...basis or goes beyond the ability to control power, goes beyond being the richest or Islam, well I think that power should be, in an Islamic state, should be run by a group; a set of people comprising Ulama and other leaders of the society, Ulama being the basis of law-giving. So more or less it is not different from democracy, I would say, that is in my own opinion, we elect-people should submit themselves to election but there should be a criteria for who and who should be eligible for, you know, to present themselves for elections. They should be good Muslims, they should be knowledgeable, they should be male.

KD28 [22458-22702]

Who is to rule in an Islamic state is an Islamic leader who has the knowledge of the Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) because this is the only constitution you can use in ruling the community wherever you are being a leader.

KD29 [13503-13646]

Ah an Islamic state the person that should rule is the person that is of sound ah character, very honest ah highly exemplified in the society.

KD30 [24638-24682]

I think that should be the Muslim leader.

KD31 [14225-14387]

Ah who I think should rule in an Islamic state is a person who has a complete understanding if not complete almost complete understanding of the religion Islam.

KD32 [21194-21415]

Ah definitely should be a learned Muslim someone who you, who you trusted his Islam, who you trusted his honesty, his honest, he totally believes in Allah he is practicing Muslim according to the way the prophet teaches.

KD33 [16711-16753]

The imam should rule in an Islamic state

KD34 [18698-19008]

Ahhh if it is an Islamic state, then the , the the Muslims should rule in an Islamic state, but in a state that it was not an Islamic state, there is a democracy, so a true democracy should be practiced and the winner should emerge and he will become a ruler.

KD35 [19408-19542]

Ah in a situation where there is a, in an Islamic state you said in an Islamic state yes amm somebody who is acknowledge about Islam.

KN1 [44337-44511]

In other words you mean that in an Islamic state anybody can rule?

Ans: As far as he has the quality

Q: Whether he is a Muslim or not?

Ans: As far as he has the qualities

KN2 [24684-25030]

Well that one has been given as a means of discussion among Muslims. It has not been directly related in any of the scriptures that so so person should rule. So now Muslims under an Islamic state should decide what type of leadership they are going to have. Is it autocratic, is it bureaucratic, is it democratic, it is left for them to decide.

KN4 [38909-39176]

Elected leader, now that we are using, we are in a democratic world where you are a Muslim or your are not-you are a Muslim you have to come out, your good conduct, your attitude, your behavior, your history can determine who you will be, what you would be tomorrow.

KN5 [17708-17749]

Ahh the God fearing and the knowledgeable

KN6 [18577-19031]

So those who can rule in an Islamic state are the people who are engaged theirselves into such learning so, ah the people that will have this responsibility are very clearly stated in our Quran. Those are our leaders, our leaders and we have the system of choosing our leaders in our constitution you know that the constitution would be the Quran and the Sunna, so it gives us clearly those people who are ah who are the responsible for this Islamic state.

KN8 [18346-18638]

A knowledgeable person, somebody that has the knowledge of Qur'an and hadith, you understand, a fit person, somebody that understand that can justify and be free, you understand, when two or more people are in violence, You understand, somebody that has adequate teaching of Islamic ideology.

KN9 [18034-18261]

Well, in an Islamic state eh the best among these people, the best the one who holds most esteem among-within the eye of the people and one who is more fair, more just, is more equitable, he should be the one to rule, yes, yah.

KN10 [13004-13077]

The person that is well, that is islamically educated among the society

KN11 [18120-18270]

Any honest- in an Islamic state, so it depends on, on yes t depends on-there is no any-there is no any specific but a knowledgeable person and pious.

KN13 [20234-20362]

The Khalifa, the vicegerent, the Khalifa, the Sultan you can even call it the supreme leader, definitely the religious leader.

KN14 [14349-14390]

The ulamas, the educated Islamic people

KN15 [15851-16045]

A Muslim, of course a Muslim, it is only a Muslim that can rule in an Islamic state who knows you know the religion very good, who is very, very good in the religions. So I think it is a Muslim.

KN16 [8018-8083]

They are elected because sorry eligible and knowledgeable persons

KN18 [33118-33157]

A pious leader, a righteous leader ah

KN19 [20165-20294]

A leader that has a good understanding of teaching of the Qur'an, the sunna, the hadith and all the Islamic tenets, that is fit.

KN19 [20312-20339]

Yah a Muslim that is fit.

KN20 [14034-14104]

An Islamic state is state is stated already is a caliphate that rule.

KN21 [8718-8733]

A just Muslim

KN22 [17092-17140]

A Muslim leader should rule in an Islamic state.

KN23 [12767-12989]

In an Islamic state? If you are talking about an Islamic state, Islamic state can only be achieved generally that is it is a global something. Like even Sultan of Sokoto will be under a Khalifa who belongs to the Quraish...

KN24 [12879-12994]

In Nigeria here that we are having separate mode of practicing Islam so the best thing I think is a good Muslim.

KN25 [18065-18364]

Well in an Islamic state there are certain criteria for being a leader or for becoming a leader. I think most of which have to do with one who believes in the faith of Islam that is the oneness of Allah, one who is strong ,brilliant, upright, and fair, you know there are numerous characteristics.

KN26 [17375-17549]

In an Islamic state, well to a very large extent you need say the pious among us, it should be the spiritual leaders of course since you said an Islamic state just preferably

KN26 [17590-17683]

Of course it has to be a Muslim. Ai the name Islamic state has qualified it to be a Muslim.

KN27 [13839-13866]

Someone that is competent

KN27 [14084-14132]

The leader should be a Muslim if he is capable

KN27 [14164-14223]

If he is not capable let's look for other-even a non-Muslim

KN27 [14267-14483]

But the thing is that you can never, there is no way you will go about choosing a non-Muslim in an Islamic state because you can't say all the Muslims that exist within the state are incompetent. It is not possible.

KN28 [11314-11426]

I believe the capable one and those who are learned more, the more learned. I think they should rule the state.

KN30 [13511-13526]

A Muslim leader

KN31 [16307-16871]

The best person to rule, I think, is just the person that is being nominated either by the-because in Islam, leaders are being nominated may be by the ulama people or the Electoral College. So I know normally just like one scholar said if you have two people who want to be given leadership, may be one is more knowledgeable than the other but the people cherish that person who is less knowledgeable, you should give him so that peace will reign. So in a nutshell you just say any person who is sane and knowledgeable that the people want should be the leader.

KN32 [7193-7201]

Muslims

KN33 [6540-6548]

Muslims

KN34 [9327-9426]

Hmmm a kind of, a just person, a person who have a kind of unquestionable character or integrity

KN36 [12023-12076]

Muslim who have the character and Iman in his heart

KN37 [10553-10575]

The Muslim of course

KN38 [7353-7386]

An Amir, a knowledgeable scholar

KN39 [12561-12733]

Qur'an and Sunna are supposed to be the constitution of Islamic state. This means that for an Islamic state to practice politics it has to adhere to the teaching of Islam.

KN40 [12459-12657]

I think the person who should rule in an Islamic state should firstly, be a Muslim, and should be a person who has the leadership character in terms of honesty, trustfulness and also encouragement.

KN41 [10494-10667]

In an Islamic state I suggest the person that will rule should be someone who is islamically oriented as well as having the fear of Allah, having the qualities of a leader.

KN42 [20599-20740]

Ah the person that rules in an Islamic state has to be a God fearing person, he has to be a knowledgeable person, and he has to be a Muslim.

KN43 [18087-18149]

Someone who has a very vast and versatile knowledge of Islam

KN44 [12889-13009]

I have not answered what is an Islamic state, so I wouldn't like to answer who should rule in an Islamic state. Ehen en

KN45 [14874-15067]

Yah, I think the most competent one should rule in an Islamic state. Just like in ehh in the secular state. I think Islam to favors meritocracy, yah not favoritism, not nepotism and rest, yah.

KN46 [29443-29496]

Somebody who has the qualities prescribed by Islam

KN47 [31250-31320]

In an Islamic state, somebody who is learned, who is qualified to rule

KN48 [9674-9691]

Islamic scholar

KN49 [17911-18099]

I think the best people, the pious people, the scholars, the thinkers, and people that can conduct the affairs of the society in a civilized and ah dedicated and as well as honest manner.

KN50 [8761-8844]

Someone who is knowledgeable should be the one to rule in Islamic, Islamic state.

KN52 [23619-23878]

Well I think the most knowledgeable, the most pious, the most just, the most kind, you know, these are some of the fundamental qualities of leadership that any Islamic state should aspire I mean should encourage and establish its own state based upon them.

KN53 [11545-11720]

In this context the person expected to rule an Islamic state is a Muslim, someone who has the knowledge of Al-Qur'an and someone who really have the fear of God. That's all.

KN54 [5850-5913]

Qur'an and Sunna, sorry actually I am trying to say the Amirs

KN55 [7357-7376]

An upright person

KN56 [11389-11454]

A piety person or rather let me say an Amir or an upright person

KN57 [11961-12031]

You see, a fit person is allowed and knowledgeable person should rule.

KN58 [26106-26437]

The Khalifa or what you call the Amir just like what was obtainable during the time of the prophet Muhammad (SAW), the state is ruled by Him as the Khalifa. Khalifa or what we mean by the viceroy or the vicegerent, the representative of God on earth. All of us are caliphs, but we must have a central leader who leads and guides us

KN59 [20202-20293]

A Muslim leader or a Caliph I think that is the person that should rule an Islamic state.

KN60 [21277-21481]

There are rules guiding who would rule. I think somebody need to go and read through some text to find out because a shura is being set up and it is the shura that would now appoint the person to rule.

KN61 [9785-9895]

Somebody who is fear to Allah, who has a ah sound good religion ah who can lead by example, who can be a ...

KN62 [32358-32603]

A Muslim, a good one, knowledgeable one, one who knows the reasons very well, well vast Muslim, and not only that, a pious one, one who is ahh who has an ahh am unflinching faith that is the kind of Muslim that should rule in an Islamic state.

KN64 [16097-16125]

A very righteous person, eh

KN65 [19323-20087]

Like I told you ah before now, a state is being categorized as an Islamic state when it has the body of shura, you understand, so ah in this body ahh committee of this people, they will now bring up an Amir, you understand. In those, like other countries ahm Saudia, or other states, they have monarch which the king would now be the one that rule, but in real sense, is not supposed to be like that, all decisions should come from the Shura, you understand, like it is done in the period of ah prophet Muhammad (SAW), you understand, he is the leader, but he still have the shura committee whatever they decides, he goes by what they do, you understand. So I think uhh I would go ah the shura should rule, but they pick up a ceremonial leader and put him there.

KN66 [11261-11407]

Ahh, Islamic state should be rule by a Khalifa, a person who is vast of Islamic knowledge, a person who knows the Qur'an and abide by the Sunna.

KN67 [12025-12615]

The person that ah is has the qualities to rule ah as far as the religious injunction is concerned and then who also has the qualities in terms of ruling. There are so many things that ah issues that are going around, some people may not, may have the necessary qualities, ahh may have the knowledge, they have the ability and some other things, but they not lead, in terms of people do not like them. So I think there are issues of which I can refer to which ah is shura people that are selected to also select the leaders. So I think the person that is selected by the shura should lead.

KN68 [5929-5939]

The Amir

KN69 [23179-23198]

Qur'an and Hadith

KN72 [21680-21700]

It is Muslims, yes.

KN73 [20887-20975]

Somebody who is pious, who is pure, who has no any ill mind, ill feelings in his mind

KN73 [21007-21199]

Even if he is not Muslim, if he can rule it just and just while he will treat a non-Muslim and Muslim equal, where he will provide, he will govern the state or citizens with the Islamic code.

KN74 [32787-33036]

Okay, the person that is suppose to rule in an Islamic state is the person that deserves to rule that is the person that has an Islamic knowledge and he follows the rules and the regulations of Islam according to the prophet Muhammad (SAW) sayings.

KN75 [35158-35167]

A Muslim

KN76 [23289-23358]

Well if there is an Islamic state, a Muslim should lead that state.

KN78 [35959-35971]

The Caliph

KN78 [35990-36737]

When you have the caliphate, when you have this ahm a global Islamic ahh ahh a global Islamic political authority, the caliph supposed to. But you see frankly in Islam, one ahh one system of government is not essentially prescribed. What we are enjoined to do is to be very fair, equitable and just. So it could be the military government for as long as it is just and it is fair, it is accepted in Islam. If it is democracy, if democracy if fair and just it is Islamic. So the same thing is applied to the monarchy system of government, if is fair and just but this is Islamic. But Islam in a way has not prescribed one standard system of government. What it does is that every government should be guided by Islamic values of fairness and just.

KN78 [36950-37725]

Well, there are governments that attempt to use the Qur'an, if government attempts to use the Qur'an as its source of guidance that is Islamic, for as long as it is fair and just. Monarchy implies, the same to monarchy. If that monarchy, in other words, leadership by inheritance is guided by Islamic teaching to be very fair and just, that is Islamic. I don't think for, I would, I would sincerely and humbly say ahh I have never come across either literature or opinion scholars that say this is the standard of an Islamic government. Anything fall of that is not Islamic, but what I certainly know is that government, Islam as a religion never prescribed democracy, for instance, as the only system of government. If democracy is not fair and just, that is not Islamic.

KN80 [30825-30947]

So the one ahh the one I think to rule Islamic state is the pious Muslim chosen by the ahh a Muslim Umma to govern them.

KN81 [15113-15443]

Okay based on my understanding, a person who is to rule an Islamic state is ahh somebody who is capable, somebody who has a knowledge and somebody who is not a lazy person, you understand, somebody who is pious, a somebody who rules based on Qur'an and the Sunna. I think this is the right person that can rule an Islamic state.

KN82 [20653-20909]

Islam laid a solid foundation on who should become a leader in an Islamic state. These conditions are someone must be knowledgeable, he must have fear of God, he must be pious and he must be someone that is lenient and that has a strong believe in Allah.

KN83 [12678-12821]

I think a good Muslim that has Islamic conscious and will do justice to both Muslims and non-Muslim based on what Allah said in the Qur'an.

KN84 [14950-14999]

I think is for Muslim that has a good character.

KN85 [17072-17359]

Having said that Islamic state is where the principle of Islam are fully established, it is only a Muslim male that should rule in an Islamic state. I think Al-Farabi and Al-Mawardi have presented to us ahh criteria of ahh who should rule in an Islamic state. So it should be a Muslim.

ZA2 [18197-18475]

Ehm that is a true believer who believe in the teaching of the creator, a true believer who have believed in God, is not corrupt, who will go by the teachings. He should be the leader not somebody that have bias interest, no, no. you cannot be a leader you are to treat equal.

ZA3 [16136-16223]

It should be a knowledgeable, a sincere, a strong capable individual who is a Muslim.

ZA4 [34955-35193]

Emm he that understand the Qur'an and the Sunna of prophet Muhammad (SAW) and doesn't force people to something and understand the moralities and also the individual of the people different types of people and how you can relate to them.

ZA5 [20008-20051]

A good leader not a ruler, a good leader

ZA5 [20166-20228]

I said a good leader that has a good quality of leadership.

ZA6 [49164-49366]

Hmm an Islamic cleric with the highest knowledge in both Islamic especially someone that is very versed in Islam and at the same time has the western education, the knowledge of the western education.

ZA7 [18881-19263]

I think from, from what I think, I have heard one very good conversation with my friend and he said a very learned person who has difficult in ruling. I think its better to have someone that yes he has the knowledge of Islam and also have a very good relationship with the masses. So I think those are some of the criteria of someone that can take leadership in an Islamic state.

ZA8 [43107-43579]

Hmm I think it should be ahh let me, how would they call it, I think the person that should rule in an Islamic state should be a God fearing person, must be very, very God fearing because if a ruler of an Islamic state is not God fearing, then I don't think it will that state will be called an Islamic state. so the main, the coming of even the name from where the name comes from, Islamic state the ruler must be someone that knows the religion and is God fearing okay

ZA9 [21474-21908]

I think in Islam there are scholars, there are people who really know the teachings, who really understand the teaching of the holy book and the prophet (SAW). So there are levels, there are different, we have different levels and they respect themselves, they know the works of one another. I believe these scholars can come together and among them they should pick someone they feel has the quality to be their leader to lead them.

ZA10 [23698-23716]

That is the Amir.

ZA11 [18095-18331]

Like I said, in sharia, we have the procedures for that. We first look at the trust, the person's ability to hold trust, his knowledge, how he could manage other things, so I guess anybody that posses such qualities could be appointed.

ZA12 [10031-10046]

Waow no idea

ZA13 [11162-11284]

A well knowledgeable person who knows wide body about Islam and who can give the rights to Muslims and both non-Muslims

ZA14 [13628-13644]

A good leader

ZA16 [11129-11233]

A moral, a good character, a moral character, somebody that is morally sound and islamically oriented.

ZA18 [15580-15696]

In an Islamic state, a Muslim precisely, a Muslim should lead in an Islamic and Nigeria is not an Islamic state so.

ZA19 [20944-21036]

Ah is of cause an Imam who is free from political, economic or any other social attachment.

ZA20 [11640-11693]

The one chosen by the popular demand of the people

ZA21 [16770-17568]

Ideally anybody that is just and fair should rule under Islamic state. There is no provision, because I said ab initio that anybody who is just and fair can rule and that it is said by wise people that an Islamic state or a leader who is just and fair even if he is a non-Muslim can still rule but if a leader is unjust and unfair even if he is a Muslim he is not allowed to rule. Therefore it is to say that anybody who is just and fair and can cater for the well being of the citizenry he is allowed to rule whether a Muslim or non-Muslim because you can remember when prophet Muhammad (SAW) left Mecca he went to a particular king and seek- camped there which that particular king, he was not a Muslim. Therefore being a non-Muslim does not entail you should not rule if you are just and fair.

ZA22 [15636-15998]

The most knowledgeable and the most practicing among the Muslims. The best among us, those that have the knowledge of Islam that understand the proper teachings of Islam based on Qur'an and Sunna, and understanding of the pious predecessors. Those that people agree that are good people and have good character and human relations then they should be leaders.

ZA23 [20987-21344]

The holy prophet (SAW) has given us the chain, how to select or to elect your ruler. Somebody that best knows the Qur'an, the sunna and knows his time. If for instance today I know the holy Qur'an, I know the sunna of the holy prophet (SAW) but I don't know my time, meaning I don't study the situation in which I am living, I will never be a good leader.

ZA25 [24375-24573]

An amir as I have just said; a learned scholar chosen by the majority of the Muslims. In this situation it has to be Muslims not just nominal Muslims as practiced in the- during the sahabas' period.

ZA26 [11796-11888]

Ah there is criteria by Islam that who will rule the Muslims. I don't know about that one.

ZA27 [10126-10162]

Scholars or I can say pious people

ZA28 [22781-23077]

Well very knowledgeable, a calm person, must be knowledgeable, must be sound in Islamic knowledge and he should be able to calm himself down while in anger, we humans are always- we can say there is no how, there is no how you have a smooth ruling without being upset by certain group of people.

ZA29 [31617-32318]

The knowledgeable because if I may say there was a saying of Abu bin Dawood says a letter to the leader that who is a leader? A leader is a person that do not take the interest of his mind, but rather the interest of the decision at hand. A leader is somebody that brings his friends around who are his friends those that do not let him do what is wrong, but always encourage him to do what is right. So to me the person that is supposed to be a leader in an Islamic state are those kinds of people that have those qualities, that they are not self opinionated, they are not selfish, that they don't have this selfish interest. And they are ready to observe justice to whomever they are supposed to.

ZA30 [41792-41851]

The chief Imam or chief Amir, the accepted Islamic leader

ZA31 [16231-16415]

The person that is supposed to rule in an Islamic state is the person that has the total knowledge of God's word that is Qur'an and hadith, and has the knowledge of conveying message.

ZA32 [43092-43870]

The one that can be a ruler or leader in an Islamic state is one who is pious, who is pious in himself and learned plus knowledge, and then strong hearted someone who is not lazy, hardworking plus knowledge, learned, braved, and eh, pious. That is the one who is expected to what, to rule a state, who properly understand the Islam and the practice it and also have the piety, have the uprightness, if he is not upright even if he is learned, his knowledge appears to be useless and that if he is, he has the piety without knowledge, he has a negligence also, he has a deficiency, in short, the one that should be a leader in an Islamic state should be pious, learned, strong hearted and sane, the one that is sane, free from any illness that can affect sense of humanity, yes.

ZA33 [11666-11732]

The Caliphate should rule in an Islamic state, an Islamic leader.

ZA34 [26216-26389]

A pious Muslim, a knowledgeable person, somebody that is healthy and strong like Allah (SBUH) says...knowledge and then strong that is healthy and strong somebody, a mumin.

ZA35 [11478-11563]

The person that should rule an Islamic state is a faithful and a God fearing person.

ZA36 [18070-18121]

A Muslim, a faithful Muslim, very faithful Muslim.

ZA37 [22217-22594]

In an Islamic state the person that is supposed to rule is, there are two qualities islamically that a leader should possess. Number one, he should be a person, a faithful person that will not disappoint or cheat his own people and he should be very strong. This are the best two qualities that Islam is considering for a person to chosen to be the leader in an Islamic state

ZA38 [27358-27746]

The person to rule an Islamic state, first and foremost he must be a pious person, a believer, a believer of his faith and basically he should be a Muslim, basically he should be a Muslim and if a Muslim cannot give the justice, cannot give the rule of law and there is no other person, then from the non-Muslim that can give you your right and can make sure justice prevail is allowed.

ZA39 [38660-38775]

The person that should rule in an Islamic state is the person that people in that state agree to be their leader.

Th9.5: Appointment of Leaders in an Islamic State

FG1 [36323-36527]

There are so many ways. May be based on nomination, there is what they call election college, election college for now you can call it like INEC. This are the two ways; nomination and electoral college.

FG1 [36529-36603]

And it should not be based on status , it should only be based on honesty

FG1 [36606-36628]

There is appointment

KD1 [42888-43403]

Actually from the history of Islam, I have realize that several cases, there is no one particular way that says ok you, this is path, any time they want to elect a leader, this is how it should be done. In some cases, it might be hereditary, in some cases it might come from an election, a kind of a strong election and in some cases it might be by an appointment, just like you have ministers during a time of the sahabas. So I think depends, it is flexible, it depends on what happens in that particular society.

KD2 [17000-17116]

It should be based on election. I think if there is no consensus among the people, they should go into an election.

KD3 [13287-13377]

A leader in an Islamic state should be appointed, those with may be high moral character.

KD4 [26149-26925]

Well, the appointment of leaders in an Islamic state, my brother, it can be categorized in two ways. There is what we call the shura community that is the shura committee, a committee set aside to nominate a leader who should rule and then the leadership by appointment. Though in an Islamic state, it can be appointed, they can appoint a leader, just pick him, appointing from the majority based on what, his characteristics, his intellectuality, his knowledge and his capability of ruling and then there is another method of the shura committee whereby the committee have to sit down, deliberate, discuss intensively on how they should appoint a leader who should rule them. Those are the methods in which I understand a leader is nominated or picked up in an Islamic state.

KD5 [14711-14824]

I think is by nomination. Though sometimes people can contest for a leadership, but it is mainly by nomination.

KD6 [28868-29258]

Ah! It's by mubaya'at. The meaning of mubaya'at is who do we appoint, there is, it is just like voting in nowadays not by am the leader, no. People vote you in, and anybody that says no, and the majority carries the vote, under sharia is to take the person off so that it won't bring conflict, the, what we are experiencing now because leadership position is very, very critical in Islam.

KD7 [20571-20895]

Character, the character should be number one. Number two, the will of that person to do the job, those two things are very important. You cannot expect somebody who is a dishonest person, who is a dishonest person to come and work for you. You do not expect somebody who is a thief or a lazy person to come and govern you.

KD8 [41419-41942]

Well, in an Islamic state, a leader should emerge based on his knowledge in the Qur'an, based on his knowledge in the hadith, based on his knowledge of modernity. So, he should be, he can be appointed and he can be voted. You can meet together and say this is the person that is entitled to hold this position and just appoint him and you can also decide to go on eh consultations, you consult and look at because it is not just the knowledge, you try to look at somebody that, that has all it takes to be in leader, yes.

KD9 [25251-25949]

Of course also we have the example of Prophet (SAW). How was the prophet (SAW), how did he become the leader of the Muslims? When he ah died and we were going to have a new Khalifa ah Abubakar (rabiya'llahu) how was he selected or how did he become the leader? Then Umar (rabiya'llahu anu) Umar bin Khatab how did he become a leader? The same thing Usman bin ... When you look at these ah Khulafa rashidun Ali bin Thalib at the end of the day, you find that they have different ways in which they became leaders. So we are still going back to what I said earlier, a lot of education. How did they become leaders? When we study that we have an input of how to select our leaders in an Islamic state.

KD10 [19737-20144]

Ah in an Islamic state, the leader is, one is going to leader if, the person that is a leader they can nominate, he can be nominated like the way Abubakar did Rabiya'llah. Abubakar nominated Umar Rabiyyalahu anu or the al-shura that is how Umar did, the al-shura can nominate the person who is going rule them. Are you getting me? So these are the ways that we are going to nominate a leader in the sharia.

KD11 [23459-23777]

The most qualified should lead. A leader could be appointed ah the most qualified, knowledgeable and God fearing and a leader could be appointed or should be appointed largely through the committee of shura or the ahlu'l all wal akat which is mainly ahlu'l all wal akat that is those who really matter in the society.

KD12 [29452-29534]

Ah you see, firstly they should appoint those who are God fearing and energetic.

KD13 [9929-9989]

It's being justified based on the knowledge of the Qur'an.

KD14 [12469-12541]

A well learned person, and someone that has a high moral and character.

KD15 [19282-19565]

By following the laws of Allah, by following normal procedure, by electing ahm not by coup or whatever they call it nowadays, so is the opinion of the people not the opinion of the leader itself. So if the opinion of the people can be ah respected, I think everything will be okay.

KD16 [10269-10494]

Ah all the political offices in an Islamic state, they are not elective. People are appointed, they are not elective offices. You have to put into consideration the ability of such a person, how trustworthy such a person is.

KD17 [34979-35309]

Just like the way it has already been appointed, the Shura, there is a shura committee, there is a committee, there is a set of people, spiritual people, elders, different people, Shura, a committee that appoints leaders. They will take people, check people, screen them, they know things to check in putting leaders in position.

KD18 [16328-16346]

Is by nomination

KD19 [21628-21901]

Like I said earlier, leader should be appointed based on their fear of God, and those with vast knowledge of the religion. Anytime a leader is to be appointed in an Islamic state that is the criteria they should look for, fear of Allah and knowledge, knowledgeable person.

KD20 [15960-16173]

They should appoint their leader through the qualification of Islamic knowledge, and the, some other qualification and the behaviours and the attitudes of the person of whom they are trying to choose. That's all.

KD21 [14304-14465]

Ah I say we look at those who have had a vast knowledge of Islam as a whole, who have had a good relationship with the people and paying consideration into age.

KD23 [14879-14939]

They should be appointed based on their credibility and merit.

KD24 [52448-54305]

Based on their own qualities. If a leader possesses the qualities which we mentioned earlier, then he should be leader and the mode of choosing a leader may vary, for example, you can choose ten people, ten people, which you think they all possess those qualities. Put them in one place, they should look amongst themselves who do they think, they all possess the qualities, they should choose one amongst themselves. One, this is one of the most, I think, good way to choose leaders because it is not like politics that maybe I will say okay please pardon me, you should, sorry let me start, next tenure you should come into power, no. That one should not be. They should be pious to their hearts. Each one should look at the person sitting next to him, they know themselves, they know the best. In an Islamic state, if it is possible we need the best, the one that has the qualities of a leader, but the best who can rule, make sure that the umma, the community is moving forward, achieving goals, not going back, not staying back, no. They should move forward and the one that knows that he knows how to tackle problems, not the one that his own ambition is always fighting, fighting, fighting, killing, no. He that knows how to settle problems, even if fighting comes into the community, he should think of ways to settle not with fighting so that people will be moving forward because fighting, we burn houses, shops, wealth, killing people, no. Think of, no, we should not fight, what is the problem? So, so, so thing okay please you should be patient, after one month we will get back to you and we will discuss with my own followers, they should discuss to see, they should look at our people, their own life, their children so, so, so things. What are the things we should do so that this fighting we should stop it? We should be moving forward.

KD25 [73396-74604]

Leaders will be, the appointment of leaders in an Islamic state depends on the shura committee that is consultative committee. It was when it was that it was organized when during the rule of Umar bin al-Khattab when he was the second Caliph after the death of Abubakar Sadiq, so before his death he now called his some of his friends, he chose some of his friends who were also part of the companions of the prophet (SAW) and said if he dies they are the ones to appoint the next Khalifa, those are the consultative, they are known as (he recites in Arabic) they are the people of that can tie and can untie, anything they tie it stands, anything they untie it stands meaning anybody they appoint it stands, no one can, no one can change it because they are, they are trusted people, they are God fearing people, they have the knowledge, they are fearless when it comes to speaking the truth and standing by the truth and a host of other objectives that could be done by them. So they are the ones, is not just, is not just be based on everybody's opinion no, no, no those (he recites in Arabic) if they should sit and come out with a single person that this is supposed to be like that nobody should argue that.

KD26 [17497-17888]

Hmm I think leaders should be appointed in an Islamic state based on how truthful, how honest as in how firmly engrained in religion is the person because you can just pick somebody that knows nothing about the din and put him as a leader, somebody who is corrupt cannot be a leader in an Islamic, somebody that is not trustworthy cannot be a leader, so I think that should be the guide.

KD27 [21052-21097]

Through consensus, through consensus (Shura)

KD28 [24135-24466]

Appointing a leader in an Islamic state, you must know who the person is to be the leader. The type of person he is. Is he wanted by the community or the majority of the people and what is his own attitude, his own relationship with human beings within the community? How does he...then what is his own...towards the service of God.

KD29 [14840-14914]

In an Islamic state, leaders can be appointed through election of course.

KD30 [25696-26022]

As it is in an Islamic state the best among people is being selected to lead. I think Islam is the most democratic religion in the world where we bring out the best out of them out of the best for as long as they satisfy a given criteria then we bring these people forward and then we select the best out of them.

KD31 [15114-15443]

Leaders should be should only be appointed by selecting or choosing those people we feel can handle the affairs of the people they rule, those people with qualities of a leader when I say with qualities of a leader's patience, fairness, they should be just, they shouldn't be biased, now a person with such qualities as I think.

KD32 [22516-22938]

In an Islamic state we do not have anything and democracy, so there is no any election, so just like during the period of the sahabas, the leaders are appointed based on their honesty, knowledge and your submission to the Allah, you following the teachings of the prophet, so they must learn it, most at times they must learn it, the Imam, the person who is leading the people in the mosque is the leader in the state.

KD33 [18021-18863]

A leader should be appointed in an Islamic state through the, how, if we can remember during after the death of prophet Muhammad (SAW) there are several things that that happened during the Khalifa of when the prophet (SAW) died he didn't appoint any one and the big, the ulama, the sahaba the most influential among them sit together and discuss, from there they appoint their leader, after the death of their leader Abubakar Sadiq, after his death they chose, he appoint personally Umar bin al-Khattab to be a leader, after him when Umar bin al-Khattab is about to die, he choose among the most influential people around him, to choose a leader from them, so if we look at this, I think this is how we should choose our leader in an Islamic state, we look at how, who is the most influential not even who is the most knowledgeable among them.

KD34 [20032-20590]

A leader should be appointed in an Islamic state, there are different ways of appointing a leader in an Islamic state. One, there is appointment, the leaders of that particular group may decide that somebody has a particular qualities to rule and then secondly, there is voting that we decided okay if there is a conflict of interest that some group decided to pick up a particular person and the other group decide to pick up a particular person, then they vote should take place, should take place between the leaders and the winner should be emerged.

KD35 [20896-21078]

By simple majority, there should be an election because Islam encourages an election, fair and credible elections. Once people decide on who will govern them that is proper way of...

KN1 [47080-48089]

Yes, they can be appointed democratically and equally they can be appointed by leaders because you know that we had four Caliphs after the prophet. The first one was appointed by all that is Caliph Abubakar radiyallahu ta'ala. The second one Caliph

Umar, he was chosen by Abubakar, he said that this is the right man that I think is the best for you and everybody accepted because he is good. And the third one that was Uthman, a committee was constituted by Umar of four or five people, he said that they should choose a Caliph or the leader between them and he said that the fifth one is his son and he said that my son should not be elected, the reason for including him is this in case you have a stalemate, two two, the vote is two two, I want him to cast the deciding vote, the third vote. So that is how Now the fourth one Ali was through a democratic process where everybody agreed that he is the right person to be the next Caliph. So it is all upon the circumstance and how the situation was, yes

It should be democratic possibly through an electoral college because...

KN2 [26385-26579]

That people should vote for representatives and those representatives should vote for the leader. That is an electoral college because it took place during or after the demise of the prophet.

KN4 [40086-40575]

That is when we are talking of Islamic republic, an Islamic republic, Islamic is a dynamic religion is going with time. You can use democracy and elect a leader like what is happening now around the world because you can't differentiate between Saudi Arabia, Iran and other world and the other world, I think in country like Nigeria where the multi-plural, multi plural state, you can only come out and seek the mandate of the people when you are of good behavior and character: election.

KN5 [18761-18914]

That should be with the consultation of the Shura looking at what we call competence only competence, then the shura should do that based on competence.

KN6 [21420-22072]

So, the leaders can be appointed through ah ah maybe through the representation of the people like what is happen after the death of the prophet Mohammed (SAW) people from Medina gathered and people from Mecca gathered and they unanimously nominated Sayyidina Abubakar. So and even it happened after the death of Abubakar this is what is happened, after the death of Umar this is what happened, so we are going to nominate some people, for example, like what is happening now in democracy ko, we can nominate for example delegates ko, may be to nominate your leader. So maybe it can be found maybe this system of democracy is coming from that Islamic.

KN7 [20045-20225]

Well ehm, it should be appointed not, it should be appointed based on merit, not based on sentiment or political influence. It should be appointed based on merit and merit alone.

KN8 [20577-21217]

I think the holy prophet (SAW) has answered this. That is the justification of appointing a leader should not based on favoritism, you understand, but rather it should be based, you understand, on prioritism. Let the qualified people, you understand, be appointed. Mohammed (SAW) have said a leader of the Islamic state, in Islam they call them Imam, you understand, let them be noted with knowledge, let it be a married person, you understand, let it be someone that had experience about how to gather a society. Don't let it be biased individual, you understand. Let it be physical fit individual, you understand, and so on and so forth.

KN9 [19507-19828]

The leaders have to be appointed in an Islamic state based on certain criteria most of which focus around or revolves around the intent, the true nature of an individual, how just he is, how equitable he is, how fair he is, you know, how in the manner he treats other people, the respect he accords to other people, yes.

KN10 [14576-14893]

Yah, it can be-the people that will choose the righteous person and knowledgeable person who can, when I say knowledgeable person I mean the person that has Islamic knowledge that is a mufti, yes he is the one who-that is how-he is the one that the people would choose. It is not by election or something like that.

KN11 [19204-19396]

Through Shura that is not by election but through shura. Shura means to get some knowledgeable people who are well learned to sit down and discuss ah which person is supposed to be appointed.

KN13 [22096-22342]

I think leaders should be appointed based on ehm based on-it is not based on monarchy ok let me make this-they should be pointed based on true consultation and through the most knowledgeable and the person that is actually fit for that position.

KN14 [15595-16066]

Yes, the leaders should be appointed by the majority, by the majority if the majority and the honest people ah say, it can be the ah ah appointment of the ruler or the leader in Islamic state can two types: The respected elders in the community that are representing people can come and say we appointed so so so person as a leader and the people can come and say we want this to be leader, in as much as those people are the majority say can be a leader of course

KN15 [16942-17009]

Uh a leader should be appointed in an Islamic state through shura.

KN16 [8668-8701]

Well through shura consultative.

KN17 [21676-21939]

Yes we, leaders are appointed in an Islamic state, I think, right from the protective era it's the believe based to true knowledge. That's the the procedure they normally use to appoint leaders not even by blood rights but through knowledge or who is more capable

KN18 [34326-34441]

They should be elected on the basis, they should be elected on the basis of normal liberal democratic principles.

KN18 [34461-34566]

Popular votes let the right person emerge through normal democratic process and gain the consent of all.

KN19 [21940-22080]

Ah they should be appointed based on 'meritism' that is when they are qualified, you understand, and they understand the teaching of Islam.

KN20 [15155-15248]

A leader should be appointed through the normal thing Islamic injunction spelt eh spelt out.

KN20 [15498-15766]

There are some eh there are some procedures Islam Islamic people follow in choosing a leader. One, has to be a male, a Muslim, somebody that is very very plain that is a just person, that has a work he is doing, that will not depend on the resources of the community.

KN21 [9330-9490]

A leader should be appointed based on merit in the sense that he has to be just, just like during the time of Caliph Abubakar, he was appointed based on merit.

KN22 [18240-18368]

Leaders should be appointed based on integrity, and based on knowledge, and based on meritocracy as said by Abdullah Bin Fodio.

KN23 [13932-14016]

Like I said, there are criteria already which me I don't have the knowledge of that

KN24 [13775-13852]

They have to be appointed based on knowledge and experience over the religion

KN25 [20094-20532]

It should be, as I have mentioned earlier, either through popular participation, I think there was a situation where people had to openly cast their votes and it could also be using an electoral college consisting of highly respected elder statesmen. So sometimes they are saddle with the responsibility because of the belief that they are rational and because of their experience the can choose an adequate leader for an Islamic state.

KN26 [18662-19480]

Mostly leaders in appointed-the history-we go back to history, how the Khalifas were being appointed during the Islamic state is mostly by selection. But you have to be the most pious persons, you know. But you see this is the problem. And there you can see the problem of establishing a true Islamic state in contemporary era because then those that are responsible for selecting the Khalifa are pious people and they will try as much as possible to be objective as possible. How can you achieve that in a contemporary era as we have now? That is one. Number two, that Khalifa that will be selected based on- what are the requirement, if I may say, that can be used, I don't know if you understand, the criteria, the bench mark, you know, these things are more better being done then but now not too clear really.

KN26 [19584-19964]

No, no why because you there is difference between Islam and tradition. I think those that would want to do that are those that interweave the Islamic religion with traditional institutions. But since it is based on objectivity, it is based on capacity, it is not automatic because you are a son of a Khalifa you can be able to have the capacity of being a kahlifa, for instance.

KN26 [20183-20596]

That is why I say we go back to history. It was criteria then. For Instance it is that there was no distortion between the Khalifa and his son and teachings, probably even before he was even appointed he had been tested in many capacities for instance in running a Caliphate and he has been found not wanting, it has been found that he can actually perform, but how well can you enshrine this in the present era?

KN27 [15812-15854]

They should be appointed based on merit.

KN28 [12450-12489]

I think this should be based on merit

KN30 [14113-14123]

By merit

KN31 [18129-18386]

You know, just like I told you, just like I know if I am not mistaken as I read politically they are being nominated mostly because you don't come out and say you want a position in Islam, which means we have a target. It is just people that nominate you ...

KN31 [18432-18656]

Ah normally I know Islamically if you want-if they are choosing you as a leader, first you must be sane, you must not have any disability since you are a leader and you must have a prior and a very good knowledge of Islam.

KN32 [8061-8236]

it's a very simple thing. Leaders in an Islamic state should be appointed by the dictates of the Qur'an and the... other way to merit okay. A Hausa man will say chanchanta yes.

KN33 [7194-7214]

They can be elected

KN34 [10334-10590]

They should be appointed based on the principles of hadith and Qur'an because there are established standards in the hadith that a leader is supposed to, then we should be governing by those principles contained in the hadith before appointing any leader.

KN35 [12804-12899]

So a leader can be appointed, he can be selected or he can be elected according to the sharia.

KN36 [13204-13390]

They can be selected, can be appointed and can be in election process but those that will be given the position of leadership should be people that would be of unquestionable character.

KN37 [11541-12082]

You see the appointment of leaders in an Islamic state should be based on how the prophet Mohammed, peace be upon him, started everything. I think the prophet when he was leaving the world appointed Abubakar and when Sayyidina Abubakar too was leaving he appointed... Sayyidina Umar, when Umar was leaving he appointed Ali and, you see, all of these ahm the appointment is based on criteria and these criteria has to do with your potential as a good Muslim, your faith. How strong is your faith in Islam, not on blood and not on hereditary.

KN38 [8217-8454]

There are a lot of criteria needed for one to be an Amir; one is the vastness in knowledge. You must have the knowledge of the sharia very, very well. And one is attakuwa, there is piety and believe in Allah himself and so many others.

KN39 [14877-14941]

Leaders should be appointed in Islamic state through elections.

KN40 [13400-13626]

By having some qualities, qualities in the sense that we mean the person has to be a Muslim and has to be a person of honesty and has to be a person of trustfulness and has to be a person of competence and so on and so forth.

KN41 [11275-11414]

A leader should be appointed based on the knowledge he has pertaining to Islam and the capability of being a leader should be considered.

KN42 [22623-23165]

They can either be selected which means through a board, through an Islamic committee like through the ehn committee of scholars whereby they ehn seek, they view candidates and select the ones that are, that would be good for them, or would be a good leader, they interview them and they go through rigorous screenings to see whether they fit or not or they should be appointed through the people, people and fearing, God fearing and just people should be justly and just candidate should be selected and the people should do the appointing.

KN43 [19139-19250]

As I told you based on their grasp and understanding of Islamic knowledge and what Islamic state is all about.

KN44 [13761-14044]

No, there are criteria. People that, there are number of criteria that would, has to be followed in appointing leaders in an Islamic state and this has been adequately, adequately explained by authority in the field and I don't really have the wisdom to recall some of this things.

KN45 [17052-17859]

No ehh, Islam I think is not ehh do not provide a definite ehh way, definite principle of how its leaders should be appointed. But we can if we ehh trace through Islamic history we can see how different leaders are appointed, maybe the first ehh Caliph after the prophet was endorsed through ehh by the prophet himself before he died. And then when Abubakar was about to die, he nominated and endorsed Umar as the second caliph, but when ehh the companion Umar Rabiyyallahu anuhu was stabbed and he was on his death bed, he formed an electoral college of seven people to choose the next Caliph of the Umma, among the seven chosen ones. So ehh, ehh there can be ehh a popular democracy to vote a Muslim leader or you can vote a Muslim leader through the Electoral College as shown by ehh Umar bin Khatib yes.

KN46 [33588-34651]

Islamic history thought us that leaders could be appointed or elected or selected. Some of them are selected, some of them were selected, some of them were elected, some of them were appointed. So you can see that all these ahh ways are not against Islam. You can elect your leader, you can select by recommending or ahh maybe even appointing. So, for example, the first Caliph Abubakar (rabiyyallahu an) before when he felt that ah his death approached, he single handedly appointed Umar to be his next successor, definitely after consultations with ah those who are ehh who are ahh considered to be influential in the society. Some of them expressed their fears while the third Caliph was a product of sort of election because certain members were appointed to elect a leader and from among them. So you can see that there is no definite way of how a Muslim leader should emerge. A Muslim leader can emerge through appointment, through ehh through appointment, through election or any other way which is not ahh against the interest of the subjects or citizens.

KN47 [33648-35256]

A leader should be appointed following-because, you know, nowadays there is this issue of democratic consolidation, you know, all over the world, you know, it is the era whereby ahh democracy is taking, you know, eating deep into the world society. You simply see that, no the leader should be appointed by the principles of Islamic state. If they allow you to go, you know, through the Electoral College, you know, whereby you can simply be picked by some representative, few assigned representative on so many other reasons, regions and the communities then this is also a democracy. So you can simply select your leaders through a peaceful way of selecting some people who will select those leaders according to the Islamic principles, and it is not a rule that leaders should not be selected in a democratic way. It is not a rule that you have to inherit the leadership because when it started, the caliphate of Muhammad (SAW) was started ah, you know, when ahh the first Caliph Abubakar (alayhisalam) inherited the caliphate, you know, he wasn't the son, you understand, of Muhammad, and the one Umar inherited Abubakar in caliphate leadership, he wasn't the son of Abubakar and so on until it reached the time of Muawuya that's the time of Muawuya they begin to say ooh somebody must be a son of this person to inherit the person on the throne, you understand, so it is not a rule, it is not stated anywhere in the Islamic document, you understand, but it is just a conventional way of doing it. So you can change it if you like, you can just go and change it and introduce proper democratic forces.

KN48 [10808-10853]

So the leader should be elected by election.

KN49 [19284-19445]

Through consensus or through a democratically instituted institution or by what we call an Electoral College that is in accordance with Islamic norms and values.

KN50 [9617-9683]

Either by election using the Electoral College or by appointment.

KN52 [25465-25932]

In an Islamic state there has been a standard established historically under which a leader, you know, is appointed. You know through the shura council which some people describe the Shura council for instance as a form of democracy, but restricted or limited democracy because not everyone is involved in the selection or appointment of the leader. But some of the prominent learned members of the society are, you know, given the responsibility to select the best.

KN53 [12721-13010]

They are expected to be appointed based on their knowledge and how much they really understand the Holy Qur'an. Hope they do not have it in another perception, translating it to another meaning, but someone who really possess the idea of the Holy Qur'an and really understood. That's all.

KN54 [6472-6515]

Through the shura, yes, through the shura.

KN55 [7770-7821]

They should be appointed through council of elders

KN56 [12342-12421]

Leaders should be appointed through the Shura commission in an Islamic state.

KN57 [12509-12701]

There are many ways, but leaders must be a knowledgeable person, must be fit, must be vibrant who does not fear. All these are scales of measuring or appointing a leader in an Islamic state.

KN58 [28179-28867]

Appointment in Islam is based on what you call quality per excellence. You are not appointed because of the fact that you are rich or because you are a noble or because you are handsome. You are appointed because of the piousness exalted by you. You are appointed because of the qualities you have. That is why we say that according to Al-Mawardi, a leader or one of the leadership qualities that he shortlisted or outlined includes one: Adal a leader must be just. Two: a leader must not be a slave to his inordinate desires. Three: a leader must be learned or learned in the science and acts of the Qur'an and Hadith. These are some of the qualities that a leader should possess.

KN59 [21552-21846]

Actually leader should be appointed based on his knowledge, charisma ahm some physical features, you understand. I think they should consider all this features before electing an Islamic person, a person that is pious and a very humble person, a person that can lead not an autocratic person.

KN60 [22668-22697]

I have spoken also about it.

KN61 [10626-10809]

Ahh, it depends on the some of the maybe, it depends on the society and the criteria. Some they look at the elder person, some would look at the most religious person. It depends on...

KN62 [34779-34955]

As I said earlier, by ehh let's say after a certain conference, a discussion, opinion poll, you understand, yah, something like that, through this, then a leader is appointed.

KN64 [17820-18269]

Is ahh, this will be, like I said to you, will be based on the situation, but in Islam you can appoint the leaders. I agree with this. You can appoint them and you can elect ehn like what Umar did, he selected I think seven people hmm to pick one among them to be the Khalifa and the Abubakar appointed the Umar to be the Khalifa. You agree with me, you know this ko? So in Islam, you can appoint and you can elect, depending on the situation, hmm.

KN65 [21364-21470]

Leaders should be appointed in an Islamic state using, like I told you, through the Shura committee, yes.

KN66 [12196-12311]

Leaders should be appointed in an Islamic state, leaders should be selected in an Islamic state through the shura.

KN67 [13803-13951]

Okay, ah leaders ah I think, as I said earlier, they should be appointed according to Shura ah which they are the one that would choose the leader.

KN68 [6454-6472]

Through the Shura

KN69 [25181-25295]

By through major, by means of majalis shura, we have Majalis shura, a leader could be appointed by majalis shura.

KN71 [42243-42792]

It depends upon the time and the circumstances. Let me give you an example of Abubakar the first Khalifa of Islam (rabiyyallahu anu) Who appointed him? Was it the prophet? No. But who first assigned him, assigned leadership to him? It was Umar who owed him for the first allegiance. Then the rest of the people did. But when Abubakar was to depart from this earth, he appointed Umar and the people followed him. When Umar was dying, he appointed a committee of shura of thirteen people to pick one of them, but only with the given only preference.

KN71 [42834-43351]

The procedure has to do with the time and place? like this the Emir Suleiman the first Fulani emir in Kano. Who appointed him? That was Shehu because he was the army commander of Shehu Usman bin Fodio, so when Kano was conquered, he was made to be the emir and that was all. By who? He was appointed an emir and that was all. Mohammed Bello the son of Shehu Usman bin Fodio, he appointed himself, isn't it? And he was, the people owe allegiance to him and that was all. So it depends upon the time and circumstances.

KN72 [22938-23046]

Yes, it is through, it can be through knowledge or through heritage and it can be through nominations, yes.

KN73 [22298-22315]

Just by choice.

KN73 [22332-22515]

Yah. There will be a council-shura, they are the Shura that decide the choice of who is going to be a leader. It's not by election. It is be by choice from the council that is shura.

KN74 [34002-34234]

Okay, the leader should be appointed in an Islamic state by setting a committee of shura that is shura committee as ahh as what had happened during ehh prophet, during ehh Abubakar (rabiyyallahu anu), that is the shura of committee.

KN75 [36690-36767]

It can be through appointment, it can be through election, anyone can serve.

KN76 [24454-24508]

Should be appointed by consensus or through election.

KN76 [24572-24894]

Appointment, when we talk of consensus we may have so many people that are qualified to lead, but we may have consensus among themselves to identify one who is more qualified than others and if you can't achieve that then you can have an open election whereby you can nominate people or people can come out and be elected.

KN76 [25110-25607]

Well every other individual is entailed to elect, he has the right to elect, every individual, adult, any adult can elect because if you look at the Islamic teachings you can see that ahh all prohibitions and all other functions come into effect when somebody attain the age of puberty or when he is 18years, person who is 18years is the same thing with somebody who is 70, 50, 60. So in my opinion, any adult should have the franchise, should be given that franchise to elect whoever he wishes.

KN78 [39526-39556]

Through mutual consultation.

KN78 [39638-39755]

When I say consultation, I mean consultation among the Umma. It could be one of the crucial principles of democracy.

KN80 [31898-32021]

The leader should be appointed in an Islamic state through the Islamic process provided by Islam in the Shura committee.

KN81 [17268-17343]

Okay in ahh Islamic a leader should be appointed through shura committee.

KN81 [17462-17825]

No the shura committee ahh was a committee delegated or assigned, if I could remember during the life time of the prophet, there was a committee by some ahh by some companions, so that committee can be more active during the Khalifa Usman (rabiyyallahu anu) so he divided this committee (too noisy can't hear) ...the leader should be elected through this committee.

KN82 [21864-22539]

There are four ways by which a leader can be appointed in Islamic state. The four ways, number one is through selection, someone Amirul mu'minin, for example, can anoint someone to become a leader as the prophet Muhammad (SAW) anointed or showed some good attitude of Abubakar and made a provision and cleared a way for him to emerge as Amirul mu'minin that is number one. Number two, leadership status is acquired in Islamic state through electoral college where some people represent others in choosing who to rule in Islam and the Umma themselves can be given the opportunity to decide on whom they think should act as the leader I mentioned three ko? Number four election

KN83 [13364-13449]

Through any peaceful means, for example, appointments, election, heredity and so on.

KN84 [16090-16284]

So in Islamic state there is what we call shura committee. This shura committee has the power to choose a leader because all are responsible people. Islam does not recognize popular democracy.

KN85 [18482-18720]

In an Islamic state, we have seen so many examples. A leader can be elected like Abubakar, a leader can be selected like ahh Umar, a leader can be anointed like Sayyidina Ali, a leader can also inherit through succession like Mu'awiya.

ZA1 [20564-21166]

So my question is am not in Islamic state, but if you are talking about Islamically, now what happened during after the demise of Rasul (SAW) is Khalifa. Now before Khalifa died like what happened with Umar, Umar set up a committee to appoint one of them in the six. This is how Islam use to appoint a leader that is through shura. But in a present where we are in Nigeria, we don't have that Islamic state. So if you are talking about traditional rulers, go to traditional rulers, we have king makers. If you are talking about this democracy, recently we just vote for people. So this how people are.

ZA2 [19566-20731]

Ahh yes when we go by the teaching of Islam normally a leader have to be elected going by emm we have that election that is why when we are talking about politics, we have politics in Islam because a leader can be elected and we have to look at the criteria, he has some criteria qualities which we study before the election commence, we look at the study in sense that we look at the age, age is also a chain, the knowledge is a chain, then attitude, behavior is a chain, all these things are change that we need to view them yeah if we view those things and we observe that person have met all the qualities and if he is not only person, this is when that this one met that quality, this one met that quality then we will now come in okay, lets go by voting, how many of you want this man, how many of you want this man, not that you will just come in and nominate someone, who people who can control a better there in the system, who are better than him in the system, who have read, who have the principles than he do, you say bringing him just because you want to maybe use him, no, that is not the principle, we don't-Islam go with a particular criteria.

ZA3 [17459-17524]

In Islamic state the best way of appointment there is by shura.

ZA4 [36328-36881]

Yes leader, any person that says I want this position, the prophet said that don't give him, yes. He that will do good and will not even want to be, you have to force him, but immediately he wants something, there is something that he is aiming that he has a hidden agenda. So in Islam if you say you want, we are not going to give you unless you are not even interested, but we know that you are very kind, it is we that will judge that he is a very kind person, this is what he does so let's call him into it. It is not you that will bring yourself.

ZA5 [20930-21122]

They have to have record, antecedent, they you understand, because we can't have leader without record, no antecedent and the leader have to be appointed based on the record and antecedent.

ZA6 [51094-51339]

Ehm leaders must be appointed based on merit, merit that is Islamic, they have to be very, they have to be scholars, scholars as in Islam, those that are very versed in Islamic knowledge and those that have the knowledge of the western education

ZA7 [20712-20991]

Leaders should be appointed in an Islamic state, is similar to the western way of voting someone in into power or office. It should be by accessing is background, by accessing his influence to the society and also be accessing is interest and religious practices. That is all.

ZA8 [46535-46609]

Leader should be appointed based on the piousness and their fear of God.

ZA9 [23932-24000]

Leaders should be appointed according to their level of knowledge.

ZA9 [24024-24248]

Of the teachings of both the Qur'an and the Hadith and other books. We have Fiqh and other, we have Durusul Awaliyya all those basic teachings of Islam the person with the highest knowledge of it should be made the leader.

ZA10 [24452-24650]

Its based on some categories, that's they must memorize Qur'an and can translate it and should know Tafsir and can also translate all the hadith and should know some teachings of the prophet (SAW).

ZA11 [19434-19496]

By qualities, you look at the qualities and then you appoint.

ZA12 [10571-10625]

By following how it is listed in the Qur'an and hadith

ZA13 [11728-11896]

Well I think based on Islam, is not about voting the way we are democratically, it is about who have more knowledge and who have stood up right from his own childhood.

ZA14 [15131-15217]

A leader should be appointed based on his record and his history and his antecedent.

ZA15 [18558-18828]

How should leaders be appointed, normally if you trace back, during the time of the holy prophet, it is the shura, what they call shura is a committee or group of people, knowledgeable people that will sit and appoint, seven man committee that will appoint the leader.

ZA16 [12059-12226]

Leaders are appointed based on shura, based on shura committee. There should be a shura committee as it is done during the time of the prophet (SAW) and his Khalifas.

ZA17 [12701-13032]

They can be appointed by the way ah Umar pointed. Umar rabiyyalahu anu have pointed, Abubakar has pointed and he and Umar has selected ko, if you read, Umar has selected he said, if you cannot take this one, take this one, if you cannot take this one then after they agreed about Usman that is by selection, the leader can select.

ZA18 [16839-17157]

Well, in those days that was during the sahaba, they nominate, you understand, there is committee of shura, but nowadays things have changed, I think you understand, for now we can continue with this pattern, but when condition, when situation change, then we now go back to the former, or to the, yes to the former.

ZA19 [22293-22627]

Ah leaders are being appointed in an Islamic state through nomination not actually through popular election yes, yes. And there are certain criteria which are been taken in place, looking at the piousness and chastity of that particular individual that actually gives him the kind of privilege to become a leader in an Islamic state.

ZA20 [12877-13089]

I have said it-consensus. Election is part of it as it happened during, shortly after the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) when the first Caliph was to be appointed that is Sayyidina Abubakar. So they conducted election.

ZA21 [18500-18830]

In an Islamic state we say that amm anybody, anybody who people are certain about, they deem ok this man can be good to us, he can carry us along, he can be responsible and think, then by that you should come out say I want this to be my leader even if it means joining queue and ok this is all referendum and things like that.

ZA22 [17298-17638]

So we can come up with Shura committee. We have learned erudite scholars among the Muslims which we know them they come together and appoint somebody whom they think they can lead the umma. Yah or if we already have a leader he can appoint somebody to continue with that as it happened during the time of Caliph Abubakar, Umar and Uthman.

ZA23 [22311-23143]

Leaders are appointed as either by succession or through Shura or by appointment. If you take for instance during the time of the prophet (SAW) before the prophet (SAW) depart this world he appointed Abubakar indirectly not openly, he appointed him to be his successor. And that is when if he will be excused for not leading people in prayers he will ask Abubakar to go and lead people in prayers. So the Muslims then when the prophet (SAW) departed the world the made use of that and said ah he has already appointed his successor, he will take the lead. And after him then Shura came on board where the incumbent leader will now constitute some people that are very versed in almost all aspects of life. He will ask them to select somebody that will succeed him. And that is what Saudi Arabia to this moment are practicing.

ZA24 [29117-29696]

As I said it is hierarchical appointment. They are appointed that is in Islamic state if you have president for example, when the president dies, the president will be there up to the end of his life, therefore after that then they will appoint another one as the president. There is not supposed to be election, like what they are doing in Saudi Arabia now. They have a king, immediately the king passes on, they will elect another one, they will select another one-they are doing selection. I think that is the little one I can say about the leadership appointment in Islam.

ZA25 [25829-26084]

Yes. It is by identifying the true and practicing learned Islamic scholars, then they come together and they will vote for one of them to become the ruler not every Tom, Dick and Harry coming out to vote because not everybody knows the Islamic teachings.

ZA26 [12749-12818]

Islam has already provided in the books so you can consult the books

ZA27 [11022-11079]

They should be appointed through the teachings of Qur'an

ZA28 [23824-23985]

Well it should basically, this are my own opinion, they should basically based on your understanding of the religion and knowledge you have about the religion.

ZA29 [33591-33791]

They should be appointed in the form of Hierarchy that is in the form of hierarchy they should be appointed is based on their knowledge, their ability to disseminate justice, observe justice rather.

ZA30 [42921-43797]

So, it happens that sometimes, according to Islam, leaders will be shown by the predecessor or appointed. It is not through inheritance, like the way traditional rulers are and it is not through election like the way the democratic people, democratic, democratic people do. It is ahh, it usually, may be say after the demise of the Rasulillah, Abubakar took over then after Abubakar, Umar took over. That is just followed the, follow the eh, how can I put it, ehh, those that, ahh predecessors ahm no. Are you now...the leadership in Islam is not inheritance, as I said earlier, and it is not through election, it is just or it is more even closer to election, but it is not election, but we usually call it mubayyah in Islam. It is not, they will just may be before somebody, before, it was only, even nobody among, among them that go out that somebody will take over from...

ZA31 [17294-17403]

The way I said earlier on, Islamic leaders should be appointed based on their knowledge about the religion.

ZA32 [46350-47217]

Leader is appointed in an Islamic state by a committee, which is called shura committee, and it is by what, by nomination, by selection, not by election in an Islamic state. The learned people in the state are what, are the ones who are responsible for selecting the leaders, the learned and the best personalities within the state unlike our today's system or democratic system whereas the learned personalities in the society or religious scholar in the society. For example, a professor in Islamic studies or in western education is having what, one vote, the same as a lay man or never attend school is having what, one vote, but in Islam, in Islamic state is otherwise. So it is not like that, a person or a leader is selected by learned personalities in a, in that personalities, sometimes they are under the community of shura, we call it the shura community.

ZA33 [12461-12681]

A leader should be appointed in an Islamic state based on his knowledge of the Qur'an and the Sunna and the history of the various caliphates in the world. And of course he should be at least an elderly to some extent.

ZA34 [27833-28276]

There are three ways. One, through Shura that is consultative committee like what Umar (Rabiyyalahu) did when he selected six of the companions to choose among them a leader. Two, the way Abubakar (Rabiyyalahu) made to Umar that is maybe by selecting and then giving him an allegiance bay'a that he should be the leader. Thirdly, the way Ali ibn Talib became Caliph. So it is Shura through may be successor-ship and then Bay'a. That is that.

ZA35 [12198-12312]

In an Islamic state the leader should be appointed according to their Iman and based on their Islamic knowledge.

ZA36 [18964-19365]

Hmm their age should be put into consideration because the way a matured person behaves or acts is better than a young person, so age matters and then a knowledgeable person. Once a person is knowledgeable, at least he has the knowledge of what he is doing. He knows what he is doing whether it is good or bad, so a knowledgeable person matters. He has to be knowledgeable and he has to be faithful.

ZA37 [24753-25229]

So I stated earlier normally we consider two qualities. It depends on that issue, if it is the issue of maybe in the issue of mosque, an Imam for example, then learning is the knowledge, and then that issue of faithfulness. If it is in the issue of, if it is about the issue of may be ah where application of force is required, so you have to look for a strong person, but he must be of the same quality of that faithfulness. These are the things, it depends on that person.

ZA38 [28565-28759]

Actually first and foremost it should be on consensus, agreement, if there is no agreement the next thing it should be on democratic setup through election, but it should start from consensus.

ZA39 [39874-40792]

Leaders are appointed in an Islamic state through shura. Shura simply means a committee that delegate among people with knowledge, with the approval of the people in the society, so people form the shura. Shura is a group of persons who are appointed by people like delegates, but there are criteria in doing that. People with sound knowledge of Islam, with sound knowledge of modern education, people with, just I can summarize it that people with that fits all the qualities that is expected with a person in the society with outstanding honest, diligent, learned and whatever, educated and whatever you can call them. When those people are selected, they call, they have form a shura, shura is just a committee of these people. So they make the appointment or selection among themselves or they make the selections to a particular person once he is selected by those people, he becomes a leader in Islamic state.

Th9.6: Democratic and Islamic State

FG1 [35127-35511]

In Islam, Islam is meant for peace, normally Islam means peace. So Islam give opportunity, Islam is the first religion to even give women a chance to practice and to even give women absolute independence, their rights to practice all their rights. So for me there should be this practices, there should be this free will if the wills are not in contrast with the teaching of Islam.

KD1 [39443-41312]

Democracy should be, to me, in the selection of leadership. But when it comes to what is right and what is wrong, there is no need of democracy. Certainly that will cause problems. If people say they all them, if all of them, a larger population of people say they want to smoke or they want to drink. No. The Qur'an says no that's no and that's final. If a lot of people say they want to have free sex or they want to have more than four (4) wives, no, and nothing like that. But when they say okay, we need a leadership, the sensible people are supposed to select a leadership. Because if, for example, a music superstar comes up and says he wants to, he wants to assume a leadership position and people actually, he is famous and people like him more than those that are righteous and pious, you see there is a problem coming in that democracy, but there are some things that need, ought to be democratic when we have things of balance or equal or when we need to make choices between two things of equal weight. When you make choices, when actually everything is; all the standard conditions are available. Let's say we have ten (10) wise men just like the case where we have the sahib Abdulrahaman bin Nahaf was told to chair a committee to select the leaders for the Muslim. So in that case, democracy might come in to play as in population of, a case of politics numbers, where the population, those that have higher number have their way. That can come in to play, but when something is good and when it's a rivalry between good and bad, there's no case of democracy. The good one should be vouch for as in you should go for the good one. When it's a case of two things of equal importance or equal level of significance, of course democracy can come in to place and people will actually live among them and they have a say in what is happening in the society.

KD2 [15679-16341]

Right from an inception there are guidelines and teachings on how to go about democratic activities in an Islamic state. Like when the prophet (SAW) died, the next person in authority that is Khalifa is Abubakar that one is certain, everybody knows that there is nobody who is worthy of that post other than Sayyidina Abubakar and after his death, Sayyidina Umar then Sayyidina Uthman then followed by Aliyu. That is how it's being continued. So in Islamic state, democracy or election should be based on what people's ah what the majority think ah who in the majority think should come into power, that's the form of ahm that's based on Mubaya'a or consensus.

KD3 [12320-12396]

The democracy of an Islamic state should be teachings and rulings of Islam.

KD4 [24395-25026]

You see my brother, in an Islamic state, they have, in the whole region or in the whole history of the whole world, there have never been a democratic state than the Islamic state because the Islamic state is the state that have rules and regulations in which the non-Muslims can believe under the tenets of Islam without even any agitation. Islamic state, Islam itself caters for the Muslims, non-Muslims and even the pagans in totality. So Islamic state, to me, is the most democratic, even more than the so called democracy that we have in today's contemporary world. So, to me, Islam is the most democratic state in the world.

KD5 [13871-14112]

Democratic should an Islamic state be, ah I think if the concept of the democracy, if it is government by the people and for the people, then Islamic state should be democratic because it is the government by the people and for the people.

KD6 [27807-27845]

As it was when the prophet was alive.

KD7 [19056-19391]

As democratically possible as it can be. For somebody to come ahm to vie for an office Islamically, we are supposed to know him, his neighbors are supposed to know his character, they are supposed to vouch for or against his character and that reflects into larger society and if he carries the majority votes, then that is democracy.

KD8 [40403-40743]

Democracy is alien to Islam, is alien to Islam because the kind of democracy we are seeing is not formed on Islamic principles. It is formed on western principles which are not in conformity because they say sovereignty belongs to the people, but of course to Muslims, sovereignty belongs to Allah, it belongs to God, you understand.

KD9 [24440-24630]

You are muddling up again. An Islamic state should not be democratic. Democracy is kufr. So we cannot say how democratic, when it is democratic then it is no longer an Islamic state.

KD10 [18004-18274]

Islam is the religion of tolerance, the sharia is religion of tolerance yes. You don't cheat and you don't allow to be cheated. You don't harm and you don't allow to be harmed. Are you getting me? So Islam is a religion of tolerance, the sharia is sharia of tolerance.

KD11 [22320-22411]

Of course very democratic even more democratic than the so called liberal democracy we have

KD13 [9320-9357]

Purely democratic, purely democratic

KD14 [11239-11405]

A democratic that everybody should be given his rights and we the Muslims we know nobody is perfect, but we should just make sure we adhere to the teachings of Islam

KD16 [9581-9654]

As much as God has spelt out in the Qur'an and the other books of Islam

KD17 [32877-33776]

Democratic as in defusing the democracy in the Islamic state. Democracy and Islamic state, democracy is a system of government and you see the Islamic state its own, is another system of government, how will you now bring democracy again whereby people will come and come and elect their leader? But in Islam, it is not like that. In Islam, it is for you that state or those that are seen to have the best character, those that have the attitude, they have the heart of the people in their mind. As it is like that, if it is in democracy now, anybody can just come out and say I want to contest for this seat, maybe you can buy your way out, use money, if you look at the Nigeria politics, use money, maybe thuggery to contest as far as you have won, you have won the election that is al, but now in an Islamic state everything is there, you cannot bring democracy into an Islamic state, for what?

KD18 [15711-15780]

There is no any democracy in Islam. We follow the Qur'an and hadith.

KD19 [20202-20562]

Ah democracy in an Islamic state does not simply refer to counting of figures and declaring a winner. Democracy in an Islamic state is allowing the person that has the fear of God and the person with the highest degree of knowledge to be the winner, to be the leader. So if such a society adheres to these set of rules we say such society is truly democratic.

KD20 [15114-15340]

Yes, Islamic state, you know there should be a freedom in every state and in every country; the people should be allowed to vote for their right for the right candidates of their choice, yes that is what I understand by that.

KD23 [14151-14397]

Islamic state should be ah should be a democratic ah, but without forcing people to do ah some things most especially the things that ah that is that ah that will be so new to them especially if their knowledge is not ah is not familiar with it.

KD24 [49464-50661]

A democratic state should be the way is supposed to be as in this democratic system of government, earlier we don't know something about democracy, but now we are getting clear into it that ah it is an system of government that the people can say what they think is right at the right time so that the government will know what they should do. The government will know what the people want, should know what the people are crying for, not that in the military mode or type of government in the sense that the military will just do what they think is right. No one is asking why did you do that, just listen and know, don't ask, then if that should be the case, I think this is how, if this is how the democratic state should be then actually the leaders that are being chosen in the democratic state, they should go the way the democratic system is laid, the way the countries that have gone forward by practicing the democratic system, they should look at those countries, see how they practice their own, how they use to interact with the people, with the citizens, then they should practice if possible they should even to ahead so that they should make sure that the country is in a good way.

KD25 [69351-69695]

Hmmm to some extent the democratic part of an ah Islamic state is nothing other than wisdom, wisdom. That is just the word. If he is wise, fine. It will be, things will be going. But if he is unwise then you will see that at the end of the day the things will start getting deteriorated and maybe at the in the end of the day being destroyed.

KD26 [16696-16849]

Very democratic in the sense that hmm when you follow the way of life that has been set out for you, then you are free to do what has been subscribed.

KD28 [22753-23010]

When you understand the term democracy whatever it is as it is, in an Islamic if a democratic government should be in an Islamic state, it should be of Islamic constitution because if it is not the Islamic constitution then there is going to be confusion.

KD29 [13702-13792]

An Islamic state will be democratic to the extent of even animal has his right to enjoy.

KD30 [24731-24914]

Ah the Islamic state have always being democratic because a leader is being of course selected after being elected by people and is the best out of the midst that is always selected.

KD31 [14436-14594]

Yah it should be in a format, it should be in accordance with the teachings of the prophet that is whatever we learn from the holy Qur'an and then the Sunna.

KD33 [16807-17216]

Well if you go back to the Islamic history after the death of prophet Muhammad (SAW) gradually we will see how democratic they choose their leader, how democratic they chose their Khalifa, how democratic they choose their imam and delegate, ministers, head of government, so the Islamic democratic, Islamic state should be should involve everybody each and everybody from the higher level to the lower level.

KD34 [19054-19584]

A democratic of an Islamic state should be ahh there a lot of things that you consider by saying how it should be, but to my own understanding the way we are practicing our own constitution, it gives us a room of some amendment and we Muslims we have representatives there, if as a Muslim I have some politics or some ideas or some things that we needed to put into a government I can bring up a motion and advice some of the Muslims and show them the importance of that particular teaching and put it inside that constitution.

KD35 [19595-19795]

Ah the Islamic state should be as democratically as anything as possible because even Islam encourages a leadership, a good leadership, a group of people should have a leader wherever they are, yah.

KN1 [44677-46137]

Islamic state is quite democratic particularly there was a time when the second Caliph was leading the congregational prayers on Friday, he started the sermon that is the huduba, when he started by addressing the people he said listen to me, and one of the citizen said that he will not listen to him, he said that why, the man said that out of the treasure something was bought and shared among all, we all have one garment while you have two why? To show you how democratic an Islamic state is. Now the Caliph said I don't have an explanation but where is my son Umar ibn Abdullah (phone rings). What I am saying is this when amm...he said let his son come out and explain how he obtained two garments instead of one, he said that one was given to him and my father is huge in stature so I gave him my own that is why I got two. So you see how democratic it is, but what I am saying is this, this is the president of a state compare him with the president because as of that time I told you Islam was beyond the borders of Arabs. Equally at a particular point in time thought of saying that what people are paying as a dowry is too much as from now he has a limit, a ceiling limit for the dowry to be paid to get married. A particular woman stand in front of him and asked him when did the holy prophet leave the world you to start saying you are limiting dowry. Now you don't have a ... to say yes it is true. So that is how democratic an Islamic state is.

KN2 [25132-25317]

It should be as democratic as it should be. Because it says no leader should impose himself on a group that do not accept him. So he should not partake in a coup to impose himself.

KN4 [39227-39628]

As usual, as it is now you can go and seek for a vote among the people. They know you, they know your upbringing, they know where you come, they know your parents, they know your origin or they know when you came in fact if possible you can use those that came if they have good behavior as constitution of Nigeria says that after ten years, you can be a citizen of the place, is ok, you can contest.

KN5 [17802-17908]

Democratic ahh ehh considering the provision of the Quran and the Sunna, it should just be based on that.

KN6 [19086-19910]

So, the democratic is Islamic state should be all this you can answer it through the our constitution, it should be already we have it the system of our doctrine-if you want to know correct system you should go back to the history of prophet Mohammed (SAW) to the history of Sayyidina Umar because there is some practice of this ah democratic because there is democratic in this but maybe it is, there is some slight differences but it is the same because Islamic like I said earlier Islamic is the total way of life so it tells us how are we going to choose our leaders. It is democratic, I think, even after the death of the prophet (SAW) some people gathered in order to nominate who will, who will take over this issue so they nominated Sayyidina Abubakar. So we should follow this way that our forefathers followed.

KN7 [18652-19012]

Ehm, it should be 100% democratic because ehm, as we all know democracy, democracy allows not only ehm, ehm free life, not only free speeches, and ehm it also encourages, it encourages equality before the law. And as long as, as long as democracy, democracy is concerned, as far as democracy is concerned it should be 100% implemented in an Islamic state, yes.

KN8 [18695-18761]

Islamic state should be very democratic to accommodate everybody.

KN9 [18318-18449]

An Islamic state should be democratic in all its angles and ramifications because democracy is part and parcel of Islam, yes.

KN10 [13132-13631]

No, democratic is something that I don't think is accepted in Islam because if you look at the Muslim countries like Saudi Arabia, they don't accept something like that. Even some other countries they don't accept democracy because democracy is something that deals with election and in such condition you may, you may-instead of you to chose a one that will rule and provide sharia law you may choose the wrong person that is going to be the leader and nothing would go the way that is supposed to.

KN11 [18326-18479]

How democratic should an Islamic state. So I can- I don't know what to say. I don't know what to say here. Democratic I don't know what to say here now.

KN13 [20417-21086]

In the Islamic state should be democratic in the sense that they should follow-there is a particular institution of consultation, I have forgotten it in Islam-in Islamic whereby they think, I think it is Shura committee whereby uhm they agree based on consultation of each other. It comprises of knowledgeable elders within the society in that they have this, they are very, very, they have this high knowledge in terms of intellectuals in religious perspective and doctrines and they form memorandum of an action. They actually serve as judges. So they come together with the Caliph to decide on what particular view, on what particular agreement they could follow.

KN14 [14444-14719]

Democratic? So democratic in an Islamic state has to do with ah what people want ah and ah if there if no, ah if the Islam does not prohibit such things, the Islamic state should try and ah ah and encourage or should try and perform and practice those things to its citizens

KN15 [16099-16174]

Hmmm Islamic state I think should be democratically based on sharia laws.

KN16 [8203-8224]

Based on sharia law.

KN17 [19893-20446]

One thing we fail to understand is that we are not actually practicing democracy in the real sense of practicing democracy but I think to me Islamic state is a little bit democratic because the seek opinions they have the Caliphs they have the kind of leagues of men of some knowledgeable men that actually guide them on what to take before taking a particular decision. It is not a kind of a monarchy system of government whereby you take a sole decision, and they still follow the the sharia and the codes of ethics that have been written down.

KN18 [33348-33558]

Well, democracy in this context is giving rights to people, recognising minority views, respecting human rights, okay, protecting eh eh protecting the rights of the individuals of any individuals if it's okay.

KN19 [20388-20480]

Should be democratic to tolerate people because the concept of Islam itself preaches peace.

KN20 [14158-14175]

Very democratic.

KN21 [8782-8804]

Very, very democratic.

KN22 [17191-17354]

Democracy is also part of teaching of Islam. Islamic state should be democratic, it should dispense justice, and there should be fairness, there should be equity.

KN23 [13085-13209]

Yah a person, there are criteria laid down for Islamic Amir. So if anybody can meet up with the criteria, it is very good.

KN23 [13404-13556]

Yah Islam agitates for, is a religion of peace and democracy is something of consensus kind of. So to a very large extent Islam should be democratized.

KN24 [13090-13125]

It should be very, very democratic

KN25 [18413-19151]

Well an Islamic is one of the most democratic states because it is not a rule by a single person. Even during the Caliphs they had advisers, they took advice from so many people and it was a form of government where the people openly show their problems and dissatisfaction with the government of the day. So I think it is highly democratic. And this leader he isn't been chosen by a few people, he is chosen by the majority. In the event where the majority is not enough, there is what we call a representation, I think is it is Majalis Shura. So this body cuts across all the axis of the society. And these members are charged with the responsibility of choosing the next leader in an Islamic state. So I think it is highly democratic.

KN26 [17734-17931]

Well these are two things that are being waived, you know, but largely to be frank with you although from a personal level like I said earlier the concept of Islamic state has been so bastardized.

KN27 [15130-15175]

It should be as much as possible democratic

KN28 [11474-11547]

Randomly I believe it should really be, it should really be democratic.

KN30 [13577-13603]

Ok very, very democratic

KN31 [16921-17138]

Well it should be a very, very democratic state in the sense that it should give the Muslims its rights even the non-Muslims they should be given their rights just as it existed during the time of the prophet.

KN32 [7250-7271]

Very, very democratic

KN33 [6602-6646]

Ah Islamic state should be very democratic.

KN34 [9474-9525]

Let it be based on the principles of Islamic law.

KN35. [11914-12029]

An Islamic state should be democratic based on sharia and Sunna that is the word Allah said and the prophet (SAW).

KN36 [12125-12268]

It can be to the certain extent because even Islam gives room for consultation and the democracy is about consulting the opinion of the people.

KN37 [10624-10774]

It should be democratic to the true meaning of democracy, not the democracy of the western world okay. The true meaning of democratic, it should be.

KN38 [7435-7576]

I believe if there is anything democracy is emulated from Islam, so Islam itself is democratic, so Islamic state should be very democratic.

KN39 [12782-13080]

Really Islamic state has to be democratic. Democratic in the sense that really we need nothing from western way of practicing politics because even the Qur'an there is a verse that says nothing is left untouched by Islam. Therefore, socially, economically and politically Islam touches everything.

KN40 [12706-12847]

It should be a state in which it carries along with people, involve every people in the state along in how to participate in the government.

KN41 [10716-10873]

An Islamic state should be democratic in the sense that the leader should be elected by people, I mean not the leader enforcing people to choose him or her.

KN42 [20790-21416]

It should be, it should be very democratic, there should be transparency, there should be accountability, there should also be honesty because all these things are actually part of the constitution. It is just only that the people should fear that even if the person your creator is not seeing you, you should know that if you are not seeing your creator you should know he is seeing you. So they should also have fear, the fact that they are not Muslim does not mean that they don't have any religious beliefs or obligations. They should have that thing that they would one day or the other be accountable for their actions.

KN43 [18200-18449]

Yah, people should obey the laws of God and they should do what is right and avoid what is wrong. They should respect the feelings of their fellow Muslims and non-Muslims alike. They shouldn't infringe on the right of either Muslims or non-Muslims.

KN44 [13059-13101]

I wouldn't like to answer that one also.

KN45 [15119-15419]

Yah, how democratic eh I think Islam is democratic religion, yah you can choose your leaders and you have the right to all your fundamental human rights, rights to freedom of speech, freedom of association, yah ah and the rest. So eh you can achieve your democratic ideal within an Islamic state.

KN46 [29546-29651]

It should be representative, I mean, ah an Islamic state should be in a way that represents its people.

KN47 [31372-31783]

Yes. Islam is given this kind of democratic because even though they, they use ahm ah what do you call it, ah, am ah they use ah Electoral College nowadays because there is a group that is responsible of selecting the king, you understand, so this kind of groups are democratically elected to represent people. So whatever they go and decide, it is in the interest of the people. So it is democratic per se.

KN48 [9741-10069]

Hmm, Islamic state so the Islamic state should be democratic in a way that you elected the leader to be in so far the person is or the person is following the normal norms, so he is using the Qur'an what it teaches us to lead his followers and whereby if it is now acting in contrary to that where they can be voted out.

KN49 [18150-18397]

By its very concept, an Islamic state is very, very democratic. In some cases elections are conducted and they are free and fair and there is-and people are ruled by the fear of God and passions to achieve all things that are pious and righteous.

KN50 [8896-9059]

An Islamic state can be democratic in the sense that leaders can be elected or appointed and can also be removed if he is going in contrary to Islamic principles.

KN52 [23929-24206]

I think Islam is the best form of democracy in the world one could argue as such. If democracy means freedom, liberty, encouraging competition, equality and things like that, I think Islam is the best form of democracy.

KN53 [11770-12046]

I think it should be democratic because everything is governed with the rules and regulations of the holy Qur'an, so there is freedom humanity, freedom of liberty and freedom of individual, wrong to right, something like that. So everything should be democratic. That is it.

KN54 [6013-6066]

Ok allowed by the Islam. It is allowed by the Islam.

KN55 [7427-7462]

In line with Islamic teachings.

KN56 [11506-11772]

Ah actually there is a difference between democracy and Islam, democracy is a western motivated term and if we talk about Islamic state we are talking about a state that is established under the foundation of the sharia. So an Islamic state should not be democratic.

KN57 [12085-12122]

In line with the teaching of Islam.

KN58 [26495-26736]

Islam is not a democratic institution rather democracy copied from Islam. So there is no such thing as how democratic should Islam be. It is democracy that is even copying from Islam. Islam is more than democracy. It is an ideal system.

KN59 [20344-20601]

Humm ok based on democracy I think it is government of the people by the people and for the people, since there is this integration of democracy I think Islamic state too is a state that is being governed by people to cater for their needs you understand.

KN60 [21532-21933]

Islam is a true, you see it is the religion that gives freedom of so many things including democracy, you understand. Everything has been democratized because even the choosing of, as I said in the previous question, choosing of a leader, democratic process has to take place, Shura committee coming together and deliberate before they now agree ok so, so person has being choosing to be our leader.

KN61 [9946-10222]

An Islamic state... democratic way, it has to be a government of the people, the people the way they define democratic. Islamic state is the way of life so therefore ah so the leader or the state has to carry out all the people along just like it happened during Sayyidina Umar

KN62 [32654-33472]

Democratic, as democratic as allowed by the religion. The religion provides everything, so it should be democratic as provided by the religion. Well this democratic or democracy you are talking about, I believe that ah everything democratic, you understand, is something that has to do with giving the people the right to choose their leader and ah to do what they want under a certain government, right? So in Islam we believe that although Allah chooses the Caliph, the Amir, but at the same time the people ah put their heads together and ah put their opinions together and after that they ah they elect a leader. That is what I believe. So ah democracy is there enshrined in our religion, is there written in our religion. So I believe that Islamic state should be as democratic as the Qur'an and Hadith allows.

KN64 [16466-17097]

Hmm scholars didn't agree that Islam borrow something from democracy eh because in Islam we have things. We have the way we are doing our things. You can say this is a democratic thing, but we are doing it in Islam, this didn't mean we borrow it from democracy, it is there in Islam. Like how the Muslim elect their ruler in the time of -during the time of the caliphate of Umar eh he assigned people to select the person to govern them democratically, but this you can't say we got, we borrow it ah. We have this in our, already, in Islam. We have all this. You say democracy borrowed from Islam, hmm I do not agree with this.
KN65 [20137-20684]

When we are talking about an Islamic state, there is no point of having a democratic government, but although, like I told you, we mentioned something about Islamic revolution which started somewhere in Iran, you understand, where there leader now has to be elected politically, you understand, which is contrary to what is attainable before, you understand. So I think uhh ah Islamic state doesn't have anything to do with democratic, yes, but with this invention of Islamic revolution fine. So leaders can be elected to rule in an Islamic state
KN66 [11457-11636]

An Islamic state should just be ruled by the teachings of Islam. When you talk of an Islamic state there is no reason you talk of democracy because democracy is westernization.
KN67 [12666-12996]

Ah Islamic state should be ah democratic in the sense that the people have a say in the rule and also they have a say in who should lead them. That means they have the right to ah say against a leader, if they see anything bad about him and that also can lead to removing the leader, if that ah arise, if the, if the need arises.
KN68 [5995-6014]

It should not be.

KN71 [39717-40468]

Very democratic because I want you to believe that Islam is the principal democratic body of all times (he recites the verse of the Qur'an). What is democracy and look at that verse, as I told you earlier, when Allah wanted the Muslims to stop taking alcohol, he did not dictate, you must not do it, he said fa'al antum muntahuna after even telling them the evils behind taking alcohol, the evils behind gambling, he was telling them in a soft way fa'al antum muntahuna. And what is democracy? Is it not to give you a right to express your opinion? Is it not? Then even when Allah (SBUH) wanted to descend Adam on this earth, Allah had to ask him, I told you not to eat this tree, now you have done so, why did you do it? Why? Then what is democracy?
KN72 [21751-21982]

Yes, Islam is a democratic, being democratic is a eh is a ruling based on opinion eh and Islam also recommended the opinions of the people in ruling because eh there is no inequality in Islam, always Islam back on equality, yes.
KN73 [21366-21615]

Uh, democratic is really a secular. Is a secular and in Islamic state and there will not be democracy in an Islamic state. But if you find yourself in a democratic state while you are Muslim, you can really interpret Islamic state in your activities
KN74 [33153-33245]

This is nothing but an Islamic state should practice the Islamic democracy, eh that is all.
KN75 [35227-35821]

A democratic state in an Islamic state should be free and fair and everybody should have his own liberty and freedom to exercise in feeling, even during time of the prophet (SAW) we have a Islamic state, kuma we practice in Medina, we practiced Islamic government. He gave each and everybody freedom of movement, freedom of exercise, freedom of talk, even the during the time of Sayyidina Umar, whereby a woman have the right to challenge the Amir, to tell Amir that, even there is a woman who challenged the Amir, people tried to stop him, he stop people, let him exercise his own feeling, yah
KN76 [23410-23628]

Very democratic because if you look back at the history of Islam you could see that one of the most democratic era we ever had in the history of human being is the era of Umar bin Khatab. It was a very democratic era.
KN78 [37784-38133]

Well, through consultation as ah as it has been all through history, through consultation. You know, when Muhammad (SAW) died, there were consultations by MuslimUmma to appoint, on who to appoint as their leader. The same thing happened time and time again, so consultation is very essential, yah ahh as a means of really taking people along, yes.
KN80 [31000-31129]

Should be free and fair, should be justice and should be through Shura since it is the process which Islam taught ahh taught us.
KN81 [15509-15531]

very democratic okay

KN81 [15693-16010]

okay I can say something or I can give you ahh little ahh history so when we take an example of the rule of first Khalifa in Islam that is Muawiya Abu Sufya, you understand through that leadership we can, we can imitate so many things base on his rule because he rules base on Qur'anic and the Sunna. Do you get it?
KN82 [20963-21260]

If you study Islamic state very well, you see that there is no where you can find true democracy unless in democratic, in an Islamic state because it is a system that allows the Muslims to choose the leaders that think they are, they will run the activity Islamic activities in the correct manner.
KN83 [12871-12962]

Ahh very democratic because Islam respect rights of everybody both Muslims and non-Muslims.
KN84 [15050-15150]

Every Islamic state is democratic in nature because it comprises the right of individual citizens.
KN84 [15199-15292]

Yes totally democratic because it always defends, it always defends the right of individual.
KN84 [15366-15400]

No both Muslims and non-Muslims.
KN84 [15455-15557]

Even if they are not when you engage in leadership you must protect their lives and their properties.
KN85 [17408-17756]

Islam is a democratic religion. God ah Allah (SBUH) Allah says (he recites in Arabic). Therefore, Islam has giving people choice even in election of who should rule ahh there should be free choice people should be allowed to choose those they feel and believe they should be their leaders. So Islamic state should be to a great extent democratic

ZA1 [18668-19318]

If you are talking about democratic, now there is a two type of democratic that I know, the physical one that we see and the hidden one. Now even in America they are not practicing democracy. In France you say democracy that everybody has a right to do whatever he likes, to do his religion, but now they banning somebody to put hijab in France. You didn't call them terrorist, you say is a democracy. Somebody abuse your prophet, you say is a freedom of speech. So eh and now somebody enact a law that it is forbidden for a gay and lesbian in his country you say no, no, no don't do that. You agree here you disagree there, so nothing like that.

ZA4 [35244-35292]

It should be free and fair to people, be just.

ZA5 [20280-20336]

Everybody have to have the, everybody have to have say.

ZA6 [49417-50459]

Ahh of course an Islamic state is very democratic. What do you mean by democracy? Democracy is a government that allows, that provide for freedom, the freedoms of association and all that ahnn. In an Islamic state where sharia is being practiced, like I said previously, you have that same freedom hmm, you have that same freedom and there are punishment for every offences hmm, so is not as if is an Islamic state is when you are practicing sharia you are enclosed in a particular kind of rule. You must, there are rules you must follow, but it is very democratic. Everything is being, you know, highlighted in the constitution, in the Islamic constitution. There are rewards for good deeds and there are punishments for offences. The difference is, in Islamic state the adherence to the law is strict and higher than in the democratic state, the adherence is very strict, but there are freedom of association, freedom of religion, even if you are not a Muslim living within, there are freedom of practicing your religion and association.

ZA7 [19313-19669]

Yah very democratic yes very democratic in the sense that one can ask questions about the government, one can openly say, openly express his short comings, his problems and expects them to be solved. So I think democracy is simply a process in politics that says that there is freedom of speech and freedom of life. So I think I should be very democratic.

ZA8 [43629-44092]

Islamic state wow. I don't think there is democracy because democratic in the sense that if we say we are going to introduce democracy in an Islamic state, then a corrupt leader will also win because democracy is all about for the people or how do they put it? It is the people that will choose and people can be swayed. That is one thing, people can be bought, people can be swayed, vote can be bought. So I don't think democracy can work in an Islamic state.

ZA9 [21961-22501]

Well like I said, every practice by any Muslim has been stated by the Qur'an and the hadith of the prophet. So having an Islamic leader is just to enforce all these things because the teaching, right from childhood, everything a person needs till he dies, has been stated in the Qur'an. The way you should live your life, the way you should treat others, what you should do and what you should not do, they have been set, but democracy doesn't really, can't really thrive in Islam because of the nature of the religion since Qur'an is the...

ZA10 [23766-23879]

It should not be that democratic. It should be simple since it is based on Qur'an and the hadith and the Sunna.

ZA11 [18382-18802]

According to the definition of democracy, everybody has the will to do what as in to practice his rights and what are these rights? They said freedom of speech, movement and other these things and if the Islamic state is being practiced based on sharia and sharia is the way of life and other this thing that gives the right to this citizens then there is no difference with what you are saying, is a democratic system.

ZA12 [10140-10193]

It should be on the teachings of Qur'an and hadith.

ZA13 [11335-11392]

How democratic, it should be based on Qur'an and hadith.

ZA14 [13699-13814]

Very democratic, everybody should have his right, right to worship, right of movement, right of anything you want.

ZA15 [17875-18028]

We are not saying democracy should not be conducted in an Islamic state; yes Islamic state can still practice democracy and then implement their sharia.

ZA16 [11286-11330]

It should give equal rights to everybody.

ZA17 [11790-11908]

Democracy even the word democracy is un-Islamic word, so if you are bringing it to Islam actually is not accepted to.

ZA18 [15750-15817]

How democratic, well I can't say anything on this for now gaskiya.

ZA19 [21086-21818]

Well the concept democracy or so is a relative term, which actually in, within the context of Islam ah democracy could only involve in a situation where people are actually mindful and conscious about their duties and responsibilities unlike in a secular state. In an Islamic state, the issue of democracy actually comes into play but in a situation whereby people are conscious about their responsibilities. So once you are conscious about your the responsibility the democracy there is highly ah sound because when your Imam or your leader tells you to actually do this and do that, you just submit because he is actually talking about the fideism, the believe, you understand so.

ZA20 [11744-12027]

The consensus is part of democratic culture, which Islam also allows; consensus, agreement of the people on one sole candidate. Election is also part of it. Islam encourages elections in accordance with its own principles and ideology there

ZA21 [17619-17816]

Democratic, an Islamic state should be democratic in such a way that it should give free and fair treatment to all and sundry irrespective of one being a Muslim or non-Muslim without harassment.

ZA22 [16049-16386]

I think democracy is totally against Islam, But if you are talking politically yah if we have an Islamic state we can go ahead and continue with our affairs if at all we want to engage in some may be bilateral relationship or international relations so we know our limits, we try to do it based on the teachings of the religion.

ZA23 [21395-21442]

As I said earlier, democracy is not in Islam.

ZA24 [27891-28424]

The democratic of an Islamic state is not a do or die affair. In fact there is not suppose to be an election. So if it is an Islamic state, there is suppose to be hierarchy of the – Islam is supposed to be governed by the most knowledgeable in Islam that is imam. Imam is supposed to be the president because during prophet Muhammad (SAW) and the other caliphs, they are being governed -they are the rulers being their worth what they acquire-the knowledge that they have. There was no election then like the one we are doing now.

ZA25 [24627-25277]

That word democratic generally Islamic scholars tend to discourage the use of the word-anything democracy or democratic to Islam. So but if I am obliged to talk here to mean the word democratic to mean majority it has to be majority by quality. When you say jumhuriya in Islam it is not by number it is by quality, by how authentic is the view. So that is you don't just talk about the number by saying that if somebody has attained a particular age, that he can choose and vote for and choose a ruler. It has to do with what I can say electoral college-shura of learned scholars. Then whoever the majority of them chooses then he becomes the Amir.

ZA26 [11940-12139]

Islam is a democratic, in itself is democracy- Islam. This eh the western countries, the western orientation they just say-claim democracy. There is more democracy in Islam than any other religion.

ZA27 [10214-10478]

As I said earlier there is no difference between an Islamic state and a democratic state because when we talk about giving people rights an Islamic state also gives people rights. There is no difference between the two.

ZA28 [23130-23213]

Well it should go with the Sunna, and it should go with the decision of the Qur'an

ZA29 [32373-32560]

Well the extent at which an Islamic state should be is no matter how freedom, no matter how free a state should be it should not allow unislamic activities to be observed in the state.

ZA30 [41905-42093]

Fairness, let me say, I don't even know how to, the word to use, but if there is any word greater than fairness, so I will use that one, but since there is none, let me just say fairness.

ZA31 [16546-16936]

Yah, democratic as in how democratic is an Islamic state suppose to be is telling, democracy means freedom, like freedom of speech, let's say if, assuming if someone did what is wrong, you can preach to that person, you understand, you can, so democratic as in their custom Islam give freedom to people except if they didn't preach the saying or what the all the commandments doesn't give.

ZA32 [43925-44437]

The Islamic state should be democratic by allowing the, by giving freedom of religion, all should practice their religion, both Muslims and non-Muslims living in that state should be allowed to practice their religion both without disturbance to each other, yes and the interest of every, every personalities, every citizen within the state should be protect, should be protected. There should not be, there should not be bias or sentiment or something like this. That is how Islamic state should be democratic.

ZA35 [11614-11622]

No idea

ZA36 [18171-18405]

Hmm, if we have faithful Muslims, a faithful Muslim is a person who fears Allah more, he knows that he is going back to account on whatever he does. So that would make him treat the citizens the way they are supposed to be treated.

ZA37 [22648-23123]

An Islamic state should be democratic in a way that both Muslim and non-Muslims individual that are within the state should have equal right of performing their own religion, interaction and so on, but provided it is an Islamic state, as I said it before. There are some things maybe that must be regarded that is to say practicing other religions should not affect or stop the practicing of Islam. If that one is achieved then no problem, this is how an Islamic state is.

ZA38 [27797-27990]

Democratic to the extent that the rule of law should prevail, sovereignty should be there, the rule of law should prevail and equality, all those things as a content of democracy must prevail.

ZA39 [38826-38921]

Islamic state that is where people decide to either elect or appoint a person that rules them.

Th9.7: No Private and Personal Life in an Islamic State

KD1 [56122-56927]

That's not true. Sharia law does not mean that Allah would say give two slice of bread to your daughter, give three slice to your son and don't give any slice to your wife and take the remaining slice of bread. All those ones, they are things that are private things. Allah will not say you should eat tuwo in the morning, drink tea in the afternoon, and eat Eba in the night. That does not happen. So all this things are private things. That does not mean, Islamic law will not say you should wear boxers and singlet under your cloth before you wear any cloth. That's not, all those things are private, it doesn't happen or it's all of things that, or should Islamic law say you should have intimacy with your wife every night? All those things are private things. It doesn't happen, so that's not true.

KD2 [27139-27157]

No I don't agree.

KD3 [21070-21077]

False.

KD4 [52001-52209]

Totality whatever man does, his life, his private life, all what he does belongs to Islam. All what he does must be built on the tenets, teaching of Islam. So, whatever you do has to live according to Islam.

KD5 [26996-27513]

Hmmm I agree and I disagree because everybody can live his own personal life do whatever he wishes to do, but with limitation. That is why I said I agree and I disagree because if you breach the law or you kill somebody, Islamically, you too you will be killed because the law says annafsi bin nafsi, life to life, wal anfa bin anfi, Wal uzna bin uzni, ear with ear, eye to eye, eye with eye. So, one can live a life privately and one can also be deprived of his life if the need arise or depending on the situation.

KD6 [43142-43929]

Sharia law, what is sharia? I don't really understand what they say by sharia law controls your private and this thing. Allah controls your private and what you are doing, you do it according to what Allah says and the prophets that is your way of, way out. If is ah any Islamic state can come to my room and tell me this is what you are doing, Islam does not permit you to do that, somebody, to go inside the room of somebody and telling him what he will do, if he didn't, if he do something wrong inside his own house and come out, you cannot take him, but Allah that is seeing everything knows and they will take him. So is better for you to follow you yourself on your own go out, look for the knowledge and follow Allah's footsteps, Annabi Muhammad (SAW)'s footsteps. So, that is all

KD7 [34434-34456]

No, I don't, I don't.

KD7 [34489-34973]

What is private about a person? When he enters his house, it is his house. When he is with his heart, it is his heart. So what privacy again are we talking, if we are talking of how you eat your food or how you pray that is between you and God. If somebody should see that you do not pray well, he calls you and talks to you, he encourages you this is the right way of praying, but the prayers itself, it is between you and God. So, Islam is a religion that promotes freedom for one.

KD8 [60458-60833]

Yes. Sharia controls all the...but you have right to your private life of course, but private life in the sense that if it is in conformity with Islam. If there is an Islamic state, you are, you have to submission to that state because by submitting to the state, you are submitting to the rule of Allah even if that state is being operated based on the Qur'an and the hadith.

KD9 [43043-43328]

Ah I don't want to talk about that one too because is ah it something that is very delicate. The ulamas will be able to tell you how sharia actually operates, the nitty-gritty of sharia whether it is deep down to your private life or you know that is why I don't want to go into that.

KD10 [34244-34490]

Yes of course, sharia controls everything, everything. A Muslim cannot say what he likes, cannot do what you like at a point in time. It is what Allah has commanded you or what Prophet Muhammad has commanded you, it is what you are going to do.

KD12 [37301-37319]

Yes it is does so

KD13 [16954-16984]

No. I don't agree with this.

KD14 [21738-22165]

Yes I could say I agree and I disagree. My agreement is that once you say sharia law, sharia law is not the physical law that is outside. The first sharia law is the law you practice, the first sharia law is the one you impose on yourself by yourself not by the people. While my disagreement with that is that nobody that is sharia law never controls, in an Islamic state, never controls personal and private life of anybody.

KD16 [17835-17843]

I agree

KD17 [52934-53371]

Yes, because you cannot be doing what is rubbish, you belong to the state. You cannot be doing what is wrong now and you say your life is private and personal. You have to be as in you need to be answerable to people to some people. That is why it is an Islamic state. You cannot do what is wrong, there is no life that is private, one way or the other it will affect another person. So why would you say it should be kept alone to you?

KD19 [34351-34883]

I disagree with that. The life of every Muslims in an Islamic state or sharia state is eh is supposed to be private. Whatever you do is your own private affair, but once it becomes public then the law will have to come in and look where you have gone far of the law and justice will have to take its course. So in an Islamic state, you should have your private life but wait whenever you do something and it becomes public, the society will have to scrutinize it and see whether it wrongs foul of sharia and implement punishment.

KD20 [27816-28074]

I think the answer is the answer is no, you can claim your life personal and private because Islam is Islam your private life and personal is different from Islam. So when you are practicing Islam it doesn't affect your personal and private life, that's it.

KD20 [28169-28408]

I disagree with it because sharia law entails the, entails the eh is talking about the life the life of I mean is is talking about the life of eh of the of the Muslim general you understand so it doesn't have anything to do with private.

KD21 [26506-26531]

I don't agree with that.

KD23 [27040-27072]

Yes I strongly agree with this.

KD24 [79965-80941]

Ah in a sharia state, I will believe that all activities of the Muslims that are in the Islamic states, where sharia is being practiced ninety nine percent, for example, all your activities are governed by the sharia law because you agree and accept to be there, then you must you must abide by their religious rules and regulations. If you are sitting in that community, no matter what the religion has said, this is a law then definitely you must follow it the way it is and you don't have any other option than to follow it, but if you are living in a state, for example like the way we are citing example with northern Nigeria, for example, it is not like that even you will see Muslims practicing what the Islamic religion says it is prohibited and no one will talk to them neither the preachers, neither the scholars, no one will talk to them because all and everyone is just facing his own house, facing his own family nobody care with his neighbor things like that.

KD25 [93875-93895]

To some extent, yes

KD26 [29781-29891]

Nobody can claim his life is private and personal in an Islamic state, yes I agree, in an Islamic state yes.

KD27 [28859-28863]

No

KD28 [38397-38442]

I agree. It doesn't control all. It doesn't

KD29 [24177-24200]

I disagree with that.

KD30 [43494-43833]

Ah no ahm in an Islamic state ah all individuals have ah freedom to have their private lives, but of course the state have a certain responsibility of ah which she can, the state can be able to call you to respond to, but ah there is always freedom to have your own property, freedom of right and all that things in an Islamic sharia law.

KD31 [21471-21576]

No, that's not true whatever is haram in Islam, sharia always goes against it and that is it that is it.

KD33 [28305-28339]

No I didn't agree I didn't agree

KD34 [33970-33982]

I disagree

KD35 [33388-33704]

Private activities ah is being guided by the ways of Allah, the moment you believe in the religion you have no personal (he recites in Arabic), so whatever, before you love any other thing until God loves that means until you are allowed in Islam to do it before you do whatever you think you are going to do.

KN1 [67280-67860]

Well not only in an Islamic state, to some extent your life belongs to you to some extent your life belongs to the government. What am saying is this nobody will just kill you without any cause because you are entitled to live so you see your life belongs to you and now when you attempt to take your life even under the constitution of Nigeria its years imprisonment. It is your life if you try to commit suicide it will be two years imprisonment as punishment. So you see to some extent it belongs to you and to some extent it belongs to the state. It depends on the situation.

KN2 [38992-39846]

Islam although being a system, has also given Muslims a kind of freedom. Everything is allowed in Islam unless those that have been described as unlawful, everything is accepted unless those few things that have been described as unaccepted. So Islam does not matter what type of house you build, what type of food you eat as long as you eat halal and when you talk of Halal and non-halal you see 95 percent of food is halal only five percent is non-halal. When you talk of sexual intercourse, you are allowed to marry but you are not allowed rape or to engage adultery or prostitution. That is the way Islam operates. And Islam will not tell you how you stay in your house, it will not tell you the dress you will wear in your house, it will not tell you when to eat in your house, it will not tell you when to go out that one is your private affair.

KN4 [52730-52732]

No

KN5 [34489-34818]

No because Umar bin Khattab was challenged by peeping through one of the Muslim houses during his time as khalifa he peeped or he climbed the wall to see what they were doing that and they challenged him and he accepted the challenge. So it is not good that there is private life actually and personal life even in sharia state.

KN6 [39154-39645]

Yes, because every person is belong to sharia law. Your movement, your way of life, is part of the sharia. So I say sharia Islamic even at your home you can practice it. You are all belong to Islamic Sharia. All our (he quotes Arabic words) so it is Quran but it says our lives our, all my prayer, all my sacrifice and all my life are belong to this Islamic Sharia. I belong to the Allah so what is the meaning of this, you should submit all your properties and yourself for sake of Allah.

KN7 [35109-35471]

I do not agree because ehm ehm, we have, we have freedom of rights and wherever you have freedom of rights, its I don't think you are being, you cannot claim ehm freedom of a ah your opinion ah as long as you have freedom of opinion, yes you are claiming your own life, you are claiming it as your private life and that is why we call it freedom of opinion, yes

KN8 [33043-33370]

Yes I agree but it is to some limitations, you understand, because Islam has its rules and regulations but it doesn't strike over everybody's life. I think you understand, but there are rules and regulations guiding all actions, but unlike totalitarianism of all this Adolf Hitler and co that you would be compelled under law.

KN9 [30401-30415]

Yes, I agree.

KN10 [24209-24224]

Yes, I agree.

KN11 [32203-32243]

No, this is not true, this is not true.

KN13 [34717-34730]

Yes, I agree.

KN14 [27649-27654]

Yes

KN15 [24123-24158]

Absolutely yes, I agree with that.

KN16 [14041-14046]

Yes

KN17 [27595-27599]

No.

KN18 [48592-48605]

It is true

KN19 [30166-30181]

Uh I disagree.

KN20 [22695-22701]

Yah.

KN21 [15995-16014]

I agree with that.

- KN22 [32454-32474]
Yes I agree with it
- KN23 [21329-21348]
No I don't agree
- KN24 [20340-20343]
Yes
- KN25 [33092-33104]
Yes I agree
- KN26 [35568-35644]
Hmmm yes to a very large extent in a sharia state yah I think that is it
- KN27 [24864-25267]
It doesn't. It doesn't control all private activities, it doesn't, but one can say it controls various aspects of human political life, socio-political life. So I don't think it controls every-Sharia doesn't dictate how you relate with your wife at home. So I don't think, and that is a private life. So I don't think it dictates every-so to some extent you can claim your private life to some extent.
- KN28 [19614-19628]
No I disagree
- KN30 [18276-18297]
Yes I agree with that
- KN31 [32034-32476]
Yes I agree with that because normally you see in life you don't own yourself or Islamically we know that you don't own yourself. So all you are doing in an Islamic state you are being guided by rules and regulations. Even if you are a wealthy person, for example, we all know that you have to give sadaka, and you help the needy, you do things like Zakat and they money is yours but you have to do all those things which means you have to ...
- KN32 [16112-16209]
yes to some extent and if really it can go according to the provisions of the holy Qur'an and...
- KN33 [12289-12301]
Yes I agree
- KN34 [21219-21239]
I totally disagree.
- KN35. [20719-20722]
Yes
- KN36 [21555-21558]
Yes
- KN37. [20121-20143]
Yes I agree with that.
- KN38 [15173-15194]
No. Yes I agree but
- KN39 [23590-23607]
I do not agree.
- KN40 [19592-19596]
No.
- KN41 [16942-16957]
No I disagree.
- KN42 [42738-43315]
No. Sharia controls your life, but it doesn't control what you do in private. It only, it-yah sharia controls your public and private affairs but it doesn't really control, it tells you how to go about your public and private affairs. What are supposed to be done in public and also in private. What are not supposed to be done, what are right and what are wrong. They don't tell you, they only tell you, they don't know when you do it or when you don't do it. They only serve as guide, kind of guidance for you to live a better life not for them to, for you to be controlled.
- KN43 [32071-32090]
No, I don't agree.
- KN44 [25587-25601]
Yes, I agree.
- KN45 [34335-35015]
No, it is not true, it is not true private life is a private life and public life is a public life and ehh in any Islamic state, there are sinners, and there are people who commit sins. In every, right from the time of the prophet up to this present time, there are people who commit sins. What is forbidden in Islamic state is to publicize that sin you are doing. If you are doing that sin in your room, nobody knows, then nobody has the right even to even follow you to your house ehh to your room to see what you are doing. This is not Islamic at all as far as the sin is kept secret, yah, the Islamic ehh state is ok with it, I think that is the objective Islam, yah.
- KN46 [56902-57023]
No that is not true in an Islamic state everybody has a kind of private life and he has eh another side which is public.
- KN47 [52544-53206]
Well people have their private life and personal, and private and personal are one thing, you know to me in the Islamic state. So everybody, you can have you private life, for example, now if you see somebody you want to marry, you see this is your private life, and Islam allows you to even marry a Christian, you understand, a Christian lady you can marry her, so you have the right, you have-this is your private life and the law of Islam does not say that you shouldn't do that, you understand. So you have your own private life and the government will not control that, you can marry her if you agree, you come into terms with her, then you can marry her.
- KN48 [17632-17816]
Yes, yah because sharia if you you want your life to be judge by sharia, there shouldn't be anything private or personal so everything must be, must be duly followed in a sharia way.
- KN49 [27967-28257]

Actually Islam does not encourage people investigating things that is not directly concerning them. Islam respect privacy and ehh Muslims are also enjoined to respect other's privacy and not to, and not to ah go out of their ways to learn what people are doing with their private lives.

KN50 [15448-15541]

No, I disagree because sharia law does not control private and personal activity of anybody.

KN52 [49402-50551]

No. There is jurisdiction, there are areas and boundaries, you know, of individual, of private, of family, of state, but what binds all these components together is the total submission to the will of Allah, from the head of state down to the family, to the individual, everyone belongs to Allah. So in that respect yes, there is the sovereignty of God and by the virtue of that sovereignty of Allah (SBUH) yes there is a comprehensiveness of the system which determines the direction of the society, you understand? So there is private individual life of course in an Islamic state, in fact the state exist only as a guide, as a protection, as an umbrella under which members of the society should live just as in any other political arrangement even in the secular state in that sense, for instance, but what I am saying is that it is not only confined to Islamic arrangement or Islamic policies, even in secular politics of course you have the state as the guide, as the Alpha and omega of legal of the affairs of the society, but even in that case, individuals have their own life and they have their own right to privacy and things like that.

KN54 [8460-8516]

I do not agree because Islam always encourages privacy.

KN54 [11572-11624]

No. I do not agree because Islam encourages privacy

KN55 [13524-13602]

No because Islam is a religion of privacy and it always encourages privacy.

KN56 [22233-22380]

No. I don't agree. Islam is a religion of privacy and Islam always encourages the privacy of Muslims, Islam doesn't encourage invasion of privacy.

KN57 [19485-19523]

I strongly agree with this statement.

KN58 [44305-44597]

No I disagree. That is a big lie. Under Islamic sharia legal system you have right to your own personal life. Nobody impinge on your life. It is only when you are found guilty that you would be treated according to the crime that you committed, but you have right to your own personal life.

KN59 [43094-43895]

Actually I agree but in the private aspect or activities, it doesn't control all the aspect, but in their personal activates, I can say it is being controlled, it has a strong say in it because if you have your own private thing that is not contrary to Islam, you can do it without the influence or intervention of the Islamic state. Take for instance property owned by you, you understand, you can build your house to your satisfaction. Islamic state cannot say ok this is the house I want you to build, you understand. There is no restriction in that. In terms of our personal activities, sharia law also plays an important role whereby if our activities are not in line with the sharia, it can kind of draw our attention back so that our activities go in line with the teachings of the sharia.

KN60 [31986-32419]

Islam controls both private and personal lives and how you put it across, you understand. Islam have total control over that and it is Islam because the Quran and hadith and the Sunna of the prophet (SAW) have said this is how you do your personal life and this is how you do other practices in other places. It is controlled actually because you have been given guidance on how you spend the entire life style you are practicing.

KN61 [16849-16853]

No

KN62 [53683-54157]

Not only in Islam everywhere. A man should not take his own life, nobody can claim his life. Ooh no, I believe, I understand now. Ok I was ah saying something different, yah. Nobody can claim his life is private and personal in an Islamic state, no. We all claim privacy. Islam actually is the religion that encourages privacy and personal life in general, yah. That is what I believe. Sharia law of the state controls only, only some part that are not personal or private.

KN63 [44778-45812]

Hmm, to what extent? ah Islamic law doesn't involve in private life huh ok, for example now, look at it once somebody is involved in adultery or fornication, such a person is now being asked to bring four witness, and that sighted him while in that act. Now in the real sense of it, in the real sense of it, is it possibl for someone to be doing adultery be involved in adultery or fornication and four people sighted him? If at all those four people were able to sifght him that means that person too has, in fact he has done a very grievous thing because doing such things, you can know where to stay and even it guarantees private life, okay like now, you want to come into the particular house now, you have to say salama alaykum before you come in, after that you have to be granted permission to come in huh bismillah come inside. If I do not respond and grant you permission to come in, you can't just come into my house just like that. So even it guarantees private life, it guarantees private life more than any other thing.

KN64 [27160-27202]

Yes, you must follow Islam in everything.

KN65 [34437-34456]

No I do not agree.

KN66 [23292-23306]

Hmm, I agree.

KN67 [23562-23581]

No. I don't agree.

KN68 [11532-11562]

No. Islam encourages privacy.

KN69 [39159-39709]

No. let me tell you something, under Islamic state there is a procedure, as I told you earlier, Islam is a comprehensive way of life of Muslims. So there is public and private right. Public right is a right that belongs to an Islamic state whereas private right is belong to a Muslim in an Islamic state. So what I am saying to the extent is that sharia protect public life as well as private life of individual, but issue of public right is belong to a state specifically whereas, whereas the issue of a private life is belong to Muslim individual.

KN71 [68224-68414]

Yes, sharia is all encompassing, is a total way of life. Both your personal and private whatever, it controls too, even how you deal with your own self, it is controlled by sharia too, yes.

KN72 [35284-35455]

No. There is personal, there is personal activities, there is, anything that is not related to the Islam personally, Islam has no consent on that, has no consent on that.

KN73 [37626-38007]

No it is not sharia law. If you say controls, there is difference between control, you know, if you say control it means it dictates whatever you are looking, whatever private and personal. But sharia law means that your activities were guided or are guided by Islamic law. It just guides you. This is how you are going to do it. You get the point? It is not control, but guides.

KN74 [46880-46944]

Ehh am not, ehhh actually am not agree with this, am not agree

KN74 [46957-47204]

Because the sharia is not, there is something which is personal that is private activities which sharia did not talk about it because it is not all, everything that sharia talk about. There is something that ehhh the sharia did not talk about it.

KN75 [50503-50508]

Yes.

KN76 [41510-42519]

Actually I don't agree because Islam respects and protects the privacy of individuals. If you look at the history of ahh Umar bin Khatab, there was a time that he was moving around the city of Medina and ahh he came across a house and ahh he understood that the man in that house was ahh he was drinking alcohol so he jumped across the wall and he told the person that he caught him taking alcohol and that person told him that he also caught him trespassing and Umar bin Khatab climbed again and nothing had happened to that person. So that is the extent whereby the private life of an individual is encouraged and even if you look at the issue of ahh fornication in Islam, fornication and adultery, to respect the privacy of individual you can just see somebody with another woman and just come and tell others that you have seen somebody committing adultery or fornication, you must have some witnesses, those witnesses amount to three, and there is no you can't bring your witnesses at the same time and...

KN78 [59428-59495]

Yes, under ideal Islamic state, yes under an ideal Islamic state.

KN80 [45310-45315]

Yes

KN81 [29151-29210]

Yes I agree, but no all personal issue sharia will involve

KN81 [29424-29504]

Of course, of course like family issues, personal privacy, so on and so forth.

KN82 [31241-31307]

Yes. That is why Islam is din, it controls everything for Muslim.

KN83 [21350-21557]

Ahh it is not true, sharia law can only control public matters and personal matters rests or are vested on individuals, but at times it involves private matters if there is a trespass between individuals.

KN84 [24594-24721]

I totally disagree. Islam does not involve in personal affairs of an individual Muslim unless his act is contrarily to sharia.

KN85 [35394-35858]

Yes, yes I agree totally with this. Maududi said it that in Islamic state the essence of man is to serve God and just serve God and Islam, as I have said earlier on, is all encompassing. It has addressed both the private and personal, private and public life of an individual, your political, economic, cultural and educational. All aspect of your life should be guided by Islam. Therefore in an Islamic state, there is nothing like private or personal life.

ZA1 [36349-36783]

Mr. man I think let me laugh first of all. [Let met join you laughing too] Islam said that (he recites the Qur'an) that there is a Sadaka-almsgiving, why will the state get that almsgiving is form the owners of the properties. So Islam said that each and every individual if he has a property that property as far as Islam is concerned, he get it, he got it through legal way, it is his own property only he is going to pay is Zakat.

ZA2 [44207-44665]

Yes, you see is total way of life, so they want you to-you should not go against, you control but the sharia is making you move, is now guiding you, is guiding you against what? Whatever is evil, you are protected from whatever is not good. So that is why when we say is the one moving you, I will say yes because the rules practically is what you are going along and when you are going by that rules, you are not allowed you will not find yourself against.

ZA3 [27577-28005]

Yes, you said that sharia laws that are the laws of Allah cannot separate it from, cannot separate the state and the religion and the religion goes into private lives of individuals. So whatever one does in terms of may be collecting zakat, in a sharia state everybody most pay zakat and also in terms of genealogy, Islam lays emphasis on genealogy very well that you must know the roots of every individual as in family ties.

ZA4 [49021-49054]

Hmm we have guidelines for this

ZA5 [30212-30508]

No. I do not agree with that because I say private and public and other personal activities, you understand, eh but if you say sharia like that, when we say sharia, it is a way of life automatically is the way of life; the way you do your things and other things like that.

ZA6 [70928-71073]

No. I don't agree. There are private and personal lives in an Islamic state. It is not possible that the state controls all personal lives, no.

ZA7 [36452-36907]

Kai I do not agree. I do not agree. Sharia law cannot make laws for you in your house. You have the right to train your child the way you want to train him, you understand. So I don't want to agree that it has to do completely with all your affairs, personal and private activities, but if your personal and private activities affects the general masses or people, it becomes a public problem, I think sharia laws has the right to treat it by the laws.

ZA8 [75079-75084]

No.

ZA9 [40293-40563]

Hmm is a tough one, but I don't agree. I don't agree because even if there are, if Sharia has stated some things you have to follow as a Muslim, I believe there are, we have our own initiatives to carry out these things so as not to negate the fundamental human rights.

ZA10 [34548-34815]

I disagree with this because personal life is what you do and sharia doesn't have, sharia law in the state does not have any affair or anything to do with your personal life. It only modifies and tells you what and what you should not do because it is your faith.

ZA11 [29744-30038]

Private life and personal activities, the way you live your life, the way you dress, the way you eat, what you eat and your life. Actually when you tend to look at that, in every religion being Islamic or not, those are moral rights and having to compare with moral rights is what is keeping...

ZA11 [30063-30088]

I don't agree with that.

ZA12 [18462-18528]

I don't agree, because I don't have much idea of the sharia laws.

ZA13 [18992-19001]

Yes sir.

ZA14 [25356-25544]

Yes sharia, sharia simply means total way of life, is that not so? That is the meaning of sharia toh because of that, it controls your private, public and any other activity of your life.

ZA15 [27402-27424]

Yes I agree with it.

ZA16 [19825-19829]

No.

ZA17 [24305-24308]

Yes

ZA18 [28894-29006]

Sharia, ah no I don't agree, kai that is fallacy. You are entitled to whatever provided you acquire it legally.

ZA19 [41788-42199]

I disagree because it is sharia state that actually gives you right to proclaim your property. It is sharia state that when someone steals ones property will be prosecuted. It is sharia state that says when one sleeps with one's wife will be prosecuted. It is sharia state that says no, nobody should confiscate or steal one's property, so sharia state is actually encouraging for everyone to be hard working.

ZA20 [27717-28030]

Yes. There is nothing left out in Islam. Islam stated some rules at which you should govern your life whether privately in public or whatever or either corporate or – Even if yo are alone there are ways you should interact with the nature as even alone there.

Islam has explained everything nothing is excluded.

ZA21 [33265-33738]

No. Everybody as a Muslim is guided by the principles of the holy Qur'an and the sunna of the holy prophet. So where you feel something is yours you should go ahead and grab it and that is personal. But where there is this issue of eh there is a case between you and your neighbor then sharia should come in, but as a matter of fact everybody has his own way of doing his own things, but you should not go contrary to the whims and caprices of the holy Qur'an and hadith.

ZA22 [29155-29352]

No. In Islam we have private activities and personal activities and it remains for the person involved. In Islam there are limitations even this sharia that we don't really understand what it has.

ZA23 [37512-37909]

If you talk of area where sharia are law is practiced to its fullest not a communism environment, not a communist environment, your belongings are your belongings. Only that in doing what you want to do with your property you follow the right channel. But to say your private belongings and everything belongs to the government, government of sharia is controlling it, I have never heard of that.

ZA24 [45413-45839]

Yes sharia law-sharia says that if somebody steals you have to measure if it is up to dowry that is it is up to dowry that is 10000 plus now ten thousand two, sharia says we should cut that person's hand, so therefore you can't, in sharia law, you cannot say your life is private. If you convert to another religion sharia says that they should kill that person after three days. In sharia law it is like that I agree.

ZA25 [45367-46100]

Yes Sharia law has prescriptions for everything for your personal, private and public activities, but that is where it stops that is prescriptions. But sharia law does not subscribe to the fact that you should be prying into the private activities, no, you are not allowed. Just preach it, as far as the private and personal activities does not infringe on other people's affairs, that in fact unnecessary suspicion is not allowed. But similarly a Muslims is not supposed to give chance to be unnecessarily suspected. You understand so it does not control you that eh we must know what you are doing inside room we know everything, but Islam has provisions, has prescriptions as regards how you should carry on all your activities?

ZA26 [21214-21280]

Ah even in Europe there is no private life I am telling you this.

ZA27 [20230-20233]

No

ZA28 [33619-34161]

Ammm I don't think this is a question that somebody should say yes I agree because anything that has to do with private is your own and your own alone. There are things maybe you discuss with your families as in family may be you are a husband you discuss your issues with your wife. So under the rule of Islam you are not supposed to discuss – there are issues you are not supposed to discuss them with people especially matters arising may be between like I said matters that arises between you and your spouse. So I don't agree with this

ZA29 [48424-48680]

That is a very big fat lie. This is the saying of the western people because they don't even understand what the sharia means. Today when you say sharia, sharia is the system that gives you rights on private life; your own personal life and your own rights
ZA30 [58316-58328]
I don't know

ZA31 [28660-28674]

I disagreed.

ZA33 [23561-23968]

No. It is not controlled by the Sharia, the Sharia only spells out what is lawful and what is unlawful. And a true, not even a Muslims, a true human being he knows what is lawful to him and what is unlawful and therefore there are laws spelt out in the holy Qura'an that prohibits what is lawful and accepts what is lawful. So therefore it is not that the state is controlling all the personal activities.

ZA35 [21078-21082]

Yes

ZA36 [29483-29487]

Yes

ZA37 [36263-36285]

No. It is very wrong.

ZA38 [41717-41725]

No, no.

ZA39 [54261-54284]

No. That is not true.

Th9.8: Relationship between Islamic Government and Secular State

FG1 [33269-33950]

The relationship between an Islamic state and a secular state should be, of course there should be a relationship because like the case of Nigeria for example, Nigeria is a secular state but Kano state tried to impose sharia, so let's assume that Kano state is an Islamic state and Nigeria on top is a secular state so for me I think that there should this relationship for the state at the head, the secular state, should look down, should narrow their look down to the Islamic state and check if the population, the vast majority of the population wish for the Islamic state. If they so wish to adopt this Islamic practices on themselves so the secular state should allow them.

FG1 [33952-34252]

For me the relationship should be a good relations so that that secular state will now copy from the Islamic state what they are doing, if they think it is good they approve even promise doing this or that so that the people will say this is good behavior and habit so they can copy from their way.

KD1 [37564-38255]

The Islamic government and secular state should work in cooperation. In cooperation because the Islamic government is working for the welfare of the Muslims, secular government in most cases work for the welfare of the, it's also for its own people. Every government actually works for the welfare of its people. To what extent they actually comply to that or achieve that is where the departure arrives, but there should be cooperation because when there is no cooperation, there can never be peace and when there is no peace, there is no how you can practice your religion with confidence when there is problem, when there is fear, when there are several attacks and challenges like that.

KD2 [13991-14515]

The relationship that should be between Islamic government and secular state is purely, is, it should be purely Islamic actually because in a secular state, secular state comprises of both Muslims and non-Muslims and even those that totally do not have ah do not have religion. So all of them should be governed based on their teachings, like the Christians, they should be governed with their own books, with their own spiritual books and Muslims should be governed with their Islamic books like the hadith and the Qur'an.

KD3 [11496-11701]

There is no a relationship between Islamic government and secular state. The only thing there is that everybody should mind his or her own business to then be their religion and to we too be our religion.

KD4 [21959-22661]

I will say that, okay let me start by the main concept there, Islamic government itself and the secular state. Secular state to my understanding is a state that is governed by the constitution, a state that is governed by the democratic means of governance that is my own understanding of the secular state. And then Islam or Islamic state as you call it, right? So the relationship with them, I think there are two different things, so you cannot merge those two together rather we are, we just find ourselves in a situation where we cannot do away with the secular state because we living in the secularity in the state.

KD5 [12696-12869]

Islamic government and secular state. Hmmm I don't think there is any relationship between Islamic government and a secular state. I don't think there is any relationship.

KD6 [25775-26779]

Islamic government and you say secular state you are talking about Nigeria. We don't want to dwell very well into it because we are taking northern Nigeria as a case study. When the colonial master came to Nigeria, they came to Nigeria that time, the northern Nigeria has their own laws, has their own rules, has their own court, has their... everything they have. All is not Islamic, all what we say before that time is not really Islamic, but there is Islam in it. So, what we are saying in nutshell here is practicing full sharia doesn't mean that they are not practicing over Nigeria you cannot practice sharia. If you can start from your own house what is sharia? Sharia means good behavior; this is what God says that I should do, this is what God say I should not do, you didn't do it, you are practicing sharia not until you say no, any people that steal we cut his hand, anybody, no, we start sharia, more sharia is that our home and offices and in our market than the one you people are saying.

KD7 [17516-17797]

Islamic state is a state that is wholly governed by Islamic laws and the jurisprudence while the secular state is viewed as godless society whereby people make laws of their own, they sit down to make laws that suits them and they are governed by which it always, it never perfect

KD8 [36102-38152]

The relationship between secular and Islamic government, the relationship. There is inverse relationship, a negative relationship. Islamic state is talking about a state that is built on the principles of Islam, principles of justice, principles of fairness, well the principles, I mean of living in moral life, life of morality, moral, I mean life devoid of ehm, devoid of ehm sexual vices, I mean ehm sexual issues, devoid of being ehm, indecent dressings, devoid of injustice, devoid of all those negative things. While in a secular state, you have freedom to do whatever you want. Ehm gay marriage is allowed in a secular state which in Islam we don't believe in that ehm, usury, giving loans with interest is very fundamental in a secular state while in the real Islamic state, we don't accept it. You are expected to sympathize with them when they are in problem, but in a secular government, particularly the one operating under capital system of government, they believe in interest, when you have problem, you go to bank to collect loan, you have to pay interest. You are having problem, yet you are being inflicted with some economic pains. So, there is inverse in relationship. The only thing is that when you find yourself in a secular state, there is nothing you can do. You try to now participate in the government and try to bring out the good Islamic values so that even those that are, that believes in secularism would now come and believe in what you are saying. When they see the good virtues of you as a Muslim, but the, like I said, the relationship is inverse, is a negative relationship, but if a person finds himself in a secular state, he operates there, he try to practice Islamic values, try to hold their values, acquire education like I have been saying, acquire modern education, acquire Islamic education, and you should know how to live in that kind of secular state so that you live a good life and try to a certain degree influence the secular state to live in a closer to, you know, more moral, more Islamic life.

KD9 [23153-23791]

Hmm I think its related to what we just said just now. Secular state is a different thing entirely. It has nothing to do with Islam. So when you say secular state of course you are talking about democracy, democracy all the craziness they brought into leadership. So Islamic government has little or nothing to do with secular state, but as it is today we are living in a way that we can't do without each other. We have relationship, you know, the way the world is today, you have interrelated relationship between an Islamic state and a secular state, but for an Islamic state to be run pariparsu with secularism that is not accepted.

KD11 [21246-21405]

There is no relationship between the two. Whilst the Islamic state is a kingdom of God or Allah, secular state has nothing to do with the religion entirely.

KD12 [26197-26454]

Hmm Islamic government and secular state cannot be matched together, see it is different government. In a secular state you do whatever you want to do, you like there you see, but in an Islamic government you do what the almighty Allah says you should do.

KD13 [8739-8760]

Sincerity and truth.

KD14 [10339-10573]

I think the relationship between Islamic government and secular state should be fair. The only thing there is that no matter what is in a secular state is that we should not, we Muslims should always adhere to the teachings of Islam

KD16 [8288-8730]

The relationship is just that ah all it matters is understanding, all it matters is understanding between a secular state and the Islamic state. I think what it matter is just understanding. The Islamic state should understand the content of the secular state and secular state should also understand the content of the Islamic state so that they could honor the opinion of each other and that will pave a way for them to live harmoniously.

KD17 [29865-30973]

Relationship can be there. Secular state whereby you have both Muslims, Christians staying, whereby there is no specific religion you understand or religion which is being followed as in constitution just like Nigeria here, I know that Nigeria is a secular state, what should be the relationship between a secular state and Islamic state? That relationship can be there, if the Islamic state or the Islam government is established in the secular state or the secular government are there no Muslims there? Even you can help the non-Muslim. Who told you, you cannot help the non-Muslim? You can help the non-Muslim. By the time you take, you make people to see the sweetness of establishing the sharia, which I understand is the Islamic state or Islamic government, by the time you see the sweetness, people see the profit of practicing the Islamic sharia or the Islamic government, people will be encouraged to move to change their ways so that they too they can accept this style of government, but not necessarily forcing the other secular state to raise up arms so they can establish the Islamic state.

KD18 [14642-14729]

I think there is no any relationship between Islamic government and the secular state.

KD19 [18682-19196]

Ah secularism means a state that has no connection whatsoever with any religion and it is not possible in a country where there are Muslims you said the government should not have any connection, no, Nigeria they used to say is a secular state, but I don't believe that because if Nigeria is a secular state, why do they do public holidays in terms of religions activities? like Christmas, Sallah time and Maulud and the rest. So Nigeria is not secular, Nigeria, Nigerian government has a lot to do with religion.

KD20 [14267-14538]

Yes, there should be a relationship between the Islamic government and the secular state in the sense that in a state or in a country where we have Muslim and non-Muslim, if there is understanding, and the tolerance we can live with each other without any problems, yes.

KD21 [12702-12718]

Next question.

KD23 [13371-13550]

Ah the relationship ah between Islamic Islam and politics and state so is that ah the relationship should be of good understanding so not to contradict the perception of others.

KD24 [47122-47362]

In this period, we are not practicing Islamic government, how are we going to answer this question? We are not practicing Islamic government. When we are practicing that is how we will answer this, we are not practicing Islamic government.

KD25 [62803-65369]

Well the relationship between ah secular government and ah the Islamic state is that well ehm is well is nothing other than leadership, is leadership, they are all leading, but the striking difference is in the case of the Islamic state, it has some rights upon the, it has some, there are, the rights of these people upon it and it is ever ready to ah maintain them ranging from protecting the lives of the citizens, protecting their (clears throat) reputations, engaging them in many things, not being idle and providing them with the basic necessities of life most especially those who have none, of course alhamdulillah with the advent of the new Nigerian government, I have heard the eh news today, I think it was in ah was it ah BBC or voice of America that eh the vice president professor Osibnajo when he was invited to one of these Yoruba speaking states, he said it, I think it was yesterday or day before yesterday that ah the Federal Government have finished plan to be giving ah those who have no, who have got no work in the whole country, who are just idle, doing nothing to be giving them a token of five thousand naira and that to some extent is something that ah is something that worthy of being good because somebody might say it is just a token, but is not a token, of course that five thousand if somebody is serious he can start a small trading business which can later generate into a very large scale industry. It is something to be proud of and we continue to ah pray to them that God should guide them especially the God chosen leader that is Muhammad Buhari who all have known his eh justice, his eh truthfulness, his transparency, piety, fear of God and the rest of them and his fearlessness when it comes to ah speaking the truth, the right thing or standing by the right thing or defending by the right thing, so from there, so ours is to continue to pray ah for them so that is just the relationship between the Islamic state and ah ah what do you call it, secular state. Only that the striking thing I said is that eh because of secular state they try to see that anybody who is not part of it they doesn't accept him. But in the case of Islamic state even if somebody is not part of it but he is ready to abide by its principles you see he is at rest to practice his religion and ah nobody will harm him. But in the case of secular state they will not even accept that in as much as you are not part and parcel of them they will drive you away, they will eject you out of the town or even go to the extent of killing you. Yes. KD26 [15169-15517]

Secular state! I think the relationship that should be, as long as they don't pose a threat to our laws, to our well being it should be on a platonic level, yes. If it is possible you mind your business and they mind their business as long as they don't pose a threat to you or they don't have anything against you. There is no problem with that.

KD27 [18318-18492]

Secular states, in my understanding, do not have a religious basis and Islam, a Muslim state bases its ah-well has Islam as its basis. So there are no bases for comparison.

KD28 [21675-21957]

Well an Islamic government as it is, is you know like Nigeria today, it cannot be an Islamic country or rather whatever it is unlike Saudi Arabia or whatever other Islamic states.

KD29 [12499-12793] Why because people are of different secular religions and they have their own understanding varies.

Well the relationship between Islamic government and the secular state is that part of secular state that ah allows freedom of religion devoid of your belief, if you are allowed to exercise and practice, preach, conduct yourself based on your religious teachings that relationship is positive.

KD31 [13628-13826]

Actually the relationship should be that everybody should belong to, should go, should belong to where he supposed to belong to and eh I think ah Islam is just the solution to most of our problems.

KD33 [16176-16227]

well the relationship should be mutual as we know

KD34 [17316-17679]

The relationship between Islamic government and secular state ehm the relationship it is very easy, as I said, Islam is a total way of life, even in the olden days during the prophet Muhammad (SAW), he stayed with non-Muslims and how did he stay with them? How did he relate with them? It matters, that's the relationship between the Islam and the secular state.

KD35 [18260-18467]

Secular state you call? [yes] Islamic government is a government that is ruled in accordance with Allah's guidance. Secular government is the government people therefore they think is good, this is simple.

KN1 [42755-43155]

Well, the relationship is this. A secular state has a lot of ideologies which may be right or wrong it depends on how you are seeing it, while Islamic state, definitely if you don't believe in it probably you may shut your eyes not to see the logic behind how things are done. But all I know that one is aimed at equalizing...its aimed at proving a platform that is uniform to all, a fair play ground.

KN1 [43249-43276]

Understanding one another

KN2 [24071-24209]

Ok. The relationship should be the same, Islamic state and non-Islamic state each one exercising its rights and protecting its interest.

KN4 [38206-38528]

The relationship between the Islamic government and secular state is justice, if there is justice everything is go smooth and fine no matter what you are using, even constitution or non-constitution since the both the Muslim and Christian they don't have independent state we are using secular state. Justice; that is all.

KN5 [16676-16848]

Ahh Islamic government and secular states, the relationship between Islamic government and secular state. I cannot-the relationship should be I cannot say anything actually

KN6 [17691-17965]

So, there is no relationship between Islamic government and secular state, no relationship because secular system says-emphasize give unto Cesar, Cesar and unto religion, religion. So, Islamic system does not agree with it because our religion is the total way of our life.

KN7 [17782-18055]

The relationship is that ehm mutual coexistence that is just it, mutual coexistence should exist between and within them because em in any setting, in any setting, understanding really matters, so I think understanding should be the governing order of their relationship.

KN8 [16660-17077]

Islamic government and secular state, as I have said initially, when you say an Islamic government is a government which is based on sharia and Qur'anic teaching, while the secular state is the contemporary one we have both can work together if the secular state can bring in some Islamic ideologies into its practice, you understand. It can move more better, you understand, than not working with the Islamic tenet.

KN9 [16931-17300]

Well, the relationship between Islamic government and secular state has to be a kind of relationship whereby each and every one of them would mind its business. You understand, there should not be cross fertilization of ideas between them in order not to stain the Muslim believers with the western, you know, crazy ideologies on how they go about doing their stuffs.

KN10 [12127-12348]

The relationship between them? Ehm, I don't think if there is any relations because Islamic government are using laws of sharia, sharia laws I mean while secular government is something that does not concern Islam, yes.

KN11 [17358-17712]

There is no any relationship because secular state teaches people that ah you cannot combine any religion with your state affair or with affairs. While the Islamic government is built basically on Islamic teaching that is we must hold Islam or Islamic government must follow the Islamic teaching that is you must abide by the teaching of the holy Quran.

KN13 [18257-18567]

Hmm the relationship between Islamic government and secular state should be based on mutual agreement in the sense that what, because no state is self-sufficient. The issue of trading might come in, there are issues of economic benefits, so they have to-it depends on the kind of agreement they have together.

KN14 [13315-13598]

Relationship between Islamic government and secular states? The relationship is that you should live with other religions that is what Allah says, that there is no way that ah all the people in the world will be Muslims, so if that is the case, you should live with them together.

KN15 [15080-15181]

I think there is no any relationship between Islamic government and secular states. No relationship.

KN16 [7668-7797]

There is no any relationship protectors of the laws, protectors of the law, there is no any relationship protectors of the laws.

KN17 [18251-18501]

Uh the relationship between Islamic government and secular state in this era of 21st century actually they are multi-dimensional in terms of ah exchange of goods and services in terms of ah let me say ah travelling and tourisms, sporting activities.

KN17 [18546-18695]

Yeah the relationship should be harmonious but depending on the on the agreement that they have or the memorandum of agreement they having together.

KN18 [30882-31510]

Well these are two different things, an Islamic state is a state that follow directly the teachings of Islam

Q: Yes sir

A: And that no teaching of Islam deprive you from a normal mutual relationship with a non-Muslim man if there is respect, if there is tolerance, if there is ah if there is ah ah like ah aah a kind of ah recognitions of one religion and respect ones religions. Ah Saudi Arabia is viewed as Islamic state but is a best friend to U.S. which is a secular state and they are having the best relationship in the world because they are always, they are always having one political dimension similar and cunning.

KN19 [18795-18922]

Yes there should be a strong relationship between them because Islam has a stronger role to play towards the secular society.

KN20 [13006-13071]

But the only relation I can see there both of them are states.

KN20 [13126-13213]

They should, they should, there is nothing wrong in having a harmonious relationship.

KN21 [8273-8336]

There should be a cordial relationship, working hand in hand.

KN22 [15333-15684]

Yeah, the relationship there is secularism advocate the fact that in a particular society, there should not be adherence to teaching of any religion not even Islam. That let the constitution supersede any other constitution, let the constitution not adhere to Islamic sharia law. So that people are free to think willingly in that particular society.

KN22 [15793-16234]

Already for long, Islam has come with some attributes and Islam is a complete religion, I said earlier. Already it teaches us on how to coexist, interact with non-Muslims, with secularizes and this happened in Medina where there are Jews, Arab Jews, you understand, settlers there, there were no even settlers there. They are indigenous peoples there. Then the prophet teaches us on how to co-exist with them, how to respect their position.

KN23 [11913-12063]

Well secularism itself is not like the proper practicing of Islam, so but the only relationship that can exist is just for the maintenance of peace.

KN24 [12424-12533]

They are having a nice relationship between Islamic government and secular state. It should be a peaceful one

KN25 [15315-15599]

The relationship between Islamic government and secular government I think is very clear. The Islamic government is founded on the principles of oneness of Allah and justice, fairness and equity to everybody whereas the secular contemporary system, is based on rule of the majority.

KN25 [15708-15774]

They shouldn't relate. They are completely two different things.

KN25 [15887-16398]

It has to be a relationship whereby most of all I believe there is going to be a cessation. Whereas the Islamic state is going to be a sovereign independent state and a secular state is going to be a sovereign state. I do not see the possibility of these to matching because their are ways are never the same. This one form of government, the Islamic form of government does not, it does not tolerate the domination of man over man whereas the secular is founded on the principle of man's domination over man.

KN25 [17041-17542]

I think the relationship should be strictly based on if it is business, if should be business. It could even be pleasure because of the nature of the world, you understand, the nature of the integration of the world. But I still believe if a relationship should exist, it has to be on neutral basis, you understand, where no form of government coexistence will happen, you understand, no form of Cross fertilization of ideas or ways of life in order not to contaminate the Islamic way of doing things

KN26 [15325-15683]

You see from a sociological point of view, to be frank with you ah, the concept of an Islamic state as it is being practiced or it is being agitated for in this area in which we are, particularly the Middle Eastern era and now coming down to African shores, mostly sub-Saharan Africa, North Africa and the rest. It has been so bastardized so I don't really...

KN26 [15760-16488]

Not that it shouldn't be a harmonious one, it can be so co-opted, you know, those that want to that want to practice Islamic state if the nature of their country since we now live in inter...most societies are now being so segmented country by country they can, but those that have other non-Muslims in them can go for the secular state. Like I said the Islamic state quote and unquote has been so bastardized viz-a-viz to some extent also the secular state. Under normal circumstances from the sociological point of view there is nothing wrong from saying you are running a secular state but because of the divisive way we have in our society now, you find a situation whereby the secular state is being so misconceived in a way.

KN27 [13681-13783]

The relationship between-that should be between them is that of understanding, mutual understanding.

KN28 [10468-10695]

That has always been the issue of secularism, it has always been in existence that secularism, but I believe Islamic government should always be at the top because the issue of secular state shouldn't be in existence I believe

KN30 [13023-13158]

Islamic state and secular government? Ahm the difference shouldn't be much because I think they are almost, they go on the same coin.

KN31 [14794-15502]

Ah well this is not a problem, just like I normally tell people ah you know just like we say culture, Culture-normally you have your own culture you are naturally born into the culture. But I view religion as something that can be changed. You can be born as a Muslim and you decide to convert to a Christian, you can be born as a Christian and you decide to change as a Muslim. So Islamic state and secular state I don't think it is a problem. It is just a thing that have to-when there is understanding they can marry each other. It is just that you give Islam their own rights, non-Muslims their own rights and normally every state that operates democracy have their own constitution. They could coexist.

KN32 [6869-6897]

in a peaceful relationship

KN33 [6215-6271]

The relationship is normal and ah is positive relation.

KN34 [8456-8755]

Hmmm when you look at the-it depends on the society that maybe you find yourself in multi-cultural, multi-ethnic, multi-religious country like Nigeria, you have to look at you have to weigh before you know the kind of decision that you will take. You have to look at first the society that you are.

KN35 [11504-11579]

Islamic government may not recognize the secular government, they are antis

KN36 [11380-11535]

Islamic government and the secular state can exist and they can be in harmony but they should not use secular state to intervene with the tenets of Islam.

KN37 [9807-10041]

The relationship between the both should be that of mutual understanding one ok. The Islamic state should know its limit likewise the secular state too should know its limit and either of them should not try to cross another's limit.

KN38 [6936-7055]

Yah there could be relationships but I believe on terms that should not violate the teachings and rules of the sharia.

KN39 [11316-11815]

Yes of course there is some good relationship because if we could remember even the holy prophet in Medina really he even ah those Muslims who were living there really of course ah prophet really allowed them under the system of paying haraj. That is to say really holy prophet taught us to really allow those non-Muslims to come and be living with us. Therefore by so doing when they understand, when they are living with us really gradually they will understand where the religion is going ahead.

KN40 [12087-12096]

No idea.

KN41 [10139-10183]

I think it should be peaceful coexistence.

KN43 [16753-17169]

Peaceful coexistence and respect of each ones belief and practices. Islamic state should respect those who decided to practice a secular state or a secular government and secular government should respect Islamic state, in spite of their, you know, ah strict ah application of sharia because they apply sharia to their own state not to a secular state. So there should be a mutual respect, and peaceful coexistence.

KN44 [11978-12311]

The yah, the relationship has always been there between Islamic state and secular government; if you look through the history, we will find this type of ah relationship. I think the way the relationship was ah more or less ah utilized through history, that should be what, that should be what we look for and perhaps apply it here.

KN45 [13815-14220]

Yah, I think eh it is part of the reality of the present world. There are more secular government in the world than there are in Islamic ones. So am there must be a relationship, a bilateral relationship and since we are living in a global village now and peace being the most important thing into this world. I think there must be a peaceful coexistence between the whole countries, Islamic and secular.

KN46 [27496-28443]

Ahh the difference is, in Islam, the secular government, the secular government does not recognize the eh does not recognize the religion, in I mean ah religions are not in any way accommodated in conducting political activities while Islamic government ah Islamic government does certain things the way secular government does. Maybe the only difference between the secular government and the Islamic government is the source of its guidance. Secular government drives its guidance from what the people, what the people come to agree on. We want this so you come and say ok we want this whether that is ah, is against the religion or in tandem with religion is of no consequences. But in Islamic government, since the Islamic government derives its guidance from the religious text, therefore, you should not expect Islamic government to go against the precepts of religion that is Islamic religion. So far I think this is the bottom line.

KN47 [28688-29715]

Well there are this relationship should be outlined whenever they sit down they would say oh, we believe or we agree to go by your term in so, so places, but we don't agree to go by your terms in so, so places. In secular states, you understand, there is no consideration of Islam or any other religion, you know, but in Islamic state there are those kind of consideration that is why in the part of the universal declaration of human rights, when it was declared in 1946, you understand, there were some provision in the charter, whereby or which the Saudi Arabia themselves, they say we don't agree of, of this provision because we don't believe in the situation whereby if you change your religion then you go through, you understand, if you change your religion then you are encouraged to go and change your religion, so in Saudi Arabia, that was not possible and they clearly told the world through United Nation that we don't agree on that then ... so their relationship is something that we can sit down and determine.

KN48 [9253-9318]

There should, there should be inter-relationship between the two.

KN49 [17205-17419]

The relationship should be defined. A secular state is something and an Islamic state is something entirely different and Islamic state has its own ideals, its own concept, its own beliefs so does a secular state.

KN50 [8350-8430]

The relationship between Islamic government and secular state should be cordial

KN52 [21538-22378]

The relationship between Islamic government and secular state, well in the context of which state; an Islamic state or a secular state? Where you have an Islamic state, you cannot have a secular state, and where you have a secular state you cannot have an Islamic state. You understand the point? So the contradiction in that question has to be ironed out, but I hope I am not misinterpreting the question itself? But if I understand what you mean, is it possible for an Islamic state and a secular state to coexist, I don't think it is possible because in respect I think is related to the previous question about, the relationship between Islam and state. So in Islam in the context of an Islamic state I think it is not possible to have another state, in fact, in the context of any other state for that matter not Islamic state alone.

KN53 [10883-10969]

I don't think there is and I don't really have any idea pertaining to this question.

KN54 [5589-5597]

Cordial

KN55 [7125-7134]

Cordial

KN56 [10917-10983]

The relationship between them should be a peaceful relationship.

KN57 [11455-11636]

When we say Islamic government, it is a government which is in line with the teachings of Islam, the teaching of Sharia. While secular state is not to do with religion at all. Yes.

KN58 [25108-25451]

There is no such thing as secular state in Islamic belief. Islam believes in total submissions to the wills of Allah as the Supreme Being. In secular states, they don't even believe in God. So there is no any relationship, Islam is a religion. Secularism too is a religion because it believes in the existence of nothing, which is rubbish.

KN59 [19284-19658]

Kai gaskiya, to me, there is no relationship because I think secular state is a state that does not practice Islam I think. So actually based on my own understanding there shouldn't be because Islamic government is purely Islamic state, secular state is a state that is not based on Islamic teachings I think.

KN60 [20403-20593]

The relationship is living in harmony with each other unless if the secular state denies and decided to deny Islamic state its freedom of worship and freedom, then the conflict would begin.

KN61 [9100-9151]

Hmmm, there should be a relationship between them.

KN62 [31080-31520]

Well the relationship is just like the one we had in the days and time of the noble prophet, he lived under ah Abu Sufyan who was not a Muslim in the first place and ah nothing happened. They had their privilege of practicing their religion. So I believe that secularism, a secular state ah as long as it doesn't provide any detriment or any problem, stumbling block to the MuslimUmma, so there is nothing, there is nothing. I see nothing.

KN64 [15380-15508]

Like how Prophet Muhammad (SAW) ah did in his time, eh he lived with them in peace and simple way in order to understand Islam.

KN65 [17950-18225]

Okay I think ehh a secular state is a state where all religions have equal right; they do not recognize one religion as state religion. So the relationship that should exist between those states, I think it should be cordial relationship, the relationship should be cordial.

KN66 [10601-10693]

The relationship between an Islamic government and secular state is nothing but just peace.

KN67 [11468-11739]

The relationship is that ah well Islam or ahh the eh Islamic government can coexist with ah secular state and they can also have friendly relationship and they can also carry out so many things together as far as they do not contradict with the basic Islamic teachings.

KN68 [5683-5693]

Peaceful

KN69 [21542-22097]

Government and the secular government are independent of each other, but we can say that there is, there must be a relationship between each of the government to the fact that a relationship could be arise in the sense of business transactions, in the sense of issue of embassy, etc, etc. Therefore out rightly we cannot say that there is no any relationship between Islamic state and secular state, but what is important that we are to bear at the back of our mind is that Islamic state is an independent state and secular state is an independent state.

KN71 [36431-37087]

The relationship, you see even in the early Islamic years, when there were the state created and of course there were allies, you should have allies here and there and they must not necessarily be Muslims. Just like see how the prophet (SAW) took his immigrants to, not only a secular state, but a Christian state. What if it were a secular? And if it should be a secular state, the relationship would be that of understanding and tolerance. You understanding my rights and respecting it and I understanding your rights and not compelling you to be part of me, but what do I say, always advising, admonishing and pulling you closer in a peaceful manner.

KN71 [37395-38126]

What I understand is like maybe this is an Islamic state in one part and a secular state on another. Is that what you mean? Yes as, when you say relationship, how they should relate? That is what I am telling you. The relationship should be that of tolerance, of understanding just like, let me just quote these two gentlemen of our country, the late Ahmadu Bello Sardauna of Sokoto and the late Azikwe. Azikwe is a southern Christian, Ahmadu Bello was a northern Muslim, so Azikwe was saying to Ahmadu Bello, let us bury our differences so that we can live in peace. Then Ahmadu Bello said no, you are a Christian southern and I am a Muslim northerner, it is better when we understand our differences, then we can live in peace.

KN72 [20035-20099]

There is relationship between Islamic and the secular relations.

KN72 [20127-20337]

The secular government in some aspect because Islam always provides the necessities of life at the front, and the secular in its hand is also talk about this. I think that is the relations, the only relations.

KN73 [19687-19968]

Secular state and Islamic state are different. Secular is anti-Islamic state and while Islamic government is a different. Those are just the differences and there is no relationship in Islam between Islamic government and secular state. There is no relationship, it's a contrary.

KN74 [31795-31843]

There is no any relationship between these two.

KN75 [34098-34174]

There is no relationship between Islamic government and secular government.

KN76 [21989-22264]

Well the relationship should be cordial. This is to say that when you have an Islamic state living together with a secular state, is for one to recognize the existence of the other as the right of the other to exist, once you have that, you can have a cordial relationship.

KN78 [33242-33312]

We don't even have an Islamic government in the first place in Nigeria

KN78 [33352-34370]

Well at global level, as I said, I think if you remember what I told you that for now in this modern scheme of human affairs, in this global schemes of things, there is no one country that will, that represents essentially an ideal Islamic state, none. But you see ahm the relationship I think they are all governments. If there is any Islamic state, in sense, it is ahm you have a various institutions that are guided either by secular values or a religious values or Islamic values, yah. Those institutions, it could be politically, it could be economic, it could be, I mean, all institutions are guided by either the secular ideals or secular values when I say secular values, I simply mean any value that is against religion, that is opposed to religion, not necessarily against the religion, but opposed to religion. Ahh but Islamic government is ahh quite different from ahh secular government in terms of the worldview, in terms of their values. The relationship only is the fact that they are all governments.

KN80 [29879-30253]

So Islamic government is a government which operates within the Islamic tenets and commandment while the secular government is a government which operates without the influence of religion that is the secularism. So the relationship I think it is only one laid down by the Islam on how Muslims should relate with non-Muslims since there is relationship provided by Islam.

KN81 [14634-14659]

There is no relationship

KN82 [19950-20116]

The relationship is that, they are two different things because this one is talking about the supremacy and the oneness of Allah and the other one is oppose to that.

KN83 [12266-12325]

Both likes to rule people and both are the government.

KN84 [14256-14497]

I think the relationship is when there is good understanding and if there is no good understanding they are separated to each other because Islamic governance follow the way of Allah while secular governance is anti-Islamic government, yes.

KN85 [16109-16272]

Yes Islamic government can relate, can enter into relationship with secular state, but on agreement on treaties and terms that do not violate Islamic principles.

ZA1 [17210-17696]

So what do you mean by secular? Is there anything secular on earth now? Because if you are talking about America is not secular, if you say is secular is state where no religion. In America before you become a president, they will give you a Bible to hold and swear. Ah and they say that in their own log, in God we depend. So what do they mean by secular? Please explain what secular means? In China, Buddhism you have to, they have what they believe on. So what do you mean by secular

ZA2 [16459-17437]

Hmmm the relation between government, Islamic government and secular state. The relationship there is issue of the rules and regulation as essence, to me, from the beginning to the end, what I have in mind and clear is that are the rules in line with that of God? Is it what is revealed to we called prophet Muhammad (SAW)? So before prophet Muhammad is it what is revealed to Dauda alayhissalat wa salam? Is it what is revealed to Musa alayhissalat wa salam? Is it what is revealed to Isah? Is it what is revealed to Muhammad (SAW)? We look at the chain because this books we are calling, they don't have they, don't know, no one kick against the other. So you see when we are saying secular, are they not human being? Is it not we, is it not myself as a Muslim that is in the secular? Then we should drop that and lets go by the teaching. Are we going by the teaching or putting in our personal interest because that is the key issues that is bigger problem we are having?

ZA3 [15510-15655]

Hmm of course the relationship should be quite clear and most important is even what the religion of Islam is there should be justice, justice.

ZA4 [32964-34188]

Yes. Islamic government is a government that is run by the Qur'an and the Sunna and the secular state are those type of governance that are ruled by ideas and ideologies of the people and if you want to follow the principles of the Qur'an or the reference of the Qur'an in Suratul Naida the Allah is saying (he recites the Qur'an) those that govern, you understand, or those that are following some doctrines understanding without the guidelines of the Qur'an and the Sunna they are not in the right path of which people misunderstand this type of this thing because in a secular state sometimes you can see you have multiples of different types of people, languages and all that, right. So if they want to come to unite they have to come with one goal, right? One understanding, so this is...and if we can get a Islamic state where the Muslims are dominant, getting an Islamic state is best because Islam is all about justice and no, no anybody or any type of governance that can give you justice than Islam, so they prefer that, if it is necessary and if it cannot generate that, it can cause havoc and destruction, you should know, you should, Allah (he recites the Qur'an) yes. You can't enforce it, it comes naturally.

ZA5 [19251-19311]

They have to agree on issues, thank you, that is just all.

ZA6 [47648-48147]

Ahm the relationship between Islamic government and the secular state is the constitution, the constitution. Ahh in both cases, whether sharia law or the secular constitution, you have fundamental human rights, there are fundamental human rights and that is basic. In sharia you are free to practice your religion even if you are not a Muslim even within the Muslim state. In the secular religion it is clear that everybody can practice his or her religion. So I think that is a good relationship.

ZA7 [17744-18002]

I think their relationship should be mutual in the sense that it should be in accordance with each other and we should probably be in agreement to avoid crisis and other things.

ZA8 [39232-40816]

Islamic government and secular state. Like for instance now, my opinion on this is, and what I know of little knowledge I know about Islam is that, if any state is under, for instance, like let just use state and local government, is like let's say like Katsina now, Funtua is more outskirts of Katsina than in Katsina. So they believe in Katsina that Funtua is not part of Katsina, but it is being labeled geographically under Katsina, is a local government in Katsina state, but the people, the government of Katsina don't believe that, they funtua is more of outsiders than the actual indigene of state. Now if a state, let's assume Katsina state now is an Islamic state, Funtua is a secular local government from Katsina now, they must whether they like it or not, it is binding on them to look after them whatever their justice, their protection, whatever their are feeding, their accommodation whatever it is, it is binding on the Islamic state to take care of that secular state also because it is under their jurisdiction. They must not say because most of the people living there are outsiders, then they will leave them to their self. Even if it is a Christian local government, are you getting what am trying to say? Let's assume Funtua is a Christian, dominantly they are Christians there, no Muslims and their jurisdiction falls under Katsina state an Islamic state, it is binding on the state to look after their welfare and their well-being irrespective of the religion they are practicing because this is what Islam talks about, you must do good to your neighbor.

ZA9 [19767-20494]

As I said before Nigeria is a multi-religious state, is a multi-religious country, nation. Whereas where we have Christians, Muslims, traditional worshippers, we even have atheists in this country, those that do not believe in any religion, they don't believe God exist. Some believe God exist. I think what Islamic leaders, Muslim leaders should do to call their people, to call their followers, they have a very important role to play in assisting the government for peaceful coexistence among all this different religions. They have to teach their followers, they have to teach them utmost, they have to teach them how to maintain utmost peace with their people, tolerance, they have to tolerate ourselves in this country.

ZA10 [22584-23115]

Islamic government and secular state, the relationship is very clear, the secular state like as we all know is just the constitution which is created by selected members of the state. The Islamic state government strictly goes by the Qur'an and the hadith as the constitution and with that when you go by the hadith as the constitution, you are going by the teaching of the prophet and the word of God, so you do that that is the best. Secular state is just interest, let me use that word, interest of people which can be wrong.

ZA11 [17038-17366]

Islamic government is the government that makes sure that the way of life of Islam, which is the sharia law, is being implemented. So I guess that's the difference, but the difference is not that much because it is being misunderstood that the sharia law doesn't give room for non-Muslims and which is a very wrong perspective.

ZA12 [9497-9734]

Well the relationship between Islamic government and secular state, the relationship is, secular state that is different religions practiced in a country, then Islamic government the relationship, I think let's go to the next question.

ZA13 [10717-10770]

I think accumulating all the constitutional rights.

ZA14 [12879-12964]

That should be the rules and regulations, the way of life and the way they do things.

ZA15 [16434-16937]

When you say secular state what I view it is, because Nigeria now is a secular state because it gives freedom for everybody to practice his religion. So what will I view between Islam government and secular state? Ahh Islamic government will guide you and give you more focus on what to do while the secular will also guide you and give you focus but Islamic state there are some limitations there are some do's and don'ts that definitely if you venture into it, Islamic law will definitely be on you.

ZA16 [10157-10315]

The relationship is that if there is no Islamic state or the Islamic state is under that secular state, then they should follow their own constitution, yah.

ZA17 [9970-10197]

I don't think there is ah, secular state is the state that doesn't mind about anything so Islam cannot accept all these things because there is a provision of, you can do your own, but you will be collecting, giving jizya so...

ZA18 [14081-14592]

Islamic, secular state is the state that has nothing to do with religion ah toh mu gaskiya ah in Islamic, in the Islamic context, the Islamic religion has nothing to do with secularism ko and that is how I look at it, you can stay with an individual that has no religion, you have nothing to do, let him just ah there is, is stated in the Qur'an I think in Kuliya yu al-kafiruna, yauwa do your own religion and allow me to do mine, shikenan and for one want to say Nigeria is a secular state kaza, kaza, kaza

ZA19 [19075-19612]

Ah actually the relationship between Islamic government and secular state right, well the relationship between Islamic government and secular state is at a polar opposite because Islam does not treat, Islam actually teaches the submission to the will of Allah while secular state does not have a stipulated ideology in which people will adhere to. Secular state is actually talking about a situation where everyone will have his own right to do whatever he wants to do. A state will not be controlled by a person of religious morality.

ZA20 [10762-10863]

So both, both of the two are going by administering and managing people's affairs, both of the two.

ZA21 [15617-16065]

The relationship is that Islam also gives provision for those non-Muslims to live under the government of Islam without harassment only if they are to pay a penny for that. But then even in a secular state you can live independently without somebody harassing you because you are practicing this religion or the other. I can say with all sense of respect that am there is great relationship between Islamic government and the secular government.

ZA22 [14707-14990]

Yah that is what I think we have here in Nigeria. We should just continue to practice our religion to the best of our ability and if at all the say we can't practice that is when we frown our eyes. But there is nothing let them continue their secularism and we continue our Islam.

ZA23 [19722-20465]

Secularism is just a deceit. There is nothing secular in this world. You either believe in your own religion or one will go astray. If you talk of secularism, secularism is a situation where no religion is given reference. But if you talk in the case of Nigeria, even if our government will say they are not after any religion, when they want something, they are in need of something, the leaders I am talking about, they will ask the Muslims to pray in the mosque, is it not? They will ask the Christian clerics to pray in the churches. Why then are you demanding for prayers from these people? Even America is not secular. Every nation has a religion they follow. The issue of secularism I will agree of multi-religion, but not secularism.

ZA24 [26304-26484]

The relationship between them is that they all govern human beings. They all serve as a good government so therefore there is a relationship between them. All of them are ruling.

ZA25 [22983-23274]

ah it is just eh- you know there are common things, virtues and values in the world. So the main relationship that should exist between them is constant preaching-logical preaching to the non-Muslims governments and looking for a way of converting some of their followers to Islamic fold.

ZA26 [11178-11306]

I don't know there is nothing wrong if secular state will the Muslims to practice their own law. I don't think there is problem.

ZA27 [9653-9823]

Actually the relationship is that anything that is lawful in a secular system of government Islamic or so agree with. Anything that is contrary to it Islam did not agree

ZA28 [22224-22312]

There are terms here that I am not use to. This secular state I really don't know what...

ZA29 [30878-31554]

Well when you talk of Islamic government and secular state, in a secular state, let me start from there, a secular state is a state that gives freedom to the people living in the particular state, in that particular state rather irrespective of their religion, background or region or religion. While Islamic state is a state in which it gives freedom to the people living in the state that practice the teachings of the religion and at the same time it gives room for those that for the people at that very state and they do not practice the religion, but they practice other religions but not inflicting any danger to the religion or any that is not right to the religion.

ZA30 [40820-41166]

Ehn the relationship as I said, Rasul stayed even under constitution, so is a when people found themselves in a country or the same place where different people exist. So they have to also, as I said also earlier, Islam is not rigid, it is flexible...and created a medium, that would give each and everyone his own rights. Islam is not a...religion.

ZA31 [14737-15129]

The relationship is that Islam preach what God says as in God's word while secular state in, in the, in governing the people, Islam doesn't agree with westernization like as in, agreeing with people to dress any how while secular state, they have total freedom, even though it is not part of their religion, they impose it. So I don't see really, there is no any relationship to some extent.

ZA32 [40622-41691]

The relationship between the two can be the establishment of leadership, both of the two there must be what, leadership and the, both leadership have the power to execute a law. This can be a relationship. For example, in our modern state, in our today, in our Nigeria today we can say we have a central power which is federal government and state government and local government likewise in an Islamic state, we have a central power which is caliph, caliphate and the ah we have a middle power like governors of other provinces within the states, and we have also local level, ah leadership of local level like Wali and other types of ranks in the leadership, and so also the relationship between the two can be the issue of guiding people, guiding people to the right way, both the secular and the Islamic state are based on what, on guiding the people to the right way. Though man made law can never be compared, can never be the same, can never even be on the same way of moving to that of Islam. Secular, secularism can never be the same with Islam, yes Islamism.

ZA33 [10996-11608]

Yes Islamic government is a government governed with the constitution of Allah that is the Qur'an. The Qur'an is the sole constitution in the Islamic government. Whereas in the secular state the use a written-constitution written by people. And human beings are bound to errors whereas Qur'an there is no error in it, but the secularist state you can do whatsoever you can do in the name of civic rights, the so-called human rights, civic rights and so on and so forth. But in Islamic state it is restricted under the rule of Allah (Subahana wa ta'allah) and the Sunna of the prophet (SAW) which is the Hadith.

ZA34 [24168-25159]

The relationship between Islamic government and a secular state. An Islamic government is a government that is engaged and being carried out the complete revealed system of religion that is what Allah (SBUH) revealed and it is going about like that. While a secular state is a state that doesn't have even religion. The relationship between a secular state and an Islamic state is quite somehow, If I am to say the differences it is different. But if to say relationship, an Islamic state can live with a secular state in a peaceful way, why, Rasul (SAW) lived in Medina. The Jews are there although they left the teaching of their religion because some of their religious teachings were left contrary to what was earlier teaching of the religion. But ya Rasul (SAW) accommodated them. If Rasul (SAW) will accommodate the Jews, the Christians, the politheisers that are living in Medina what about you a Muslims because Allah (SBUH) says ...And you have a good example from the prophet (SAW).

ZA35 [11210-11218]

No idea

ZA36 [17259-17486]

You see, Islamic government is the government that deals on sharia. All the affairs of the state is based on Islam, Islamic rules and regulations. A secular state does not use that. So I don't think they have any relationship.

ZA37 [20732-21150]

So the relationship between this is for them, if you are a Muslim, this one is a non-Muslim Islam allows you to interact with each and every individual, no matter what religion he believes on, even if you don't have religion. The only thing is that you should mind with your own religion and allow him to mind with his own religion. Islam does not put any barrier of relationships between this one and that religion.

ZA38 [26600-26712]

The relationship should be more of cordial than any other thing else why because they only need understanding.

ZA39 [37425-37885]

The relationship between Islamic government and the secular state, if any, I don't think the secular government, Islamic government in the first place is the government that believes that it is the government that believes in the complete ah full operation of Islam or full operation of its activities the Islamic way while the secular government is the government that does not recognize the existence of both in its activities, so there is no relationship.

Th9.9: Universal Caliphate and Its Operation

KD1 [57319-57537]

The universal caliphate, as I have said, I have never heard that the whole world has been under one rule. So we can't, since that I have not heard it happen, so I can't tell you how it or how my view of it looks like.

KD2 [27481-27605]

Actually I don't have any understanding of what universal caliphate is all about or not to even talk about how it operates.

KD3 [21350-21692]

A universal caliphate that is maybe one leader for all the Muslims means for us to have a leader that ehm one particular leader that will be a, is just to have one leader then for all Muslims to see that leader as their head and they will subordinate may be those that are under leader that will guide a particular, in each country or state.

KD4 [52708-52959]

Universal caliphate as, to my understanding, is a situation whereby there is a single ruler who steers the affairs of, who steer the affairs, who oversees the affairs of the religion and then everybody obey that ruler and that is universal caliphate.

KD5 [27901-28042]

I don't know much about universal caliphate, but I think universal caliphate should be Muslims to obey one leader or one king in the world.

KD7 [35248-35459]

My understanding of the universal caliphate is that there is a sit of caliphate somewhere in the world and all Muslim countries are bound to obey that authority, to be submissive, subservient to that authority.

KD8 [61367-61933]

A universal caliphate has existed during the Ottoman empire , it has existed as at that time, certain things came and it collapsed. But it is my, my prayer that we are going to have another one and its operation is that it, it operates based on what Islam prescribes. It operates based on fairness and justice. That's the way it operates and it protects the rights of everybody, it has some, it gives people freedom not the kind of modern freedom that the West is talking about whereby you can go and live immoral life and you now perpetuate evil act not like that.

KD9 [43512-43579]

Now we are wading into technical grounds. I will skip that one too

KD10 [34953-35249]

Yes of course, if there is government of sharia. If there is Islamic state we should be under one government or one leader now. Like Saudi Arabia all of them are under, their leader is a man, their leader is Salman Hafiza allahu ta'allah may Allah preserve him for goodness. Are you getting me?

KD12 [37966-38548]

Ah universal caliphate eh during this time around, in fact during the time we have the caliphate, the caliphate formed an Islamic government in totality and then people under them ah enjoyed, so the way forming an Islamic caliphate now where we have some people ah see that are not, because when we have to choose a Caliph to form a caliphate state, it has to be on religious understanding, knowledge, but now you see where it has been muddled, that even those that don't have knowledge are being put into some places and then they say that it is being inherited by their fathers

KD13 [17357-17468]

These one can only, you see, if we view it we would say it existed only during the time of the prophet (SAW).

KD14 [22468-22745]

When you say universal caliphate in Islam we mean one standing leader. That's a leader we call it may be a leader of the whole Muslims and even with that there will be subordinates that is maybe assistants in various community and state and countries that is my understanding.

KD16 [18012-18022]

Go ahead

KD17 [53654-53854]

Okay when you say universal whereby the whole world are being practicing or are being ruled by the Islamic state or are practicing the Islamic sharia. That is what I understand by Islamic caliphate.

KD17 [53887-54033]

Whereby one person as in a world leader will be leading every as in the universe as a whole. There will be a world leader, a Muslim world leader.

KD19 [35117-35615]

Universal caliphate, now when you say universal caliphate you mean the entire Muslim being ruled by one single authority as it operates in the days of the dynasty. We have the Ottoman dynasty in those days that operate that rule the entire Muslim world from Turkey. Now in today's world I don't think that is possible because we have different cultures and beliefs and different Islamic scholars who hold different opinion and views about the religion, so universal caliphate is not possible now.

KD20 [29141-29179]

I have no idea about the caliphates.

KD21 [26790-26808]

I don't know it.

KD23 [27486-27533]

Ah I don't have anything much to say on this.

KD24 [81258-81709]

Universal caliphate means to have ah to have a community in whole, in large that it is been governed by one leader even though he should have eh other sub-leaders that will be guiding and ruling in sub-sections, so this one it has been scrapped, it has been in existent during the life of prophet and sahabas but later on when things has changed, life has turned people has been, the number of people has been increasing, all the things have changed.

KD25 [94449-95364]

Universal caliphate has to do with eh after the death of the prophet, those that came after the prophet that ah you know ah that served as viceroys of the prophet. The first is Abubakar that was the universal leader of all Muslims, he was Kahlifa. Khalifa is the leader to all the Muslims, but now this present time of ours is not eh is not possible, is not possible eh because eh people have eh have multiplied. The numbers of people living then ah they are not up to the numbers of people living now. That of now has also outnumbered that of before with many, let me say multi-millions. And it is not easy to control even one million people talk-less of millions. So ah but to some extent, we can the leadership of Khalifa be established maybe on country basis or state basis. But to be this universal caliphate now is not possible. But to some extent the Muslims can keep on trying to see if it can be possible.

KD26 [30271-30767]

I don't get that one. It will make a lot of things easier if the world was governed by an Islamic caliphate, but in the sense which if wishes were horses then men will ride on them or something like that, but if it was like that life would be easier, level of crime will be reduced, level of corruption will be reduce, poverty will reduce to the barest minimum. There will be sanity in this world and it will operate based on the teachings of the sharia law and the rulings of the sharia law.

KD27 [29210-29616]

A universal caliphate is an Islamic leadership that encompasses, that covers all, that covers the whole world with all Muslims making mubaya'at to it. That is the universal caliphate. I don't think in the present situation, I think that is part of history, I don't think the current situation of Muslims in the world that there could be an Islamic caliphate, a universal caliphate perhaps in the future.

KD28 [38836-38887]

Well I don't understand that universal caliphate.

KD29 [24590-24636]

I have a very shallow understanding of that.

KD30 [44164-44454]

Ah the Khalifa if I ah if I get your question right, the Khalifa is the head of the Islamic government where he is the supreme leader that gives command in all the Islamic states where we have ahm different governors, so the Khalifa is the overall head, the supreme head where others come.

KD32 [31612-31865]

Ah that is the universal of caliphate that is uniting the Islamic sate coming under single leadership, so I think this should be, the way it supposed to be it will unite the Muslims from different part of the world to come under single eh leadership.

KD33 [28862-29066]

Universal caliphate, I understand it as the supreme leader of an Islamic state and it is as how the president or the prime minister of any country operate with ministers, state governors and everything.

KD34 [34259-34680]

Universal caliphate, universal caliphate how what I understand is that emm a long time ago that is before the coming of the Europeans we have Islamic caliphate. Islamic caliphate is ehm is a caliphate that consolidate the whole Islamic state under a particular government which is eh under Sokoto, Sokoto state which they operate, everybody operate according to his own culture, but according to the teachings of Islam.

KD35 [34138-34235]

I don't know the universal caliphate. I don't believe in that. I don't know about it.

KN1 [68597-68943]

Well universal caliphate all I know is I have never seen it in the religion whereby the whole world is under the Islamic state and anything mentioned by me because I didn't read it in the religion that there is universal caliphate I have never read it in the religion so I don't know anything about it. So I cannot say anything concerning that.

KN2 [40064-40124]

Honestly I don't understand what universal caliphate means.

KN4 [53038-53240]

The Caliphate, it operates based on the religion of the people around and those that are not ah ah eh in the same religion within their territory they operate, so I don't think there is nothing there.

KN5 [35105-35291]

Universal caliphate, universal caliphate means that that the leadership or the running of the affairs of the government under the Khalifa of power of the particular territory or entity.

KN6 [40064-40118]

Universal caliphate I don't understand this question

KN8 [33830-34338]

Universal caliphate could be treated from the era of prophet (SAW) whereby the four rightly Caliphs Abubakar, Ali, Uthman and Umar, you understand, they are the one that listen and embrace the word of the holy prophet. They are the one that very close to him and it is through them we hear the word of the holy prophet. But contemporarily, I think it would be very hard, you understand, for this to be universalized because there is some changes and development in the society. We are in a post modern era.

KN9 [30684-30798]

Well the universal caliphate has to be a leadership which is in favour and support of the entire population, hmm.

KN10 [24587-24674]

Yes, the universal caliphate are those that rule the world and they rule with justice.

KN11 [32797-32906]

Universal caliphate, yes, when Islam, if Islam would be practiced as it is, there must be universal caliphate

KN13 [35230-35361]

Universal caliphate, the word universal caliphate means vicegerents of the God. They are just like representative of God on earth.

KN14 [28485-28748]

That is the caliphate universal caliphate means that the representative of ah, that is the Islamic leader that represent the prophet in terms of ruling, that is after the prophet there should be someone that should take over his responsibility that is caliphate.

KN15 [24402-24556]

Universal caliphate right? It is the system I think of ruling fully righteous guided Caliphs isn't it? After the death of the holy prophet Muhammad (SAW).

KN16 [14273-14377]

It is the system of ruling by full righteous guide caliphate after the death of prophet Mohammed (SAW).

KN17 [27832-28152]

Universal caliphate comprises of ah the just like ah just like the way the ah the four guided Caliph actually ruled that is we mean what they actually mean by universal caliphate follow down to the era of the Ottoman Empire or the Ottoman Caliph. So I think that is the the same way how a universal caliphate should be.

KN18 [48985-49808]

That there is one there is one imam for the world one Khalifa following the old teaching of ah the prophet just like the way the prophet lived ah toh, but in this world how could it happen? Even the prophet did not cut across ah all religions, yes he propagates the religion but the message, the message propagates outside, Muslims could have one leader I buy this idea that there should be one leader, Muslim leader who is a Khalifa or imam of the Muslim world but does not mean that that leader is a universal leader of all the world, it does not mean that. Secondly, it does not mean that he carries all the weight of authority, all the weights of, but when it is issues that are purely Islamic he can give clarifications, clarifications of the direction to take, giving political dimension, given political direction.

KN19 [30672-30761]

Actually, the universal caliphate has existed during the time of the holy prophet (SAW).

KN19 [30791-30908]

Ah it will be very hard because of the voluminous nature of the society and the heterogeneous nature of the society.

KN20 [23044-23195]

Universal caliphate? Is a situation whereby all the caliphate in Islam are universal, people-all of us follow them the same rules the same everything.

KN21 [16234-16316]

Yes it does not longer operate, in the presence of liberal democracy.

KN22 [32933-33203]

My understanding of universal caliphate, it is that caliphate that cut across all the Muslim nations and it is operated by the Shura council, and it is operated by choosing a leader of Shura and a problem to a particular nation will result to problem to another nation.

KN23 [21666-21973]

Yah universal caliphate yah it is stated in holy Quran that all Muslim umma should be under one umbrella, under on leadership and it operates with segment- Amir. Amirs like the emirs of all regions like in Africa now we can have two Amirs. Just like in Nigeria we have Sultan of Sokoto as a representative.

KN24 [20511-20638]

It is not possible because there is no way that a Khalifa will be ruling the whole of Muslims in the 21st century world today

KN25 [33537-33677]

Well a universal caliphate, in my understanding, I think is a leadership established in favor of everybody. So what is the second question?

KN25 [33704-33855]

It operates basically on the idea of been accommodative to all the sectors of the society that is it welcomes everybody and it treats everybody equally

KN26 [36232-36820]

Well some of these concepts, like I said, are largely new concepts since the spring of world terrorism and all, but what I think is that the world should be only one Islamic movement. I think that is what I mean. I don't think that is possible the world is not only composed of one religious group that is Islam. You have a lot of religions if you are on a global perspective you have a lot. Yes you have monotheism, you have a lot of them and in each of the categories you have a lot of inputs. Judaism, Taoism, Hinduism, a lot of them, Confucianism, a lot. I don't think it will be fair

KN27 [25565-25587]

I don't have an idea

KN28 [19934-19990]

I don't think this is possible and it is not workable.

KN30 [18455-18494]

In summary he is just a Muslim leader.

KN31 [33089-33679]

Well when we say caliphate is just a simple term, is just a reformer. The prophets (SAW) said that after hundred centuries a Caliphate will be sent down to the Muslims umma so that he will reform them and trying to revive or re-enlighten them according to the Islamic injunction. So initially we have but in the twenty first century since Islam has been broken into –the prophet said Islam will be broken like into 73 sects, we see now we have different sects. So having a caliphate that would that will bring people together in this our current century is not really, really and easy thing ah universal caliphate can simply be referred to as a system whereby the entirety of the globe is been....or... sorry... by one Islamic ruler and it operates base on the dictates of the Qur'an ...

KN32 [16511-16701]

KN33 [12529-12569]

It unites all Muslims under one umbrella

KN34 [22043-22388]

My understanding to universal caliphate is just to have a central government that will be controlled by a Caliph or Khalifa just like what is obtainable before in northern Nigeria. So by the time he will take charge then he will delegate his power to other Emirs or Amir and they will be reporting back what is happening in their domain to him.

KN35 [20944-21163]

Now the universal caliphate is no more in existence after the diminishing of the Ottoman Empire, so that one has gone but we can't say forever maybe it can still come back, so there is nothing like universal caliphate.

KN36 [21844-22020]

Universal caliphate operates when we have universal application of the religious tenet around all the Islamic state, but is in the past, no more practiced in the world again.

KN37 [20523-20828]

Universal caliphate, I don't think we have a universal caliphate in this twenty first century. It is something that has happened during the time of the prophet Mohammed, peace be upon him, Sayyidina Umar, Abubakar, and Ali. I don't think in the present twenty first century we have a universal caliphate.

KN38 [15401-15568]

Universal caliphate to my understanding is the governing or the institutionalization of states under the control of a representative of the prophet that is the Amir.

KN39 [24034-24181]

When we say universal caliphate refers to the super power. Super power in the sense that those that are, for example, like being ruling the world.

KN40 [19753-19860]

Universal caliphate is a state where it is only one ruler who controls or rules the majority or operates.

KN41 [17127-17161]

Move to the next question please.

KN42 [43577-43586]

No idea

KN43 [32408-32801]

So, the universal caliphate is all about a single leadership of Muslim umma because Islam emphasizes on the need for Muslims to have a leader. Any society that lives without leader is bound to, you know, be ah destroyed, is bound to face a lot of challenges and problems. So, in my opinion, universal caliphate is all about having a single leader who will control the affairs of the Muslims.

KN44 [25871-25898]

I don't have idea on that.

KN45 [35359-36361]

Yah my understanding of the issue of universal caliphate is for Muslims to have one leadership, one leadership for Muslims to live under one umbrella. I think that is the meaning of ehh Islamic caliphate and eh how I view it yah ehh now in the present world, I don't think it is possible at all for the Muslims to have ahh one supreme, one supreme leader. I don't think it is possible because with this, every country is independent. Saudi Arabia is a Muslim country and ehh maybe Iran is ehh is a Muslim country and they have their ideological differences and maybe political differences, yah. Syria is a Muslims country, you take Qatar a Muslim country, they are all independent countries with their different rulers. So even in the northern Nigeria in the Muslim north we have the Sultan of Sokoto who is called the Sarkin Muslimi who is considered traditionally to be the leader of the Muslim Umma, yah. But I don't think it is possible to have a supreme ehh a supreme leader for the Muslims, yah.

KN46 [57212-58199]

This is ahh a theory. Ahh there are some people who are clamoring for restoration of universal caliphate that means for a unified leadership of a Muslim world. They are clamoring for this because of the huge, maybe, huge challenges facing the Muslim world, and you see the Muslim world is all scattered in different states, different countries with no ahh, clear vision, no single or unified leadership. So they think if all Muslim states and countries come together and have ehh unified leadership, they can properly face their challenges and address them in a proper manner, but this is not, this is their own theory ah because it is not a requirement eh no Muslim is required to ehh, I mean, it is not a requirement for a Muslims to have one unified leadership. The most important thing is to have right rapport even if you have one thousand leaders. Rapport should be ahh strived to be built between these leaders so that they would not be ahh behaving or acting in ehh discordance.

KN47 [53603-54168]

Universal caliphate. Do we have any? I don't think we have universal caliphate as long as we don't have universal government, we simply have some organizations that we can call universal, you see, some international organizations, you know, there is no state that can claim that it is universal in nature or its policies are universal even the United State should not or cannot claim you know because their policy safety net, America safety nest are not Nigerian safety nest. So you see they are policies that are not concerning us and they cannot claim universal.

KN48 [18076-18330]

Universal caliphate, that one to be practiced now, ehh eh, it will be so hard because universal caliphate is, is a situation whereby we have just a leader in the whole of the universe and I think that one happened last during the time of Muhammad (SAW).

KN49 [28471-28633]

Actually the universal caliphate has to do with eh a caliphate that encompasses the entire globe and ah it would operate by possibly controlling the entire world.

KN50 [15834-15988]

Universal caliphate is having one leader that controls Muslim Umma that controls Muslim Umma all over the world. In our present day, this is unrealizable.

KN52 [51514-52949]

Universal Caliphate (laugh) this is very interesting. I think the way he or she is asking these questions seem to me as if he/ she has formulated an opinion about his own subject or problem. What does he mean by a universal caliphate? We have never had any universal caliphate in the history of Islam although these days I hear some of this crazy jihadist the al-Qaida and the rest of them talking about universal jihad, universal caliphate but I don't really understand what they mean by that. Islam is a universal religion that I believe is a universal religion, universal in the sense that the message is meant for the entire humanity unlike other messages to the Jewish and to the Christians that were meant for a restricted particular communities. Islam is different. So in that sense Islam as a message is universal, but Islam as a political program, as a political project, in my view, well I do hope that the whole world, Christians and Jews and other non-believers would convert to Islam for instance I mean that would not be bad for Islam, for instance and it would not be bad for Christianity neither, either to have all Muslims and Jews converting into Christianity. That is what is called struggle for converts. There is a competition of course, the proselytization competition among these two religions, but I do not believe in any universal caliphate in what sense? I do not understand what it means in the first place.

KN54 [11797-11831]

Well this is no longer operating

KN55 [13775-13803]

It is no longer operating.

KN56 [22638-22934]

Ok my understanding of the universal caliphate is ah a medium through which the Muslims can be voicing out their opinion, agreement and disagreement through a unanimous single voice, but actually on the question of how does it operate I don't think universal caliphate is any longer operating.

KN57 [19713-19892]

When you talk of universal caliphate, you see ah based on my own understanding, is a unified federal Islamic government for the Muslim world. That is what it is all about. Yes.

KN58 [44817-45072]

That is universal caliphate simply means that man is a viceroy or a vicegerent of God. Man is a representative of God. So wherever he is, he should uphold that, he should truly represent God by obeying the rules and regulations ordained by Allah.

KN59 [45237-46034]

Hmm the understanding of universal caliphate to me means that caliphate or leadership is not restricted to a particular region or place, you understand, because as a Muslim state, it is not in a particular place that you are Muslims, Muslims can extend to various places so you as the head as the caliphate you cannot say your power is restricted to this particular place. There are some representative that you can assign to carry on the activities or leadership in their own area, you understand, a times they do use pious people, they do use Imams, you understand, but you are the supreme head of that state, but in some localities you can assign responsibility to some people you think are pious and reasonable. So I think that is what I understand with that universality of the Caliphate.

KN60 [32817-33242]

Actually I can say now the Muslims do not have the Universal caliphate because you cannot have an entity coming out to say all Muslims in the world are to do this and all Muslims in the world would do that, they would now abide by what the person, that particular entity has said. We don't have that unity and we are divided and what have you. So now it is not even in practice. We don't have it actually. We are divided.

KN61 [17135-17262]

The caliphate are partially ah ok because as now it depends on how people I think there understand to them or believe to them.

KN62 [54607-55873]

I don't believe in the universality of ah caliphate. Of course I don't believe in the universal caliphate. Let us understand this ah concept of universalism. Universalism means to make people live, you understand, under one leadership. There's, there has never been this throughout the pages of history. I have never read something like this and I have never heard of it and I believe there cannot be a kind of one universal caliphate. We only know that Islam is a religion for all (He recites a verse of the Qur'an) Allah (SBUH) has sent the noble prophet to all and sundry, to every tom, dick and harry, to everybody living under the sun. The noble prophet is sent to him, but it is not necessary that everybody must accept the religion (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) no not that verse. There is a verse that ah ah Allah tells the noble prophet that ah you cannot actually take every, everybody into the religion. You cannot take everybody along, oh my goodness the verse has escaped (he recites a verse) of course (he recites). You are not the one to actually guide them to path of righteousness. Yours is just to preach, to tell them, but if they embrace it, they take it, that is okay, but if they just find it ah unbecoming, then you just leave them, yah.

KN63 [46364-46796]

Universal caliphate, do we still have universal caliphate up till now? Yah we don't have such things, but you know after the demise of the prophet, at least, we still have Khalifas for some period and in that period, huh they only exist in that Arabia region, just the Arabia region after the four, after the those four caliphate, Khalifas, the other ones are not, just minor, minor ones. So today we don't have such things anyway.

KN64 [27488-27680]

Ehh universal caliphate it means the caliphate that would govern the all ehh global ko? Globally, they operate, they appear globally bah? Hmm this ah something even it it can happen, to hmm

KN65 [34813-34913]

Ahh universal caliphate in my own little understanding ehn actually I don't have much idea on this.

KN66 [23580-23738]

A universal caliphate, to my understanding, is from the world universe, is a caliphate who control or rather who lead the world, the Islamic world entirely.

KN67 [23991-24328]

Well my understanding is that there has to be one voice for Islam, then it should be, though there are different countries, there has to be one voice or a leader who can say or who cannot say, for example, who can say we should do something or we should not do it. Ahh if there is this, if this is possible, then it is a welcomed idea.

KN68 [11734-11760]

It is no longer operating.

KN69 [40458-40937]

Ok, you say that to my understanding, when we say universal caliphate to my understanding that is, that is the representative of God universally, that is my understanding, like where Allah say in the Qur'an (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) telling the prophet Muhammad is a representative of God world at large. That was why Allah said (he recites the Qur'an) we send you but not, we send you but to the world at large. That is my understanding because you said understanding.

KN71 [68950-69193]

I think after the death of the prophet (SAW) and the caliphate of Umar, Uthman and Ali, there were many lands conquered by Islam and they were governed, of course they were having their central government in Medina or Mecca or Kufa, isn't it?

KN71 [69500-69759]

I don't think there is any because Nigeria state is a particular state independent of the Muslims of the Niger, independent of the Muslims of the Libya, independent of the Muslim of Sudan, independent of the Muslim of Misra, independent of any other country.

KN72 [35910-36020]

Universal caliphate, this is what implies the equality in Islamic, yes it implies the equality in Islamic.

KN72 [36058-36159]

Yes, because there is no, this is showing that there is no differences in terms of ethnics or race or

KN72 [36283-36479]

Okay my understanding in Islamic ehh caliphate or in universal caliphate is the engage, is this, it is the collection of the various Islamic states in one umbrella based on hadith and the Qur'an.

KN73 [38539-38838]

Universal caliphate is that wherever a Muslim finds himself is the caliphate of the prophet ah the Allah (SBUH). He was born, he was created to be a caliphate of Allah (SBUH) on the earth. That is the universal caliphate means and it operates wherever you find yourself, wherever you find yourself.

KN74 [47504-47645]

In the Islamic caliphate is ehh everywhere that the Muslim are living and then operated under the sharia following the roles of Allah (SBUH).

KN76 [42904-43460]

Well ah in the past, I can say that we have universal caliphate during the first century of Islam when all state under Islam that practice Islamic religion were under the same leader, but now we live in nation states where the states, the Muslim states are or that Muslim community are now fragmented into smaller states and the some are even separated, widely separated from one another in such a way and all those states also have their authorities, constituted authorities in such a way you can say that you can have a universal caliphate for Muslims.

KN78 [59787-59912]

Like I said, it is a central authority, a global central authority that coordinates the other components of Islamic entities.

KN80 [45637-45741]

So the universal caliphate is the caliphate which is ahh headed by Muslim and heading entire Muslims.

KN81 [29749-29770]

Really I don't know

KN82 [31516-31831]

Operates, universal caliphate. Universal caliphate was a time when Islam was able to capture the major powers and Islam at then was the major religion. So it started during the lifetime of the holy prophet and subsequently the efforts of the four caliphates and the Islamic leaders that were able to achieve this.

KN83 [21803-21934]

Ahh universal caliphate vested energy everywhere as long as Muslims are living in such area because man is a vicegerent of Allah.

KN84 [24893-24914]

I don't really know.

KN85 [36204-36589]

Universal caliphate as it has existed earlier on in the Ottoman, Abbasid, Ummayyad caliphates, yes it was ahh possible then, but we have seen the decline of the power of the vastly Islamic caliphate with the death of Ottoman ahh caliphate. I don't think it is possible today ahh because Islam has spread far and wide and for them to live under one caliphate is hardly a possible thing.

ZA2 [46049-46106]

Universal, I don't know what you mean by that universal.

ZA3 [28544-28689]

Emm understanding universal caliphate means that we have one leader all over the world and it operates by virtue of the written laws of Allah.

ZA4 [49395-49639]

There is not how we can get-universal caliphate was before the time of the prophet Muhammad. We have the Khalifa in Saudia and he controls all the Muslim in the whole world. But now Muslims have divided them into different types of countries.

ZA5 [31035-31313]

Universal caliphate, if you say universal caliphate that is all over the world that is during the prophet Muhammad (SAW) that is when we have caliphate, they you understand, because every nooks and corners there is Muslims and you see everybody have to like obey Allahu (SBUH)

ZA6 [71350-71524]

Ehm ahh universal caliphate, I think that was ehm that was during the time of the prophet Muhammad (SAW) ahh, but I don't think now there is any such universal caliphate.

ZA7 [37202-37376]

From the word universal, it has to do with one ruling everything. So I think that it will be one particular government for all Islam all over the world, as simple as that.

ZA8 [75370-75412]

Hmm I don't have much knowledge on that.

ZA9 [41029-41655]

I believe they operate, they, most of, -the way it operates is not is not is not is not hard is not difficult at all, it operates, I believe it should operate according to the teachings of the holy book and the prophet (peace be upon him) That is the way they operate. They should not operate, they do not operate rather on personal ideologies and I think that is number one problem we are having now because most people are using, most leaders, most so called Islamic leaders are using their personal, what they will gain personally from these things to confuse their followers, use it to carry out their evil activities.

ZA10 [35178-35737]

Universal caliphate in a country, that is if I get you right, is the Amir of the country, right? Universal caliphate in a county like in Nigeria we have only one universal caliphate which is Sultan of Sokoto which is the Amir and we also call him Sarkin Musulmi, we Muslims we all believe and we respect his leadership because we are expected to go by what he said, that is let's say for instance during fasting, when the moon is sighted the universal caliphate is expected to tell us when the moon is sighted and where and when should we start the fasting.

ZA11 [30478-30736]

Universal caliphate, having a universal caliphate, well a caliphate should be just like a governor to a particular region, right? So having a universal caliphate is like having a president if I am not mistaking, yah so I think there is nothing bad about it.

ZA12 [18772-18805]

I don't have an idea about that.

ZA13 [19247-19406]

From my understanding of universal caliphate and how it operate ahh I think to me in this part of the world which is Nigeria all caliphate are being accepted.

ZA14 [25811-25931]

The universal caliphate and how it operates, it operates based on the way the rules and regulations of Allah is obeyed.

ZA15 [28270-28377]

Universal when a state, when it is under Islamic laws and everything they do is according to Islamic laws.

ZA16 [20268-20350]

Universal caliphate, universal caliphate though I have not come across this word.

ZA18 [29294-29545]

Universal caliphate, ok to have one Khalifa? Well, for now it's not easy to have that kind of thing. But God willing, I wouldn't say it will never come, but looking at issues on ground, one will not say this thing is possible within this time around.

ZA19 [42830-43489]

Well universal caliphate simply means a kingdom, universal kingdom, right? Well we had the universal caliphate during the era of Abubakar Usman and Ali as well as Umar, Abubakar, Usman, Umar and Ali that is when we had a universal caliphate. But in present day Nigeria, present day world we actually don't have a universal caliphate, but rather propagation or I mean agitation for one world government where the America, which is the super power, will become what, the government of all that is through globalization and so many other things. So if we are to have a sovereign caliphate or universal caliphate, presently is America that will be the caliphate.

ZA20 [28421-29754]

Universal caliphate. I don't know of this universal caliphate. What does it mean? Are you saying for the whole world to be turned into one banner of Islam? I don't know whether that is what is meant for. One need to understand in this case that it is not for nothing that God created Muslims and created Christians and even created pagans and even those without religions at all. It is not for nothing. If God wishes today he can convert everyone to Islam. If God wishes also he can make everyone a Christian. In fact this very town you people are using as Christianity or Christians or Islam or whatever, entirely the whole world was created under the platform of Islam. Christianity was Islam itself. It was just that the Jews decided to change it and divert it from what it was before. How I wish you read the history of Paul how he succeeded in deceiving Christians. Christianity is Islam itself. In fact those Muslims that are running their lives in good conduct they are more Christians than Christians. What I am saying – the point I am making is that Muslims are more Christians than Christians themselves. Those Ten Commandments in the Bible that Christianity asks the Christians to have their lives in that way, to run their lives in that way is also applied to Muslims in the holy Qur'an. In fact it is all encompassing.

ZA21 [33945-34315]

Universal caliphate is no longer feasible these days, why, because you cannot just rise one day and say that you are the ruler of the world because we have different races, we have Arabs, we have Christians, we have Muslims, we have Jews and we have these. So everybody should be guided or should be ruled by those they have rest of mind that these people can rule us.

ZA22 [29585-29758]

Universal caliphate means the world leadership that will lead the entire Muslims and that is coming. It will come insha allahu through continuous teaching of true Islam.

ZA23 [38251-38292]

Universal caliphate I don't even know it

ZA24 [46496-46585]

I don't know, universal caliphate I don't understand anything about universal caliphate.

ZA25 [46388-47001]

Yes universal caliphate is, you know in Islam, we recognize Islam as the only religion as of now. Since the emergence of our own prophet Muhammad (SAW) every other previous divinely inspired religions remain proscribed. The only true religion, as far as Islam is concerned, is Islam and hence we are supposed to have one Amir worldwide. That is the concept or the concept of universal caliphate is all about and it is operating in such a way that it will have some other khulafa-Caliphs in other regions of the world. You can have other sub-regional caliphates which are answerable to the central Caliph.

ZA26 [21461-21562]

What is your opinion on universal UN Forces and their enforcing of rule of law on the other nations?

ZA27 [20681-20729]

I don't know anything about universal Caliphate

ZA29 [48971-49031]

Well I don't have idea or anything like universal caliphate.

ZA30 [58500-58574]

That is the central government. Just the way central government operates.

ZA31 [29170-29324]

universal caliphate means is a group of leaders that lead people to the straight path, to guide people and teach them the word of God and their prophets.

ZA33 [24307-24580]

Universal caliphate is a kind of collective responsibility given to an individual by an organized bodies of Muslims that come together to elect one person to oversee their affairs in the entire collective member states. And it operates-I don't think it operates nowadays.

ZA34 [43301-43720]

That is umma, what the prophet (SAW) calls umma and that is what Allah (SBUH) calls the entire Muslims community, ummatan – wa annaha bi ummatakum ummatan wahida- this is your umma, a universal community. And it operates during the prophet's (SAW) life, during Abubakar and during Umar and as time goes on the population of the world increases and there were so many things that happened then it became disintegrated.

ZA35 [21243-21252]

No idea.

ZA36 [29693-29900]

Ahm the way I can, if I remember caliphate is the rule after the prophet and the Caliphs are the people that rule after the prophet (SAW) and they rule according to his teachings, according to what he did.

ZA37 [36623-36796]

Universal Caliphate has already gone since 30years after the death of the Holy prophet (SAW) since the death of Ibn Abu Thalib that is the end of that universal caliphate.

ZA37 [36825-36899]

It operates almost relevant to the period of holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

ZA38 [42103-42488]

The aspect of Universal caliphate is just like if there is an Islamic society is ruled by a caliphate and the caliphate are the people, they were established through consensus, they played a major role, they give advice, they give supreme law, advice and other things and they are supported by some shura group, those are his committee, the member of the group and they support him.

ZA39 [54541-54739]

Universal Caliphate, it operates where you have a large portions or where the caliphate is in full control of the whole world or where the caliphate becomes a super power in the world that is it.

ZA39 [54783-55021]

Universal Caliphate, caliphate simply means a system of Islamic government where it comprises states and such states command or compel, commands respect or exercise power or exercise a supreme power over non-Islamic state in the world.

Th9.10: Meaning of Dar el Islam and Dar el Harb

FG1 [35951-35983]

Dar el harb is dealing with war

KD1 [41989-42013]

I don't know about it.

KD2 [16622-16675]

I don't know what Dar el Islam and Dar el Harb mean.

KD3 [12944-13048]

Dar el Islam just means kingdom of Islam while that of Dar el Harb, I don't have much knowledge of it.

KD4 [25388-25847]

Well my brother, if you are talking about Dar el Islam, Dar el Islam is a state or a community or a community which is guided by the tenets, by the teaching of Islam and Dar el Harb is a state, Dar el Harb in another word they call it Dar el batala is a state that is not governed by Islamic rules and regulations, just as the secular state. I will say that secular state can be classified as a Dar el Harb that is my own understanding of those two concepts.

KD5 [14362-14418]

I don't think I know those concepts. I don't know them.

KD6 [28107-28502]

Harb I don't know the meaning of Harb. Dar el Islam or Dar el Harb, when you say Dar el Harb it means conflict, what I understand by the Arabic harb is conflict, fighting, misunderstanding, that is harb in Islam. Dar el Islam and Dar el Harb, we are not in Dar el Harb. We are in Dar el Islam because when you are home if you are a Muslim, you are in Dar el Islam. We are under Muslim tutelage

KD7 [19986-20065]

Dar el Islam means, should I say a house of Islam or is it? Islam means peace.

KD8 [40795-40880]

Dar el Islam means the home of Islam, the home of Islam that is the literal meaning.

KD9 [24769-25051]

Dar el Islam, if I want to begin to translate the grammar now, dar el Islam, you know, the state of Islam or the home of Islam where you have Islamic state or sharia and so on and so forth, where you don't have Kufur and the society is the one that leads you to Insha Allahu paradise.

KD10 [18621-19091]

You see, Dar el Islam that is where the Muslim, the leader is a Muslim and there using Qur'an and Sunna like Saudi Arabia is Dar el Islam, but Dar el Harb is more or less Dar el kufur whereby the leader is a kafir and they are governing with other than the Qur'an and the Sunna. Are you getting me? They are governed other than the Qur'an and the Sunna that is Dar el Harb. And Dar el Harb and Dar el Kufur are the same thing. Some scholars say they are the same thing.

KD11 [22804-23018]

Dar el Islam essentially refers to the community of Muslims where Islamic law is widely or generally practiced that is Dar el Islam while Dar el harb is anything outside the Islamic community that is Dar el Harb.

KD12 [28093-29064]

Ah Dar el Islam and Dar el Harb ah you see I fact when we have a Dar el Islam is where things go peacefully. The Dar el Harb is where we have confusion. So we should all support, the prophet said even the prophet that said when you are in a situation and then you know ah that there is an inflow of two stones, they throw two stones to you so you should be watching the stones and there is no way you can escape the two, you let the lesser one hit you more than the bigger one, you understand. So Muslims should be very, very careful like the situation we have in Nigeria that there was an instant operation of the Boko Haram that ah by their occurrence, many Muslims are antagonizing them they even went to their door step during the night and come across their way, beat them that is how they say that they should not talk about them you see, this is the way they started. So where we have some uncontrollable situations like that, Muslims should be very, very careful.

KD13 [9659-9692]

I can't say something about this

KD14 [11792-12030]

My understanding for Dar el Islam means that is an Islamic kingdom that is a place where Islam is being practiced and the other one Dar el Harb that is a place may be in which we have much of crisis that of maybe militancy and terrorism.

KD15 [18735-18983]

Ah actually Dar el Islam is a community or a state which is being guided by Islamic laws and others while Dar el Harb is a state or a community which is just a community which is not guided by any religion or whatever, everybody does what he likes.

KD16 [9809-10006]

Well to my own understanding Dar el Islam is just like a place where the Muslims or dominated by the Muslims, but if you say Dar el Harb we are talking about a place, it is just like a war zone.

KD17 [34234-34488]

Dar el Islam that is a city of Islam that is the Islamic state. That is just the meaning of Dar el Islam whereby the constitution will be the Qur'an and the Sunna which is the sharia that is the meaning of Dar el Islam and Dar el Harb I don't know that.

KD18 [16026-16049]

I have no idea of it.

KD19 [20903-21251]

Well, well I don't know that, but all I know the house of Islam and the house of Islam means everybody who has followed the Sunna of the holy prophet Muhammad (SAW), his companions and those that came after him after him that is attabiu thabi'un and we that are living today that have followed the religion. So that is the meaning of Dar el Islam.

KD20 [15579-15618]

I don't know it, I have no idea of it.

KD21 [13989-14004]

Next question.

KD23 [14585-14611]

No, I can't explain that.

KD24 [51191-52025]

The term Dar el Islam means state of Islam. If you are ah Dar el Harb that is state of Islam, it means you will follow all what the Qur'an and the hadith says you should follow. If it is in the doing part, you should do. If it is the don'ts, don't do, you should not do. Then you are saying to me Dar el Islam you are practicing what the Islam, sharia said you should and if you are in the Dar el Harb which means you are in the outside, not inside the Dar el Islam, then when the Muslims think or feel that yes now is time that we are being forced in the world maybe in one certain issue, we will retreat then you are to fight the Dar el Kuffur, Dar el Harb, we are to fight them and if you are fighting them you will go with your leader or even if he is not going he will choose a leader for you, the way I have explained earlier.0

KD25 [71018-72306]

Yes dar el Islam means where Islam is now the talk of the day ah Islam has a total control of the state that is dar el Islam like Mecca, take for instance Mecca from the begging was not that Islamic because it was ah majorly dominated by the Quraishite pagans, but later when the prophet was instructed by God to migrate from Mecca to Medina and he migrated and after some years, about ten years at Medina now that the prophet has lasted out of the...under Allah's instruction the prophet was able to go back to Medina, I mean sorry to go back to, from Medina to Mecca to conquer Mecca, when the prophet went that was the conquest of Mecca and he conquered Mecca and when he conquered Mecca, Mecca now became dar el Islam, it became the home of Islam because there is no any, there is no any Christian religion there again. The dominance, those that have the dominance of the country is in the hands of the Muslims. But when you talk of dar el harb is where the Muslims are still struggling to see whether they can procure this eh the state to become theirs (recites in Arabic) that is when they engage in battles, in struggles here and there that is the meaning of dar el harb. That is the home of struggle, the home of fighting because harb means fighting, the home of expedition, yes.

KD26 [17007-17021]

I don't know

KD27 [20266-20478]

Well dar el Islam is the home of peace, dar el harb is the home of war; a state of war and a state of peace. And in my understanding the two are divergent. A state of peace cannot be the same as a state of war.

KD28 [23519-23703]

Dar el Islam is an association or group of people who are fighting the mission that they are fighting jihad fi sabilillah. I am ignorant of Dar el Harb because I am not much into it.

KD29 [14368-14490]

Well to my own shallow understanding is ah a community living in peace and community living under ah a warlike situation.

KD30 [25178-25442]

I think from if we are to take the literal translation of dar el Islam it will mean the house of peace while dar el harb will be the house of war and I always believe unless we are to look back into history but Islam is to more into dar el Islam than dar el harb.

KD31 [14798-14833]

Dar el Islam means home of peace.

KD32 [22002-22298]

Dar el Islam and dar el harb ah dar el Islam that is a town of peace if you look at the Arabic terms dar el means town and salaam means peace the dar el Islam the town of peace the town of Islam the town of salaam while the dar el harb means the places of harb as I understand the town of Arabs.

KD33 [17553-17648]

Dar el Islam means peace home or home of peace dar el harb means home of fighting or conflict.

KD34 [19840-19853]

No I can't.

KD35 [20191-20681]

Dar el Islam am not so conversant about the word dar el, but ahm to my little understanding dar el means is it a city or house ehm dar el Islam means a house governed by an Islamic scholar who is versed in Islam eh I mean whatever, whatever a person who is knowledgeable, a person who is knowledgeable about Islam is the one that is that will lead that house. Dar el harb, dar el harb will be ahm a house that is ruled by somebody who is sincere who is knowledge about Islam and is sincere.

KN3 [1780-9428]

No wonder therefore there are two types of Islamic governance or government; Dar el Islam and Dar el Harb. Dar el Islam is purely Islamic state or government. Dar el Harb is a combination of different religions, different cultures and so on. It is an agreement between different peoples with different faith and different cultures and so on. Dar el Islam when all the people are Muslims and they form a government that government is Islamic and their rules, their laws, their constitution are all Islamic. If however, different people with different faiths are living in the same state or the same country they can enter into agreement to live with one another in peace respecting one another or each other's faith that is dar el harb.

KN4 [39774-39840]

I can't explain, I don't understand the true meaning of the word.

KN5 [18205-18366]

Dar el Islam and Dar el harb. Ok I eh eh maybe from the concept dar el Islam-the house of peace and dar el harb a house of conflict or or war something like that

KN6 [20638-20834]

I never heard this word, maybe if I take this word because it is an Arabic word Dar el Islam maybe this is belong to Islam ko? Whether it is state or not state maybe but I never heard this word.

KN7 [19083-19525]

Em well em as in the little ehm, let me say the little knowledge I have on dar el Islam and dar el harb, they are really, they really comply with each other and let me say, they are not that synonymous even though they are on two different levels. They are on two different levels in the sense that dar el Islam is an institution on its own that encourages peace and dar el harb too, let me say in a way encourages harmony within the state.

KN8 [19474-19958]

Dar el Islam means group of people within Islamic society while dar el harb comprises of everybody within the given society. It doesn't specify maybe they are part of Islam or they are not part. From the word dar el, dar el means group, you understand, of people in the Arabic context- group of people. In the word Islamic-group people in Islam while dar el harb, the word harb means world, you understand, the world; the group of people in the world just like alqaw, you understand.

KN9 [18948-19001]

Well, I have not come across these two terms before.

KN10 [13922-14311]

Dar el Isla-it means the territory of Islam that is the region where Muslims are in the majority while dar el harb is literally meaning is just where the territory of war but it means that the Muslims are not majority in that, that is non-Muslims are not the majority in that place, so there is need for that place to be-a war in that place for the Muslims to dominate and enter such place

KN11 [18721-18962]

Dar el Islam means the state of Islam that is where the true teaching of Islam is being practiced and dar el harb means a state of war, but this dar el Islam is an Arabic, is an Arabic place likewise dar el harb, they are all Arabic phrase.

KN13 [21429-21617]

Ehmm, dar el Islam actually means that a society that comprises of, I think ahm Muslims entirely while dar el harb is the mixture of both that comprises of both Muslims and non-Muslims.

KN14 [15410-15413]

No

KN15 [16460-16547]

Of course dar el Islam simply means home of peace while dar el harb means home of war.

KN16 [8415-8480]

dar el Islam means home of peace, dar el harb means home of war.

KN17 [20743-21017]

Eh is a kind of ah Islamism that is composed of Muslims that about majority of his populations are are Muslims while dar el Harb is just like ah in our own society that we have that is that are comprise of what mixtures of Muslims and non-Muslims and some other religions.

KN18 [34094-34103]

I can't

KN19 [20879-21377]

Dar el Islam means group of people, from the word dar el it means group of people that follows Islam, the teachings of Allah, the teachings of God, and the second one. Dar el harb means dar el harb means a very large set of individuals, you understand, they are just, they are just in form of a group, you understand, we cannot necessarily say they are part of Islam but that of dar el Islam means they are really following the will of God according to the Islamic teachings.

KN20 [14463-14740]

They are two different things. Dar el Islam is is the community or the society whereby we have all Muslim dominated area like we have the Saudi and the rest of them then the other one is a mixture where we have the Christian, the atheist and the rest and the Islam, everybody

KN21 [8980-9050]

Dar el Islam means house of Islam and dar el harb means land of people

KN22 [17671-17785]

Dar el Islam is like an institution of Islam yah the haraqa of Islam. So that is what I can say for dar el Islam.

KN23 [13718-13720]

No

KN24 [13262-13311]

Yes, Hisba, jizya, Sharia, Qur'an and the Hadith

KN24 [13373-13547]

Dar el Islam, to my own view, dar el Islam is a community which is made up of only Muslims While Dar el harb is a community which is made of both, the Islam and non-Muslims.

KN25 [19558-19654]

Hmm well I have come across the word but I did not really take my time to find out the meaning.

KN26 [18190-18285]

Dar el Islam well it is a Muslim empire that is being run by the Muslims and board of Muslims.

KN27 [15488-15521]

I have never come across that.

KN28 [12133-12170]

Not at all I have not come across it

KN30 [13765-13931]

Dar el Islam is a Muslim community where there are populations of Muslim of Muslims people, majority, but dar el harb is a mixture of both Muslims and Christians.

KN31 [17579-17865]

Dar el harb is just like a state that exists whereby you have mixed, what I mean by mixed is that you have both Muslims and non-Muslims or even pagans. Then dar el Islam is purely an Islamic state though you may have an element of those who are non-believers but majority are Muslims.

KN32 [7511-7710]

yeah you see ah dar el Islam is a society which you can say Muslims are of the majority and dar el harb is a otherwise of that a society whereby Muslims and others share equal population any way.

KN33 [6834-6952]

Dar el Islam is the state where all Muslims and dar el harb is where there is combination of non-Muslims and Muslims.

KN34 [9922-10141]

Dar el Islam is a situation whereby a country operates where majority of the members of a particular country are Muslims while dar el harb is a situation whereby non-Muslims and Muslims operate in a particular country.

KN35 [12210-12405]

Dar el Islam mean where the Muslims dominated that is only Muslims are living in that environment while Dar el harb means where the non-Muslims and the Muslims coexist which can create conflict.

KN36 [12622-12825]

Dar el Islam mean a state where Muslims are only occupants of that state but Dar el harb is a state where there is a mixture which sometimes there is a little conflict between the non-Muslims and Muslims

KN37 [11131-11327]

Dar el Islam is a society whereby it is made up of Muslims. There are no non-Muslims. And the other one Dar el harb is that which there is a mixture, okay, of Muslims and non-Muslims in the state.

KN38 [7877-8048]

Dar el Islam is a society where everybody is a Muslim; all the members of the society are Muslims while Dar el harb I believe is a combination of Muslims and non-Muslims.

KN39 [13681-13884]

When we say Dar el Islam it refers to the society whereby the dominant numbers are Muslims while Dar el harb refers to a society that has a mix of the Muslims and the non-Muslims, Nigeria in particular.

KN40 [13092-13101]

No idea.

KN41 [11065-11084]

I don't have idea.

KN42 [22075-22084]

No idea.

KN43 [18800-18892]

Yah Dar el Islam simply means an Islamic state. Dar el harb simply means non-Islamic state.

KN44 [13325-13408]

Dar el Islam, that is the abode of ah Islam and the other one is the abode of what

KN44 [13429-13482]

Is it the abode of war? I don't know, I don't know.

KN45 [15996-16555]

Yah Dar el Islam according to the literatures I read, the literatures of the Shehu Usman Dan Fodio's jihad, Dar el Islam means that abode of Islam and Dar el harb means the abode of war. This category is strictly used when there is a war between the Muslims and the non-Muslims. This is to differentiate the two camps where the Muslims are is called the Dar el Islam and where the non-Muslims are that became the target of the Muslims in the war they became the abode of war, but this is strictly used ehh whenever the jihad is going on not at peace times.

KN46 [32097-33065]

Dar el Islam, it is the state which Islam ahh ok let me start by Dar el harb. Dar el harb means a state which is considered as enemy of Islamic state, so that is Dar el harb. That means a state which Islam, Islamic state considers as enemy and aggressors and which Islamic state always or prepares to defend itself from or to even wage a preventive or to take some, to take a certain preventive measures against their aggression so that is Dar el harb, that means the abode of war. So that is the translation of the word Dar el harb, that abode of war. So the abode of war means a territory which could be legally fought by Islamic state, fought against by Islamic state, so that is abode, that is Dar el harb while Islamic ahh Dar el Islam means the opposite, a territory which could not legally be fought against by any Islamic state. So ahh it may be headed by a Muslim ruler and it could be headed by a non-Muslim ruler. So that is ahh about the two terms.

KN47 [32525-32936]

Well Dar el Islam is the ahh is a particular of, you know, time or place whereby you can simply say that there is true exhibition of practices of Islam, you understand, and Dar el harb that is the opposite of, you know, of the Islamic state or Islamic community. Islamic community that agrees to go by the principles of Islam and then that one does not agree, you understand, to go by those kinds of principles.

KN48 [10308-10398]

Dar el Islam means the abode of Muslims while Dar el harb means the abode of non-Muslims.

KN49 [18716-19051]

Actually Dar el Islam is ehh the Muslim state and Dar el harb is the non-Muslim state that is in the constant state of warfare with the, with the Islamic state because Dar el harb is an enemy of the Islamic state and as such there is great level of conflict and ah animosity in most cases between the Dar el Islam and the Dar el harb.

KN50 [9209-9213]

No.

KN52 [24881-25093]

Dar el Islam is the Islamic state under which ah I mean that is governed strictly under sharia and then dar el harb is the non-Islamic state or state that is not under sharia. If I am not mistaken, I don't know.

KN53 [12249-12333]

Dar el Islam is the abode of Muslims while Dar el harb is the abode of non-Muslims

KN54 [6239-6296]

Well is home of peace and home of, let me say, violence.

KN55 [7611-7614]

No

KN56 [12010-12099]

Dar el salam or Dar el Islam is the home of peace while Dar el harb is the home of war.

KN57 [12293-12320]
Honestly I can't as of now

KN58 [27382-27724]

Dar el salam is a state in the Islamic state where it encompasses only Muslims. The state belongs to Muslims and there are only Muslims in the state that is within the territorial boundaries of the state. While Dar el Harb is a situation whereby it is a mixture between Muslims and non-Muslims like what is obtainable in modern day Nigeria.

KN59 [20978-20993]

I don't know.

KN60 [22289-22499]

Dar el Salam in a nutshell means home that have peace that is a place that is living peacefully while dar el harb is a place where violent activities are taking place that is my understanding of the two words.

KN61 [10421-10429]

No idea

KN62 [34141-34351]

Dar el harb, this is something of obnoxiousness, I think we don't have that, Dar el harb, is like saying the house of war that is Dar el harb. Dar el Islam yah we have that, but we don't have this Dar el harb.

KN64 [17343-17626]

Dar el Salam means the states that are in peace, their rule, they are in peace. Dar el harb means the people who are fighting with Muslims. They have, they have problem with Islamic state, they call it dar el harb. Dar el Islam kuma state of Muslims that there are no any problems

KN65 [20974-21086]

Ahh actually I have very little knowledge about it so and I don't want to say something that would be contrary.

KN66 [11981-11994]

No, I can't.

KN67 [13190-13523]

Hmm I cannot explain but eh, eh to my understanding Dar el Islam, that is a state which is governed by Islamic state which is, in which a Muslim has freedom to practice his Islam while the other one, Dar el harb that is the other state, non-Muslim state that a Muslim may not have the right or the freedom to practice his religion.

KN68 [6187-6259]

Dar el Salam means home of peace while Dar el harb means home of war.

KN69 [23776-24253]

Dar el Islam means purely Islamic state whereby Dar el harb means a purely Christian or any other religious belonging to the other country. That is what we mean by Dar el Islam and Dar el harb. That is why there is a, there is a fighting, there is no agreement of not engage in fighting between that particular Islamic state and that particular and that particular or that Christian state or any other religious state belong to. So there is no agreement of peace between them.

KN71 [40972-41810]

Yes, that was, that is when one state is governed by Islam and the other is against the state. What do you call it? So whenever you are in an Islamic state, you remember, just like this school, this class and the other one. When you come to this class, it is Islam that is running over their affairs. That other class is a house governed by that is the law of Allah is having no relevance there. So when those people in those class tend to fight this class, any Muslim that is there and refuse to migrate to this class, he remain the dar el harb. So is one of the two things, can you remember that verse (he recites it) not that one. I cannot remember the verse now very well. Dar el Islam is where Islam is being practiced freely Dar el harb is where one cannot practice Islam freely and is always under persecution as simple as this .

KN72 [22302-22672]

Dar el harb, yes and Dar el Islam, when we say Dar el Islam we mean an Islamic state that is the true eh Dar el Islam, but when we say Dar el harb we mean a war or a state of war that is Dar el harb or a state of non-Muslims. I mean a state of non-Muslims is Dar el harb but the state of all Muslims that believe to practice the Muslims is what means by Dar el Islam.

KN75 [36192-36243]

Nullify the question because it is a long process

KN78 [38601-39136]

Well, Dar el Islam ahm by, let me say ahm according to Islamic ah jurist, ah Dar el Islam simply means abode where Muslim community lives ah live under the teaching of their religion exclusive abode for Muslims, for believers within a given geopolitical area. Then when you say Dar el harb, is an abode, a separate abode that constantly, the Muslim constantly engage in war with Muslims, mostly non-Muslims, but this are the classical categorization of society, but I don't think it is obtainable and realistic in modern society.

KN80 [31379-31637]

Dar el Islam and Dar el Harb hmm from the word harb. So Dar el Islam means the house, the community of Islam which in totality constitutes ah Islam while the other one Dar el Harb is the community or the house which in totality constitute the non-Muslims.

KN81 [16788-16924]

Well ah it means Islamic state and non-Islamic state. Those previous ones I think they are Arabic terms, sorry they are Arabic words.

KN82 [21513-21641]

Dar el Islam is a place where the Muslim Umma lived and enjoyed leadership that for Islam while Dar el Harb is opposite of this

KN83 [13134-13148]

I don't know

KN84 [15736-15858]

Well Islamic state is known as Dar el Islam while house of unbelievers or state of non- Muslims is known as Dar el Harb

ZA1 [19883-20374]

Yes of course. If you say Dar el Islam in Islamic point of view not on the contextual text that other non-Muslims consider it, if you say Dar el Islam in Arabic is a place or state where 99.99 percent are Muslims and they agree to practice their religion. If you say Dar el Harb means is a place where there is mixture Muslims and non-Muslims. Now it depends on if they like let them constitute a law that both of them will agree upon as far as hmm doesn't go against the teaching of Islam.

ZA2 [18852-19158]

Ahhh I don't know about, you are calling Arabic language which I am not Arabian, I don't read Arabic. But when we say Dar el Islam we say is a house, house of Muslim or Muslims ehen and Dar el Harb I don't think we are having , it is another house, I don't know which house , I don't know what is harb.

ZA3 [16586-17172]

Dar el Islam is the is where Islamic religion is their main religion and the every Muslim is safe to practice that place and Dar el Harb is a community of people that are not Muslims and the Muslims find it difficult to stay them. A community that mainly majority of them are not Muslims and they are having, they don't, they are averse to the practice of the religion. So the Muslim himself is finding himself in such an environment will not and it is encouraged that that for someone who find himself there, he should migrate to where he can practice his religion to Dar el Islam.

ZA4 [35624-35873]

Okay Dar el Islam is a state of where the Qur'an and the Sunna of prophet Muhammad (SAW) is being used to govern people. Dar el Harb is where the ideology okay the doctrines of people are used to govern people. That is dar el Islam and dar el harb.

ZA5 [20686-20775]

Dar el Islam are those community of Muslims okay and Dar el Harb, I don't know that one

ZA6 [50782-50818]

Ahm it means the Muslim caliphate.

ZA7 [20069-20361]

I think I have better understanding of what Dar el Islam is. Dar el Islam is the particular way of ehm particular way of leadership that continuity established upon by public choosing one leader to rule the whole community of Islam, Muslims all over the world. I think that is what it means.

ZA8 [44380-44571]

Dar el Islam ahh I don't know their actual meaning, but I think they are, I think it means ahh I don't know because am not that very good in Arabic so I don't know what they actually mean.

ZA9 [23552-23579]

I don't really have idea.

ZA10 [24101-24208]

Dar el Islam that is the house that Islam exists while Dar el harb is the place that Islam does not exist.

ZA11 [19030-19197]

Dar el Islam is a community of Islam, an Islamic community or let's say it is a community where you find Islam and Dar el Harb is a community where there is no Islam.

ZA12 [10349-10358]

No idea.

ZA13 [11645-11667]

I don't have an idea.

ZA14 [14631-14851]

Yes Dar el Islam that is a community of a Muslim, where Islam is practiced without fear or any other problem or any other thing. Dar el Harb simply means a state in which Islam is not practiced in that particular state.

ZA15 [18294-18309]

I don't know.

ZA16 [11594-11791]

Dar el Islam means a state or a country or a state that constitute only Muslims, and Dar el Harb is where a state that is always being in jihad to other religious followers, let's say unbelievers.

ZA17 [12297-12323]

I never heard about them.

ZA18 [16431-16552]

Dar el Islam that is Islamic state now. Dar el Harb is where fighting here and there. Harb, from harb, harb means war.

ZA19 [21994-22027]

Ah I don't have idea about this.

ZA20 [12433-12436]

No.

ZA21 [18074-18113]

Well I don't know the meaning of this.

ZA22 [16702-17041]

Dar el Islam is a territory where somebody has all the freedom to practice his religion without anybody's interference that is dar el Islam – Islamic state I can say. Then dar el Harb is a territory where a Muslim has no right to practice his religion for example ban on call to prayers, ban on wearing hijab, those are the dar el harb.

ZA23 [21701-21972]

Dar el Islam means a society where they were Muslims right from beginning they were not- they didn't fight and they were not fought for them to accept Islam. Dar el harb is another society or organization where they waged war against the Muslims and they were defeated.

ZA24 [28674-28713]

I don't have any idea on that question

ZA25 [25484-25661]

Dar el Islam is a region or a complete state that is in this context a country that is run on Islamic tenets complete one, while dar el harb is concerned with militant region.

ZA26 [12498-12511]

I don't know

ZA27 [10804-10826]

I don't know actually

ZA28 [23406-23516]

dar el Islam Well these are Arabic words dar means home I guess and Islam so dar el Islam means home of peace

ZA29 [33075-33353]

Well to me dar el Islam, the way I understand it, is simply the kind of place organized by a group people to practice Islam, to teach Islam and ahhh well I have no much to say actually because you know like the word is like an ambiguous word to me. So I don't have much to say

ZA30 [42411-42727]

Dar el Islam and Dar el Harb. Dar el I think it means...so...we have put it in different ways before that is how to call people, to invite people into Islam. I made mention earlier that it can be through other means. Through characters, through preaching and it can also mean the last option, meaning we need the jihad.

ZA31 [17104-17107]

No

ZA32 [45191-45700]

When Dar el Islam is place where people, almost all of them that are living in that area are Muslims and those who are non-Muslims are in treaty and are giving Jizya, jizya tax to the Islamic Umma or the Islamic treasury, so you can call that as what, Islamic, dar el Islam and dar el harb means where the jihad is in progress and both the jihadist, the two fighting parties have not come to the conclusion whether to make it an Islamic area of living, an Islamic state or Dar el Islam or what, other...., yes.

ZA33 [11981-12116]

Dar el Islam means the house of Islam where the principles and the administration of Islam and its teachings are being carried out.

ZA34 [26715-27414]

Yes. Dar el Islam means a community that is living with, a community that is ruled and controlled by an Islamic system of affairs or system of life, while dar el harb is a community that is always having problems between one and the other. For example, a dar el harb is where a community that is also having enmity with maybe an Islam. There are so many examples in the world before that are always engaging in causing confusion, problems the Muslims within an Islamic state. So that is dar el harb. They are non-Muslims, sometimes maybe they are Muslims but half baked, they don't know the teachings of the religion and they are trying to cause problems to religion of Islam. That is dar el harb.

ZA35 [11829-11934]

Dar el Islam is an Islamic forum or Islamic rule I would say, while Dar el Harb is a county I would say.

ZA36 [18646-18689]

ehm I have forgotten, ahm I have forgotten

ZA37 [23758-24135]

Dar el Islam means, if this place is Dar el Islam means Islam can be practiced without any problem, but Dar el Harb, you as a Muslim you may not be allowed even to come and pray openly, you have to hide yourself in order to be or you have to take some precautions and so on and so forth because you may attacked at any time just because you are a Muslim. That is Dar el Harb.

ZA38 [28199-28358]

Actually the Dar el Islam should be an Islamic community, but the Dar el Harb in fact I don't know anything about it am not too versed in Arabic words, yah.

ZA39 [39229-39420]

Actually I know of Dar el Islam, Dar el Islam simply means, we can call it, Dar simple means a house that is a place where Islam is practiced and Dar el harb I cannot tell you the meaning.

Th 10: Muslims and State Creation

Th10.1: Process of establishing Islamic Rule

KD1 [51551-51785]

The thing is one of the fundamental ways of getting it is attaining unity and then following the Quran and the Sunna. By the time everybody happens to be on the same page, certainly the Islamic state is already, will fall into place.

KD2 [22392-22744]

Muslims can go about seeking the establishment of an Islamic rule in a secular state maybe through persuasion and convincing others. Then they can also form groups and associations in which they can collaborate, meet together and raise awareness to the government so that they will be allowed to form their own activates the way Islam is being taught.

KD3 [18542-18564]

That is by preaching.

KD4 [42052-42860]

Wherever a Muslim is and his thinking of establishing an Islamic or trying to be under the tenet of Islamic leaders. First, he has to purify his mind, starting by awareness, preaching, preaching the good deeds of Islam, telling, portraying the good characteristics of Islam then with that he can be able to, others can see the good in Islam and try to embrace it. With that he can embrace it so that he can get others and then even he can even get the non-Muslims supporting him. Even in the time of our prophet, non-Muslims supported him because of his good character, he was called Al-amin, the truthful one because of his character, the true character, the true emulation that he portrayed, even the non-Muslims agree that yes, he is truthful. Why can't we Muslims of today emulate that type of culture.

KD5 [21651-21908]

I think Muslims should seek for the establishment of Islamic state only when they feel they have been deprived of practicing their religion and if there is no such feeling, I think there is no need of Muslims to seek for the establishment of Islamic state.

KD6 [36433-36604]

I told you before, we can start from our home, from neighborhood, to the local government level, to the state, it depends on us because if we present that you go further.

KD7 [28078-28675]

We are in a society of democracy. There is a lot of politicking that we can do to achieve that aim. We have members from our society who if they are there to represent the wishes and wills of their own people, will take it up with the higher authority. This is what we want, this is what my people have asked me, this is what they want, they want sharia law and the constitution of our Federal Republic of Nigeria, I think recognizes that a state can have a law on its own which is evidenced by a states who took up sharia law as their primary law, that was some years back, like Zamfara state.

KD8 [51264-51790]

Yes, they should acquire as much as they can in modern education that is the western education. They should also acquire Islamic education and participate in all the activities. They should participate in politics; they should participate in banking system and all the other aspect of life. By the time they have modern education, they have Islamic education, they can participate, through that they can have access and probably at the end they can even have the power, but not the power of denying other people their rights.

KD10 [27930-28134]

Well Islamic rule, they are going to be, they must learn religion and practice the religion and they should allowed to practice the religion the way it is supposed to be practiced without hindering them.

KD11 [31112-31459]

Well ah in a secular state you cannot seek an Islamic rule on issues that are criminal except on issues that are civil, for instance, the conduct of marriage, Zakat, giving arms, charity and other things, but in a secular state you cannot, for instance, execute the punishment of Zina which is stoning or such issues that are criminal in nature.

KD12 [33204-33294]

Eh the mode of passing information really to the people is to give them complete education

KD13 [13738-13959]

You see seeking for an Islamic rule in this present dispensation we are, it depends on the locality or area where you are, you understand, so depending on the state you are that will bring the formula you need to apply.

KD14 [18115-18338]

There is no room for that. The main thing there to seek for, the first thing I said is jihadin nafs that is striving for one's self and trying to abstain from evil and try to do good and even through preaching with wisdom.

KD15 [25109-25430]

Ah that should be enlightenment and by good character, by preaching ah by saying good words and by doing good deeds. I think that one can ah call the attention of the other religion ok let's see what this man is doing and by saying that I think Islamic world will be established and I think everything will be smooth.

KD16 [15388-15397]

Go ahead

KD17 [47214-47419]

Establishing the Islamic rule, how do Muslims go about this? Just go, let the people do da'wa, preach to people the benefit, the dividends of having the Islamic state, but not necessarily picking up arms.

KD18 [22321-22593]

I think there is no need of seeking one Islamic rule from any place because they already have their materials in which they are following which is Qur'an and hadith, so they don't need to be going and be seeking for any rule or power. Everything is in their book already.

KD19 [28028-28232]

Yes, ah Muslim should seek for the establishment of the Islamic rule through their good conduct, seeking for knowledge and exhibiting law and good will towards everybody irrespective of religion or race.

KD20 [22417-22972]

I think there is no need to be seeking for the establishment of Islamic rule because since we have the Qur'anic knowledge and the hadith knowledge, anywhere you are any place, any time, you can practice your Islam, and you can practice your even jihad, any place there is no need, even we have we have some people living in Igbo land, in Yoruba land, where we have Muslim population and a Christian population, in Igbo land where we have a few numbers of Muslim, so they are still practicing their religion and no one is complaining about it, that's it.

KD21 [21097-21250]

I think it has to go first and foremost with good behaviour character. They go into diplomatic sittings, education, mutual agreement before you succeed.

KD23 [22269-22303]

I don't know what to say on this.

KD24 [66623-67369]

First by acquiring knowledge. Second, choosing a leader, third, knowing how to interact with people, Fourth, ah knowing that they are not the only ones living within the community. Then they have to consider each and every side of the country, the people that are sitting, how to correlate with them, interact with them, they should not enter into their own line. The same thing, they should know how to explain to people in peace. Don't enter into us. You should stay within your own, we should stay within our own, but this doesn't mean we should not talk, we should not stay in one place, in one market, in one school, no, we can stay together, but religion is something different, hold your own very tight, we should hold our own very tight.

KD25 [85667-86138]

Ah is, to some extent, it should be based on the practice of the Muslims and it shouldn't be violent that is why we are always, that is what Islam encourages the Muslims always, anytime they Muslims are denied their rights or some of their rights they should not fight for it in a violent way, when they use violence it would impact on even the Muslims negatively so they should do it in an orderly way. Aha so that differences in-between the Muslims eh the non-Muslims.

KD26 [25004-25037]

I don't have an answer for this

KD27 [24748-24823]

Well through being good ambassadors of Islam first, being Muslims first.

KD28 [31478-31784]

In an Islamic state they can do this right from the house where they are staying because once you are able to practice the Islam you can use the Islamic or in your house, with your own family and the community in which you are leaving then from there you can make a change and you will continue to expand.

KD29 [19585-19604]

Through preaching.

KD30 [34464-34806]

Ah they should go to every extent form from my believe because ah it is the part of the basic need of all Muslim to have and to live under an Islamic state, they should try harder and harder until they achieve this. This would require them ah to ah adopt both the diplomatic ah social whatever way they think possible to achieve these state.

KD31 [18956-19037]

Like I said it is only done through jihad and the jihad should be peaceful, yes.

KD32 [26741-27319]

This is according to their own understanding, but to me in a state where Muslims totally dominate so at least they should apply the sharia law because it will help them, it will help, it will help a lot in their own faith, sharia law will guide you against performing some of the mischievous things some of the sins, major sins that Islam will not allow you, so in a state where Muslims totally dominate it having more than ninety percent of the state, I think they should, I recommend them to perform the sharia law so that they will guide themselves against an evil things.

KD33 [23902-24103]

Muslims should, Muslims should seek establishing of an Islamic rule wherever they are through their representatives at the government level from state, local government, state and federal government.

KD34 [27223-27522]

Establishing [an Islamic rule hmm wherever they are and how should they do this?] Hmm they should do it within the limit of the constitution and then in the northern Nigeria, but in the southern Nigeria there is, I went round, there are limitations unlike the way they have in the northern Nigeria.

KN1 [58436-58597]

Well first of all they have to go through showing others the advantage and the beauty of their religion. That is how they should go about it, enlighten people

KN2 [33388-33962]

The first Islamic state that was established ever on earth during the prophet's time was never established as a result of fighting. It was people who decided to accept the faith and decided to accept the prophet and gave him solace and appoints him leader and obey him, obey his charismatic leadership. That was how the first state was established. It was after the establishment of that state that other states of non-Muslims wanted to attack that small state that was established and it was in the course of that the first jihad took place merely as a defense mechanism.

KN4 [47477-48079]

There is way that you can establish your rules. The divine rules is already in you is just the practicing of five prayers and you can in fact obey the government that is on seat. You can't establish your own rule, you can't establish your own seat, you are a Muslim and Islam is in you and you have a book so to establish a rule or that means to dethrone another government and establish laws, there is no way, not that in Islam. Even they can practice their own religion and you can also do your own. If you see that you are not comfortable you can change but you can't go and rule any other person.

KN5 [28574-28715]

We said is through leadership so if you have the leadership you start doing things directly or indirectly until we achieve an Islamic state.

KN6 [30922-31090]

By practicing the teaching, good teaching of Islamic ahh law and sharia, by displaying moral character and conduct. So this would help the Muslim to build their state.

KN7 [28563-28858]

A yes, ehm I think ehm, when ehm constitution in an Islamic state, we should have institutions that would em that would hear people's ehm, opinions. So, doing this, if ehm this institutions are available we have to ehm, we ehm, so they can go through this institution to lay their complain, yes.

KN8 [28778-28997]

I think the holy prophet has answered this question. Let it to be based on Hikma and Ijma of the people, let it be based on the sittings of the elders that have religious ideology, it should be based on Sunna and Quran.

KN9 [25752-25968]

They basically have to be tactical and they have to be very, very determined because once they are tactical and determined, I assure you they would get to the highest position of wherever they want to acquire, hmm.

KN10 [19837-20037]

Am, they can-when they ensure that they have the majority, so they can-it is something that is simple for them to provide the sharia law in their place. Once they are the majority, this can be done.

KN11 [26701-26820]

Well they are and how they do this, well by enlightening their followers and establishing good faith in Allah (SBUH).

KN13 [29519-29757]

Hmm, the establishment of Islamic rule in this era it is uhm it is actually you have to go through propagation of true mosques, true Islamic institutions like the schools, so I think that is the only way you can actually propagate Islam.

KN14 [23275-23506]

By preaching and exercising ahhhh good behaviour, following ahh doing something that Islam say that you should be good, you should be very polite to others and other things, you can call non-Muslims or to perform an Islamic state

KN15 [21511-21616]

They should do it you know I think through calling people into Islam, yah they should do it through that.

KN16 [11806-11860]

They should do it through calling people into Islam.

KN18 [43321-43395]

If the constitution recognizes that system, they follow the normal process

KN18 [43421-43642]

The if they did not, maybe they can apply it within themselves Islamic rule means using dictates of Islam in discharging your responsibilities, they have, they may have a group of people definitely they may have a leader

KN18 [43657-43812]

That leader they will follow the teaching of Islam in appointing him and he is guiding them and they still respect the overall constituted authority there.

KN19 [26476-26628]

Uh I think they can embark on that true jihad tafakkur, as I've said they should sit down and reason among themselves and embark on diplomatic mission.

KN20 [19188-19366]

You can't go you can't go contrary to the rule of the state. If the state wanted an Islamic rule then fine, but if they don't want it then you have to follow you have to abide.

KN21 [13021-13041]

In a peaceful manner

KN22 [27083-27536]

Yah, wherever they find themselves, this is philosophical, in line with the seeking of the establishment of Islamic rule, I said it should be a kind of ah it should start from the moral aspects of non-Muslims that wherever Muslims are they should conduct themselves based on Islamic principles. They should serve as a yardstick, they should serve as an example for non-Muslim to follow in order to entrust them and put them into position of leadership.

KN23 [18517-18558]

Eh they can seek via Islamic prescription

KN24 [17838-17854]

Democratically

KN25 [28547-28889]

Well it has to be through preaching as it was done from the early days. It has to be a tactical preaching, and it has to be in a way of showing the people that is showing the new people how Islam works: justice, equity and fairness of the religion and with that, being transparent, it has always worked. People tend to go for what is right.

KN26 [27898-27996]

Well definitely not by violence, not violence-taking up swords and arms can never solve a problem.

KN27 [21035-21262]

Well ehm they should go about it, I made mention of institution the other time, if there are institutions that exist within the society that takes care of this type of issues, I think they should follow that channel to do so.

KN28 [16512-16572]

I think they can easily do it peaceful and democratically.

KN29 [1624-2039]

It is always a very plain thing. The Islamic rule when you are in a secular state for instance there is a constitution to follow, you can't seek an Islamic rule over a secular state where there is a constitution. You should always follow the constitution. Then if they allow you to follow your own religion, to do what your religion accept you to do then fine, there is no need seeking a sharia in a secular state.

KN30 [16447-16482]

They should do that democratically

KN31 [26129-26580]

Well, you know, wherever they find themselves even being a secular state, the first thing, just like I have told you, first you take a jihad within yourself because it is only when you do the right thing that you can be able to fight for other things. So when people live in accordance with the Islamic injunctions, try to preach the religion not even just preaching it, behave in an Islamic way then they could be able to put other things in place.

KN32 [12556-12809]

they should do that in accordance to the dictates of the constitutions of that state, that state is a circular state that allows the emergence of leaders through majority rule they must embark the process of seeking leadership through ah majority rule.

KN33 [9972-10069]

It is not necessary at this time but if they want, it should be through peaceful democratic way.

KN34 [16722-16967]

They should try as much as possible to go through by adopting democratic principles, electing people that they are going to protect their rights so that maybe once they reach the upper chamber they can be able to make laws that will favor them.

KN35 [17122-17340]

They should use, the due process are there for them to follow. Everybody has his own way of doing things there are lay down rules in every society. So there are rules they should follow in order to achieve their aims.

KN36 [18050-18299]

Muslims can seek for the establishment of Islamic state but should not be in violence way, they should do it the way prophet told us in peaceful manner where it will not involve any violence or crisis that will lead to loss of lives and properties.

KN37 [16378-16462]

I think they should do that in accordance to the practice and principles of Islam.

KN38 [11834-12290]

I believe it should start not with violence and should never end with violence. It is a question of what the people want and how they want it. If you want to establish an Islamic state I believe in the political era that we are in now, establishing of an Islamic state is something almost unrealistic but rather Muslims can practice their religion, they can call people to Islam, and they can practice Islam at its peak without creating an Islamic state.

KN39 [20381-20486]

Ah Muslims should do so by making a peaceful approach and by putting politics or by making a democratic.

KN40 [16772-16781]

No idea.

KN41 [14265-14299]

I don't know anything about this

KN42 [33640-34626]

If a Muslim is under state whereby there is provision for Islamic, for an Islamic what is it called, Islamic state, they should seek the consent of people and they should start an Islamic state. But a situation whereby in Nigerian situation, it is really next to impossible because we live in a situation whereby majority of us are not actually Muslims in this country. We learn to live together and we form a circle whereby we want our own culture and our own ways to be respected, to be acknowledged, we don't try to take over everything or just make people feel like they are not important or they don't count. We preach tolerance and we preach, we both want or representations whereby my religion should be represented in the constitution, yours should be. Our ways of life, there is recommendation in the sharia whereby Muslims are allowed some positions in the actually in the constitution that Christians are given equal opportunities and that is the only way forward for peace.

KN43 [25555-25806]

Yah, they should do it within the confined of the law. First of all they should look at the provision of the law of a place where they find themselves. So the law provides everything and they should use the provision of the law to pursue their goals.

KN44 [19926-19971]

I want, I wouldn't like to answer that one.

KN45 [28125-28624]

I think ehhh if at least the Muslims are ready to establish an Islamic state so to me personal I will only encourage them to achieve that through democracy. Democracy gives everybody his right yah. If they are, if democracy favors them, then they can establish eh Islamic state. If democracy doesn't favor them in eh certain places, then they can practice their religion and they can eh struggle to have the right to practice their religion as free as it should be as we are having in Nigeria.

KN46 [49734-49870]

They should do it in the right manner. They should start it in such a way they would not go against the laid down guidelines or rules.

KN47 [44951-45669]

Well, of course you know there are some long processes, you know, of ah establishing an Islamic rule. If they see there is need for Islamic to rule, then they should go, you know, about setting it up just like what happened in sharia introduction in Nigeria in 2000, you understand, so there are legal means of establishing Islamic rule in a state and then I think in this Islamic banking that has been introduced in Nigeria, you understand is part of it because Islamic banking is governed by Islamic principles of not eating ribah and then the halal business that is taking place there, people are moving there because they see that there is need for them to get their money, you know, without ... loosing anything.

KN48 [14524-14606]

Hmm, it should be done in a more surrendered way and you know in non-violent way.

KN49 [24594-24726]

I think they should be ah careful what they do and how they do it and they should also regard ah peace as a very important factor.

KN50 [12760-12813]

Ahh in the right manner and in accordance to Islam.

KN52 [37932-39886]

Islamic rule, like I mentioned earlier, is something that is done gradually. First as an individual you must be seen to be an embodiment of a true Islam, you know, you don't claim to be a Muslim and then practice something else altogether. So you have to be shown to be a good Muslim at first before you can make any claim to being a Muslim and then before you can push for the establishment of any Islamic rule at whatever level. So I think yes Muslims could demand for the establishment of Islamic rule depending on the context. Just like, for instance, in the case of Northern Nigeria when Muslims demanded for the establishment of Sharia Law though it was originally motivated by some political concerns, but people later, you know, also demanded that sharia should be applied all over Muslim dominated states. But if you look at that agitation, you would notice that there is a historical context, there is a history behind that agitation in Northern Nigeria from the jihad of Usman Dan Fodio to the Sokoto caliphate which was establishment, which was a Sharia state governed by the rule before the emergence of the British, you know, and then the British came, they overthrew the sharia state and established a secular form of governance, but under which of course there were sort of space, constitutional space for sharia to exist. So the sharia courts, for instance, were allowed to continue even under the British and even in the post independent Nigeria. Even today we still have them. So of course it depends on the context. There are Islamic states, of course remember that, but if you look at the United State, for instance, it would be difficult for Muslims to begin to demand for the implementation of sharia because that is a clear secular state that is dominated by non-Muslims. So it would be unwise and it would not be strategic for Muslims to say that they would want American state to jettison its secular culture and adopt sharia.

KN54 [9773-9834]

Well, through preaching and showing good examples of Islam.

KN55 [10545-10587]

As it started during the prophetic time.

KN56 [17471-17977]

Ok Muslims should start ah should seek the establishments of an Islamic rule as our noble prophet Muhammad (SAW) started by preaching to the people. They preach to the people and you should live and lead by example. All the world knows that our noble prophet was an exemplary leader. Even in history you heard it that even the Jews trusted him to the extent that they were addressing him as Al-Amin the trustworthy. So Muslims should preach and they should be trustworthy, they should lead by examples.

KN57 [16680-16732]

Through preaching, jihad and enlightening people.

KN58 [37122-37434]

By, first and foremost, by preaching the true gospel of true Islam, and then by participating effectively in the political affairs of the state without resorting to violence, by paying their tithe as at when due if it is asked, and by other aspect of the state that are asked by the authorities of that state.

KN59 [32258-32941]

Actually first and foremost it is for them to have an Islamic leader, after establishing the Islamic state, let them have the Islamic leader. By having an Islamic leader then the rule can easily be archived, they can easily implement Islamic rule. By implementing the Islamic rule is something that is favorable to them, even the non-Muslims it is just because of faith that is why some of them might think that by imposing Islamic law to them, it might be harsh to them because they don't have knowledge or they don't have the knowledge about the Islamic rule. So by having the leader and the Islamic state the rule can easily achieved, so the can easily achieve the Islamic rule.

KN60 [27880-28090]

They would continue to preach. I have even spoken about this in the past. You see that preaching is very important, enlightenment and putting forward to other people self-righteousness for other people to see.

KN61 [14173-14325]

Also this one, there is a process and there is a way to which you can do it and then it has to be maybe when you have the majority of the Muslim there.

KN62 [45615-46567]

Well ahh the Muslims should go about establishing an Islamic rule in a country or a state or an empire through the proper ways laid down by our forefathers in the religion and we know this rules, we know that first we need to seek knowledge of the Islamic empire itself. What does it ah consist of and ah after that who are the people that should rule it and what is the right time to go about seeking that very freedom, if you are under a certain leader or something like that? People should be ready for that. So many things after we have taken into cognizance before declaring a kind of sharia in Islamic state or Islamic law in a sharia state, yah, so many things have to be taken into cognizance. We just, we don't have to just take arms, weapons and go about killing, eradicating ahh the non-believers, non-Muslim people just in the name of establishing an Islamic ah rule. I believe that that is too much repugnant to Islamic provisions, yes.

KN63 [33797-34224]

Of course, Islam are being or Muslims are being encouraged to do that, you know, to seek our own rule, to support our colleagues, to pin that position and they can only do that through voting because, just as I mentioned now, today is politics, is democracy we are practicing in Nigeria. It has to be through voting, voting for your colleague, voting for your Muslim colleagues and to be in position that is just the only way.

KN64 [23416-23529]

They try to see that they separate the sharia. This is good eh, but in a very simple, in a very right way, eh.

KN65 [30061-30741]

Is very, very simple, is touching the life of individuals, you understand, disseminating the right teaching of Islam as in teaching people the Sunna and Qur'an, it is only in northern Nigeria that you will see that some people have recited Qur'an from Baqara to Nas but they do not have the full Tafsir of what even the verses are saying, they can only recite it but do not have know the meaning. So how do you achieve an Islamic state where people are just reciting and do not know the meaning of what they are reciting. It is not done. So the only way, thing to do is individually we should be realistic to ourselves, pious our mind personally, then it will now go round.

KN66 [17968-18303]

Ehm, there is actually no compulsion in religion, so I believe every religion is after getting more followers, so is Islam but the fact that there is no compulsion in religion make that to be peaceful, you can only do it by preaching and other view but, but there is no, there is no violence causing violence in achieving that is not...

KN67 [18937-19418]

Ah the step they should study. To establish Islamic state, it has to start as it was, as it has started during the prophet Muhammad because at that time, it started by preaching, then by letting people know the rules and regulations that are even ah put on them. So by doing that, people will understand, then we move to the next step, then there are so many steps that people should follow before they establish Islamic state, then finally before having the power in their hand.

KN68 [9297-9363]

Huhh, Islam is all about peace, they should do this peacefully.

KN69 [33066-33153]

That is by resorting to legal process, follow legal procedure, provided in that state.

KN71 [56310-56690]

They should start by dedicating themselves, knowing Islam, knowing the politics and knowing the order of the day. Then they should start participating in the affairs of their locality. Let the people start from the local area like say in a village, to local government, to state, then to the nation, one day we will conquer the world, insha Allah, and peacefully without a sword.

KN72 [30323-30623]

The Muslim can establish an Islamic state through the teachings of islam that is in accordance with the sharia rules and regulations because there is sharia ahh I mean there is rules and regulations that governs or that governs the activities of the Muslims, so they can comply through this sharia.

KN73 [30274-30508]

Eh, Muslim, establishment of an Islamic rule is really made to back on Qur'an, hadith practices of the Ulama, their sayings, wise understanding of the Qur'an and hadith that is we call it Fiqh and combines it with all their fatwas.

KN74 [40753-40877]

Okay, this can only be achieved by following the rules and regulations of the place that in which they find themselves into

KN75 [44442-45081]

Okay, it depends on the constitutional right. The constitution would give provision first and foremost, if you met, if you meet yourself in non-Muslim society, first and foremost what are the dos and don'ts of the society, then you place yourself there and follow up what is supposed to, what is expected of the Muslim to do, to show that you have right according, let us assume typical example of America, America or Europe, what the Muslims are doing there, you find that they make sure that they know the constitution of America, they place themselves towards the constitution, they establish what is right according to the Muslim law.

KN76 [34425-35458]

Well ahh for you to answer this question, you must look at the history per se and ahh you look also at how state are evolved. You can look at the history of how Islamic state where evolved during the ahh first century ahh Hijra calendar and you can also see how modern nation states pursue the so called secular state where evolved. If you look at that history and reflect on our current situation, whereby we look, we live in a global village whereby the life of one is affected by the lives of the others. You can say that the Muslims should establish ahh or should get to have an Islamic state within the confines of the international law, within the confines of the nations state in such a way that constitution whether in a secular state or in a Muslim state should recognize the Islam as a religion, for what I am saying is that all the changes that have happen within certain communities or within at a particular time of history, this life has been very very dynamic it has never been stagnant so in such the question is ...

KN76 [35628-36048]

Well yes, they should do that by following all the due process. Like in Nigeria, the Nigerian state is governed by the constitution of the federal republic of Nigeria. So the non-Muslims, the Muslims should seek for a change, constitutional amendment that could allow them to practice the religion that would allow them to establish Islamic rule within the confines of predominantly Muslims part of the northern Nigeria.

KN78 [51251-51934]

As I said some few minutes ago, I said every Muslim, every conscious Muslim should live by teaching of the religion itself. If you live by Islamic teaching, for instance, to be very just, to be very peaceful, to be very courageous, to be very determined and committed in life, this are some of the ideals of Islam. If you implement the ideals of Islam in your own way, naturally people will tend to appreciate the religion, naturally you are building an Islamic society from your own level. So it doesn't have to be ahh, you know, when you have the ideal type of Islamic government that you feel you can do all those things. Let us start from the smallest unit of our own community.

KN80 [39629-40116]

So they can only do this, this issue requires Muslims to organize themselves to understand the reality and to understand the ahh ahh challenges facing their lives. So it is just in ahh just ahh ahh it is just not a one day issue to protest or to, so if Muslims protest without knowing their problems, the challenges, the current state, their standard so anything they have to do with maintaining the Islamic state ahh ahh state has to be over looked, before seeking for independence.

KN81 [24873-24952]

They have to follow constitutional provision of the area they find themselves.

KN81 [25129-25380]

Of course there is many place where ahh there is many places in the world where constitutional does not provide a Muslim, constitutionally Muslim has no right, you understand, but they can only request by writing a complaint letter to the authority.

KN82 [27542-27615]

The Muslims should do this in a modern way, in a more intellectual way.

KN83 [18237-18329]

Hmm they will apply any peaceful means or constitutional procedure of the law of the state.

KN84 [21213-21518]

I think they have to follow due process according to the law or constitutional provision of the land. If you take example of Nigerian Muslim north, they use constitutional rights to establish sharia in Muslim dominated states which is particularly existed in some states of the northern part of Nigeria.

KN85 [28446-28876]

Yes if Muslims seek or want to seek the establishment of an Islamic state, they should be, Islamic state or Islamic rule it should be done in a pacific way. Ahh there is, they can do it through dialogue and negotiations. State creation ahh or rule is not necessarily a violent affair, they can do that through peaceful means, through constitutional and legal means, through negotiations and dialogue not necessarily through jihad.

ZA1 [30270-30706]

A'ahm mister researcher, you build all your questions based on Islam. All these issues either Muslims or non-Muslims, they want to establish their state is to eradicate corruption because this are the major problems that is happening that is bringing a lot of grudges in everywhere in the world is corruption and transgression and oppression in the world. When this one is eliminated, you are not going to see this issue on ground.

ZA2 [30098-30633]

The way they seek for the ehh these rules are normal if I call myself a Muslim. I have doctrines or principles that govern my life, my religion, automatically we are to make it open before the society, the leaders that okay this is the principle against my religion and of course since these are my principle, I must be allowed to play my role in line to my religion which will not create a problem with anybody, you just let me perform my religion and let me go on with my rules, you also perform your religion go on with your rules.

ZA3 [23617-23783]

We should do that by emmm invigorating their din in themselves and the environment and if possible carry out serous campaign on how and the benefit of Islamic rule.

ZA4 [44580-45777]

They will do this by first of all preaching to them, show them good morality and behavior, don't force them, don't allow them to get bad perception that is all about killing and all that. It is your behavior that will call them. In the time of prophet Muhammad (SAW) some people joined Islam not because prophet preach to them, but they way you behave, they say there is a person that was born, there was emm one of his neighbor that always dump refuse any moment, park shits and all that, come and dump at the front of prophet Muhammad, so there was a time that the man did not come almost three days, he said what's wrong that person that normally put all the jargons here, he is not coming again, they said prophet, he is not well, he said toh I want to go and visit him, he went and visited him and said I have not seen you, you are dumping things, I have not seen you for three days, what is wrong, he say am not well, he said ahh you that I am doing you evil, dumping bad things to you, you still have that faith to come and visit me? Ah your religion could have been the best. So he accepted Islam. So the behavior can allow them to accept, good behavior, good teaching not about killing.

ZA5 [25994-26075]

By way of following the, the Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet Muhammad (SAW).

ZA6 [62645-63006]

Ahh they would have to do it with, this first of all, they will have to be true Muslims and true scholars of Islam. As far as we are a true scholar of Islam, you would know the guiding principle on how to go about creation, having an Islamic state created, not necessarily, not the kind of amm struggle you have in the northern, North Eastern part of Nigeria.

ZA7 [28807-29121]

How should Muslims go about seeking establishment of an Islamic rule wherever they are and how... I think it is strictly by ehm by preaching Islam and by hoping the people they preach Islam to understand Islam and accept it. It shouldn't be violent, it shouldn't be imposed on any other person that is not a Muslim.

ZA8 [61103-61294]

Ahh they should have to follow the laid down procedure, if they want the sharia law to apply to them in an Islamic state they? They should go about it by following the necessary procedures.

ZA9 [33042-33248]

Like I said, there are representations, we have people that are representing Muslims both in the senate and in the house of House of Representatives, this people can be used as instrument to achieve this.

ZA10 [30230-30465]

Is by passing their law to the government and then their teachings and what they actually want to do because the teaching is always there, is one as we all know that is the Qur'an and the hadith and they should show their objectives.

ZA11 [24970-24999]

By following the teachings.

ZA12 [15273-15383]

By following the right channel to get to as in get to the body that will establish the rules ba of the state.

ZA13 [15271-15333]

Ahh through dialogue, I believe that through dialogue we can.

ZA14 [20470-20727]

By the way they behave, they have to conduct themselves well and also because they, okay to make their selves in a proper manner and follow the Qur'an and the Sunna of the prophet Muhammad (SAW), they should be a good example in whatsoever they are doing.

ZA15 [23517-23737]

It should be done through peaceful means. I cited example with 1999, Yariman Bakura, it was not through violence that he implemented sharia. It was through peaceful means and he still implemented and achieved his aim.

ZA16 [16503-16694]

When in a place where they have the majority and it will not cause any conflicts between them and the non-Muslims that is when they will establish their own state that is the sharia state.

ZA17 [19098-19240]

They have to do it amicably, actually the ways, the reality on it because so many people they do not know the provision of Islamic on ruling.

ZA18 [23819-24073]

Well, you see whatever you do, before doing it, you have to know God's injunction, you understand, if you know that then that will now serve as the yardstick that you will make use of to achieve whatever goal or whatever mission you want to accomplish.

ZA19 [34597-35064]

Well ah well establishment or seeking of an establishment of an Islamic rule could only thrive or be possible in an Islamic state. So Muslims ah could not and will never and I don't think it could be possible for Muslims actually to seek for an establishment of an Islamic rule because a secular state is been controlled by the constitution of that particular state as such Muslims could only seek for the establishment of an Islamic rule in an Islamic state, yes.

ZA20 [22096-22678]

The constitution has given a light to that. Freedom of association, freedom to the association of religion, you can practice any religion you like whether Christian, Islam, and traditional religion in fact you can do anything you like. So there is no problem in joining people to say this is the kind of sharia we want for ourselves in as much as it does not undermine the sovereignty, the independence of the state, in as much as it will bring cordial relationship and peace, boost the economy, social justice and whatever. But if it is otherwise, then it is something different.

ZA21 [26421-26503]

They should do this amicably through preaching, preaching, preaching and preaching

ZA22 [23590-23926]

We have answered this question severally I said we said we should go back and hold fast unto the teachings of the Qur'an based on the interpretation, understanding of the sahaba and the tabiun and the ahadith of rasul (SAW). Then continue to teach them to strongly adhere to it and as we continue that Islamic state will come to be.

ZA23 [32458-32610]

To my understanding, the Muslims have the Qur'an, they have the sunna, the only thing let them have a good leader. Then they practice their religion.

ZA24 [38583-38622]

I don't have any idea on that question

ZA25 [35083-35724]

Yes first of all by making sure that majority of them are quite knowledgeable as far as Islamic knowledge is concerned...and they should be exemplary in their practices so that the quantity of Muslims –the number of Muslims should correspond to the quality of Islamic knowledge and practice. So there after they can make-they can file an appeal, they can file a proposal that they will want to practice so and so in this so and so part of this country. We want to practice-this is the system we want to practice. That is how it can start. Thereafter if the approval is granted then they can start by choosing their amir and the rest follows.

ZA26 [17639-17835]

You can achieve it peacefully. They can do it by example. They shall be morally sound and ok. They shall stop corruption. I keep on narrating they should stop corruption, people will follow them.

ZA27 [15827-15914]

They should do it in a very good manner by eh this word has gone byyyy oh I don't know

ZA28 [29474-29792]

Well this can only be achieved by proper awareness and proper yes proper awareness and proper forwarding of ammm (pause) according to what the Islam, the religion teaches, according to the Qur'an and hadith. So let them try to establish a very good emm let me try to construct a very good portfolio now I don't know.

ZA29 [42643-43176]

Well if they want-whenver a Muslims seek an Islamic state or he has to open up to the government or the body he is seeking for, show them the impact and the importance and how which effect does that have to the people living around them. He has to open up everything, hide nothing so that in a situation whereby he is given the rights and it will be like after he was given the opportunity to do it and start to practicing some things that, the person that gave him, grant him the rights will now later decide to you know deny it.

ZA30 [52420-52442]

Through jhadin nafs.

ZA31 [23515-23636]

It is through conveying the message, through preaching, but not through violence because it is not part of the religion.

ZA32 [60759-60951]

They should go about seeking it by the rules and regulations provided by the Islamic sharia ah rules provided by Islam and by the Qur'an and then prophetic, authentic prophetic ahadith, yes.

ZA35 [15647-15656]

No Idea.

ZA37 [31720-31883]

It is by creating of awareness and for them to practice the true Islamic life first for others to see and practice it also. It is not just by saying it by mouth.

ZA38 [35891-36258]

First and foremost they should seek the hand of God in the society that there are non-Muslims and they should need a total cooperation from the non-Muslim that this is how we should do our things. They should become a role model to the non-Muslims to feel that all what they are doing is they are adhering to the faith brought by God, this is how they would prevail.

ZA39 [48870-49032]

They do this by propagating Islam, making people, other non-Muslim appreciate that their belief is correct and genuine. That is the only way they can do this.

Th10.2: Revolutionary jihad: Instrument of Islamic State Creation

KD1 [52334-52582]

A revolutionary jihad might not be necessary. As I have been reiterating let's first attain unity and then obedience to Allah's rule. If everything falls into place, a revolutionary jihad will only be the last option, will only be the last resort.

KD2 [23061-23080]

No. I don't agree.

KD3 [18816-18820]

No.

KD4 [43843-44995]

Revolutionary jihad, as I told you, jihad as a concept is very wide and dynamic. If you are telling me revolutionary jihad then I will take your mind back to the revolution that is the revolution of violence, the making use of arms, the making use of sword and that is not the type of jihad Islam is propagating. That is not the type of jihad Islam is embracing. Even though you cannot do away with that in jihad, but rather in this our contemporary world, Islam always propagate, Islam push forward jihadin nafs, jihad of the heart, purify your heart, preach the good, show good thing, good deeds, bring out the good things of Islam. With that you can change people, not only jihad by the use of force. When it comes to use force, we only use force when it comes to defensive, we only defend ourselves. Not, Islam as a religion does not propagate violence, but rather it uses violence to defend itself. That is what I will say. Then, if that is the kind of revolutionary change you are saying then it is present in the, that is what, that is the type of revolution that is needed to get the jihad done in any state that is to become an Islamic state.

KD4 [45111-45980]

As just as I have told you earlier on, which type of revolutionary change are you referring to? If you are referring to the type revolution that Mark is clamoring, the revolution that has to throw off the, the masses have to throw off the government of the leadership, then Islam does not tolerate such revolution, but if you are talking of the revolution that it has to do with a change in which we transform the society based on the Qur'an and then the Sunna, then I will say yes that type of revolution is needed to transform any state to be an Islamic state. Then if you are talking of jihad, as I told you, you have to start from yourself, your inner self, jihadin nafs before talking of, there has to be dialogue first, a lot of dialogue before even talking of picking up the sword to confront the enemy. There have to be dialogue that is not the first instance.

KD5 [22634-23045]

Do I think, (question repeated) No. I don't think so because it is God that created Muslims, non-Muslims, and other religions. So, if God wanted for Muslims to live in an Islamic state, he would have arranged that right before we even come to being. But it is God that wanted us to live the way we are living as in mixed, Muslims, Christians, traditional religionist and the rest. So, I think there is no need.

KD6 [36981-37145]

Well! I won't say jihad, their own type of jihad, the fact still remains means the scholars now that give fatwa is not jihad. It is un-Islamic what they are doing.

KD7 [29545-29744]

Yes. Today we cannot just say we want sharia state and get it. We have to be firm and decisive about it. We have to stand up, we have to really mean that yes this is what we want and we will get it.

KD8 [53049-53468]

Not necessary, it is not necessary because there are other ways in modern times. We don't just begin to, who will even be the leader? In modern times, you don't need, you may not need that kind of jihad or you don't even need it because how can you do it? You understand. So, there are other ahm ways that you can establish a state. Like I have been given instances of, but to use jihad now, from where do you start?

KD9 [34956-35442]

Ah I will say yes. And the simple reason is because sometime you need to carry the sword to bring about changes. You just have to do it sometime because Islam has thought us that ah we know about the story of Saladin Ayubi in Europe in those days, he had to fight by the gun, use sword to bring about changes then, you understand, but he was the leader and he was guiding his people. So there are times that yes this can be necessary, but of course the rules just have to be followed.

KD10 [28628-29612]

Its very necessary now, very necessary, you see, look at because we are not in , we are not governed by the sharia, everybody is doing whatever, everybody is saying everything, doing anything they like. Are you getting me? The way you like, you dress the way you like. But if there is a government, the government is going to check all these things. You get me right? There are some things that you cannot check, it is you, it is the government that can check. You can do to the best of your ability, but it is the government that is going to check it. You get me right? You can be preaching that every Muslim should put on Hijab, some people will not adhere to it, but if the government says that everybody should put on Hijab, every Muslim should wear Hijab oh and if you don't wear Hijab you are going to be penalized, you see everybody is going to wear it because they know if the government catches them they are going to imprison them. They are going to fine them, is that not?

KD11 [32240-32462]

Of course it is necessary, without revolutionary jihad you cannot establish an Islamic state, but in doing so we need to have the intellectuals so that those who will fight intellectuals guided by light not by blindness.

KD12 [33666-34086]

Eh Revolutionary jihad will be will be recommended you see where people knows that, for example, in the northern area here ah you see if things have to go as it is you see ah revolutionary change of ideas, revolutionary change has to come and it has come, it has come like during the time when they want to make beauty contest, it was revolted totally that northern state cannot welcome such and then it didn't occur.

KD13 [14184-14472]

Revolutionary jihad is important for an Islamic state, but like I said earlier on, not with that of the sword like because the modern day Christian has something to do with education and every weapon we use these days is through writing, reading in order to get what we are looking for.

KD14 [18603-18662]

I will not agree because jihad is not a revolutionary act

KD15 [26406-26411]

No.

KD16 [15614-15623]

Go ahead

KD17 [48064-48375]

Ah necessary that is if the need comes, but I don't think there would be because to establish the sharia, just go out, people don't even know what the sharia is about, they don't even have the knowledge of what the sharia about and you still want to establish sharia, they will not allow, they will not allow.

KD18 [23154-23581]

It's necessary. Yes, jihad is necessary for the establishment of the Islamic state because when you need people, when you really want people to, when you want to have a follower, you must do jihad, you understand, you must do jihad with eh with trying to gain some people's mind, you understand, to get and to get some ah some to get much population so that you people are going to be many, so it is necessary I think, yes.

KD19 [28598-28876]

Well, revolutionary jihad is not necessary to establish an Islamic state in the sense that when you say revolution, you need to change the way people think. Revolution in some instances mean changing it by force, but maybe when you do mild revolution you can change everything.

KD20 [23573-23685]

I did not agree. There is no need of destruction before we can mobilize people into our religion, yes.

KD21 [21529-21597]

No, I did think ahm, I don't think taking of arms can be achieved.

KD23 [22588-22840]

No, I will not agree, but I will agree that jihad is to establish what ah is to establish or is to revive the teachings of God because even jihad can be carried out in a ah against the Muslims that are ah that are not following the teachings of Allah.

KD24 [68311-70447]

Is not necessary, is not necessary Eh what the Muslims believe is that jihad will continue from eh location to another location, from one area to another area until the time when prophet Jesus will return, prophet Isah and when he comes back he will show his own miracles to his followers which are saying they are following Jesus, they are following Isah and Allah (SBUH) told us in the Qur'an that they will believe in him, if they are the true Christians, he will ask them what have you read in the Bible that these are the signs of prophet Isah, they will tell him we heard that prophet Isah can do a miraculous things that a dead person he can raise him, ah blind person he can see eh they can cure him, things like that, okay if I did such thing then will you believe that yes I am the one, they will say okay you can, you are free to show us, he will show them those miracles which they are not magic, miracle is not magic, it is from Allah (SBUH) he will show them. From then they will see his physical creations, physical parts of his body which in their book they have the signs that his hair, this is how it will look like, his height, he is pink in complexion things like that, they will believe and they will tell other followers that yes he is actually prophet Isah, then the will believe, then the umma will become one, but apart from that there is no any simple person that can bring about all the human being in this world into Islam, no, it is not possible. Allah (SBUH) says in Qur'an (recites in Arabic) all the people that are living in this world, normally they were from one person who is prophet Adam, as time goes on, people are increasing in number (recites in Arabic) they have variance, differences, it makes them to separate, to discriminate from one another. Allah (SBUH) said (recites in Arabic) if not Allah has not wish, he can bring them back into one umbrella, but that is not how he want the thing to be. Then who is the one that can bring them back into one umbrella, I think none, none. What Allah did not promise that he will do or he told his prophet that I will do such thing, no one can do it.

KD25 [86374-86627]

No, in as must as the jihad is jihadul Ta'alimi, is a jihad of teaching, of course I agree with that, but if it is any other jihad besides the jihad of teaching the Muslims what is Islam, what really Islam is all about, then I am not in support of it.

KD27 [25121-25409]

Revolutionary jihad yes, but like I said we should not forget that Allah forbids the spilling of innocent blood. So if you are talking of revolution, a revolution that does not involve the killing or the shedding of innocent blood. That is the revolution that I will subscribe to.

KD28 [32861-33276]

It would be if it is in an Islamic state where the understanding is there. It is when there is understanding, what role your, your own role is to the community to the area you are, to the state which you belong to as a Muslim, if you follow the Islamic and you know you do not have to oppress anybody, is not that you are suppressing anybody and you give anybody his own rights as an Islamic law then what is it?

KD29 [19963-20101]

Well it all depends on the context of the interpretation if revolutionary jihad, if by the interpretation it means fighting I can say no.

KD30 [35199-35469]

Ah a revolutionary jihad, I am not sure you are talking of carrying arms because if that is what you are saying then as I said other countries didn't achieve Islamic state by carrying arms, so of course ah when you get the majority you can always have an Islamic state.

KD31 [19398-19414]

To some extent.

KD33 [24343-24387]

No I didn't agree I didn't agree with that

KD34 [27906-28054]

As long as the way I define it, as long as the way Islam define jihad, yes it is, but not other way round, the negative painting of the word jihad.

KD35 [26605-26921]

Ahh when you say revolution could be necessary to establish eh I mean Islamic state when the people in a state are about ninety to hundred percent, let me give an instance of Iran, Saudia. They rule by Islamic systems, so once the majority of the people there are Muslims, then the system should be purely Islamic.

KN1 [58702-58774]

It depends on what you call revolutionary jihad. So you mean aggression?

KN1 [58977-59201]

Yah, it depends upon. I told you if you mean physical struggle, if you mean violence and the rest or oppressing others, no. If you mean through ideologies, conviction, amm ah sort of showing good habits by example, I agree.

KN2 [34152-34216]

Yes if the conditions for the jihad are ripe it is necessary.

KN4 [48192-48814]

Revolutionary jihad that is good morality to establish an Islamic state where Muslims are? That is where Muslims are. Where you don't have right you can't establish in fact you see you can't just dethrone somebody on his seat because God has create us and in fact from different race and give us different religion and different tribe, culture and history in order to identify ourselves. You can't move to another's person territory even during the prophet there is those people that are around or outside his territory they are practicing their religion he did not go and remove them and forces his religion on them, no.

KN5 [28942-29102]

Yes I agree because it is only when you fight for what you want you get it. So if truly we want it we should fight for it on the right base, on the right base.

KN6 [31482-31867]

Yes revolutionary is necessary for establishment of Islamic state but how this revolutionary be, for example, it is a good example if even this democratic revolution which is happen now in Nigeria, it happened without even bloodshed, it happened without even killing any person and even sometimes you can say it happened without even killing animals, so this how Muslim should follow.

KN7 [29610-29880]

Ehmm, revolutionary jihad is not necessary. It is not necessary for em establishment an Islamic state only when, yes it is not, it is not because ehm when we talk of revolutionary jihad, in one way or the other it would bring about crisis, so I don't think it is, yes.

KN8 [29411-29423]

I disagree.

KN9 [26291-26535]

I would agree that as a last resort revolutionary jihad is necessary but ah there are other means as I have said earlier, there are other means, there are compromise and consensus. Through that I think an Islamic state can be established also.

KN10 [20336-20566]

It depends. In a state where the Muslims are minority, they are the minor ones, and they are suffering such difficulties from non-Muslims, so they-jihad can take place for them to conquer the place and establish an Islamic state.

KN11 [27141-27206]

As I have said, initially the word jihad has been misunderstood.

KN13 [30378-30401]

Yes, I agree with it.

KN14 [23881-23941]

Yes but there are some conditions which I mentioned before.

KN15 [21866-21878]

I think no.

KN16 [12088-12095]

No no.

KN18 [44072-44342]

No, because you don't have to engage in a revolutionary process okay, of carrying arms doing all sort of things and a revolution process in order for you to establish an Islamic state, you cannot, is not necessary.

KN19 [26907-27096]

I disagree with that because it is the there is no necessary there is no necessary for jihad to be revolutionized before Islamic states could be put in place.

KN20 [19787-19885]

You don't have to go on revolution. Revolution is not always the answer for everything.

KN21 [13351-13376]

No I disagree with that.

KN22 [28333-28489]

I did not agree to that because of our conduct, our character, the da'wa we are talking about can change the mind of people to embrace Islam.

KN23 [18815-18819]

No

KN24 [18098-18257]

I won't, using forceful means is not the only jihad type of jihad that should be used in non-Islamic state. There are other means of jihad.

KN25 [29283-29376]

It could be part of it but it is not fully necessary. There are other means. You understand.

KN26 [28649-29280]

No. For instance in Nigeria so far in some of the states that sharia law has been established, you find out that no revolution, no jihad, so-called jihad was undertaken. There were just laws that were being set up at state level, legislation was followed and these things went through the secular system, you can imagine for example that first state that first implemented sharia, Zamfara state, they first took the proposal as a bill to the Zamfara state house of assembly, which is the secular system. So you see whether we like it or not there is this largely permanent romance between the Islamic state and the secular state.

KN27 [21700-21891]

Well it is necessary only in the process where you feel it is. Only in the situation where you feel it is. That is when you feel yes only a revolutionary jihad can bring an effective state.

KN28 [16971-17098]

Not at all I don't think it should really be only in terms of the laid down rules at which it can be emphasized on. I think so.

KN29 [2918-2929]

No, no, no

KN30 [16683-16764]

No, not at all because there other peaceful means to go about it

KN31 [26808-26833]

No I disagree with that

KN32 [13156-13313]

I answered this question before and I told you that jihad cannot be an instrument of revolutionary changes especially that of carrying arms and ammunitions...

KN33 [10285-10304]

No I do not agree.

KN34 [17245-17248]

No

KN35 [17538-17673]

No. I do not agree because Islamic states have been existing even before any arm is taken in the current contemporary world.

KN36 [18513-18571]

No there is other means of establishing an Islamic state.

KN37 [16672-16866]

It is not. Ahm simply because as I have said, I think I gave this response before. Islam has one hundred and one peaceful ways it can solve problems without involving physical war.

KN38 [12507-12522]

No, not at all

KN39 [20703-20716]

No actually.

KN40 [17054-17063]

No idea.

KN41 [14564-14569]

No

KN42 [35320-35735]

I would partially agree because when the ehm society has become decayed, the only way for, way forward is for them to, for Islam to be introduced in order to make people, to stop people from perishing. While at the same time, that revolutionary jihad shouldn't be in the process of killing people. It should be in the process of taking over the government and helping people reform not killing them in the process.

KN43 [26112-26518]

Yes, because revolution is not about fighting alone. As I told you, if you engage in a kind of self-purification is like you are overhauling yourself, you are revolutionizing yourself; so even the self-jihad can be a means of achieving a complete and peaceful revolution. So in that case, the self-jihad is a way of achieving revolution in an Islamic community, not taking arms, fighting the non-Muslims.

KN44 [20205-20299]

Revolutionary jihad in the establishment of an Islamic state. I think I can agree with that.

KN45 [28980-29640]

I don't agree, I don't agree that ehh Islamic state can achieve through at least ehh physical combat, but if it is ehh the other meaning of the jihad, then i would say yes. I would say yes because even to strive to establish a political party to participate in an election campaign, to submit yourself to the election system ehh just with the aim, with the motive of ehh establishing an Islamic state yah, that to me ehh is ok, but I don't believe in ehh in the other interpretation to fight in the present ehh in the present world to establish an Islamic state. I think that is not the solution and even it is not even logical to do it in the present world.

KN46 [50161-50169]

Is not.

KN47 [46189-46343]

No. I don't think it is necessary because in a in the even in the secular state you have the right to practice your religion, so they are not necessary.

KN48 [14852-14857]

No.

KN49 [25025-25175]

No, actually jihad could also be a very gradual process that could erode all resistance and finally instill in people the need for an Islamic state.

KN50 [13084-13109]

Ahh, I totally disagree.

KN52 [40749-41428]

This is a repetition and this question has already been answered, right? I have answered that question and I said it is not necessary and I made a point about the introduction of this, in quote, political sharia in 1999 in Kano, in Bauchi, in Zamfara, Katsina all of these state were said to have implemented sharia, was there any revolutionary-what did you say? Was there any conflict? Was there any violence? But it depends, like I said earlier, on the context because historically, socially and even religiously there was ground for that sort of agitation and for the implementation to go without any rancor. This is not conceivable in other parts of Nigeria, for instance.

KN54 [10062-10084]

I already answered.

KN55 [10843-10879]

I already answered this question.

KN56 [18284-18323]

I have already answered this question.

KN57 [16949-16991]

Honestly to some extent, to some extent.

KN58 [37837-38039]

To some extent because it is only when you cleanse the heart of people from the corrupt practices they are into that you can establish a true Islamic state. These are some of the reasons.

KN59 [33798-33824]

I don't agree with that.

KN60 [28344-28389]

We have spoken about this point in the past

KN61 [14559-14577]

Is not necessary.

KN62 [46958-48528]

I don't believe in that. Ahh, the reason is that the noble prophet ah (SAW) during Fatuhah Mecca, you understand, before that very year ah he went for hajj and he was not allowed to enter Mecca and ah he agreed to go back because he knew or he knew at the time that ah he wasn't ready, his people were not ready and they were not there for jihad. They were there for a certain ah Islamic practice, to observe a certain Islamic ah worship, form of worship and ah am it was later in the following year that noble prophet went to open Mecca, that is Fatuhah Mecca and he did that only when he knew that they were ready, yah. So you need to be ready first, yah, so I don't believe that revolutionary jihad is necessary. There are other things you can do in order to actually revolutionize a situation and make it ah Islamic one. Ehh if you look at how the noble prophet sent people like Muazu bin Jabal, there was or there is a kind of ah Hadith in which we see how the noble prophet sent Muazu bin Jabal to a distant non-Muslim empire or country or a state and ah he told him that you are going to ah kitab and first invite them, call them to the ways of Allah that is to say ah before taking arms, one have to call, make calls and look at the prophet Nuh (Alayhis salat wa salam) he spent about nine hundred and fifty years calling people. He did not take arms or let me say weapons or go after them, yah. He did not do that. So I believe that that revolutionary jihad is not necessary, it is not the only way in which we can revolutionize a situation.

KN63 [34470-34857]

No, it is not necessary. Why, you know even ah the prophet our prophet Muhammad (SAW) didn't do that during his own time, huh. Even apart from where he was staying there in Mecca, Medina, Saudi there, there are some other religions around him that are not Muslims and they did not declare jihad in those various areas. So is not, is not possible, you know, is not possible.

KN64 [23794-24038]

No, because the prophet Muhammad (SAW) did not use only jihad in his ehm in his propagating the Islam, spreading the Islam. He used different ways, different methods and even the others ways is more, is much than the jihad.

KN65 [30999-31274]

Hmm, no because, like I have told you earlier on, Islam is about personality, is about personality, you understand, so if it is about personality it is between you and your creator there is no way right, you use revolutionary jihad to achieve an Islamic state.

KN66 [19180-19350]

No. This is because, as I said from the above question, as I answered, Islam has been existing as man, so there is nothing like a revolution in real jihad.

KN67 [19757-19818]

I think the question here is the same with the previous one.

KN68 [9592-9627]

No, I have already answered that.

KN69 [33643-33909]

No because of understanding and the lack of respect or rather lack of respect to the religion of each other. If to say that we are at we are to respect the religion of each other, I think we don't have problem in northern part of the country

KN71 [56932-57423]

Still, when I always have problem with the issue of jihad except of course if you are very specific when you mean fighting. If you are specific, that one should be specific otherwise the answer may mean yes, because you cannot just sit in the room and be praying for a change to occur, of course not. You must read, you must read yourself, you must educate others, you must mobilize, you must contribute, donate, you understand and all this is part of jihad, so if you mean that jihad, yes.

KN71 [56932-57423]

Yes, exactly since revolution not means fighting, is a changes, is a changes

KN73 [30832-30862]

Now I'm not really agreeing.

KN73 [31366-31523]

This is what I'm saying. Islam is not or jihad is not a revolutionary change. It is the way of revival of anti-Islamic practice. You can put it everywhere.

KN74 [41311-41518]

No because the, if you can see that you find whenever you take an action maybe for a revolutionary that is by using physical jihad, it does not achieve anything because everything has its time.

KN75 [45538-45589]

No because no compulsion in religion.

KN76 [36532-36609]

Well I have said that a revolutionary jihad by taking arms is not necessary.

KN78 [52517-52867]

Yes, to some extent yes. You see all revolutions are violent in nature. All revolutions are violent in nature and history has really proven too us even under ahm like, for instance, during the time of Usman Dan Fodio, during the time of Muhammad (SAW), his society was essentially changed as a result of a revolutionary process, oh yes.

KN78 [53128-53692]

Yah, ooh yes, and that is very true, you see all revolutions whether Islamic or non-Islamic are violent in nature and you cannot overturn, you cannot radically transform society with true peaceful means and that is why when the colonial masters came, they succeeded in changing the way of life of people through violence. So if you want a revolution by its nature, if you want to transform radically a society from a old system to a new system, there is a, there is a heavy presence of violent really. We cannot escape from that, it is one of the logic of power.

KN80 [40615-40781]

Yes is necessary, but the revolution should take form of peaceful jihad in the propagation of knowledge and ideas of the Islamic institution and what Islam requires.

KN81 [25666-25805]

Well I don't because Islamic state can be established not only by means of revolutionary jihad, but other means of jihad. You get the point

KN82 [27887-27947]

Depends on the circumstances, it depends on the situation.

KN83 [18598-18676]

Yes I agree because change cannot come without violence and dispute struggle.

KN84 [21850-21892]

No I don't agree, I don't totally agree.

KN85 [29396-29798]

Revolutionary jihad is necessary only when peaceful and ahh ahh peaceful means and dialogue cannot achieve that. There is ahh always a way through dialogue, through negotiation. If that is not possible or if that is not enough to bring about the needed change or is not enough to bring about the establishment of an Islamic state then jihad could be used, but jihad should always be the last resort.

ZA1 [31586-31645]

I think we answered this question, this one we answered.

ZA2 [31085-32297]

If the revolutionary yah the revolution here is how do we change, when we say revolution, how do we change this thing and when we are trying the issue of change, is it not the attitude, the presentation of the doings that will enable people to come in? Is it not that, that will make people to accept you, people should not change from where you are? Look lets go back to Nigeria affair today, we will not call the last election as a revolution, but when we study it, is just take a element of revolution because people have watched where are they from? What is the danger they are in? Majority say no we are no more going there, we didn't agree. They now turned back. This is the same thing, if as a leader of Islam, if that land or that area have been practiced under Islamic affairs and you are happened to be a leader and you are a Muslim and you try to play with sincerity, people will come in and say ooo ooo we are no more in that area, so is wrong before, we are here. Is what we are saying now, the revolution that is what is a revolution, changing from one area to the other aspect, turning things around, is not issue of go and fight, is issue of just presenting the truth for people to accept you.

ZA3 [23896-24109]

Revolutionary jihad hmm you have mentioned earlier jihad and war and now revolutionary jihad. Revolutionary jihad is all about war, you are talking, if that is what you are referring to here, no I will not agree.

ZA4 [46064-46130]

Is not the, is not the starting point, is not the starting point.

ZA5 [26615-26630]

Is not Islamic

ZA6 [63948-64558]

Ahm yes is revolution, of course revolutionary jihad is necessary for the establishment of an Islamic state, not in all situations anyway, just like I have said during that time of Usman Dan Fodio in northern Nigeria, where there was no established religious or justice system hmm, it was necessary for the establishment of an Islamic state. But the kind of jihad now, in Nigeria now we shouldn't be talking of an Islamic state because it is a 50-50 ratio. So there is no way we should be talking of creating an Islamic state where you have an equal number of Christians, non-Muslims in that particular place.

ZA7 [29875-30210]

Of course it is very necessary because not everybody has or believes or is a Muslim or believes in, so you have to, you have to preach what Islam is, what jihad is and before and you have to do that calmly and if there are corrupt practices, jihad also is a tool of eliminating such corrupt practices. So I think it is very necessary.

ZA8 [62034-62498]

Yes it is because if you are to establish an Islamic state, definitely you have to call people to change many of their bad ways that they are doing. They have to conform with things that they are not use to. So this is necessary because you have to first of all enlighten them, tell them the benefits of what they are going to adapt to the ones they are doing. So that is the jihad so definitely it is necessary to do jihad for an Islamic state to come about.

ZA9 [33774-33820]

Everything cannot be achieved through force.

ZA10 [30956-31278]

Yes, very, very necessary because they will have more freedom when you are aware of this particular thing, you will how to go by it that is when you know the rules guiding your activities in your, in the state, you will not like to break the rule, so jihad is actually an instrument for revolutionary change in a sharia.

ZA11 [25420-25476]

Depending on the degree of the situation of the state.

ZA12 [15865-16038]

Yes I agree in the sense that if they will teach the way and manner in which an Islamic state should be, I agree in as much as they will preach how it is in the holy book.

ZA14 [21043-21256]

Yes because the society have to be morally ok, because we don't need to be going back to jahiliyya period, going back to a stone age or rather come back to life style which really is very ok with us.

ZA15 [24096-24316]

I still say revolutionary jihad, maybe you mean if it is through fighting, I disagree with that because it is not all, is not everything you can achieve through fighting. It can be done also through dialogue and so on.

ZA16 [16924-16990]

No, because revolution, revolutionary jihad is not Islamic jihad.

ZA18 [24737-25251]

Not quite because you see, when Muslims are allowed to do their religion the way they are suppose to, there will not be any problem and we should make sure that we are living by the tenets of the religion that is the sharia. That sharia, you practicalize it yourself, you understand, you should be disciplined. If you are disciplined, I am disciplined, my children, our household, our neighbors then nobody will ever go and steal someone else's properties, you understand, so that is the sharia.

ZA19 [35556-35820]

It depends on the context of revolution, revolution there are positive or bloody or non-bloody revolutions, so actually I didn't agree that violent means could be the last resort for the establishment of an Islamic state, but of course through good act and will.

ZA20 [23094-23574]

No. The kind of definition they give to revolutionary jihad is not what Islam means. So there is demarcation there. We have nothing like revolutionary as explained by the western nations in Islam. We don't have that. That revolution should be peaceful, cordial, you know, and unless where and when necessary the violence will come up and that is when the Christians or unbelievers attack Muslims unjustifiably or unreasonably or without any due regard. So that is it.

ZA21 [27169-27420]

I would say no I don't agree because we said revolution is not about fighting or shedding blood and jihad we said is not about fighting or shedding blood. And in fact there are conditions or prerequisites before somebody will embark even upon jihad.

ZA22 [24490-24510]

No. I don't agree.

ZA23 [33148-33176]

No I don't believe in that.

ZA24 [39489-40119]

I do not agree that we should use jihad revolutionary-because the way people perceive jihad if you say revolutionary jihad means that you at least started fighting those who are not Muslims. So you cannot use that one to create or to establish Islamic state. So look at what happened in Zamfara state. They created sharia state without fighting –killing anybody, without any violence. So you can use constitution, constitution is allowed if you are in the majority like northern state now. So if you are in the majority – Muslim are majority you can create sharia without – you should follow due process without killing anybody.

ZA25 [36568-36980]

It is not necessary it depends on the extant conditions at a particular point in time. Yes if a particular point in time the Muslims they have put in place, they have exhausted every other alternatives they have, then it is for sure if they have good...Muslims for sure the non-Muslims the western powers they will try to wage war against them and it that situation Allah gives Muslims permission to fight back.

ZA26 [18103-18157]

Ok why Hitler did his own revolution is he a Muslim?

ZA27 [16546-16675]

No because there are so many countries that they establish Islamic state without any revolution, without any fight

ZA28 [30319-30430]

Ah this is a very serious question which I would like to comment much so may be can we go to the next question

ZA29 [43653-43842]

mmmmm yes, I may say yes, but I would use like I said jihad when we say jihad I would use strive there rather because jihad is never meant the way people understand it. So yes it is true.

ZA30 [52832-52836]

No.

ZA31 [24023-24216]

Yes, it is because nowadays, you will see some people or Islam, some Muslims, they are bridging the message of Allah (SBUH), the need to be called to do jihad. Jihad means conveying preaching.

ZA32 [61278-61564]

Yes I agree, but the jihad, revolutionary jihad, should start by what, as it is the nature of the jihad that you should start by what, preaching and calling and then later, if the peace is violated, the physical combat can take over while if not ah it can be continued in that manner.

ZA33 [19803-20351]

Yes jihad is necessary for establishment of an Islamic state because with Islam as the background and what you have as a pillar and the number of Muslims you have and the states where you live if you see that there is avenue for jihad, you can go ahead and launch jihad with the intention of waging jihad fi sabilillah so that when you win the jihad you will at the end of the day treat everybody equally as you treat your Muslims as what happened in Iran where they have jihad revolutionary state which they call it the Islamic Republic of Iran.

ZA34 [39777-40293]

Revolutionary jihad is necessary for the establishment of an Islamic state, as I said before, it is not necessary because an Islamic state can be established without fighting as they call it revolutionary this thing. It can be created. Rasul (SAW) when he came to Medina he did not fight. Did he? He did not. It is only-even all the fighting that took place is all outside Medina. And Medina yet is an Islamic state. He did not fight the Jews, he did not fight the Christians but yet Medina became an Islamic state.

ZA35 [15952-16272]

Yes I agree that, is an establishment of, it is a revolutionary jihad, sorry establishment of an Islamic state, because like I have said earlier that the prophet has said we have different types of jihad, so if the Qur'an and Hadith has not been evolved we wouldn't have known about Jihad itself before and the hadith.

ZA36 [23845-24005]

As I said earlier, Islam is a peaceful religion and there is no force into it, so there should not be jihad just because a state wants to be an Islamic state.

ZA37 [32189-32754]

You see that is why I am repeating this question, what is the meaning of this revolution? That is what comes into the mind of people, this is a revolutionary state, it means before it was a government, but it undergoes a revolution to change that government, that revolution maybe in many different ways and if jihad is attached, if the word jihad is attached to the word revolution, what would come into the mind of almost everybody is that for you maybe to take your weapons and fight against that very state and clear it away and establish Islamic government.

ZA37 [32788-32816]

I don't agree with that.

ZA38 [36727-36927]

Presently there is a lot of work to be done. If I, yah why because there is a moral decadence in our society. We must make sure we put these things in order then we keep it moving in a perfect shape.

ZA39 [49764-50253]

The answer is no. An Islamic state comes to exist where the state is occupied by people who believe in Islam and they want to practice their religion according to, I mean they want to conduct their lives according to the provisions of the sharia law,² so if they are Muslims and they understand the teachings of Islam and they agree to do, to live their lives in an Islamic manner then they must not necessarily, take or resort to violence, to using force or something. So it is not true.

Th10.3: Jihad as Instrument of Revolutionary Change

KD1 [51883-52218]

Is an instrument of revolutionary change is true because from history we have seen several instances where Islam has actually brought real time changes. We have seen cases of Salahudeen and Ayubi, we have seen cases of Umar bin Khatib. We have seen some other cases but it all depends on how and the leadership and level of sincerity.

KD2 [22842-22949]

To me, Islam is not a concept, is not an instrument of any revolutionary change in any where in the world.

KD3 [18662-18702]

Ah my reaction will be, no. It's false.

KD4 [42958-43731]

If you say jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change, I will ask you what type of jihad are you talking about? Are you talking about the type of revolution that Marx was clamoring about? A revolution that is going to bound on change, a revolution that have to be about the masses, the masses have to revolt and then overthrow the elites, overthrow the capitalist, is that the type of revolution you are talking about or are you talking about the type of revolution that the clamoring, the revolution that can bring out a change, a positive change that will transform the lives of people? That is what I ask you, if that is the kind of revolution, I will tell you that yes, Islam is a revolutionary change that bring about what, ideas, life of the people in the world.

KD5 [22006-22522]

Yes. I think if that revolutionary change you are talking about is to revolt, if it is to the revolt, I think, if it is to revolt in terms of crisis, I think the answer is no, but if it is to stay away from ungodly things, I think the answer is yes because jihad is not necessarily to fighting or killing, though fighting and killing also is part of jihad, is another part of jihad rather. While there is other part of jihad which is helping others, helping others and the rest, I can't remember the rest, continue.

KD6 [36702-36869]

You are talking about jihad, jihad, what they are meant by jihad of taking guns and arrow, jihad means many things. Jihad does not mean taking gun and an arrow alone.

KD7 [28773-29429]

Yes, it is. It is an instrument of revolutionary change. Jihad means so much, it means a lot. It does not only mean a sword, ahm as I said earlier, a person can decide to propagate Islam, you are making a big jihad, that is da'wa that is jihad. A person can decide to say, I am going to take up feeding of the less privileged that is a jihad. When you feed them and they are strong enough, they will worship God more, that is fighting, that is for Allah that is only for Allah. A person can decide today I am going to sweep the gutters of Kaduna state, that is jihad, you are preventing diseases from occurring, you are giving people fresh air to breath.

KD8 [51888-52938]

Of course it is, but it depends on the context. It is an instrument like in Iran, it was jihad that brought about that revolution. Even though not really jihad in the context of jihad, it was a revolution, but jihad can be an instrument of revolution, yes depending on the situation. In a situation whereby the Muslims are the dominant people and they are denied their rights, they are forced to secularize, to comply to the injunction of secular state, they are denied their rights to practice their religion, they are denied their rights to pray, they are denied their rights to go to ehm to go and perform Hajj and all that. Jihad could be an instrument, but there are laid down rules and regulations of embarking on jihad. There is a process. You don't just come and kill people like that. Normally a line should be drawn, there are certain processes that need to be followed before you just begin to unleash terror, unleash violence on people. Jihad is not done like that. It has to be in conformity with the rules and the regulations of Islam

KD9 [34804-34844]

It can be. I would say that. It can be.

KD10 [28233-28520]

Jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change. It is true. When we fight, it is true, when we fight the jihad that is in conformity with the sharia, it changes everything. It changes evil to good (sneezes and says Alhamdulillah), it changes disobedience to obedience. You get me right?

KD11 [31558-32124]

Of course it is. Jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change. Well let me tell you, when you ah it is an instrument of revolutionary change and I have always traced this in the earlier part of this interview that jihad is not necessarily a combat though it may include it, but a very good example of a kind of jihad going on in virtually everywhere in northern part of this country especially when you look at these two states (Kano and Kaduna), you will begin to see some kind of revolution, some changes in the way mosques are built and designed or renovated.

KD12 [33390-33558]

Ah jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change in the sense where eh every conduct, every rule, every guidance has been laid and everyone understands it from A-Z.

KD13 [14058-14068]

Accepted.

KD14 [18432-18495]

I will say it is no, false and it is wrong. It is not correct

KD15 [25523-26291]

Jihad can never be an instrument of revolution because have said it earlier on that jihad is by fighting in the cause of Allah and by fighting in the cause of Allah not that by picking weapon or by taking a weapon and killing each other. jihad can be through speech, through good doing, through feelings and I think that one is the utmost jihad that we have in our generation now, by doing good work, by saying good words, by acting good, your character is good or your emotion is okay. I think that is also a jihad. You mustn't pick a weapon and whatever and say you want to revolutionize a country or an Islam state then you must pick a weapon, no. Jihad can be through speech, through good deed through good character. So I think that is okay by a good Muslim.

KD16 [15491-15500]

Go ahead

KD17 [47514-47960]

Ah if I am being asked that question the only thing I am going to or if that is being posed to me, based on the little knowledge I have of Islamic fundamentals, I will know that you must not really pick up arms against people, which is jihad, to pick up sword or gun and start fighting the government, killing people, picking bombs, suicide mission before you can establish a sharia, by the time you do that to people you can't establish sharia.

KD18 [22687-23045]

Yes, jihad is an instrument to revolution ah revolutionary change in the sense that you know jihad as an instrument is not to carry the sword to be killing people, it's like trying to make efforts to make sure that eh to educate people and to reorient people about what Islam is all about. That is why Islam is all about revolutionary as an instrument. Yes.

KD19 [28326-28488]

Well, jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change, yes, because through jihad you can change the concept and notion that the people have about your religion.

KD20 [23170-23444]

The jihad is not an instrument for a revolution eh revolutionary change in the sense that as I said earlier about jihad that jihad is not all about force eh fighting, fighting and the killing of the people so there is nothing like destruction in the Qur'an and hadith, yes.

KD21 [21344-21398]

I will say it contradicts the sayings of the prophets

KD23 [22397-22482]

Yes. I will say that it is true, but if the principle of the jihad will be followed.

KD24 [67474-68080]

Actually is not, knowledge is what will bring about revolution, knowledge, no matter how jihad you will do without knowledge, even in Islam you can't take, just as I have mentioned earlier, you can't go to jihad without knowledge because we have to, even the jihad, if you are going, you have to know how to go about it. Eh in Islam the, one of the scholar is saying (he recites in Arabic) no any single deed you are allowed to do in Islam until you know what Allah said and how Allah said you should do it, and there is no any way for you to know how to do it than to seek how does the prophet does it.

KD25 [86244-86255]

Not really

KD26 [25132-25429]

I will say no. It is not. It is ok yes it is an instrument revolutionary change, but not the kind of jihad, physical jihad. Revolution does not have to hurt people or anything to achieve it, as I keep saying, jihad by tongue is, if you are able to revolutionize people using that then why not?

KD27 [24919-25009]

Yes jihad not the jihad that carries arms but the jihad that purifies the self, the nafs.

KD28 [32266-32736]

Well I agree with that, that it is an instrument of revolutionary change in the sense that if you understand the Islam and you know the injunctions and you know the rules and regulations of the Islam and you are going by it then it is the form of a revolution because at least you know your role as an individual to yourself, to your neighbor to the community and your own government then you know it is a form of revolution which will make things to move forward.

KD29 [19707-19861]

Ah it can be an instrument of revolutionary change on the basis of the true meaning of sharia not a misrepresentation, misrepresented facts about sharia.

KD30 [34910-35086]

Ah for as long as Islam is it is a revolution and jihad is an instrument to propagate this Islam then of course a peaceful jihad and can bring about a lot of change and so on.

KD31 [19131-19304]

Revolutionary change in the aspect that it should be a positive one not a negative one yes and it should not go against the teachings or the rules the regulations of Islam.

KD32 [27447-27660]

No. I don't agree with this. From the jihad you are meaning I don't agree with this so when you say jihad and then you mean war, so I don't agree with anybody to participate in war to establish an Islamic state.

KD33 [24200-24236]

Well I say I will say is not true

KD34 [27615-27803]

Definitely the way I define jihad it is an instrument for revolutionary change not the way others or anti-Islam or people who have lack of knowledge of Islam are defining the word jihad.

KD35 [26321-26490]

Like I said previously jihad is a revolution of the heart not forceful revolution of the force, is a revolution of the heart, a total revolution of the heart for good.

KN1 [16605-17010]

Well it depends upon the situation. It depends upon the circumstance, because in the first place, the holy prophet is our sole example and we copy from him and anything that is not from him we all know it is bida'a that is an innovation and any innovation is back to sender and is hell fire. So saying that probably somebody need to a little bit expatiate what he means by that for better understanding.

KN2 [34153-34216]

Yes if the conditions for the jihad are ripe it is necessary.

KN5 [28815-28830]

I will say no.

KN6 [31186-31365]

Yes, it is instrument of revolutionary change but how is it conducted? You know we are not always say jihad is to go and fight. So it depends on your understanding on this jihad.

KN7 [28959-29493]

I will ehm, I will laugh and ehm I would say it is not. A revolution, when we talk of revolution, it is a situation whereby we have total change of ideology and Islam is not here, Islam its only, its only relevant, we can only say ehn its revolution, where ehm, where the governing ideology of that society its totally an absolutely different from Islamic teachings, that is when and where we say that Islam is ehm a revolution but anywhere, any ehm situation whereby Islam exists within the society then it is not a revolution, yes.

KN8 [29097-29294]

I dis-concur with this ideology. I dis-concur with this ideology because jihad is not revolutionary; it is not an instrument of revolutionary change. People are only perceiving it in that manner.

KN9 [26068-26173]

Well, I would say the person saying this is not ah is not highly educated of the teachings of Islam, yes.

KN10 [20136-20219]

Yes, jihad is an instrument for revolutionary change from difficulty to ease, yes.

KN11 [26920-27025]

Yes, dama revolutionary change will not be done without jihad but the word jihad is being misunderstood.

KN13 [29855-30263]

Hmm yah, jihad is an instrument of revolutionary because if you look you can cite example with Iran. He brought a total revolution to that state, so definitely jihad, even if you look at jihad of Usman Dan Fodio or jihad of ahm this ahm Sekou Toure of ehm somebody in Liberia, I have forgotten his name, it bought reformation, it bought ideological and revolutionary reformation to that particular society.

KN14 [23692-23744]

Yes, of course, if it is true jihad, yes of course

KN15 [21716-21759]

No I think it's not, jihad is not at all.

KN16 [11958-11971]

No it's not.

KN18 [43914-43965]

Jihad is not an instrument of revolutionary change

KN19 [26766-26804]

I will disagree with such a statement.

KN20 [19486-19684]

Uh I no no no no I don't totally agree because why, is not is not as if it is a revolutionary change at that point you are leaving something that is wrong even within you to another thing is jihad.

KN21 [13136-13156]

I will say nothing.

KN22 [27634-28226]

What will I say? Ah you see when we talk about revolution; we must typologize the revolution. There is what we call peaceful revolution and violent type of revolution. You understand, Islam advocated for the latter which is the peaceful revolution. A revolution that will emanate, will start from your own house, from the individual, a revolution that if you see your Muslim brother you can be able to help him. A revolution whereby wherever you re seeing things are not going right you should advocate, you should write in order for those things to be seen as right. That is a revolution.

KN23 [18652-18714]

No I don't believe because jihad is something that is not war

KN24 [17947-17996]

It is not an instrument of revolutionary change

KN25 [28986-29179]

My reaction is going to be that people are not highly learned as they are supposed to be. I would see this as an act of limited knowledge. Anyone who knows much will not go with this assertion.

KN26 [28097-28540]

Yes it is somewhat true, but I will still stand to my word that you know rather jihad better operationalized, can mean a lot of things and including that means non-violent forms also in it. So really I think the umma particularly in Nigeria have a very big work in their hands mostly the leadership in order to show followers of Islam that there are better ways of propagating jihad if you like, you understand, other than the violent forms.

KN27 [21350-21611]

Well it is to a very large extent because when you are talking of jihad you are talking of changing the orientation that exists in another fellow. So by changing it may be radically or the other way round, it is one way or the other a revolutionary instrument.

KN28 [16765-16867]

Hmm yah to some extent if probably they have their possibilities of really making that change itself.

KN29 [2132-2688]

It is but it now depends on the definition of the jihad. Anything revolution is a kind of turning what has been wrong to the right thing, trying to do the wrong thing in the right way. Then the jihad should start from nafsi that is where the beginning of jihad is, from your mind you try to correct things from your mind before you take it to revolution. When people hear of revolution they thought is only sword and gun and the rest of it, but it is all about revolution, sword. But when it is comes to that issue it should start...so that is all about it.

KN30 [16574-16584]

It is not

KN31 [26681-26708]

I quite disagree with that

KN32 [12936-13050]

Ah you see I don't know but I think I answered this question; Jihad is not an instrument of revolutionary change.

KN33 [10165-10175]

Possibly.

KN34 [17060-17143]

I will say this is just they are misconceiving the whole idea or meaning of jihad.

KN35 [17433-17435]

No

KN36 [18392-18411]

No it is not true.

KN37 [16555-16568]

No it is not

KN38 [12383-12405]

I disagree with this.

KN39 [20579-20601]

Really of course not.

KN40 [16874-16944]

The answer is no, jihad is not an instrument of revolutionary change.

KN41 [14391-14455]

I will say jihad is not an instrument of revolutionary change.

KN42 [34721-35211]

I would disagree with this scholar but unfortunately a lot of people even Muslims themselves have said that. They have said peace can no longer achieved and peaceful da'wa can no longer achieve the revivalism we want in Islam. So they preach ehm, the act of taking of arms in order to show people, in order to get people to listen or for people to actually react. I would say it is wrong but unfortunately that is what even the Muslims are doing today and I am actually totally against it.

KN43 [25901-26004]

Yes, I would agree with this, but you have to clearly define what type of jihad you are talking about.

KN44 [20066-20097]

I think I can agree with that.

KN45 [28718-28877]

Yah, jihad means a revolution so literally yah, this is correct. Jihad is an instrument of ehh revolutionary change that is all what jihad is all about, yah.

KN46 [49964-50057]

That takes us back to the question of what jihad means, so I think I already answered this.

KN47 [45764-46081]

Well, I can't say that because ehm jihad is not an instrument of revolutionary change because I say if you attack somebody nowadays, then that, the sibling of that person will also attack you and the siblings of yours will also to attack the siblings of that person and then you will create what is called civil war.

KN48 [14701-14741]

Ahh, I would rather disagree with that.

KN49 [24820-24917]

I would say it all depends on the concept itself and the context in which its been carried out.

KN50 [12907-12972]

I would say jihad is not an instrument of revolutionary change.

KN52 [39982-40645]

Yes, jihad has always been an instrument of change if you look at the history of jihad in Africa and other parts of the world. The jihad that Prophet Muhammad (SAW) fought against the Quraish led to overthrow of the Quraishy the government in place at that time and the establishment of sharia. It was the revolution: political, social, you know revolution in all the ramifications. The 19th century jihad in West Africa, for instance, also led to the establishment of new forms of governments, societies and a whole new paradigm, you know, was entrenched after the jihad. So jihad could be revolution depending on the way and manner in which it is prosecuted.

KN54 [9929-9960]

Correct. Well it is correct.

KN55 [10685-10740]

Jihad it is not an instrument of revolutionary change.

KN56 [18073-18175]

I would say that it is not an instrument of revolutionary change because Islam is not a revolution.

KN57 [16830-16845]

Yes of course

KN58 [37530-37732]

Ehn that is if it is carried out positively, not the kind of jihad that is being propagated by the western world as a demerit to Islam, but jihad based on the true teachings of the prophet (SAW)

KN59 [33038-33694]

Hummmm actually I don't even agree that jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change because it does not bring any change, the only change it brings, to my own understanding, is negative change if it involves physical jihad, but if it is jihad of iman, you understand, then it can bring a change, you understand, because take, for instance, if you fight your conscience it can be a positive outcome and change. If it is use of words maybe by distributing pamphlets to kind of preach what Islam is all about then they can be a revolutionary change, but if it is jihad basically that of conflict or war, there won't be a positive or revolutionary change.

KN60 [28188-28240]

It is an instrument. I think I have said it before

KN61 [14426-14449]

Hmm, somehow, somehow.

KN62 [46663-46849]

I think I answered this question before, I can a relevant one, one that is somehow, that looks like this, but jihad is not an instrument of revolutionary change, that is what I believe.

KN63 [34318-34366]

Is not true, that is not true, is not, is not.

KN64 [23624-23691]

I say to you jihad is meaning to protect your religion, ehnn, yes.

KN65 [30837-30895]

Jihad is not an instrument of revolutionary change, yes.

KN66 [18398-19075]

Ahh, jihad in some extent is an indeed, is indeed a revolutionary change, this is because if you are fighting jihad from the mind which is jihad, jihad of oneself maybe once your, your, your mind is corrupt, you're fighting yourself to, to change yourself, okay I can say that that jihad is, I can say that that jihad is a revolutionary jihad but when it comes to jihad of, when it comes to jihad for fighting, for fighting to convert, to get more convert, I can say Islam, Islam is already a religion that is eh, that, that is has been existing, that has been existing for as long as Man exist, so I can't say that Islam is a that you are practicing a revolution in that way.

KN67 [19513-19653]

Yes to some eh to so many extents jihad is. If you want to eh bring a revolution in Islamic state and some other state, jihad is necessary.

KN68 [9464-9491]

I would say this is false.

KN69 [33248-33514]

Yes, it could be possible, jihad could be serve as a tools of revolutions because by taking the meaning of the word revolution is a change or maybe by making jihad at the end of the day it could lead to bring so many changes to the aspect of Muslims and heir lives.

KN71 [56795-56820]

I would say it is true.

KN72 [30725-30864]

Yes, jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change when people change minds on the jihad is a declaration of war or holy war declaration.

KN73 [30605-30722]

Mm I would say that this jihad is an instrument of reviving the anti-practice of Islam not the revolutionary change.

KN74 [40980-41096]

Hmm jihad, if, I think if you talk about jihad in an angle of mu'amalat we can take as a revolutionary change, yes.

KN75 [45361-45425]

Jihad is never an instrument of Revolutionary religion, change.

KN76 [36147-36424]

What will I say, Jihad yah, I can say that ahh one need to expatiate or to give more detail about this because when you say is an instrument of revolutionary change, yes is an instrument of revolutionary change, is true, it is, it is an instrument of change, I agree with it.

KN78 [52033-52408]

Well yes, if it is genuinely, a genuine jihad as agreed by the Qur'an and Sunna. And all the Ulama's, all Ulama's in the Islamic history either past or now believe that yes jihad. If the favorable condition for jihad, for using force to change, for using force for the sake of peace, why not? But you don't use jihad as a means of further instigating of other violences.

KN80 [40214-40508]

Yes it, I can say it is because it is-jihad is a change for more particular state of being to another, maybe from negative to positive. So revolution also it is almost the same as is a change of government, change of Phenomena, change of lives of people. So it is the same case with ahh jihad.

KN81 [25478-25547]

Of course jihad is looked as an instrument of revolutionary change.

KN82 [27713-27781]

Actually jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change, its true.

KN83 [18423-18487]

I think I will say yes, but positive and religious revolution.

KN84 [21614-21747]

Yes now ahh if you look or define jihad in a wider meaning, it can be instrument of ahh revolution, but i mean positive revolution.

KN85 [28969-29288]

Hmmm jihad can be an instrument of revolutionary change if the society is rotten, if the society has the moral ahh and ethics, morals and ethics in the society have degenerated and if ahh pacific and the non-violent means cannot bring about the desired change then jihad can be used, but not always, not at all times.

ZA1 [30801-31482]

I will say the person who told you that, he don't know what Islam is. Islam didn't, Islam Rasul (SAW) didn't establish Islam based on jihad, is just admonishment, preaching. If you agree, is for your own good, if you don't agree is left to you, but the way that non-Muslims try to attack Rasul (SAW), Rasul (SAW) try to protect himself. And even you, you answered me that you cannot fold your hands somebody to come and kill your people. So now America is killing, look what happened in Iraq, so you mean that if you are in Iraq, you see America is killing your brother, will you just fold your hand because you want peace? You have to take necessary action to protect yourself.

ZA2 [30729-30858]

Is going back to the word jihad I have told you. I said jihad is not issue of fighting, is issue of just interpreting, teaching.

ZA4 [45870-45960]

Is wrong. It cannot be. Revolutionary change cannot be by jihad alqital, is jihin nafs.

ZA5 [26169-26482]

How should I respond if they say jihad is the instrument of a revolutionary change? What, my response really goes like this that yes jihad of mind because by how we have jihad of mind, shey you understand, you be like peaceful in your mind and way you treat people and people will respect you more. Thank you.

ZA6 [63102-63834]

Ahh it depends. Revolutionary change in what aspect now? Now in the society where there is no justice, there is no abiding by rules and regulations, in a society where nudity and social vices are the order of the day, definitely jihad will be an instrument of a revolutionary change where Islam would be used to change the lives of the people of that particular place for the better like I gave an example of jihad Usman Dan Fodio, the jihad of Usman Dan Fodio in the northern Nigeria. It was like that, the people did not have any religion, they were traditionalists, social vices were much, there was no justice, northing and Islam, jihad at that time was used as a revolution of which today everybody still benefits from that.

ZA7 [29215-29772]

Yes, from what I have said before, I think there was one time the word revolutionary comes, revolutionary has to do with change of governance, practices and everything. And I have said this, a couple of times, that Islam is a religion that always goes with change, likewise Christianity or likewise any other religion. It has to go with change, so it is necessary and from the word jihad, from Islamic view, jihad has to do with stopping what is evil and doing what is good. So it has to do with whatever change or state governance or world has to go with.

ZA8 [61388-61789]

I will say it is because if jihad is to actually be carried out in any state there, will be change of things. Definitely that will happen because in a state whereby already there is corruption and bribery, now they, now jihad is taking place and is implementing and is actually happening, definitely corruption will reduce, many things that are bad will stop. So definitely there will be revolution.

ZA9 [33342-33614]

Ahhthat point looks corny. Ehn if it is a peaceful jihad not the kind of jihad we are having in this country, not bloodshed. There are better ways of expressing our grievances without shedding blood because the religion itself does not encourage bloodshed unnecessarily.

ZA10 [30565-30846]

Yes, jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change because jihad is the act of creating awareness to people about Islam and as we all know Quran is there as a guide for all Muslims so when you propagate Islam using the Qur'an and hadith, it will bring a lot of changes to people.

ZA11 [25099-25309]

Change to what? You see, when we talk about change, if you are changing from worse to better in an Islamic way, then of course I believe to that, but if it is contrary to that context, then I don't believe it.

ZA12 [15486-15563]

I don't disagree with this statement, jihad in terms of carrying weapons or?

ZA12 [15674-15753]

ok if it is in terms of getting to let people know how Islam goes, then it is.

ZA13 [15428-15482]

I will be so surprised and shocked because it is not.

ZA14 [20826-20929]

Yes I will say that yes it can be, it can be so far you do the good things, what sharia really means.

ZA15 [23839-23981]

Yes because if you, I will say yes, why I am saying yes is because if you do jihad at least you are bringing changes and that is revolution.

ZA16 [16793-16807]

I will say no.

ZA18 [24169-24623]

What will I say if I am told that jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change? You know I told you earlier on that before the advent of the Islamic religion, that is before coming of the prophet (SAW), the people of the jahiliyya, dark age, were committing all kinds of atrocities in those days, so when prophet (SAW) came, he was now able to ah remove a lot of those atrocities honestly speaking. So it is a kind of revolution really at that time.

ZA19 [35159-35445]

Well ah actually jihad just as we have said earlier is an instrument of revolutionary change, but not through violent mean, as we have said earlier, and of course it is an instrument where you can bring a positive transformation that is a positive change or a positive revolution, yes.

ZA20 [22773-22990]

That is their saying; the saying of the western nations. Revolutionary is all about violence as they say not as it is. Likewise jihad as they say is all about violence and conflict as they say not as it is in Islam.

ZA21 [26601-27055]

Well I will say jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change, but not waging war against anybody. You can be into jihad we said if you can clear your mind and make sure that you preach the gospel of peace and you show to people to the world that your religion is the best religion to be practiced. So to say revolution is not about fighting or waging war or shedding blood. It is all about changing or metamorphosing from something to another.

ZA22 [24020-24380]

I can't agree with this statement. Yah, Islam has been in place right from the time of the creation of Adam. Their religion is all Islam (he quotes a Qur'anic verse), they have been Muslims. Revolution maybe when you have a poor performing government then you want to a better one that is when you talk of revolution. So in Islam there is no any revolution.

ZA23 [32706-33038]

Emmm part of jihad, that is what I want – I prefer to say part of it or one component of jihad, which is fighting. Revolution is for you to change a government forcefully isn't it? But in Islam you are not allowed to change a government forcefully except where the government proves to be a Kufr system then you have to change it.

ZA24 [38717-39377]

Jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change. As I said from the subsequent questions you have asked that Islam-jihad is through your character, through your behavior, through your good deed to people, so all this one is also part of jihad. The way you are assisting people is a jihad, so therefore that one also bring change in Islam. But jihad of killing human beings we are not supposed to kill. Even in Nigerian here if somebody is not a Muslims there is nothing you can say you should kill that person except they came and fight us then you defense, self defense that is what all the prophet did when he was alive. He didn't create any war by himself.

ZA25 [35816-36458]

Yes I will say jihad- it depends on how you view the concept of jihad and revolutionary change. Yes you know human beings we are very very –to a large extent we are allergic to change let alone revolutionary because Islam has to do with agreeing in totality with all the teachings of Islam and dropping any of you culture and belief practices that do not that are not in tandem with the profession of Islam and hence that makes it a revolutionary change. But as regards jihad I insist that it should not just be physical fight. It starts from the acquisition of knowledge and then exemplary practice and as a last resort the physical fight.

ZA26 [17929-17991]

Revolution-I think there is French revolution is it Islamic?

ZA27 [16006-16443]

Yes as I said earlier jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change but not the way we are practicing it and some people are taking it because when you talk about jihad some people think of taking guns and start killing people, but jihad as in right from your house you do jhadin nafs you clean your heart and make sure you are modest, give people their rights and don't cheat and allow people to be cheated all this is part of jihad.

ZA28 [29895-30209]

hmmm jihad is an instrument of course because it gives you the way as earlier mentioned it is a duty, duties of a Muslim to his religion. So if you maintain your religion through jihad I think it is an instrument of revolutionary change because it will affect positively the life of others and consequently you.

ZA29 [43276-43544]

Well like I said, if it is not the way jihad is misconceived or misunderstood by the Muslims or the non-Muslims, yes it is an instrument because it is the way to strive hard and explain your own views and the concept of your own religion. Yes it is a very good tool.

ZA30 [52540-52725]

I have said it earlier, jihad means different things. It depends on the way people interpreted the jihad, but I say achieving Islamic state can be through good character and preaching.

ZA31 [23733-23902]

The way I said, jihad by definition means conveying the message and practicing it. So, if we follow the din, follow the procedures, I didn't see any problem with that.

ZA32 [61050-61163]

Yes, to some extent jihad is an instrument, is that instrument, yes to some extent I can say I agree with that.

ZA33 [19187-19689]

Jihad is an instrument of revolutionary change in a case where the Muslims have been pressurized to the bottom less level. They exercise patience all in vain. They were treated badly, they were wronged, they were murdered, they were killed and so using jihad as an instrument will now make them to make a revolution. And Allah says they should not strike first until they have been struck. So by doing that Allah is on their side and in return will make them to succeed in their revolutionary change.

ZA34 [39158-39664]

I agree that jihad is an instrument of revolution because it is a revolution in the entire life of a human being but not just to take ammunition to kill somebody. It is a revolution entirely, in your life a revolution, in your even habit, your behavior you revolutionarize that because a non-Muslim's his life compared to a Muslim's life there are great changes. The companion when they are in the period of jahiliyya when they embraced Islam their lives completely changed. So it is a revolution.

ZA35 [15770-15843]

Well, I agree is an, jihad is a revolutionary hmm and it is necessary.

ZA37 [31979-32086]

Hmmm we talked about it and which type of jihad? Is the what, it is true now, it is the instrument to use.

ZA38 [36355-36621]

Hmmm as I said earlier, I said Islam was a product of a revolution or a reformation, yah. This aspect too is not contrary to what I am saying. That it is a revolution of cleansing people that are idolatrous for them to come to the other right way of worshipping God.

ZA39 [49129-49660]

No. Jihad is part of the instruments because the instruments are many. If you want to understand this thing, we look at how prophet (SAW) have lived with people and how he achieved in converting pagans in Mecca into becoming Muslims, he did it not through jihad, he did it through good relationship he maintains, kindness, humility and other qualities of human life. So most of the people became Muslims or converted to Islam not through jihad or not through the use of weapons, but rather through the good conduct and kindness.

Th11: Muslims and Secular State

Th11.1: Islam within a Secular State

FG1 [44609-44833]

I can agree because in the world you can find a true Muslim practice religion and this is what is happening in our state also if people will be allowed to practice their religion then people will be true Muslims anywhere.

FG1 [44834-45139]

Like for example Nigeria, Nigeria is a secular state but Kano we are like ahh just by mere saying they say Kano is like ahh Islamic state because there was one time when, is it Kwankwaso, implemented this Sharia and the Federal Government didn't say anything about it. It is allowed for us to practice

KD2 [20755-20961]

Yes I agree that Islam can exist any where whether in a secular state or non-secular states. So long people are allowed to practice their religion perfectly without any form of harassment or embarrassment.

KD3 [16700-16801]

I agree with the position so long we are all, you are free to practice your religion, Islam can exist

KD4 [37225-37666]

I agree with this assertion that Islam can exist in a secular state as long as freedom of religion, freedom of protection, freedom of speech, freedom of observation of religion exist in that secular state, because Islam, the secular state itself give room for people to practice their belief and their faith, and even to propagate and even convert people to their faith and Islam can exist in that state as long as their right is protected.

KD5 [19195-19330]

Exactly, Islam can live in a secular state as long as Muslims and their religion is protected. So, I agree that it can live together.

KD6 [34081-34392]

Why Islam cannot exist? In secular state, I don't understand what you people mean by secular. Did secular state say you should not do your religion? Did it tell you not to pray? Did it tell you not to do your religion right? So, why are they telling us Islam can exist, no, no, no, I don't agree with that.

KD7 [26031-26269]

I agree with it. We are living testimonies of that. We are in somewhat a secular state in the sense that it is not a Muslim country, it is not a Christian country, but we are allowed to practice our religion to the best of our abilities.

KD8 [48119-48527]

It is true, it is true, Islam can exist under a secular state of course. This is what is existing. Like Nigeria is a secular state, you understand, a secular in the sense that it does not adopt any religion as its own religion. It does not adopt Christianity or Islam as its own religion. So, in the concept, the way the concept is being demonstrated in secularism, there is no any religion that is adopted.

KD9 [32342-32782]

I agree because that is what is happening in Nigeria, we are living in secular state situation, but Islam has at least in the north, as they say, even in the West, you will be surprised even in the south, Islam is existing. It may be growing faster in some areas, but or even if you go out of Nigeria, go, I give you the example of the white house. So secular state doesn't really, as long as you're allowed to practices your religion,yes.

KD10 [25968-26139]

Yes, Islam can exist in a secular state as long as freedom of worship is protected, yes of course. You allow me to worship and follow my religion in totality, no problem.

KD11 [28847-28993]

I agree, agreed, agreed because ah if you are allowed to practice your religion in a secular state, it is better being practiced than leaving it.

KD13 [12660-12679]

I agree with this

KD14 [16412-16511]

I agree with this. Islam so long as people are free to practice their religion yes Islam can exist.

KD15 [23466-23880]

Ah I will agree on that because in a free state any religion can be established and so far the religion that is going to be established will not go against the law of the land, I think and the law of the land would not go against the religion, the law of the religion, I think so far both religions or both ethnic will live in peace so I don't see any reason why they shouldn't establish any state or any country

KD16 [14327-14567]

I agree with that because if there is freedom of worship, there is no interference from the government, the Muslims will decide the way they want to live and they can live, but if there is interference that is where the problem will come.

KD17 [43436-44579]

I eh I agree and disagree to this position because the secular state itself believes that the law the give is above any other law whereas me as a Muslim I believe that Islamic law, the sharia law is above any other law. Can you see where that conflict will come to play. So I believe the sharia state or the Islamic state should be on its own and the secular state should be on its own, but for me the Islamic law supersedes the secular law. In Nigeria freedom of religion to a bit is protected, but it is the sharia being practiced to the fullest? Is the sharia being practiced to the fullest? It is not being practiced to the fullest. It is not being practiced to the fullest because Nigeria is a secular state, but although if it still allows you to practice your religion, go to the US, go to UK, people practice their religion, but are they being allowed to practice their religion to the fullest? Whereby if you go to France, it is a secular state, that is ban on hijab, you cannot use the complete Islamic covering, you see that those are impounding on your Islamic teaching or the sharia law, so you see where the case comes from here.

KD18 [20305-20443]

I agree because Islam can be practiced anywhere and any place where there is a freedom of religion and a freedom of movement. I think so.

KD19 [26878-26941]

In a secular state is allowed, yes, I agree with that opinion.

KD20 [20460-20727]

I agree. Yes Islam can exist, they can exist and they can live in any state or in any country where we have eh where we have other, other religions, if there is understanding and tolerance, there's going to be peace and harmony in that state or countries.

KD21 [19286-19305]

I agree with that

KD21 [19325-19483]

Let's look at places like Burma, Myanmar, China, the freedom of religion is not protected, Muslims tend to undergo genocide, daily killings and maltreatment.

KD23 [20678-20995]

Yes I will agree with this position so ah because if there is freedom of religion, freedom of movement, freedom of ah of ownership and freedom of everything, so ah there will be no any problem if the freedom of religion is going to be protected, so there will be no problem, so Islam will exist without any problem.

KD24 [62368-62677]

I agree because just as ah I have mentioned earlier, if you are a Muslims and you are sitting in no matter what community or society it is, so far you will be allowed to practice your religion hundred percent, no one will accuse you that you practicing something according to the religion, then you are free.

KD25 [82408-82446]

I agree with that. I agree with that.

KD26 [23560-23870]

Yes, I think, when there is freedom of religion, you are allowed to practice your religion, nobody is stopping you from wearing your hijab, nobody is stopping you from performing your salat, nobody is stopping your from fasting and nobody is stopping you from practicing your things, so yes it can exist.

KD27 [23847-23912]

Except in a situation where there is no alternative. I disagree

KD28 [29610-29977]

I agree with this position as long as you own, you have your freedom of worship and you know you have the Islamic injunction and you can go with the Islamic injunction according to what the Qur'an and hadith is already given and you go by it then you have your freedom since you will not go with any secular actions that will contradict Islamic law and regulations.

KD29 [17821-18146]

I will agree with this position ah and my reason is that the freedom that freedom of religion permits you to go extra mile in extending the teachings and the practices of Islam and through that you will be able to bring a meaningful changes that will amount to people accepting Islam and eh hence getting Islamic government.

KD30 [31525-32325]

It can exist but not to, not to a long time, not for a long time. The disadvantage of the secular state is that people will start to neglect true religious ah conduct by just, whereby just ah taking the ones they wish to take and leaving the ones they don't want. While since the government since is not the government's business to see that people are doing the right thing and the true ahm true culture, true ahm harmonize ahm human I think ah culture I think is learnt from religion because good morals comes from this religion and when you over tend these things to be removed from people and people are choosing to take what they want, they will soon have a generation where they don't see religion as an important thing to even live to, so you see with time this thing will be withering away.

KD31 [18864-18867]

No

KD33 [22086-22265]

I will agree with this position and as we can see in many countries and many states Muslims are non-Muslims are living in the same place, the same state and nothing is happening.

KD34 [24037-24591]

I agree with that hundred percent. I agree with that hundred percent and the reason why I agree once there is freedom or religion, but the word freedom has its own limitation because some people when they call it freedom, they don't look at the limitation of the word freedom once there is freedom of religion, then that means a person participate into his own religious activities without hindering, without ehm staggering and the rest, but a person should not took a freedom or religion by doing something that will instigate or affect his neighbor.

KD35 [25725-26030]

I agree with that. Simply because you said that everybody is given the right to practice his or her own religion fine. The moment that is given that is what God said there is no compulsion in Islam or in the religion, so if people are allowed to practice their religion then fine everything will be fine.

KN1 [55790-55982]

I do agree. If nobody is stopping you from practicing your religion or doing things that are commanded by your religion then want cause do have to be against them?

KN2 [30758-30948]

Of course it happened after several years of the demise of the prophet that Muslims found themselves under secular state and there are provisions for that and they were living comfortably.

KN4 [45108-45292]

I agree since you have freedom of religion the most of what is disturbing a Muslim is restrict him not to practice his religion if he can practice his religion you can do your worse.

KN5 [25823-25958]

Yes I do because we are in Nigeria and I have never been stopped from practicing any act of Islam in Nigeria which is a secular state.

KN6 [28974-29025]

I agree. Do you need any statement after I agree?

KN7 [25678-25964]

Hmm, it should, yes it should exist within a secular state, Islamic should exist as long as, I have said earlier on that you should agree with am a secular government most especially 100% if it does not ehm affect, in one way or the other, your own religion. So I agree. It can exist.

KN8 [27024-27174]

I agree because as I have said initially, Islam will be a basis to ensure a good society, you understand, inasmuch as it is existing within a state.

KN9 [23891-23925]

I basically agree with this, yes.

KN10 [18289-18428]

I agree Islam can exist because ah the government provided the freedom, because the freedom is protected, so they do not have any problem.

KN11 [25111-25119]

I agree

KN13 [28022-28053]

Hmm, I would disagree with it.

KN14 [21599-21607]

I agree

KN15 [20167-20245]

Yes I agree that Islam can exist as long as freedom of religion is protected.

KN16 [10787-10853]

Islam can exist along as long as freedom of religion is protected.

KN18 [40947-40956]

I agree.

KN19 [24804-24816]

Exactly yes

KN20 [18545-18562]

Of course right

KN21 [12303-12335]

Yes I agree with the statement.

KN22 [25546-25578]

I have agreed with the position

KN23 [17322-17346]

Yes, I agree with it

KN24 [17039-17050]

Yah I agree

KN25 [26565-26696]

If you are endorsed it is a different case. You are not seeking of elective office. You are persuaded to take a certain position.

KN25 [26939-26963]

This position is true.

KN26 [25552-25587]

Perfectly agree with this position

KN27 [19704-19713]

I agree

KN28 [15576-15598]

Yah I agree, I agree.

KN29 [351-377]

Agreed perfectly correct

KN30 [15836-15855]

I agree with that

KN31 [23448-23457]

I agree

KN32 [11595-11631]

I perfectly agree with this position

KN33 [9108-9179]

I agree. In several states, Muslims live and practice their religions.

KN34 [14515-14885]

I will agree. When you look at the situation whereby what we mean by a secular state where everybody is free to practice his or her religion without interference from anybody or from government, so even in the secular state you are allowed to practice your own religion and if you are allowed then I don't see any reason why this issue should even be raised.

KN35 [16059-16140]

Yes. The situation in Nigeria, Islam exists and we are a secular state.

KN36 [16326-16578]

I agree because if the right and freedom of practicing your religion can be protected and guaranteed, you can practice, you can live in the secular state and be operating your religion without interference on your activities as a Muslim.

KN37 [14726-15012]

I agree I agree because you see in a secular state there definitely in every secular state there is freedom of religion, even in the United States of America, I think in their constitution, the second amendment, there is freedom of religion so I believe Muslims can exist.

KN38 [10684-10898]

Yes because there have been a lot of situations during the time of the Sahabas and the prophet whereby Islam is not the religion of the state, but Muslims do live there and practice their religion freely

KN39 [18703-18824]

Yes I agree with this one because even Islam really allows non-Muslims to come into Islamic society to live.

KN40 [15942-16019]

I agree in the sense that they have right to worship their God in the state.

KN41 [13321-13395]

I agree with this assertion because there is freedom of religion as said.

KN42 [30821-30935]

Yes, I agree with this system as long as there is tolerance and there is accommodation, Islam can exist anywhere.

KN43 [23114-23315]

Yah I agree with this ah position because Nigeria is a secular state and the from 2000 till date, we have states that you know implement sharia so I think this can serve as an answer to this question.

KN44 [18031-18139]

Well Islam can exist in a, within a secular state so far there is a freedom of religion. I agree with that.

KN45 [25349-25740]

Yes, I agree with ehh this position. Islam can operate, Islam can be practiced within a secular state, yah. I think we the Muslims of Nigeria have no complain as far as how the state regulates ehh our business, regulate our conduct ehh we feel free, everybody feels free. So a secular state can ehh Islam can be operated within an Islamic state. This is true as is practicalized in Nigeria.

KN46 [43640-44638]

I agree because it happened with the approval of the prophet (SWA) when he sent some of his companions to Ethiopia (Abyssinia) when they were persecuted in Mecca. He told them to go there because their rights of religion would be protected there and that is how it happened even when the king was approached and urged to take certain actions against the Muslims he refused. He remained true to his own ah to his own conviction that justice must be done to all citizens. Therefore, I believe that Islam could be practiced, not only practiced, now how many Muslims flee their countries because of the fear of the tyranny of their leader, go to European countries, go to America, in order to practice their religion because in their own land, they were not allowed to practice their religion, they had to flee to non-Muslim countries in order to practice their religion. So I think the bottom line is this freedom of practicing ones religion is very, very vital for anybody to practice his religion.

KN47 [42181-42990]

Islam can exist of course it does exist in secular states as long as there is freedom of religion. As I told you there are some constitutional, you know, ah legal document right from the universal declaration of human right to our own national constitution, you understand, there is this freedom of religion. So somebody can practice his religion in a secular state because we have the freedom to hold opinion, you understand, and to receive and impart, you understand, ideas, and this ideas, the constitution it is said that anybody has the right to hold opinion, to receive and impart ideas and information, you understand. So these ideas can be religious ideas and then you have the right to obtain them and to impart them. So this means that you have the right to practice Islam even in a secular state.

KN48 [13437-13536]

Let me hear the question back, yes I agree so far it is still in line with the teachings of Islam.

KN49 [23359-23490]

Of course, of course it can, just like we have Muslims in France, in the United Kingdom and other states you can-that is feasible.

KN50 [11832-11883]

Yah I agree as far as the freedom of the religion.

KN52 [34755-35435]

Yes I agree with this position and I think I made a point about this earlier on that Islam has existed, is existing in secular state without any rancor experienced. Historical experience has shown that, you know, there is Islam in the United States of America, United states is a secular state and the Muslim in the US practice their religion largely without any intimidation except perhaps in recent times with this rise in terrorism and the fear that is being mobilized against Muslims, but I think Muslims in many parts of the world, in many secular states have enjoyed substantial amount of freedom. So in this respect or regard I think Islam could exist in a secular state.

KN53 [15582-15591]

I agree

KN54 [8925-8986]

Well yes. This has been achieved even in America and Europe

KN55 [9749-9790]

Yes I agree because of many instances.

KN56 [16134-16462]

I agree with this position because of so many instances, because even in America and Europe presently, Islam is existing side by side with Christianity and other religions that are not even Christian in outlook and they are living peacefully. In fact America has the highest number of people that are converting into Islam.

KN57 [15542-15588]

I agree because of the protection Islam has.

KN58 [34951-35427]

I agree because now the whole world to some extent is practicing secular system but there are Muslims. If you go to the United States today which is seen as the leading secular state, there are Muslims. If you go to France today, there are Muslims. If you go to china even, there are Muslims. They all practice secular systems, but Muslims are allowed to practice their religion despite the fact that, to some extent, they are being hindered or impinged upon, but it is true.

KN59 [28762-29441]

Actually I agree with this position. Islam can exist in secular state, you understand. Take for instance, these western countries where by most of them do practice this secular state, but still there is practice of Islam in that state. Take for instance, I heard a video that Obama is encouraging youths to wear Hijab, I don't think if you have come across that. I heard recently that he is encouraging the youths, the female youths to wear Hijab because the Hijab is part of women pride according to UN, you understand, you see Hijab is Islamic doctrine but in a secular state like America the president is encouraging them to wear it, you understand. so I do agree with that.

KN60 [26373-26401]

I agree actually, I agree.

KN61 [13213-13317]

I agree because there is a freedom of religions, and when there is a freedom of religions, that is all.

KN62 [42221-42985]

Islam can exist is always, not only can exist, Islam exist within a secular state as long as freedom of religion is protected yah. Ah I said this before and I told you my reasons. I agree ahh because ahh religion is not only about leadership. Our religion is about worshipping God and we can worship God in different ways, not only through leadership. The problem is some, let me say, miscreants, let me say, some evil people with their evil intentions have been prioritize this leadership. They think that they cannot practice their religion without this leadership, and this leadership issue is something that is actually instigated by Satan. That is what I believe. It is Satan actually who has been instigating them towards this, yah. That is what I believe.

KN63 [31252-31525]

Of course, it is true. Islam can exist in a secular state. Like even in Kano we cannot say you are practicing sharia huh our laws are mixed up. We have secular; we have sharia ah whatever, whatever together. So you know there is nothing bad in that, Muslims can live there.

KN64 [22368-22547]

Yes, I said you, whenever you are under secular state, you are follow them because you don't have any other alternatives, but if you have alternatives, you don't follow them ehn.

KN65 [27524-27560]

I strongly agree, I strongly agree.

KN66 [16084-16259]

I agree with this that. This is because in like, in Nigeria today this is what we are practicing and we are living under it, so Nigeria is a typical example.

KN67 [16811-17014]

I agree because ah so many instances or what ah I can say what happens where Muslims live in a state ahh which is ruled by un-Islamic government and they are, they were free to practice their religion.

KN68 [8423-8506]

Hmm, during the prophet's time, the noble prophet lived in Mecca among Christians.

KN69 [30025-30231]

Islamic religion can exist in a secular state, yes it can easily, I agree it can exist in a secular state because there is or there may be an agreement, if this happens, it can be exist, it can be exist.

KN71 [51742-52249]

I do agree. Yes otherwise if you would need an example, is it one, is it the issue of freedom of religion, going back to the constitution of the Republic of Nigeria where you have the freedom of thought, of conscience, of religion and practice. You are given that and it is on that basis that Zamfara government adoptt, used to adopt sharia. Kano state, Kastina, in Yobe, Maiduguri and some other state in the north, isn't it? Because if you are given that freedom to do it, why not? What is the problem?

KN72 [27959-28232]

I agree that because even during the prophecy or prophet Muhammad (SAW) ehh lived in a secular ehh in a secular state because Mecca were not an Islamic state before, ehh he is complied with their rules and regulations that are not violated the will of God.

KN73 [28014-28201]

I have said it of course. Islam can exist everywhere. Islam can exist everywhere but when there is freedom of religion in a secular state, Islam can exist and there is nothing for jihad.

KN74 [38862-38961]

Okay, yes, yes Islam can exist within a secular state as long as freedom of religion is protected.

KN75 [42250-42279]

Yes it can, Islam can exist.

KN75 [42291-42362]

You say if the freedom of the religion is protected, Islam can exist.

KN76 [30378-30574]

I agree with it because if you live in a secular state and that secular state recognizes your right to practice your religion and your life is govern by your religion, then there is no any problem

KN78 [47353-47750]

I agree. Well you see ahm, for instance, Muslims under Nigerian are allowed to pray, Muslims are allowed to observe fasting, to observe have hajj. I mean basic Islamic family in the northern part of the country or even allowed in the constitution of Nigeria. If you mean by that, I would say yes, Islam to some certain limited ahh ahh quarter is allowed to be practiced under the Islamic state.

KN80 [37011-37304]

I agree with this because Islam does not only mean to have the total control of particular state or ahh country, but even ahh within the non-Muslim countries or state, Islam, in as long as there is freedom for practicing religion in that particular state, Islam is still can be ahh ahh exist.

KN81 [22775-22875]

Of course I agree, I agree because every Muslim have right to practice their religions that is all.

KN82 [26241-26262]

I agreed, I agreed.

KN83 [16738-16857]

Ahm I agree, I agree with this position because Muslims can only need freedom of their religion not political office.

KN84 [19417-19628]

I strongly agree with this position because all human being created to worship God according to Islam. If religious freedom is protected and Muslims could be perform their rights, so then Islam will be existed.

KN85 [25467-25861]

Yes Islam can exist in a secular state in as much as freedom of worship and freedom of religion is allowed and protected. We have seen it in western democratic society that are not Islamic, still ahh Islam exist and flourish in those society. For instance, in the UK, in the United States, in fact the fastest growing religion in the US is Islam. Therefore, Islam can exist in a secular state.

ZA1 [27723-27999]

I agree. Look at what happening, the first Islamic bank was established in which country? In Europe. Go to Canada now, they agree some certain rules that a Muslim should, should follow their religion in terms of any inheritance, in term of marriage, so no disagreement here.

ZA2 [27646-27668]

Exactly is true, yes

ZA4 [43120-43133]

Yes, I agree

ZA5 [24725-24846]

I agree, so far everybody has freedom to his own religion, freedom to worship any place you are, ehen I agree with that.

ZA6 [59335-59821]

Ahh yes, Islam would definitely exist within a secular state as long as there is freedom of religion hmm its, if there is freedom of religion, if the Muslims can practice their religion without any hitches then of course it will thrive and it will exist, but in a situation where there is no freedom of religion hmm, definitely it is another issue, but it will definitely exist. Just like in an Islamic state now, in the sharia, there is freedom of religion for other religious faith.

ZA7 [26141-26507]

Yes. I agree because from my several and previous answers to relationship between Islam and secular state, I have said that if most of the laws are not conducive for the Muslims there, I think it should be the right of the Ulama or the scholars to talk against it before setting it in motion. So I think they should, they should be able to live in such societies.

ZA8 [58959-59125]

I agree with that now because there is freedom of religion. So any, in fact any religion will continue to exist so far there is freedom of religion.

ZA9 [30406-30904]

Yes I totally agree. I will use my, I will use where I come from as an example. There is total freedom of religion. You go to a family of five, father and mother and three children where the father is a Muslim, the mother is a Christian, the children believe in different. Some children, like the first might be a Muslim, the second might decide to follow the mother and become a Christian, so I believe if this can be done, there will be peaceful coexistence, if there is freedom of religion.

ZA10 [28585-28892]

Yes I strongly agree with this because Muslims are people that fear God and they go by the teaching of the scripture and the teaching of the prophet. So when they hold a political post being it the president, the leader or any of the Parastatals, they will put in their best and they will have fear of God.

ZA11 [23724-23829]

Yah. Islam could be anywhere, like I said, Islam is a way of life and to a believer though, so it could.

ZA12 [14365-14410]

I agree. Islam can exist in a secular state.

ZA13 [14488-14498]

I agree.

ZA14 [18973-18990]

I agree with it.

ZA14 [19023-19147]

Because you have the right, so far they give you the right to worship, then I agree with that, that is why I agree with it.

ZA15 [22196-22452]

I will fully agree with it, why is because you have allowed me to practice my religion, so at least you are not stopping me from practicing my religion, it is only when you stop me, when you stop me from practicing my religion that is when problem occur.

ZA16 [15620-15691]

I agree, because they will be allowed to practice their own religion.

ZA17 [17209-17453]

I agree because if they can have the freedom of their din, then there is no any other problem. They went to Abyssinia eh because they were given the freedom to establish their or to perform their religion, there is nothing.

ZA18 [21771-22053]

I agree, I agree. For instance, me I am a Muslim, Nigeria is a secular state isn't it? It is. Am I not allowed to do my religion? I am allowed to pray, even today Friday I went for Friday prayers. I prayed and I came back to my office and continued my legitimate duty.

ZA19 [30005-30343]

I agree because ah when freedom of religion is protected, of course there is a kind of certain rights for Muslims to practice the way, to practice their religion the way they want to practice their religion, so also the Christians and other religions and none of this religions, as I have said earlier, that preaches killing one another.

ZA20 [19374-19503]

There is freedom of association, freedom of practicing religion for everyone in Nigeria. So there is nothing a big deal there.

ZA21 [23803-24167]

That is what we have been saying, this is what we have been saying. Islam can exist and a Muslim can serve or can be under a secular government. So long as he Islamic rights are not violated. Even if they are violated he can migrate from that place and go to a secure place where he can practice his religion and that is the true teaching of the holy prophet.

ZA22 [21442-21555]

I strongly agree because if you have freedom of religion you need nothing you are nearly an Islamic state. Yah.

ZA23 [30427-30778]

That is the practice we are practicing in Nigeria. The leaders in Nigeria openly use to say they are not after any religion. And Muslims are living freely in Nigeria and here we are. Go to America, the Muslims in America as we use to here on air that Islam is spreading seriously in America where in the history of America no Muslim has led America.

ZA24 [35936-36306]

I am going to agree. I agree with the statement because once you have freedom of religion so there is no need- in a secular state where we have Muslims and non-Muslims, so when there is freedom of religion nobody is harassing our religion, harassing us or stop us to worship almighty Allah we can continue to worship. Therefore I agree with the question.

ZA25 [31581-31830]

Yes Islam can exist in a secular state, yes, but the fact is that the so-called freedom of religion is limited. It is very clear it is limited in an unislamic state. So it is only limited Islam that you can practice in the non-Sharia based system.

ZA26 [15919-16182]

You are right. If Muslims are allowed to do their own- then there is no oppression. They are not oppressed. This issue that you oppress people and you deny them to respond, this people they even take us animals. They take us as slaves. So how can we respect them?

ZA27 [14408-14485]

Yes. I agree with it I am a Muslim now and I am living in a secular society

ZA28 [27464-27522]

This secular, this word here is what is confusing me so

ZA29 [39893-40043]

Yes I agree, like I said, I made statement yes and Islam can exist in a secular state so far the freedom and the rights of the religion is observed.

ZA30 [50634-51421]

I strongly, I strongly agree because, as I said, the Islam is not rigid, Islam is flexible. So, any situation, any situation they found themselves there are some certain things that could be... For instance, as I told you, eating, eating mushe is haram, that is the dead animal, is haram, drinking or working under beer company is haram, but there are some certain extent it can because Islam, due to the flexibility of Islam, sometimes a person can be permitted to eat from dead body until may be when he got something that is not dead, when the position is warranting him to change. Somebody can even work in beer company if he has nothing to do, if he did not work dama he will die. So when later he got something he can leave. That is why I said Islam is flexible, it is not rigid.

ZA31 [22366-22376]

I agreed.

ZA32 [57273-58823]

Yes I agree. I agree that Islam can exist, can exist within a secular state as long as that freedom of what, religion is protected, I agree, I agree, strongly agree and the reason why I agree is that as it happened, you can find ah some states where the number of the Muslims are very, very few, are even lesser than ten percent (10%) of the population of that state, but they are still Muslims, you cannot say that they are not Muslims, they are still Muslims because all about, anything you know about religion, anything that Allah ordained or enjoined or yes, anything that Allah has ordained on human being to do, Allah considers the weakness of an individual and considers the ability of an individual to do that particular issue or that particular thing that is obligatory that he has put as an obligation upon him. Like the issue of Najashi, the king of Habasha, he believed in Allah, but as he was a leader, he couldn't even practice even to pray he cannot, but when he died prophet Muhammad (SAW) said, ordered his companions that they should walk out and what, and pray for Najashi. So here you can say or I can say, I strongly agree with this point that Islam can exist within a secular state as long as freedom of the religion is protected, yes because of that what we have seen and if you see a Muslim in fact look at that Najashi, he even never prayed, but he will enter paradise, so how do you expect about the one that even practice ahhh some Islamic practices like prayer, zakat and other thing. So I agree with this point, yes.

ZA33 [16177-17220]

I agree with this position. We have secularist states in the world. Like United States is a secularist state of course Germany even France is a secularist state. But upon that there are Muslims that live there. Indigenes and non-indigenes because there is freedom of religion is such country and the law governing the land to some extent protects their religion. However, there are some countries that are restricted on this freedom of religion example like the France, what happened recently in France where they prohibited the use of hijab in public by the girl's sisters which in turn is in total disagreeing of freedom of religion of their religion which is Islam. So they went out and protested and in fact another example is Turkey where Turkey is not a secularist state but is a pro-secularist state but they were-it is a Muslim state but there was a time when some people-when some government of that country where trying to hinder the use of hijab in public and the sisters came out and protested for not allowing them to do that.

ZA34 [35714-35936]

I agree, I agree. Just that I agree, Islam can live and then continue in a secular state where freedom of religion is given. The only thing, some of the Sharia that are there in Islam cannot be implemented. That is that.

ZA35 [14755-14881]

Yes, I would agree with the position that Islam can exist within a secular state as long as freedom of religion is protected.

ZA36 [22501-22720]

I agree because normally in an Islamic state you know everybody has freedom of right, he is able to live, he can be able to do whatever he wants, he can practice his religion, so nobody can stop him from doing that.

ZA37 [30031-30139]

I agreed and explained it before because the man thing is for you to be allowed to practice your religion.

ZA38 [33997-34102]

I agree, when you protect my interest and promise me all the necessary things of freedom, why won't I?

ZA39 [45834-46052]

Islam exist always where there are Muslims, so long as there are Muslims of course Islam exists, it all depends on how they practice the Islam. So once their freedom of religion is protected then Islam also exists.

Th11.2: Muslim Obedience to Secular Laws

FG1 [39793-39990]

If we are going back to our teaching or the teaching of Islam, Islam teaches us to stay peacefully and we have to stay peacefully in a secular state that is why we can't make may be controversy ...

KD1 [45518-46448]

There are two things involved. If you are forced to obey, you have no choice than to obey. But if you have a discretion of whether to obey or not, certainly you are not supposed to obey because that's actually even in the case where it's, whether, does it actually, whether, if the law, let's say for example, there is a secular law that says no drinking just like what we have in Nigeria, in the case that the federal government have banned Ogogoro that's local gin or what they call it in the entire country. That law actually is in conformity with Islam because (he recites in Arabic) so it's a hadith of prophet and of course in the Qur'an we are banned from taking alcohol. So that one is in, is consistence with the Islamic law. But when it contradicts, when we are under compulsion, there is an exception there. But when you are at free will certainly you are not meant to follow it. That is just how it is supposed to be.

KD2 [18295-18540]

There is nothing wrong in that. They can believe in, they can obey so long those teachings do not contradict, they do not contradict the teachings of Islam and the doctrines of Islam then they are free to comply and they should obey those laws.

KD3 [14197-14418]

In my rules on Muslims' obedience to secular law is only those, they only obey those that do not supersede and their rule is that so long as that secular law does not go out Islam. It is a must for the Muslim to obey it.

KD4 [29510-30116]

Well! Muslims obedience to secular rules, to me, as much as they don't take that rule to be supreme, to be supreme to the Islamic teaching, there is no harm in it. But to the extent in which you believe that to rule, the constitution in which is governing the secular state is supreme over what the rules and regulations of Islam, the rules and regulations of the Qur'an and Sunna. Then in that way, you have deviated from the Islamic teaching. May God deprive us from this, May God forgive us, may God not let us fall astray, to believe that any other secular path is more superior than the Islamic path.

KD5 [15962-16047]

I see it as a normal thing. I think Muslims can obey secular law in a secular state.

KD6 [30433-31185]

My own view, there is no any law that is above Allah's law. One, I will cite an example again, if a manufacturer of a car and tells you, this is my manual, if you misuse it, your car will get damaged or knock and God that created us, Allah that created us already may be call you a creature, any non-muslims can call him any name, but we call him Allah, we know the meaning, the meaning of Allah is the only one that created. So, if he creates you and he says this is how you are to live your life and you say no, this is how I want to live my life and my life. Just like your own son or a child, my child, this is the way you follow, he said no, I am following this side, what can you do to the child? Will you punish him or leave him like that? so,

KD7 [22273-23008]

We are in trying times. Today, we are asked to, the Muslims are seeing, the Muslims see the secular law sometimes overrides Islam in a number of occasions. I will give you an example, there are schools that do not like, that do not allow a female student to wear head scarf or a hijab saying this is a secular school, they will not allow such practices; they want the children to be uniformed. In such a way, I believe they are infringing on the rights because I believe the constitution of any country is for one to be the person, fundamental human rights, should be that one should have a freedom to life, and that life for us Muslims, Islam is a way of life. So, it infringes upon us and this is sadly what we are faced with today.

KD8 [43970-44719]

Well, it depends on the, it is expected that you respect your leader. When he does not compel you to do the wrong thing, but when he is compelling you to do the wrong thing, may be not to pray, denying those things that Allah said you should do it, you don't, you don't ehm you don't obey. Muslims are polytheists, ehm no it depends on the extent to which ehm is only when you believe that that leader, that secular leader can direct you to do those things, to just give you directives just like God gives you. If you do like that, automatically, you will become a poly ehm polytheist ehen, you understand. That means you believe in two god, yes, that's like shirk.

KD9 [27241-27386]

You're supposed to obey as to the extent that it doesn't make you Kafir, don't take you away from Islam that is to the extent to which you obey.

KD10 [21276-21926]

You see we should not obey, Muslims should be obedient to secular laws except if it is out of necessity because we should not believe that, the Qur'an and Sunna is the only law that is correct and must be followed and must be obeyed, but secular laws, we should not think that it is better than the Qur'an and Sunna or it is equal, but the reason why we are using the secular because we are been forced, we are in Dar el that is not Dar el Islam. Are you getting me? Or in Dar el murakkaba where there is Muslim, there is Christian, the Muslim govern, the Christian govern and all of us we are governed by the laws of democracy. Are you getting me?

KD11 [25192-25390]

Ah yah, the source of the law maybe secular, but if these laws do not ah its source may be secular, I do not see anything wrong in it in as much as these laws do not go against the tenets of Islam.

KD12 [30515-30865]

They should obey. What the prophet has said Muslims are part of the government and the government is part of the Muslims. So Muslims should seek for any post all over the world, see what is relevant there, what is most important there is that they should try to do things in the right way so that people know that this is the right way to do things.

KD13 [11163-11180]

It is necessary.

KD14 [13301-13379]

We do obey other laws so as long as they are not contradicting that of Islam

KD16 [11006-11422]

okay it depends on the nature of the law, if it is a law that contradicts that of Allah, definitely a Muslims will have nothing to do, but if it doesn't contradict the teachings of Islam, like now are in a secular state, isn't it? We are in a classroom now, the lecturer will say I have my lectures so and so time, it is a lecturer whether he is a Muslim or Non-Muslim, you have to take to his instruction, isn't it?

KD17 [36490-36892]

Hmm my view on that is if the law does not impound on your religious view, it should be followed as far it doesn't impound on your religious view, you follow and even sometimes there are some instances that if it impounds on your religious view, you are still allowed to follow because it is based on the position, based on the position you meet yourself, but don't really be aggressive on those laws.

KD18 [17341-17485]

I think they should, they should allow to stay in that, they should be allowed to stay in that country and follow their rules and regulations.

KD19 [23628-23902]

Well, ah obedience to secularism is supposed to be in such a way that you are not forced, when you are forced, you have no choice, but whenever you have an option, you're not supposed to be obedient to secularism. A Muslim's obedience should be to the Qur'an and the Sunna.

KD20 [17094-17250]

I think Muslims obedience to secular law is not a problem since the secular law is not going to be against the rules and regulations of our holy book, yes.

KD21 [15411-15528]

Actually, it is not right, but due to circumstances we find ourselves, I don't think we should go violent about it.

KD23 [16982-17104]

Well, ah so is just a normal thing, so is all about ah to follow the right path, a believer should follow the right path.

KD24 [55052-55611]

Ah in the real Islamic sense, it is not good that you should follow another rule against your own rule that is being sent down to you from heaven, but there are some certain situations, for example, the way we are living in Nigeria, we have no any other option. When you are in your family, in your house, in your shop, practice your religion hundred by hundred, hundred percent, but if it comes to something happens that you now find yourself in court, someone takes you to court you have no any other thing than to obey what it is being written in the law.

KD25 [76529-76803]

Yes it should be done with care. Because where an injunction, where an injunction in the Qur'an is being toppled with in the secular state, if the Muslim should agree then that can see them to apostasy that is riddah eh that is why I said it should be done with all care.

KD26 [19058-19321]

Obedience to secular laws. They should try as much as possible to avoid them because anything that does not, that is not part of what as been thought and has been prescribed for all Muslims to practice, is haram. They should try as much as possible to avoid them

KD27 [22080-22113]

I do not think that it is halal.

KD28 [25808-26014]

It is a right for the Muslim to obey the secular law in the area you are staying so that at least once you obey the secular law, you own religion you have the right to perform your religious obligations.

KD29 [15597-15692]

Well my views to Muslim obedience to secular laws is that of patience and not confrontational.

KD30 [26946-27216]

Obedience to secular laws, obedience to secular laws, I think ah presently Nigeria is being said to be a secular state and working under, having a secular state means different religions ah conducting their religious activities and while the government remains neutral.

KD31 [16731-16915]

Ah my view is that they shouldn't, they shouldn't be hundred percent obedient, they shouldn't be because there are things that goes completely against any religion you might think of.

KD32 [24649-24737]

Hmmm yah you can obey as long as that law does not go contrary against an Islamic law.

KD33 [19756-19877]

well I don't think a Muslim should obey secular laws because our religion Islam doesn't encourage fighting or conflicts.

KD34 [20886-21325]

My opinion to Muslims obedience to secular law ehm is a law of the land and then that is what we had been following so they should just obey it and advice to the law makers they should try to put the teachings of Islam because Islam is a good religion it has a lot of things they can amend the so called constitution and put those teachings inside the constitution without saying that this is, I did it because it is part of Islam or so.

KD35 [22299-22516]

Ahm Allah (SBUH) said you should not succumb, you should not be obedient to those who are not proper Muslims especially in giving out orders so that is my belief, only submit to those who submit their selves to God.

KN1 [50960-51121]

It depends. If they are not against their fundamental beliefs, that you should ahhh like sort of move them out of their religion of course they have to tolerate.

KN2 [27999-28143]

They have no other chance other than, no other option other than to follow the secular laws as long as they are living under the secular state.

KN4 [41493-41800]

Well, what? Where is the question ah, ok my view on the obedience to secular laws is normal as it is going on now in the secular state like Nigeria. You can abide with the rules and regulations since it is not Islamic state in as much as it does not in fact attract fine in your religion, to your religion.

KN5 [20162-20605]

What is my view on obedience to secular laws, one should not actually because Allah said (He recites the verse of the Qur'an) that one should not be too respectful to those laws except where necessary as he said (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) to where he said (recites the place) except if you are afraid of something that would happen and then you abide by that but if you don't, you don't have to be abiding by most of this secular laws.

KN6 [24185-24489]

So ah ah my own view on Muslim to obey the secular laws, if secular laws are is against their teachings I don't allow them to obey this secular law but if it does not may be this secular does not violate their ah ah Islamic ah teaching so they can obey it because it is like agreement, it is agreement.

KN7 [21493-21791]

Well em, as I have said earlier on that ehm as matured minds and ehm if, if the secular laws does not affect the teachings of Islam, so I don't see any reason why the Muslims shouldn't ehm go and ehm, let me say, go with the law. They should that is if it does not affect his own religion, yes.

KN8 [22522-22936]

I think Muslims should obey secular laws because anywhere you find yourself, even the holy prophet (SAW) said (he recites a verse) that is what makes the consolidation of the government is by the truth and for you to comply with the willingness of such a state, so the holy prophet himself even wants we the Muslims to comply with any law we find ourselves in for that is how we can justify Islam, which is peace.

KN9 [21271-21324]

I think a Muslim should not obey secular laws, yes.

KN10 [15888-16014]

It can be accepted despite it will not be causing problem or restricting the Islam or the Muslim activities in such a place.

KN11 [20938-21307]

They are, they go astray, they have gone astray because any Muslim who follows the secular laws, they have gone astray and ah we advise him to realize that this secular laws are not in the Qur'an but in a situation whereby a person would be forced, but in your mind you know that these laws are not ehh or you don't believe them wholeheartedly, so there is no problem.

KN13 [24307-24680]

Its uhm, if the laws are not contradicting with Islamic principles I think they are not, I don't think they are not, they are not disobeying God and definitely they are actually following the basic rules of Islam, so if their law, those laws or those rules are not in line or contradicting with the Islamic principles, so ah I don't think they have any particular problem.

KN14 [17548-18182]

Yes my view is that Muslims in a secular law, like in this country, Nigeria, Muslims must not agree with any law but he should not come and say that this, he should not come and fight or say that we must exercise sharia or Koranic law or anything, but in his mind, he believes Muslims should believe that Koran is the sharia, hadith and other source of sharia is the right way to follow eh eh eh that should be used, but since it has come to ah ah ah secularism, he doesn't have any alternative, he should not fight and say no we must exercise sharia, no, he should remain calm and eh, and eh and engage in his Islamic activities.

KN15 [17872-18069]

Yes a Muslim should obey the secular laws when there is no any contraction with sharia laws, when the secular laws you know do not contradict with the sharia laws so a Muslim should obey the laws.

KN17 [23697-23784]

Its necessary if its not in contrary to Islamic laws or not contradicting Islamic laws

KN18 [36438-36527]

They must obey secular laws because when they are they are being confined under that law

KN18 [36616-36744]

Is okay, why won't you obey that law? They said in United States, you must do this will you say that you will not obey that law?

KN20 [16568-16639]

You should be very obedient; Muslims should be we are obedient people.

KN21 [10566-10659]

Muslims should obey the secular law but to some extent at least there should be limitations.

KN22 [20239-20275]

Yah its something negative actually

KN22 [20319-21377]

Yah Muslim...am not saying that Muslim should not obey secular law because it is the situation as said by the prophet. I just said it now that wherever you find yourself as a Muslim, you should respect the constitution of that particular place, you understand, in which there is one analogy by an Islamic scholar was saying that if you find yourself in a particular society where the style that particular society is to tie a rope and put it on your hands that you also look elsewhere and find this rope and put it on your hand. So it goes along side with these question where ever you find a constitution that is not the constitution of Islam, you should follow- in as much that constitution does not allow you to pray or practice your religion properly, follow the constitution to some extent. But if that constitution or that law, you understand, stipulated that you should not pray and you should not recognize that there is God and you should not believe with the message of Allah through ya rasulillah then you are very free to debunk such constitution.

KN23 [14904-15047]

Yah my view is that, like I said, Islam is dynamic. It is now a secular world, one way or other you have to pledge allegiance to secular laws.

KN24 [15626-15643]

Yah it is normal

KN25 [22030-22201]

I think if only, if and only if it is a strategy to work through the ladder up, it think it is compliable, it is normal but it is highly... please take back the question.

KN25 [22265-22646]

I still maintain a position that the Muslims, given the sensitive nature of our religion, are not supposed to be in obedience to the secular laws because the secular laws are not the laws of Islam. Their principles are not in conformity with Islamic teachings. So only where the Muslims are back into a corner, I don't believe the Muslims should not full obedience to secular laws?

KN26 [22575-22601]

Yah they should of course

KN27 [16820-16913]

I don't see it as something that is wrong if it does not contradict the practices of Islam.

KN28 [13456-13551]

Well it is normal and positive as long as it doesn't contradict the teaching of Islam itself.

KN30 [14616-14633]

Yes it is normal

KN31 [20089-20428]

Yah I think that the Muslims have been really, really obedient to secular laws and definitely they have to be because I think most of the people who come to sit down to perform things like the constitution there are Muslims amongst them and I think wherever you go Muslims are always obedient because we have Muslims working all around.

KN32 [9292-9426]

Muslims obedience to circular laws a very normal something and something similar I don't think I have any problem with that actually.

KN33 [7682-7733]

They can obey them if they are not against sharia.

KN34 [11832-12231]

Hmmmm (he chuckles) when you look at this issue of secular laws, for instance, even in this country Nigeria, we have tried as much as possible to see that maybe we are able to smuggle some of this, but my view, since our society when you look at the nature of the society, it is a heterogeneous whereby when we look at the composition, we have nothing to do we have to submit ourselves to the laws.

KN35 [13683-13944]

This is the product of circumstances, so the Muslims live in the secular state, so they have no objection, just to be there at that time since it doesn't contradict, it doesn't abstain them from practicing their religion. So they have right to be in the state.

KN36 [14154-14247]

They can obey the secular laws when it does not contradict the sharia of the almighty Allah.

KN37 [12993-13303]

My view is that, you see, these secular laws are laws made by man and they are laws made from a blond reason of man. So there are some laws which are in line with reason which they must respect and there some which they must not abide by it as it will appear in the law that it is not mandatory for everybody.

KN38 [9137-9378]

Laws of the state are laws for the people and even Islam itself preaches that one should follow the laws of the state in so far as those laws are not contrary to the laws of Islam itself, a Muslim is in fact duty bound to follow those laws.

KN39 [15993-16445]

Actually of course Muslims are law abiding, they abide by the secularism, because even Islam as it has been revealed to the holy prophet, Allah (SBUH) did not ask the holy prophet to forcefully invite non-Muslims to the religion. He they asked the prophet to invite non-Muslims to the religion through peaceful way. Therefore, this is an indication that Muslims are not asked to invite non-Muslims through force but rather through peaceful procedures.

KN40 [14222-14231]

No idea.

KN41 [11844-11877]

I don't see anything bad in it.

KN42 [25565-26148]

If it is like a country like ours, we don't have a choice. We must, we follow the constitution of Nigeria even though we also, there is no constitution that goes against the Islamic laws in Nigeria. Maybe some but not all, so we like saying don't violate your traffic right, don't buy things, don't cheat, and don't be cheated, all these things are part of the sharia too. So is like if you obey is like once you see that there is nothing contradicting any of your Islamic beliefs or the religious beliefs, you do them because obeying your leaders is actually part of obeying Allah.

KN43 [20474-20705]

Yes, if you don't have any option and you don't get what you want, then you like what you have because Islam encourages Muslim to respect the authority provided that authority is respecting them and given them what is their right.

KN44 [15458-15509]

Ehh, I want, I want to equally skip that question.

KN45 [19785-20098]

Yah, Muslims, secular laws that did not contradict the Islamic principles are laws and are very important laws because they keep the entire system going. They keep the entire system going and ehh they ah manage the conduct of business among people and the rest. So they are as important as ehh the sharia laws.

KN46 [37877-38667]

Ahh, Muslims generally think that secular laws or secular rules are different from those rules made by God, but that does not mean they abide by this and disregard those, no. A good Muslim, a good Muslim who knows what Islam is, who practices Islam in the right way knows that whatever rules are made for the benefit, for the benefit of fellow human beings must be respected and violation of such attract the wrath of Allah (SBUH), but unfortunately the average Muslim especially where I live here in Nigeria think differently, they think Allah's rule are to be treated differently from those rules made by human beings to protect or to maybe ahh to to manage their affairs. So as long as rules are not against Allah's rules, they are rules that are, that must be respected by any Muslim.

KN47 [37420-37910]

Well, what are the secular laws? Laws that are in the constitution, laws that are conventional, you know, going by some traditions? Well, if they don't really contradict with their own Muslim beliefs, then they can simply, you know, comply, you know, they can comply, they obey the laws because the main aim of obeying any law is to achieve prosperity, is to achieve peaceful conduct and then it is to achieve harmony and bring personal development through equal treatment, you understand.

KN48 [11494-11608]

Hmm Muslim, Muslim they must obey to secular law, in as much they law is not contrary to what Qur'an teaches us.

KN49 [20834-21032]

Actually, it depends on the context which, I think eh as long as it does not ah damage their religion, as long as it does not put a threat to them, they should obey religious ehh secular laws, yah.

KN50 [10219-10323]

There is nothing wrong for Muslims obedience to secular law inasmuch as it is not in contrary to Islam.

KN52 [29456-30491]

Yes I would say that Muslims reacted, historically reacted differently to secularism. So I think that there are secular Muslims and there are non-secular Muslims, in fact in world religious discourse today, you find this binary between extremist and secular Muslims. So if you are not a secular Muslim, a modern Muslim who tolerates modernity and all its manifestations, then you are considered an extremist, a radical Muslim, a militant Muslim, right? But if on the other hand you accept modernity and its manifestations then you are considered as a secular Muslim or a moderate Muslim or as a modern Muslim. So but Muslims react to secularism differently. There are people who believe that secularism is evil, Muslims who believe that secularism is evil and should have no space in Islamic discourse and Islam,, you understand which I think is not bad anyway because, for me, there is no point allowing secularism to co-habit, you know, with religion because secularism is an ideology which separates between religion and politics

KN53 [14002-14202]

For the fact that Allah has already recited it that everything should be obeyed according to the law of the land so I believe Muslims' obedience to secular law is not bad and it is not forbidden, so

KN54 [6999-7072]

Well if they do not go contrary to Muslim or Islam, there is no problem.

KN55 [8278-8343]

They should be obeyed provided they do not go contrary to Islam.

KN56 [13146-13260]

A Muslim can obey secular laws as long as that law or rather those laws do not contravene the teaching of Islam.

KN57 [13210-13396]

What is my view on Muslims obedience to secular laws? Honestly as a Muslim I cannot go in line with the secular laws honestly because it is not in line with the teachings of my religion.

KN58 [30666-31038]

It is haram in as much as it is within their jurisdiction or powers, unless if they cannot do anything that is when they submit. But it is haram for a Muslim to be subdued or subjected to secular powers like what they are saying now that you should be allowed to practice what you want like the gay rights acts bill is totally haram. It is against Islamic teachings.

KN59 [23475-23983]

Humm because. My opinion is that they have to be obedient to their laws because despite the fact that it is not a Muslims law, it is not a law that is being governed by Islam, but that is their own believe, they have that believe. If you say you can't abide by their own laws they might also go contrary to your own laws, to be at peace just kind of adhere to their own law, but it would basically go contrary to our own law, but you don't have to kind of neglect their own believe or faith or their laws.

KN60 [23740-23981]

My views of Muslims, any law that is not contrary to the teaching of Islam should be abided by, but any law that is contrary, for instance, Allah has said God is one any secular law that is saying Allah is three we don't agree to such laws.

KN61 [11569-11580]

Ah fairly

KN62 [36371-37526]

Muslim's obedience to secular laws. A Muslim is not expected to obey what Allah hasn't ordained him to do. A Muslim is not expected to do that, to follow whatever Allah hasn't ordained him to do, whatever that is prohibited. So as long as that secular laws are not let us say repugnant to our Islamic provisions, then a Muslim should comply, but if they are repugnant, yah a Muslim should not, but in the case that a certain law is forced or ahh there is a kind of precarious situation where that Muslim is going to be in danger in the absence of compliance with that very secular law then, the religion allows him to comply with it, under duress and ah that is what Allah says eh ... what I think we understand that verse and there is a ... that the noble prophet says, (he recites a Qur'anic verse) we understand that verse, aha and there is a sunnatic verse that the noble prophet says (he recites a verse of Qur'an) Allah (SBUH) just turns his head away, for example, or forgives what is forced, pressurized on our fellow Muslims or what a Muslim forgets (recites a verse of the Qur'an) or what a Muslims does erroneously, yah. So I believe in that.

KN63 [25418-26230]

You know there are some secular laws that doesn't, that deviate maybe the laid down rules in Islam, something like that now, they cannot abide by it. Muslim cannot, okay for example now, let us talk of America now, maybe the Muslim living in America, for example, you know, maybe in that society now, maybe they are allow something like ah now, as I was saying, you know, just like the Muslim living in America now, where we have all those ehh, what do they call it, maybe the same secular laws like maybe, same sex marriage, very good. They cannot abide by that. Why should they abide by that hmm, you know, that is totally against Islam. So there is no way they can abide by that , but if at all there is any law in a secular that doesn't deviate from Islam, there is nothing bad, you have to abide by it ehh.

KN64 [19599-19781]

Ehn, in Islam you must, and you should follow the principles and rules of Islam in everything. Secular, you can follow the secular if there is no any alternative, hmm as the ruler.

KN65 [22395-23220]

Okay, my view is that there is nothing wrong when a Muslim is obedient to a secular law except those laws are contrary to the teachings and practice of Islam. That is when you say okay fine, because in, from the origin in life, we have what we call the norms, those are laws within ourselves that we know that this ah so where eh, so you understand, so we have a norms, a norms are just a belief that we believe that okay this are right to do and this are not right to do, you understand. So going by this context okay most of our laws are based on these societal norms, you understand. So if it is not contrary to what the sharia proclaim, then fine, there is nothing wrong in obeying that, but if it is contrary to what the sharia says that is when you will now disobey and now opt for what sharia request you to do, yes.

KN66 [13462-13610]

My view on Muslims' obedience to secular law is that it is not right. Muslims are not supposed to obey those rules because they are not from Allah.

KN67 [14844-14930]

Yes, Muslims can obey secular laws as far as they do not go against the Islamic laws.

KN68 [6977-7035]

They should obey them provided they are not anti-Islamic.

KN69 [27168-27236]

The question is the same like (h.e repeats the verse recited above)

KN71 [45891-46337]

Yes, it depends upon times and circumstances. Yes, at times (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) It depends upon time and circumstances. If you are compelled to and Allah knows that you are compelled to even in the hadith the prophet (SAW) said three things have been waived off my people: what they are compelled to do, what they forgot and what they do in a mistake, mistakenly. So if there is no way, you have to it there is nothing you can do.

KN72 [23976-24059]

Yes, it is good because in Islam there is no eh what we can call eh secularism.

KN72 [24199-24310]

It is the condition that make this because eh in Islamic condition is very important, yes is very important.

KN73 [23869-24065]

There is a secular law that will be obeyed and there should be one that will not be obeyed. Any law that is contrary to your practice, to your Islamic doctrine should not be obeyed. Of course.

KN74 [35257-35566]

Okay you know that even as a Muslim there is conditions that you suppose to follow for you to live in your land that is why Allah (SBUH) sent prophet Muhammad (SAW) to us. Therefore the non, a Muslim, the Muslim, in my view, the Muslim must obey the laws of a secular state because he did not have the power.

KN75 [38284-38586]

So they have no option only for them to abide with the law of the land. Let me take a typical example, come to Nigeria we have the Igbo society, let me take for example, we have the Muslim minority there, a lot of law have been taking there, so they have no option, only for them to abide by the laws.

KN76 [26745-26955]

Well ah you know in Islam ah there is what we call larurat, when you don't have the power to change something then you must learn to live with it and Allah will not hold you, I mean ah responsible for that.

KN78 [41852-42234]

Well I think if we don't have all the means of changing the condition, it is part of necessity to live under the secular law, when we don't have an alternative to it. If we do have an alternative to it, but we cannot have any opportunity, no realistic opportunity to implement all the Islamic teachings, I think it is out of necessity we should live under that type of arrangement.

KN80 [32946-33047]

So as far as my opinion is concerned, there is no any law except the one laid down by almighty Allah

KN81 [19866-19915]

Well I think there is no problem for doing this.

KN82 [23804-23883]

It is a, it is circumstance that warrants someone to live in a secular state.

KN83 [14195-14372]

Ahm it is the Dharura because it is a condition that makes Muslim to stay under the secular government. So I don't think, I don't think if there is any problem pertaining this.

KN84 [17090-17159]

He has to obey if his freedom of religion is not denied or deprived.

KN85 [20388-20903]

Ahm this is very, actually very controversial. We have the Islamic laws, we have secular laws. Muslims should be allowed at all times to obey Islamic laws, but in a country Nigeria where there are secular laws, I think there are provisions like in the courts, we have provision for sharia court. Ahh Nigeria I think there is no coercion for Muslims obedience to secular law, but nevertheless amm laws that do not contravene Islamic principles should be, should be ah observed by Muslims even in a secular state.

ZA1 [22828-23436]

Now I ask which country is secular? If you are talking about Nigeria is not a secular because Muslims and non-Muslims they are leaving together and before you became a governor, you have to take your Bible or your Qur'an. So if you are talking, which secular are you talking about because the word secular is a country or is a state that which no religion is being exercised there, is a secular to my own understanding. But Nigeria if you say secular even there is some certain section in the constitution give you right to practice any religion that you believe in. So that word secular should be omitted.

ZA3 [18417-18660]

Emm as far as the Islamic faith is concerned the laws of Allah is the sovereign law and secular laws are made by men, but to an extent if such laws do not actually contradict the laws of Allah, it could be permissible, it could be accepted.

ZA4 [38818-39171]

Yes actually secular laws you have to be, there is no how a person just stand up and say this is what I what you to do, you have to make sure you weigh it with the concept of the Qur'an and also the teaching, immediately there no-that is not the teaching of prophet Muhammad (SAW), as a Muslim you have to negate it, you understand, unless is dharura.

ZA5 [21935-22089]

What is my opinion on Muslims obedience to secular laws, yes they have to obey, they have to obey the law of secular because they are in a secular state.

ZA6 [53172-53347]

Ahm it is a kind of, it is a matter of necessity, it is only necessary that we should coexist as one because that is the preaching of Islam and sharia peaceful coexistence.

ZA7 [22637-22950]

Yes they should obey the laws because I think for secular laws to be set in place and in motion there must have been meetings between religious heads and other religious scholars, other Christians and Muslims. So I think the laws should be comfortable for everybody to eh should be conducive for anybody to obey.

ZA8 [51249-51511]

Like I said, if the laws are not against, are not contrary to their Islamic laws there will be they will conform with it. But if it is going against their religious laws, there will, I think they will be not, there will be, they will not want to agree with it.

ZA9 [26645-26800]

Well, where I come from, I have yet to experience any secular law that limits or that limits my practice, the practice of my own religion. There is none.

ZA10 [25569-25648]

Yah they should ahh, as a Muslim you are expected to respect and obey the law.

ZA10 [25909-26103]

Obedience to secular laws, actually it's un-Islamic, the real thing is if the rules are stated and you are in the state, you just have to obey it, but you are not supposed to be obedient to it.

ZA11 [20827-20892]

Well, if the law does not contradict the religion, it is okay.

ZA12 [11732-11891]

Ahhh because they can't help it, the rules and regulations are already stated which is being governed by maybe a democratic government which they must follow.

ZA13 [12451-12589]

Muslims obedience to secular laws, I think to accept the whole constitutional rights of individuals and the understanding of other parts.

ZA14 [16227-16352]

It is a law that you can't do without it, sorry it is not a law that you cannot do without it but it is the law of the land.

ZA15 [19941-20041]

My view to Muslims obedience to secular laws, yes definitely we have no option, we have to obey it.

ZA16 [12862-12984]

Yes, they should take it as emm as emm ahh they should take it as, they call it as Dharur, they should take it as Dharur.

ZA18 [18633-18939]

Well, if condition brings something, you understand, that is foreign to the religion of Islam, you can use it as part of Dharura. For instance, this kind of democracy, we are practicalizing it as a necessity, you understand, Dharura, you know Dharura (yes), ehen, but that is not the best, you understand.

ZA19 [24403-25014]

Ah my views to a Muslim's obedience to a secular laws is actually quite encouraging because in a situation actually where you don't have the necessary means to survive on your own, so you can't do otherwise because there are some places where Islam permits a Muslim to eat some certain meat and foods which were originally forbidden for him to eat when he has food in abundance. So therefore, when you don't have means to survive on your own, you cannot do, I mean you can't do away with secular state; you just have to follow their rules and so many other things for you to survive and practice your religion.

ZA20 [14823-15122]

Those secular laws they are manmade laws, as a Muslim you should not agree to your conscience that these are the laws that fit your, that are fit-that are, you know, that are correct to your life style. It is wrong, but you have to accept those laws out of situation not out of your love and like.

ZA21 [19644-20123]

Of Course they said anybody that ahhh is practicing anything other than Islam should be termed as an unbeliever. But then even the prophet (SAW) said you should stay under a government that is of non-Muslims. If they try to say ok you are denied of some of your rights then I must say you should stay there even as said by the prophet. When they try to prevent you from practicing your religion that is when he said you can do hijrah and you can migrate from that place.

ZA22 [18780-18914]

I think that is necessity. No Muslim is willing to obey any secular law except if he finds it necessary any true practicing Muslim.

ZA23 [24753-24796]

I don't even know what secular laws are.

ZA24 [31187-31760]

If we have secular laws, provided it is already stated in the Qur'an that la iqraha fid din that we should not force anybody to- and if you are a Muslim so it is a privilege from God to make you a Muslim and if you are not a Muslim- those that are not Muslims it is not that they forced themselves to be Muslims it has been destined that they are not – and I think you cannot judge them because we don't know what will happen tomorrow. So therefore Muslims in secular states should bear with the other non-Muslims. We should allow them to have their freedom of worshiping.

ZA25 [27255-27517]

Ah yes. There is a limit to yes they are to obey the laws of the land in so far as the laws do not negate at-tauhid that is the main- the fulcrum of Islam. That is the allegiance to Subahana wa ta'alla. Those laws that are meant for peace they should obey them.

ZA26 [13926-13995]

Muslim cannot be obedient to secular laws because it is not our laws

ZA27 [12208-12364]

Eh what eh actually my view as regards to this is that any law any secular law that does not go against the Islamic teachings we should also abide by it.

ZA28 [24784-24817]

As I said this secular issue is

ZA29 [35980-36336]

My view on Muslims obedience to secular laws is that if they are unable to create an Islamic state they do not have no option.

They have no option rather to follow the secular government, which I believe the secular government, the rules and the regulations of the secular government should not in any way deprive their rights to practice their religion.

ZA30 [46092-46445]

As I say even, there was, I say that one is the condition, when people found themselves under certain conditions, they can also refer to their book, everything is written on it. As I said earlier, Rasul (SAW) used constitution before, stayed under it for a while. So even, that is why I said we should stick to teachings everything is inside our books.

ZA31 [18907-19294]

Muslims suppose to, they should be obedient with the laws that are around them, that Islam that their religion impose to them, that they should don't violate, most a times, you see a Muslim violating his teachings of the religion, most a times, but the way is supposed to be is that Muslims should follow, obey the religion and the God of, as in what God's word that is Allah's message.

ZA32 [49693-50073]

Their obedience to secular laws, my view is that once that law does not contradict the Islam or does not disallow the Muslim to what, to obey Allah or to practice, the real practice of Islam once and ah once they do not believe in it, they only obey it under compulsion or under circumstances, due to the circumstances, I see there is nothing in that, Allah is the all forgiving.

ZA33 [13546-13792]

My view on this is, it is like they are worshipping minor idols because obeying a secular law is like disobeying Allah and obeying someone that is not Allah. As such in return it is like ascribing partners to Allah which that is a minor Shirk.

ZA34 [30245-30643]

My own idea or my own view on a Muslim obeying the secular hence it becomes may be something you cannot go against it he has to endure and bear with it because an ideal Islamic state is what a Muslim supposed to always have in his mind but when he does not then you have to bear with it. Allah (SBUH) does not compel you to do anything that is contrary to the religion while on this circumstance.

ZA35 [12917-13217]

Well Muslims should obey the secular laws since, like in Nigeria, everybody, both the Muslims and non-Muslims obey the secular laws because Allah (SBUH) has said that you should obey your leaders no matter what they are, no matter how little or small they might be and you should also obey the law.

ZA36 [20229-20313]

If the laws do not go against Islam, I know they don't, so they should abide by it.

ZA37 [27986-28243]

Yes, Muslims should obey these laws now, but they should obey the laws where the law is not contrary to the practice of Islam.

If it is contrary to what Allah (SBUH) says that one should only be under their force if they don't have any other alternative.

ZA38 [30238-30776]

Yah, we obey it. It is when it is contrary to our teaching of Islam this is when we make it different, but if you are staying with a non-Muslim and you need peace to reign, you people would come to a consensus; you make a form of a constitution that you would abide by it. There is nothing wrong, but it shouldn't tamper with anything from the religion, from the Qur'an, but we can still stay in a secular state with non-Muslims, but we abide by what should be, what would make peace to reign this is what we should really abide by it.

ZA39 [41117-41477]

Actually if a Muslim is having or he finds himself in a secular state, operating a secular laws, there are three stages a Muslim can since he cannot, if a Muslim finds himself in this situation, there is a limit to what he can do in his life. What he cannot do then Allah enjoins him to just leave it because Allah does not impose what is not possible on you.

Th11.3: Obedience to Secular Laws is Polytheism

FG1 [40115-40130]

It is not true

FG1 [40146-40301]

Religion is all about faith being submissive to secular laws doesn't mean that you really worship them. (There was general disagreement to this position)

KD1 [46539-47300]

Why shouldn't they? I beg to disagree. Why would you say because I obey a secular law I become a polytheist, that's not fair and that is extreme. If I obey it, just as I have said, when it is in conformity with, when they lose and it is in conformity with religion, you have to, in fact you are obeying your religion, there is no problem with that. When it is contradictory, that's when there is a problem, and you can't just because I have obeyed it, you don't know on what counts made me obey it. And you now claim that person is a polytheists then, that's extreme and of course everybody needs to be given, because you don't have that audacity to pass the verdict on the person except when it is clear cut that that person is doing that with his own will.

KD2 [18631-18806]

No. I don't agree with that. Muslims, when they obey secular territory, that doesn't really mean they are polytheists, they are monotheists so long they worship Allah (SBUH).

KD3 [14508-14529]

No. I do not agree.

KD4 [30207-30827]

Talking of the word polytheism you think, I can classify it like serving or looking at a variety of gods, which I don't believe that, living in a secular state is different from believing in different variety of gods. So I won't think that Muslims are being polytheists in a secular state. It is, they turn out to be polytheists when they feel that yes they can embrace multiple religions and then they take it as their faith, as their din, that is when it happens, but that assertion, I totally disagree with it. It cannot happen because I just live in a secular state then I turn to be polytheist, I disagree with it.

KD5 [16138-16456]

I don't think so. I don't think so because secular laws are those laws that are established in a state where multi-religions exist and those laws are established based on common interest of all the religions and it does not hinder Muslims and non-Muslims to worship their God. So, I don't think they are polytheists.

KD6 [31317-31520]

Polytheists that is non-believer. It depends on how you do it, I told you, there is no any law that is above Allah's law. If you agree with that as a Muslim, you are a Muslim, you are not a polytheists.

KD7 [23091-23095]

No.

KD7 [23127-23371]

If you obey secular authorities, it does not mean that you have neglected your religion or you have abandon God. So, you will not be a polytheist, but only in the sense that your religion is ah, your practice has been muted to a certain level.

KD9 [27472-28542]

Hmm No. That is by opinion, because if you obey physically, but in your mind you know ok this thing is Kufir, I don't believe in it ah well just to gain something that will benefit the Islam, let me just show that we are together with this, but deep in your mind you don't accept it, some Ulama say well ok you can be, that error can be over looked, you understand what am trying to say? Aha look at our House of Assembly, for example, there are some things that go on there and you will begin to wonder that this are Muslims bowing for one stick somewhere, then but of course they will tell you well this is the rule and the norms and so on as so forth. For somebody that is not very strong in faith, if you can do it, if they tell you okay if you don't do that then you wont be part of us, but if you don't, you're not part of the system, what is going to be the faith of Muslims in the country? These are some of the knitty gritties of this Secularism that we are talking about. So it will take serious Ulama to really tell us, to give us...on that. This is my opinion.

KD10 [22059-22639]

Yes of course. They are polytheized now because they agree with the secular law, bit by bit they are going to become a politician and not that they are, not good politics. They are going to obey it either you want or not because everything is there. This is how you are going to do, this is how you are going to do it. You are going to be making effort to change some things a little bit if you are a conscious Muslims and you want to do good otherwise you are going to obey that secular law and its going to affect your Iman and Islam gradually as we have seen in Nigeria today.

KD11 [25478-25615]

No. I disagree because if this secular authority, no, no I disagree especially if the law does not even contradict the tenets of Islam.

KD13 [11256-11395]

It's wrong. I don't agree because the constituted authority which is Allah (SBUH) regards you as a Muslim to respect the ruling authority.

KD14 [13469-13806]

I do not agree and the reason for that is that what kind of, the secular authority to what or what are they asked to do? If that teaches, they only become if that teachings is not, is contradicting the teachings of Islam that is only and for a Muslim to become a polytheists is maybe that is only when he associates partners with Allah.

KD15 [20483-20487]

No.

KD16 [11514-11526]

I disagree

KD17 [36978-37986]

No. I don't agree it depends, if following secular laws makes them polytheists or authority, check the time of the prophet (SAW) whereby the Islamic law has not been established, the first people to perform hijra, they went to Ethiopia, there in Ethiopia the state or the law that was established there is not an Islamic law. Does that make them polytheists? It is even prophet (SAW) that said they should go to Ethiopia to go and meet their imam, he is a good person as in the leader there, the only person. S does that make them a kafir. If you are following a secular law and maybe the secular law you are not even happy with it because you know in your mind that the sharia law or the Islamic laws supersedes any other law, but based on the position in which it was set, you follow and not causing trouble. That does not mean you are a polytheist, you should bring proofs that say or those that say that you become a polytheist or a kafir if you keep following the secular law. They should bring proof.

KD18 [17594-17808]

I disagree because we know the rules and regulations that guide our Qur'an, so therefore we don't need to, the Qur'an has already guided us, so we know what to do, we know the Qur'an to follow and the hadith. Yes.

KD19 [23988-24181]

Well polytheism means many gods, now that concept is totally unacceptable in Islam. Islam is based on monotheism that's one God, so I don't think a Muslim should have that notion of many gods.

KD20 [17339-17687]

I disagree with that because, let me use, this let me use Nigeria as an example, you know we have many tribes, we have many religions in Nigeria and we have a constitution in Nigeria so we follow their constitution and that does not stop us to practice our religion since is not going to contra ah contradict our book so we can live together, yes.

KD21 [15613-15639]

I don't agree with that.

KD23 [17190-18048]

Yes I agree with that because why I agree with that okay, so the question is saying Muslim are polytheists if they obey secular authorities, no I did not agree with that, sorry, I did not agree with that because why I did not agree with that is that ah so for instance a Muslim is living in a Christian or other religions dominant, so eh it is compulsory for you to obey their constitution, their constitution, but even though if you obey the constitution so it means you did not follow the, you did not bridge the teachings of your religion because you do not have any alternative than to follow that constitution because you were born and brought up there and you are not capable to transfer to another country, so it means you will obey what the country says, but with the ah aim of that that is not a religion and you are doing it based on a condition.

KD24 [55714-56031]

Yes they are polytheists because in politicians, in politics they have their own way which they live within themselves and within the community. Then if you are a Muslim and you are following the way they are following you are practicing the way they are practicing then you are following the way they are following.

KD25 [77046-77475]

Yes I agree to some extent and ah because the Qur'an says (he recites in Arabic) anybody that does not judge by what Allah has revealed those people are infidels so eh eh really if somebody should advertently and intentionally, a Muslim, intentionally close his or her eyes to act contrary to the teachings of Islam, following the secular principles or laws that is that is that is polytheism. It is polytheism and it is kuffur.

KD26 [19408-20023]

No. I don't agree because if they obey secular authority there are certain laws from the constitution and the secular authorities that if you obey you don't have to deviate, you have not deviated from Islam and I don't think if you obey those laws like you've gone against the Islamic law. So I don't think you are polytheist and beside you don't worship that authority. Polytheist is who ascribe as in ascribes Allah is..., Islam is a religion of monotheism and it is when you believe in another opinion and I don't believe you having, Muslims should see any other authority as a God, no. so I don't see it as that.

KD27 [22202-22324]

Except in conditions of ah in a situation where they have no alternatives otherwise I think it is not halal it is haram.

KD28 [26104-26259]

I don't agree because if they obey at least they have the right to observe their own Islamic activities which how does it affect the secular way of life?

KD29 [15907-16009]

Well actions in Islam, actions are judged according to intentions and this is my own opinion on this.

KD30 [27301-27553]

No, you see ah if we are to relate it with Nigeria first of all you see, you see that Muslims have been forced to ah work under this secular authority, but ah if it's a deliberate state where you are giving option of course it has to be sharia first.

KD31 [17001-17314]

Yah not hundred percent because there are things in ah like ah it is earlier mentioned there are some instances whereby most thing they do is un-Islamic apart from it being un-Islamic most of the true religions not all true religions most of the religions there are things that shouldn't be done in that manner.

KD33 [19964-20008]

No I didn't agree, I didn't agree with it

KD34 [21412-21429]

No, I did not.

KD35 [22602-22722]

Yes the moment you submit or you obey those who are not properly conducting their selves then that means you are lost.

KN1 [51228-51512]

No I don't agree. Concerning Shirk or polytheism it has to do with creating a rival to Allah that I have two gods or more than two gods or my Allah's allegiance or obedience is to God and somebody else especially in religion or worship perspective of it

KN2 [28264-28572]

They may not be polytheists if they are not under an Islamic state because in Islam it says if you cannot live under an state, if you are not allowed to practice Islam under a non-Muslim or secular state then leave and search elsewhere where you can get a better place where you can practice your religion.

KN4 [41888-42250]

No, they are not because polytheism means the belief in more than one God. It means believe in more than one God. Amm it is not true because in a secular state, people huh huh they don't worship any God we only have constitution, our constitution does not contraband or does not go against the religion. There is right of religion so it is not true. I disagree.

KN5 [20692-21028]

No, I did not agree because the Allah (SAW) has said it that (he recites the verse) if you are afraid of something that may happen to you, then assume as if you are with them but if you have to obey it, then obey it with hatred, you are just obeying it but you hate what you are doing don't ever like the obedience to the secular laws.

KN7 [21883-21935]

I do not agree. I do not. I don't agree with that.

KN8 [23028-23218]

I disagree with this, I disagree they are polytheists. They didn't believe in two or more gods for secular laws are laws that are just guiding the society to bring out good for the people.

KN9 [21415-21609]

Of course I agree, if they obey secular laws it means their loyalty is divided into two. They obey the secular laws and they obey the Islamic laws. So they are serving both two religions, yes.

KN10 [16107-16236]

I disagree yes because obeying or accepting that secular authority does not mean that you are among them or you accept like that.

KN11 [21400-22151]

Ehm, I have, like I have answered it before, ehn I have nothing to say again, Muslims are polytheists if they obey secular authorities. If you believe in your mind that this secular laws or authorities are superior to Allah (SAW), if you believe in your mind that these secular laws are superior to that of the Qur'an and Sunna of the prophet (SAW) yes you are out of Islam. But if you practice-like in Nigeria, we are in secular country and in a secular country but I know Muslims, I know most of the Muslims do not believe this secular laws are superior to the holy Qur'an but only we are just, we are forced to do that but in our mind we know the Quran is superior to this law, so you can't, you can't call that particular Muslim as a polytheist.

KN13 [24774-24794]

Hmm, I don't agree.

KN14 [18424-18536]

Yes I agree, but the condition is if you agree that it is the same as Koran and hadith or the source of sharia.

KN15 [18261-18377]

Well, when Muslims feel secular authorities are superior than Islamic law, so that is when they can be polytheists.

KN16 [9261-9361]

Well, when Muslims feel secular authorities are superior than Islamic law then they are polytheists.

KN17 [23950-24265]

Yah, yah. If that law, if that law, for example now, there are some secular laws that actually allows someone to- there are laws that definitely you can wear trousers and go out like a lady but in Islamic doctrine is not proper for a girl to wear trouser without eh without eh eh a hijab to cover herself

KN18 [36935-37030]

Why should they be? Because you are following a secular-that is the authority that is the order

KN18 [37070-37316]

no, because that is the constituted authority, I said Prophet Muhammad (SAW) travelled to a ah ah a Christian state, okay, which more or less like a secular one and that there will he say that you will not respect life and follow the order there

KN19 [22563-22631]

Ah I didn't agree because it's normal to obey secular authorities.

KN20 [16717-16757]

No no no no no that is totally rubbish.

KN20 [16803-16895]

There is difference between serving God and obeying the rules and regulations of the state.

KN21 [10740-10742]

No

KN21 [10870-10959]

The fact that you obey secular laws does not mean you are worshipping more than one God.

KN22 [21457-22060]

Yah, ah scholars vary in this kind of situation. Some scholars were of the view that if you obey a secular law you are not a Muslim, you are not a true Muslim while some were of the view that, no, obeying secular law, in Islam it is a matter of the heart. Yes because even the prophet said that attaqawa haula- the fear of God is from the heart. So it is not just because you are obeying a secular law you would be seen as a non-Muslim, no, no, no, no. You a Muslim, but the fear of Allah and the constitution of Allah, which is the Qur'an and the Sunna, it is in your heart and you are practicing it.

KN23 [15123-15419]

I don't agree because Islam has to do with the heart. If you have it in mind that you are worshipping one Allah then I don't think because you are calling may be chief judge of the federation my lord it will bring about any this thing because it is not religion of mouth, it is from the heart.

KN24 [15720-15722]

No

KN24 [15733-15818]

Because the fact that you did not obey secular laws does not make you a polytheist.

KN25 [22725-22824]

Yes I agree because it is strictly giving obedience to two religions, right? Yah so they would be.

KN26 [22802-22807]

No.

KN27 [16992-17071]

I disagree with this that is if it does not contradict the teachings of Islam.

KN28 [13793-13815]

No, no, no I disagree

KN30 [14712-14730]

No I don't agree

KN31 [20585-20599]

I don't agree

KN32 [9517-9574]

ah no no no I don't think I really or subscribe to that.

KN33 [7817-7869]

No I didn't agree and this does not mean polytheism

KN34 [12309-12399]

I don't. For every general rule there must be an exception, I don't agree with this view.

KN35 [14023-14025]

No

KN36 [14326-14328]

No

KN37 [13381-13409]

No I don't agree with that.

KN38 [9454-9472]

I do not agree.

KN38 [9483-9560]

because following secular laws is different from following another religion.

KN39 [16523-17196]

Actually I do not agree because the religion of Islam does not tell us to, for example, allow those practices of non-Islamic practices. Islam asks us to agree and adopt those behaviors, those rules and regulations that come into compliance with our religion. Therefore, whenever Muslims are living in a secular system, yes of course they will make sure that those rules governing the secular state do not contradict Islamic rules and regulations, but if those rules contradict the rules and regulations of Islam, therefore, Muslims will not accept them and will not adopt them and they will make sure that everything is going hand in hand peripeseue with Islamic teachings.

KN40 [14317-14327]

Disagree.

KN41 [11963-11978]

No I disagree.

KN42 [26236-26405]

No they are not. Once they respect their leaders and that respect does not go contrary with the preachings and with the Hadith and Sunna, then they are not polytheists.

KN43 [20793-20946]

I don't agree with this because for me to agree with this notion, you have to eh, you have to give me, ah you have to back it up with ah Qur'anic verses.

KN44 [15596-15645]

That one I wouldn't like to answer that one also.

KN45 [20197-21146]

No, I disagree, I disagree, I think ehh nobody or no person in authority has ever said that, has ever said that before. Yes because every Muslims obey secular authority, authorities in Islam. You must obey those in power that is an integral part of ehh Islamic ideology, that is integral to obey rulers, to obey rulers ehh and even according to some...Islam ehh you must obey them 100% even if they commit coup to come to power, then after that coup has succeeded then you must obey whoever took the ehh power at least ehh for the government and the society to run. Yah and also if we take an example from history ehh ahh Muawiyya Ibn Abu Safyan who establish the Umayyad dynasty, that is after the ahh after the rule of the four guided Caliphs of Islam, operated a secular government and he is a companion of the prophet and there are lot of ehh surviving companions of the prophet during that time and they ehh operate under that government, yes.

KN46 [38944-40139]

Of course I don't. For example, traffic rules are secular so just because you are a Muslim, you will not come and say I would drive in the right instead of right ah I would drive in the left instead of driving in the right as we do here in Nigeria. Some countries drive in the left like in Britain and India. But here in Nigeria and most of the countries, we drive in the right lane, so this is a rule, this is the rule in Nigeria that any driver should follow this simple traffic rule. So if as a Muslim you think following this rule is anything but compulsory or obligatory, then you do not know what Islam is, you are acting on your own because these rules are made to protect the rights and interests of the people. So why do you want to go against the interest of others? That means you are selfish, that means you don't have feelings towards your brethren and in Islam you are not expected to be a true Muslim unless you love for others what you love for yourself. So you want to be safe, you want safety for yourself, you want safety for your family, then if you are a true Muslim, you should love other people to have safety, to live safely, to drive safely, I hope you get the point.

KN47 [37997-38673]

No, no. I don't agree because authorities if you say authorities, of course you can't control or you can't simply control yourself if you find yourself under an authority. you may not like an authority, but if you have to comply, you have to. If you go to another country and then, for example, you go U.S and you are a Muslim, can you say you will not obey the authority of the United States because you are a Muslim you shouldn't obey the traffic law because you are a Muslim, traffic law are not the law because they are not written in the holy Quran? You can't say that. So you follow them if they are useful you follow them to achieve something, you know, peaceful way.

KN48 [11694-11703]

No idea.

KN49 [21118-21394]

Actually it depends on the context in which we are talking about and it also depends on what, on what grounds, on what basis. You don't just become a polytheist because you, you obey certain laws that are manmade or secular. Actually it depends on what your religion defines.

KN50 [10402-10419]

I do not agree.

KN52 [30578-30598]

No I do not agree

KN53 [14290-14306]

Well I disagree

KN54 [7159-7183]

Actually they are not.

KN55 [8430-8465]

No. Islam is a religion of order.

KN56 [13347-13640]

No. I don't agree. Islam is a religion of order therefore a person cannot be said to be a politest by virtue of is obeying secular authorities. It is only that if those secular authorities are going contrary to the teachings of Islam that such Muslim can be described or to be a polytheist.

KN57 [13486-13539]

Yes. I agree because secularism is not a right path.

KN58 [31125-31239]

Ehn they are contradicting their beliefs (contemplative silent) Muslims are ...ok no, no they are not polytheists.

KN59 [24070-24339]

Actually, to me, they are not. It is just for peace to reign in that state because if a state is being under secular authority, it means that they have already dominated that state, you understand, the Muslims have less or no power, so to me they are not polytheists.

KN60 [24068-24368]

I don't agree, I don't agree, I don't agree because a person living in Nigeria cannot say traffic rules should not be respected and this traffic rules and regulations have being brought by secularism, but yet they are not contrary to the teachings of Islam, so why should you not now obey such rules

KN61 [11668-11686]

I quite not agree.

KN62 [37619-38120]

I don't believe in that, that Muslims are polytheists, no. They are still monotheists provided they are, they are doing, practicing their religion. There is no any let's say idea in Islam like that or any propositions like this. We all believe that a Muslim is always a Muslim as long as he practices ah his religious provisions or let me say as long as he prays that is the main thing and he observes all the religious activities. So if he does that, so there is no problem. He is not a polytheist.

KN63 [26479-27057]

Ahh, ah, It depends, just as I mentioned, if the secular law is not against Islam, you know, I cannot just because I am living in America since they allow the same sex marriage I now keep the law of Allah separately and now try to abide by the law being laid down by the government of that country, no, that is not, is not fitting. You have the first law, the number one law you have to abide with is that of Allah. Allah's law before any other laws come in. And if at all that eh secular law there is different from what Allah has laid down, you don't have to abide by that.

KN64 [19868-20095]

I didn't say this, what I said to you, you must try to follow the Islam, if you didn't have the opportunity to follow the principle of Islam in something, so you do it as the ruler eh. There is no any eh ah polytheism here.

KN65 [23306-23323]

I don't agree.

KN66 [13698-13875]

Ahh it doesn't necessarily mean a Muslim is a polytheist if he obey the secular authorities. It is not necessary because there are some rules that doesn't make you a polytheist.

KN67 [15023-15043]

No, I don't agree.

KN68 [7123-7197]

No. They should, they should obey such if they are not contrary to Islam.

KN69 [27336-27678]

No. They are still remain monotheists, to the fact that, to the fact that (Recites a verse of the Qur'an) and since they are in a secular state and their believing in oneness of God is within their minds and Allah know what is physically, what is hidden. So Allah knows their Iman, Allah knows their beliefs. Therefore, they have no problem.

KN71 [46427-46498]

I do not agree. I don't agree because it depends on the circumstances.

KN72 [24402-24612]

No, no they are not polytheists, they are not polytheists because belief in Islam is deeper with acceptance in social life, acceptance and believing are not the same according to Islam, yes they are different.

KN73 [24153-24538]

No, they are not polytheists. If you obey the law in a secular state, what type of law have you obeyed? Is that law in a secular say that you must worship another God? Is that? Is that the inculcate, is that force you that you must to obey another law that is contrary to your religion? It's not polytheism of course. This has been told in one of the teachings of Abul Ala Maududi.

KN74 [35708-35766]

No. Am not agreeing with this, am not agreeing with this.

KN75 [38853-38919]

I disagree because they have no option in the case of necessity.

KN76 [27041-27413]

No, I don't agree with it because Muslims, the first Muslims lived under a non-Muslim state because some of the companion of the prophet Muhammad (SAW), the prophet himself ask them to move out of Mecca to Ethiopia and they went there and lived, and at that time Ethiopian state was not ruled by a Muslim. It was ruled by a Christian so a Muslim can live under any state.

KN78 [42319-42395]

It depends on the interpretations again, yes it depends on interpretations.

KN80 [33613-33898]

You see there is many, there is provision made by the religion regarding the ahh Muslim line and such provisions include the living of Muslims under secular states. So there is the provision and there is the guideline on how the Muslim subjects himself in such a particular condition.

KN81 [19999-20085]

No. I disagree because disobedient is something that is lalura in the eyes of Islam.

KN81 [20165-20271]

Yes sir the lalura means to live ahh yes lalura means ah necessity because it becomes a necessary to him.

KN82 [23972-24239]

Depends on the situation. There are some situations that the case is different because even during the lifetime of the holy prophet, there was a time when the state affairs were run based on Ithaq al-Medina which was the Medinan constitution the first of its kind.

KN83 [14456-14494]

I don't agree because it is Dharura

KN84 [17243-17403]

I totally disagree. There is no difference between obey and religion beliefs. We obey our parent, elder and state holders of our politics. Are they polytheists?

KN85 [20990-21333]

No, no, no, no, no we cannot say they are polytheists if they obey secular authorities. It just depends on the arrangement, like in Nigeria here where we have, where the state is supposedly secular, yes ahh obedience to the state does not mean polytheism.

They are still Muslims worshipping only one God, but only under a secular arrangement.

ZA1 [23523-24105]

So now let me ask you in United States in western countries, they say that gay is allowed, we didn't see where Obama and David Cameron they wed, why can't they wed so that we can accept that definitely they agree with this. So how come we say that gay is allowed when in my religion and my tradition are not allowed. How can I follow you or where fornication is allowed when my religion and my tradition forbid it? No. You can, you can obey a rule which is not contrary to a teaching of your religion. Any rule that is contrary to the Qur'an and hadith, you have to set it aside.

ZA2 [21893-21923]

Well I will not agree to that

ZA3 [18748-19259]

In the clear terms, in the clear state of terms yes because the only, the Allah (SAW) said that for you who govern with any other law except Qu 'ran is a kafir, but there are limitations to that, you, you Allah does not burden one over his own ability. So if for the system now your ability you cannot go beyond that then you obey, but having it in mind that you are doing this for a period of time to such and extent that Allah will make it easy for you to be able to practice your din the way it ought to be.

ZA4 [39260-39708]

Yes, actually you know secular authorities, you know, if you want to go by the injunctions and also the guidelines of the din, you know, they have some authorities that emm are not with that of what is required from the Qur'an and Sunna, so but, you know, you can politicize it, you have to have the methodology of politicizing because we don't want to politicize and cause havoc to people, you understand, so do it with hikma (recites in Arabic).

ZA5 [22274-22293]

No, they are not

ZA6 [53434-53937]

Ahh no. It depends on the secular, what you mean by secular authorities. Like I just said, it is a matter of necessity, so you cannot be a polytheists, you cannot be a polytheists if you are obeying the constitution as far as the constitution does not contradict any tenets of the Qur'an and hadith, you cannot be polytheist, and as far as I am concerned, the constitution of Nigeria was carefully drafted by the Muslims and the non-Muslims to make sure it does not contradict either of the religion.

ZA7 [23112-23224]

Okay no. I don't think, I don't think they are polytheists if they should obey secular laws. I don't think so.

ZA8 [51902-52289]

Ahh it is a lie, I don't agree with that, like I said, if you are a true Muslim, there is no in between, it is either you are a true Muslim that is because in every religion, there are the, there are those ones that are not true worshippers. In Islam also, there are the true Muslims you will never see a true Muslim going being a polytheist, is either you are a Muslim or you are not.

ZA9 [26886-27398]

I do not agree. At some point in my life, when I was still attending Arabic school, I was told the love for your country or for where, for your locality is the basis for love of God. So I think, I don't think they are polytheists, I don't think. Secular law is not a religion, religion Islam, Christianity, paganism and all these things, they are, but in a secular state is not a religion on its own as such Muslims that follow rules and regulations of secular state are not polytheists. They are Muslims.

ZA10 [26195-26330]

Yes, because the laws are un-Islamic stated, it makes you, it's un-Islamic. So the reason is it can actually make you go out of Islam.

ZA11 [20985-21162]

Ok, Secular laws are constitutions being made by man to make life easy for man to some interest let's say, it does not have anything to do with worship. So I dis-concur with it.

ZA12 [11983-12184]

I don't agree and the reason being that, in as much as the rules and regulations that are being created by the secular government does not deviate from the teachings of Islam, I think it should stand.

ZA13 [12677-12752]

Yes they are because they tend to deviate from the real teaching of Islam.

ZA14 [16444-16801]

ahh I did not, no I do not agree because what is polytheism is the way of pluralizing things yes that is it, it is a way of pluralizing things now, so because of that, because you obey the law of the land is not that you are disobeying the law of Allah, so far it does not go against the law of Allah, I don't see the reason why it should not be like that.

ZA15 [20133-20465]

Polytheist, what do you mean by polytheist? (he spells the word polytheist) ok, ok, ok Muslims are polytheists if they obey secular authorities. It is not true, because when you say polytheist you mean they do not believe in the oneness of the almighty, when polytheist simply means when you believe in other gods. It is not true.

ZA16 [13076-13080]

No.

ZA16 [13113-13208]

Because, as I said, it is Dharur, they are following, they follow the secular state as Dharur.

ZA17 [14146-14163]

I do not agree.

ZA18 [19311-19394]

It is not so, when you do that as part of Dharura, mmmm that is what they call it.

ZA19 [25102-25461]

Well I did not agree because of ah a situational factor, just as I have said earlier, when you cannot survive on your own, you cannot do otherwise because there are certain places where you are warrant to do what were originally unlawful for you, but once you are out of that affliction or distress, so you can keep on by following actually permissible acts.

ZA20 [15210-15251]

I am sorry not to respond this question

ZA21 [20212-20536]

No I don't agree because you can only submit to the will of Allah if you are a Muslim. By being under secular government does not entail you should be praying for that government, you should be fasting for that government and above all actions are judged according to intention. Your intention determines what and what not.

ZA22 [19014-19275]

Yah I say if you find it necessary and you don't have any other means we don't have maybe we are not capable of establishing our state maybe through all these teachings we are teaching, for the main time if we find ourselves in that situation then we have to.

ZA23 [24885-25153]

As I have said if you talk about secularism to me I understand it to mean a religion free environment. And if I am a Muslim how can I succumb to a religion free environment? Do you get that? So a Muslim I don't think will agree to living in a religious free society.

ZA24 [31849-32304]

Ah I do not agree. I do not agree because they are not worshiping two gods because it has been written in Qur'an that God said that he created mu'min and he created non-mu'min. Therefore if you are in a secular state you cannot say those non-Muslims should leave the state or should leave the country for only Muslims because this country is owned by all of us. It is not only meant for Muslims alone. I think that is the way I can answer the question.

ZA25 [27605-27871]

It depends on the extent they obey the secular authorities. If the authorities should legislate that you cannot do – you cannot practice some critical –some essential aspects of Islam and you obey them then you are a polytheist. You have taken them as another God.

ZA26 [14084-14254]

No. if you have any other law that is ...above Islamic law then you are not part of Islam, it is not a party to that. Islamic laws are superior to any other law on earth.

ZA27 [12465-12704]

Actually as I said earlier if the content what is being said in the secular laws, if it is against the teaching of Islam Muslims should not accept it, but if it does not go contrary to the teaching of Islam there is nothing bad about it.

ZA28 [24906-24962]

There are terms here that I don't know the definitions

ZA29 [36429-36790]

hmmmm you say Muslims are polytheists yes if they are doing the secular yes, but it will not affect their religion. A thief is a thief and a thief is a Muslim, a thief is a thief and a thief is a Christian. So your own deed is different from your religion. You practice your own religion and your activities is also different, God will judge you differently.

ZA31 [19385-19400]

I don't agree.

ZA32 [50163-50959]

Muslim are not polytheists if they obey secular authorities because they are not expected to fight them rather they are expected to what, to obey them in what is obedience to Allah, in what is obedience to Allah, but they are not expected to obey them in what is not obedience to Allah, if something is disobedience to Allah, so Muslims are not expected to follow or to obey the secular authorities because the prophet of Islam is reported to have said (he recites the Qur'an), no obedience to any creator in disobedience, in disobedience to what, to the creator, the creator. No obedience for any creator is disobedience to what, to creator. We are not, Muslims are not expected, are urged not to what, not to obey anybody or anything when or once that obedience will lead them to disobey Allah.

ZA35 [13304-13313]

No Idea.

ZA36 [20402-20412]

I don't.

ZA37 [28330-28366]

It is not just directly like that.

ZA38 [30864-31068]

Yah, yah because they allow you and there is freedom of religion, you worship your God and you do your normal thing, you avoid drinking, adultery and fornication, telling lies and other things like that.

ZA39 [41565-41965]

No, it is not because there is a verse in the Qur'an I have said, Allah does not impose hardship on a Muslim or on anybody. That is what is not possible. What is above your power, Allah would not question you why you refused to do it. Something that is above your power is in control of Allah. So there is nothing you can do. So you have to agree with that is you have to leave it in the hands of God.

Th11.4: Obedience to Secular Authority as Worship

FG1 [41006-41176]

Yah it could, when they abandon all their religious teachings and follow the secular teachings. They no longer practice their religion but only accept the secular laws.

FG1 [41178-41374]

Actually for me since secular life allow anyone to do whatever he feels he likes, then he will even abandon the prayer and one hadith says the difference between Muslims and non-Muslim is prayer.

KD1 [47977-48223]

When it can become worship would be if he chooses to obey their laws where it contradicts Islamic law just to please ordinarily, just to please them and to displease Allah deliberately, willingly without any compulsion. So such case might arise.

KD2 [19318-19617]

In my opinion, there is no any extent to which, in which, if one person submits to a secular authority then becomes he is a worshipper of that, of that secular authority. So Muslims are obedient to a secular government will never amount to any form of worship. The only person you worship is Allah.

KD3 [15026-15141]

A Muslim's submission to secular authority cannot become worship as long as they adhere to the teachings of Islam.

KD4 [32055-33123]

As a Muslim, a true Muslim, let me put it that way, as a true Muslim, a conventional Muslim, you should put your din first, even your din should come first before yourself not the rules of any state or any constitution. Let me set example by the constitution, the preambles of the constitution which will tell you that the constitution is supreme and any other rule that is inconsistent that is inconsistent with the constitution shall remain null and void we totally disagree with this. In Islam, we say that Islamic religion, the din ulhaqq is supreme and any other law which is inconsistent with this din that is the constitution of the secular law which you are saying, if it clash with Islam, that constitution should remain null and void and Islam should be supreme. So, when one takes the secular law that it is supreme than whatever he is doing, take the constitution to be more of valuable than his own life then I will tell you that is tantamount to worshipping that constitution which is not supposed to be in Islam, which in Islam is totally unacceptable.

KD5 [17032-17185]

I don't think that there is any way that Muslims' obedient to secular law can amount to worship. So, I think Muslims obedience to secular law is normal.

KD6 [32320-32474]

It depends on what they say you should do. If they do not say you should disobey Allah, submitting to their own this thing, you are not worshipping them.

KD7 [23970-24017]

No, it does not. It does not amount to worship

KD8 [45739-46158]

Yes, there are situations whereby it can amount to worship, when there are directing you to do those things or they are saying you should not pray and you agree you should not pray. When they are compelling you to take ehmm may be alcohol, when they are compelling you to exercise gay marriage, when they are compelling you to do those things that God said you should not do amount to worship and you should resist it.

KD9 [29305-29455]

If you believe in your mind that democracy is the best, is the way, then of course that is Kufr then you are already submitting, straight and simple.

KD10 [23117-23811]

Yes if you submit to secular government that is going to be worship that is if you believe that secular law is better than Qur'an and Sunna or it is equal to Qur'an and Sunna, you are worshipping it. Are you getting me? Which means that one is wrong it is not supposed to be like that, but that does no means that if the secular laws does not contradict Qur'an and Sunna, you have follow it. Do you understand? If the secular laws, it does not contradict the Qur'an and the Sunna you follow that secular law, there is no harm in that. But what we are saying is that if the secular law contradicts Qur'an and Sunna you should not follow it, following it is due to necessity. Are you getting me?

KD11 [26308-26566]

No. But ah it will amount to worship if those laws are contradicting the Islamic tenets or and the Muslims accepted them without any resentment, protest or any form of disagreement. They just accept them hook line and sinker as though it is a normal thing.

KD13 [11694-11732]

No. Respect is different from worship[

KD14 [14294-14432]

It only becomes worship if the teachings are in contradiction to Islam and Islam prohibits such act that is only when it becomes worship.

KD15 [21188-21885]

You see following of Muslims ahm following of laws by Muslims, as I said earlier on, a Muslim can follow the law so far it won't go against the law of Islam, the law of God. So let's take the example of this court or whatever, you see Muslims follow laws that won't go against the law of Islam. So I think ah everything is simple, but we human being just make things very hard for us. So if we can follow the law of God and follow the law of ah God and make your religious law overcome and overpower the secular law, I think you will live in peace and everything will be okay. So not that Muslims worship secular law or whatever, Muslims never worship secular law, Muslims worship the law of God.

KD16 [12246-12460]

I have said this before it depends on the kind of law how much that law contradict the teaching of Islam, if it does not contradict it is not a problem, but if it contradicts then it means it amounts to worship.

KD17 [39048-39609]

As I said earlier, in what way? By the time you see the secular law are opposing what the religion says, even the secular law still allows you to follow what the religion says in those instances and you still feel, you still want to follow the secular law whereby your own religious law is there which opposes what the secular law says and even the secular law gives you the right to follow what your religion says and you still go on to follow that, that has become worship because you've preferred secular law than your own religious law. So that is worship.

KD17 [39681-39963]

No. It depends on the position. In Nigeria the Islamic law is not being practiced, but does that mean that we are worshipping the democracy we have here? We are not worshipping it. That is the position we met ourselves and that is how we are managing it that way. That is not worship

KD18 [18263-18337]

No, they are not, it does not have anything to do with the religion, yes.

KD19 [24703-24997]

Eh I think there is only one way when somebody profess that the constitution is supreme above everything, the constitution of the Muslim should be the Qur'an, so anytime a Muslim have the believe that the constitution of his country is above the Qur'an, then he has fallen into that category.

KD20 [18373-18674]

Yes the Muslims submission to secular worship does not mean that the they are worshipping another God, their God eh their God is their God, so submission to them, following them, eat even eating with them and doing many other things with them does not stop us stop Muslims to worship their Allah, yes.

KD21 [16569-16781]

When a Muslim's submission, a Muslim's submission becomes worship to secular laws only and only if these laws violates his religious beliefs and he decides to go into the act either voluntarily or involuntarily.

KD23 [18485-18565]

Eh will be obeyed to that because he or she has no alternative than to do that.

KD24 [56707-59854]

Eh there is an extent to which if a Muslim is being obedient to some certain laws, they should be a shame in the sense that this limit is for example, in the legislative eh arm of government now which we have, for example, there are some things like ah i could remember one stick, I don't know how, this thing that they are, all the sections that are being made in the office there or in the parliament if that stick is not there, they say what they say is rubbish. Scientifically if, I mean if you use your own common sense, this thing is out of sense because stick, human being, stick is not walking, talking, eating, doesn't have sense, doesn't have life and you will say if I talk, my talk doesn't have any importance if that stick is there, using common sense you see this one there should be something that you should think pertain to it. Just like, but when should that be the limit? A limit in which if a Muslim goes there and says okay this thing, we, we are Muslims, according to our religion, it is not good to be going ah following this rule that we must make sure that this thing is here and maybe we should stand up if whenever they bring it inside or we should even come and bow to it, in our religion we don't have that. But please we are Muslims, this is our own mode of religion, please to us Muslims, if it is possible, we did not say you should take it out, we should keep it aside, but we, our own religion, you should consider us, we are practicing religion, they are practicing religion, if their own religion says yes it is allowed, our own says no. Consider us, we are human beings, where is the human rights? Look they should come and look towards this issue. If they will not take any action, then you should be patient with that, with time you may think of even bringing another leader that can take action. Even if we don't submit, we don't want you to remove it now, but what we want is we the Muslims consider us. Our religion says we should not bow to anything, we should not agree that this thing, it must be when it is there that things are yes, if it is not there we hundred, one hundred and fifty in number, all we've been saying is rubbish without this thing. This one take care of it. We did not say actually you should take it out, no, leave it, but consider us. The Muslims can do that, think of how to choose a leader that will consider their own cry so that they will resolve those issues. Because it is not good for someone who will say now I will go and break it or I will steal it, no. Since it has been there since and really the state or the country is, you are not the only ones in the country, the Muslims. There are other various religions people that are there, then you should explain and express your own view, then you should leave them, if they say their own view or religion they don't have any concern with that stick whether is there, whether it is not there oho okay you your own is if it is there that the problem is there okay you the Muslims now if you come we remove that mandatory on you that you must come to it, no, be seated since you are touching your religion things like that.

KD25 [78415-78638]

Yes when Allah says yes, the secular state law, secular state says no, and a Muslim decides to follow the law, then it means he is no more a Muslim meaning he is worshipping the secular state instead of worshipping Allah.

KD26 [20605-20889]

I don't think it amounts to worship, as I earlier said, and when it becomes worship is when you see that leader as your lord, you worship him, you go against the teachings of Allah to favor that person so that you will be please with him that is when you've gone the other way round.

KD27 [22878-22899]

I have no response

KD28 [26962-27260]

Obedying secular authority does not amount to worship. When a secular authority has given you an assignment that will not give you the time for you to observe your Islamic activities especially your Islamic worship because of the fear of the government because of earthly issues then it is terrible.

KD29 [16453-16612]

It does not amount to worship because in Islamic teachings we are obliged to follow our leaders devoid of their belief based on the prevailing circumstances.

KD30 [28086-28524]

Ahm I ah from my own understanding I think ah here in Nigeria where we have been forced to work under secular ah to operate under secular authority, it cannot be seen as being worshipping as worshipping, but when you are just, when you are a person that doesn't bother and imbibes such things that are even that are chosen secular government even when in preference to Islamic sharia then I think one has to question his Islamic beliefs.

KD31 [17708-17817]

When he believes in whatever is being done that it is right and that is that is the way it is supposed to be

KD33 [20518-20972]

Well Muslims submission to secular authority will only become a worship when that authority, when that, only when that authority, only when that authority makes what is halal to be haram or what is haram to be halal or other what is not good for them to do it so in only that way that emm secular authority becomes worship. Muslims obedience to secular government doesn't amount to worship as far as they practice correct Islam and follow its teaching.

KD34 [22024-22326]

No, it is not because worshipping is what you believe in your heart, there are some activities that you can perform or do without believing in your heart because they are some things that you can use, you can even hate it, but you have to do it because of the circumstances that you find yourself into.

KD35 [23494-23716]

The moment there is house of laws passed a law that tempers with God's law and you agree with that then that means you are worshipping, you have, you are mushrik that means you tempers God's law with that of human beings.

KN1 [52335-52777]

Let's be realistic. In some laws or in some places there are some laws that are formulated to mock the religion or to show that somebody has power equal to God or something of that nature if you agree with him that he has power or he is equal to God of course this is something that is contrary to what is suppose to be and equally if you are forced to do something out of force where you don't have power then God has seen, he is all seeing

KN1 [52844-52900]

It does not amount to worship it depends on what it is

KN4 [43008-43323]

There is no way that submission to secular state become worship because a secular state there is right of religion, there is freedom of assembly, there is freedom of speech, obedience to government has no any relationship with worship since the constitution is sub in secular state are given right of the religion.

KN5 [22142-22821]

Ahh actually when you say Muslim's obedience to secular authority become worship we are not being ahh ahh faithful as faithful as we said if ahh only you are being compelled or you are afraid of something since you are not in an Islamic state then you subordinate unwillingly. You are just obeying it not because you want but because it is necessary and you say the other part is you say submission to secular you say does Muslim obedience to secular government amount to worship, no it does not because in worship we have to have-you should have an intention. Yes, if you don't have intention of worshipping anybody and nobody should have the intention of worshipping anybody.

KN6 [25727-26295]

Yes, if Muslim prefer ah, if Muslim prefer this law against Islam so you are worshipping this laws. If this law or this secularism is contradict your Islamic teaching and the still you are try to obey it so you are worshipping this, for example, Allah says (he recites from the Qur'an) so they prefer even you can worship your preacher or you can worship your wife when you prefer, when you prefer your wife ah rather than your Islamic-so you worship not only this secularism and even maybe you are intelligent, maybe your money because some people can worship money.

KN7 [22718-23491]

It doesn't, it doesn't and as I have said earlier on, hmm ehm, obedience to secular government I don't think ehm should ehm, be, you see Islam, you see people don't tend to realize the fact that ehm, even now there are some things that are exists and did not exist during the time of the prophet even though Islam have answers to all questions. But people have not tend to understand that there are things that are coming, they are, they are, they are things that are so recent and did not exist then, so we should have a diplomatic way of ah of obeying, of em ah let me say, following the or obeying the ehm, the ahm a, what should I, the secular em a government because em, I don't think in any setting where we want peace to reign, we should go against the law, so yes.

KN8 [24416-24524]

Hmm, someone cannot absolutely say it amounts to worship as I have said initially, it is just an obedience.

KN9 [22121-22279]

When a Muslim's devotion to secular ways have overpowered initial Islamic ways, it is safe to assume that the Muslim is worshipping in the secular laws, yes.

KN10 [16747-16898]

This is when they look at their laws as superior than the Islamic law of course that is when it will become worship because now you are part of them.

KN11 [22690-22918]

Yes, as I have said, if you believe that secular authority is superior to Qur'an so it has become worship and ahh yes and if any Muslim believes that secular government is superior to an Islamic state, so it has become worship.

KN13 [25274-25278]

No,

KN14 [19504-19586]

Yes, but if he believes that the secular government is as the same as the sharia.

KN15 [18776-18894]

Hmmm yes, when Muslims submit to these secular authorities right better than the one of Islam, I think this is the...

KN16 [9751-9823]

When Muslims submit these secular authorities better than that of Islam.

KN17 [25543-25910]

It doesn't actually amount to worship because I- there are some secular laws that doesn't contradict Islamic law. For example, when they give public holidays normally you are supposed to go to work, you are working in a particular environment so definitely you just have to, it doesn't contradict your Islamic, it doesn't stop you from not worshipping your own god.

KN18 [39374-39583]

no any context you can say there is a worship in that side, one, secular does not even believe any religion and that you are following that government and following the dictates of that government as the only

KN18 [39854-39869]

No it is not

KN19 [23008-23116]

It doesn't amount to worship is just an act ensuring smooth running of society and development the society.

KN20 [17539-17591]

Ah I don't think there is a way it becomes worship.

KN21 [11370-11389]

No, no, no, no, no.

KN22 [22939-23363]

Yah in so many ways. One of the ways is if that constitution, secularistic constitution stops you from performing your prayers daily, then it has turned to another thing. If that constitution stops you from performing hajj wherever it is necessary, it has become worship. If that constitution also informs you of non-existence of Allah, it has become a worship; if you agree and subscribe to it, it has become to a worship.

KN23 [15694-15721]

I didn't see it in any way

KN24 [16196-16198]

NO

KN25 [23576-23771]

Well when a Muslim's obedience and devotion shifts completely from the Islamic angle to the secular angle, I think it is safe to assume that a Muslim's faith and trust lies in secular paradigm.

KN26 [23279-23494]

Of course when heed to act in accordance to the Islamic law has been jeopardized. For example you are supposed to pray and the secular law that protects you or prevents you from praying that's actually an anomaly.

KN27 [17468-17631]

Amount to worship ehm, that is if it is going contradictory to the teachings of Islam and in some way having, let me say, this full obedience to this secular law.

KN27 [17706-17847]

No. I don't think it does. I don't think it does. And if it does, it shouldn't contradict the teachings of Islam as I have said earlier on.

KN28 [14473-14565]

Well in as much as it doesn't supersede the Islamic statutes and guidelines. No not at all.

KN30 [15048-15062]

No it doesn't

KN31 [21245-21520]

Ah no it does not amount to worship and I think where it will-your obedience kind of violates, it is may be when you know there are some things which you are being forced to comply with that are against your religion, so I think the best thing is to fight back against that.

KN32 [10064-10247]

A number of ways Muslims submission to circular authorities can amount to worship but the issue of what does their obedience to circular no no no I don't think it amount to worship.

KN33 [8203-8255]

When he sees them above the sharia. No, not at all.

KN34 [12964-13265]

Hmmm I didn't-when actually it can amount to worship is where it contradicts the provisions contained in the holy Qur'an and some principles that where contained in the hadith of the holy prophet. Where any of the laws in the secular contradicts then we can say he submits himself to the secular state

KN35 [14527-14529]

No

KN35 [14554-14714]

Actually it cannot be an act of worship because the Muslims are part and parcel of that very society and they have agreed to live together under certain rules.

KN36 [14778-14970]

The Muslim's obedience to secular authorities does not amount to worship because it can only amount to worship when they believe that, that secular government is superior to sharia tenets.

KN37 [13696-13744]

Not at all. None of the statements are correct.

KN38 [9852-9867]

No it doesn't

KN38 [9912-9943]

It does not amount to worship.

KN39 [17774-17914]

Really of course no, until when a Muslim has seen those rules and regulations of secular state as being a substitute of Islamic teachings.

KN40 [14742-14747]

No

KN41 [12261-12264]

No

KN42 [26990-27528]

No. Obeying your government does not mean you are worshipping them, as long as you have that belief that you have your, you worship Allah and you don't associate partners with him. You are only obeying your leaders so is like getting a degree. It said that we have to have religious knowledge but the degree benefits us in this world, we can't say because we are going to school, we are disobeying Allah. We are only using that to for it to be beneficial to us in religion, so obeying secular law does not mean actually committing shirk.

KN43 [21392-21652]

Not at all, not at all because as I told you, Islam encourages Muslims to respect the authority, to respect the leadership of a state. It doesn't encourage people to rebel against the authority except if that authority is unjust and is treating them unfairly.

KN44 [15958-16009]

I don't, I wouldn't like to answer that one again.

KN45 [21971-22356]

No, it is not an act of worship. Obeying rules and regulations of a secular state can never be an act of worship in Islam. You can practice your religion publicly, and you can conduct government business and other businesses also differently, yes. At least if it ehh if there is God at the back of your mind that he is all ehh your belief is intact. There is no problem in Islam, yes.

KN46 [41009-41100]

No. if you submit to secular rules that does not ahh that makes him a law abiding citizen.

KN47 [39607-40192]

Ok it is not because worship is something that, you know, you have the intention of doing to get a reward. If you have the intention, you know, of obeying Allah's regulation in order for you to get to rewards, then you worship him whether you do muamalat, you know, in relation with other people, then you can get reward and you worship as well and here I don't think when you worship, when you do ah you obey secular government and then you just worship that government there is no notion of worship saying you worship somebody in this time, we don't worship anybody other than God.

KN48 [12092-12295]

Muslim submission to secular authority shouldn't be worship since it is just that we are being ordered to in Quran to obey secular rule in as much as the thing is not contrary to the teaching of Islam.

KN49 [22018-22101]

No, it doesn't ehm as long as he does not dishonor his religion I think it is ok.

KN50 [10860-10878]

This is not true.

KN52 [31207-31552]

No it doesn't at all, like I said earlier, it all depends on the context. So if it is in the context of the secular state of course what else do you have to do? You can co-exist with secular state, but you must not react by attempting to usurp the power of the secular state or trying to cause havoc or say you are fighting jihad just like that

KN53 [14765-14779]

No, no, no.

KN54 [7519-7553]

If they have followed completely

KN55 [8758-8819]

Secularism is un-Islamic, following it completely is worship

KN56 [14251-14472]

Yah if secular authorities, if a Muslim submits to secular authorities completely without trying to figure out the element that are among the laws that are contrary to that of his religion that can be said to be worship.

KN57 [14286-14362]

You see all I can say of secular system is that it is un-Islamic, no more.

KN58 [32269-33080]

To some extent. When you completely believe in the teachings of democracy that democracy is the best form of Government, you are submitting. And to some extent when you even practice or believe in their teachings like, for example, there are some Muslims that believe that you would should be allowed to practice democracy in total. What they are called liberal Muslims. There is no such thing as liberal Muslims to be sincere. A Muslim is a Muslim if he believes in the teachings of Allah. You cannot say you believe in the five prayers but you don't believe in fasting. It can't be possible no matter how liberal you are. You have to believe in those five pillars. If you do not believe in the existence of the jinns and the angels then you are not a true believer. It is a total submission. So that is it.

KN59 [25008-25709]

Humm actually I can say yes take for instance the way and manner youths engage in some social activities, take for instance watching soccer you understand you see that it has become part of us, you can't even do without watching football take for instance I myself as an example I do always watch the time of prayer, when they are playing the football match you find out that they set it at exactly the time of prayers, you see that if in a mosque whereby you see like 100 youths, if there is that match going on, you can only see let us say 50 because it has already become part of us, we cannot do a minute without watching what has happened, so it has played a significant role in our worship.

KN60 [24768-25242]

It does not amount to worship, you understand, if you ask of in what way does obedience to secularism become worship probably I can say maybe the secular state ask you to say ok don't go to mosque or now it is time you say Allah is three or three in one, the trinity and what have you, by the time you agree to say that I can say you are turning yourself into worshipping, in some way, the secularism they ask you to do, but if not we cannot put it to be a form of worship.

KN61 [12091-12094]

No

KN62 [39357-39706]

No. I don't believe in that. I don't believe in that. I believe that a Muslim's submission to secular authority is not worship yah, is not worship, is not worship. We worship Allah and we know how we worship Allah, through five daily prayers, through hajj, through other things that ah we find in Tawhid, you understand, yah that is what I believe.

KN63 [28202-28396]

You know, secular law that doesn't deviate from Allah, there is nothing bad, you can abide by it, but any secular law that deviate from the law of Allah, you don't have to abide by it., simple.

KN64 [20772-20776]

No.

KN65 [24202-24901]

If, when you believe that it is only the authority that have the power to give you what you know that Allah (SBUH) can offer you, you understand, example by believing that God cannot help you in some way other than this other person, that is a worship, you understand. Believe in the power of another person other than that of God is a worship, but if you just obey an authority because the law speculated that if I did not do this, this would happen, then that is not a worship, that is not a worship, but when I now have a faith and convinced that it is only you that have the power to decree this on me and it would be bound to happen that is when you are worshipping, I mean that is the shirk.

KN66 [14561-14980]

Ahmm, Muslim's submission to some secular authorities, hmm Muslims submission to some secular authority could be a worship this is because there are some secular authorities who believe that they are dictators, they are everything, they rule the world and once a Muslim becomes submitted to those kind of authority, they are also part of that authority and those kind of Muslims are called munafikum, they are munafik.

KN67 [15467-15757]

Well if they obey the law that contradicts the akida ah the aqida of Islam which ah relate to the issue of God is ah there are so many issues that relate to the aqida which I can-so if the laws are directly contradicting the aqida ah of Islam. So I think it may lead to somehow ah worship.

KN68 [7507-7569]

If the Muslim obey all of the laws, he is worshipping such.

KN69 [28201-28204]

No.

KN71 [47372-48223]

What is worship? (submitting to supreme being) submitting to supreme being in what form? (in the form of obeying...) because even in Islam, there are some specific things that are called worship, some are not. Some are mu'amalat. (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) In ibadat that is where we have worship. When you raise up your hand to call anybody apart from Allah, that is worship; when you prostrate before any other being that is worship. But when it comes to the issue of that this particular act is prohibited by Allah (SBUH) and then this your political leader now asks you to do it, and you do it with a peace of mind, comfortably doing it, maybe, earning or expecting some reward from him, that is what is called worship. I hope you understand what I am saying? Because we must, most of the state affairs are mu'amalat not ibadat, isn't it?

KN72 [25409-25663]

No. That is why I said belief or submission in Islam is deeper from the submission in social aspect. The submission of Muslims to God is a spiritual, is a spiritual, but submission to secular is an acceptance is a physical acceptance only social aspect.

KN72 [25730-25807]

Is not mean they are worshipping eh the secular government, is not worship.

KN73 [25271-25307]

No, it doesn't. It's not a worship.

KN73 [25444-25497]

It's not worship, you are just obedient to the leader

KN74 [36552-36587]

the answer to this question is no.

KN75 [39376-39379]

No

KN76 [28056-28520]

Actually the obedience of a Muslim are, of a Muslim to a secular state or to a secular government can be not be disobedient, eh cannot amount to a worship in as much as the Muslim believes in the ones of Allah and that prophet Muhammad (SAW) is his messenger and his life is guided by the provision of the Qur'an and the Sunna and his obedience to the secular government cannot in any way amount to ahh to worshipping because you can't lead in a lawless society.

KN78 [43347-44087]

Ooh yes, if you consciously and vehemently oppose anything Islamic, if you support consciously, wholeheartedly, you support secular laws, wholeheartedly you reject Islamic teachings in all spheres, wholeheartedly not out of necessity, I think that is when we said ahm Muslims are really submitting to the secular authority, and that is when it becomes a worship particularly when you bear the name Muslim, but you don't even pray, you don't even see prayer as part of Islamic teaching or perhaps you are a Muslim, nominal Muslim, you like to be referred as Muslim, but by the time ahh you are contacted on Islamic issues, you see that as, you see this, you see that as something that ah ahh that is opposed to your likes and dislikes.

KN80 [34510-34669]

Amount to worship, obedience to anything other than ... it is not worship rather it can be a committing sin when it comes to contradictory of the rule of Islam.

KN81 [20593-20717]

If Muslim regard secular law is above Islamic law, but if he feels Islamic law is above secular law it is not worship okay

KN82 [24821-24858]

It is not up to, it is not up to

KN83 [15001-15109]

Ahm it is not worship and cannot be worship in all grounds as long as a Muslim has his own religious faith.

KN84 [17933-18010]

It is not amount to worship and it will never be amount to worship at all.

KN85 [22058-22683]

Ahh in the first place ahh a Muslim's submission to secular authority becomes a worship to that secular authority if the rules, the laws and regulation of the secular authorities contravene the laws of Islam, and if a Muslim follow and observe them whole heartedly living behind Islamic law then that could be called a worship. And a Muslim's obedience to secular government amounts to worship, as we have said earlier, if they contravene Islamic laws, you follow them whole heartedly, you abandon Islamic law then it means you are worshipping, if you see them as a substitute to Islamic laws, then that amounts to worship.

ZA1 [24830-25621]

So if a Muslim comes across a law that is contrary or is against the teaching of Qur'an and hadith and without any imposed on him and he agree and he follow, there is a problem. But now since Nigeria is not a secular state, America is not a secular state in their physical statement, so you can't force me to do what is against my religion. If you are talking about paying or traffic, this is not law, this is between, is an agreement between me and you. So that we can have maybe at least we can have good relation, but if you are talking about worship, nobody in America now will force you to go to church or to go to mosque, nobody will force you. And if you are worshipping Allah (SBUH), you are going to mosque, you are going to church, you are going to anything, nobody will say stop.

ZA2 [22927-22952]

Hmmm no, no, no, no, no.

ZA3 [20103-20598]

Emm there are some certain circumstances that emm it could become a worship, but not all the time, but in a situation where what is primary and what is universally accepted in religion and the law of the land or the secular laws are forbidden that, example, if there is a law that forbids you from going for prayers or for fasting as it happened recently in China, some people were denied because they say it is affecting the productivity. In such circumstance the laws are becoming anti Islamic

ZA4 [40674-41135]

Emm you know any secular government like Nigeria now because we are, we have different types of people, so we have to come with one common goal, so at least this is lawful, is become necessary because there is no how you can, and they say if you want o propagate your religion it will be a problem, right? So if you want to practice your religion is going to be...you are praying that success of your religion should prevail, but you cannot force it on people.

ZA5 [22909-23081]

When you submitted your life entirely to the secular state in which everything instead of you to ask from God, you feel like if you don't go to them you will not get it.

ZA6 [54461-54922]

(he laughs) I don't think, it does not amount to worship. You are only obeying a lay down rules and regulations ahh it's a kind of, there is a lay down rules and regulations that if you disobey you will be punished. Even in a Sharia, this cannot amount to worship. Even in a sharia state, there are also laid down rules and regulations and if you defile anyone, you will be punished. So I don't think its obeying the secular authority is a way of worship, no.

ZA7 [23737-24090]

The only way a Muslim's submission to secular authority becomes worship is in when that particular secular law preaches or binds the Muslims to worship more than Allah or more than one God which is Allah and that is only the condition and when its goes ah when it doesn't go in accordance with the teaching of the Qur'an and the hadith of our prophet.

ZA8 [54027-54436]

No. It does not amount to worship. They are, it is also a rule on them to follow whoever their leaders are because it is enjoined on every Muslim that you must follow your leaders, you must respect them and you must obey them. You can only disobey, like I said, you can only disobey them when they tell you to do something that is contrary to what God ask you to do. That is when you go your separate ways.

ZA9 [28124-28541]

That is if there are restriction on how their religion should be practiced, which I don't think any law in this country as of today states for each Nigerian, everybody has his right, we have, there is fundamental human right, we have the right to vote, right to be voted for, right to practice your religion. I don't think any secular law is limiting Muslims to practice their religion. No. I disagree with that point

ZA10 [26717-26890]

No. It can only amount to worship when they see it as the totality and they actually have strong faith in it that if is not, no more anything that is when it is un-Islamic.

ZA11 [21731-22101]

Well, worship is a total submission, secular laws are made by man and if you go by them whether they are conducive or not, it could be called worshipping because at a point is just like they giving you a hell or heaven to choose from and then you don't have this thing, but well a Muslim can go with the secular if it does not contradict the teachings of his religion.

ZA12 [12533-12824]

Well, when a Muslim starts deviating from the teachings, because in a secular society, the rules and regulations maybe almost the same as the teaching of Islam, so by the time one is going as in is acting against constitution of Islam and the secular society then his getting out of his way.

ZA13 [13063-13395]

Ahh I think if you stay within restriction of Allah, you are been bounded by a secular government, staying within restriction of Allah because this combine all teachings and the secular government, it combines both teachings of Muslims and non Muslims, so when you stay within restriction of Allah you are also involved in secular.

ZA14 [17399-17580]

Yes when it becomes a worship is when there is the law of Allah and they say that you should go against the law of Allah that is when it becomes you are worshipping the secular law.

ZA15 [21117-21122]

No.

ZA16 [14271-14591]

No, it does not amount to worship, but it can be, it can amount to worship when he totally submit, I mean totally submit that he agreeing with the constitution of the secular state, but if he take it as Dharur that he is following the constitution of the secular state, then he is not worshipping, he is not worshipping.

ZA17 [15283-15683]

Well is the way you take it, it is the way you take it because our own din is linient, anything intension, intension of doing it, if it goes beyond the limit then that is where you will be worshipping because if I because I wanted to be very obedient you are use to bow to you and Rasulillah said don't bow. I hope you get me and if you go to the maybe majalisa and you are bowing to one creature ah.

ZA18 [19884-20267]

You see, there is the tradition of the prophet that says (he recites a verse of the Qur'an), there are certain things that one could be compelled to do, you understand, anything that you are compelled to do, God will over look that, but something that you do intentionally and you know it is against the tenets of the religion, then Allah will now punish whoever, if he so desires.

ZA19 [26362-26815]

No. Submitting to secular authority could not necessarily mean worshipping because a secular state does not actually call for, ah the way to worship actually has to do with spirituality, so a secular state does not call for worshipping some ah, I mean it's own ideology because there is no prevailing ideology in a secular state, therefore, there is no form of worshipping based on my own opinion, when Muslims submit to the secular rules and authority.

ZA20 [16017-16419]

It will be worship to a secular government if you a Muslim make the laws by yourself and go by those laws to rule you and you allow those laws to work on you out of your choice. That one is you know is a glorious injustice to God. God created you and provided laws for you to go by and respect and you say no I am not going by those laws provided by God. You are now creating your own. That is foolish.

ZA21 [21122-21478]

We said if you are practicing a religion aside from Islam then you are a non-Muslim. Obeying authorities does not entail one is worshipping such an authority. When exactly a government says you should not worship your God then you refrain from that without migrating that is when they said it amounts to or tantamount to you worshipping such and authority.

ZA22 [19597-19914]

No. I said if somebody has something-you put something in your heart and you practice another thing. You know this is the right thing but since you don't have the power or capability to practice it, Allah knows what is in our hearts. So obedience to such a secular system doesn't mean you are worshipping the system.

ZA23 [26493-26653]

Only when you know the teachings of Islam, something that is ordained on you and you decided to make it ahhh what do you call it, to subdue it to another law.

ZA24 [32691-33225]

If you are obedient to secular government or secular state does not- provided you didn't follow them to their place of worship.

We should not submit ourselves to the extent that whatever they are doing we are going to follow them because prophet Muhammad (SAW) said that anyone that people's ideology is already part of them or are in innovation. Therefore we should be guided by the Qur'an and the hadith. Only what I am saying is that we should allow them to worship what they believe, we should allow them to be with their faith.

ZA25 [28663-28946]

As I have said when a Muslim starts obeying the laws, the legislations that directly negate some critical and central and very important principles in Islam then that amounts to serving more than one God. It means you have divided you al-be'a between God and such a secular system.

ZA26 [14604-14693]

Secular authorities they deny Muslims their own worship that is why Muslims reject them.

ZA27 [13185-13305]

No. It is when -if it goes contrary to the teachings of Islam, if such a thing goes contrary to the teachings of Islam

ZA28 [25769-25817]

This secular, secular authority they are words...

ZA29 [37315-38181]

No. When you submit to secular government does not mean you worship it. It only means you agree to observe the rules and regulations that do not interfere with your own religion because in some secular governments like take for example in our country, let say South Africa or let's say in America. They observe gayism, they allow gayism in their community. I am coming, they allow gays in their community and that is a secular government. Do you want to say that because you agree with the secular government you practice gayism? No. You won't do that. So Muslims agreeing with the secular government does not mean they worship the secular government, but rather they pick the rules and the regulations and they are ready to abide except on one condition that those rules and regulations they do not interfere with the rules and regulations of their religion. Yes.

ZA30 [47955-48251]

In some instances, it could be because Islam means testifying to oneness of Allah, believing he is the only one that deserved to be worshipped. But, when you enter Majalisa that is the house of assembly or the senate then you will bend down to a stick, so you know what you did there (laughing).

ZA32 [52021-52571]

Yes, the obedience of Muslim to secular ah government or authority becomes worship when it disallowed them to worship Allah, to worship their creator. Really, when Muslim is allowed to worship Allah and he worships and when he is allowed to obey ah secular government and he obeys we cannot say he is worshipping that government unless and until when he physically disobey Allah as a role of that government or the government provide something that is, that contradicts Islamic provision, there and then we can call him as a worshipper of government.

ZA35 [13600-13608]

No idea

ZA36 [20937-20950]

It doesn't.

ZA37 [28720-28866]

If they make that obedience with their faith thinking that it is the best way not that of Islam. That is when it would become a sort of worship.

ZA38 [31838-32046]

Actually I don't believe because you adhere to the rules of secular state based on agreement and you say it amounts to worship, no. As far as the secular state is conducive for you to worship, good and fine.

ZA39 [42776-43182]

Actually, you know, worshipping simply means when you ask somebody to be worshipping you in an ordinary way, so a Muslim's obedience in a secular state becomes worship when the authority asks him to worship them and if not then I don't understand you. Aha a Muslims obedience becomes worships when he worships the authority in a manner he worships his creator that is God or Allah. That is how it becomes.

Th11.5: Obedience to Secular Authority as Following the Din of the Secular Authority

FG1 [41483-41503]

No I don't think so

FG1 [41517-41616]

Secular laws are applied in Nigeria too, but most of us are still Muslims. Others are even pagans

KD2 [19704-19719]

I don't agree.

KD3 [15228-15240]

I disagree.

KD4 [33210-33614]

I totally disagree with it. I may be an advocate of the secular law, but I may not pursue and I may not obey their din because in a secular state, there are many dins, in a secular state, there is Christianity, there is Paganism, there is Judaism, there is whatever ism you can find. But in a true Muslim state, there is only Islam and Islam is the true din. (he recites a verse of the Qur'an) al-Islam.

KD5 [17273-17293]

I disagree totally.

KD6 [32561-32780]

If you say secular authorities, in this secular authorities that you are saying, is there muslims there? There is non-muslims there, if they authorize you to follow what Allah forbids, you will never follow their rule.

KD7 [24104-24240]

No, secular authority. Secular does not have religion, they do not believe in anything, so they do not even have the din to begin with.

KD8 [46233-46543]

No. Secularism is not din. Secularism is not religion, it's just a concept that of trying to neutralize, it is a concept of neutralization, you understand, you try to neutralize your faith, you understand (yes). So, it is not a din. It's just a, it may be, it may not necessarily be, it could be an ideology.

KD9 [29550-30195]

Hmm No. I think it still takes us back to may be the last but one the question you asked. depending on what you have in mind, what you believe in your mind. So, you know, you go along with them just to benefit the Umma, but in your mind you know this is kufr, am not together with him in kufr, but let's just do it, let's just do it. your intention (he recites a verse on niyya) So your intention is just to safeguard, in a dire situation the country is being ruled by non-Muslims or secularism, but we have Muslims in the society, so what do we do? We tag along, but in our mind we maintain our Iman and continue to pray to Allah to assist us.

KD10 [23897-24225]

No. Following secular authority is not following their din, no it is not in all totality, no. You know its not that following their din. You are following secular authority, you obey the secular authority. Are you getting me? Where it is, if the laws are good and beneficial and that does not mean that you are follow its din.

KD11 [26661-26676]

No. I disagree

KD13 [11830-11851]

I disagree with this

KD14 [14515-14527]

I disagree

KD15 [21979-22158]

Yes to follow secular law is to obey their din yes. That is it. That means you obey them, but that doesn't mean you disrespect God. So you need to follow God's law and secular law

KD16 [12568-12845]

My position is two here. To some extent I disagree, to some extent I agree. It depends on the law you have followed. If that law contradicts the teachings of Allah then it is otherwise, but if it does not contradict the teaching of Allah, then you have not worshipped anybody.

KD17 [40048-40317]

No, no, no, no to obey secular authorities. Islam encourages people to follow the law. If laws are established in a place, you have to follow it as far as that is what is obtainable at that moment. If you are being compelled to follow that law, you have to follow it.

KD18 [18420-18433]

I disagree.

KD19 [25081-25097]

No. I disagree.

KD20 [18872-18979]

I disagree. They can be together and not worshipping another God, their God is their God which is Allah. yes

KD21 [16864-17117]

I wouldn't go with agree, I wouldn't go with disagree, I think it has it all has limits here. Here in Nigeria, we do democracy, we have constitution, we are bounded by the constitution and not all constitutional laws and bills go against the religion.

KD23 [18649-18670]

No. I did not agree.

KD24 [60165-60502]

Not complete, not complete because their doings or their rules for example, they said, they may not be necessarily the same completely, hundred over hundred, hundred percent with what the Islam religion says. Then you are to follow those that are according to the Islamic religion and those that are against you should leave them aside.

KD25 [78810-79410]

No. That is not right, that is not right because we have this scholar, there was this comparative prophet by name...Yassin, who was forced by the by the infidels to say that he has renounced Islam, if he should refuse to say that they will kill him and he uttered that just with his mouth, but down the bottom of his heart he still feels that his Iman, so this statement is not really ah true. Ah somebody can utter something just to please that person, maybe because of the situation he or she finds themselves, but eh down the bottom of his heart he had the faith, then there's no cause for alarm.

KD26 [20983-20994]

No, no, no

KD27 [22986-22993]

I agree

KD28 [27350-27366]

I don't agree.

KD29 [16703-16715]

I disagree.

KD30 [28617-29257]

No, for as long as we are having a situation we have in Nigeria, I believe being operating under these secular authority out of option or an agreement being done a very long way which gave us not much option I think is not agreeing with their din, is not following their din, but if you are the one that doesn't care about your religion and like ah won't mind living in the secular state ah to operate to and leave Islam even when we have the chance to have an Islamic state then I think that should be wrong.

Islamic sharia should come first, but if we don't have it we are out of option then we can operate under the secular government.

KD31 [17873-17986]

Yes because if you accept the behaviors of a person or what he is doing then it means you are together with him.

KD33 [21070-21095]

Ah I disagree with this

KD34 [22419-22434]

No I disagree.

KD35 [23808-24100]

I agree so the moment a law is passed or they issue an order, they issue an order, you abide by that and you understand that law of order tampers with God's, the proper thing is really we abide by the rules and regulations of the state so long it does not temper with God's emm revelations.

KN1 [53004-53052]

Does secularism have a din in the first place?

KN1 [53129-53433]

If a secular state declares this is our din, this is our religion and you agree that you are following that religion it means you are out of Islam, but I have never found a situation whereby a secular state says this is our law, this is our religion. I doubt if there is, but if there is and you agree

KN4 [43409-43418]

Disagree

KN5 [22979-23153]

Which one is their din? Do they have din? When you talk of secularism you are talking of non-religious practice in a government. So they don't have any religion ah any din.

KN6 [26386-27060]

So I say, it is not mean that maybe sometimes it can be to follow their din and sometime it cannot be to follow already took this, take this statement into consideration whenever you get any laws, any secularism which is against your teaching of Islam or against the teaching of Quran, or against the teaching of prophet Mohammed and you insist to obey this so you follow them, you worship this secularism and not only this secularism even your money because some people can worship money, some people are, some people are worshipping their house, some people are worshipping even their friends, you can worship your friend if you prefer him rather than your Islamic sharia.

KN7 [23580-23609]

I do not agree. I disagree.

KN8 [24615-24635]

I disagree with it.

KN9 [22375-22414]

This is true; this is true, very true.

KN10 [16993-17005]

I disagree.

KN11 [23007-23154]

Secular authority is not a din but is a law ko that is secular as ah from the way I understand secular is, secular they are not after any religion.

KN13 [25368-25386]

No, I don't agree

KN14 [19684-19698]

Yes I agree.

KN15 [18987-19004]

No, I disagree.

KN16 [9913-9928]

No, I disagree.

KN17 [25982-25984]

No

KN18 [39953-39961]

Is not.

KN19 [23186-23199]

I disagree.

KN20 [17777-17799]

No no no no no no no

KN21 [11473-11499]

No I disagree with that.

KN22 [23446-23466]

I disagree with it

KN23 [15992-16004]

I disagree

KN24 [16275-16277]

No

KN25 [23926-23960]

Yes they are fond of maneuvers.

KN26 [23669-23671]
 No
 KN27 [17918-18147]
 Yes their din, secular authorities I don't think they are bringing into practice their din. I don't think they are bringing into practice their din because it is based on laws of the society, societal laws, so I don't think so.
 KN28 [14644-14658]
 No I disagree
 KN30 [15144-15159]
 I don't agree
 KN31 [21613-21638]
 Hmmm I disagree with that
 KN32 [10341-10378]
 No no no no I don't agree with that.
 KN33 [8339-8358]
 No, it is not true.
 KN34 [13351-13492]
 No it depends one, if such does not contravene any of the provision contained in the holy Qur'an and the hadith then I don't see any reason.

KN35 [14798-14840]
 The secular authority doesn't have a din.
 KN36 [15054-15063]
 Disagree
 KN37 [13832-13846]
 No not at all.
 KN38 [10027-10039]
 I disagree.
 KN39 [17986-17990]
 No.
 KN40 [14831-14841]
 Disagree.
 KN41 [12348-12380]
 I disagree with this assertion.
 KN42 [27614-27773]
 Following secular authorities does not mean following secular din. Secular authority is not a religion, it's ah form of government and Allah knows all things.
 KN43 [21736-21771]
 No at all I don't agree with this.
 KN44 [16094-16132]
 That one I wouldn't equally answer it.
 KN45 [22442-22705]
 To follow sec, I think secular authority has no din. You mean din in the sense of religion, yah the secular authority has no din alone to follow. Secular is secular, you want to operate different from God's, from God's law, yah. So there is no that issue at all.
 KN46 [41183-41203]
 I totally disagree.
 KN47 [40278-40679]
 Secular authority and then you say din. This is contradiction. You say secular authorities, secular authority, secularism has nothing with religion and then when you say din here. Din is a religion. Din is an Arabic word for religion in Arabic, yah in English religion, so when you say somebody is not religious and then you say ok their din is not religion and he has religion. What a contradiction.
 KN48 [12379-12440]
 Because Allah himself asks us to obey the secular authority.
 KN49 [22187-22206]
 No, I don't agree.
 KN50 [10961-11034]
 I disagree because following their din does not mean secular authority.
 KN52 [31645-31796]
 It is not true because there are many Muslims existing and practicing Islam happily without any coercion, you know, in secular context. Why is it so?
 KN53 [14865-14876]
 I disagree
 KN54 [7639-7658]
 Well it is no, no.
 KN55 [8904-8920]
 No. I disagree
 KN56 [14557-14574]
 I don't agree.
 KN57 [14447-14486]
 I agree with this, I agree with this.
 KN58 [33170-33444]
 Hmmm to some extent I disagree because there are certain teachings of the secular world that you don't believe in and because of that you cannot say that you are believing in their religion because they have their own religion. Their new God now is science. So that is it.
 KN59 [25795-26392]

Actually I agree to some extent, you understand, because take for instance like Music, like musicians, American musicians, some of them engage in, they are part of this illuminati or Free Mason, there are some signs and some lyrics being used in those songs, you understand, to us we don't understand what it literarily mean, virtually we don't understand it, we are just after the beat you understand and they are own aim is for them to spread that thing, whenever you practice that thing it is as if you are practicing their own din you understand, so it is as if you are following their din.

KN60 [25327-25343]

I don't agree.

KN61 [12291-12318]

No, I quite do not agree.

KN62 [39791-39836]

I don't disagree, I don't disagree, hmm mm.

KN63 [28623-28887]

Nooo, it depends, you know, if the law is being influenced by their religion, you know, that means you are now keeping down your own religion and following their own, but if at all the law is ordinal law or human made law, you know, there is nothing bad in that.

KN64 [20866-20870]

No.

KN65 [24984-24993]

No, no.

KN66 [15066-15074]

I agree

KN67 [15843-15855]

I disagree.

KN68 [7655-7687]

This has already been answered.

KN69 [28295-28300]

No.

KN71 [48930-48943]

I disagree.

KN72 [25897-25920]

Yes, I agree, I agree.

KN73 [25602-25614]

It is not.

KN74 [36786-36932]

Okay if you say that ehh to obey secular authority is to follow their din this is not a yes this statement I totally disagree, sincerely speaking

KN75 [39469-39481]

I disagree.

KN76 [28608-28731]

No, I don't agree because I live in a secular state like Nigeria and I know that I follow the teaching of Qur'an and Sunna

KN78 [44217-45262]

To obey secular authority is to follow their din. Well and again I would want to clarify, it all depends. You see, for me, ahhm we are guided by the constitution, as I said, for me we are living in a multi-cultural society, ahhm for, for ah for me ah after the amalgamation of Nigeria in 1914, the whole activities of Muslims now, is now subjected by the different law, which is not essentially derived from an Islamic source; so in this context, obeying secular authorities, if you obey secular authority as a Muslim as part of the necessity of existing in a country now called Nigeria, that is not worshipping. It is the rule and Islam tolerated that lalur or necessity sometimes make things that are not lawful to be lawful to you. In so many instances in the Qur'an where we are forbidden to eat certain categories of meat, but out of necessity, I mean, Islam is a very flexible religion. If you are living under a condition that you cannot control, it is beyond your control to live peacefully in that condition, it is acceptable in Islam.

KN80 [34751-34955]

Yes to follow, it depends on how the command is. If the command is protected by the Islam, so there is no harm upon it, but in as long as it contradicts with the verdict of Islam it is harm to follow it.

KN81 [20799-20811]

I disagree

KN82 [24944-24966]

It is it is not true

KN83 [15192-15213]

I totally disagree.

KN84 [18090-18132]

I strongly disagree, I strongly disagree

KN85 [22768-23029]

No, to obey to obey secular authorities is not to follow their din. There is, there can be a Christian or Jewish king, but the laws are not Jewish, they are not Christian. Therefore, obedience to secular authority does not mean obeying or following their din.

ZA1 [25707-26233]

What is a secular din? I want to know that secular religion. What is the secular religion? Are we talking about Buddhism? It is a religion, they have their book. What do you mean by secular religion? Din, if you say a din is an Arabic word meaning two things either religion or day of resurrection. So what do you mean by secular din? I said that country that you are talking about, this western country, they are not secular because they believe in Christianity. So just ask me do I believe in Christianity? I will say no.

ZA2 [23037-24067]

Ahhmmm well that is where we have maybe one of the problem we are facing because we will always be against some of their rules because if any rules is, because the secular society or the secular authority sometimes they may have some certain rules which are against the religion which are against the God's sayings, and in that aspect when it come in the people who are Muslims will say no. Our God could not, our God, our Lord could not teach us this, he said we should be against this and therefore we will not. Take example of emm an issue which was trying to be interpreted sometimes of emm that women eh men are to marry their opponent, women should marry women, something like that. If you could look at both the Christians and the Muslims vow no, no, no, no, it is against religion, our God did not say, but is the secular law that is trying to bring it in, but people said no, no, no, no. So these are some of the issue that use to come in. Those are things that use to come into the mix, so it is always against...wrongly.

ZA3 [20686-20740]

Is not actually true, but to an extent it has facts.

ZA4 [41219-41617]

Secular authority you have to be, is not only to follow their din, sometimes they don't even have din, they just give you the directives that do this, you are the one to weigh it and they don't even make it compulsory. If you don't make it compulsory and even if you do that it will not cause anything to your Islam. Nothing is wrong with that , it is only the one that will cause problems to you.

ZA5 [23227-23521]

No, I disagree with that now. It doesn't mean because I obey you it doesn't mean that anything I do that I will have to do it, is not by force. Is just an obey just feel like ethics. The way of doing things, I have to follow the way you do things that is all, so far is not against my religion

ZA6 [55008-55064]

No, I don't. Like I just said I don't agree with that.

ZA7 [24172-24590]

Well like I said before, I think before most secular laws are set into motion, they must have been revised by Islamic scholars, Christian scholars and other religions of importance to that particular community. So it is not possible for the laws to be set and observed if these Ulamas or these scholars do not really say that yes it is in accordance with Islam. So I think that is the way I can answer that question.

ZA8 [54521-54738]

No, I disagree. You can follow your din like I always say, they are all related, you must, you are doing your religion, following secular authority, you do what they ask you to do, if it is not against your religion.

ZA9 [28693-28705]

I disagree.

ZA10 [26979-27002]

I disagree with that.

ZA11 [22187-22208]

Well, to some point.

ZA12 [12908-12921]

I disagree.

ZA13 [13480-13497]

No, I disagree.

ZA14 [17668-17690]

I Disagree with that.

ZA15 [21210-21230]

I disagree with it.

ZA16 [14679-14691]

I disagree.

ZA18 [20433-20614]

Ok din in Islam, is not following their din, is not following their din, is condition, when the condition, you know, ah is no longer tenable then you now do whatever is the best.

ZA19 [26900-27264]

Just like I have said earlier, there is no prevailing ideology. When I say there is no prevailing ideology, of cause I mean there is no din of which people are to follow in a secular state. Secular state is a state where everyone is free to practice whatever he wants to practice without impinging in one's affairs. So there is no issue of din in a secular state.

ZA20 [16506-17088]

You know there is condition here. If you are to follow those things you are saying, you should follow them, you know, as it has come to you by force not just you like it. That is it. You have to go by the...like now the Nigeria constitution that is working on us, we are just going by it not because we want it, not because we love it, not because we like it. It is because the elites who have organized those laws out powered us and there is nothing we can do them, but we have to know that those laws are not from God and we are not liking them. These are the laws of God we like.

ZA21 [21565-21775]

No to obey secular authority does not amount to you following their din. You can live under a government that is secular yet you are not practicing their religion. You can be practicing your religion as well.

ZA22 [19998-20023]

No, I totally disagree.

ZA23 [26737-26989]

Whether you follow their din or you didn't follow their din if you agree to follow secular reason to leave the things of your religion and follow the common law what is just common to your understanding then automatically one becomes something else.

ZA24 [33310-33604]

I disagree. We should not follow their din we know that we have only one God and all the pillars of slam and the pillars of iman. Therefore if we are following secular system of government – secular authority, it doesn't mean that you are to follow their din. Everyone should do his religion.

ZA25 [29033-29386]

I disagree. It all depends on the extent in which you obey. Yes , the extent to which you obey. If you just-though we know to obey secular authorities they always ask for absolute loyalty. But a Muslim is not obliged to that. You give them partial loyalty that is you are loyal to them to the extent to which they do not negate the teachings of Islam.

ZA26 [14780-14844]

I disagree with that. I am a secular man, but Islamically wise

ZA27 [13392-13422]

No, I didn't agree with that

ZA28 [25901-25937]

I really don't want to comment on...

ZA30 [48373-48837]

There are some certain things that you will do, when I am staying here as I normal person, I don't even know what will relate me to other things like, like bending down to a stick, but somebody who involve in such act, he too may be you can give him hanzari, I don't know, may be if he did not go there, so also the effect of that one will be greater than him to be there. So, as I said earlier, we should just refer back to Islam is not rigid, Islam is flexible.

ZA31 [20157-20538]

To some extent, you have to, you have to agree if it is not contrary to your teachings of Islam. You know there are some secular, seculars in, in the government that your religion didn't accept it, so that I, I don't advice to, as in I don't advice people to bridge their religion's teachings in order to satisfy as in to satisfy some particular created rules which is not by God.

ZA32 [52660-53311]

I did not agree because among the secular authority there are Muslims leaders and there are even non-Muslims, I believe that they cannot physically say you have to disobey Allah or you have to leave your religion and follow us, they can't say that and everyone has his freedom under this to practice his religion, so that eh you cannot say you are following their din, they have no din, they have no din, only Allah's din, din of Allah is the only din we believe in and ehm to just to follow, to obey them is not, you are, in fact, in Islam we are strongly commanded, strongly commanded, vehemently prohibited from disobeying leaders. That is that.

ZA33 [14540-14985]

I disagree with that because to obey secularist-a secularist authority does not come directly or indirectly to bring you or to enforce his religion on you. But rather he uses his secularist ideas to get your wealthy materials be it mineral resources, the agricultural products and something that he can benefit directly or indirectly, but a secularist state to some extent is not conflicting with – obeying it is not prohibited to some extent.

ZA34 [31729-32100]

Well to obey secular idealism it depends on how somebody perceives it. If somebody perceives it as a way that somebody should have complete agreement with the secular state that is following their din. But maybe you are compelled as we are compelled to follow the secular idea, we just have to follow the secular idea because we have no power to change it. that is that.

ZA35 [13738-13751]

I disagree.

ZA36 [21035-21048]

I disagree.

ZA37 [28952-28968]

No, I disagree.

ZA38 [32132-32143]

I disagree

ZA39 [43268-43451]

No, I don't agree because there is a limit to the obedience. When you obey a secular authority within the power Allah has given them, Allah has seen he is looking over your affairs.

Th11.6: Muslims Seeking Political Office Contravene Islam

FG1 [42710-43392]

In fact it is a true Muslim that should seek for electoral position because he will like to implement them, good deeds and the sayings of the sharia. And the first statement saying that Muslims are contravening Islamic teachings is true because, am not trying to somehow politicize the present something, even the past experience we have experienced in this current state-Kano state is somehow manipulative because our ideas were Islamically manipulated. And the most simplest thing in this society to get the masses following you is to come with any religious ideas. So with your ability to speak religiously to people will have you the votes of the masses so that is what I think.

FG1 [43561-43579]

No they are not

FG1 [43581-43940]

They are contravening because this people are saying whoever says he is and he is not, and if we take this as ammm, we can see that when you come and say vote for me you will tell people that you are honest, you are this and definitely if this will be applied to you whoever says he is and he is not therefore if you say you are true then you are not honest

FG1 [43948-44464]

In addition to his comment just take this present administration as an example he did not come to us with any Islamic thinking or any Islamic say to the electorate, we as the electorate but when he mounted the mountain of leadership he implemented some Islamic principles into the state. Just imagine the number of unmarried females we have in the society, imagine the number of adultery committed in the society has been reduced to some extent by the government joining them together in marriage and a lot of this.
